Cedillo, Five Others Charged By Federal Jury At Corpus Christi; Attempts To Finance Revolution Involved

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 21 (AP)—General Saturnino Cedillo, vanquished rebel leader of Mexico, and five other persons including two American aviators were indicted by a federal grand jury today for conspiring to violate and violating the amended neutrality act of 1937.

The indictment specifically alleged the transportation of two airplanes to General Cedillo from the United States in Sept., 1937. The planes were purchased, the indictment said, from a Chicago firm, some of whose officials were named as material witnesses but were not indicted.

Cedillo was formerly governor of the Mexican state of San Luis Potosi and had served in the cabinet of President Lázaro Cárdenas before the Mexican army put his revolutionary forces to rout. He was last reported hiding in Sonora, Mex.

Indicted with him were Floyd P. Clevenger of New York City, aviator; Howard Frederick Klein, New York City, aviator; Maj. Adolph Pina, personal pilot for Cedillo; a man known to the grand jury only as "Mansvais" and an unknown Mexican aviator.

The indictment was returned after an investigation directed by U. S. District Attorney Douglas McGregor of Houston.

Sought U.S. Loans

Statements in the possession of the government prosecutors at Houston indicate agents of the Mexican rebel general contacted arms salesmen in the United States and tried to finance a Mexican revolution with American money.

Assistant U. S. District Attorney George John of Houston said the American aviator, Floyd P. Clevenger, and an unnamed Mexican tried unsuccessfully in January to borrow money from American oil companies and from individuals in San Antonio, Dallas and New York.

AAA Program Is Defended By Speaker

Official In Plainview Talk Assails Domestic Allotment

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 21 (AP)—M. L. Wilson, undersecretary of agriculture, waved aside the domestic allotment plan and stoutly defended the national farm program today as "the most practical method" to meet the present situation.

Some of the chiefest opposition to it, he asserted, comes from interests "which have used governmental powers to saddle southwestern farmers with high freight rates, and to give tariff benefits to industries which sell goods to farmers."

Those interests, he said, were saying a farmer "has sold his birthright if he takes a government check he has earned."

"Sometimes I wonder about the sincerity of people who get sentimental about farmers' independence, who say that a man is giving his freedom if he works with other farmers in a national program."

Wilson addressed a meeting of Texas farmers called to hear an explanation of the farm program. He said, would mean lower prices. He spent many years working

STATE MAN TO VIEW LAKE SITES HERE

A. H. Dunlap, member of the state board of water engineers, was expected here Monday afternoon for an inspection of possible lake sites.

He may remain here through noon Tuesday if the tour of several sites under consideration requires that much time.

Dunlap will be remembered as one of the first water board members to make a study of the Big Spring water situation some six years ago. At that time he pointed out that while the city was in no immediate danger of exhausting its supply, the supply nevertheless was limited.

FD Heads For Warm Springs

Makes A Stop For A Survey Of TVA Activities

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt reached Chattanooga today to inspect briefly a unit of one of the new deal's earliest social and economic experiments—the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Bound for a two weeks' stay at his "other home" on Pine Mountain at Warm Springs, Ga., he detoured for a first-hand peek at Chickamauga dam. It is one of seven power-navigation projects built or under construction in the Tennessee valley for development of cheap electric power.

The president also arranged to visit the scenes of the civil war battles of Lookout mountain and Missionary Ridge, where 75 years ago blue and gray forces from 29 states struggled for possession of Chattanooga.

He planned to leave the city early in the afternoon, have lunch and dinner on his special train, and arrive in Warm Springs about 8 p. m. (C.S.T.).

During the sojourn at the health resort which he helped to found, the president is expected to begin conversations with senate and house leaders on the legislative program for the new congress.

He also may confer with Hugh R. Wilson, ambassador to Germany, near here today for an alleged attack Sunday upon a 74-year-old white woman.

Clamor For Larger Pensions Will Be Heard During Next Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—When it comes to the question of bigger pensions for younger persons, President Roosevelt and the conservatives are likely to speak the same language in the next congress—at least far enough to say a common "no."

Nevertheless, numerous changes in the present social security act will be presented to the new congress on behalf of the administration. They will not be broad enough to still the rising clamor for larger pensions.

Evidence is accumulating, that the California "30-over-Thursdays" group and the Colorado pensioners are considering supporting the pension bill drafted by

Britain Studies Plan To Provide Homeland For Jewish Refugees

Nazis Oppose East African Settlement

See Procedure As Bar To Return Of War-Lost Colony

BERLIN, Nov. 21 (AP)—British Prime Minister Chamberlain's disclosure that Tanganyika, Germany's former East African colony, might be used for settling Jews fell like a bombshell here today.

The Nazi press for days has been warning that "any such attempt would meet with the sharpest protest."

Campaign Abating
It came amid the first signs of abatement of Germany's 11-day anti-Semitic drive which has deprived German Jews of virtually all freedom and reduced tens of thousands to destitution.

Many German interpreters plan to settle German Jews in their former colonies as a move to prevent the return of such war-lost possessions to Germany.

One authoritative commentator declared "the Tanganyika step is an obvious attempt to prejudice the colonial question."

Before Chamberlain's announcement informed Nazi quarters had said they expected Reichsfuehrer Hitler to tell Oswald Pirow, defense minister of the union of South America, that Germany would consider such a plan an "affront."

Pirow is scheduled to see the fuhrer Thursday at Berchtesgaden.

Joachim Von Ribbentrop, foreign minister, was understood already to have told Pirow the same thing.

Jews who, for meritorious service in Germany during the world war, had been permitted to wear their uniforms on solemn occasions, have lost this privilege.

A decree dated November 19 and signed by Hitler and Colonel General Wilhelm Keitel, member of the secret council and acting war minister, says:

"Jews who belonged to the old or new army, to the Austro-Hungarian defense force or Austrian federal army and who were accorded the right to wear uniform are herewith deprived of this right."

Window-smashing and decrees will have eliminated by the end of the year all retail business owned by German Jews. One-third of Jewish-owned stores will be taken over by non-Jews and the rest simply abandoned.

Present owners will not be permitted to salvage ready cash by sales or auctions. They have been told to "liquidate" and, with few exceptions, have been forbidden to operate their businesses during the time remaining before the decree wiping them out becomes effective January 1.

SOIL CONSERVATION APPLICATIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE

First cards notifying farm producers that they should call at the county agent's office to sign soil conservation applications were placed in the mail Monday.

M. Weaver, in charge of the program administration, urged farmers not to come in to make application unless they receive a card. The applications are being typed on a fixed schedule which permits mailing of 75 to 100 notices daily.

In this way, Weaver said, it was hoped that congestion could be avoided.

NEGRO LYNCHED

WIGGINS, Miss., Nov. 21 (AP)—A large mob of angry citizens lynched Wilder McGowan, negro, near here today for an alleged attack Sunday upon a 74-year-old white woman.

The General Welfare Federation. It is milder in several respects than the $200-a-month idea of the Townsendites, who have poured blistering words upon the General Welfare group.

The administration proposals, however, are not prompted entirely by the voting strength shown by high pension adherents in the last election. They are a part of the broad general program for social welfare envisioned when the original social security bill was worked out.

SEARCHING ARMY PLANE WRECKAGE FOR FLIER

Tempest At Sea Delays Convicts' Voyage To Devil's Island Colony

ST. MARTIN-DERE, France, Nov. 21 (AP)—A violent tempest today gave a short reprieve to 738 prisoners due to sail aboard the prison ship La Martiniere for fearsome Devil's Island and the other French Guiana penal colonies.

High seas and a strong wind dashed the small motor launches used for loading the convict cargo against the prison ship's sides so that authorities postponed the sailing.

Under the fixed bayonets of Senegalese troops, who quelled rioting among the convicts last night and during the previous week, the prisoners fled back to their cells in De De prison to await new orders for departure, probably tomorrow.

