"The Rattler" 1917-1918 Matador High School Annual

by Earlyne Jameson

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne Black of Bethel Springs, Tennessee, daughter of early day residents of Matador, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Payne, recently sent to me her Matador High School Annual, "The Rattler". It was published in 1917-18 and will be on display at the Motley County Jail Museum during Homecoming, Saturday, Oct. 17.

I was impressed when looking through this seventy year old school Annual at the subjects offered to the 56 High School students as well as the many active literary organizations and athletic programs.

In High School, besides Mathematics, Social Studies, English and Science courses, they had Latin, German, Spanish and Music classes. Among the organizations were Pierian Literary Society, Expression and Voice Club, Student Council, Demosthenic Literary Society, Choral Club, Interscholastic League and baseball, track, football and basketball teams.

Total Matador School enrollment in 1917-18 was 298 pupils with eleven faculty members to teach and supervise all these classes and activities! Superintendent, D.M. Lowrance also taught Mathematics. Principal, T.G. Rogers, was the athletic coach and Science teacher.

The 1917-18 Senior Class has sixteen members in their Freshman class, but due to four of the boys enlisting in the World War I U.S. Armed Forces, Cupid's arrows striking the hearts of five and others moving away, only five students graduated. They were Beulah Sheridan, president; Jewell Lowrance, secretary; Ethel Kendall, treasurer; Dewey Rattan and Helen Keith, historian.

The Junior class started the year 1913 with seven students, however Harry Morris was the only pupil in 1917. This did not discourage him, because he said, "I am meaner than ever, do not like to study, but I am at the top of my class!"

The Sophomore class had twenty-three students. D.P. Keith was president of this class until he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. Elmer Jameson was elected president of class in January. Edith Jackson was secretary; Mae Sandlin, historian and Gladys Plumlee, poet. I thought it was unusual to have a poet and historian on the slate of class officers.

The largest enrollment was the Freshmen class. Among the twenty-seven students were Olive Moore, Jack Edwards, Wimburn Montgomery, Eddie Russell, Pat Sheridan and Grace Barton. Bill Moore was class president, Susie White, secretary and Audry Morris, historian.

Helen Keith Patton was editor in chief of this well edited and organized Annual. Assisting her were Jewell Lowrance, assistant editor; Dewey Rattan, business manager, athletic editor; Wimburn Montgomery, cartoonist; Beulah Sheridan, art editor and Ethel Kendall, joke editor.

If you are unable to see the Annual at the Museum during Homecoming, come by the Motley County Library, relax in one of the comfortable chairs and enjoy these historical Matador High School memoirs!

City Council Discusses Dispute Over Paving Projects

The Matador City Council met Thursday, October 8 at City Hall with Mayor Gary L. Lancaster; Councilmen, L.B. Campbell, John Briscoe, Travis Jameson, Doyle Rose and Joe P. Smith; City Water Superintendent Bill Jameson and City Secretary Nell Berryman.

Minutes were read and accepted. Bills were read and approved to be paid for the approximate amount of $3,970.11.

The question was discussed of the county Commissioners Court and Fred Lipham dispute over the base material used for the city paving projects. According to Bill Jameson he had discussed the using of the material from the county with Sonny Russell and then told Lipham to go ahead and use it at the same price as before for $1.00 a yard, but when the county sent him a bill they asked for $2.70 a yard. Bill explained that the bids Lipham turned in were for the $1.00. The Mayor said he felt the city was responsible for the difference in price or to clear up the misunderstanding with the County.

Travis Jameson stated that the residents on the South end of Eubank Street had decided to split the cost of having that street paved if the city agreed to pave the intersections. The council agreed.

Bill Jameson informed the council that he had 475 ft. of old sewer line full of sludge and they had spent 2 days on it and hadn't found the place to start cleaning out. The council discussed the fact that this was part of the old line they had had problems with before and also it was to be hooked up to the new sewer line. They decided if it would comply with the grant funding they would go ahead and replace this pipe as part of the sewer project. This was discussed and agreed to.

It was reported that the line crew was in town and that the construction would start next week.

Gary McKay, Grant Engineer, came to discuss the possible uses for the extra sewer grant money and what they wanted. If there were no unforeseen problems needed in the work. It was decided the old pipe in question would be replaced and the line on the South side of Highway 70 and Scotch Street would be started and go as far as the funds lasted.

Kay Howard of Gary Traylor and Asso., entered the meeting and Mayor Lancaster called the Public Meeting to order. Mrs. Howard explained the eligibility of the city for any grant coming up and asked what the council and the citizens would like for them to apply for this year. L.B. Campbell suggested the sewer plant should be priority. Mrs. Howard stated this would be good and would be necessary if they ever applied for any economic development grants in the future. It was explained the sewer plant was built in 1927 and privately owned until 1948 when the City purchased it. Minor improvements have been made over the years and is in need of repair now.

The council voted to have Mrs. Howard to start the proceedings for the application. Mrs. Howard stated that a second Public Meeting would be held October 22 to go over the application.

Travis Jameson stated he had been approached about the city having a Rabies Vaccination Clinic for cats and dogs. It was discussed that the 4-H used to sponsor this clinic but were no longer interested. Motion was passed for the city to find a vet who would come to Matador and hold the clinic.

Jail-Museum To Be Scene Of School Memorabilia Display

Among activities planned for ex-students and ex-teachers during Homecoming, will be a display of school memorabilia in the Jail-Museum on Saturday, 17th. GFWC El Progresso Club will sponsor the event, as maintaining the facility is a project of the club.

The jail is the oldest structure in Motley County, having been built in 1891, the same year the county was organized. Much history of this area has been enacted within its walls. The playwright William Soroyan once wrote a play, "Hello Out

There," with the jail as the locale, based on the stories about Matador told to him by a former resident, Stanley Rose. Rose had a book shop on Hollywood Blvd. during the early 1920's and became a personal friend of Soroyan's.

