

3rd Blizzard Hits Weather-groggy Panhandle

STAGGERING from the blows to two blizzards in rapid succession, the Texas Panhandle took a third strike on the chin early Monday morning which sent the mercury skidding out of a comfortable 62 Sunday reading, covering the ground with ice, sleet and snow and paralyzing traffic on all roads in this area.

Warmer weather was forecast for today but skies were still heavy at a late hour yesterday and intermittent snow and sleet was falling. Ranchers and farmer-stockraisers said that live-stock damage would be light in the county with the possible exception of the Matador ranch, where poor cattle in some pastures may perish. However, this section of Texas is suffering very little in comparison to easterly areas in north and west states where millions of dollars in frozen and starving cattle has created national emergency. "Operation Feedlot" demanding the service of Army Air Corps "flying boxcars" is operating in northern states in attempt to deliver life-saving hay by air to thousands of head of cattle stranded in great snow drifts.

Greatest benefit of the extreme January weather in the Texas Panhandle is the official breaking of the extended drought. Moisture from the rain, snow and sleet here since Sunday amounted to .77 inch, according to City Water Superintendent H. O. Stanfield, bringing the total to 2.19 inches since the beginning of extreme weather.

Official thermometer readings in Matador beginning Sunday were: High 47, low 28; Monday high 62, low 17; Tuesday high 19, low 12 and Wednesday high 22, low 14. (Readings are for the preceding 24 hours, beginning at 8 a. m.)

Matador schools were closed Tuesday and yesterday because of dangerous road conditions. Most schools in the upper and western Panhandle were closed. Drivers were warned off in all major highways except in cases of extreme emergencies.

Tournament Delayed
Outsiders independent basketball tournament sponsored by the Matador Volunteer Fire Department, scheduled to open in the Matador school gymnasium Tuesday evening, through Friday was postponed until next week, according to Fire Chief Raby Webb. The new schedule of the tournament is Tuesday, February 1, each evening, thru Friday, February 4th.

Games are scheduled as follows: Thalia and Petersburg Tuesday at 6:30 (opening game); Lockney and Matador, Wednesday at 8:30; Wellington and Plainview, Tuesday at 7:30; Roaring Springs and Carey, Wednesday at 7:30; Turkey and Abernathy, Wednesday at 6:30; Thomas Tinklers of Lubbock and Flomot, Wednesday at 9:30 Idalou (bye team) will play the winner of the Thalia-Petersburg contest Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. Teams in the race for third place will play at 8 p. m. Friday and first and second place contests will be played at 9 p. m. Friday.

High school conference basketball games with Lockney scheduled for Tuesday, February 1, will be played early (perhaps 5:30) in order to avoid conflict with the Outsiders' tournament which opens at 6:30.

High School Superintendent Bert Ezzell said last night that the formerly delayed high school conference game with Crosbyton will be played Monday night.

THREE BLIZZARDS AGO this scene was made on Main street west of the courthouse square, looking south. Second and current third blizzards each left greater quantities of ice and snow on the ground. Rapid thawing of second snow and ice-fall caused water to run curb-high in some downtown streets where flow was impeded by drifts left by State Highway snow plows. Entire January cold weather has been unusual by absence of wind. (Meador Photo).

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Riding out of the brush country before his feet were comfortable in boots, the cowboy liked the great grassy vistas of the west. He liked the endless challenge of riding into new country with another distant purple ridge always inviting like the unturned leaf of a book before him. Great distances and solitude; years of meditation made him a silent man. His eyes had the faraway look of a dreamer listening to soft music. His old spurs are silent now; he has beheld the splendor of eternity's endless horizons.

We are frequently misunderstood because we lack conviction of our words.

If a man must denounce his weaknesses in order to establish the strength of his character, he then advances beyond recognized boundaries of average human society. The greatest teacher is but slightly in advance of the student.

