Farm Management Decisions 'Great'

Farm families will face a automated systems and unique multitude of management decisions in the 1970's. That's certainly an understatement i there ever was one. But wise management decisions hold the key to the continued survival of farming operations during this decade.

What decisions face farm families? Dr. William E. concern about pesticides, nit-Black, economist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, discussed 13 issues at a Farm Family Management Conference recently in Lamesa. TO FARM OR NOT

1. With the continued narrowing of profit margins per unit of farm production, farmers are motivated to do one of two things--enlarge their farming operation to more production units, or drop out of farming. For those who cannot expand and must quit farming, the major decision is when to drop out and what is the husband's alternative employment opportunity. Moving from farm to non-farm employment is more of an adjustment than many farm families realize or are willing to make.

2. "If the decision is to stay in farming, then the farmer should consider investing in marketing," says Black. The farmer will need to have his production locked into a marketing arrangement ahead of time, or he will not produce. This marketing arrangement can become the basis for financing his production.

RIGHT TO MANAGE "Farmers must retain their identity so that they will be able to make management decisions," emphasizes the economist. "Whether farmers will fight for the type of marketing arrangement that will keep them as independent managers or not is one of the major decisions they will make in the 70's.

Agricultural producers will have to give up more of their vanity of traditional independence in production and marketing and bring about a system of greater internal cooperation and coordination. One goal will be greater disciplined control over output as to Farmers must take a stronger quality, quantity and timing. hand in developing and main-"If farmers rely upon nonagricultural business firms or the government to develop and operate these controls, they will lose their right to manage their farms."

4. "Farmers will need to decide between the political arena and the marketplace for their economic gains. The guarantee of income in agribecome overly serious about their own supply management programs."

5. According to Black, the people is another management decision. Farm families today demand income and leisure time comparable to what people in most occupations have takeover." Whether or not they can get and enjoy that kind of life will facing farm families in the be another concern in the 70's. 70's constitute a continuing and NEW TECHNOLOGY TO CON- intense challenge to those plan-confronted with social programs that initially seem hard to swallow, such as the public restrictions on farm operations, and threats of further restrictions will influence the farmer's choices. Instead of Black suggests that farmers becomea part of the solution. 8. Income taxes will increase. The economist cites two reasons for this--larger anticipated income per farm, and greater demand for public services and programs at the local, state and national levels. Thus, taxes will become inreasingly important as a consideration in managing farms--particularly income and estate taxes. LABOR PICTURE CHANGING

"The hired farm labor situation is changing. As farmers expand in the labor-intensive enterprises, they become involved in new concepts for employing labor -- employment and health insurance, minimum wages, pension plans and unionization rights. Part of these programs will be defrayed by the farmer directly.

10. "The geographic and cultural divisions between the farm and non-farm world will continue to fade," contends Black, "Farms will not be able to operate in an agrarian world. They will become a bigger part of the process that allows society to survive." Thus the farm public will be demanding educational assistance in a wide variety of subject matter in addition to that for commercial agriculture. CONSUMER ORIENTATION NEEDED

"In order to compete with farm product substitutes, farmers must become more concerned with how the consumer accepts his product -and her disires regarding that product. They must relate their business to their customer rather than to themselves, taining products." 12. Agriculture will become more international. Thus farmers will need to relate to the worldwide dimensions of food and fiber, points out the economist. International trade will continue to be one of the main-springs of our economy."

13. Financial arrangements culture is not without its price. will change as the financial Until the treasury faucet is structure of farms and ranches turned off, farmers will not changes and could become a part of the marketing arrangement. More reliable sources of credit will be sought and there will be changes in rental rising expectations of farm arrangements, consultant services, custom work and incorporation. Governor Seeking Balanced Budget

Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex. -- Gov. Preston Smith told Texas lawmakers they can balance a $6.8 billion budget without new taxes -- by deficit finance, bond issues and federal assumption of welfare costs.

COMMITTEES NAMED

House Speaker Gus Mutscher named his committees late last week, signaling the start of actual bill introduction and processing in the lower house.

As expected, he picked veteran Rep. W.S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah for another session as appropriations committee which promptly launched hearings of spending requests.

Delwin Jones of Lubbock got Mutscher's assignment to chair the congressional and legislative districts committee which must reapportion boundaries on the basis of the new census. WELFARE MEASURE AD-VANCES First major measure to clear senate committee was a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen, Charles Wilson of Lufkin to remove the $80 million state welfare ceiling. Governor Smith said the current rate of expenditures would bring the state up against an $80 million lid by June 1, and drastic cuts in aid to families with dependent children would be required. Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney estimated AFDC average payments of $113,60 a month would be slashed to $90 May 1

if the ceiling is not raised. Sponsors of the amendment

Two Accidents Injure Two

In December The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of December, according to Sergeant T. L. Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $2, 200,00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the calendar year of 1970 shows a total of 45 accidents resulting in two persons killed, 29 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $36,658.00.