The Texas Historical Commission placed an official medallion on the jail in 1976, and dedication ceremonies were held that year.

Mrs. R.E. Campbell is chairman of the El Progresso Club's Jail-Museum committee and has announced that she, or other members of the club will be on hand throughout the day, for visiting, from 10 a.m. until around 2:30 in the afternoon closing in time for the Ex-Student's business meeting and program at the school building. The Museum will again be open following the afternoon program, until suppertime, when barbecue will be served at the school.

All school mementoes donated for the display will be appreciated, and will be returned to the owners.

WELCOME EXES!

We hope amid all the visiting and planned activities, you find time to come "Downtown" and take a look at the new home of the Motley County Library right on Main Street between Guys and Gals Department Store and Pay-N-Save Grocery. Take advantage of our sitting space to rest your weary feet, or check the Homecoming Schedule in the Motley County Tribune, or wander back to the genealogy department and see if you can find your family mentioned in Of Such As These: A History Of Motley County, by Eleanor Mitchell Traweck, or leave your bored child to read a book in our children's department or watch a film-slide show on our machine while you chat with friends. We'll be happy to show you around our new home.

There is much excitement among the preschoolers and the adult leaders about our first meeting for the Story-Music program at the Library Tuesday morning from 10:30 - 11:15. We hope all you children from three to six years of age remembered to come and get your picture in the paper with Judge Whitaker and Mrs. Pohl and Mrs. Boedecker. If you missed this one, please come at the same time on October 27, when we have our second meeting.

ATTENTION, ALL VOLUNTEERS!

Mrs. Jo Amandes of the West Texas Library System in Lubbock will be conducting a two hour workshop for us on cataloging and classification at Motley County Library from 10:00 - 12:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 20, 1987. Please try to attend.

"Son Beams"

By June Keltz

One thing that Satan has used to divide the Body of Christ is man's opinion concerning praise and worship. Since God is in charge of Heaven, man's traditions, beliefs and disbeliefs will not be a part of it. When we see God's way we will be amazed that we didn't see it His way while we were earth bound. In our Father's house one thing seems to be more prevalent than any other - PRAISE! He knows He has done a wonderful thing, that there is no other true God, no one more powerful, loving and kind. He knows that He deserves the praise system that is established in Heaven to bring Him glory day and night. "And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within, and day and night they do not cease to say, 'Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord God, the almighty, who was and who is and who is to come.'" (Rev. 4:8)

The four are then joined by the twenty-four elders who sing a praise song to Jesus. They are joined by myriads and myriads, and thousands and thousands of angels who say with a loud voice, (Heaven is noisy folks). "Worthy, is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing." (Rev. 5:12) Finally every created thing in heaven, on earth and under the earth and sea and in them will exalt Him in praise.

We visited a church in another town recently that will not need to rehearse for the scene described in Revelation. Hundreds of young couples with one, two or three "little ones" were standing on their feet, one arm holding a baby, the other raised toward Heaven singing "Holy, Holy, Holy - worthy is the Lamb." Older people whose knees had to struggle to rise up were on their feet twenty or thirty minutes with heads and hands lifted upward in gratitude to their Savior. Little children clapped their hands as the drums, flutes, horns and stringed instruments all praised the Lord.

Could this be the generation that will one day be so caught up in praise and worship that Father will say, "Go get them Son, I want them around my throne!" I believe it is.

Hospital Board To Help With ECA Cost

The Motley County Hospital Board held their monthly meeting at Billie Dean's Restaurant, Friday, October 9 at 6:30 a.m. with President Larry Hoyle; Members J.M. (Buzz) Thacker and Darrell Cruse attending.

It was reported that Lillie Crouch is checking into Indigent Health Care with other towns.

Minutes were read and bills for September expenses for $3,198 were paid leaving a balance of $15,463 in the bank.

Bids were turned in for the heating and air conditioning and electrical work to be done at the Stanley Hospital Building.

Motion was made and passed for the Board to help with the cost of materials and teaching of the ECA class.

The board adjourned to go to the Hospital Building to see the work being done so far.

Circus To Be Presented In Paducah Soon

The Paducah Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Harvest Festival around the square in Paducah on Saturday, October 24. This event is planned to coincide with the Franzen Brothers Circus appearance that day.

Out-of-town artists, craftsmen, those with food booths, etc. are welcome to participate. First come-first served will determine location either on the sidewalk or the lawn around the courthouse. Also, a street dance is planned for Saturday night.

This event can be a fund raiser for you or your organization. Put October 24 on your calendar and have a fun time in Paducah.

And now abideth faith, hope and love. These three, but the greatest of these is Love.

The minutes of the September meeting were read and approved as read.

James Gillespie of the Soil Conservation Service was on hand to inform the Court of the information on the remodeling bids and that since the Court had more than doubled the rent for the offices after the remodeling, that they would have take bids from at least 3 offices before there would be an office location decided on. The Court had to turn in their bid by Nov. 1.

Marisue Potts came to give them a report on the Library. She stated that everything was going well and Gary L. Lancaster CPA, was helping them re-work the bookkeeping to simplify it. The West Texas Library Systems is sending someone down to teach the volunteers new skills.

The Commissioners commented on how good the Library looked and how use had increased just since the move. Potts stated they had new volunteers and new people interested in helping as well as using all the facilities.

The Judge announced a public meeting to be held October 20 at 10:30 a.m. for the purpose of discussing grant possibilities. The Commissioners and the public were to meet with Kay Howard of Gary Traylor and Associates, who would explain the possibilities of grants. One of which would be for an elevator in the Courthouse. J.M. Russell stated he had been to several Courthouses around the Panhandle and some of them were installing the 'chair-lifts' and one had installed an 'escalator.'

Senior Citizens Report

by Iris Blevins

Since I have been visiting out of town for several days, I have missed several of the activities at the Senior Citizens Center and here I am playing catch up.

The bus went to Lubbock Monday with several people riding. We are pleased to have those with Doctor appointments ride the bus. Let's all use the things that are given to us.