Even an idiot can frequently make a large number of people laugh; comedians get paid for it.

It probably would not help sales but some mechanical ice box manufacturer might try giving away a radio announcer with each of a few dozen refrigerators.

Of course the hot house of politics can produce a wonder plant on short notice, but it seems as if the Republicans have almost run out of seed.

Hunger is life's outstanding inspiration to industry; its single fault is the desperation with which it is attended, frequently shortening its scope to the necessity of earning a crust of bread.

Each season has its special endowment and I am always reluctant to let one go in exchange for another. They are the four fires that burn the slender fuel of a lifetime.

When sorrow extends its shadowy awning across our little paths and the heart is filled to overflowing with the bitterness and futility of tears, there is sublime sweetness in the truth of friends. Their words are like glittering stars swinging below the clouds.

A friend has a favorite story about the old cowboy whose lack of sobriety was a community problem. Near the weekend the rider said, "Tomorrow is Saturday and I've got to get drunk tomorrow night, and I shore dread it." More truth may be contained in the statement than is apparent for the sake of a joke. My experience with drunkards has been extensive and I believe most excessive drinkers approach the state of intoxication against their wills. The exceptions are probably the unfortunate ones who drink to forget, knowing they will remember more, and that they will be unable to escape their troubles.

Voters To Decide Roaring Springs Tax-Hike Issue

Plan of a proposed school maintenance tax increase from $1 to $1.50 per $100 property valuation, will be decided by the property-owning voters of the Roaring Springs public school district, Saturday, January 29. The election will be held at the Roaring Springs city hall.

"Most schools in the area already have the $1.50 rate," Leo C. Purvis, Roaring Springs superintendent declared.

"It is the desire of the school board and school officials that all qualified voters exercise their rights at the Saturday election," Mr. Purvis said, "and we want each voter to vote exactly as his opinion dictates. We are striving for a representative vote indicating the sentiments of the majority of the people."

Varner McWilliams' Work Commended In Vocational Ed

Work by Varner McWilliams as Motley county Vocational Education school coordinator, is highly satisfactory to the state board according to a letter dated January 19, received by Motley County School Board President M. S. Patton. The letter signed by W. E. Lowry, executive-director, is as follows:

"Attached hereto is a copy of our recent audit of the Motley Vocational School. Please allow me to compliment you people on the effort you have made to bring this type of program to the veterans of your county. Kindly study the audit carefully so that you may be informed of its findings and recommendations.

"We would like to particularly commend the coordinator (Varner McWilliams of Whiteflat) for his efficiency in complying with the regulations for having on file signed receipts for all books, equipment and consumable supplies issued to individual veterans. It is apparent from the audit report that the school is being operated in an efficient manner."

Mr. Beauchamp was appointed by President Truman after being recommended by Governor Beauford Jester. Mr. Beauchamp was advised of his appointment by Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, state director of Selective Service.

"I am sure your membership on this board will reflect great credit to yourself and the Selective Service System of Texas," General Berry wrote Mr. Beauchamp.

Students Expound Ideas For Training In The Home Before Parents-Teachers

One of the most interesting programs to be given before the Matador Parent-Teacher Association was presented last Wednesday afternoon when five high school seniors conducted a round table discussion on the subject: "The home, a practical laboratory to train for homemaking and economic independence." The panel discussion was led by Patti Pipkin.

"My idea of homemaking and entertainment in the home," declared Dorothy Traweck, "is that a child should be taught to do the work in the home where they will be capable of managing their own home. Children should be raised on a budget of time, where the minimum amount of time can be spent on different activities. Children should be taught to entertain themselves with hobbies, reading or constructive entertainment. When entertaining in the home a child should be taught

Pioneer W.R. Cammack Is Claimed By Death

Sudden death Sunday night of pioneer Wm. R. Cammack, 70, county judge of Motley county for 18 years, shocked this weather-bound community when the news was circulated early Monday. Judge Cammack Saturday visited with friends on the streets of Matador, having just recovered from an attack of flu and pneumonia. Becoming ill Sunday, he was conveyed to Traweck hospital late in the evening and died almost immediately afterwards. He was not a candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge, in 1948. Due to failing health, and retired January 1, from the office he had held since 1930.

