Commissioners Confronted With Election Discrepancies

The Motley County Commissioners Court was in session Nov. 11, 1986 with County Judge Billy J. Whitaker presiding. Present were Commissioners Bill D. Washington, Joseph P. Simpson, John M. Russell and Fraiser Watson with County Clerk Lucretia Campbell taking minutes.

The bills were read and approved to be paid as read. Rough approximation of the bills as follows: Lateral Road fund, $6824; Precinct 1, $2041.60; Precinct 2, $549; Precinct 3, $1707.50; Precinct 4, $483.

Jeff Roland, Yellow House Machinery representative met with commissioners to distribute brochures on a new motor grader and to meet the commissioners.

Treasurer's Report showed a balance of $122,493.43.

The Commissioner's canvassed the votes of the Nov. 4 election. Meeting with the commissioners, Bill Jameson questioned the election outcome of the local option to sale liquor for off-premise consumption in Precinct 3. Notable, the tally books for Precinct 3 had no totals in them and the Master tally book was locked in the Precinct 3 ballot box which made tally verification impossible unless the ballot box is open in District Court. Another questionable factor was that there were 12 signatures for absentee votes and 13 votes. Jameson contends that prejudice against the sale of liquor for off-premise consumption was exhibited in that there were 9 working days that there were no ballots for the local option for absentee voters.

Jameson states, "I can't prove whether it was an honest election or not according to the records." He advocates throwing out the election and holding another one due to too many discrepancies.

John M. Russell brought up a request from the Tax Appraisal Board to move the appraiser into the judge's outer office part-time. This was approved by the commissioners.

Also honored was Motley County Red Cross Chairman Billy Wason. Guests included Motley County School faculty members and their spouses, wives of the lions, and area executives of the Red Cross.

Invitations to the affair, sent by Lion Haden Moore, club secretary, read: "The location of this honored event will be in the Motley County school cafeteria. Come and take a peek at the new unfinished building which we plan to finish this century."

Boss Lion (president) Kirby Campbell presided. Lion Alan Bingham led the Pledge of Allegiance and Lion Ray Minkley led the group in singing "America." Invocation was by Lion Greer Willis. The enjoyable meal was served by Lion Walter Jones.

Introduction of teachers and their spouses was by Lion Ron Cummings. School Superintendents. Attendance award pins were presented by Lion Forrest Campbell to Lions club members having a record of five or more years of perfect attendance, in 5-year periods. These included Walter Jones (5 years); Larry Hoyle and Jess Turner (10 years); Forrest Campbell (20 years); Frank Price (25 years); Billy Wason and John Stevens (35 years).

Presentation of the Lion of the Year Award to Lion Pipkin was by Lion John Stevens. The plaque is given in recognition of outstanding service to the club and community. Lion Pipkin is a past president of the club, and is serving as pianist since the retirement of Miss Patton. Lion Stevens noted however, that Pipkin was a poor substitute as "sweetheart" for the club.

Lion Chas. Johnson presented Miss Patton with gift certificates at Guys and Gals Department store and Matador V&S Variety, in appreciation for more than 50 years of serving as Matador Lions Club Sweetheart. Not only was she pianist, she helped with staging the Lions shows and with publicity and in other areas where needed in promoting the club's projects and activities.

The program, given by the Red Cross visitors, was introduced by Lion Billy Wason and included as guest speaker, Rev. Bill Perkins of Knox City, Methodist Church pastor and red Cross Volunteer Consultant; also

Former District Judge Named In Suit Filed by Floyd County Commissioner

In a suit filed Friday in the 110th District Court, Jack Lackey filed a "plaintiff's original petition for declaration and determination of ownership, reimbursement of funds and injunctive relief," naming George Miller as defendant. Miller served as judge of the 110th District Court prior to his recent resignation to join a Plainview law firm.

Lackey "brings this suit as an individual citizen and taxpayer of Floyd County, Texas, as a county commissioner, Precinct 4 of Floyd County; and as representative of the taxpayers and citizens of Floyd County, Texas."

The plaintiff charges that during Miller's tenure, which spanned from 1977 through October 3 of this year, "Floyd County purchased certain lawbooks and provided upkeep and supplementation thereof" and that Miller removed the law books from the county courthouse.

"Despite the fact that Miller acknowledged (via his representative) an indebtedness to Floyd County for use of said facilities and services, the Floyd County Commissioners' Court to this date refuses to take action to collect said indebtedness," the suit charges.

