TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

On the basis of performance a garden hoe and an ax are two of the most dependable implements man has yet perfected.

The facts of life have always been difficult to obscure, and they have withstood many periods of crusade.

A lone hackberry tree remains in the fallow field where his boots once pressed the freshly turned soil behind a plow.

Pouring oil on troubled waters may be an effective way to calm the angry seas, but it is also a method of leaving a mess.

If this nation's good luck is running out it may stem from the growing shortage of horseshoes.

One type of sorrow is the result of not getting what you want, when you want it, whether earned or merely desired.

The premium on responsibility is increasing, but all the advances in technology have not found a substitute for it beyond the mechanical ability of the computer.

Excuses make soft gloves for hands that have managed to avoid work.

Youth-Led Revival Slated at Flomot

A youth-led week end revival will begin Friday at the First Baptist Church of Flomot.

Shannon Roy Nall of Plainview will do the preaching with Terry Colston leading the singing.

The services are under the direction of the Flomot youth, who extend a very cordial invitation to everyone in the area to attend any or all services.

Sunday the 30th is designated as Fellowship Sunday and each family of the church will bring a covered dish for the noon meal, which will be held in the church's fellowship hall.

A Youth Fellowship will be held after each evening service, it was announced.

Young Nall, presently attending Wayland Baptist College, has many friends and relatives in the Flomot area, who will want to hear him speak.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Payne and son, Blake, of Lubbock visited his mother, Mrs. Ethel Payne during the week end and attended the Harvest Festival at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Vena Lawson of Garden City was a week end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duff Lipscomb.

No Place to Relax 4-H Audience Told

"IT IS NOT possible to relax in this complex world of today," Thomas Edwards told his audience of more than 200 here Monday night.

"You can't be luckier than you have been," Edwards told his young audience, "by learning what you have been taught in 4-H work. The awards you will receive are evidence of your achievements.

Edwards admonished his young audience to continue for the rest of their lives to reach higher goals. "First is your duty to society," he said, "and that means to help your fellow man. You have a duty to your country and you have a duty to yourselves.

Following the long list of awards and certificates, Pat Peacock of Roaring Springs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peacock, was named Gold Star boy.

named Gold Star girl. Presentations of the two top awards were made by County Agent Bill Pailmeyer.

Watches presented by the Gasoline Farmers Union and the Motley County Farm Bureau for the best record books by juniors and seniors went to Francis Reed of Flomot and Judy Marrs (in ACC at Abilene) of Matador.

Special recognition in the form of handsome plaques, was made to representatives of the Hall County Electric Coop, Dickens County Electric Coop, Lighthouse Electric Coop (Floydada) and West Texas Gin of Matador.

The plaques were in appreciation of the years of providing the annual 4-H banquet meals.

Other special recognition was extended the 4-H leaders who have served over the years in promoting the work and aiding the young people in the projects.

A complete list of award winners will be published in a subsequent issue of the Tribune.

Firms Decorate For Christmas; Santa is Ready

Earlier than usual, several stores in Matador have already decorated for Christmas. In past seasons, decorations and arrangements of Christmas merchandise have usually followed the stringing of street lights immediately after Thanksgiving.

Residents of the trade area are invited and urged to shop stores in Matador and Roaring Springs, first. Most establishments have a lay-away plan whereby purchases may be made early, and with the maximum of convenience.

Santa Ready For Parade

Santa Claus has notified the Tribune that he is ready for the Lions Club's annual Santa Parade which is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 5, and he is looking forward to a visit with all the children who can meet him here.

Zone 3 Lions Plan Inter-Club Social

TENTATIVE plans and date for an inter-club social were outlined here November 17 at the Lions Region 4, Zone 3 meeting held at El Matador Restaurant following a steak dinner at which the Matador club was host.

Zone Chairman Bill Alexander of Paducah found interest among the members of four clubs represented in the plan to hold the social meeting at which wives would be guests. The tentative date was set for January 24.

Numerous items were discussed which included membership and the Leo Club movement. Matador and Childress clubs are considering a Leo Club for boys between the ages of 16 and 20.

Public relations and a movement to inform Lions regarding the full scope of Lionism were discussed.

Chairman Alexander stressed the movement to collect old eye glasses to be sent to less fortunate people over the world, including the United States.

Lions were urged to attend the midwinter conference scheduled at Memphis, Saturday and Sunday, February 14-15.

Gifts For Girls

Alexander made a special appeal to Lions to aid the Whiteface and Berger units of Girls Town and to provide special Christmas gifts for the 88 girls who have found a home at these locations. He said 700 girls were turned away last year because of the limit of accommodations available. Girls Town provides orphaned girls and girls from broken homes "a chance to grow up and be a lady; a useful citizen."

The plea is being made to provide something a little special at Christmas, including shoes and a new coat for each girl. A manufacturer has offered $40 worth of merchandise for each $25 provided for the special gifts.

