Local Girl Attends Colorado Trip Camp

Miss Ida Lee Fair is one of thirty young people from Methodist churches in the Northwest Texas Conference slated to return home today after attending a youth trip camp in Colorado.

The group met Wednesday, July 27, at Overton Methodist Church in Lubbock and boarded a special bus which took them to the camp site at Antonito, Colo. just across the state line north of Santa Fe.

The camp was a spiritual retreat, according to the Rev. Hugh Daniel, pastor of Overton Methodist Church, who was director.

Most of the camp program was conducted in group discussions, for which the camping party was divided into "family living groups." Each group conducted its own worship services each morning and evening during the camp. Joint morning and evening worship services were held on July 31 and August 3.

During the camping, the young people and their counselors camped out in tents and cooked their meals out of doors.

The camp was sponsored by the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church.

JAMBOREE IS MEMORY.—Re-living the most wonderful experience of their lives are seven members of Matador Scout Troop 60 and their Scoutmaster who arrived home Friday night from Colorado Springs, Colo., where they attended Fifth National Jamboree. One of the group, Harold (Sparky) Meason suffered an attack of asthma and was hospitalized at the time the above picture was made. From left the Scouts are Roger Vinson, Key Vaughn, Billy Tilson, Scoutmaster Douglas Pitts, Kenneth Pitts, John L. Barnhill and Larry Keltz. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brotherton visited the camp on Tuesday while on their vacation trip spent in that vicinity. One of the highlights of the week was the surprise visit made to the Jamboree by President Eisenhower.

SEVENTH COUNTY 4-H CAMP SLATED

Seventh annual camp for 4-H boys and girls from Motley, Dickens, Kent and Stonewall counties will be held at the Roaring Springs pool, August 16-17. It was announced this week by County Agent Bill Palmeyer.

Registration will start at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16, and camp will break up at 3 p.m. the 17th.

Assisting with the camp will be the agents from the four counties: John Thomas, Entomologist from Lubbock; Richard DeArment, Texas Game and Fish Commission, Wheeler, Curly Hays, West Texas Utilities, Abilene, and James Simmons, District Agent from Vernon.

Parents, leaders and friends of 4-H are urged to attend with the group and take part in the activities, which will include swimming, group recreation, wild life study, entomology, 4-H records, and citizenship.

The night program on the 16th will start at 8 p.m. and will consist of local talent and a movie.

Letters have been mailed to all Motley County 4-H members, giving the cost of attending camp and the items they will need to bring.

"As in the past, success of the camp will depend on the leaders who help carry out camping activities," said Palmeyer.

Scouts Report Vivid Scenes of Jamboree

"The first thing that caught my eye when we arrived at Jamboree Town was all the tents... there were tents as far as I could see," declared Harold (Sparky) Meason in his account of attending the fifth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America last week in Colorado Springs, Colo.

(There were 26,000 tents sprawling on 2,400 acres, housing some 60,000 Scouts and leaders during the Jamboree which celebrated the 50th anniversary of Scouting.)

"Another thing of interest was the 22 shotgun range, and one of the most outstanding features of the opening ceremony, to me, was the large display of fireworks.

"The activities that interested me were the 'blanket-toss' by the boys from Alaska, and fence-jumping."

By Japanese Scouts I enjoyed the conservation course too.

"I wasn't able to go to the candlelight ceremony, but from a distance I could see a solid glow of candles."

"A Thrilling Spectacle" was a thrilling spectacle, declared John Lynn Barnhill in his report of National Jamboree.

"There was a play given on our American Heritage... what impressed me the most was a several thousand dollar fireworks display.

On Monday, July 18, approximately three hundred Boy Scouts and leaders left Plainview on seven chartered buses bound for the Fifth National Jamboree.

"We spent the night at Pueblo, Colo., and arrived in Denver the next day. Key Vaughn and Bill Tilson went through the night. The rest of the Scouts from Matador visited the Denver Museum of Natural History and the Denver Zoo, or enjoyed the park.

"We arrived at Colorado Springs, July 20 and set up."