Lackey also charges in the suit that during "a bitter Democratic primary election campaign" this spring, Miller "utilized Floyd County facilities and services to

by Michelle Bearden

The Roaring Springs City council met Nov. 4 with Mayor Eugene Watson presiding. Present were Councilmen Ronnie Thacker, Jean Adams, Gene Brannon, Vincente Saenz with Odessa Mullins, city clerk, taking minutes. Past minutes were read and approved.

Roaring Springs 4-H members, Lacy and Casey Parks, Billy Bruce Lefevre, and Christy Pierce and their leaders, Barbara Parks and Vickie Pierce met with the city council to ask their permission for a 4-H project involving the gradual restoration of the old R.S. High School building. The R.S. 4-H Club would like to initially fix up one room for their meeting room and clean up the school grounds to start with.

Eventually they would like to, room by room, restore the rest of the building to serve as a community center, or museum or whatever the community needs. The thirteen member 4-Hers have in mind to use either the old library room or home ec room as their meeting room. They would be happy to accept donations from ex-students. The city council enthusiastically accepted the 4-H groups proposal. Councilman Thacker made a motion to accept the 4-H proposal with Brannon seconding it.

Judith Eversole from SPAG met with the council to explain why the city was not awarded a community development water and sewer grant applied for. She explained that there were 30 applicants at the regional level which Roaring Springs came in 4th. However at the state level the city came in 9th with the first seven receiving funding. Eversole informed the council that the basic point system that is used to determine a community's eligibility is largely based on the 1980 census figures even though the city and its needs may have undergone significant change since then. The council's only recourse is to resubmit this grant next year.

Bennie D. Dillard met with the council to ask for water and sewage lines to be run to his property across from his house for the use of a home to be placed on that property.

The council was agreeable to this request, however the current lack of funds will delay immediate implementation.

Councilman Thacker related to the council a request from GTE representative, Jerry West, to install a 100 ft. Microwave tower in front of the GTE building in the residential area of town. GTE is wanting to build this tower to provide better service to R.S. and the surrounding areas. Although the Council voted to table a final decision on this proposal, they were unequivocally opposed to it at this time.

Business Review

The backbone of all rural communities is the small businesses that are located in them. Oftentimes, we take these businesses pretty much for granted. Consider, for a moment if there were no grocery or drug stores in the county at all, no bank, no place to shop for anything. A bleak prospect, at best.

The only way we as residents of this county can ensure that these small businesses remain intact is to patronize them. Nearly all of our businesses are locally owned - a large percentage employ other locals.

Yes, you can save up a number of purchases to make the next time you go to Lubbock, (and I've been as guilty as anyone of doing this). But we, as consumers, need to look at our actions more closely; you're out the gas going up there plus usually the price of a meal, not to mention the three hours of travel time. In addition to these negatives, you're investing your money in another community. While there will be times when you simply can't find what you want in Motley County, try to buy what you need in the county - FIRST.

Christmas will soon be upon us and I would like to encourage everyone who lives or works in Motley County to shop in the county as much as possible.

I would like to salute our local businesses and say, "Hey, I'm really glad you're here!"

Jo Ann's Jots & Jingles

Once long ago my mother sent me a poem written by Harry Lazarus entitled SONS AND DAUGHTERS. To those of you who have daughters, I thought it might have meaning. As the mother of two daughters, I really appreciated it!

I have no regrets,
 Do daughters tear clothing
 Or bring home strange pets?

Or flaunt blackened eyes
 For their parents to praise?
 Or wear out their shoes
 In a matter of days?
 Or track in the mud from the Murkiest waters?

If you think that they don't,
 You just don't know my daughters.

"Two daughters" they say
 With a trace of a sneer,
 "No sons!" they exclaim
 With a crocodile tear,
 But that's as I want it,

"Son Beams"

By June Keltz

Many great men of God were sent into the desert to prepare them to carry out His plan. The word "desert" in the Greek language means "lonesome or waste." We have all experienced desert existence or we may even feel that our entire life has been one of waste and loneliness.

Moses was in the desert when Jehovah announced His program of action to free Israel from Egyptian bondage.

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness for 40 days to be tempted by Satan. He left there an overcomer, filled with the Holy Spirit and adequately equipped to begin His ministry.

John the Baptist lived in the desert and became strong in spirit until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

The Disciple John was exiled on the isle of Patmos where he received the wonderful Revelation of Jesus Christ which is recorded in the last book of our Bible.

These arid experiences may not be anything to shout about but at least we are driven to search for and listen to the voice of our Father. There are so many voices in our world giving us unsound advice that we need to retreat to a place of quietness in order to hear truth from our Heavenly Counselor. The land of need is a perfect place to learn to walk by faith and it is here also, that we attend obedience school.