William Richard Cammack

Funeral services were held at the Matador Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. Clifford Potts, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. B. Vaughn, Methodist pastor here several years ago. Interment was made in East Mound cemetery under direction of McDonald Funeral Home, and pallbearers were Bill Pipkin, Elmer Stearns, Loyd Ladd, Pat Sheridan, Noble Groves and John Hamilton.

Matadors To Play Crosbyton And Lockney Next Week

The Matador boys and girls basketball teams are scheduled to play four games here next week.

Those interested in securing tickets write to: J. E. Elza, 410 West Virginia Street, Floydada, Texas.

EARL LAUGHLIN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Death struck for a second time in Matador within four days, when Earl Laughlin, 45, manager of the Leon Ice Company here for the past 13 years, died in Bethania Hospital, Wichita Falls, Texas, about midnight last night, following a major operation on Monday of last week.

Funeral arrangements were pending the arrival home this morning, of Mrs. Laughlin, who was at her husband's bedside at the time of his death. Services will probably be held tomorrow (Friday) at the Methodist church here, and burial made at Rule, Texas. Mr. Laughlin's former home, the Tribune was advised.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Earlene, one son, Gary; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Laughlin of Stamford; one brother, Van Laughlin of Rule, and three sisters: Mrs. B. C. Crenshaw of Houston, Mrs. Frank McKarrol of Angelton, and Mrs. Cliff LaFever of Stamford.

Mrs. J. H. Neblett of Denton is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell.

"The Kid" Passes 86th Milestone With Celebration

J. C. "Kid" Kennedy birthday celebrations are not ordinary affairs. Sunday he celebrated his passing the 86th milestone on life's highways and the celebration lasted most of the day, starting about ten a. m. and ending at 6 p. m.

Rosa's cafe, owned by his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stafford, was closed Sunday to the public to accommodate the birthday party. An old-fashioned organ that had been in the family more than half a century was moved to the cafe. His children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, other relatives and a few friends attended. The group sang old favorite songs with organ accompaniment.

A large table laden with select fare, featuring chicken and dressing, and centered about the birthday cake lettered, "Happy Birthday, Dad," was exceedingly popular at the noon hour. Most of the afternoon was spent in visiting and at tables of "42."

Children attending the celebration were Earl Bloodworth of Lubbock, Mrs. J. E. Eden of San Angelo, Mrs. G. E. Langford of Avinger, Mrs. Roxie Morton of Brownfield, Joe Kennedy of Bronco, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bloodworth and Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Frank Stafford all of Matador.

Grandchildren present were (Mr.) and Mrs. John Briscoe of Matador, (Mr.) and Mrs. Doyle Ranson of Levelland, Mrs. Jacky Bloodworth of Matador and W. L. Bloodworth of Lubbock. Great grandchildren present were: Pat and Jane Briscoe of Matador, and Mary and Suzana Ranson of Levelland. Others attending included Mrs. Ethel New, Mrs. Jim Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence, Raby Webb and Dorothy Webb.

"Kid" Kennedy was born in Collin county, near McKinney, Texas, January 24, 1863. He has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Stafford, in Matador for the past nine years.

CAREY BOYS AND GIRARD GIRLS WIN CAGE TOURNAMENT

Carey high school boys won top final honors by defeating Turkey 35 to 20 Saturday night at the termination of the Roaring Springs high school invitation basketball tournament.

On the distaff side of the schedule Girard high school girls met little opposition as they played straight through to victory in the finals by defeating Turkey high school girls 28 to 18. In this game Bural of Girard was high point champion making 16 of Girard's 28 points. Consolation winners were McAdoo boys and Matador girls.