They are the first shipment the Guiana prisons—which include notorious Devil's Island—since the Daladier government reversed the decision of the former premier, Socialist Leon Blum, to abandon the South American island prisons.

For fourteen days these men will sit on wooden benches in iron cages and sleep in canvas hammocks, with few breaths of fresh air.

The prison ship's unwilling passengers have been arriving at this island concentration camp, in the Bay of Biscay, for the past two weeks, transported to mainland ports in trucks fitted with iron bars like those of circus wagons.

Yesterday's rebellion started during lunch, and the men ran shouting to the prison courtyard to demonstrate and sing the international. Senegalese troops subdued them before reinforcements of mobile groups reached the island.

Japan Hits At US Attitude

Discrimination Against Nipponese Is Cited

TOKYO, Nov. 21 (AP)—The foreign office spokesman touched upon discrimination he said existed against Japanese in the United States in a discussion today of the open door policy in China.

"We do not like the terms open door and equal opportunity," the spokesman asserted, indicating the government was considering a concrete statement of what it considers "inapplicable ideas and principles of the past."

He stressed the meanings he held could be found between the lines of the Japanese reply last Friday denying American charges of "unwarranted interference" with interests in China.

The Japanese note, he said, "does not specifically mention the nine-power pact (acknowledging the principle of the 'open door') nor the principles of the open door and equal opportunity."

"Respecting these latter I must say that Japan does not like the terms. They are not applied elsewhere in the world, neither in the United States nor in any other country."

"Therefore, why should it be insisted that they continue to exist in China?"

He added that discrimination "does exist" against Japanese residing in America.

"It exists in the lands and laws of the various states and in the national policy of exclusion."

"Whether Japan will specifically point out these facts in later communications to America is not yet decided."

COLD WEATHER IS FORECAST

A Thanksgiving season cold wave was in prospect for this section, government weather forecasts indicated Monday. Fair and colder weather was forecast for tonight in West Texas, with the cold wave reaching such intensity in the Panhandle as to make livestock warnings necessary.

A hard freeze was predicted in the north and west portions of West Texas, with heavy frost in the southeast portion. For Tuesday, the prediction was "fair and much colder."

Colder weather also was in prospect for eastern sectors of the state.

Hunting Adds To Accidents

Three Suffer Gunshot Wounds, But None Fatal

Hunting accidents, none of them fatal, contributed to the casualties in weekend accidents which claimed four lives in Texas.

The three victims of accidental gunshot included Dick Adair, 27, professional baseball player, who was critically wounded while hunting deer near Mason, Tex. While he was in a tree on the lookout for game, his shotgun dropped to the ground and discharged, the buckshot striking him in the knee. Surgeons said amputation of the leg might be necessary. He played with the Anniston, Ala., baseball club in the Southeastern league last season.

Mrs. J. B. Moore, about 30, wife of a San Angelo insurance salesman, suffered a charge in the left shoulder from a 410-gauge shotgun in her apartment after a duck-hunting party. Her condition was not critical. Mrs. Aure Campbell of Olney was wounded in the right foot when a shotgun on the floor of an automobile was discharged as the car struck rough road. Amputation of the limb near the ankle was necessary.

Charles C. Brown, 67, Jasper business man, was killed when his horse reared and fell on him as he was taking his customary Sunday-morning ride.

Near Littlefield, Christine Brinkley, 24, and her 12-year-old brother, Dow, were killed as they fell from a truck driven by their father, Robert L. Brinkley.

R. K. Smith, freight train conductor of Eagle Pass, was found dead on the highway near Hoodo, apparently the victim of a passing motorist.

Court To Rule On Sit-Downs

Lower Court Decision Will Be Reviewed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—The supreme court agreed today to review a lower court decision that an employer may dismiss workmen who engage in a sit-down strike.

This ruling, by the federal circuit court at Chicago, upheld the Fansteel Metallurgical corporation of North Chicago in discharging employees who seized two key buildings in 1937.

After retaining possession of the buildings for nine days, the workmen were driven out by police with the use of tear and nauseating gas.

The court also reaffirmed a previous decision holding that the General Talking Pictures Corporation of New York City had infringed patents owned by the Western Electric company and others for use in making talking pictures.

The justice department had taken the opposite position, contending that it would "put the administration of the anti-trust acts in serious jeopardy." Justices Black and Reed dissented.

Hwy. Routing In A Muddle

No. 9 Right-Of-Way Again A Matter Of Uncertainty

Matters concerning highway No. 9 south—that section which would connect the town and the new segment of the road five miles out—were back in their habitual state of confusion Monday.

According to good authority, the question of a route, believed settled two weeks ago with the announcement that an entirely new highway would be built over a 10 mile course south of town, was still very much in debate.

At a meeting of state highway and federal road engineers here during the weekend, the new route was ignored and discussion centered on the two routes previously staked—the one angling off Gregg at 20th street and emerging in the old section of the highway four miles south, and the other at the end of Seury and Gregg streets and angling across the city park extension to the old highway.

The first of the latter routes had gained federal approval, while the other had not.

Headed by S. J. Treadway, division engineer, the state highway engineers were joined by F. Upchurch, Shaw and Hickman, engineers Carpenter and Stubbins, who represented the federal bureau of public roads.

GROUP APPOINTED TO DIRECT SALE OF YULE SEALS

The local committee for the 1938 Christmas Seal campaign, to open Thanksgiving Day, has been announced by Mrs. C. L. Wasson, general chairman. Members include Mrs. P. W. Malone and Mrs. Preston Sanders, who will solicit in the downtown area. Other workers will be officers of the association: Mrs. J. C. Douglas, Mrs. C. W. Dickerson, Mrs. Wasson, Mrs. H. B. Reagan, seal sale chairman, and Jena Jordan, publicity chairman.

Many workers in the Christmas Seal campaign give volunteer service, generously contributing time and effort to the fight against tuberculosis.

Receipts of the Christmas Seals support the local, state and nationwide campaign against tuberculosis.

Concrete evidence of the effectiveness of this campaign is the fact that in 30 years the death rate from tuberculosis has been decreased two-thirds, the Christmas Seal committee points out.

The move was interpreted here as an indication that O'Daniel will recommend such legislation at the forthcoming legislative session.

TWENTY YEARS AFTER VERSAILLES NAZIS HAVE BIG FLEET

BERLIN, Nov. 21 (AP) — Nazi Germany, exactly 20 years since surrender of the German World war fleet, today could laugh at naval restrictions imposed by the treaty of Versailles.

It was Nov. 21, 1918—10 days after the armistice—that the German fleet gave up and was interned under British guard at Scapa Flow between the Orkney islands and the North sea.

Seven months later the Versailles treaty makers limited Germany to six 10,000-ton battleships, six light cruisers, 12 destroyers and 12 torpedo boats.

Germany began arming openly in 1925. That same year an Anglo-German naval treaty was signed pledging Germany to limit her naval strength to 35 per cent of Britain's navy.

Today Adolf Hitler could parade nearly 150 war vessels.

Incidentally, it was the first meeting of Alfred and Estes since the recent democratic gubernatorial campaign when they were on opposing sides.

Other guests of the publisher were Edward Clark, secretary of state; Orville Carpenter, head of the state unemployment compensation commission, and Federal Judge Randolph Bryant.

James and Estes will be guests of Alfred in Austin today, going from there to Laredo, thence to Dallas for Thanksgiving.

INSURGENTS CLAIM NEW LAND GAINS

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), Nov. 21 (AP)—Insurgent armies hammered today at government lines on the Segre river's west bank, in northeast Spain, and claimed to have captured ground in the Seros sector.
Insurgent communiques from the Segre front, only active battleground in Spain, reported the capture of 1,200 prisoners but the extent of territorial gains was not mentioned.
Government dispatches considered the insurgents "slightly bettered their position."

