Path Of Death And Ruin In Waco And San Angelo

Relatives Anxious About Kin In Waco

Property Loss May Reach $50 Million

Residents of this area with kin in Waco and San Angelo are anxiously awaiting assurance that loved ones have escaped the storms. Telephone and telegraph lines were put out of commission in both cities and at one time shortly after Waco was struck by the tornado, only one telephone line was in operation. W. L. McWilliams of Matador has received no word from his brother, Tom McWilliams of Waco, but feels confident the family has escaped.

Turner Campbell of Matador and his brother, J. K. Campbell of Roaring Springs have received a message assuring that two brothers and families, C. R. and L. W. Turner, a nephew, D. L. Turner and a sister, Mrs. Mattie Cook, all of Waco are safe and well.

A radio message heard here Tuesday afternoon assured Mrs. Leonora Luckett and Jack Luckett of Matador and Mrs. Cecil Godfrey of Spar, that the Rowe Sams family of Waco are all right. Mrs. Sams is a daughter of Mrs. Luckett.

Mrs. Ed Cammack and Miss Maggie Bryan are awaiting word regarding the safety of their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan of Waco.

A telephone message early this morning from the A. G. Russell family assured his brothers, John and Eddie Russell that they were all right. Mr. Russell who travels for Swift & Co., was on the road at the time of the tornado, and his wife and small daughter, Patsy, were alone during the storm.

A number of other residents are vainly trying to establish communications with relatives in the stricken areas.

DEATH REACHED out of the sky Monday afternoon to smear blood and destruction across the faces of two large cities. San Angelo was struck by a tornado about two o'clock and ten dead have been reported. W. M. Martin, 83, cousin of Bruce Martin of Matador is listed among the victims. More than 100 were injured and property damage was estimated in excess of $3,000,000.

Less than three hours later another tornado struck the business section of Waco and radio reports last night said the death toll was expected to exceed 100. The storm ripped through a 12-block section of Waco's business district, filling the streets with debris of wrecked buildings. Largest building in the direct path of the storm was the five-story R. T. Dennis furniture store which crumpled like paper in the ferocious wind. Property loss in Waco may reach $40 million or more according to reports. A steady downpour of rain in the stricken district hampered rescue crews that dug into the tons of debris which covered the dead and injured. Giant shovels and other power equipment was employed on a continuous basis despite the rain which totalled over seven inches and for a time brought a flood threat from the Brazos river.

Among State's Worst The tornado was declared to be one of the most severe storms ever to strike the state of Texas. Hitting the business district during the evening rush hour is believed to have been a principal factor in the great loss of life.

Towns throughout the state and in many neighboring states are already sending food, clothing, bedding and other necessities to the stricken areas. Calls for blood are being sent out by the Red Cross as hospitals are filled to overflowing with the injured. Many stories of horror as result of the two tornadoes are being published in daily newspapers and told over the air. Graphic pictures of destruction left in the storms' path are appearing in all Texas newspapers.

Matador Is Jittery As Alarm Released

Matador was "jittery" late Monday as Lubbock and Floydada radio stations issued tornado warnings for Kent, Dickens and Motley counties. A mild sandstorm was blowing at the time and only a few clouds were visible.

Conditions indicated the possibilities of tornadoes in an area south of a line between Childress and Lubbock, which would have included Matador. Erratic barometer readings were observed in the area but no storms developed. The radio warnings said the danger of tornadoes would pass by ten p. m.

Huge "Cat" Hooked By Local Fishermen

They were biting big down in Mexico this week, and evidence was brought home by local fishermen. Freeman Thacker of Matador and Thurston Winegar of Roaring Springs, who returned early Wednesday morning. Prize catch was a 40-lb catfish but not to be scoffed at, was the 25-pounder which was part of their luck. The fisherman's paradise is "Sugar" Lake, near San Pedro, Mexico, where the local nimrods make frequent trips.

Two AF Captains Advanced In Rank

Two Matador Reserve Air Force Captains, Vance Gilbreath and Dick Groves, last week received advancements to the rank of Major. Information of the promotion was contained in Headquarters orders from the 14th Air Force, Robinson AF Base, Georgia, which read:

"The following named reserve officer by direction of the president, is promoted to the grade of Major, Air Force Reserve, effective April 24. This promotion constitutes a new appointment in the Air Force Reserves, effective from this date.

Both Gilbreath and Groves are World War I veterans and at the present time are in the 968th Volunteer AF Reserve Training Squadron at Plainview where they take training. The squadron meets every Tuesday night, and the men serve as instructors from time to time.

