County Commissioners meet Burn Ban lifted

Motley County Commissioners reviewed the burn ban that was implemented due to dry conditions in the county, when they met for their May session, Monday, May 8. With the recent moisture and greening up the fire hazard has improved. Commissioners voted to lift the burn ban, but urge residents to use safety when burning. Those attending the court session were Judge Ed D. Smith; Commissioners, Ronnie

Davis, Precinct 1; Donnie

Turner, Precinct 2; Franklin

Jameson, Precinct 3; Russell

Alexander, Precinct 4; and Kate Hurt, County Clerk. Also attending were County Attorney Tom Edwards and Sheriff Jim

Judge Smith presented a prescription drug plan offered by NaCo members. The membership fee for the county would be $380.00 annually. The plan would make county employees eligible to enroll. After discussion, the commissioners asked Judge Smith to obtain more information before a decision is reached.

Judge Smith informed the Court of the resignation of Mr. Jack Samford as County Veter-

A large group of Motley County residents woke up early to attend the local observance of National Day of Prayer, last Thursday, May 4. A large number of Motley County ISD students and faculty also attended. Prayers were led for local, state and national leaders, US troops and others, before a breakfast of burritos, orange juice and coffee was served.

Large crowd wakes up for early morning National Day of Prayer observance

Local observance of the National Day of Prayer was once again proof that the people of Motley County and surrounding areas are a praying people, con-cerned about the county and its leaders.

Approximately 125 people turned out on a chilly May 4th morning for a special event prayer breakfast for the Nation's leaders. Prayers for Federal, State, County and City leaders and also the Troops serving this great land were offered up vocally by Kevin Keltz of the Full Gospel Church of Roaring Springs. Winfield Davenport of the Methodist Church of Matador and Roaring Springs and the program leader, Mike Crowley of the Matador and Roaring Springs Church of Christ. Every word spoken was very inspiring to each one in attendance.

The Star Spangled Banner was led by Raven Sappenfield, Youth and Music Minister of First Baptist Church, Matador. Chance Bingham and Colton Russell led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America. Dr. Glyndle Feagin, interim pastor of FBC Matador spoke the prayer for those attending and blessed the food.

Delicious breakfast burritos, orange juice and cof-fee was prepared by great cooks, Jim Watson, Ronnie Vandiver, Rodney Williams, Bob Davis, Paul Westbrook and Doug Campbell. Rolling the burritos and helping with any-thing that needed to be done were Glenda Williams, Dartha were Glenda Williams, Dartha Westbrook and Janie Campbell.

Local event coordinator, Carolyn Ewing, said, "A big thank you goes to everyone helping with this event. It would not be possible without the help and support of so many people. A big thanks, as always, to Carla Meador for the coverage she provides in the Motley County Tribune."

2nd Annual Cowboy Camp meeting set for May 18-20

The 2nd Annual Old Settlers Cowboy Camp meeting is set to be held at the Old Settlers Grounds in Roaring Springs on May 18th, 19th and 20th. Three meals will be served each day at 6:00 a.m., noon, and 6:00 p.m. Four services will be held each day at 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Camp preachers will be John Morris of Afton and Steve Cody of Lenapah, OK.

This year an added attraction to the camp meeting will be a team roping to be held on Saturday afternoon, May 20th at 2:00 p.m. It will be a 'draw pot two header.' The entry fee will be to attend the Saturday evening service. The cattle will be furnished by Randy Stalls of McLean, Texas.

The mission of the Cowboy Camp meeting is "Connecting Cowboys to Christ."

ans Officer. Mr. Samford is retiring due to health reasons. Judge Smith said, "Mr. Samford has performed an outstanding service for our county, and has done a great job helping veter-ans and their families." Mr. Samford will remain on a volunteer basis until a replacement can be found.

Judge Smith presented a request from the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department to sign a Mutual Aid Agreement between the counties. Commissioners voted to sign the agreement.

Voters reminded to go to the polls Saturday

Voters are reminded to go to the Polls this Saturday, May 13th, for the City and School Board elections. All voters must present their voter registration card or an acceptable form of identification. Polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. at the following locations:

Precinct 1, 5 and 6, Motley County Courthouse. Precinct 2, Community Center, Flomot. Precinct 3, Cemetery building, Northfield. Precinct 4, Volunteer building, Roaring Springs.

