Summer Bible Course

Three courses in Bible will be offered for college credit at West Texas State College in Canyon during the summer term which begins June 10th and closes August 16, 1947. The courses will be Old Testament History and Literature; New Testament History and Literature; and The Life of Christ which is a study of the Gospel story of the ministry and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth.

 These fully accredited courses are made possible through an arrangement of the college with the Baptist General Convention of Texas which provides the building, the text-books, library facilities and teacher. Miss Eula V. Potter is in charge of this department in Canyon, and the courses offered during the recent long term were well received by students of several denominations since they are non-sectarian in content.

Threat of Hoppers Looming

Farmers of the state are being urged by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service to start control measures against millions of grasshoppers that are hatching now.
 Entomologists of the Extension Service say that poison bait put out now to kill the young hoppers can prevent a lot of damage to the state's row crops. Grasshopper infestations were large last season and the hatch this spring points to another big year for the insects.

Frosted Coffee Raisin Cookies

Frosted Coffee Raisin Cookies can be the pride of either the cookie jar or the tea party. A tempting array of flavorings—including brown sugar, coffee, raisins, nuts and cinnamon are blended in just the right proportions in this recipe.
 The cookies are as satisfying and nutritious as they are flavorful. Made from enriched flour, they provide valuable amounts of protein and B vitamins as well as energy-giving carbohydrates. They're easy and quick to make, too. The batter is spread in a shallow pan, baked in a moderate oven and cut into small bars. While still warm from the oven the bars are topped with a thin confectioner's sugar icing.
Frosted Coffee Raisin Cookies
 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 cup shortening
 1 cup brown sugar
 1 egg
 1/2 cup hot coffee
 1/2 cup raisins
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 Confectioner's sugar icing
 Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and cinnamon. Cream together shortening and sugar. Add egg. Mix well. Add coffee gradually. Mix thoroughly. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture. Add raisins and nuts. Spread in shallow 11x16 inch greased pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. While still warm, drizzle with confectioner's sugar icing. Yield: 24 1x3 inch bars.

According to information received by the Extension Service from the USDA Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine office at Waco, grasshopper surveys show that the insects have shown up in large numbers in the following counties: Erath, Jack, Archer, Wichita, Clay, Wise, Denton, Dallas, Collin, Hunt, Kaufman, Ellis, McLennan, Falls, Robertson, Brazos, Burleson, Washington, Austin, Bastrop, Gonzales, Karnes, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Hays, Travis and Williamson.
 The Extension entomologists say that most all counties have grasshopper bait on hand, and that farmers may contact their county agricultural agent for help in getting the bait and putting it out.

"Bone-Jarring" Rodeo To Be Held In Lubbock June 11-14

LUBBOCK—The American Business Club here is proceeding with plans for the World's Championship Rodeo which will feature Gene Autry. The rodeo one of the biggest ever presented on the Plains, will be held at Tech Stadium, June 11-14. Sharing top billing with Autry is his horse, Champion, Junior. Everett Colburn, manager of the rodeo, with headquarters at the famous Lightning C. Ranch, Dublin, Texas, has the most outstanding aggregation of cowboys and rodeo stock in the world. The bone-jarring, spine-busting bucking broncs grow up on the Lightning C. South Plains fans will see such outstanding examples of wicked horses as Kickapoo, Hell Diver, Star Bright, Whiskey Gap, Bear Park, and Conclusion.
 Steer wrestlers match their skill against wiry Mexican Steers imported from below the Rio Grande. The brahma calves and brahma steers used in the calf roping and bull riding events are brought up to the Lightning C from the Texas Gulf Coast. Careful selection on the ranch enables Colburn to present only the best and fastest animals in the rodeo.