Clubs represented included Childress with five members: Boss Lion Jerry Dugan, A. J. Rushing, Bob Hart, Glen Stiner and Weldon Hays; Paducah with Bill Alexander, Bob Powell and Carl Darr; and Roaring Springs with Boss Lion Milton Brooks and Carl Tardy. Matador Lions attending were Boss Lion L. B. Campbell, Deputy Dist. Governor Charles Johnson, Secretary Forrest Campbell, J. E. Edwards, Glen Brotherton, Vann Francis, Wayland Moore and Douglas Meador.

Chest Drive Now $1300

A total of 116 residents have responded. Of the total number who gave last year, 103 have not responded to date.

Visiting in her home here at the time were a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Murrell of Hico, and Mrs. Murrell accompanied her aunt in the ambulance, and with the maximum of convenience.

Also in Quanah Hospital is Mrs. A. B. McCaghen, who entered Saturday morning and had surgery Monday morning. She was accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell Sr., and Mrs. Campbell returned to Quanah on Sunday, with another sister, Mrs. Breech Hurst of Roswell, N. M. Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Bill McCaghen accompanied A. B. McCaghen to Quanah Monday morning to be with his wife following surgery.

Beauty of Giving Thanks is Extolled

"There is a certain quality about thankfulness which our world needs today," declared Rev. Larry Heard in community services Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church.

The beauty of giving thanks was the theme of the Thanksgiving message presented by the pastor of First Baptist Church. Text of the sermon was from the 100th Psalm.

"When an individual gives thanks, he acknowledges himself as a creature of God... a creature who has received grace, goodness and mercy from God... and one who proves himself as being in the will of God,

Fire Destroys Home at Afton

A fire about 4 a.m. on Nov. 14 destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bennett in the Afton community. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and their four-month-old daughter, Buffi, barely escaped with a few clothes and small items.

Mrs. Bennett discovered the blaze when she awakened and noticed a glow in the sky outside the window. The fire, which started in the attic, was believed to have been caused by faulty wiring near the outside wall.

The home, two miles south of Afton was a 5-room structure on land belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheridan. Their loss is partially covered by insurance. The Bennetts had no insurance on their personal effects and household furnishings. Since the fire they have been staying here with Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mitchell and at Afton with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett.

Shower Announced

The Patton Springs Young Homemakers will host a miscellaneous shower for the Bennetts on Saturday, Dec. 6, it was announced this week. The shower will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Patton Springs Homemaking cottage at Afton.

Friends are cordially invited to attend.

FHA Expresses Thanks for Aid

The Matador Chapter of Future Homemakers of America would like to say thank you to the community for the generous response to the UNICEF Drive. Many pairs of glasses were donated along with $123.00. The United Nations Children's Education Fund goes to help underprivileged children. This is one of the projects the FHA sponsors each year.

The magazine sale just completed accounted for a $34 profit for the FHA. This will be applied toward needs of the Home Economics Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas (Dink) Wilson of Seminole were among those attending Matador Homecoming on Nov. 14, and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jinks Wilson.

through redemption and salvation. "The person outside of God will cannot give real thanks...

God only is sovereign and supreme; to whom does the atheist give thanks? Real thanks comes only from a heart truly dedicated... giving thanks is a beautiful thing."

The choir, directed by Mrs. Glenn Woodruff sang as a special, "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The offering of the evening was contributed to the Community Chest fund.

Concludes Harvest Day

The evening service brought to a close, a successful and full day of worship for the Methodist congregation.

Annual Harvest Festival was observed by the church in the morning service, with a timely message by Jimmy Willson of Floydada. Offerings for Conference commitments of the church were made, and it was announced later by Rev. John Fitzgerrel, pastor, that the amount had exceeded the goal which had been set.

"This is truly a day for rejoicing," he declared.

A family dinner in the church basement at the noon hour had the atmosphere of an old-fashioned Thanksgiving gathering, with an abundance of food served at tables attractive with seasonal decorations.

YWA's Visit Baptist Home

Members of the Vada Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church visited the Buckners Baptist Children's Home in Lubbock, Saturday and took pies, jellies and clothing for the occupants.

The group was given a guided tour through one of the six houses, by one of the "mothers." Each home consists of four large bedrooms, a dining area, kitchen, den, guest room and an apartment for the mother of the house. In each house there is a variety of ages so that each child may be with those both younger and older than he. Visiting parents assume household authority one month to relieve the mother of responsibility.

Saturday is work day for the children in which they do chores around the home as well as in the administration building.

The YWA's were very impressed by the elegance of living quarters for the children.

After a visit to the home, the girls and their sponsors had lunch and attended the film, "Sweet Charity," taken from a Broadway musical.

The group included Cindy and Eva Marshall, Brigid Barton, Krista Price, Ann Timmons, Mary Ann Woosley, Mrs. France Barton and Mrs. Larry Heard.

Homecoming Rally And Bonfire Held

By Peggy Marrs

Fire trucks from the Matador Volunteer Fire Department were summoned the night of Nov. 13, but not to an ordinary fire. The town was aroused by the sound of sirens and screaming girls as the fire trucks circled the streets and ended their journey at an enormous bonfire at the VFW.