THE BOOK NOOK

Nestled in the foothills of the Caprock or "brakes" as the old timers say, in the shadow of the plains, the little city of Matador is one of the most progressive towns of its size to be found anywhere.

The town boasts of 4 churches; an outstanding school system; a very active Lions club; American Legion and VFW organization; four active lodges; an active Parent-Teacher Association; girl and boy scout troops; a theatre which brings the latest pictures to the community; and a people who are friendly, neighborly and ever-mindful of the fact that theirs is a good community.

In addition to these assets, there is also a federated study club, the El Progresso Club, which sponsors a library of which a city twice the size of Matador could justly be proud.

The library was founded by the public and its use is not restricted to Matador alone. Residents of adjoining communities are also invited to avail themselves of its facilities, by securing a card and then using it.

New books are added to the shelves each month, and many best sellers have been purchased. In addition to these, many valuable books have been donated by local residents.

The library is located on the first floor of the grade school, and is open every Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. You are invited to visit it during those hours.

Listed below are a few of the new books to be found on the shelves:

"Woman With a Sword" by Hollister Noble. A true story of a woman who was a friend and admirer of Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War. If you like history, facts and courage, read this fast moving story. It is a very educational and entertaining book.

"No Trumpet Before Him" by Nella Gardner White. A Westminster Annual Award for fiction. This is a story of a young minister; a religious novel showing how courage and truth can be upheld at any cost. This book uplifts your spirit, refreshes your mind, and makes you feel truly inspired for days to come.

"Praise at Morning" by Mildred Masterson McNeilly. The story of a man's ambition, and a woman's idealism. This is a story, historical, romantic and good, written in exquisite taste, in sharp contrast to most novels of this age.

Watch for further reviews of the interesting books on the shelves of Matador City Library.

PIONEER FLOYD RESIDENT DIES

Col. W. M. Massey, 83, one of the most extensive landowners of the Panhandle-Plains area, died in Lubbock Memorial hospital Saturday at 12:15 p. m. after an illness of about a year. He had been under treatment at the hospital since Dec. 1.

Col. Massey, who was one of the founders of Floyd county, had been living at the Hilton hotel about a year, moving here from Floydada to be near specialists for treatment.

Helped Found County. Survivors include his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Murray, Harrisburg, Pa.; one son, W. A. Massey, Floydada; three brothers, J. M. and C. M. Massey, Floydada; and Gerald Massey, Atlanta, Ga.; 3 sisters, Misses Betty and Janie Massey and Mrs. W. C. Poston, all of Mineral Wells; and two grandchildren.

Mr. Massey, who owned more than 100 sections of land in an area extending from Amarillo to Midland, was one of the pioneer real estate agents of the South Plains. Moving to Floyd county in 1889, he taught school for a year and received his pay in cedar posts, he often recalled to friends and associates.

He was one of the men participating in the founding of Floyd county in May, 1890, and served as county surveyor. During the two terms he served as surveyor he established the real estate agency which he had operated continuously until he became ill about a year ago.

Once Headed Rail Firm. He represented many large ranch owners and landowners in disposal of the holdings during the past 40 years, including the Howard family of New Orleans in selling off the old F ranch in Floyd county.

He was president of the Llano Estacado Railway company which built the line from Plainview to Floydada. The line was sold to the Santa Fe about the time of its completion in 1910.

He was also the building spirit in the extension of the Quanah, Acme & Pacific railroad, a subsidiary of the Frisco, from Roaring Springs to Floydada in 1928.

Helped Only One Office. Included in his holdings was an eight-section "pasture" extending from near the Floydada city limits south to the Blanco canyon, and many town lots in the Floydada townsite. He acquired most of these lots when the promoters of the townsite decided to move and Mr. Massey purchased all of the remaining lots.