Humble is Making Underground Tests

NATURE OF THE MYSTERIES far beneath the surface of the earth in this area are being explored by the Humble Oil & Refining Company, which holds lease on the massive acreage of the former Matador Land & Cattle Company. It is probable the Humble Company is at present making the most extensive test ever conducted in Motley County's history, according to unofficial reports.

At least six crews are known to be working in the area in making modern and complete exploration tests. One core drilling contract (being done by Thompson Drilling Company) is declared to require the expenditure of $120,000.

Research and experimental crews out of Houston are said to be three times as large as the core drilling crews. Two crews of geologists are working in the area. Work has been conducted regularly for about six weeks.

The crews are staying in Paducah because available quarters were in short supply in Matador and Roaring Springs. Some work is known to be currently underway southwest of Roaring Springs, but apparently the entire vast acreage of old ranch (Probably 400,000 acres) is being tested.

It is believed that the Humble Company is making every effort possible to locate oil deposits, using the most modern methods and vast amount of resources. One opinion is that the former ranch acreage now sold to a number of private owners, is causing the company to increase their search of the extensive area which is under lease.

Legion Commander Commends Youths

There is a great amount of concern about the youth of today but Commander J. L. Woodruff of Fleming Post American Legion is not alarmed. In fact he is confident the young people of today will be able to cope with the problems of the world when they are thrust upon them.

At the conclusion of a program Monday evening conducted by youths, Commander Woodruff said: "With young men and women of the type we have here tonight, I feel confident they are equal to the responsibilities that soon will be theirs."

His was the final remarks of the regular monthly joint meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary held in the Legion building.

Three boys who had attended Boys State, Jimmy Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ross of Flomot, Jimmy Welling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welling of Matador and Lewis Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carpenter of Roaring Springs, made reports.

Concluding the program was a report of Miss Pina Sturdivant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sturdivant of Matador, who has recently returned from a year of teaching in Bogota, Colombia, South America. She has been elected as a member of the Matador High School faculty.

The reports of the boys was preceded by a brief address by County Judge Elbert Reeves. The three boys were unanimous in the praise of the weeks program in Austin at Boys State "where they learned about government by taking part in it."

Miss Sturdivant's observations were interesting. She said in South America she found Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts organization, Lions clubs and other evidence of the influence of this country.

She cited the need for education in Colombia where teaching is private and expensive. She cited the spread of teaching by radio where even handwriting is taught.

The program, led by J. R. Whitworth, followed a buffet dinner arranged by members of the Legion Auxiliary.

IT IS THAT TIME of the year again and Coach Charlie Johnson Tuesday made his report to the Matador Lions Club at the civic organization's regular luncheon meeting held in the basement of the First Methodist Church. He first thanked the Lions for the club's support in the past years, then he said:

MRS. RONNIE STEEN

Miss Linda Ray of Granbury is Bride Of Ronnie Steen in Recent Rite There

Of interest to local friends and relatives of the bridegroom, is the recent marriage of Miss Linda Ray of Granbury and Ronnie Steen, formerly of Matador.

First Baptist Church, Granbury was the scene of the double ring ceremony read at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 9, by Rev. Ray Reed.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray of Granbury. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Lillian Steen of Mrs. Norman Loftin was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Barbara Smith of Stanton, Judy Harris of Walnut Springs, and Judy Holt and Freda Forest of Meridian. The attendants wore pale yellow frocks with matching circular veils attached to a bandeau of satin ribbon. They carried cascade bouquets of white mums.

Niece Is Flower Girl
Karen Trash and Tanya Meador of Lubbock, niece of the bridegroom were flower girls, and his nephews, Charles Lynn and Joey Meador of Lubbock were candlelighters.

Sonny Grant of Fort Worth was best man. Groomsmen were Monty Bray of Lubbock, Myron Hillman of Manhattan, Kansas, Norman Loftin of Granbury, and Guy Campbell of Matador.