Warm Tones Signifying Autumn Season Used For Silver Tea

Decorations and warm tones of brown and yellow chrysanthemums and tulle and silver roses signifying the autumn season were used in the home of Mrs. C. F. Duvall Sunday afternoon when St. Cecilia club of St. Mary's Episcopal church held its third annual silver tea from 4:30 o'clock to 6:30 o'clock.
Guests were greeted by Mrs. V. Van Gibson, club mother, Mrs. Ray Simmons, club president, Mrs. Willie Rix and Mrs. Wilburn Barcus of Waco, charter member of the unit. Those calling registered in a decorative guest book presided over by Mrs. R. E. G. Cowper.

Pom-pom chrysanthemums of yellow and brown and tulle roses formed the autumn centerpiece with yellow tapers in candelabra on either side. The buffet supported a horn-of-plenty and triple crystal holders with yellow tapers.
Mrs. Shine Phillips and Mrs. Monroe Johnson presided at the silver services by candlelight and were assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Obie Bristow and Mrs. William T. Tate.

WAGE-HOUR AGENCY WANTS STATE UNITS BROADENED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—Gradual development and expansion of state labor commissions is becoming an indirect goal of the wage and hour administration.
An official close to Elmer F. Andrews, wage-hour administrator, said today that forthcoming allocation of federal funds to help state labor departments to help enforce the new federal law would serve to "bring up to standard some of the agencies that have fallen behind."
This official, who preferred anonymity, suggested that the possibility of receiving federal funds might encourage some states to hasten enactment of broader minimum wage and maximum hour legislation.
In a statement explaining one section of the wage-hour law, Administrator Andrews said yesterday that an employer legally could not escape the act's provisions by ob-

Sub-Deb club, high school social organization, observed solemn ceremony with a beautiful candle-light service Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the sponsor, Lillian Shick.
Purpose of the service is to admit into the club eight pledges who previously underwent eight weeks of strenuous initiation.

The ceremony was impressively carried out in the club colors of blue and silver with Mary Nell Edwards, president, presiding. Each pledge was called forward to light a silver candle rimmed in blue crepe paper from one of two tapers in crystal holders. When this was done by all of the pledges, the vows were repeated together and they were pronounced Sub-Debs.
Corsages of white chrysanthemums tied in silver and blue ribbon were presented to the honored guests, who were later taught the club song.

Details of the presentation dance for Friday evening at the Settles hotel were worked out in a business session.
Refreshments were served to the sponsor, Lillian Shick, the eight pledges, Jacqueline Faw, Sarah Lamun, Champ Phillips, Marie Dunham, Joyce Croft, Mary Freeman, Janice Slaughter and Mary Jo Russell.
Mary Nell Edwards, DeAlva McAllister, Betty Lou Eddy, Billie Bess Shive, and Joan James were the others present.

Holiday Program And Talks Featured By Midway P-T.A.

Members of the Midway P-T.A. participated in an interesting contest "What do you know about Texas?" conducted by Harnel Summerlin at a recent gathering of the organization.
Choral singing and a short play, "Punctuation Marks," presented by a group of 21 school children gave variety to the program. The play was directed by Mrs. McEntire.
Since there will be no special Thanksgiving program, Summerlin gave a brief history of the first Thanksgiving. Walter Robinson offered a prayer of thanks and Doris Shettlesworth gave a holiday reading.

Stanley spoke to the Canadian chamber of commerce.
He characterized the treaty with the United States as an "economic bargain" and said if any political results occurred they were "not conscious objectives."

READING AND WRITING

"TALES OF A WAYWARD INN," by Frank Case; (Stokes; $3).

If Frank Case really did write "Tales of a Wayward Inn" he has made a great and a serious error in his life. Expert though he is as hotelman, as 30-odd years running the Algonquin testify, he is still better as a writer and should have been at it all the time.

Even if he has produced his book through a ghostly mouthpiece, he still is too good to waste his life on laundry lists, bar bills and seeing to the replacement of the worn carpet on the seventh floor.

There has been a period of thought after the first paragraph, in which the writer rested his chin rather heavily on a fist and toted up. It is not a mistake after all; this man Case is unique among hotel men and that's career enough.

These days hotels are quite often run by the foreclosure department of various banks. Most of them (and the writer has had a fairish experience) are simply temporary tombs inhabited by a strange race of passenger pigeons with human faces, staffed by young noblemen temporarily out of funds.

And here in Frank Case we have a man who has made himself and his hotel synonymous terms. He has also made himself and his guests friends, and he has had the ability to attract through the years what is perhaps the most amusing clientele of any hostelry in America. This does not mean, incidentally, any of the Algonquin "sets," but parts of these and other people too good to belong to anything like a "round table."

Case has remembered most of the fabulous happenings. His book is one long string of anecdotes, spiced with personal ideas of startling originality, and held together by a kind of gusto that would only survive all those years of hotel keeping in a frame as sturdy as Case's.

The only fair thing to do with "Tales of a Wayward Inn" is to quote at length from it, and in a piece of this length that is impossible. One can only say that in many respects this is the most amusing book of the fall—even the letters from patrons with which it closes are delightful. Well—most of them.

"PROFILES FROM THE NEW YORKER," with a preface by Clifford Fadiman; (Knopf; $3).

For a magazine with no larger a circulation than it has, the New Yorker has managed to get itself talked about a great deal. It may be all out of proportion, this gossip. But it exists.

THE SPORTS PARADE

by HANK HART

Isn't it about time that some one tendered the local high school football squad a good will banquet as has been the custom in years past? After last season's final tilt a service club contributed generously but none have been so thoughtful yet. The lads deserve a "spread." They didn't win a game but they went out and played their 60 minutes every weekend, anyway. We're looking for an angel.

Larry Priddy's Sweetwater Mustangs, who sacked up the Oil Belt western sector's grid laurels last week by disposing of San Angelo, 14-0, tonight with mighty Breckenridge in the Buc's own back yard Thursday afternoon, 2:30 p. m., and one may get slightly stup happy at trying to get a comparison of the two teams by studying the past records.

The Cayuses, none too impressive despite potential greatness, will probably go into the affair as slight underdogs but their record in general is quite amazing.

Whereas the charges of Eck Curtis have rolled up the astounding total of 283 points the Ponies have been able to score but 130 points. Both teams have played nine games. That gives the Buccos twice as good an average on paper.

But the situation is just reversed on defense and that may go a long way in deciding the outcome in the fray. Breck's opponents have been able to count 70 points against them while Sweetwater has given up but 13 points, have allowed but two opponents to score.

Too, the Breck eleven had several setups tossed at them, sounded out their offense against all. In the course of eliminating the other eleven of the eastern sector of the Oil Belt, the Buc's disposed of Mineral Wells, 44-0; Eastland, 41-6; Ranger, 32-0; Stephenville, 58-7; Brownwood, 27-8; and Cisco, 14-0. In non-conference competition the Buc's have beaten Olney, 41-6; have lost to Vernon, 21-0; and to Wichita Falls, 21-13. In the latter two starts an acute attack of "fumbitis" is said to have been the major reason for the unimpressive showing of the Curtisms.

The Olney go, however, showed that the Buc's had definitely hit the high road. Later in the season Vernon had to score twice in the last quarter to defeat Olney, once on an intercepted pass.

Of the foes in their own conference, only Cisco was a fair test and the Lobos fell only after a hard tussle, 14-0.

Spearshead of that Buc battering rain is Bill Ramsey, all conference back of last season and a ringer that has tallied 125 points this season. Around that 190-pound powerhouse is built the Breck attack and how his fortunes go so go those of the Buccos.