Football captains Darrell Cruse and Ronnie Welling lit the fire and a few moments later tossed in a huge replica of a Longhorn, which had been painstakingly designed by members of the sophomore class. As the Longhorn burned, the Drum and Bugle played taps.

A speech by Guy Campbell expressed the views of the community towards the team. Win or lose, the town still supports the Matadors, backing them 100%. He said that the team may be picked as underdogs, but if they want to win bad enough they can come out on top.

The cheerleaders and twirlers were silhouetted against the firelight as they led cheers and twirled; the Drum and Bugle played "Fanfare," "Our Boys Will Shine Tonight," and "When the Saints Go Marching In."

Speeches by Stanley Martin and Glen Moss, members of the football team, stated that the boys had shown more spirit and enthusiasm throughout the week than they had in the past, and were deserving of a victory.

As the fire died away the pep club girls climbed aboard the fire trucks and headed home, shivering from the cold but full of spirit.

Director Shows Instructive Film

By Mary Ann Woosley

Featured speaker for the FFA program November 19, was Earl Crush, executive director of the

Smithlawn Maternity Home in Lubbock.

Mr. Crush, introduced by Laura Jacobs, showed a film depicting actual work done with unwed expectant mothers when they come to the home. Girls come to the home in Lubbock from all over the United States; the home will work with 65 to 70 young girls next year.

Mr. Crush listed these reasons for out-of-wedlock pregnancies: parents being too busy to find time for proper training to their children, broken homes, going steady at an early age, trying to be popular, and lack of sex education and love in the home.

Guests during the meeting were the eighth grade girls.

HART PEP RALLY INSPIRES TEAM

By Peggy Marrs

Presentation of a beautiful Matador, drawn by Patty Edwards, Debra James, and Melissa Bailey, to the Matador Football Team, opened the Hart pep rally November 14.

Bringing the pep rally to life were speeches given by team captains Ronnie Welling and Darrell Cruse. They stated that the Nazareth game had sobered them and taught them a lesson for they had thought it would be an easy victory. By putting everything together for the sake of the community, the team would go into the Hart game with 110% effort on the part of each player.

Twirlers Charla Wason and Jeanette Day then performed a twirling routine to the tune of "Butterball."

A speech by ex-student Bundy Campbell praised the football team and summarized their season. He said that the team had been out-manned and out-scored, but it had never been beaten. This was something to be proud of. In closing, he said he liked to think of a football team as a chain in that it is no stronger than its weakest link or player. He encouraged the boys to go out and show Hart that the Matador's did not have any weak links.

The cheerleaders then announced the winners of the sign contest which is held each year at Homecoming. First place went to the Seniors and second place to the Juniors.

Singing of the school song closed the 1969 Homecoming pep rally.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS NOT GIVEN THIS WEEK

By Randy Welch

No individual awards were given by the Matador coaches this week. "The reason," said Coach Irvine, "is that the boys are playing as a team; it is hard to pick out an outstanding individual. All the boys played well and did their jobs."

The Outstanding Defensive Award goes to the Matador defensive squad. The Outstanding Offensive Award goes to the entire Offensive squad. The Fighting Matador Award goes to the whole team.

SEASON ENDS FOR MATADORS

By Lance Jameson

When the Lazbuddie Longhorns trotted off Burleson Field Friday night, they chalked up their ninth football victory by outscoring the Matador Matadors 28-8. In Matador's last game of the season, the Matadors made the Longhorns work for their District 2-B football championship title.

After a scoreless first quarter, Longhorn's halfback Matthews ran 25 yards for a touchdown to give Lazbuddie a 6-0 halftime lead.

A busy and fast playing third quarter started when end Robert Elliott pounced on a Longhorn fumble and sparked by the running of halfback Ronnie Welling, the Matadors tied the game. Matthews then got into the scoring act again from the 3 yard line. Nolan turned a blocked punt on the 37 yard line into paydirt for Lazbuddie when he ran over the goal line. The Matadors were not to be denied and tackle Don James stamped into the end zone for a two-point safety tackle.

Fullback Hodges went 9 yards for Lazbuddie's fourth quarter mark to complete the scoring 28-8.

The Lazbuddie Longhorns complimented the Matadors by saying that the Matadors were one of the best defensive teams that they had played against this season. To lend authority to their statement was a recovered fumble by Bobby Simpson, and only 253 gained yards to Matador's close 215 yards with halfback Darrell Cruse making the most yards per carry. The Longhorns also ignored their air offense because of Matador's strong defense.

Mrs. Lou Smith and Mrs. Bob Echols returned home Sunday from Houston where they spent last week. Mrs. Smith received a medical check up and Mrs. Echols visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Porter. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pitts visited in Oklahoma City from Wednesday until Saturday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Crickard.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Seay and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Fisher visited in Quanah Hospital, Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Berta Campbell and Mrs. A. B. McCaghren. Visiting them Tuesday was Rev. Larry Heard.