Tuesday night, Major Gilbreath acted as instructor in a course on "Air Force Psychological Warfare."

Major Groves recently completed a tour of active duty at Hensley Field, Grand Prairie, and left May 2nd, for Scott Air Force Base, Ill., for two weeks instruction.

"Until the present crisis of threatening all-out war is past, it is important that everyone realize the need for building a vast army of reserve personnel," Major Gilbreath declared. "We have a very effective program for this purpose, which should receive the support and cooperation of every citizen of the United States, inasmuch as it is maintained for our own protection."

Very Cool For May

RAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

While escaping the fury of cyclones the Texas Panhandle remains dry and cold. Dust and snow were on the weatherman's menu for Wednesday as livestock warnings were issued and Dalhart experienced a snowstorm. Amarillo dropped to 34 degrees Tuesday night and yesterday was the coldest May 13 ever recorded by the weather bureau there.

High winds raged here Saturday, Sunday and most of Monday. A few sprinkles of rain followed the duster early Tuesday. Yesterday remained cold and cloudy. However, Bill Meyer reported he received one-half inch of rain northeast of Flomot. He said he received more than one inch of rain in a storm which Friday night swept across a narrow path between Lockney and Childress.

Flomot received a severe hail storm Friday night and hail stones approximately five inches in circumference were reported in the Northfield area. The duration of the storm was brief.

Reeves--Sponsored Bill Is Approved By House

AUSTIN—(Sp.)—A bill that will bring about $10,000,000 in surplus commodities to Texas in the next two years and one which will be a boon to the present lunch room program in public schools, zoomed past the House of Representatives to the Senate last week. House Bill 441, sponsored by Rep. Elbert Reeves of Matador, has been dubbed one of the most important pieces of legislation that will be brought up this session.

MODERN CLEANERS GETS NEW OWNER

Three West Texas Weekly Publishers Claimed By Death

Three veteran West Texas weekly newspaper publishers, Van W. Stewart of Perryton, Sam Roberts of Haskell and W. H. "Hop" Graham of Farwell, have died within the past five days.

In Baccalaureate Address

"Life is a great trip—and calls for great plans," Rev. Victor Crabtree, pastor of First Baptist Church of Dickens, told graduates of Flomot High School in Baccalaureate services Sunday, May 10th. The services were held in Flomot Methodist Church, at 8:00 p. m.

Plan Life As Voyage Flomot Grads Advised

Using as his subject, "Life's Voyage," Rev. Crabtree took his text from Acts 27:29. "Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast forth anchors out of the stern, and wished for day," and outlined a successful procedure for charting one's future.

"The first thing needed for a voyage is a passport," Rev. Crabtree declared, and pointed out that for the Passport of Life, a good name is important, and that accomplishments and education follow closely. Included in plans for Life's Voyage should be a permanent marriage if suggested, stressing that God planned it that way, and also stressing that the plans should include a place for God in each life.

SHERIFF SOLVES TRIBUNE MYSTERY

Crime is reduced to a mathematical hypothesis by Sheriff John Stotts. Experience and a natural ability to arrive at a logical conclusion have taught him some short cuts in crime solution.

No Opposition To Bill

"I appreciate the fact that there was virtually no opposition to my bill in the House of Representatives, but I could hardly see how anyone could oppose a bill that would, in two years, net the state some $10,000,000 for merely the price of contracting the surplus commodities," Reeves said.

The legislator pointed out that last year Texas received 835,540 pounds of processed cheese, which amounted to $417,770.00; 2,557,468 pounds of wholesale frozen turkey, which amounted to $1,380,032.72; wholesale 10,942 cases of grapefruit sections, (continued from page one)

Weren't there a lot of clowns at the banquet? Almost everyone came dressed for the Mardi Gras and you've never seen the like of costumes. Don't you think Nancy made a cute Hawaiian girl. We even had a

Why America is swinging to Ford

MORE AND MORE PEOPLE ARE FINDING THAT FORD IS WORTH MORE WHEN THEY BUY... WORTH MORE WHEN THEY SELL... AND HERE'S WHY:

People all over the country are finding in Ford the beauty and engineering they expected to find only in the more expensive cars. They're finding beauty that "belongs" in any surroundings...

comfort that was formerly associated only with hard-to-park length. And a study of the used car market shows that Ford keeps its value better than any other car.

Ford has a new, smoother ride. New, softer spring and shock absorber action plus new-design rubber compression bumpers reduce front-end road shock (the kind you feel most) up to 80%. Ford's wide front tread, low center of gravity and diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers help keep you level on curves.