To combat that advantage the Mustangs can throw a rugged wall into the fray that has not given up a touchdown this fall. The six-pointer in the opener against Fort Worth Tech was made against second stringers while Abilene's lone touch was recorded on a pass from Sewell to Jones.

The Mustangs, after disposing of Tech, 25-6, howled over Spur, 40-0; were declobbered by Abilene, 60-0; edged out San Angelo, 14-0; smashed Big Spring, 25-0; were upset by Abilene, 7-0; were tied by San Angelo, 0-0; ran over Big Spring, 19-0; then returned for a third meeting with Angelo and beat that crew, 7-0.

Contrasting the Breck offense, he Ponies have no outstanding star, instead have four very capable backs and two fine ends who excel on the offense. Besides Buck Nessel and Jake Webster in the secondary, Thomas Hendrick and Brooks Thomas handle positions competently. Cecil Voss and Joe Klein, wings, are second-to-none as a duet.

From this corner it looks like a tossup battle with the advantage, if any, going to the Ponies.

Bulldogs End Grid Year In Ackerly Wed.

Seek Third Win Of Year In Go With Eagles

COAHOMA, Nov. 21—Coahoma high school's gridiron forces close their season Wednesday afternoon in Ackerly in a game with George Baggett's Eagles. The game will begin at 2:30 p. m.

Lloyd Devan's forces will be out to avenge an 18-6 licking suffered at the hands of the War Birds two weeks ago and at the same time chalk up their third victory of the season.

The Bulldogs have lost decisions to Big Spring, Dunn, Fluvanna and Ackerly while wins have been recorded against Big Spring and Klondike. The Coahomans also played a tie game with Hermleigh. The Devanmen will be in much better shape for the fracas. All of the injured parties who were ailing in the last Eagle game will be able to go, the coach said.

SMU TO PLAY NOTRE DAME IN 1939

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 21 (AP)—Director of Athletics, Elmer F. Layden, announced today Notre Dame's nine-game football schedule for 1939.

Here is the schedule: (games away from home designated). September 30—Purdue; October 7—Georgia Tech; 14—Southern Methodist; 21—Navy at Baltimore; 28—Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh; November 4—Army at New York; 11—Iowa at Iowa City; 18—Northwestern; 25—Southern California.

With their fourth title in seven years of Lone Star Conference play undisputedly assured, the East Texas eleven this Thursday enters the Missouri State Teachers College of Kirksville on the Commerce gridiron. Last fall Coach Bob Berry's Lions trekked to Kirksville, where they administered the Missouri eleven a 41 to 12 trouncing.

By dropping a hard fought contest to the Bearkats Saturday, San Marcos terminated her season schedule, with a record of only one win in nine starts. The Bearkats, Lumberjacks, and Lions all complete their season card this week.

North Texas will play her last battle of the year December 2 in Denton against Kansas State Teachers College of Pittsburg.

Candidates for regular positions are Pete Denton, Bert Mathis, Harmon Smith, Marlin Brown, Gorman Way, Rayford Gilliland and Sonny Chapman, Marvin Daugherty, Buster Brown, Willie Bee Walker, Guy Dixon, Cleo Jeffcoat and Eugene Long.

Games have already been arranged with Abernathy, Moore and Wayland Junior college of Plainview.

TEXAS A&I ACE NEARS SCORING LEAD AGAIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Leroy Fry, Texas A. and I. halfback, rose to within four points of the nation's scoring leadership by tallying 13 points Saturday on two touchdowns and a conversion. He now is only four points in back of Gaylon Smith of Southwestern (Tenn.) who leads with 97.

Fry has 14 touchdowns and nine conversions for a total of 93. Smith, who didn't score Saturday, has 16 touchdowns and a single point after.

The leaders in various conferences as compiled by the Associated Press, included: Connie Sparks, TCU, Southwest Conference, 48.

HOLDS LIKE STONE WALL

Here's a bunch of Texas Christian University's unbeaten gridsters stopping Cline, Rice halfback, in his tracks. Sparks and Hale stopped Cline. TCU remained undefeated, crushing Rice 29 to 7.

School Officials Meet Today To Discuss New League

Blankenship To Preside At 6 P. M. Confab

The first formal meeting of representatives of schools of the proposed District Three football conference will be held at the Settles hotel, 6 o'clock, this evening when future plans of the league will be discussed and officers of the 1939 season elected. The group may also begin work on a 1939 playing schedule.

W. C. Blankenship, superintendent of the Big Spring schools who called the meeting, will preside at the confab as temporary chairman. He was appointed by Texas Inter-scholastic league headquarters several weeks ago to arrange for such a meeting. He also will represent the local school along with Coach Pat Murphy, Principal George Gentry and possibly one or two others.

At least four schools besides Big Spring are expected to be represented. Superintendent Kenley and Coach Harry Taylor, San Angelo; V. Z. Rogers, Coach T. McCullom and Assistant Mentor J. Gregg, Lamesa; Superintendent Murray Ply and Coach Joe Coleman, Odessa; and Coach Larry Priddy, Sweetwater, are to be on hand.

Officials of Midland and Colorado schools have also been invited to attend.

Six Teams Still Ride At Top Of Grid Ladder

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—The teams that have gone this far through the football season with unmarred records are proving very tough.

The list of the better undefeated and untied teams, as compiled by the Associated Press, included:

Team	W.	L.	T.	Opp. Pts.
Texas Tech	9	253	33
T. C. U.	9	234	46
Tennessee	8	183	16
Notre Dame	8	319	24
Oklahoma	8	338	22
Duke	8	107	0

TURKEY DAY TILTS CLIMAX GRID YEAR

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Four sectional champions are sporting brand new crowns that can't be knocked off until next season; the 1938 campaign is practically over in some regions; but the big question of which teams are to be rated the best in the nation, which two will meet New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl and in other post-season games, still is to be decided.

Most of these problems probably will be ironed out this week when the Thanksgiving Day classics and next Saturday's climax games bring the season almost to its end.

Last Saturday saw the Big Ten campaign close with Minnesota, top again; Oklahoma complete its sweep of Big Six honors; Duke walk off with the Southern conference crown; Utah take the title in the Rocky Mountain Big Seven, and California clinch at least a tie for Pacific Coast conference honors.

Each of these new champions has a claim of some sort to high national ranking, but there are other claims which must be considered. The "major" unbeaten and untied teams are Georgetown in the East; Notre Dame and Oklahoma in the Midwest; Texas Christian in the Southwest and Tennessee and Duke in the South. Texas Tech and Western Reserve may be as good as some of these but they haven't been able to prove it yet.

Stand Out From the sectional and "howl" standpoint, the major events on this week's program are Thursday's Southern California-T. C. U. A game, the probably decisive Tennessee-Kentucky and Texas Christian-Southern Methodist contests and the intersectional battle between Duke and Pittsburg.

In the East the Army-Navy classic heads this week's slate; Pittsburg goes for a decisive test against Duke. In Thanksgiving games, Penn and Cornell clash; Columbia meets

Frogs Face The Big Test Sat.

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT DALLAS, Nov. 21 (AP)—Terrific Texas Christian, a football team that honestly doesn't know how good it could be, may get around to finding out next Saturday.

Nine consecutive walkway victories are theirs but all of them bundled together couldn't look as big as Southern Methodist's Mustangs—their hosts here Saturday.

Victims, coaches, sports writers and fans agreed Texas Christian was the finest team in Southwest history after it romped on Rice, 29-7, Saturday. But the same group opined the Southern Methodist matter was still another thing. They recalled the 1935 incident when the two neighboring schools scrapped it out for the Rose Bowl invitation—and TCU lost.

The Christians, certainly the most versatile team in the sector's football life, can strike either way—by ground or air. Through nine triumphs it had piled up 1607 yards on passes, most of them from little Davey O'Brien, a grand Irish lad who has chucked 18 touchdowns.