 One of the more interesting features of the show is the herd of Longhorns owned by the ranch. These once proud rulers of the Plains are the largest single collection of the type now known. They form the backbone for some of Gene Autry's numbers, lending a real touch of the Old West.
 Tickets for the rodeo may be obtained by sending a cashier's check or money order to 1007 Main, Lubbock, Texas. Proceeds go to the capital fund of the Lubbock Boys Club.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

Hundreds of letters from Texas pecan growers have led horticulturists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service to explain the why's and wherefore's of phylloxera, which are tiny insects showing up now on pecan leaves.
 The sign that growers are asking about is the small, wart-like growth on pecan leaves. That growth, say horticulturists, is the crown, or gall, in which the small white insects grow. Phylloxera actually do not do a great deal of harm to Texas pecans, since they have many natural enemies that keep them down.

Clean-Up Advised As Best Control Of Polio Spread

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of poliomyelitis which is now occurring in certain sections of the State.

At one time it was generally believed that this infection was transmitted primarily by discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis may be another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore, control measures must include clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate house-flies, mosquitoes, and rodents to destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems, and secure safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is necessary to install and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All swimming pools should maintain those standards approved by the Texas State Department of Health. This includes maintenance of proper chlorine level. Where such standards are not maintained, those pools should be closed to the public.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from filth and insects. All food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. Those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation, should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitation standards.

Approved milk supplies, rodent control measures, high sanitation standards, and strict personal hygiene are all important. Polio cases should be

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Go to Sleep

We were sitting around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness... like breathing real slow and deep, imagining that you weigh a ton, or simply throwing away the pillow.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There were some votes for countin' Marinos, Shrophshires, Oxfords and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best luck counting crossbreeds.

Finally, Bert Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax . . . and "ho hum," off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the creases of the day, relax a body, and pave the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

quarantined for 14 days and excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is illness. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts, especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theatres be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Glenn Woodruff has returned to his home here from Lubbock, where he has completed work at Texas Tech.

MIDGET AUTO RACES START AT LUBBOCK

Lubbock's 1947 midget auto racing season got underway, May 29, with a nine-race program at the Panhandle South Plains Fair grounds.

Lloyd Ruby of Wichita Falls took top money in the opening session. He had the evening's fastest time of 17.5 seconds. Other drivers here for the first races of the season included Don Brown, Wichita Falls and Red Dowdy, Dallas.

Races ranged in distance from eight to 20 laps around the one-fifth mile caliche track. Altho hampered by a muddy track the first night, officials expect drivers to set new speed marks at future races.

The races will continue each Thursday night thruout the summer. Time trials begin at 7:30 p. m. Races start at 8:00 p. m.

SPRINGS FIRM WINS RECOGNITION FOR GRIND, MIX SERVICE

Red Ball Feed & Grain of Roaring Springs has won recognition for the accuracy and uniformity of its custom grinding and mixing service. The local firm recently received a Certificate of Mixing Accuracy for 1947 following analysis at the Ralston Purina Company, St. Louis, Mo., of samples taken from regular mixes prepared for customers of the mill. Proper mixing of ingredients has become recognized as an increasingly important factor in feeding efficiency. Ralston Purina requires that all samples vary not more than one-half of one per cent to qualify for the Certificate. The certificate will be posted in a prominent place at the Red Ball Feed & Grain as evidence of the ability of the local equipment to service farmers with custom mixing that will help them achieve maximum production from their grains.

Durbin At Abilene

Algie Lee Durbin of Matador, an ex-service man, is now enrolled as a freshman student in Abilene Christian College, Abilene. He is one of 615 students going to Abilene Christian College on the GI bill, according to the college Registrar's office. The Abilene institution has an enrollment of 1440 students from 35 states, the District of Columbia, and nine foreign countries.

Eighty-six per cent of the veterans in Abilene Christian College are members of the Church of Christ, and six per cent belong to other religious groups. Most popular major field chosen by Veterans is business administration, with Bible a close second. Vocational choice of these men range from farming and ranching to geology, journalism, and electronics. The average veteran was in service two years and nine months, and nine per cent served more than four years.

CORRECTION

The last paragraph in the story concerning James Lee Day which appeared in last week's Tribune, was inadvertently omitted, and should have read: "In the fall semester of his senior year he was student teacher for Dr. T. C. Carter's Zoology class and served in that capacity in Prof. Lisk's Chemistry class during the spring semester."