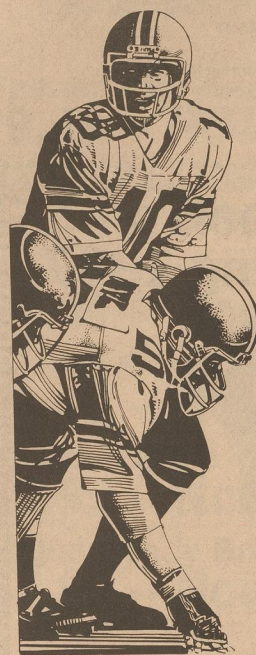

Thursday was bus day to Plainview and everyone did shopping and looking and enjoyed getting out of town.

We want to thank Carolyn Smead, Home Economist, and the Motley County 4-H Club and their sponsors for the delicious noon meal that they prepared and served us last Saturday. Your food and nutrition projects were indeed, very interesting. Also the style show was good. Girls, you did real good work. Your suits were very pretty. We invite you to come and be with us anytime you can.

Our Motley County school system is doing some very fine work with it's students for them to put on a program like they did for us.

The bus went to Lubbock Monday for some Doctor's appointments and Tuesday was our second Tuesday luncheon day and we had a big crowd.

Knox City Defeats Motley County

by Coach Marks

I feel like this was probably the best overall effort we have put together thus far. The improvement was definitely there. After the first 5 minutes of the ballgame, I figured it was going to be a long night. We fumbled the ball the first 3 possessions and Knox City turned them into touchdowns.

I was really impressed with the poise and character exhibited by our team. They came back time after time.

We had a total offense of 328 yards, 75 of which was passing. The blocking by our guards: Jesse Ramirez and Jarrett Jameson was superb. Also Matt Washington, a freshman tight end, had an excellent game of catching the ball as well as doing a good job blocking. Our tackles, Les Woolsey and David Stafford did an excellent job this week.

Brandon Eddleman was 3 of 13 for 75 yards passing. Tim Kendall turned in a really fine job of blocking and ball carrying. Tim had 106 yards on 23 carries, an average of 4.6 yards per carry. Brent Marshall had 139 yards on 38 carries. Matt Washington had 3 catches for 75 yards.

I am well pleased with the improvement this past week. I really feel that this game with Knox City might have gotten us over the hump and maybe boosted our self-confidence.

We play Valley this week for Homecoming. It should be a real good ballgame.

Mavericks And Lizards Tie 20-20

Motley Mavericks and Paducah Jr. High played a very exciting game last Thursday. Paducah jumped to an early 12-0 score the first quarter. The Mavericks scored on a 5 yard run by Blake Eddleman. Blake ran the extra point over, the score was 12-8. Paducah scored on another long run, and a two point extra point.

The Mavericks played a tremendous defensive game. Leading the way was Clay Ewing, Clay Lancaster, Burr Barton, Mat Linson, and Blake Eddleman. The offensive line played a great game, led by Jason Stanley, Chancy Cruse, Noel Guerrero and Bradley Jameson.

The Mavericks other touchdown was scored by a four yard run by Blake and a 10 yard pass from Clay Ewing to Burr Barton. Blake had 200 yards rushing and Clay Ewing had 70 yard rushing.

Parents, Guardians, Relatives, Etc....

We never cease extending a welcome to you to come and visit with us at school. When you visit we do ask that you follow certain procedures. A problem has arisen which seems to be more prevalent in the afternoons. Some parents are coming to school to pick up their children and are coming into the building to get them. This often creates congestion in the halls. Many times younger children are with them. Sometimes classroom doors are being opened, there is bumping on the walls, and other annoyances. Students in the classrooms are being distracted by these disturbances. The teachers are being interrupted also.

If you need to visit with a teacher, have your child find out when the teacher's conference period is and make arrangements to visit at that time. This will benefit you and the teacher.

If it is necessary to check out or visit a student before school is out, come to the office and we will get that student for you. Because of certain state and federal regulations, we must be very careful concerning children leaving school and people visiting them. Please help us with this very sensitive problem. We are trying to protect your child as well as others.

We ask that all adults and other visitors enter the building at the main (middle) entrance and remain in the lobby. We will do our best to help you at that point.

Your cooperation in this will certainly be appreciated. Thanks.

Homecoming is finally here and the Juniors and Sophomores are readying their new Letter Jackets. On September 25, 1987 they received their jackets just as the cold was setting in. As you walk down the halls of MCHS black jackets are everywhere.

Spirit is building up in all of the students at Motley County for the 1987 Homecoming. The halls are decorated with red and black crepe paper and signs are hanging up with sayings on them to fire up the team. The front foyer has crepe paper on the windows with a big MC on the middle windows. The Juniors and Seniors spent their Sunday afternoon decorating for homecoming while the Sophomores made the Valley Patriot mascot for the bonfire. The Freshmen will be collecting boxes for the fire on Thursday.

Wednesday is 'Punk' day and Thursday is '50s day. Everyone needs to show spirit by participating in these fun days. Friday is the most important. Everyone at Motley County needs to wear red and black to show their school spirit. Everybody get the spirit and get the football team "Fired Up" for Friday night.

The student body would like to extend a warm 'welcome home' to all the exes! Come support the Matadors Friday night.