But the running game was even better. O'Brien, quite a ball lugger also, Connie Sparks, Earl Clark, Johnny Hall et al, have powered through enemy lines for 1690 yards.

Guiding Genius All of which proves that O'Brien, from his quarterbacking post, uses his head for more than a helmet rack. His generalship, the mixing of passes and runs, has been the guiding force in TCU's amazing run.

Southern Methodist has sophomore backs—Ray Malloff, Johnny Clement, Will Mullenweg and Roy Holbrook who quickly forgot the meaning of pressure and started playing genuine football after a rocky start. Malloff and Clement can pass in a big way, and the aerial play Saturday should be the best of the year.

In Sparks, O'Brien and Clark, the Christians have the conference's three top scorers in that order. Southern Methodist passes its scoring laurels around.

Meet Rice Dec. 3 The conference race Saturday with a triumph. But a Southern Methodist victory would put them in the driver's seat with only Rice on Dec. 3 as their barrier to the title.

An invitation to one of three bowl games, Sugar or Cotton Bowl, would be about as big a clinch as Seabiscuit in an harness race if TCU were through Saturday. No matter what the Pacific Coast Conference set its meeting date on Rose Bowl matters for the day after the TCU-SMU game. The Sugar Bowl has unofficially voiced its like for a TCU appearance there.

The Thanksgiving Day game between the battered forces of Texas, losers of eight straight, and Texas A. and M., a powerhouse that has exploded on occasions, will draw some 40,000 at Austin, but most of the fans will be thinking two days ahead. The Aggies, 27-0 conquerors of Rice their last time out, were favorites—tradition notwithstanding.

Arkansas plays its annual Thanksgiving Day against Tulsa University at Tulsa. The Porkers took a 26-14 beating from Ole Miss last week.

Two Features In the Southwest Texas Christian still has to beat Southern Methodist Saturday before they can claim the title and look toward a post-season bowl. In "consolation" games, Texas plays Texas A. and M. Thursday while Arkansas tackles Tulsa. Baylor and Rice come together Saturday.

Texas Tech, which kept its perfect record only because Jodie Marek managed to score 10 points in the last 40 seconds to beat New Mexico, 17-7, meets Marquette, Saturday.

Unbeaten Tennessee can clinch the Southeastern conference crown by beating Kentucky Thursday although the Vols have to meet Mississippi the following week. Alabama, Tulane and Ole Miss, with one defeat each, are in range if Tennessee should slip up. Alabama plays Vanderbilt and Mississippi meets Mississippi State Thursday while Tulane meets Louisiana State Saturday.

North Ward Is 27-6 Winner Lois Carden's North Ward gridsters spare the major upset of the City Junior football league season when they routed Red Houth's West Ward eleven, 27-6, in Steer stadium Friday afternoon.

Miss Carden's team will appear Center Point in an exhibition game in the stadium this afternoon.

HORACE WALLIN AND OTIS KEY WIN SUNDAY

Horace Wallin and Otis Key carried off honors and a turkey casket after their golfing rounds in the blind bogey tournament staged at the Municipal course Sunday. Twenty five participated.

Hi Races To Be Settled This Week

Associated Press Staff A "turnover" of more than 50 per cent in district champions loomed today as the Texas schoolboy football campaign entered the final week prior to start of the state play-off.

Six 1937 champions are already out of the race, Abilene falling in the Oil Belt, North Side in the Fort Worth district, Woodrow Wilson in the Dallas district, Longview in district 9, Thomas Jefferson in the San Antonio district and Mission in the Rio Grande valley district.

Austin (El Paso) has only an outside chance to repeat in District 4, odds are heavily against Sherman coming back in District 6, Lufkin is expected to win in District 10 and Waco is favored to replace Temple in District 11.

Amarillo faces a hard battle with Lubbock in the fight to again wear the crown in the Panhandle, Wichita Falls goes up against a strong Vernon team in an effort to repeat in District 2 and Conroe is likely to be tied for the District 13 pennant.

Corpus Christi does not appear in danger in District 15. District 14 last year had no champion due to a controversy over use of twelfth graders. Fort Arthur has virtually clinched the title this season.

Needs One Win Highland Park (Dallas) needs only to defeat a comparatively weak Sulphur Springs team to win the District championship again. Should the Tigers win, it would be the year's outstanding upset.

Prospects are good that the four undefeated, untied teams left in the state will remain that ranking this week. Waco probably faces the toughest challenge in the Temple team but most critics think the Agers will come through and many predict they will reach the finals of the state race. Gainesville plays Sherman, Tyler meets Marshall and Lufkin engages Livingston.

Tyler boasts the best record with 304 points to 19 for the opposition in nine games. Waco is next with 281 to 19 in eight games while Lufkin has run up 284 against 20 in nine games.

Wichita Falls, Corpus Christi, Brownsville and Sunset (Dallas) are undefeated but have been tied. The picture by districts at the present time:

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now by Croemulsion, an emulsified Croesote that is pleasant to take. Croemulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm. The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Croesote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Croesote with other ingredients so that now in Croemulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Croesote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children. Croemulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Croemulsion from your druggist, use it as directed, and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Croemulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, one that the name on the bottle is Beechwood Croemulsion and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Nearly 1/2 of telephone expenses in Texas goes for wages...

Out of more than 23 1/2 million dollars spent by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company to provide telephone service in Texas last year, about 10 million dollars... nearly half... went for wages. Wages to 9,000 telephone people, who in turn spent most of that money in Texas.

Telephone wages play no small part in keeping the state's business moving. And by assuring telephone users of the services of skilled, efficient people, they play a large part in giving you good telephone service at reasonable cost. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

On The Record

THE NATURE OF THE THING

We are where we are today because of an appalling incapacity of many leaders of democratic politics to comprehend the nature of what they are dealing with in Nazism.

They have acted on the presumption that the National Socialist State was a stable and orderly institution and a bulwark against communism.

In this misconception they have been greatly aided by communist agitators, who have insisted on presenting Nazism as a capitalist plot and a movement of world industrialists to oppress the workers.

It is perfectly true that capitalist leaders in Germany, prior to the Nazi revolution, and in Britain, France, and even in very limited number in the United States to this very day, have aided and abetted Nazism and Fascism—those forms of totalitarianism that do not call themselves communistic—because of fear.

That fear has been engendered by their own impotence to meet new social and labor problems by their fear of workers, by disorganization caused by hastily devised and badly considered social reforms and by the existence in democracies of revolutionary communist parties following a line laid down by the leaders in Moscow.

Also there is a type of mind among industrialist leaders that has a natural subconscious affinity for what is presented to them as the concept of the Fascist state.

The Fascist state, as it is pictured to them, follows a pattern that is familiar and comfortable to them. It is in the propaganda designed for industrialists—a large, efficient, monopolistic corporation, run by an efficient management that does not have to bother with strikes and other labor difficulties and that has easy access to plentiful state credit.

That is why Henry Ford likes Nazism, for which sympathy he has recently been decorated by the Nazi state. Nazism, in Mr. Ford's mind, is the Ford factory on a gigantic scale. It has eliminated the private bankers, whom Mr. Ford has always detested; it has gotten rid of the "parasitic" Jews—Mr. Ford has always had a contempt for all middle men. And it has organized the workers as Mr. Ford would like to see them organized in brigades, with their physical necessities guaranteed and their cultural and leisure-time activities dictated and supervised.

Mr. Ford, like Charles Lindbergh, is in love with the machine. Like Lindbergh, who wrote "WE," the companion being an airplane, Mr. Ford is almost a machine himself. His ideas, of their precision are his idols. Whole vast areas of thought and, above all, of emotion are outside his comprehension. If you quoted him Dunsany that the divine in man is extravagance, benevolence and song, he would not know what you are talking about. Happiness for him consists in running a machine. He is a man of enormous creative power, but he would never comprehend the creative intellect that demands freedom, room to move in, long periods of laziness, "useless" knowledge, self-renewal through contemplation. He, too, is a product of freedom, but he does not know it. He is a moralist but not a philosopher, and he is without the wisdom of knowledge of the nature of man as manifested through centuries of history.