If it is spiritual dryness that has you almost defeated, cheer up. By faith, continue to read the word, pray fervently, and refuse to grow cold and indifferent because God is preparing you for a more useful work in His kingdom.

DIRTY CHIMNEYS CAN CAUSE FIRE

Chimneys with heavy creosote deposits are a leading cause of fires in the United States each year. Now is a good time to inspect your chimney for creosote buildup.

Creosote is produced when wood burns. It escapes from a stove or fireplace in the form of smoke and condenses on the inside of the chimney. Creosote is highly flammable, and deposits one-fourth inch deep or more should be removed.

Chimney cleaning is a messy and sometimes dangerous task which may require climbing onto the roof. Although chemical cleaners are available, most have been proven ineffective. Steel brushes should be used to clean a chimney, using extension rods to reach the entire length of the flue. To avoid getting soot all over the house, fasten a sheet over the opening of the fireplace.

A chimney sweep is the best way to handle cleaning. He will have a selection of brushes and will be able to spot improper installation of wood stoves or chimney damage.

Once the chimney has been cleaned, proper use of the stove or fireplace can reduce creosote buildup. The newer, more efficient stoves and fireplace inserts allow less heat loss through the chimney. This lower temperature inside the chimney encourages the accumulation of creosote. With hotter fires, creosote is burned as it is produced, leaving less to condense in the chimney.

If the chimney and stove pipes are free from excessive creosote deposits, accumulation can be controlled by burning a hot fire for about 15 minutes each day to burn off any thin layers of creosote which may have formed the previous day.

Library Notes

Memorials received through the library were given by Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Buzz Thacker and Mrs. Lillian Thacker in memory of Mrs. Bernice Knight. If you are not familiar with Memorials - the library uses this money to purchase books only, a sticker is put in front of the book acknowledging who the book was presented by and in memory of, also a card is sent to the family of the deceased. This is a nice way to remember a loved one or good friend who has passed away and also helps the library.

We thank Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casey of Lubbock for their cash donation to our Motley County Library Building fund.

New books in the library:

GOLF LUNCHEON

The closing luncheon of the regular golf season for the Women's Golf Association was Thursday, Nov. 6 at the club house. Those attending were Lucretia Campbell, Margaret Barnhill, Leona Terry, Louise Barton, Geneva Wilson, LaVoe Thacker, Loys Campbell, Olivia Barton, Dorothy Day, Judy and Dudley Barber and Hazel.

Cooks for the gourmet feast were Leona, Geneva, Louise, LaVoe, Loys and Dorothy. The Mexican menu included enchiladas, beans, cornbread (some jalapeno), several salads - a layered salad, tossed green one and a sweet-sour pickle dish, chips, coffee, tea and Fiesta cake - all very tasty, most delicious and very appropriate for the chilly, autumn day. After having "seconds" and finishing the meal, all settled back for business.....and awards.

most unfavorable weather that lasted too long -- and other complications that prevented play.

Low putts (13) was won by Geneva, taking "sweepstakes" honors.

NEW OFFICERS were elected as follows: Olivia, president; Loys, vice president and tournament chairman; Margaret secretary-treasurer; and Hazel, reporter.

Play was announced to continue, weather permitting, at 11 a.m. Thursdays.

After lunch, these played: Dorothy D., LaVoe, Louise, Olivia and Geneva. Dorothy, Olivia and Geneva quit after 9 holes, but Louise and LaVoe played 18 holes.

PLAY DAY

Thursday, October 30, Dorothy, Louise, Geneva, Leona, Olivia and LaVoe played. Geneva won the Bingle-Bangle-Bungle play.

ADDENDA

Some interesting facts about the season's tournaments -- LaVoe and Olivia were tied, one stroke behind Louise in Play Yourself tournament, and at times Olivia and Geneva were racing for low putts. Each had had 3 "hole outs" during the season and were tied until last Thursday -- the last regular play-day of the season, when Geneva was lucky and had 2 "hole outs" that day, beating Olivia by two putts, making Geneva 5 "hole outs" for the season.

In recent play, Olivia had an "eagle" on No. 4 on the green in 3 strokes, and had a one putt.

BUSINESS MEETING

Loys presided at this meeting. Minutes were read by Margaret, and financial report and balance given.

Geneva, as tournament chairman, named the winners of the several tournaments and presented the prizes. All winners received money presented in envelopes, cleverly decorated (in appropriate pen and ink golf sketches) by Shane Jones.

The Handicap tournament was won by Geneva (215) in 3-day play. Lucretia won in Play Yourself (77) for above, and Louise won (64) for below.