Mr. Massey saw the construction of the first building in the town of Floydada and saw it grow from the small farming community into the prosperous little city it is today.

His real estate firm was known as W. M. Massey and Bros. J. M. Massey has been managing it since he became ill, and C. M. Massey is manager of the Massey Wholesale Co. there.

Always a "behind the scenes" participant in progress of Floydada and Floyd county, the only office he ever held in the community was membership on the school board.

He came to Texas from Virginia with his father as a youth and first settled in Parker county. He came to the South Plains in 1889.

William Curtis Graham, who is attending John Tarellon at Stephenville spent the week-end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bostick of Abilene, former Matador residents, spent the week-end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bostick and friends.

Pied 'Pinoes' BY MR. S. M.

Not being a fancy-worker we have been rather handicapped when our friends met to do needlework and just "visit", and when Helen Patton would call us to bring our work over and sew, we would have to go empty handed, although we have considered taking along a portable and dash off some copy as our handwork. (The idea still appeals to us, to write down the conversations verbatim, as we listen).

However, Helen finally tired of our excuses and became determined that we should learn to do fancy work, and consequently she presented us with a dainty stamped vanity set—to be embroidered, and with the stipulation that we are to do the work ourselves. As an incentive she is offering to tat us some tatting to go around the squares, when we are finished with the embroidery work. (And we do mean work).

We had faint hopes for an excuse when we tried to purchase some embroidery hoops and found that although a local store had just received a shipment, they sold out in one day. But we did not succeed in getting out of it so easily. We were immediately lent some hoops.

So now we are resigned. We are going to embroidery the vanity set even if we are a nervous wreck when it is completed. We might even win a prize at the fair next fall!

Even if it were true that she did, it seems that a doting aunt should be excused for stopping strangers on the street to show them pictures of baby Dale, Big Sister Donna and their older cousins, Nola Lee and Gerald.

We don't know where Gravette, Arkansas, is, but we feel a personal loss in the knowledge that the Joe Wasons are now making that their home. We were just beginning to get acquainted with Mrs. Joe, and we share the opinion of all her friends here that she is a most enjoyable person. We hope they will return here someday to again make their home.

Miss Barbara Fox of Plainview spent the week-end here as guest of John Farris Fish.

Who's A Foreigner?

While I'm waiting for a haircut the other day, Slim Hartman lets slip with a crack about those "foreigners" who live by the depot.

"Now wait a minute, Slim," snaps Doc Sherman. "Don't forget we're all 'foreigners' more or less. Some of our families have simply been here longer than others. But even if they came over on the Mayflower, they were foreigners to the Indians."

Slim gets a little red and you could see that Doc had him. "And the reason they came here," he goes on, "was to find freedom to do and think as they wanted to so long as they didn't tramp on the rights of the other fellow."

From where I sit, America became the great land it is today through our being tolerant of different people and different tastes—whether it's a taste for square dancing or waiting, a radio or movies, goat's milk or a temperate glass of sparkling beer.

Sure, we like to sell tractors and implements, but we try to take a bigger view of our job than that. Our first aim is to help the farmer make more money. His success means our success. So, we make a study of farming, just as the farmer does.

Maybe we have some good ideas that might work well on your farm . . . to save work and make your work pay better. In any case, we want to know you, and your farm better. We are visiting the farms around here and hope to get to yours soon.

Meanwhile, if we can serve you in any way, call up, and we'll come right out. And drop in whenever you are near us. You'll find this is a good place to exchange ideas on the subject that you and we are most interested in . . . more profitable farming.

ALL-DAY CLUB MEETING HELD AT WHITEFLAT

The Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club met Friday for an all-day affair in the home of Mrs. Varner McWilliams.

A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour and following a business meeting and social hour was held.