But the Fascist state is not Mr. Ford's dream at all. And the object of Nazism is not even to establish any such state.

It is actually incapable of stabilizing any social order whatsoever. To be sure, it has thus far followed some such pattern along the plans of its industrial brain-trusters, but these brain-trusters are not Mr. Ford's brain-trusters and something quite different may follow.

Nazism is revolution. Its object is power. It has no other aim and no other program that is more than temporary. Its initiators and leaders are not industrialists. Its leaders are ruthless, thirde-rate, psychopathic, decline, formerly unemployed intellectuals and soldiers. It governs by mass support, elicited by mass suggestion and maintained by a combination of propaganda and terror, and it could not last a month if the masses deserted it. It must consolidate only one force—the masses. It must keep only one force dynamic—the masses. It cannot allow them to settle down quietly. It must keep them aggressive—by working up continual external and internal enemies. It must exploit to the fullest the pleasurable submission of the weak among them and the pleasurable sadism of the brutal among them. It must have constant victories for them to celebrate—external and internal victories. It must pose as their defender against all the forces of privilege, against the richer nations and the richer classes.

Therefore, if its brain-trusters set up Mr. Ford's ideal economy, Nazism itself will prey upon it, as a racketeer preys upon business and labor.

It is totally uninterested in the maintenance of private enterprise except as a source of income for itself.

The Timid Soul

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds

by ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Scrooge sat in Reginald Owen's dressing room and talked to the set, and he had on Reginald Owen's dressing gown and Reginald Owen's battered old slippers. He even smoked Reginald Owen's cigarettes, and talked about Reginald Owen when the actor was mentioned. But he wasn't Reginald Owen.

This was due, almost entirely, to Jack Dawn—and to Reginald Owen's patience and forbearance. Owen has been Make-up Mau Dawn's No. 1 guinea pig in facial make-up experiments. Owen was the first actor to lose his own face and get a new one from Dawn.

Owen, who ordinarily does not look like Robert Taylor and never threatens the romantic leading men, still has a good enough face of his own. From Jack Dawn he usually gets worse ones. That face in "Suicide Club" could belong only to Scrooge.

Scrooge is bald except for a fuzzy tuft planted in the upper center of his high round forehead. The face is florid, as befits a crotchety old gent with the gout and no Christmas spirit, and the scowl-lines are deep over the shaggy grey eyebrows. The nose is sharp, and the mouth is thin and tight.

This day, however, Scrooge could smile. Jack Dawn had made the mask a little less tight so the Scrooge face could soften for the final, regenerating scenes of "A Christmas Carol." The mask—and there is its importance in make-up—responds with the skin beneath to every change of facial expression.

The mask, said Scrooge-Owen, is quite improved since its first use in "Suicide Club," when it was prone to break out in "boils" under the heat of the lights. It's fairly simple now. Each morning Dawn takes his material—a sort of fungus mass—spreads it on Owen's face and there Scrooge stays all day until Dawn yanks him off, all in one piece. Nights, at least, Owen can see what he really looks like.

Scrooge-Owen was very happy, he said, to be a part of "A Christmas Carol."

"And thank heaven," he said, "it is being made as simply and sincerely as Dickens himself would have made it. It is not an epic, it is not colossal, it is simple and human and homely."

This brought up a discussion, naturally, of "Stabilemates," which Owen (minus Scrooge) co-authored. "Stabilemates" really happened—almost.

Owen, driving home from Santa Anita one day, gave a stableboy a lift, subsequently befriended him. In time the lad disappeared, but one 3 a. m. Owen and his wife were awakened by a long distance call, collect, from Arkansas. It was the stableboy, in distress. He needed $200 to take a horse to Baltimore. Owen sent $50, but the letter was returned unclaimed.

"The boy had acquired the horse substantially as we made Mickey Rooney acquire his in the picture," said Author Owen. "We took this incident, plus an operation we saw at Santa Anita, and we had our plot. And this is a secret—I wrote the part of the old vet for myself. But I'm glad now I didn't get it. Wallace Beery did a much better job than I could have done."

This pleasant state of affairs is Ray Kinney. A year and a half ago he arrived in this town practically unknown. He opened the now famous Hawaiian room, and he caught on. He was here for a long time. Then he went away, and while he was gone it was Lani McIntyre who took his place and did it so capably that he probably will come back to replace Ray again when he leaves sometime in January for a visit to the Islands.

Of course if there hadn't been a Hawaiian room there wouldn't be a definite Hawaiian trend in New York today. But Charley Rochester believed in the idea so strongly that he sent for Jack Lessman and told him to go ahead and build a room that would suit every need. Charley Rochester is managing director of the Lexington hotel, and Lessman is a famous interior decorator.

This room was the springboard for what New York likes to regard as a fine personality. For Kinney's fan mail is now enormous, and the postman doesn't ring your door very often unless he thinks a lot of you. He has made more than 100 records, and many of those languorous and nostalgic ballads are his own compositions. He sings from 50 to 75 songs every night. And that's selling peanuts. Mind you, I'm not trying to wear you away from Valles or Morgan or anybody. But when I stumble onto something good I like for my friends to share it with me.

And so with a friendly nod to the Lombardos and all others I would like to suggest that the most pleasing influence on popular music in New York during the last couple of years has been Hawaiian. It wasn't sudden, like a war or a flood, and for that reason it hasn't gone out like a Johnny One Note. It was gradual and imperceptible, and it insinuated itself so subtly into the popular fancy that you never suspected or saw it coming, until you wakened one morning and started to hum something about Aloha, and you knew it was here.

THE ARMY POST MURDERS

Chapter 15 The Typewriter

Along with the unconscious girl I read the note once more. There was something familiar about the typewritten letters. I began to search the lines feverishly 'Yes, the 'e' was out of line, and the 'r' crowded the letter than followed.

I dropped the sheet of paper and stared at the bare white wall. It was unbearably hot here close to the roof. Hardly aware of what I was doing, I fumbled with the frogs and buttons at my throat. As I slipped out of the mandarin coat I was conscious of intense relief, as if it typified all the heavy blackness, all the evil of the night.

I hung it carefully over the back of the chair, for, after all, it was a gorgeous garment and it was not mine. Then I jicked up the letter and held it close to the light, staring hopefully at the defective type, as familiar to me as the pattern of lines on my own hand, and remembering exactly, vividly, a scene in the two-room apartment I share with Eileen—a scene nearly a year old.

I was proudly showing my new noiseless typewriter to Charlie—Charlie on his way to join the regiment, his ring very new and strange on his finger.

"Look, Charlie, it's red!" "And pipe the streamlines, curves! Don't kid me, it's a tricycle or something. That thing can't write."

"No, I do that." Charlie was shaking his head mournfully. "The old gray mare ain't what she used to be. What ever became of Grandpa's old Oliver? Now there was a typewriter!"

"Oh, I've got a battered old wreck too. They wanted to give me ten dollars for it, but it was too much like parting with a member of the family. I thought I might still use it occasionally, but of course I won't."

"I'll give you a ten spot for it." "Sight unseen? After what I've done to it—and on it—I doubt if it's worth it."

"Well, I need something that will set down one letter after another. You know my flat." "It couldn't help be more legible than that—after all, it saw me through college. You'll treat it gently—and give it a new ribbon occasionally? I really ought to put it out to pasture after all these years."

After all those years was it likely that I could be mistaken? Was it likely that two old typewriters would have the same defects—defects that speckled all the early manuscripts that still overflowed my desk drawers?