LaVoe was Medalist (83) in the Club Championship tournament which was set for Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11, but was never finished, due to the "monsoon" season and Volunteer Consultants Bill Jean of Amarillo and Doris Teague of Childress; and Betty Moody of Childress, Field Service Chairman. Also a guest was Mrs. Perkins.

Rev. Perkins told of the many services offered through the Red Cross during times of disaster, including wars, floods, hurricanes, earthquakes and tornadoes, such as the one that struck in Matador on May 1, 1984. He stressed that rumors that the Red Cross charged for any of its services was unfounded.

He paid tribute to volunteer workers during these times of need, and cited Miss Patton for her many years of work, including her services in disbursing the Red Cross funds to the tornado victims and in other areas. During the years she also has aided in the Community Chest drives for funds and performed many other civic affairs duties. Besides her participation in the Lions Club projects, she has been active in the Order of Eastern Star and in club work. She served as pianist and also organist at the First Baptist Church for many years, and is secretary of the Gleamers Sunday School class.

In behalf of the Red Cross, Mrs. Moody presented Miss Patton with a framed certificate of appreciation which reads: "This certificate is hereby awarded Rachel Patton by The American National Red Cross in appreciation of her many years of dedicated volunteer service to humanity through the Motley County Chapter," dated 3 Nov. 1986 and signed Betty C. Moody, Field Service Chairman, Region 3, Territory III.

Mrs. Teague presented Miss Patton and also Billy Wason with Red Cross 40-year service pins, saying that both had probably served in the organization more than 40 years, but that records go back only that far. It was noted that Wason assumed the position of Chairman of the Motley County Chapter soon after his return from military service during World War II.

1936 Fiftieth Class Reunion

In May 1936 forty-five seniors graduated from Matador High School. The class was made up of students from Matador, Whiteflat and Flomot. During Homecoming this year, nineteen members of the 1936 class celebrated with a Reunion at Summit Savings Assn. Some of those in attendance had not seen each other since graduation, so it was a joyous occasion for everyone and meeting spouses who were present.

Seven members of the class are deceased.

The class members present were disappointed that none of their former teachers were able to attend the reunion and reminisce with everyone. The class members have always felt fortunate to have had such wonderful teachers who had a very positive impact on their lives.

Farm-City Week Is Nov. 21-27

COLLEGE STATION--Farm-City Week, Nov. 21-27, focuses on the teamwork of farm and city people as partners in growing, processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber.

"In Texas, movement of food and fiber from the farm or ranch to the supermarket and family table provides jobs and income for almost a fourth of the working force," points out Dr. Carl Anderson, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"One out of every 35 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and around 25 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products," says Anderson.

Many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers and in processing and marketing agricultural commodities. Nationally, one out of every five jobs in private enterprises is tied to agriculture.

With its $9.3 billion in cash receipts from agricultural commodities in 1985, Texas moved up in rank to second place behind California and ahead of Iowa. Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach.

Total farm assets in Texas are estimated at $98 billion. With 160,000 farms in Texas, assets average about $600,000 dollars per farm. Many commercial size, full-time operators have far more than a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch businesses.

"Producing an abundance of high quality food and fiber is inherent to American agriculture. American spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries of the world," Anderson points out. "Today that averages about 15 cents of every dollar - of

It was agreed at this reunion that the 1936 Class will have a special meeting at Homecoming each year in the future.

The following attended Homecoming and their 50th Class Reunion:

Sybil Daffern Timmons, Childress; Hazel Ellithorp Markham, Umpire, Ark.; Louise Hall Dorsey, Canyon; Dorothy Fulfer Phifer, San Antonio; Dora Ratcliff Farrar, Denton; Albert Rattson, Midland; Camella Wilkinson Strickland, Abilene; Burrell Tipton, Dayton; Albert Willis, Lake Elsemore, Calif; Bebe Gates, Pine Valley, Calif.; Geneva Cooper Griffin, Silverton; R.V. disposable income, with 5 cents of that spent on food eaten outside the home. The food marketing system alone employs more than one out of every 10 U.S. workers.

"Together, farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world," he believes. "This gives a country the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes."

In the U.S. about one person in every 40 lives on a farm or ranch. Each farm worker now supplies enough food and fiber for more than 80 people, 20 of which live abroad. The proportion of U.S. residents living on farms has fallen from 30.1 percent in 1920 to 2.5 percent today. That compares with about 70 percent of the people living on farms in India, 36 percent in Mexico and 14 percent in the Soviet Union.