MRS. CECIL E. BURNEY was Miss Kara Hunsucker

VOWS EXCHANGED AT CORPUS CHRISTI BY KARA HUNSUCKER, CECIL E. BURNEY

Of much interest to friends here was the marriage on Saturday, January 15, at Corpus Christi, Texas, of Miss Kara Hunsucker, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Moore Hunsucker of that city and Cecil E. Burney. The groom is the son of Mrs. F. E. Burney and the late Mr. Burney of Corpus Christi.

The bride, who entered with Harry B. Hill, Jr., was given in marriage by her mother. Her wedding dress of white satin was fashioned with an illusion yoke edged with Chantilly lace. Chantilly lace also formed the peplum effect at the waistline and godets at the bottom of the hooped skirt, which extended into a train.

The wedding veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of pleated illusion, pearlized orange blossoms and Brussels lace. Orange blossoms also were sprinkled over the shorter veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white Eucharist lilies.

Nuptials were performed at the First Presbyterian Church, with Dr. George West Diehl officiating.

The altar had a center arrangement of white gladioli, carnations, and stock on a white pedestal. Smaller arrangements of the same flowers were on each side in front. The choir area was entwined with Southern smilax, and a pyramid of white tapers in the back extended to the smaller floral arrangements.

Kenneth G. White, organist, played a medley of nuptial music which included "Grand Choeur" (Spence), "Cantabile" (Frank), "Aria" (Bach), "Deck Thyself, My Soul With Gladness" (Brahms), "The Wedding"

(Farrar), "Andante" (from Tchaikovsky's Fifth Symphony) and "Song of May" (Johngen).

He accompanied Gosta Englund, baritone, who sang "Calm as the Night" (Bohm) and "Ave Maria" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

corsage was a pale pink camellia. Mrs. Burney wore a dress of dusty rose crepe. Her matching crepe hat had rose feathers and veiling, and she wore a gardenia corsage.

Reception Held

A reception was held at the House of Gifts, 715 South Broadway. The bride's table, skirted in white organdy, was laid with an embroidered linen cloth. The wedding ring cake was decorated with confection roses in pale yellow, orange blossoms, and a green confection ribbon. A centerpiece of pale yellow and white carnations and gladioli, white tapers in an antique silver candelabra, and hand-decorated mints completed the setting.

Mrs. J. R. Moore of Matador, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Sam G. Dunn of Lubbock, aunt of the bride, assisted in receiving guests.

Mrs. L. M. Fischer cut the cake. Assisting in the house party were Mrs. Thurmond Krueger, Mrs. J. F. Wakefield, Mrs. James H. Burney, Mrs. Carson Glass, Mrs. Curtis Bell, Mrs. Thomas C. Walker, Mrs. Sam Gottlieb, Mrs. Harry E. Sheidler, Mrs. E. J. Barrow, Mrs. W. P. Givens, and Mrs. C. G. Porter.

Miss Betty Fischer presided at the bride's book.

Assisting with the gift display at the home of Miss Julia Caldwell, 711 South Broadway, were Miss Edith Done, Miss Bettie Rose Simonton, Miss Anne Dodson, Miss Margaret Fagan, and Miss Anne Carothers.

Caribbean Cruise

After a Caribbean cruise to Panama and Guatemala, the couple will be at home at 269 West Vanderbilt.

For traveling the bride chose a silk shantung suit in cream carnal with lizard accessories. Her burnt straw hat was decorated with rose beige flowers and green veiling, and her corsage was a green Cypripedium orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Technological College Lubbock, where she was active in campus organizations. She was editor of La Ventana, Tech annual, and held membership in Las Chaparritas, social club, and in Alpha Chi, national scholastic honorary fraternity. She was also listed in "Who's Who" of colleges and universities. She was woman's editor of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times for the past several years.

She is well known here, having been reared in Matador, and is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore of this place. She is a graduate of Matador

High School and a former employee of the Matador Tribune.

Mr. Burney received a law degree from the University of Texas and is a member of the firm of Fischer, Lyle, and Burney. He is a member of the board of directors of the State Bar of Texas and served as a naval officer during the war.