I might as well face it. That letter, the damnably callous letter that the poor stricken girl had brought with her, had been written on Charlie's typewriter—Charlie's—that once was mine.

My determination to shield him wavered. If he had written that letter he was not the boy I grew up with. And what could she be to him—that stigmatized figure of tragedy, so slight, so worn, so alone that she must trust to the compassion of any passing stranger when the snarled mechanism of her body betrayed her?

If she were Charlie's responsibility—but how could she be?—then he must ask no quarter from me. Worse than hotheaded murder was the callous indifference of someone who knew this girl was here—alone. And the letter had been written on Charlie's typewriter.

I was through concealing clues. The presence of Ethel Curtis put a grave complexion on things. Something evil was a talking through these corridors tonight—something self-centered and ruthless. A personality began to take shape in my mind.

I closed the door softly behind me and crept to the head of the stairs. I could still hear her if she stirred. I could hear, too, Adam's voice below me, and could distinguish most of the questions and answers.

After a moment I recognized the other voices as Barney's—quick, high, nervous, obviously strained to the breaking point. "What must have been near the door," I heard him say. "The entrance, I mean. I heard it thought it was one of those balloons. She went limp—in my arms." His voice broke, steeled. "Then I saw—there was blood on my hand."

"Then the shot seemed to come from outside?" "I don't know—I tell you, I thought it was a balloon." "Do you remember a car passing?" "I don't know—I think—no, I don't know. There may have been." Adam was silent for a minute. When he resumed his voice was less official, more gentle. "What kind of trouble was she in, Barney?" "Trouble? What do you mean? What makes you think so?" "I don't know. Even tonight—I thought she seemed—ragged."

"She drinks—drank too much. I've been telling her. She was going on the wagon—after tonight." "Was that why you split up last spring?"

USC Fights For Chance At Rose Bowl Thursday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21 (AP)—Southern California and University of California at Los Angeles will clash in a football game here Thanksgiving Day, with:

1. Southern California fighting for a chance to go into the Rose Bowl.
2. U.C.L.A. struggling to lose a jaunt to sunny Honolulu.
Victory will give Southern California a tie with the Golden Bears for the conference championship, and an edge in the voting because they thrashed the lads from Berkeley on Nov. 5.
If the Trojans lose, they have first call on a game in Honolulu. If they win, the ocean trip doubtless will be off and U.C.L.A. will make the journey.

Republicans Hope To Continue With Coalition Power

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—Prominent Republican senators disclosed today they were eager to retain the bi-partisan coalition which shelved the Roosevelt court bill and fought various other administration measures.
These men, although related by their party's congressional gains, said Republicans in the 1939 senate and house should exercise caution in taking a partisan attitude.
If that way, they hope to keep the cooperation of anti-administration Democrats who heretofore have joined them in debate and on roll calls.
Some politicians have predicted that the recent election would tend to weld divergent elements of the Democratic party together for a common-front fight against the Republican minority.
Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), however, expressed the view that the Republican gains "have not weakened the coalition."

FORMER RANGER ON TRIAL SECOND TIME

BELTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—L. E. Trimble, former Texas ranger, went on trial for a second time today for the slaying of W. R. Tomlinson, former county commissioner and rancher, in Menard county Nov. 27, 1934.
Trimble was sentenced to five years in a Gillespie county trial but the court of criminal appeals granted a new trial. H. B. Opp, Menard county rancher, also is charged in the slaying, which reportedly resulted from a land dispute.
Four prosecutors and three defense attorneys were on hand to try the case before Judge Fawcett. A jury was being chosen today.

Strike Called In Stockyards

Trading In Chicago Halted By Handlers Walkout

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Live-stock trading at the stockyards was halted today by a strike called by the CIO Packing House Workers Union against the Union Stock Yards and Transit company.
Police Captain John F. Hendrick, who assigned 100 policemen to special duty at the yards, reported about 175 stock handlers had refused to go to work.
He said the strike was for higher wages and vacations. A spokesman for the company said no grievances had been submitted by the workers.
The Live Stock Handlers Union, an AFL affiliate, was not participating.
In previous years there have been similar strikes called shortly before the International Live Stock Exposition, which opens at the yards Saturday.
A statement issued by the packing workers organizing committee over the signatures of Hank Johnson, assistant national director, and Herb March, organizer, charged the stock yards and transit company with "an increasingly vicious campaign of terror."
"The present tieup x x x is the outgrowth of the company's refusal to bargain in good faith," the statement said in part.
"The direct provocation leading to the stoppage was:
"First, the slugging of Ben Brown, the local's president, on company property when he was going about his duties as feedman."
The statement charged the local's office was riddled with bullets and bombed since bargaining negotiations were begun with the company.
"A series of sluggings, threats and attempts at murder, was climaxed by the attack on Ben Brown a week ago Saturday," the statement said, adding that three men armed with baseball bats and shotguns entered his home, and that in the ensuing fight he suffered a broken arm.

Democratic Leaders Confer With Farley

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Half a hundred top democratic leaders from the Mississippi east to the Atlantic, met today with Postmaster General James A. Farley to take private stock of the post-election situation, and to discuss future democratic policies with 1940 in mind.
Farley, the party's national chairman, and democratic national committee headquarters, was extraordinarily reticent about the conference.
The closed meeting had been described officially as designed to make plans for the customary Jackson Day dinner of January 5, but an authoritative source conceded that a main unstated purpose was to talk over republican gains.
National committeemen from southern and eastern states were among the conferees. Others were ranking regional leaders.

Farm

with farm leaders for the domestic allotment plan, Wilson reported, and "many features of that plan are now a part of the present farm program. But those of us who had worked for domestic allotment finally were forced to conclude that under present conditions the domestic allotment was not enough."

"In the days when foreign countries were taking more of our farm products it might have worked. But now there seems to be a definite limit on the amounts we can export, no matter what the price is."

The farm program, Wilson continued, offers these points in the way of solutions to "the real problems."

1. The agricultural conservation program—voluntary acreage allotments of the soil depleting crops, and encouragement to farmers in holding topsoil in place and building up its fertility.

2. Crop loans to cooperators—to put a bottom under prices and create an ever-normal granary.

3. Use of marketing quotas—to control the marketing of surpluses in emergency years when supplies are very large.

"With such a program, I believe that farmers are in a position to gradually overcome the difficulties that surround them now."

The undersecretary said the present emergencies in cotton and wheat sprang largely from the surpluses of 1936 and 1937, "the two years in which there were no effective control programs for farmers to use."

Britain Cool Toward Plan Of Army Aid

Daladier-Chamberlain Talk May Not Find Common Ground

PARIS, Nov. 21 (AP)—Indications that Great Britain would refuse to train a large army to aid French troops on the continent in the event of war appeared likely today to lend an icy atmosphere to Premier Daladier's talks with Prime Minister Chamberlain this week.

Two days before Chamberlain is scheduled to arrive with Viscount Halifax, his foreign minister, sources close to the government said that the British premier again had indicated conviction that his country's large fleet and growing air force were a sufficient contribution to the British-French military cooperation.

Discussions between the British and French ministers, it was ascertained, will deal chiefly with defense against a possible attack from the fascist partners—Italy and Germany.

This was decided upon, politicians said, because it was felt international protests against Nazi attacks upon Jews forced a temporary shelving of Chamberlain's project for further appeasement of Chancellor Hitler—possibly with colonial territory.

The French attitude has been that its army of approximately 700,000 men cannot bear the brunt of a war against Germany and Italy.

The talks—once considered a likely prelude to a four-power discussion with Germany and Italy—were threatened with further chill by what was described here as British resentment at a "tendency" by foreign Minister Bonnet to place the responsibility for Munich peace on London.