Mrs. Harold Campbell Attends GFWC Conference In Oklahoma

The GFWC Club in Oklahoma was host to the South Central Conference on October 2 and 3 in Tulsa, OK at the Western Hotel. The El Progreso Club of Matador was represented by Mrs. Harold H. Campbell. Mrs. George Higgins, Seymour accompanied Mrs. Campbell to Longview, September 27 for the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Fall Board meeting and continued on to Tulsa, OK for the GFWC South Central Conference. Much information was dispensed to encourage the Clubs to better serve their communities and families. A high light was touring the restored homes in Jefferson and having lunch in the Hotel which has been in business since 1850. Reservations must be made a year in advance to stay in the Hotel. In Tulsa, besides the many inspiring lecture, speeches and videotapes, the ladies toured the city, including the Oral Roberts University and City of Faith. Senior Girls And Mothers Are Guests Of El Progresso Club

Motley County High School senior girls and their mothers were guests of FWC El Progresso Club at the organization's first meeting of the current club year, Thursday, September 24. The 3:30 p.m. meeting was held at the Senior Citizens Center. The guests heard an inspirational talk by Mrs. J.E. (Marguerite) Edwards, on the subject, "Possibilities," which emphasized the necessity of an educational background in all walks of life.

The president, Mrs. Douglas (Lila) Meador welcomed the guests and club members, and conducted a business session. Mrs. Robert (Jo Ann) Dickson presented new yearbooks, outlining highlights of the program and projects for the coming year. She announced that this would be her final meeting with the club, due to her and her husband's impending move to Anson.

Emphasis was placed on the next meeting, Saturday, October 17, when El Progresso Club will be hostesses for Open House at the Motley County Jail-Museum and will display school memorabilia for the benefit of Homecoming visitors. The building will be closed in time for the homecoming program at the school building, scheduled at 3 p.m., it was announced.

As program leader, Mrs. Meador introduced Terree and Billy Donaldson for musical selections. The husband and wife team sang, "Evergreen," and "If," with guitar accompaniment by Mr. Donaldson. The couple moved here in July of last year from Mulshoe and he is manager of Pay-N-Save Grocery. They are members of First Baptist Church (he is choir director) and have provided music for church services, club meetings and weddings. They have two young children, Brant, 5, and Brittany, 2.

"In the U.S. News and World Report there is a very provocative article entitled 'What Americans Should Know.' The authors of this article say that the U.S. is becoming a land of cultural illiterates," Mrs. Edwards told the audience after first recounting several former truisms that no longer apply to society, such as: Teach a man a trade and he can get a job; If you live in the country, you don't have to lock your doors; A woman's place is in the home; If you go to college, you'll make something of yourself; and many more set forth by the columnist Art Buchwald, who summed up the list with: "And last but certainly not least, the President knows what is going on in the White House!"

America does not measure up to the nations it competes against in the global marketplace, Mrs. Edwards said. "Japan keeps its schools open for 240 days as compared to our 180...A survey based on a nationwide test of history and literature given to 7,800 high school juniors, found that not one in three knew in what half century the Civil War took place and only one third could identify the Magna Carta."

ATTEND METHODIST MEETING

Mrs. Josephine Hamilton and Mrs. Gene B. Louder attended the Northwest Texas United Methodist Women's annual meeting at the

Mrs. Edwards then conducted a similar test with girls, mothers and members all participating in supplying answers. The most spirited answers came from the question on geography, "How many of you can name the Great Lakes and the states that border them?"

"Diane Ravitch, a noted educator, states, 'History, literature, math, science and the arts should be taught throughout the 13 years of schooling - all are the basic foundations of a lifelong education,'" Mrs. Edwards quoted, adding, "Hopefully when you seniors have children in school, all of these problems will be solved."

"As you go your way, don't forget that one of the most important things in life is to show love, kindness and compassion to the people with whom you make contact," she said, "Jane Seskin might have written the poem 'All You Have To Do' as a special request from your mothers."

In conclusion, Mrs. Edwards read from a poem by Alice Joyce Davidson, titled "Possibilities": "The more faith you have, the more you believe. The more goals you set, the more you'll achieve. So reach for the stars, pick a mountain to climb; Dare to think big, but give yourself time. Remember no matter how futile things seem, with faith, there is no impossible dream!"

Mrs. Edwards, retired teacher, taught in the Matador school system for 26 years. She had taught a total of 31 years at the time of her retirement in 1975. She was a resident of Motley County from the time she was four years old and graduated from Matador High School in 1930. Her husband, J.E. (Jake) Edwards also taught in the school system and was school principal.

In presenting Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Meador said, "She is a dedicated teacher, and not only teacher, but friend and counselor to pupils. Currently she teaches a Sunday School class of teenage girls at First Baptist Church."

Senior girls and their mothers included Shannon Campbell and mother, Diane; Shanna Lancaster and mother, Carolyn; Rhonda Long and mother, Nona; April Vanidver and mother, Betty Whitson; and Mariana Zarate and mother, Mary. Unable to attend were Melissa Gray and her mother, Marsha.

At the conclusion of the program, punch, cookies and other finger foods were served by a tea committee composed of Lola (Mrs. Frank) Pohl, Josephine (Mrs. John) Hamilton, Grace (Mrs. Harold) Campbell, Bailey (Mrs. Ted) Elliott, Jo Eita (Mrs. Dale) Baumgardner and Loys (Mrs. Joe) Campbell. Other members present were Rachel Patton, Lucretia (Mrs. R.E.) Campbell, Winifred (Mrs. Robert) Darsey, Sanda (Mrs. Carl) King, Vena (Mrs. W.D.) Lipscomb, Opal (Mrs. W.N.) Pipkin and Nell (Mrs. Bob) Clem; and Mmes. Edwards, Dickson and Meador.

Social Security Tips

by Terry J. Clements

Everyone who applies for a Social Security number must provide evidence of age, identity, and U.S. citizenship or lawful alien status, including young children.

Starting with the Federal tax return for 1987, parents claiming children as dependents will have to show the Social Security number for children age 5 and older.

Parents sometimes have difficulty finding the required evidence for their children. They especially have trouble with the idea of providing evidence of identity.

Proof of age is relatively easy. An official U.S. public birth certificate recorded before age 5 is preferred. This document will also establish citizenship.

Documents which will establish a young child's identity and which are usually available to most families, include a report card, school identification card, newspaper birth announcement, court order for name change, church membership or confirmation record, doctor or hospital record, vaccination certificate, day care or nursery school record, or child's membership in youth organizations, such as Scouts.