Farm-City Week is under the direction of the National Farm-City Council, Inc., which is coordinated by Kiwanis International.

FmHA in 51st Year of Offering Vital Financial Assistance

Farmers Home Administration, the rural credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, is observing its 51st anniversary this year, still providing financial assistance to farmers and other rural residents and communities unable to obtain credit from other sources at affordable rates and terms.

Its predecessor agency, the Rural Rehabilitation Administration, was created by a presidential executive order in 1935. The Farm Security Administration succeeded that agency in 1937, and was renamed the Farmers Home Administration by a 1946 Congressional Act.

FmHA has been the "agency of last resort" in many instances, playing a key role in allowing operators to maintain family-type farms and helping individuals who might not otherwise be able to do so to become financially independent.

About $8 million additional funds were obtained from other lenders through subordination. Guaranteed loans totaled 109 for $10,665,650.

Special emphasis is being placed this year on helping farmers with serious financial problems to restructure their debts so they can continue their operations.

The plaintiff seeks "injunctive relief," according to the suit, "requiring Miller to immediately return to the Floyd County Courthouse all law books, publications, magazines, periodicals or other legal research and reference material which Miller has at any time

Lackey also filed for a temporary restraining order against Miller. A $1,000 deposit bond was placed by the plaintiff.

DILUTE SULFURIC ACID DELINTING

(A Delinting Method Which We Feel Is Less Harmful To The Seed)

IS YOUR FUZZY COTTONSEED TESTED FOR QUALITY BEFORE DELINTING?

Oilseed systems tests for quality on your fuzzy cottonseed before it is delinted.

A. MOISTURE TEST: If moisture of fuzzy cottonseed is above 9.5 to 10% moisture the quality of the delinted seed will probably be marginal. The fuzzy seed needs to be in the 7 to 8% moisture range for good quality planting seed.

B. FREE FATTY ACID TEST: The free fatty acid of fuzzy seed, to be used for planting seed, should be below .9 to 1.0%.

C. TETRAZOLIUM TEST: This test is used to determine the percentage of fuzzy seed that will germinate before delinting.

All of these tests help determine the quality of the seed BEFORE delinting and BEFORE you have a delinting charge on marginal seed.

Oilseed Systems Inc., also repeats the tests that are mentioned above on all delinted seed, plus an additional test to determine vigor.

VIGOR TEST: This test was developed by Dr. Norman Hopper at Texas Tech University to determine if a certain lot of planting seed has excellent, good, fair, or poor vigor. This test is done with a combination of warm and cold germinations.

These tests in combination with a seed count per pound will help you determine the amount of good quality seed per 50 lb. bag, which in turn will help you determine planting rates.

We have some good quality carryover seed of popular varieties for sale.

Bring us samples of your carryover seed for a germination test and a vigor test before planting next spring.

Great American Smokeout Scheduled for November 20

(DUKE LEADS SMOKEOUT EFFORT) - Dr. "Red" Duke, known best for syndicated television "Health Reports," will prescribe a smoke-free day for Texas smokers as the state's honorary Great American Smokeout chairman.

This year's Smokeout, which is sponsored annually by the American Cancer Society, is scheduled November 20. The Smokeout is a light-hearted campaign encouraging smokers to give up their tobacco for 24 hours.

Last year, a Gallup Survey indicated 23 million Americans quit smoking or cut down on the number of cigarettes smoked during the Smokeout.

Event planners expect a record number will make the attempt to abstain this year, as the Smokeout celebrates its 10th Anniversary.

"We're anticipating our greatest participation ever," said Oscar Newton of Houston, chairman of Texas' Smokeout efforts. "We feel Texans especially will respond to the supportive approach of the Smokeout and to Dr. Duke's plain-spoken advice," he said.

Duke, a nationally-respected trauma surgeon, has been a trusted source of health information for television viewers across the nation since 1982. His "Health Reports," produced by the University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston, are broadcast three times a week on 69 television stations in 30 states.

The "Health Reports" will feature segments on smoking and quitting smoking during Smokeout week, Newton said. "You can't say anything good about smoking," Duke said. "But the good thing about the Great American Smokeout is its supportive approach."

"Although the Smokeout is known as a 'fun' event, it has a very serious purpose," he said. "Each year, 350,000 Americans die of diseases linked to cigarette smoking. We have to convince smokers that quitting is the best thing they can do for themselves and their loved ones," Duke said.

Communities around the state are planning local celebrations in observance of the 10th Anniversary Smokeout. Plans call for promotions at businesses, hospitals, schools and colleges, as well as city-wide events honoring former smokers and would-be quitters.

