Church and Society

OUTSTANDING SENIOR GIRL. Miss Carolyn Pohl is presented a gift by Mrs. W. N. Pipkin, Youth Conservation chairman, at the closing luncheon of El Progreso Study Club. Miss Pohl worked in FHA, High School Pep Squad, Choral Club, Interscholastic Choir and Drum and Bugle Corps during her four years in high school; was a Majorette for two years; was on the school Annual staff for 3 years; editor of the school paper, "Matador Brand" for which she received the Journalism award. She received her State Homemaking degree in 1959 and the Home Economics award the same year, won first place for two years in the FHA Style Show; was in both the Junior and Senior class plays as well as the Interscholastic League one-act play. In addition, Miss Pohl has been active in her Church and Sunday School, serving in succession as president, secretary-treasurer and Fellowship chairman of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Pohl.

El Progreso Study Club Closes Year With Annual Luncheon and Guest Day

One of the highlights of the year for members of El Progreso Study Club and their friends is the annual luncheon and guest day program which marks the close of the year's work, and this year was no exception.

Members and friends gathered in the Methodist Church basement on Thursday for this occasion with Mrs. W. N. Pipkin as hostess.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Frank Pohl in the sanctuary as the group assembled.

As the program was a patriotic one, the national colors of red, white and blue were carried out in table decorations, with strips of blue down the center of the white table coverings, and a large blue paper hat at the center of each. Miniature flags were individual place favors, each planted in a colored gumdrop. Bowls of flowers graced the corners of each table.

A delicious luncheon was served by the menu committee composed of Mrs. W. F. Jacobs, chairman, and Mesdames W. D. Lipscomb, Marvin Brotherton, Albert Traweck Jr., and Frank Montgomery. All members of the club shared in furnishing the food for the menu.

Outstanding Program
The president, Mrs. D. E. Pitts, was leader of the program and after very graciously welcoming the guests and expressing her thanks to those making the occasion possible, read the following words from Theodore Roosevelt:

"Here is your country. Do not let anyone take it or its glory away from you. Do not let selfish man or greedy interests rob your country of its Beauty, its Riches and your future and your children shall judge you accordingly as you deal with this sacred trust."

Mrs. W. D. Durfee of Wellington is here visiting her niece, Mrs. M. D. Morris and Mr. Morris for several days.

Miss Frances Cooper returned Saturday from Lubbock, accompanied by her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McMahon and children Doug and Dianne, whom she had been visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tilson visited in Abilene last week end with their son and family, Sgt. and Mrs. W. R. Tilson, Billy and Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hurt and sons Steve, Stanley, and Gary of Lubbock spent Sunday and Monday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wilkison.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Carlisle went to Paducah Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. G. A. Mayes. Another sister, Mrs. Florence Newman, 79, of Mt. Vernon accompanied them home for a week-end stay.

A former resident of this community, Mrs. Effie Willis Raines of Clovis, N. M. passed away last week at her home. Among her survivors are two nephews here, Clifford and Henry L. Martin.

Elaine Dixon is sick this week with the measles. Methodist children and teachers of the community are attending Vacation Church School this week at the joint school at Flomot. Mesdames Scott Robbins, H. R. Jameson, Sid McFall, D. L. Tilson, and Arthur Cooper are among the teachers.

HD Club Studies Conservation Of Natural Beauty

Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club met Friday, May 20 in the home of Mrs. Sid McFall with eleven present. The opening exercise was a poem, "Better Than Gold."

Roll call was answered with naming "a beauty spot near here," and a discussion of natural beauty and its conservation followed. Mrs. Bob Martin read the minutes and Mrs. Scott Robbins led the business session, and Miss Dixie Barton gave an inspirational reading, "The Window Pane."

After several hilarious games were played, a refreshment plate of sandwiches, relishes, and cherry pie, tea and punch were served to the following, Misses Scottie Robbins, Stella Martin and Dixie Barton, visitors; and Mesdames Wilson Barton, Fred Bourland, Varner McWilliams, Tom Tilson, M. D. Morris, L. A. Carlisle, Arthur Cooper, Robbins, Martin, and the hostess, Mrs. McFall.

Members and friends are reminded of the all-day meeting scheduled for Wednesday, June 8, in the home economics department of Matador High School, when Mrs. A. L. Fair will discuss color co-ordination. This is an opportunity for all home makers, not only members of the HD clubs.

Annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup Set For June At A&M

Boys and girls, wearing the green and white of 4-H from every section of Texas, will assemble at Texas A&M College on June 7 for their annual state-wide 4-H Roundup. The big day will be the 8th when winners will be determined in 25 state-wide judging and demonstration contests.

The boys and girls who will be participating in the contests have already been named county winners and placed either first or second in their respective district elimination contests. They will be accompanied to the Roundup by their county extension agents, adult leaders and/or coaches. Also in attendance will be the members of the Texas 4-H Club Recognition Committee and the Friends of 4-H.

Twenty Motley County boys and girls have qualified to compete in the state contests and will be accompanied to A & M by County Agent Bill Palmeyer and other adult 4-H leaders.

Recent accident of David Rattan will decrease the size of the Swing Kings, youth band which won first in the district in "Share the Fun" events. Others in the band are Robert Brandon, Robert Brown and Larry Keltz, with Vada Nichols as vocalist.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXTENSION DEPT. TO BE HONORED

An Extension Department for the Sunday School is a unique feature of First Baptist Church, to help serve the older people of the church and community who are unable to attend regular Sunday School activities. Also it enables the church to minister to members whose jobs prevent their being in Sunday School.

The department, which has thirty-five members, is a part of the Sunday School with the following workers: Mrs. Freeman Thacker, superintendent; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Rattan, and Mesdames Katie James, W. M. Clifton, V. A. Rattan, John Stevens and J. L. Woodruff, who serve as visitors. Their duty is to take literature to those enrolled and give the members a direct link to the Sunday School.

All the Extension department members and those serving as workers will be the "Pastor's Guests" at the morning service June 5. Friends and families of these members are urged to cooperate in helping get the older members to the church for the recognition service.

HOME FROM TRIP

Miss Amy Glenn returned home last week from a trip to Miami, Florida where she attended the Southern Baptist Convention, and visited friends and relatives en route. Her trip through the south included Shady Dale, Ga., where she visited Norman Leckie and his family. Mr. Leckie lived here as a boy with his parents, who were early residents.