Out-of-town guests in addition to those mentioned were Dr. Sam G. Dunn and son, Bobby, of Lubbock. Mrs. Robert Runyon of Brownsville; Miss Marjorie Street of Austin and a number of guests from Bishop, Kingsville, and San Antonio.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fischer entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner Friday night preceding the wedding, at Corpus Christi Country Club. The decorations were of pink and white snapdragons, white bells and pussy willow arranged with blue china birds.

A luncheon for the bridal party was given on Saturday, in the Morocco Room by Mrs. Conway C. Craig, Mrs. Kennard Moss, Mrs. Harry Eaton, and Mrs. T. M. Gannaway, Jr. The table was centered with a bridal figurine in a maline heart. The floral decorations were pink snapdragons, ranunculi, and sweetpeas.

INDICATE TEST OF FORMATION IN MOTLEY HOLE

Humble Oil and Refining Co. has struck solid granite with its No. 1-H Matador, east Motley county wildcat, 16 miles east of the town of Matador and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 128, block M. Matador Land and Cattle Company survey, was the week-end report given out by Humble.

Total depth is 8,616 feet to the granite. A string of 5 1/2 inch casing has been cemented on 6,551 feet with 100 sacks and the venture was waiting on the cement job to cure.

From all indications, tests are to be made of the formation in which the pipe was set. That zone is unidentified.

Humble has drilled two holes a year for several years on the Matador lands and this is the first time a test of any formation found has been indicated. The drill has gone to varying depths in past years.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Hide all you bobby-soxers! How 'bout diggin' some dirt? Get me?

Say, did you see that good looker that Melba Kimbell was seen with on Saturday nite? It seems his name is Doyle Ray and he hails from Morton! (Maybe we better look into this, gals!)

Did ya ask who that swell lookin' couple were headin' toward Whiteflat the other nite? Well, it was none other than Lewis Hodgins and Frances Casey! Better watch those kids!

One of our latest romances is still goin' strong! 'Course you know who it is—Daisy Mae and that cute guy—Ed James! Wonder why Mary Helen was so sunny-faced over the weekend? Do ya suppose Doc Cross could have been the cause? I wouldn't be too surprised!

It seems that some people have been wonderin' what all the whisperin' was about that Sarah and Truman were doin' Saturday nite! Well we haven't been able to find out but by the looks of those two, Monday night, everything has turned out just dandy!

Watson was having the best time Saturday nite! But whether the Turkey girl who was trying to play basketball was—well, that's another question! Tsk-tsk, Watson!

Say, kids have you realized it isn't long til the Father-Son, Mother-Daughter banquets? Better get out your prettiest lace frock and best bib and tucker cause those banquets are just around the corner!

Well, I'll see ya in the funnies! Love, Miss El Matador.

Basketball Girls Win Consolation In R. S. Tournament

As cheers rang through the gym Saturday night, Pauline Bleivins stepped forward to receive the consolation trophy as Captain of Matador girl's basketball team. Although they were defeated 20 to 17 in the first game against Girard; the girls were in for consolation or third place as a result of a victory over Kirkland and then Patton Springs Saturday night. The final score of the Patton Springs game was 30 to 21.

The Matador Boys played a close second to consolation but were nosed out by McAadoo, 31 to 29. The boys really played some basketball the last 3 minutes. The score was 20 to 30 with Matador under, at the beginning of the 3 minute period. In the last 3 minutes the boys changed the score to 29 to 31. The whistle, just blew too soon for the Matadors and they were defeated.

Other honors received by the Matador basketball teams was the award of Sportsmanship to R. L. "Sappo" Giesecke. Only one boy and one girl in the tournament received this award. Matador was proud to have Sappo win this honor. Rosemary Bloodworth, one of Matador's fastest guards, won a gold basketball for being picked by the judges as a member of the All Tournament team. Such basketball players as these make a high school proud to call them M. H. S. students.