HUNTERS RETURN

Four hunters returned Sunday from the Davis mountains with as many black tail bucks. Hunting on the J. W. McCutcheon ranch south of Balmorhea, R. L. Wolf and George Hall of Big Spring, and Bernard Lay of Coahoma each dropped nine point bucks while Jim Wilson of Coahoma bagged an eight pointer.

AGGIES ORGANIZE

Local boys attending Texas A. and M. College have organized a Big Spring club, according to reports received here. Tom Collins has been named president of the unit. One of the plans of the club is to stage an Aggie dance here Dec. 21, with Ray Maddox furnishing the music.

RAILS INSTALLED

Installation of hand rails on the postoffice steps was begun Monday by the Arlington Iron Works, low bidders on the project. The rails will be run down both sides of the steps to the sidewalk. They were ordered at the request of many elderly people who were in need of support in climbing the postoffice steps.

12,000 CHEERED the horsemanship of two Chileans, Maj. Eduardo Yanez (left) and Lieut. Hernan Vigil, who rode their horses over nine difficult jumps at the national horse show in New York, each horse running in perfect harmony and clearing the barriers together without a single fault. Earlier in show, Major Yanez rode Chileans to win the Bowman challenge cup.

care for tens of thousands who apply for help and the doors of many still are closed. No foreign relief societies have been established here.

Many Jews face the future not knowing where to turn even to live from day to day. They estimate that 60,000 Jewish men have been sent to jail and concentration camps, leaving many families unable to replenish ready cash funds.

But there was at least a temporary end to the wholesale arrests. And a recent sharp decline in German exports may prove a momentary life-saver at least for the Jewish export trade.

The ministry of economics, cooperating closely with Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering as chief of Germany's four-year plan, has been striving to convince Nazi leaders that the sudden ejection of Jews from the export business may prove harmful to Germany's economy.

Goering's newspaper, the National Zeitung of Essen, declared a central bureau had "turned the exodus of Jews from Germany into regulated channels" but that foreign nations, particularly the United States and Great Britain, were blocking Jewish emigration from Germany although they have wide open spaces.

Local Group Tours Cosden Refinery

More than a score of business and civic leaders were taken on a tour through the Cosden refining plant Monday noon.

Divided into small groups, they were guided through both the old portion of the plant and through the new million dollar refining unit.

They learned, in addition to many things about the workings of the plant, that it required about 220 men to operate, that the daily production was about 275,000 gallons of gasoline, that 16,000 barrels of crude oil could be handled easily, that the monthly payroll, which is spent locally, is $40,000.

The tour also included an inspection of the new laboratory nearing completion. Those making the tour were guests of E. W. Potter, refinery superintendent.

The damage suit of E. E. Cannon versus F. D. Helcher was disposed of with an agreed judgment, while continuances were granted in these cases: Tessie M. Tucker versus All-American Bus Line company, suit for damages; Byrl Tucker versus Fort Worth Lloyd's company, compensation; Virginia Walker versus Big Spring Hotel corporation, damages.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Airsports proved popular in today's stock market but most other groups had difficulty in attracting even mild support.

Business news, on the whole, continued moderately cheerful, and some comfort was found in the apparent easing of foreign tension, but speculative forces generally exhibited little appetite for the buying side pending more conclusive evidence the market has completed the "corrective" movement following the lengthy upturn.

Gains ran to 2 points or so among scattered favorites, but numerous stocks were unchanged and minor losses were plentiful at the close.

'Happiness Package' Boosted As Aid To Parcel Post

In connection with the silver jubilee of parcel post being observed throughout the nation this month, the postoffice this week will encourage a "Happiness Package" movement.

This move had its inception in New York state in the minds of a postmaster who observed that the "expected package is a thrill—the surprise package is a climax. The thrill and the climax are not only for the dweller on the rural route, for there must be thousands in the cities this Thanksgiving who remember childhood candies, cakes, cookies, jellies, maple sugar, yeast, and foods that adult money could not buy today, but someone might send them. And they might in turn send 'city' things back home."

His proposal to start a "Happiness Package" movement for the week before Thanksgiving each year was taken up by the postal department.

SERVICES LEAVING FOR CALIFORNIA

Norway's Queen Is Claimed By Death

LONDON, Nov. 21 (AP)—Norway and Britain today mourned the passing of Norway's English-born Queen Maud, who died in a London nursing home early Sunday of a heart attack four days after an abdominal operation.

The queen was 68 years old. Aunt of King George VI of Great Britain and last surviving child of Edward VII, her death came so suddenly that only a nurse was at her bedside.

King Haakon of Norway was at Buckingham Palace where he has been staying since the queen's grave illness brought him hurrying from Oslo.

Crown Prince Olaf, the queen's only child, left Norway to join his father in London. King George and Queen Elizabeth returned from Hertfordshire and ordered court mourning for a month starting Dec. 8.

The queen's body is to lie in state tomorrow in the chapel of Marlborough House and Wednesday will be placed aboard a British battleship to be escorted by four destroyers to Norway.

ELABORATE RITES STAGED HONORING KAMAL ATATURK

ANKARA, Turkey, Nov. 21 (AP)—Funeral honors surpassing those once given to Ottoman sultans were accorded to Kamal Ataturk today in this modern capital he created from a village.

The body of the late president lay in state before the grand-national assembly, on a catafalque adorned by a wreath of red and white roses from his divorced wife, while Turkish men and women passed by all night and until the state ceremonies began.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES TO MEET TONIGHT

The Big Spring independent school board will hold a meeting at 7:30 p. m. today to attend to important matters, it was announced.

Perhaps the most important is the awarding of a contract on a PWA school contract. Jess Williams of Lubbock was low bidder here Saturday, but awarding of contract was delayed due to lack of a board quorum.

SHORT TALKS ON ADVERTISING

(FIFTH SERIES)

Prepared by the

Bureau of Research and Education, Advertising Federation of America

Machines, Jobs, and Advertising

Number 3

Machines have been in the limelight pretty much recently and there has been a good deal of misleading talk about them. One fallacious notion about machines is that they cut down the amount of employment—that greater use of machines in industry means a smaller number of jobs.

It is important that we know the truth about this, for without question machines have deeply affected all industry and its individual wage earners. The facts show that besides making life easier for workmen, machines also create new opportunities for employment and actually increase the total number of jobs. In this process, advertising is a very important factor.

About the time of the American Civil War our industries began to change from neighborhood shops with hand labor to the modern factory system, equipped with machines run by power. From the very beginning of this movement there were always some people raising the cry that machines put men out of work. But that has not happened, for the simple reason that machine-made goods were sold at lower prices, more people bought them, and more men were employed to make them.

Not long ago all window glass was manufactured through the lung power of human glass blowers. Now it is all made by the use of huge glass-making machines. The cost is much less and so much glass is used that many more men are employed in the industry than formerly. At the last census, 98,000 persons were employed in glass factories.

Shortly after the Civil War the amount of mechanical power used to operate machines in American industries was only 1-10 horse power for every wage earner. Sixty years later there was 4-9-10 horse power per wage earner. As a result the amount of work turned out by each man rose so rapidly during this period that the value added by manufacture increased from $658 per wage earner to $3,600. In other words, the mechanical power used in industry increased more than four-fold per worker and the output per worker increased more than five-fold.

And in the meantime, what happened to employment? In the same period the population of our country increased 3-1-10 times and the number of persons gainfully occupied increased 3-9-10 times. As industry substituted machines and power for hand labor, the productivity of each worker increased and the number of jobs increased faster than the population. During this same period the annual earnings per worker were multiplied by nearly 4-1-2.

When we think of this tremendous progress it is well to remember that the greatly enlarged output of industry does not automatically find a market. One of the most important factors in distributing the ever-increasing volume of goods is the use of advertising, without which this mass distribution would be impossible. In a way, advertising is really a key to our industrial progress. Many industries owe their growth directly to the power of advertising.

The machine age means more things for more people and advertising is its indispensable tool.