This is not an exclusive list. Any document providing enough identifying data can be used.

Foreign born applicants will also need the appropriate Immigration and Naturalization Service documents.

Only original documents or copies certified by the issuing agency can be used.

For more information you may contact us at 1401-B West 5th street, or call us at 293-9623. Appointments can be arranged if desired.

Letters From Exes Continue To Arrive

Another member of the 1947 class who plans to be here is Ernestine McWilliams Little, according to this letter from his sister: "Hazel, enclosed please find dues for the Homecoming. Mother, Ernestine and I plan to attend. This will be Ernestine's 40th. Please note my change of address. I now live on Cedar Creek Lake, about 65 miles southeast of Dallas. We love it. Hope to see you the 16th. Annette McWilliams Wilkerson."

From Jewell Odom Wallace, Class of 1931: "I received your letter and am glad to know that I am back on the mailing list again. Almost all of my married life we lived in the Dallas area and later in East Texas, so I never was able to attend any of the class reunions. I hope to attend this one on Saturday, 17th. Thank you for letting me know about it. Check enclosed for dues. Jewell O. Wallace, Crowell, Texas."

Dear Friends,

Please accept my check to pay this year's dues and the rest applied as a gift to help out with expenses. This is my first opportunity to have a part since I have never had any communication about it. When I was receiving the Matador Tribune several years back I was able to read about the Homecoming activities after the fact. And it will not be convenient for me to make the trip down that way again this year since we spent two months traveling in May and June.

I guess one reason I was never notified about any of the activities was due to the fact that I finished High School in the Summer of 1938. As you might have heard, I was a drop-out after finishing Grade School in 1933. I did get one semester in the Northfield School system in 1934, but did not attend further until encouraged by Randall Whitworth to return to school in the beginning of 1936, with a strong urge to play football. I did, but my venture into that sport never got me much beyond the benches on the sidelines; and before I could advance further, I became too old!

tried to make up for it by offering to be water boy the following year, but I suppose I wasn't needed for that. I then entered the Intermural Scholastic contests in the county and the district as an extemporaneous speaker. I won first in the county and third in the district. Because of my age, I wanted to get on with my education as quickly as possible, so I took five courses each semester and completed the last requirements in the summer of 1938. I was working in the high school building scraping point with B.F. Tunnell, Sr. handed me my diploma without fanfare of a long speech. My class graduated a year later in May of 1939. I even bought a class pin dated that year.

I entered Hardin-Simmons University that fall, but unfortunately, had to drop out because two jobs requiring nine hours a day gave no time to keep up with homework required for a full college course. With the help of Rev. H.M. Weldon, pastor of First Baptist Church, I entered Wayland College a week later and completed one semester before dropping out for one semester. During the summer of 1939 I felt called into the ministry as a Baptist preacher; so again, I enrolled in Wayland and completed two years of college before the War took me out for 34 months. But with the help of the G.I. Bill, I again entered Hardin-Simmons in January 1946 and graduated with a B.A. in 1947. I entered Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth that fall and graduated with a B.D. degree in 1950. I have served as a pastor in the state of Washington from 1953 until I retired three years ago. Since then I have filled in for pastors and churches whenever needed.

about what's happening among the Ex-students. I guess J.B. Cooper told you about our visit together when we were there in June? I really enjoyed the time we had together.

Sincerely,
Vernon L. Chambliss

Class of '47 enjoyed their 25th in 1972.

Thomas Sanders Joins Ranks Of Film Characters

Thomas Sanders of Berkeley, CA, will be unable to attend the 40th reunion of his 1947 Matador High School graduation class, due to commitments to appear in film episodes. A letter from him, to Mrs. Hazel Donovan, secretary of the Homecoming Association, tells of his recent venture:

"I was very glad to receive the invitation to the Motley County Homecoming. I've been looking forward to it for some time since it will be my 40th year since my graduation there. The class of 1947 is having a get-together - I received an invitation from June Meador, and earlier this year I started thinking about what I would say if I was allowed to make another talk, as I did in 1972, (the year the class met for its 25th anniversary).

"However, unless something unexpected occurs I will be unable to attend. Last spring I accepted a character part in a feature film (its working title is Double Vision) produced by a small independent company owned by George Estrada. I appeared in two videos to be used in the film and then production was temporarily suspended while George went to New York to write a 20 minute TV film. Now he's back and I'm scheduled to appear before the camera Oct. 17-18 and every weekend through October and part of November. I'll be working with lights and sound when I'm not in a scene.

"Week before last the video 'Company Man', in which I played the chief villain, was sent to MTV. If it plays nationwide, I'll let you know. I don't wear any make-up and there's one scene - a close up - where I shake my finger right at the audience.

"Finally, in my Old Age I'm making it in the movies! Regards to all. Sincerely, Tom Sanders. (check enclosed)." (His letterhead bears the title The Rev. Dr. Tom Sanders, 1228 Evelyn, Berkeley, CA 94706)

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

A YEAR OF REUNIONS, this Homecoming celebration is a triple celebration year for Dan (Browning) Barton. She will be attending her 50th Class Reunion, her daughter Cherri Barton Karr had their 25th reunion this summer, and her son Max is having his 20th reunion this weekend.

Another interesting note is that Dan's granddaughter, Konni Karr graduated in May of 1987, being 50 years after her grandmother.

WELCOME TO HOMECOMING

Just what the doctor ordered.

A family medical clinic has very special needs. Which is why Dr. Patrick Edwards brought his project to Tusha Buildings.

