Moments in time renewed memories at 2005 Tri-Annual Flomot Homecoming celebration

2005 FLOMOT HOMECOMING QUEEN

by Earlyne Jameson

Moments in time renewed many memories for former students, teachers, and residents who returned for the 2005 Tri-Annual Flomot Homecoming and program held at 5:00 p.m., Saturday, July 2 at the Community Center.

Wilburn Martin, program chairman, opened the program. He noted that all of the Houston Gunn children were present for the reunion. Donnie Rogers, Association president, welcomed the assembly. He honored Mrs. Jackie Lynn Starkey Davis of Fritch as the 2005 Flomot Homecoming Queen. She was escorted to the dais and Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, 2002 Homecoming Queen, placed the crown on the newly elected queen who was presented a bouquet of roses and a gift certificate. Mrs. Davis was in the last graduating class, 1972, in Flomot Schools.

Mrs. Carolyn Johnson gave the Memorial Tribute and read a list of the 60 deceased during the past three years. Jerry Gunn of Brackley, England was recognized for traveling the farthest to attend the Homecoming. Mrs. Oma Lee George, 94, of Bovina was the oldest attending and the earliest graduate, 1927, at the Flomot Schools. They were presented plaques.

In the business session, Mr. Rogers named the election of Homecoming Association officers for 2008: Donnie Cruse, president; Billy Shannon, vice president and Mrs. Kathy Shorter, secretary. Mr. Rogers expressed his appreciation of donations for the Homecoming expenses and a new gym floor at Community Center, committees and all others who helped in anyway with homecoming arrangements.

A delicious dinner, catered by Dyers of Amarillo, followed the program. A dance concluded the day of activities with The Cactus Jack Band. Names were drawn for the Do Gooders' Club quilt and Mrs. Geneva Martin was the lucky winner.

The 150 who registered for Homecoming agreed, "Where we love is home, home that our feet may leave, but not our hearts."

Senate approves education reform plan

Austin -- Property taxes would drop, teachers would get a pay raise and more money would be spent on bilingual students under an education funding bill approved Thursday, June 30, in the Texas Senate.

The bill, approved in a 27-4 vote, is one part of lawmakers' efforts to pass education reform and revamp the state's school finance system. Lawmakers have not yet agreed on accompanying legislation to pay for reduced property taxes, which is part of the effort.

"This important issue must be our best work, and our best work product for this is for the children of Texas," said bill sponsor Sen. Florence Shapiro, R-Plano. "This bill offers real education reform."

Lawmakers have been struggling for years on a proposal to overhaul how the state pays for its public schools. The Senate and House failed to agree on a plan during the regular session that ended in May, so Republican Gov. Rick Perry called lawmakers back for a special 30-day special legislative session.

Legislators are under pressure to overhaul school funding after state District Judge John Dietz last year ruled the Texas system unconstitutional. Attorneys for the state appealed Dietz's ruling to the Texas Supreme Court, which were to hear arguments in the case Wednesday.

The House approved last week its version of education reform. A group of lawmakers from each "chamber likely will be appointed to draft a final bill.

The bill the Senate approved last Thursday calls for lowering school property taxes from a maximum of $1.50 per $100 property value to $1.10 over the next two years.

The plan also would give teachers a $2,500 pay raise over the next two years and would institute a teacher incentive program that would average $500 a teacher.

The bill also requires more academic accountability at charter schools and increases spending on charter schools facilities.

Fund raiser will benefit local musician

"Friends of Mike Porter" will host a fund-raiser on Friday, July 15, 7:00 until 10:00 p.m. at the Spur livestock pavilion.

Tickets for dinner and entertainment will be a $10.00 minimum donation at the door. Mike Porter, a local entertainer, has provided area residents with hours of entertainment over the years. Proceeds will be used to help Porter pay for medical bills.

As a result of hepatitis A, Porter suffers kidney failure and other health problems. He currently receives kidney dialysis treatments three times each week.

A barbecue meal will be served at 7:00 p.m. and will include brisket, beans, potato salad, and cobbler.

DeAnne Roberts will provide entertainment throughout the evening for your listening and dancing pleasure.

At 8:30 p.m. a drawing will be held for a deluxe stainless steel propane grill. Tickets are $3.00 each or 2 for $5.00.