Duke's "Health Reports" are carried on 18 television stations around the state, including: KTRK-TV, Houston; KRIS-TV, Corpus Christi; KMOL-TV, San Antonio; KVUE-TV, Austin; KAMR-TV, Amarillo; WFAA-TV, Dallas/Fort Worth; KMID-TV, Midland/Odessa; KTAB-TV, Abilene; KAVU-TV, Victoria; KTSM-TV, El Paso; KWTX-TV, Waco/Temple; KBTX-TV, Bryan Waco/Temple; KBTX-TV, Bryan; KIDY-TV, San Angelo; KFDX-TV, Wichita Falls; KJAC-TV, Port Arthur/Beaumont; KGBD-TV, Lubbock; KLTU-TV, Tyler; and KRGV-TV, Weslaco.

For more information on local activities planned for the Great American Smokeout, contact your local American Cancer Society office.

GEORGE MULKEY

(Editors Note: This is the first part of the George Mulkey story. The second part was printed last week.)

The place was the TOX Ranch House, that had been built on the banks of Tonk Creek in Stonewall County, Tx. Near by was a spring of water with a sparkling pool below. The time was in the early fall of 1889. The morning was pleasant and warm. It was a lovely scene. A wealth of lush grass everywhere. Cattle were fat and contented. Even the air you breathed seemed fragrant and laden with adventure.

You felt glad to be there. A new world discovered, that was yet to be explored. Southward stood Flat Top Mountain. East toward the river is the Lil Rock Ranch House, shorn of most of its former glory and grandeur. Away to the Northeast, the Brazos River found its meanderings, that let it beyond your horizon, on its tortuous course to the sea. A little more to the left, and beyond the salt, can be seen Kiowa Peak, truly a freak of nature. Westward you see the foothills or steeps, where by you gain altitude, as you approach the Llano Estacado.

Out there on the prairie could be seen droves of antelope, idly grazing round about and among the cattle. As you look, they become startled, and fleet footedly scamper away. Then you note what had scared them.

In the distance beyond, you see two horsemen driving loose horses. They seem to be coming your way. As you watch, you hear the gobble, gobble of wild turkeys and the call of partridge in the fringe of timber along the stream. High aloft, the musical clarion of the curlew in its swift passage. Truly you feel near that primeval nature that is so fascinating, as it gently enwraps and lulls you in its security. Out there on the prairie the horsemen by now are much nearer. The prairie dogs set up a continuous chatter of warning as the danger approaches them, then they tumble in their burrows and are silent. Sure you don't know the riders, for you are a stranger that knows no one. The men know what they are doing, for they come straight on and corralled the horses. It is my first closeup view of Western Cowboys and their actions. One a matured man, and the other much younger. Both tanned and as brown as roasted coffee, for they had known much exposure to the weather. The elder man had but one leg. He turned out to be Sam McGaughey. The younger one was George Mulkey. At the time I knew neither.

The purpose of penning the horses was to get a mount for Mulkey. After picking the mount, the others were turned out again to their freedom. Mulkey seemed to know what he was doing, but at the time I didn't know much about what was taking place around me. Mulkey unsaddled the horse he was riding, turned him loose and roped a fresh one. Though the horses were skittish, wild, and dodged about frantically, Mulkey seemed perfectly at ease, as he maneuvered the bunch with his rope in his hand, waiting his opening to catch the one he wanted. When the moment arrived and he cast his Blocker, the catch was made with such ease as to be surprising. As the noose tightened about the horses neck, that Spanish pony threw a fit, equal to an untamed panther. Still that didn't seem to bother George Mulkey, a boy that had barely reached his majority.

He soon had him saddled and was in the middle of him. Talk about chinning the moon. Boy! That Pinto horse certainly tried to chin it with his rider. It was all useless and he soon quit it. The gate was opened and the horses driven away in the other direction by the two men, whom I later knew as Sam McGaughey and George Mulkey.

I had noticed how little assistance McGaughey had offered and assumed he was sort of helpless with only one leg. It was not true. I later learned that the horses were McGaughey's that Mulkey was sort of a stranger to McGaughey. In fact, had never before worked in that section of the country. Where he came from possibly few ever knew, and I was not one of them.

Though a young man, he was an old hand, and McGaughey was testing him out to see what he knew. It proved to be plenty. Lots of cowboys had a roving and a floating disposition; became tired, quit good jobs, and rode on into new ranges. Mulkey was one of them. He had dropped into that section and while anxious to stay had found no opening where he could draw money. In some way he met McGaughey, who had extra horses, but had all the cowhands he needed. So he mounted Mulkey, just to accommodate him; and went with him out to where the outfits were working. That is the way he got started. It didn't and just couldn't last long. No one could see that boy ride bad horses, see him use a rope and otherwise take the lead in all cattle work, without wanting him to work for them.