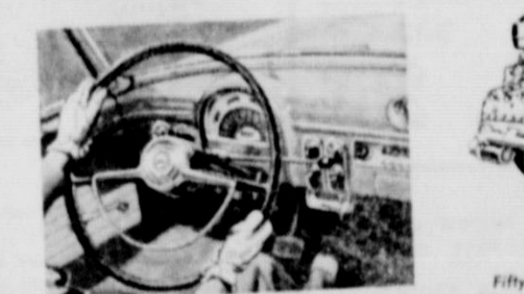

Ford's roomy interiors are handsomely styled in a wide variety of colors, all tastefully matched to exterior colors. And Ford's soft, foam rubber cushions over non-sag springs give you day-long driving comfort.

Center-fill fueling is another "Worth More" feature that's not found in the low-price field. It saves fill-up time and trouble... ends hose marks on fenders. The short fill pipe makes room for an extra suitcase in the trunk. Here's another reason Ford is the New Standard of the American Road.

Suspended clutch and brake pedals work easier and give more room. They turn the entire floor space into foot space. And they act as "no entrance" signs to drafts and dirt—make it easier to keep your Ford clean.

Ford Steering is easy on you! Makes handling a treat on highway or street. Wide front tread permits sharp turns for easier parking in small spaces. And Ford Full-Circle Visibility gives you clear vision in all directions.

Ford Economy Beats Them All!

A Ford Mileage Maker "6", with Overdrive, won the grand Sweepstakes Award in the 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run. For the first time in history, a low-priced car not only won in its class, but took top honors—the coveted Sweepstakes Award—for beating the entire field regardless of class, size or weight. Here's additional proof that Ford is America's greatest economy car.

Pied Pipers
BY MRS. M.

By the time we were settled, it was getting well on into the night and we suddenly discovered that we were hungry as we hadn't had supper. So, starting out again, with the idea of locating Ross Avenue, where we were told was a restaurant that remained open late, we drove over most of north Dallas without finding the place. (Later learned that Ross Avenue was in the opposite direction).

Again, our seemingly poor luck was turned into good, when quite by accident we came to Clesi's with an "open" sign on the door. The place had two street entrances, and we entered the Oak Lawn entrance and were directed from that dining area, through the kitchen, to another dining room, which opens on Wycliff Ave., and is described as the "Mahogany Art Gallery Room."

Here, with soft background music, one can enjoy a full course Italian dinner, a K.C. steak or a sandwich when we can get it fresh, so our fare was red snapper, served with bread which was covered with delicious garlic cheese spread, in an atmosphere of old Italy, surrounded by original oil paintings imported directly from Rome.

We have been intrigued with the name "Leif Ericson" ever since, years ago Old Gold cigarettes conducted a nation-wide puzzle contest, and the name was one of the answers. There seems to have been a succession of Leif Ericsons through the years however, as the one we heard while attending the forum on S.M.U. campus is Bureau Manager of the Associated Press of Albuquerque, N. M., and an outstanding war correspondent in Korea.

Attending the forum was an unparalleled experience for us, and afforded an opportunity to hear some outstanding speakers, Miss Gail Pitts of the Daily Times Herald, Dallas was moderator at a workshop discussion of "Women in Journalism", which included Miss Inez Robb, reporter and feature writer for International News Service, New York; Miss Jean Mooney, Director of Women's Services, Newspaper Enterprise Service, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss or (Mrs.) Charlene McClain, editor of Holland magazine; Miss Martha Cole, Associated Press correspondent for eight years, and incidentally the only woman employed by the AP in Texas; and Mrs. Carol Weaver, who represented radio and TV.

Luncheon speakers were Roscoe Drummond, Chief of Washington Bureau and editor of The Christian Science Monitor, and Richard H. Royere, Washington Correspondent, editor of The New Yorker, and contributing Editor of Harper's.

Before returning here however, they made a trip to Vancouver, Washington, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barton, and to Portland, Oregon, where they visited WO Martin's mother, who is very ill. Their trip also included visits to Lake Tahoe and Reno, Nevada; Boise, Idaho, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

What Makes One Job Better Than Another?

What if the tables were turned... and college graduates stopped filling out job applications, and instead, submitted questionnaires for companies to fill out? It might be they would ask:

"Why should I work for your company? ... Is your bank balance healthy? ... Are you expanding fast? ... Will I get responsibility in a hurry? ... Can I pick the type of work I like? ... Are you fun to work with? ... Do you have smart men I can learn from? ... Free schooling to train me further? ... Research and know-how? ... Money for the finest equipment? ... Will you recognize and utilize my talents?"