A silent auction will be held from 7:00 until 9:00 p.m. for items including a handmade silver bracelet by Matt Humphreys, a Pitchfork Country photography book autographed by Bob Moorehouse, 2 tickets to see Trent Willmon, and lots more. Winners will be announced at 9:00 p.m. (In a silent auction bids are written on a tablet. The last and highest bid wins that item).

Early deadline for next week's paper

The Tribune will be closed the week of July 11-15. The paper for the July 14th edition will be 'put together' for the most part, Thursday and Friday, July 7 and 8. Please submit news items for that edition no later than Thursday, July 7, by 5:00 p.m.

We apologize for any inconvenience these early deadlines may present, but due to the fact that the office is basically a one-person operation, there is no other alternative.

Thank you for your cooperation!

The Roaring Springs July 4th Celebration was absolutely great! The Community Volunteers and anyone who has a part in organizing this fun event should be commended. People come from everywhere for the day long celebration. The fireworks show was beautiful. A reminder - the fireworks for this show are purchased through donations, so if you have enjoyed seeing this show, why not give a donation to the volunteers to go toward making next year's show even bigger and better.

A big pat on the back to Alex Crowder. He just goes from event to event and works and works and never seems tired, but always has a smile on his face.

The dog show was cute! If you haven't been to one of these yearly July 4th celebrations, start making plans now to attend next year. It's so much fun you don't even think about the July heat.

I think I've printed this before, but speaking of July heat... You Know You're in Texas In July when ...

The birds have to use potholders to pull worms out of the ground.

The trees are whistling for the dogs.

The best parking place is determined by shade instead of distance.

Hot water now comes out of both taps.

You can make sun tea instantly.

You learn that a seat belt buckle makes a pretty good branding iron.

The temperature drops below 95 and you feel a little chilly.

You discover that in July it only takes 2 fingers to steer your car.

You discover that you can get sunburned through your car window.

You actually burn your hand opening the car door.

You break into a sweat the instant you step outside at 7:30 a.m.

Your biggest bicycle wreck fear is, "What if I get knocked out and end up lying on the pavement and cook to death?"

You realize that asphalt has a liquid state.

Farmers are feeding their chickens crushed ice to keep them from laying boiled eggs.

The cows are giving evaporated milk.

Ah, what a place to call home. God bless our State of Texas!

Proof of the Truth

by Tom Edwards

THE INSANITY CONTINUES

By now, you've probably heard something of last week's two U.S. Supreme Court edicts from on-high concerning displays of the Ten Commandments. The granite monument on the Capitol grounds, in Austin, is okay, because it is surrounded by sixteen "other historical monuments," while a framed copy (along with the Magna Carta) in a Kentucky Courthouse is an unconstitutional "promotion of religion." In a word, NUTS.

Don't attempt to make sense of both of these decisions. You can't make sense out of nonsense. The decisions themselves are contradictory. This is relativism in action. In the Kentucky case, the Court's basis for its ruling is its own prior sayso from the mid-twentieth century, not the Constitution, not the framers original intent, not the sentiments of the population, just the feelings of five Supreme Court justices, who should be summarily impeached!

There is absolutely nothing in the Constitution that prohibits displaying the Ten Commandments anywhere. They were challenged as a violation of the First Amendments "establishment clause," but recognition of God and god's law is not and never has been an "establishment" of religion. Also, Texas' victory is hollow. Reference to God is okay, so long as He is relegated to the scrapheap of history.

On the day the decisions were announced, a national spokesperson for the ACLU, gloating over the result in the Kentucky case, said: "The Ten Commandments are not the basis of our law; English Common Law is." What she didn't know is that numerous early English and U.S. court decisions emphatically stated that "Christianity is, and always has been, a part of the Common Law!"

U.S. Supreme Court Justice, Joseph Story, considered the Father of American Jurisprudence, put it this way: "One of the beautiful boasts of our municipal jurisprudence is that Christianity is a part of our Common Law. There has never been a period in which the common law did not recognize Christianity as lying at its foundations. I verily believe Christianity necessary to the support of civil society."

My, how things have changed. If anyone thinks this writer has been too verbally harsh on the Supreme Court, they should get and read Justice Scalia's dissent in the Kentucky case. He nails them, and in a much more scathing fashion than anything said here.

Motley County Chamber of Commerce News & Views

by Dianne Washington

Have you considered the name of the Chamber? Motley County Chamber of Commerce is county wide. All areas of the county are included in the Chamber. Everyone in the county is welcome to become a member and to have input in the activities. Everyone is welcome to attend the board meetings. If you cannot attend a meeting, talk to a board member, your ideas are important to the Chamber.