A slim sinuous fellow with a face so homely that he was positively attractive. As for that, his ever movement caught your attention. No, it was not for long that George Mulkey rode for his chuck. He soon went to work for the Rainor Cattle Company. I have seen many fine ropers in my life time. Men that had roped more years than George Mulkey had lived, when I knew him; but never have I seen any man cast a Blocker with more deftness, ease and accuracy.

George Mulkey faced the calves for a time for the CALL outfit, used the longest rope, threw the longest loop and caught calves further from him than any man I ever saw rope.

Sunflower Insurance

PLAINVIEW, TX--November 30 ends the 1986 year insurance period for sunflowers grown in Motley County, Texas and insured by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC) according to Jackie Harris, a representative for the federal crop insurance corporation.

"Under the terms of the policy, any acreage on which harvest will not be completed must be left intact until an inspection is made. Any claim for indemnity may be rejected if these loss reporting requirements are not met," Harris stated.

"Any notice of loss must be given promptly after the total destruction of the unit, completion of harvest, or November 30, whichever occurs earlier," according to Harris. The producer who anticipates a claim should notify his or her crop insurance representative immediately.

Keep the cold out!

Up to 40% of a home's total heating and cooling bill can be a result of air infiltration. Air infiltration is simply the uncontrolled movement of air into or out of your home. You can help keep the cold out this winter by taking a few simple conservation measures now.

Weatherstripping

As much cold air can enter your home through a 1/16" crack along the sides and top of a typical doorway as through a 4" x 4" hole in the wall. Help keep the cold out by replacing worn weatherstripping around all doors and windows.

Caulking

Caulking in the cracks around door facings, windows, pipes and wiring will also help prevent air infiltration into your home. Polyurethane or similar caulking is available in an easy-to-install form at most hardware stores.

You can also help draft-proof your home by installing gaskets behind the cover plates of outlets and switches around your home. (Don't forget to turn the power off before removing the switch plates.)

For more information on the prevention of air infiltration this winter, call your local WTU office.

High School Football News

by Chip Hollenback

The Motley County Matadors ended their season with a very disappointing 64-0 loss to a very talented Paducah Dragon football team. The Matadors had been showing steady improvement over the past several weeks, but Friday night the team did not play very well.

Offensively, the Matadors moved the football fairly well in the first half. But injuries to Les Woolsey and David Trevino caused problems for the offensive line in the second half. Rodney Doran and Jeffrey Burkes did have several good runs off tackle and up the middle, but the offense was never able to cross the goal line. As the score mounted, the Paducah defense became more confident and aggressive and by the fourth quarter had fairly well shut down the Motley County attack.

Defensively, the Matadors had too many mental mistakes in pass coverage and option responsibilities and too many missed tackles. Fortunately, most of the plays realize they did not play up to their abilities and this should provide motivation for them to work hard in the off season and next summer to make sure that they never have another performance like this.

Although the game was a disappointing conclusion to the season, there were many positive points to be remembered about the season. The highlight of the season had to be the hard fought victory over a valiant McLean team that broke Motley County's long losing streak. The game attracted national attention from newspapers, radio, and even ESPN Television. The team also had improved performances against district

Chillicothe. Another big plus was the fact that Motley County did not lose one player to academic ineligibility on the high school team. Also, every player who started the season, finished the season, which is the true measure of a winner. Although the team did not win as many games as everyone had hoped, the team did gain invaluable playing experience which should pay big dividends in the future seasons. Especially when it is remembered that the team had only three seniors, the team should continue to make progress and improve its win-loss record. Special tribute should be paid to the three seniors who played the entire season and did their best: Rodney Doran, Jeffrey Burkes, and Mark Roys. The coaching staff expects to have an even larger turnout for high school football next year than they did for this season. It is possible the team could have over thirty players try out next season. This could result in Motley County fielding a junior varsity football team for the first time in many a year. That would be a big plus for the football program.

The football team would like to thank the parents fans, cheerleaders, and pep club for all of their loyal support this season. Motley County has got to have the best school spirit of any school in the state of Texas. Hopefully next season everyone will have even more to cheer about.