New Colors Mingle With Old Ones On M. H. S. Campus

Have you been wondering who the kids are that have been wearing all those bright and pretty colors on the campus? Well, the fellas who have on those good looking red and black jackets are the ones who lettered in football for the 1948 season. The jackets are reversible with a black wool body and red sleeves on one side and a red satin body with black sleeves on the other. There is a red "M" on the outside with the stripes of the number of years the boy has lettered. The following boys received the jackets: Norman Seigler, Truman Groves, Don Wason, Garland Rattan, Sappo Giesecke, Watson Townsend, Grady Phillips, Albert Morris, Body Keith, Jody Graham, Speedy Neighbors, Joe Spray, Sleepy Spray, Joe Pitts, Dean Stotts, Joaquin Hays and Coach Nabors. (He's a boy at heart, you know).

We have, also, a number of fellas who bought some handsome blue corduroy jackets which they received as members of the F. F. A. club. The jackets have "Matador, Texas" with a F. F. A. seal in the center on the backs and the boy's name on the front, all made in gold letters! The fellas who have made spots of blue stand out on the campus are: Peck Thompson, Kenneth Dunning, Wayland Moore, Roy Taylor, Joaquin Hays, Gene Barley, Norman Seigler, Billy Dean Smallwood, Speedy Neighbors and Jerry Edwards. With some good looking fellas in good looking jackets there's liable to be some gals giving them the "come-hither look!"

Junior Cage Teams Win Trophies In McAadoo Tournament

A moment of quiet and then the whistle blew! The game was over with the Matador Grade school girls as the champions of the McAadoo tournament. The girls who made up the starting line-up were: Frances Traweck, Lois Bleivins, Georgia Martin, Maurleen Bailey, Maurleen Leslie and Barbara Spray. These girls were victorious with a score of 8 to 24 over McAadoo.

The night was one of victory also for the grade school boys as they received a trophy for second place winners! Although the boys played good basketball the final game was with Floydada them winning with a score of 35 to 18. The boys who formed the starting line-up were: Cecil Shelton, Dewayne Martin, Neal Pipkin, Pat Reeves, and Ronald Hobbs.

Gary Laughlin, who is also on the team, was at his father's bedside in Wichita Falls and was unable to be at the game.

—M. H. S.—

June: Did you know a great many accidents occur in the kitchen?

Don: Yeah, I've eaten quite a few of them myself.

V. F. W., Motley County Memorial Post No. 6286, meets 1st and 3rd Tuesdays, 8 p.m. at the court room, Matador, Texas. All eligible ex-service men are invited to attend.

Miss Coleman to Lewis: The brain of the average high school student is the most amazing thing known to scientists.

Lewis: Why, how come? Miss Coleman: It starts to function the minute he jumps out of bed and doesn't stop until he reaches the classroom.

aspect in rearing the child. "I think parents should look after their children very carefully while they are in grade school and know where they are and what they are doing at all times. Parents should be companions to their children, and express sympathy and understanding with their problems. If the parents disapprove of whom their children are dating, they should meet them, invite them in their homes, and be willing for their children to date them at least once to see whether or not it will work out. I do not think parents should have disagreements before their children. Their differences should be settled among themselves," declared Ann Harp.

Norman Seigler declared with a witty comment: "I think the wife should have nearly all the family money and leave the husband only enough to buy tobacco and the little necessities." He also said that parents should discuss family finances with the children, and women should have a household allowance. "Any money left after family expenses are paid should be put in a joint savings or checking account. I do not think that the woman or wife should have to account for the money she spends nor the man or husband, likewise," he declared.

"My idea of vocational and professional training for the home," declared Truman Groves "is, I think a man should consider very seriously his qualifications of mental and physical ability for a job. If one is weak physically, he should not select hard manual labor. A person should do what he likes and is