This week Flomot is in the Chamber Spotlight. Flomot is in the northwest part of Motley County. The name Flomot is the first three letters from Floyd County and the first three letters from Motley County. Flomot is small in number, but large in heart.

The heart of Flomot is the Community Center. The old school building is used for community meetings, funeral lunches, farmer meetings, and other activities. Among the other activities are the Flomot Do Gooders. The Do Gooders is a women's club that meets once a month. All women are invited to attend. This group has fundraisers to support the community center. One of the most popular fund raisers is the quilt giveaway. Every year the group quilts a gorgeous quilt and sells tickets on the quilt to raise money. This year the quilt was drawn for at the Flomot Homecoming.

The Flomot Homecoming is held the first weekend in July every three years at the Community Center. A large crowd was on hand for the 2005 homecoming. The homecoming is not just for the people that attended school at Flomot but also for everyone that has lived at Flomot.

There are two active churches in Flomot. The First Baptist Church and The Church of Christ welcome new members or visitors.

Other activities in and around Flomot include a Bluegrass Festival in May and a roping at the Burleson arena.

Oma Lee George of Bovina, age 94, was the oldest person in attendance at the Flomot Homecoming celebration.

Walter Gunn, left, with brother, Jerry Gunn, who came the farthest, from his home in England, to attend the Flomot Homecoming.

We Are Free

This past weekend we have celebrated our freedom as Americans. Let us also remember on the Lord's Day to celebrate the freedom that is ours because of Christ. As Christians we have been set free from the bondage that sin brings with it. Not only that, but we also are free from the fear of death.

The Bible tells us that this is no longer any condemnation for us, since we are in Christ. Here is freedom at its best! Because of Jesus and His great work at Calvary, we are free for the power of sin. Praise God for His great love for us in that Jesus purchased us and made us free.

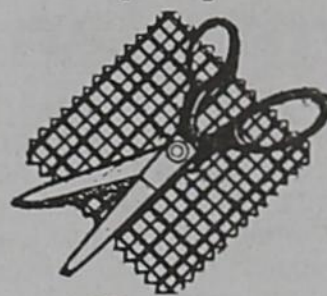

Now think on this. Where would we be, we who are citizens of this great country, if it were not for those who counted the cost of freedom and willingly paid for it? Where would we be, as a nation without understanding who and what has made us free! For as Thomas Jefferson once asked, "Can the liberties of a nation be secure, when we have removed the conviction that these liberties are the gift of God?"

Today's Gettysburg Address

by Tom Edwards

Note: This is the last part of the July 4th speech Mr. Edwards presented at the Memorial Service in Roaring Springs, Monday.

Elvenscore and nine years ago, our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all government is ordained by and under God.

Now we are engaged in a culture war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met to commemorate the birth of that nation, and have come to a memorial to those who gave their lives and service that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow that event. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us — that from these honored few we take increased devotion to that cause for which some gave the last full measure of devotion — that we here highly resolve that they shall not have served and died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of faith and reverence, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth. So help us God.

LYNN FAMILY REUNION HELD IN AMARILLO
Descendants of Lonzo Lynn and Elsie (Mohling) Lynn sponsored a reunion in Amarillo, June 17-19 to celebrate their heritage which extends back three generations.

Alvin and Nadyne Lynn, who were the host and hostess for this year, kicked off the event on Friday with a cookout at their lovely home outside Amarillo. Family and friends enjoyed plenty of food, visiting and games of washers and horseshoes and updating genealogy charts. Four third cousins, which the family had never met, came from Oklahoma and Arkansas. Family members were delighted to meet them and hope they will return again.

The group gathered at the Heritage Room at the Amarillo Inn on Saturday for breakfast and all day visiting, business meeting and the famous family auction which was started last year. This awakened the competitive spirit in all who attended. Items auctioned were either bought or homemade. Most of them were made by family members. Alvin's black piece of pottery, after much bidding and bickering, went for $116.01. Things got hot when Joyce held up the framed family photo collage Glenda made. Deanie's handmade pillows were popular and Lonnie's horseshoe crosses were popular. A collage of the "Sisters" created some active bidding.

Joyce Morton distributed the Lynne News, which she does each year. This is a compilation of happenings and photos of each family through the year. Great reading and many hours of work on her part which is much appreciated by the family.