Isn't it a sign of a pretty good job when young men with talent can have a clear road ahead, can learn from people they respect and admire, and can work on projects of national importance?

From where we sit, we've been watching this happen. Teams of people at General Electric—in their twenties most often—are solving problems of jet plane engines, new chemicals, home appliances, guided missiles... everything from atomic power to air conditioning. And they're working in responsible jobs, with experts of recognized authority.

Maybe it's because we're growing fast that young men move into new and bigger jobs. Or because we've been lucky enough to hire the type of men who grab responsibility and work hard to achieve success. Whatever single factor or combination it is, young men and success do go together at General Electric.

Palo Duro Canyon To Have Narrow Gauge Scenic Railway And Sight-Seeing Buses

Work is underway on the right-of-way for a narrow gauge scenic railway in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Tentative plans call for a narrow gauge line from Palo Duro Canyon, Burdick and Texas Western Railroad. More than 60 tons of rails, ties and other equipment has been received and more is to follow.

The scenic railroad will have a capacity of 72 adults. Powered by a big Chrysler engine, the locomotive is modeled up as the famous Old No. 97. The route starts near Triassic Park and winds up toward El Mesado Lodge, giving views hitherto available except by long hikes or horseback of the Monkey, Spanish Skirts, Cirino Cave, Mesa Mecca, Christmas Tree Canyon and the Goodnight entrada route into the Canyon.

The railroad is being installed and operated by Harold E. Grear and associate, James M. Bailey of Herrin, Illinois. The main line of a few such scenic lines in the country, has been operated for the past three years in Herrin. Mr. Grear is a member of a pioneer family of newspaper publishers. Prior to World War II Mr. Grear was managing editor of the Herrin Daily Journal.

After the war he was in the wholesale and outdoor theatre business. Mr. Bailey was production superintendent for a large manufacturing plant there.

Major Tourist Attraction
Engineers and officials of the Texas State Parks Board cooperated in selecting a route where the right-of-way in no way marred the beauty of the Canyon. The route has no more than a 3 per cent grade and was routed around picturesque trees, rocks and other formations.

"Undoubtedly, there will be no scenic ride in America that can compare with this route in beauty and color", said Mr. Grear. "The public acceptance of this gorgeous ride will attract national attention."

Buses In Operation
Two 39 passenger Continental Mainliner buses are now in operation from Amarillo to and through Palo Duro Canyon, beginning last Sunday. The service will continue through the summer.

The big air-conditioned buses will leave the two Amarillo stations, 405 Fillmore and the Continental Trailways Station at Seventh and Tyler at 10:30 in the morning and at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Stops will be made at the Panhandle-Plains Museum in Canyon and at various points of interest in the park. Each bus will make a complete tour of the park and persons riding the early morning bus may remain to return in the late afternoon if they desire.

The rate is $1.80, plus 20¢ tax. "The demand for bus service to Palo Duro Canyon has grown steadily and it is our desire to accommodate everyone and especially the boys at the Amarillo Army Airfield," said John Heket, President. "We are going all out on this service this season so that everyone will have a means of transportation to and through the world's most colorful Canyon."

GOP PUTS SQUEEZE ON FUNDS FOR REA

Future of the rural electrification program under GOP administration looks exceedingly gloomy, according to a news release to the Tribune by W. M. Hilly, manager of the Dickens County Electric Cooperative. Excerpts from the release are as follows: "New loan funds in the amount of $294 million are needed to carry the rural electrification program through the next fiscal year. The backlog of applications total $215 million and is growing rapidly. The administration is requesting only $95 million in new funds. Therefore, the administration's request would not provide sufficient funds to even take care of normal requests for member extensions and system improvement loans, and top REA officials have stated that the requested amount would not permit the making of any new generation and transmission loans. "There is already a backlog of $100 million in telephone cooperative applications, and it too is growing rapidly. New funds are needed to carry the telephone program through the next fiscal year. The administration is requesting only $50 million. REA has been out of funds for telephone loans for about four months, and a 7½ million supplemental request for telephone loans was killed in the House this week. It is evident that the telephone program will be virtually halted by such a budget cut."

Altho the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association has been fighting the proposed budget cuts at every opportunity, it seems clear that unless forceful action is taken quickly, unless officials of the administration and members of Congress can be convinced quickly, the rural electrification and rural telephone programs will suffer irreparable damage. Let your Congressman know how you feel."
