Church and Society

Roaring Springs Baptist WMS has Progressive Program of Missions

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church of Roaring Springs has launched a progressive program of missionary activities which began in December

Under the leadership of Mrs. Chas. Long. Stewardship Director and Mrs. John A. Scott, Presdent, and other members, Mesdames C. A. Butler, Carl Ashlev. J. D. Mitchell and Smith Rees and her son, Will, Christmas gift boxes were prepared and shipped to boys in service. Several of the packages went to boys in Viet Nam.

Boys from the Roaring Springs community, to whom these boxes were sent included Kennith Ashley, Yamael Valdez, Fidel Garcia Jr., Stacey Watson, Jackie Martin, Sammie Swim, Lawrence Brown, Jerry Green, Louis Car penter, Keith Brooks, Bill Bailey Carl Johnson, Virgil McGee and Esequiel Arenas. Two other boys, Rodney Long and Bert Green, were coming home for Christmas holidays, and boxes were not sent to them. The boxes contained home-made candy. cookies, popcorn, nuts and a small gift.

by Karen Elliott The Matador girls' basketball team hustled its way to a 39-37 victory over the Lakeview Eagles in Lakeview, Friday night, Ruby Storey poured in 21 points to pace her team before retiring to the bench in the final period on fouls. Karol King with 15 points starred with Ruby to give the Matadors a 16-6 first quarter lead.

The Eagles outscored Matador in the second quarter and erased the 10 point lead to only 8 for a 25-17 second stanza score. During a frenzied fourth peri-