The group met again on Sunday morning for breakfast before all had to pack up and go their separate ways knowing that if the good Lord is willing and the creek don't rise, they will meet again next year to rejoice in their heritage.

Attending this year's reunion were Alvin and Nadyne Lynn, hosts; Becky and Jessie Cox; J.D., Melonie, Shelby and Josh Lynn all of Amarillo; Glenda Martin, Dumas; Deanie Edwards of Matador; Stephen Davis of Lubbock; Michelle, Alex, Alexis, and Amber Saucedo of Arlington; Bob and Joyce Morton of Cleveland; Carlene and Lacy Colwell of Fort Worth; Larry and Gail Noland of Gainesville; Aaron, Amber and Mackenna Noland of Abernathy; Oscar Lynn and Marva Jean Webb of Prineville, Oregon; Rachel and Ashley Lynn of Oklahoma; David and Tressa Billings of San Antonio; Dearl Lynn of Porum, Oklahoma; Phyllis June Gullett of Warner, Oklahoma; Delores Shoemaker of Muskogee, Oklahoma; Sue Ford of North Little Rock, Ark.; Kevin and Jennifer Mansker of Abilene; Leroy and Jean Touchstone of Leedy, Oklahoma.

Friends of the family who joined the group for Friday and/or Saturday were Joe Faulkenberry, Rex Lackey, Rebecca Lane, Kylie Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill, Kevin, Lisa, Nathan and Matthew Mitchell, all of Amarillo; Glenda Wall of Alabama; Ronnie Whitfield of Dumas.

Special long-time neighbors and friends, Evelyn Garrison and her daughter, Debra Scott of Matador, joined the group on Saturday for lunch and visiting.

A special surprise birthday cake was presented to Oscar Lynn, the last of the Lynn brothers, for his upcoming 92nd birthday.

Parent's Club plans & projects

by Mary Ann Potts

The last Motley County Parents' Club meeting of the school year was called to order by D'anna Russell, Thursday, May 5 in the school cafeteria.

A brief summary of previous meetings were reviewed by Mary Ann Potts along with a quick overview of box tops collected for the school year. A total of 2100 box tops were redeemed this year plus, bonus box tops, for which Motley County will receive a check for $216 from General Mills.

Motley County Parents' Club also submitted an application to General Mills for the P.I.E. (Parental Involvement Education) Grant on April 1. Ten schools, from around the country, are to be awarded $2000 to implement or enhance a program to encourage more parents to be involved in their school. Unfortunately, as of this printing, MCS was not selected.

Brooke Barton did a wonderful job coordinating and executing both Book Fairs this year. According to Brooke's calculations, MCS has over $1000 credit with Scholastic Books, which will be used toward books that will coordinate with the teacher's curriculum for the following school year.

Also discussed, were possible fund raising ideas for the parents to finish purchasing the tumbling mats that the Parents Club purchased earlier this year, for the gymnastic classes provided at MCS. Possible idea considered was selling chances to win a gift certificate for groceries and/or gas. The fund raiser is tentatively scheduled for the summer, right before school begins. If you have an idea or think this one is great, please let one of the officers know.

Seniors, Sabrina Osborn and Matt Henzler were chosen as the boy and girl of the MCPC recipients of the $100 scholarship. Congratulations!

As we all know Graduation has come and gone. We wish the graduating seniors a perfect summer like no other, and may all their aspirations be fulfilled by the amount of dedication and determination put forth. Remember, you can never anticipate everything in life, but it's the anticipation of life that makes it worth living and striving for one's best.

Lastly, the newly elected officers for the 2005-06 school year are as follows: D'anna Russell, Pres.; Brooke Barton, Co-Pres.; Tina Brooks, Treas.; Mary Ann Potts, Sec.

Russells compete at Horse Show

The Rolling Plains District 3 Horse Show was held June 16-18 in Vernon. Competing from Motley County were Colton and Shane'a Russell.

Colton and his team-penning partners Holley Hurt of Guthrie and Amanda Browning of Childress penned all twice for a total of 6 head penned but were just over the top ten fast times back to finish 11th out of 55 teams. They will try again at State.

Colton also competed in the 2-year-old Western Pleasure Futurity as well as the 3-year-old Stock Horse Futurity. Colton and his 3-year-old named Boon San Waltz aka Coon won the Stock Horse. Colton won the Western Pleasure Futurity at the District Horse Show with Coon, last year, and finished 9th in State.