Candidates for Matador City Council include Paul Westbrook, Howard Martin and Pat Smith for Mayor. With two places open for City Council candidates are Terry Simpson and Stan Hanesworth and incumbents Shane Jones and Pat Seigler.

Candidates for School Board are incumbent Ted Davey, Kim Fletcher and Lewis Drum. There are two places open.

With no opposing candidates, the City of Roaring Springs and the Motley County Hospital Board canceled their elections and declared incumbent candidates elected.

Melodious tunes will chime through Flomot next weekend during annual Bluegrass Festival

Washington Cattle Co. will sponsor their annual Flomot Bluegrass Festival, next weekend, May 18, 19 and 20. The sounds of bluegrass tunes will be set on stage with a backdrop of big shade trees and beautiful music echoing through the little village of Flomot.

a.m. and winding down at 11:00 p.m. Admission fee for the day will be $12.00. Children under 13 are admitted free with an adult.

The emcee will be Bill Myrick and sound will be handled by Frank Cleveland.

Bands tentatively scheduled to perform include Wichita Mountain Bluegrass, Pecos Valley Bluegrass, Texas Country, Now and Again, Dyson Family, Jim Kays and the Kays Grass Band and others.

HAPPY SHOPPER — Macie Marshall is all smiles as she shops for just the right item during last Saturday's 70-Mile Garage Sale in Matador. In spite of the cool, rainy weather, the town of Matador was filled with shoppers from near and far. Macie is the daughter of Brent and Jana Marshall of Matador.

Old Setters Queen Contestants

Queen contestants are wanted for the annual Motley-Dickens Old Settlers Reunion and Rodeo to be held in August. All girls, ages 10-18 are eligible to enter.

The girls will sell tickets for a pair of Jim Bo Humphreys handmade spurs. The girl selling the most tickets will be crowned the 2006 Rodeo Queen. Contact Mike Jones in Roaring Springs at 348-7232 or Wayne Smith in Dickens at 623-5326, after 6:00 p.m., for more information.

There will be an open mike session Friday at 6:00 p.m. and Saturday at 11:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

The sounds will begin Thursday at 6:00 p.m. and continue until 10:00 p.m. with an admission fee of $8.00 for music and $12.00 for Supper, consisting of an old fashioned meal of beans and cornbread, and Gospel Music. Supper is free with RV parking.

Friday's show will begin at 6:00 p.m. and run until 11:00 p.m. at an admission fee of $8.00.

On Saturday, come prepared for a day of fun and melody as the show will continue all day, beginning at 11:00

If you've never attended one of these harmonious events, don't miss this one. Bring your lawn chairs and settle down under the shade trees for some pickin' and grinnin'.

Electrical hookups are available and Food Vendors will be set up on site. The event can be moved indoors in case of rain.

For reservations or more information call (806) 469-5278 or (806) 269-1578, or write HCR 2 Box 6, Flomot, Texas 79234.

Mother's Day is this Sunday, May 14. I had a mean Mom when I was growing up, and I was a mean Mom while raising my son. Thank God for mean Moms and Happy Mothers Day!

MEAN MOMS

Someday when your children are old enough to understand the logic that motivates a parent, tell them, as my Mean Mom told me:

I loved you enough ... to ask where you were going, with whom, and what time you would be home.

I loved you enough to be silent and let you discover that your new best friend was a creep.

I loved you enough to make you go pay for the bubble gum you had taken and tell the clerk, "I stole this yesterday and want to pay for it."

I loved you enough to stand over you for two hours while you cleaned your room, a job that should have taken 15 minutes.

I loved you enough to let you see anger, disappointment and tears in my eyes. Children must learn that their parents aren't perfect.

I loved you enough to let you assume the responsibility for your actions even when the penalties were so harsh they almost broke my heart.

But most of all, I loved you enough ... to say NO when I knew you would hate me for it.

Those were the most difficult battles of all. I'm glad I won them, because in the end you won, too.

And someday when your children are old enough to un-

When others had a Pepsi and a Twinkie for lunch, we had to eat sandwiches. And you can guess our mother fixed us a dinner that was different from what other kids had, too.

Mother insisted on knowing where we were at all times. You'd think we were convicts in a prison.