Cooper Mangold was the ring bearer. Charles and Jerre Frazier of Pasadena, cousins of the bride, ushered.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of pearl white chiffon taffeta and peau d'ange lace by Minetta. The figurine bodice was designed with deep lace yoke with bateau scalloped neckline, and brief portrait sleeves. The dome silhouette skirt, with envelope sides repeated the lace in twin appliqued bands around the skirt and dipping into the aisle wide court train.

Her triple French illusion veil fell from a plateau of matching lace, encircled by a Sweedish crown of latticed seed pearls.

She wore wrist length French kid gloves and carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Lawn Reception

The reception was held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray. Parents of the couple joined them in receiving the guests.

The table was laid with a white satin cloth, centered with silver candelabra surrounded by the bride attendants' bouquets. The three tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a princess style dress of olive green with matching short jacket and black accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

They will make their home in Shallowater.

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.

"Sorry haven't sent the money," was the apologetic memo on a subscription expiration notice, which was returned with a check recently, and another, "We wouldn't miss a copy of the Matador Tribune for anything" was from Lorene Denney.

The thank-you notes from servicemen are also always heart-warming. "Several years have elapsed since I last wrote my thanks to you for sending your very wonderful little paper to me. Even though Mother writes very faithfully, the Matador Tribune has been an invaluable link in keeping us vitally connected with the community we love very dearly. We feel that your concern and prayers have sustained us as we have literally traveled to the ends of the earth." This from G. W. Fuller, well over a year ago.

And from Ted R. Alsop earlier this year: "During my four years in the Navy I have always been able to depend on one thing, and that is weekly receiving the Matador Tribune. So even though I am far away I have always felt closer to home through your paper. All I can say is, thanks."

Comments like these sort of make up for the remark of the subscriber who grudgingly renewed her subscription with the observation that there wasn't much news in the little county paper, but she guessed she'd keep taking it anyway. . . . Then there was the lady who liked the Tipton (Okla.) Tribune because it "had lots of news and wasn't cluttered up with old advertisements."

MORE FROM THE MAIL

"Dear Editor: Thirty years ago I began having a small but persistent hand in dog affairs and eleven years past came to this old hill-farm, calling it the Sanctuary for the Homeless Dog. Here I am both staff and kennel-keeper. Perhaps you have seen my letters asking for help. Perhaps you are one who has helped us."

"About once a year, through the kindness of editors, we are able to make our needs known. We can use food of any sort, old blankets, towels or pieces. Just about anything can find application. There are fifty dogs here now - the sick, the lost, the abandoned and the old."

"Will you keep us in mind?"

"Mrs. Louise Wood, The Sanctuary, Route 2, Box 264, Martinsville, Indiana."

Does anyone know of a similar home for unwanted cats?

Of interest to friends and relatives in this area was the marriage last month in Galveston of Miss Gayla Jaun Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant B. Summers, and Mr. Robert Thomas Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Lawson.

The bride is the grand-daughter of Guy B. Thacker of Roaring Springs, and of Mrs. D. W. Hughes Sr., also of Roaring Springs. Her mother is the former Mary Thacker Hughes. The Rev. A. R. TO OUR FRIENDS AND PAUL'S

We wish that we had the words that would fittingly clothe the deep, and overwhelming feeling of gratefulness that fills our hearts as we think of your many kindnesses extended to us during our recent tragic bereavement. Everything that could be done for our comfort and consolation, you did, and we shall forever treasure your acts of love.

We especially thank Dr. Stanley, Bill Seale, Rev. Bob Moore, and the pallbearers, all of whom rendered outstanding service in performing the last offices for our loved one.

To all who sent messages of comfort, or called, to all who brought in food or helped in serving it; to all who sent flowers and to all who helped in other ways, we offer the deep gratitude of our sad hearts.

Our hope for each of you is your life, as it comes to all, may have friends as helpful as you, understanding and staunch as you proved yourselves in our time of need.

How to add years to your life

100 100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years. Today - about 70. Modern Sanitation, diet drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic checkups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes - drugs unknown a century ago. We're so conscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years.