Shane'a and her team penning partners Kelsey Stokes of Afton and Rita Day of Matador had trouble on their first set of cattle and had a good run going on the second set. Anyone knowing about team penning, understands things can fall apart in hurry. So, this team of girls had a little tough luck but are looking forward to trying again at State.

Shane'a also competed in the 2-year-old Western Pleasure Futurity on her Registered Quarter Horse named San Teen Lass aka Sue. Shane'a, with her dad's help, broke this horse and received 6th place at the show.

Shane'a and her horse, Tequila competed in the speed events and qualified for the finals in barrels.

When all the dust had settled at the Wilbarger Arena, Shane'a and Tequila had qualified for the speed events at the State 4-H Show.

Colton will be competing in cutting, team-penning, working-cow horse, reining, and 3-year-old stock horse at the State 4-H show, while Shane'a will be competing in team penning, barrels, poles, and stakes.

FARM SERVICE AGENCY NEWS

By John Bird, Motley County CED

FSACHANGES

Currently because of the national budget, Texas FSA is not able to hire anyone unless approval is given from Washington DC. There has been a request to fill our position in Motley County, but it doesn't look like that will happen any time soon. This is the case nationwide, not just in Texas.

The FSA will continue to find ways to cut expenses, and this leads to big change. The goal is for us to be doing everything on the internet (web based programs), which is quicker for us and will be accessible to you at home. There are already some sign-ups that can be done from home. If you are interested we can help you get started on that. We are told that a big part of the FSA business will be taken care from outside the office within the next few years.

In the meantime things are going fine in the office. Everyone has been making appointments which is helping out a lot. The producers are sure supportive of this office and we appreciate it.

COC Elections

The office began accepting nominations for county committee elections on June 15. This year's election will be held in LAA 3, which is presently held by Truitt Read. As long as you are a producer in the county you do not have to be a producer in LAA3 to nominate someone.

Certifying Crops

Don't forget, July 15 is the deadline to report 100% of your cropland in order to remain eligible for any farm bill programs. This includes DCP, CRP LDP's (pop payments), etc...After July 15 there will be a late fee of $35.00 for the first field plus $15.00 for each additional field. If a producer fails to certify cropland they may become at risk of having to refund payments. Please call to make an appointment.

Direct Deposit Mandatory

As of Jan. 1, 1999, all payments issued by the county FSA office will be by direct deposit (electronic funds transfer) to a pre-designated checking or savings account with your financial institution. Forms are available at the FSA office to sign up for direct deposit if you haven't yet. For those already signed up, it is important that we are notified anytime there is a change in your account number or financial institution. If we aren't notified, future payments can be delayed or lost for a period of time.

Reporting Farm Changes

It is the producer's responsibility to notify FSA of any changes in their farming operation or entity status throughout the year. Changes that may affect a determination include a change in contract shares of a contract which may reflect change of land lease from cash rent arrangement; a change in the size of the producer's farming operation by the addition or deletion of a farm; a change in the structure of the farming operation, including any change in the member's shares; a change in the contribution of farm inputs of capital, equipment, active personal labor, or active personal management; and a change of farming interest not previously disclosed on CCC-502 or update, including the farming interests of a spouse or minor child.

Texas Department of Agriculture seeking historic farms and ranches

Austin -- Agriculture Commissioner Susan Combs announced that the Texas Department of Agriculture is seeking applications for the 2005 Family Land Heritage Program, which recognizes farms and ranches that have been in continuous agricultural operation by the same family for 100, 150 and 200 years. Since the program started in 1974, more than 4,020 farms and ranches have been recognized in 226 Texas counties.

"We must not forget our past," Combs said. "There was a time when few buildings and roads could be seen on the Texas landscape. Instead, there were pioneer families, one after the other, homesteading on a great wilderness, building their homes and staking their claim to the land. This program recognizes these pioneers and the generations who have continued the farming and ranching heritage."

Farms and ranches that qualify will be honored during a ceremony in Austin in March, 2006. The history of the farm or ranch will be chronicled in the 2005 Family Land Heritage Registry. In addition, honorees can obtain historic farm or ranch signage for their property.

Program applications are available through TDA, county judges and on TDA's website at www.agr.state.tx.us. Applications are due by Nov. 15. For more information, contact Family Land Heritage Coordinator Melissa Blair, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711, (512) 463-2631 or melissa.blair@agr.state.tx.us.