She had to know who our friends were, and what we were doing with them. She insisted that if we said we would be gone for an hour, we would be gone for an hour or less.

We were ashamed to admit it, but she had the nerve to break the Child Labor Laws by making us work. We had to wash the dishes, make the beds, learn to cook, vacuum the floor, do laundry, empty the trash and all sorts of cruel jobs. I think she would lie awake at night thinking of more things for us to do. She always insisted on us telling the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

By the time we were teen-agers, she could read our minds and had eyes in the back of her head. Then, life was really tough!

Mother wouldn't let our friends just honk the horn when they drove up. They had to come up to the door so she could meet them. While everyone else could date when they were 12 or 13, we had to wait until we were 16.

Because of our mother we missed out on lots of things other kids experienced. None of us have ever been caught shop-lifting, vandalizing other's prop-erty or ever arrested for any crime. It was all her fault.

Now that we have left home,

Fishing -- Thinking & Wishing

A guest article by John Gibson

I love to fish. I can fish all day – I can fish everyday in the week -- and still not grow weary of fishing. John Gibson, outstanding writer, penned an article titled "Fishing" in which he discussed fishing. It's good. It's relevant. It's worth thinking about. In it he says: • Fishing is an act of faith. Normally the fisherman does not see the fish. He prepares his line and casts the bait into the water. He's not always successful, but he casts over and over. He even moves to another place and yet another if nothing is caught.

 • Fishing requires diligence. Real fishermen get up early and stay out late. Weather doesn't stop them, mos-quitoes may eat them alive -- they hang in there.
• Fishing requires intelligence. A true fisherman knows where the fish are, and he knows what they like to bite on. He makes it look easy, but a lifetime of knowledge goes into what he does.

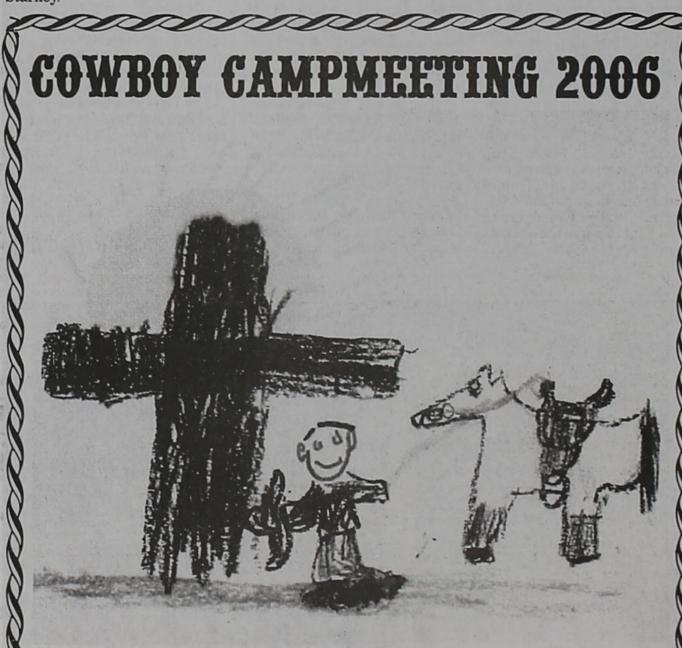

• Fishing requires work. You can't catch fish in the living room watching T.V. and nibbling on chips. You have to get your tackle together, change clothes, drive to the lake, unload the boat, and tend to a hundred details -- now you're ready. Fishing is hard work.

Mike Crowley leads book discussion at MC Library

This book is a work of fiction and the Reverend Crowley pointed out the parts of the book that followed known history and the parts that deviated from what is known about Apostle Paul harts that deviated from what is known about Apostle Paul. And the Bluegrass Festival in Flomot combines perhaps the two best features of rural West Texas living-live music against the background of the setting sun. So get your bug spray and your folding chairs ready, round up the family -- the Bluegrass Festival is almost here.

This year, it is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday the 18th, 19th, and 20th of May out in Flomot.

The Festival begins at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday with an evening of Gospel music, along with a supper of beans and cornbread,

Then there will be the usual assortment of groups on Friday evening, beginning at 6:00 p.m. and on Saturday from 11:00 am to 11:00 p.m.