LEGAL NOTICE
SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4
 proposing an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of two new sections to be known as Sections 17 and 18 providing a special fund for the payment of Confederate pensions and providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning; providing for a five-cent reduction in the maximum allowable state tax on property; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE

OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto Sections 17 and 18 which shall read as follows:
Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article 3, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate hereinabove levied.

Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings, or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning; and the government board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereunder authorized; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.
Funds raised from said Five (5c) Cents tax levy for the ten (10) year period beginning January 1, 1948, are hereby allocated to the following institutions of higher learning, and in the following proportions, to wit:

Not later than June 1st of the beginning year of each succeeding ten (10) year period, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, based on the average long session full-time student enrollment for the preceding five (5) year period of time, shall re-allocate to the above designated institutions of higher learning then in existence, all funds to be derived from said Five (5c) Cent ad valorem tax for said ten (10) year period; and all such designated institutions of higher learning which participate in the allocation or re-allocation of such funds shall not thereafter receive any other state funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Five (5c) Cents ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring sponsored by Nocona. The plan was headed by Miss Enid Justin, chairman of the publicity committee. Amon G. Carter, famed Ft. Worth publisher, fired the starting pistol for the pony express jaunt across the western plains to Treasure Island, site of the San Francisco Exposition. Davidson was backed by Bill Meyer of Flomot. Riding two nine-year-old horses "Rocket" and "Ranger", Davidson pulled ahead of the leading man, T. J. Sykes of Devoil, Oklahoma, before reaching El Paso. Traveling with tail lights on their saddles, the riders began the long trip across the southern New Mexico desert. Sykes' smaller horse became disabled in Deming, N. M., March 11, and he withdrew from the race.

Davidson crossed the Arizona border and the same day (March 15) rode into Phoenix bareback, still in the lead. He was escorted into the city by police motorcycles with sirens screaming. He changed mounts, put a saddle on a fresh horse and rode to the capitol to be welcomed by Arizona's governor, Bob Jones.

The sunburned Flomot youth (then 22) was the first to push his mount across the muddy Colorado river, stopping in Indio, California to treat his blistered lips and ask, "How much further is the ocean?"

An Associated Press account of his arrival in Oakland, March 24, 1939, is as follows: "The Texas-to-Oakland pony express race ended today for Shannon Davidson, who collected 750 shiny new dollars as first prize winner, for riding almost 2,000 weary miles.

"Davidson, tanned cowboy from Motley county left Nocona March 1, with 17 other contestants. He arrived at the trail's end in Oakland at 11:50 a. m. today.

"He swung into the saddle for the last time and rode 200 yards down 'Rainbow Ramp' onto the fairgrounds proper... his horses pranced while photographs were being made and the rider smiled. A cowboy band played a lively tune... King Kerley of Quanah, Texas, the only other rider to give Davidson any kind of competition, still lagged nearly 100 miles behind. Others dropped out along the wayside.

Accompanied By Friends—Accompanying Davidson in an auto and trailer were two friends, Bill Meyer and Wood Bird. The trailer carried a second horse with Davidson exchanging mounts every 25 miles.

He rode from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily, averaging about seven miles per hour. The horses received the best of care."

The horses then belonged to Roy George. Hundreds of letters bearing pony express stamps were carried to California in leather pouches on Davidson's saddle and mailed back to all parts of the nation.

Shannon Davidson remained in California to make screen tests after the ride and he later appeared in several western motion pictures.

Honored At Home—Greatest tribute ever tendered a resident of the county followed his winning the 2,000-mile race. "Shannon Davidson Day" was celebrated here May 8 (1939), in tribute to the winner. A mile-long parade, led by the Motley county youth and Miss Enid Justin, donor of the prize money, opened the colorful pageant. Thus tragedy ends the colorful chapter of a youth who won and kept the hearts of the people of Motley county. In the words of the California Associated Press writer, "He swung into the saddle for the last time and rode 200 yards down 'Rainbow Ramp' onto the fairgrounds proper."