'Operation Motorcide' which was in effect during the Christmas and New Year's holidays recorded 101 traffic deaths as compared to the estimated 87. Ten of these traffic fatalities occurred in the Lubbock Region in the following counties: Cochran, Crosby, Parmer, Swisher, Wichita and Wise which had one fatality each with Dallam and Potter Counties having two fatalities each. The Patrol Supervisor reminded all motorists to think about the more than 30,000 people that have been killed in Texas traffic accidents during the last 10 years, and to join the drive to reverse this alarming trend of traffic deaths by strict observance of traffic laws and rules of defensive driving.

DEMOCRATS BACK ELEC-TION CHANGES

State Democratic Executive Committee endorsed a sweeping election law revision, including Tuesday primary dates and allowing 18-year-olds to participate in national party convention delegate selection.

Party leaders recommended complete revision of voter registration laws but came up with no specifics. They also proposed changes in convention procedures to conform with national party rules.

Legislation is pending in the senate to repeal the annual voter registration requirement and to move dates of primaries from May and June to August and September. Constitutional amendment to permit 18-yearolds to vote in all elections also is pending.

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE APPLICATION FOR LISTING

PURSUANT TO 39 USC 3010

FORM APPROVED, OMB NO. 46-R0085 APPLICATION NUMBER DATE SIGNED Year, Month, Day)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING

Starting February 1, 1971, you can take advantage of a new law to protect you and your family from receiving sexually oriented advertisements in the mails. Here's how the new law (39 U.S. Code 3010) works. You list your name with the Postal Service, stating that you wish not to receive any sexually oriented advertise ments through the mails. You may also list the names of any of your children under 19 years old who live with you or who are under your care, custody, or supervision. The Postal Service compiles a Reference List of such names and makes the list available, at a fee, to mailers. The law prohibits any commercial solicitation of names on the Reference List. After 30 days from the date your name is added to the Reference List, any mailer who sends you a sexually oriented advertisement sub-jects himself to both civil and criminal legal action by the U.S. Government.

The new law defines a "sexually oriented advertisement" as any advertisement that depicts, in actual or simulated form, or explicitly describes, in a predominantly sexual context, human genitalia, any act of natural or unnatural sexual intercourse, any act of sadism or masochism, or any other erotic subject directly related to the foregoing. Material otherwise within the definition of this subsection shall be deemed not to constitute a sexually oriented advertisement if it constitutes only a small and insignificant part of the whole of a single catalog, book, periodical, or o er work the remainder of which is not primarily devoted to sexual matters

To add your name (and any children's names) to the list, simply fill out Application for Listing, attached hereto, in accordance with the instructions:

(1) If you wish NOT to receive any sexually oriented advertisement through the mail, simply fill out Part II of this form and give it to any Postal Service representa-tive. Your name and those of any minor under 19 you include will be added to the Reference List maintained by the Postal Service. Each adult must file a separate application. Please retain this portion of the Application (Part I) as it contains your application number which should be included in any further communication on this

(2) The name that you insert in the space provided should be the name by which you customarily receive mail. You may, if you wish, file separate applications for varying forms of your name.

(3) If you change addresses, it will be necessary to execute a new application.

(4) Birth dates of minor children must be shown. When a minor reaches his 19th birthday, he will automatically be deleted from the list. If he then desires to be placed on the list, he must file a new application on his own behalf. (5) Your name and address will be placed on the Postal Service's list as soon as practicable but some time will be required to process your application. The 30-day period starts only after your name goes on the Postal Service's list. (6) It is imperative that the form be complete, legible and signed. If not, the application will not be processed and your name and address (including any minor children) will not be included on the list. (7) If there are insufficient places on the form to list all minor children, you must complete and sign additional forms. (8) If any children receive mail at an address other than yours, it will be necessary to file a separate application for each such child. (9) If the application is made on behalf of a corporation, association, firm, partnership, or other business entity, it should show the name of that entity and must be executed on its behalf by the owner or other authorized officer of the entity. A separate application for such an entity must be filed for each address at which it main-

(10) You may have your application canceled by so notifying your local post office. Otherwise, the listing will terminate 5 years from the date your name is placed on the list. If you wish to be continued on the list, a new application must be

(11) If you receive a sexually oriented advertisement in the mail after you have been on the list for 30 days, you should print on the envelope (or other cover) of the sexually oriented advertisement the date on which you received it and affix your sexually oriented advertisement the date on which you received it and affix your signature immediately below that statement. For example, the notation should read, "I received this item on April 2, 1971. Signed: John Q. Public." Since the law generally prohibits opening of first-class mail by someone other than an addressee, make certain you open the mail piece that you believe has been mailed to you in violation of this law prior to turning it over to the Postal Service. Otherwise, further action to enforce the law may not be possible.

(12) Take the violative mail piece to any post office for further official action. (13) If application form is not available, furnish the necessary information as instructed by your Postal Service representative.