Bands slated to participate include Wichita Mountain Bluegrass, Pecos Valley Bluegrass, Texas Country, Now and Again, the Dyson Family, and Jim Kays and the Kays Grass Band. Oth-ers may well be featured.

You can come and stay as long as you like, and you don't need to worry about eats, since there will be a concession stand with a variety of items on Friday and Saturday. Bill Myrick will Emcee, and the sound comes thanks to Frank Cleveland.

There are entrance fees to be paid-- $8.00 on Thursday night just for the music, and $12 will include supper. Friday evening will set you back a mere $8.00, while $12.00 will get you in all day Saturday. Children under 13 get in free when they accompany an adult.

You can get more informa-tion at (806) 469-5278 or (806) 269-1578. Or you can send off an E- mail to flomot@caprockspur.com.

Hard to believe , but next week is the date, so plan to come out with the whole family and enjoy one of the truly original and family oriented weekends of entertainment offered in Motley County.

News Around the County

Roaring Springs News By Monta Marshall

Geese are gregarious! Now a gaggle of Canadian Geese have joined the snow geese on the Stuckey's lawn. They look so real, and I am sure they are until I go investigate. Don says that they are photographs made into decoys; that is why they look so real. They are worth a drive by to see them. They are amazingly realistic.

There are dishes at the First Baptist Church in Roaring Springs that belong to ones who brought food for the Thacker family. If you will call me at 348-7000 I will try to arrange to have the building unlocked so that you can pick them up. They are unmarked so we don't know where to return them.

Joyce Smith returned home for the weekend. She had out of town guests who spent several days with her in Lubbock. They were a cousin and a friend from Tuscon, AZ, Glenda Dobkins Hossley and Doctor Floyd Burk. They attended church services here with Joyce on Sunday.

Visiting in Roaring Springs and the surrounding areas on Friday, May 5th were Dr. Ed Glenn of Nashville, TN; his parents, Ron and Evelyn Glenn of Greenville, South Carolina. Their tour guides were Martha Glenn Stone of Lubbock and Grady Glenn of Odessa. They are the children of the late C.B. and Allie Glenn.

Ron Glenn is a grandson and Dr. Ed Glenn is a great grandson of the late C.B. and Allie Glenn. Ron Glenn's parents were T.O. Glenn and Jo Glenn, ex residents of Motley County, who relocated in and near Charleston, South Carolina in the early 1940's. Ron's parents are deceased.

'Bud" Glenn told me that his family has 500 pages of genealogy completed.

Someday I hope to get serious about working on my family tree. I have some software and some information to start on. I think the place to start is at the library where there would be hands on help to get me started. Another addition to my pile of "want to's"! Life would be dull if we didn't have plans for another day! There were 13 children at House of Faith last Wednesday. Kevin Keltz was present and the children enjoyed playing and singing with him very much. He will be telling the Bible story this week. We have had wonderful cookies brought. Thank you for providing these for the kids. A few do make it to the mouths of the adult helpers as well; they are great!

Perla Wilson Mays was in town on Saturday and visited with Devonne Dillard. Perla's late husband, Tommy D. Wilson, was a former Roaring Springs School superintendent.

Kenneth Marvel is going to Amarillo today for surgery. He is accompanied by his wife, Barbara and his daughter, Mitzi Christopher.

Darleen Fletcher spent several days in the hospital this week. She was in Crosbyton a couple of days and then went back to BSA in Amarillo. She is having complications from her knee surgery but is feeling better.

A wet soggy sale day kept some would be shoppers away from the 70 mile Garage Sale. We couldn't complain about the rain; it was really a blessing. We had 6/10 in all at our house, nice soft gentle soaking rain. Quite a few braved the weather and held their sale anyway. It seems like it is either so hot, so wet or so cold every year! People come anyway and sales are made and funds are raised!

HOSTORICAL BELL PRESENTED SUNDAY

The Rev. Nathan Mulder, pastor of the Baptist Church in Flomot, presented Mrs. Edna Ruth Green of Matador a historical bell and charter of the Flomot Baptist Church at the Sunday morning services.

The small bell was the one Edna Ruth's mother, Mrs. Emma Garrison Bourland used when she was an early day school teacher. It was given to the church and was an asset many years in the departments of the church. Mrs. Bourland was clerk of the church for many years.