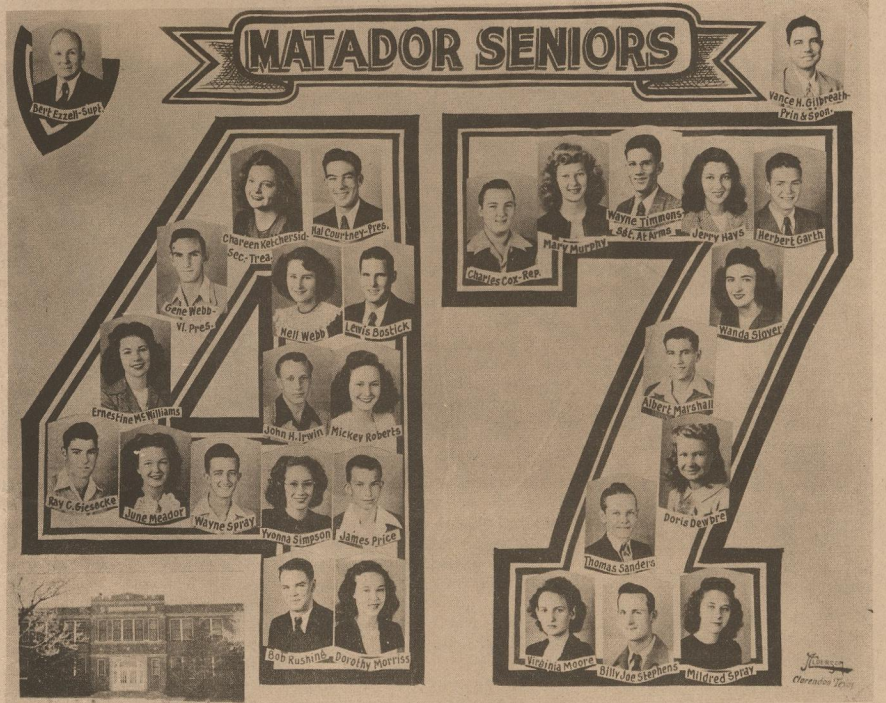

And the results made the doctor say, "Ahh." But then, over the years, we've had plenty of experience taking care of discriminating professionals all around Texas.

If you've got a project in mind, get in touch. We'd love to discuss your case. And we'll even make house calls.

Letters From Exes

Dear Hazel,

Here is a small contribution for the Association. I would like to attend this year's homecoming, but I have a previous appointment for a church activity, which I feel that I must honor. Please tell the class of '38 hello for me - Is there going to be a fiftieth for the class of '38 next year? Best of everything to you,

Sincerely,
Jet O. Lewis,
Rt. 2 Box 137-A
Cushing, TX 75760

Hazel: Can't believe it's time for another Homecoming. Hope you got the postcard from Europe - I love every minute of it, especially Venice. A rather unusual place for a boy from dry-docked West Texas. I doubt I'll make Homemaking this year. Hope everyone is in good health and spirits!

Sincerely,
Butch Waybourn
Dallas

Hi Hazel: Sorry I can't make homecoming. We have a football weekend planned. Good luck.

Dorothy Nelson Melton

Hazel: Here are my dues. We probably won't be able to make it to Homecoming this year. Hope you all have a good reunion.

Charles (class of '81) and Jammie Cammack

Leora Barton Scrivner of Alpine, Calif., (class of 1925) writes that she will be visiting in Little Rock, Ark., this week with her daughter and son-in-law, Loretta and Harry Race, who will accompany her here to attend Homecoming. Their plans to bring her here for the event came as a complete surprise. "I sure did want to be present for the reunion and was hoping and praying...so, see you then if I can get over the shock."

Word from another member of the class of '25 also was received: Ruth Tilson Smith of Denton writes, "I know it would be fun, but I can't make it. Erin (Campbell Shearer, of Alpine, Texas, also class of '25) said she wasn't going either. Smitty and I both had such a wonderful time the year we were there, and had made our plans to return in 1985, but he died Oct. 1, of that year."

Vennie Dean Lewis of Jayton, (class of 1923) writes: "I will not be able to make Homecoming this year. I think most of the members of my class have passed on, but if you see any of them, give them my love. We definitely are the 'old folks' now wherever we are."

From Ruth Moore Edwards of Austin: "Dear Hazel: Thank you for sending the invitation to Homecoming. I will not be able to attend this time. I am sending my contribution. Please give my best regards to all. Love, Ruth."

Johnnie (Mrs. Gordon) Jackson of Sonoma, Calif., writes with a bit of news from other family members: "Dear Hazel, The last of the big spenders - enclosing dues. Do hope all is well with you. I am O.K. Gordon is not doing very well. John, Marg and Annie Maye just left yesterday. They are fine. Best wishes. Johnnie."

"Dear Hazel: Enclosed is my check for dues - am hoping that I shall be able to come down for a little while, at least - perhaps Saturday afternoon. Would surely love to see everyone. We shall just be returning from Galveston Wednesday night, so if I can get things in order, hope to come. Love, Lorene Fryar Calhoun, Plainview."

A Specialgram from Donna G. Nelson, McMinnville, Oregon: "Hazel and ALL in Matador....My, how I wish I lived closer to be able to come home for Homecoming. Since I leave for China Sunday (Oct. 11) I guess it is impossible. I was in Texas recently with my mother in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where we faced a possible second heart surgery, but were glad we can treat her problem with other solutions for now. It was so great to be in Texas. My greatest love and appreciation to all of you. Thanks for loving me. Donna G. Williams Nelson."

Your secretary wishes to thank everyone who has helped with this year's Homecoming, and for the many generous donations received along with dues. One of the largest amounts ever received was from Harry Louis Willett, in 1985, who sent the Association $100 "for a lifetime membership." Other amounts have ranged from $25.00 down. Special thanks to Joe and Loys Campbell for addressing all the letters that went out this year. Some have been returned because of a change of address that was not reported, or a box number not given. Please, help us keep our records up to date. Thanks, Hazel.