Booster Club News

by Noilene Bowden

The Motley County Athletic Booster Club met November 4, 1986 in the History Room with 11 present. President Marshall opened the business meeting, minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Old business was discussed. The new business was regarding "Parents night." Tonda Hollenback to be the announcer for Parents night. Coach Eddleman informed the members that the 1st girls basketball game is November 15, and that the gym was not ready. It will probably be the last of November before the gym is ready for playing.

After discussing other points of business, President Marshall concluded the business meeting, after which Coach Hollenback gave a review of the Chillicothe game.

Members present were: Francis Guerrero, Kenneth Marshall, Mary Marshall, Jan Azevedo, Noilene Bowden, Lindy Stafford, Magdalene Carlson, Coach Hollenback, Coach Eddleman, Coach Hill, and Coach Wilson.

Thanks men for a job well done. I have seen such growth in all of you. From inexperience boys out for number one, to a real mean fighting machine, all pulling together for the team and school.

I have enjoyed watching you play, trying your best, sometimes when the odds were not in our favor, you came from no scoring to scoring.

Now we close the chapter on this football year and start fresh in basketball. See you on the court. Lets Show Them BIG RED!

GO - FIGHT - WIN

MOTLEY CO. SCHOOL NEWS

Construction on the building has finally reached a point where its completion should not take much longer. Some finish work will still require a further wait for needed supplies to arrive (Handicapped chair lift and steel for trimmina the stairs in the basement, for example) but the building itself is very close to final completion. It is close enough that we plan to start serving breakfast in the luncheonroom on Wednesday, November 19, unless something "unforeseen" happens that might require a further delay.

In order for our bus students to have an opportunity to eat breakfast, bus drivers will have to follow their regular route and their regular schedule as closely as possible. Parents are requested to see that the students are ready when the buses arrive in the mornings to pick them up, as bus drivers will not be able to wait for them without causing some students to miss breakfast.

The P.T.O. Carnival was a success again, and the efforts of the organizers and the workers at the carnival are appreciated, the first day of quail season and the Texas ballgame at Tech probably cut down on participation, and the parents, teachers, and students who made it a success deserve our thanks. Halloween caused no major disasters or destruction, and our student body deserves a pat on the back, also.

Thanks, also, to the Roys Boys at Flomot for helping with the bus this morning.

Jr. High Football News

By Coach Chip Hollenback

The Motley County Mavericks concluded a successful 1986 football season with an exciting, come-from-behind 22-18 victory over the Paducah junior high football team. This victory was important for many reasons. First of all, it gave the Mavericks a winning season record of 4-3. Secondly, it kept the Mavericks undefeated at home. And finally, it avenged an earlier season setback by the Paducah team.

The first quarter saw both teams try to feel each other out and wait for the big break. Finally, the Mavericks lost the football on a fumble and Paducah capitalized by driving in for the first score and a 6-0 lead. The Mavericks stopped the PAT run up the middle cold. The Mavericks responded with a drive of their own behind two long pass plays from Matt Washington to Tony Gonzales.

After Paducah scored the Mavericks broke a big play of their own. David Alexander broke off right tackle behind the blocks of Jason Stanley and Tony Gonzales for a 65 yard run down to Paducah's 5 yard line. A few plays later David Alexander ran the same play for Motley County's first touchdown. The PAT run by Matt Washington was stopped short, but the Mavericks had cut the lead to 12-6. Tony Gonzales intercepted a pass right before halftime and almost scored another touchdown, but the clock ran out.

The Mavericks received the second half kickoff and drove right down the field behind the running of David Alexander and Matt Washington. Tony Gonzales also made a couple of spectacular runs on tight end reverses for big gains. Matt Washington made a spectacular run on a 15 yard quarterback sneak for the tying touchdown. Matt Washington then put the Mavericks in front on the quarterback keep phase of the triple option for a 14-12 Motley County lead.

Paducah jumped back out in front when they intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown at the end of the 3rd quarter. Once again then PAT attempt was no good, but they did lead 18-14. But the Mavericks would not be denied, as they drove back down the field in the 4th quarter. Matt Washington then scored the winning touchdown on a 1 yard quarterback sneak. David Alexander then swept right end for the 2 point PAT and a 22-18 victory.

The Mavericks were a very young team this season with many 6th and 7th graders seeing plenty of action. This experience should help the Mavericks enjoy continued success in the years to come. Of course, the 8th graders from this year's Maverick team, Matt Washington, David Alexander, Tony Gonzales, Johnny Martinez, Jimmy Cummings, Jeremy Davis, and Kelly Brown, will be sorely missed. But hopefully they will continue their football and athletic endeavors for the Motley County Matadors next season as mighty, mighty freshmen on the high school team.

The team would like to thank the parents and fans for all of their support throughout the season.