Mrs. Green's Parents, Finis S. and Emma Bourland were the charter members of the first organized Baptist Church in Flomot, August 27, 1914. It was known as the New Hope Baptist Church. The 18 members first worshiped in the upstairs of the new school building. In fall of 1916 they moved into a new building and had the dedication in the early part of 1917.

The children of Mrs..Green, Virginia Green of Whiteface and Andy Green of Keller attended the church services presentation with her. A fellowship luncheon was held following the services.

The U.S. Department of Ag-riculture Farm Service Agency is celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP), the nation's largest and most successful conservation program on private lands. The Conserva-tion Reserve Program started up in 1986 under the Food Security Act signed by President Reagan. The first sign-up period ran for 12 days, the producers in 43 states enrolled 753,668 acres. Three sign-up periods were held in 1986, resulting in a total first year enrollment of 8,228,707 acres nationwide. Program enrollment today stands at 35.9 million acres, with farm at 35.9 million acres, with farm owners and operators holding program contracts in nearly all States and Puerto Rico. Motley County currently has 161 CRP contracts covering 29,315 acres. Controlling soil erosion was the primary reason Congress created the program. At this time, over 100 million acres of farmland met the definition of farmland met the definition of highly erodible and we were losing large amounts of topsoil through wind and water driven erosion. Today, CRP is respon-sible for saving an estimated 450 million tons of topsoil every year.

Improving water quality and wildlife habitat were seen as important but secondary benefits of the program in 1986. Through the years, as the program has been reauthorized by Congress, water quality and wildlife benefits have become more important and today are equal in importance with erosion control.

CRP is a voluntary long-term cropland retirement program for highly erodible and environmentally sensitive land. Farm owner of operators receive annual rental payments for the 10-to 15- year life of the contract. In Fiscal year 2005, participants received an average rental pay-ment of $48.66 per acre. Partici-pants may also be reimbursed for up to 50 percent of the cost for establishing the vegetative cover required under the CRP contract. In fiscal year 2005 (Oct. 1, 2004 to Sept. 30, 2005), the Federal government paid $1.7 billion in annual rental payments to program participants. That's a lot of money, but it's only one side of the coin. When you factor in the value of CRP's public benefits - improving soil productivity and reducing runoff, cleaner water, and the value of hunting and viewing wildlife -we receive a return that's well worth the investment. Just in Motley County there are many more deer, quail, pheasants, and other wildlife than before CRP, and hunting has become a major part of our local economy. Between 2007 and 2010, over 400,000 CRP contracts covering 28 million acres nationally will expire. FSA has announced that its goal is to keep as much of that land in the program as possible, and will be offering 10or 15- year contract re-enroll-ments for selected lands and up to 5- year extensions for other contracts. Farm owners and operators who are interested in learning more about CRP should contact Motley County FSA at 347-2263 ext. 2.

PROOF OF THE TRUTH BY TOM EDWARDS

THE FLOOD AND AGE OF THE EARTH Many people puzzle as to probable events occurring during and after the Flood. It was much more than just a matter of "high water." The entire planet, its composition, land mass, oceans, environment, and atmosphere, was drastically changed, and there is evidence of all of this.

Termites now swarming in Texas

other chance for termites to invade homes and businesses in Texas.

Two major groups of subterranean termites - natives and Formosan - make Texas their home.

Native subterranean termites have already swarmed in South Texas, and it is now swarming season in Central and North Texas, said Dr. Roger Gold, Texas Cooperative Exten-sion entomologist.

Considered the most destructive insect wood pests in the U.S., subterranean termites cause more than $2 billion in damage each year. Subterranean termites are found throughout the U.S., with the greatest concentration in the Southeast.

Native subterranean termites live in nests or colonies in the soil, Gold said, and feed on dead trees and brush. But when land is cleared of this material for construction of buildings, termites will attack these structures, he said.

These insects enter buildings through wood in direct con-tact with the soil, shelter tubes they build or directly through cracks or joints in and under foundations, he said

The primary native subter-ranean termite - which is swarming now - is coal black to yellow-brown, about one-fourth to three-eights of an inch in length (a little longer than a pencil eraser), and has wings with a few distinct veins, he said.

Formosan termites swarm in the summer. This termite is a newcomer, having only been in Texas for a little more than 50 years.