Remember When

By Annie B. Cloyd
Box 22
Flomot, TX 79234

Hello Folks, it's good to visit with you again and think about old times and things that happened back when we were younger. We were talking about farming with teams and the trouble that our folks had with the old mules and how they treated the teams. Then I was visiting with Ruth Lee when she was telling me about some old, old papers that her Mother had given her and she gave me this copy of a story from the newspaper of many years ago. The old paper was so old that it was about to come apart. Anyway here is the story as it was told then:

IT'S A FUNNY WORLD

Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a plow. Says the man to the mule:
"Bill, you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man, made in the image of God. Yet, here we work, hitched together year in and year out, but I often wonder if you work for me or I for you. Sometimes I think this is a partnership between a mule and a fool. For surely I work as hard for you, if not harder. Plowing here we cover the same distance, but you do it on four legs and I on two. So mathematically speaking, I do twice as much work per leg as you do.

"Soon we'll be preparing for a corn crop. When the crop is harvested, I give one-third to the landlord for being kind enough to let me use this corner of God's universe. The other third goes to you, and what is left is mine. But while you consume all your third with the exception of few cobs, I divide my third among seven children, six hens, two ducks and a banker. Bill, you are getting the best of me; it ain't fair for a mule, the son of jackass, to rob man - the lord of creation - of his substance.

"And come to think of it, you only help to cultivate the ground. After that, I cut, shock and husk the corn, while you look over the pasture fence and 'he-haw' at me.

"All fall and part of the winter the whole family, from Granny down to baby, picks cotton to help raise money to buy a new set of harnesses and pay interest on the mortgage on you. And, by the way, what do you care about this mortgage? Not a darn bit. You leave that to me, you ungrateful, ornery cuss.

"About the only time I am your better is on election day, for I can vote and you can't, but if I get any more out of politics than you do, I fail to see where it is."

(Writer unknown)

See you again soon and "Remember When" along with you.

FRANK COLLISON

Part I

Frank Collison was one of those real West Texas Pioneers that I never met, consequently what I said is purely hearsay, not personal knowledge. Collison seems to have been both an early day cowboy and a buffalo hunter as well.

It is claimed that Frank Collison drove or piloted several herds of cattle from the Pecos River, secured from John Chism, but owned by Coggins and Wiley, to the headwaters of Tongue River in West Texas, where a new ranch was started in 1877.

I am told that the cattle were branded a mashed circle, but locally called "Jingle-Bob" Ranch or Cattle, and they were later sold by Coggins and Wiley to the Matador Company. The prior grass-range went along with the sale, and most of the land was later bought up by the Matador. Coggins and Wiley were early ranchmen in Coleman and Runnels County Texas, and if I am not mistaken, sold cattle to John Chism to be driven to the Pecos Range, where John Chism ranched in New Mexico.

Some of those cattle were stock cattle, possible some of them were big steers Chism handled, when he and Goodnight were operating as partners. Chism buying in Texas and driving them into New Mexico, at or around Roswell and Fort Sumner, where they were turned over to Goodnight to be driven on north for sale.

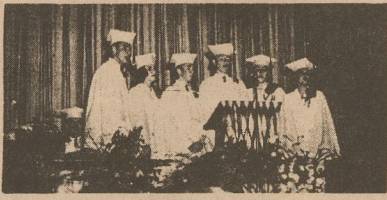

Current reports have it that John

Chism didn't always pay cash for Texas cattle that he drove out, but gave notes for them that were sometimes a little difficult to collection; and it may be that Coggins and Wiley held such notes, and when Chism couldn't pay cash when the notes matured, they in turn may have taken the cattle and drove them back to new ranges in Texas. That is only a surmise, but it would be oddly strange that Coggins and Wiley went to New Mexico to buy cows to start a ranch in West Texas. They already had thousands of cattle in Texas, that were as near, if not nearer the head of Tongue River, as Chism's Pecos Ranch was, and normally a better watered country to cross, than the Llano Estacado ever dreamed of being.

After Coggins and Wiley sold their Jingle-Bob cattle to the Matador, Coggins and Frank Collison brought the Triangle Cattle to the head of Duck Creek and established a ranch in the early 1880's, selling that brand to Bud Campbell.

It is said by some, those cattle came West from Brown County. Most of the Buffalo were gone in 1877, but Frank Collison wrote an article for publication telling of he and a man named White, killing the last bunch of any size, mostly mother cows, some three or four hundred head, that parked themselves on Turkey Creek in Hall County. After Coggins and Wiley turned their cattle loose some forty miles to the southwest.

Part II continued next week.

Interior Design Takes Woman To Canada

Mrs. Milton (Betty Neighbors) Rudder.

(Editors Note: This article on Mrs. Milton (Betty) Rudder of Herford is from the Herford Brand. Mrs. Rudder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Neighbors (Jud and Verdie) of Matador and is their youngest child. She was born here and graduated from Matador High School in 1957).

by Gaye B. Reily,
Herford Brand Staff Writer

One college degree wasn't enough for Betty Rudder of 328 Douglas, Herford; a life-long interest in interior decorating has sent her back to school, as well as to a fulfilled convention in Canada.

A Herford resident for the past nine years, Rudder entered Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI) in Amarillo last September to study interior design technology. "I had always been interested in interior design; I've taken several decorating magazines over the years and I enjoy dealing with fabrics and wallpaper," she said.

Rudder's presidency in TSTI's student chapter of American Society of Interior Designers enabled her, along with her husband, Milton, to attend the ASID convention in Toronto, Canada, last month.

"The convention featured an expo of interior designers, students, retail merchants, and displays of interior design fashions," said the energetic woman. "Speakers from around the country were present as workshops and seminars were offered relating to personal development and interior design concepts."

experience - I learned a great deal and Milton had a great vacation!" Rudder laughed.

"Milton has been very supportive of my interest in interior design. His work at AZTX Cattle Co. keeps him busy but he thought he needed to see what my interior design studies were all about; that's why he went to Canada with me," said Rudder.

The trip to Canada was not all work, however, as the Rudders attended a party in Casa Loma, a Flamingo Pink party, and visited the Royal Ontario museum, to name a few activities. "The Duke and Duchess of York were staying at our hotel while we were there; I had great fun writing postcards, telling everyone that 'Andy' and 'Fergie' say hi!"