The ones that swarm are yellowish-brown, about a halfinch long, and have wings with two heavily pigmented veins near the front edge and no connecting cross veins.

It's spring, and termites are swarming. With that comes an-called a carton - of wood, saliva and fecal material. These can be as large as several cubic feet and may not have ground contact.

Even though they cause the same type of damage as native subterranean termites, they inflict this damage more rapidly.

Also, more than 47 plant species - such as pecan, citrus, wild cherry, cherry laurel, sweet gum, cedar, willow and wax myrtle - have been attacked by Formosan termites.

"Formosan termites also have been known to eat through non-cellulose material, such as thin sheets of soft metal such as lead or copper, asphalt, plaster, creosote, rubber and plastic searching for food and moisture," Gold said. If termites are found swarming around or inside a home, don't panic, Gold said.

"Termites usually work slowly, so your house will gen-erally not collapse or be ruined overnight," he said.

He advised following these steps

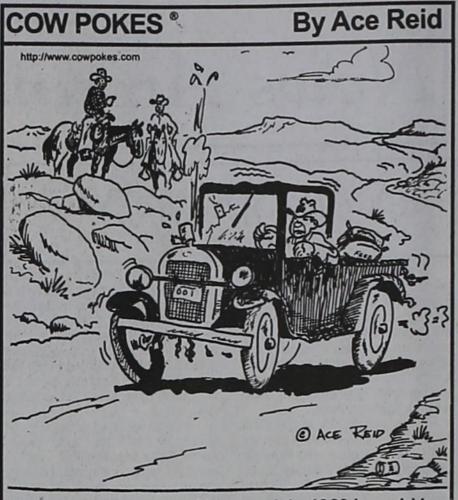

Take the time to learn more about termites, their biology, inspection techniques and treatment options. — Do not permit anyone to rush you into buying termite control services. Take the time you need to make an informed decision.

 If you are unsure about termites being present, arrange for a thorough termite inspec-tion with a licensed, reputable company.

Know that costs of inspections, estimates and terms can vary significantly among com-panies," Gold said. "Ask for inspections from three or more companies. Ask for recommendations from your friends and neighbors. This is the best way to get an honest opinion about a termite control service.

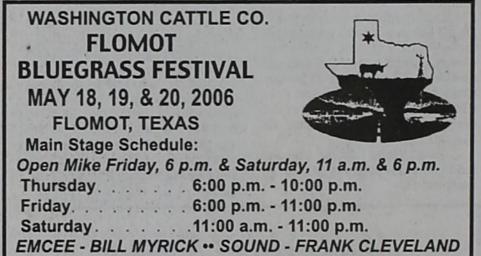

More information is available from http://

"Now there is a man of his word. In 1963 he said he wuzn't gonna trade pickups 'til they get cheaper."

"Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord. Psalm 27:14 what the Flood of Noah has to do with the question of the age of the earth. Actually, the Flood is very central to correctly answering the question, while at the same time the Flood events are responsible for creating a lot of evidence that misleads even honest scientists into believing the earth is "old," such as fossils and the geologic column (actually created by the Flood events).

I know that there are scep-I know that there are scep-tics out there strongly believing in an old earth. I have heard from some of you. But I would ask that you stay tuned, because we are saving the best for last -that which will totally destroy the credibility of any old earth and universe dating techniques, leaving only wishful thinking to support such a claim! But, even those matters were impacted by those matters were impacted by the Flood of Noah - if it hap-pened. So, did it happen and is there any evidence of it? The short answer is: "It did happen, and the evidence is overwhelming!" But this needs to be eased into and will take some time, as we will need to consider timing, the pre-flood As a beginning point, it must be said: "God said it, and that's that!" And that truly is that, but if the Flood did actually happen, there would be evidence of it, as well as some evidence of when it happened - and there is, which affirms rather than disputes the Biblical account.

We've earlier learned that the Bible (from genealogies) appears to date the Flood at 1565 A.C. (after creation), or around 4354 years ago, so we need to see if there is evidence of a worldwide flood and of one occurring sometime between 4 and 5 thousand years ago. This gets both surprising and interesting, and we'll wade in next time.

Fact: If we levelled the entire surface of the earth, there's enough water in the oceans to entirely cover it 1.5 miles deep!

(Correction: Last week's "next" geologic column should have said "neat.")