Rudder, impressed with TSTI's interior design program, noted that it is only one of four technical schools in the nation to possess FIDER accreditation. "FIDER stands for Foundation for Interior Design Education Research; it set rigid standards for interior design and elevated it to an art and science."

A teacher who has taught English, history, and speech, Rudder is delighted that TSTI's program focuses on interior design and doesn't repeat many basics she'd had in college. "We've studied the types of glass used in windows, different floor and wall coverings so we can talk to builders in their terms. I've even had classes in drafting where I had to draw up blue prints of my home; interior design is more involved than most people realize."

In addition to color and light theory, Rudder has even had a course pertaining to the selection of proper pens to use in drawing designs on paper. "This class featured over 100 pens," she said. A study in retail/commercial settings also yielded interested facts. "Most department stores spend more decorating dollars on their cosmetic sections," she noted.

Rudder is interested in current attempts by national legislators to require licensing of interior designers.

"I think this would be a positive move as people want someone they know is well-trained for their expensive decorating needs."

The age span in Rudder's TSTI classes ranges from 18-80, with both men and women in attendance. "Interior design is fun but it is a lot of work," Rudder acknowledges. "I find this study invigorating and stimulating - I never believed in being bored!"

And Rudder should have her wish granted. She already has plans to create a workshop in her back yard; then she hopes to gradually redecorate her home while finishing her studies at TSTI. She won't have to worry about boredom!

One of Rudder's favorite design celebrities present was Antonio Torrice, who has used his degree in psychology to design interiors for children, the elderly, and the handicapped. "This Italian from Boston was dynamic; he has studied the effects of colors on people and uses this knowledge to serve people's physical strengths and weaknesses," she said.

Torrice demonstrated such a technique by instructing a child to paint four main items in a picture of a room a favorite color; Torrice would then decorate the room around such a color choice. "Studies show that children's grades increase by 30 percent if they are surrounded by a subtle, pleasing environment," Rudder added.

Mario Buoto, the "Prince of Chintz", provided a humorous program while General Electric demonstrated various types of lighting. John Solidano, author of a monthly magazine column, was on hand to illustrate the art of employing classical architectural designs in new interiors.

John Naisbitt, well-known author of such books as "Megatrends," discussed design development and business development. "This convention was a wonderful

an unusual high school graduating class give credit to parents, teachers, and community

Motley County

Editors Note: The following article was printed in "This Is West Texas", a West Texas Chamber of Commerce magazine last spring. It was written by 4 local girls who made up the Journalism class in 86-87. They are: Loretta Cross, Koree Campbell, Dena Rentro and Tanya Cummings.

Last year's Motley County graduates had an achievement record that was not matched or equalled by many school districts in the state of Texas. Each graduate continued his or her scholastic career in various colleges across the state beginning in the Fall of 1986.

Questions have been raised about what causes lay behind the fact that ten graduates all choose to continue their education. What successes contribute to this type of attitude and commitment within a school district, students' homes, and a community?

Three weeks before school dismissed on May 1, 1984, a tornado destroyed the complex of Motley County I.S.D. and several homes. This devastation and tragedy brought the community, school, and families closer together especially when no federal disaster money was designated for the county. We learned to work with one another to rebuild the structures and dreams that were blown down by nature.

The encouragement the students received from their families, teachers, and people from the community gave them the incentive to try to achieve the highest possible goals scholastically and athletically under trying conditions. These goals sought in church basements, portable buildings, and an old grade school built in the 1930's, and these conditions continued until December of 1986 when we finally moved into a new school. In furthering their education through a college or trade school, these students were seeking the training to better their chances of success in the future.

Dedication by the teachers enabled them to work one-on-one with each student, giving each of them the opportunity to excel in high school. This, then, gave these students the self-confidence necessary to feel that they could do well in college.

The small-town environment of Matador creates special bonds between the students and teachers. This bond makes it possible for the teachers and students to express their ideas, thoughts, ambitions, and dreams openly with one another. It is this acceptance and respect between students and the adults who work with them on a daily basis that enables them to feel self-respect and be aware of their own self-worth.

Many students from small rural schools seek college as a method of demonstrating to their peers from larger communities that abilities, personalities, dreams, and determination will carry each individual as far as he or she dares to grasp. Though small numerically, rural schools do not lessen chances, choices, rights or privileges.

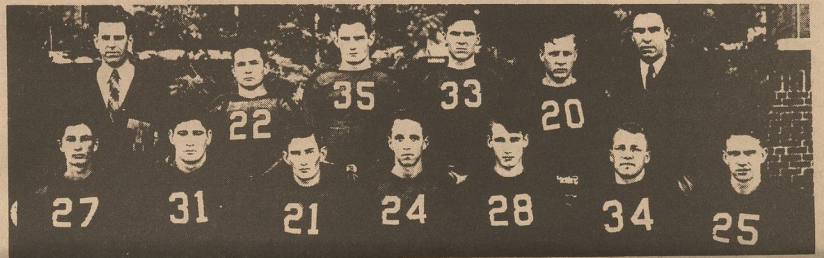

The single factor that seems to have provided the necessary drive for students to not only complete high school but to desire further education as well seemed to be that every student felt that they could count on nearly every member of the community to help them find a way to continue their education.

As a result of the combined effort of the teachers, the families, the community, and especially the students, each graduate of M.C.H.S. is a success in any endeavor he or she may choose to pursue. The road to fulfilling dreams is a long one, and each graduate begins this journey into the future with a feeling of security in every respect which makes a continuance of education seem natural.

Seek the Lord!

Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the Lord understand all things.

Proverbs 28:5

THE GOOD NEWS IS YOU HAVE HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE.

Finding out you've got high blood pressure is half the battle. With a plan for exercise, weight control, salt reduction and medication, the rest is easy.

If you have high blood pressure, get on a good program and stick with it. And do what your doctor says. Then there probably won't be any bad news.
