Quick action by local teen saves life of 11-year-old

by Mary Meason

In these times we very seldom hear or see about any of the good things our teenagers do, but the bad things that some do is printed and broadcast, and so many people lump all teenagers into the smaller numbers of the teenagers who give trouble.

But there is a story to tell about one of our own, teenage heroes right here in our little town of Matador.

There was a near tragedy at the Roaring Springs Ranch Club swimming pool last Thursday afternoon when 11 year old Bradley Baxter fell from the diving board and hit his head on the side of the pool. Mrs. Micky Aycock from Lorenzo, who was in the pool at the time, saw him sinking to the bottom and grabbed him, calling out for help. Eighteen year old Jeremy Jones, sitting on a bench nearby with some friends, heard Mrs. Aycock crying for help. He ran to the poolside and took him from the pool. Bradley's skin was blue, and he had no pulse and no heartbeat. Jeremy told someone to call 911 and he immediately began administering CPR.

Melinda Jameson called Motley County Sheriff, Jim Meador, who then alerted the Motley County Ambulance.

Jeremy continued giving resuscitation, until Bradley finally began vomiting and opened his eyes. Jeremy and Mrs. Aycock turned him on his side, and he began to clean out his mouth, but Bradley lapsed back into unconsciousness and clamped his jaws shut, his eyes rolled back into his head, and his pulse and heartbeat were gone. Jeremy was unable to get his mouth open and asked his friend, Brandon, to help. With both boys trying to unclench his jaws, they could not open his mouth. Jeremy began breathing into Bradley's nose. Feeling exhaustion, Jeremy asked Bradley's mother, Colleen, to breath into Bradley's nose, while Jeremy continued to do chest compressions. He then took back over with the breathing and finally, Bradley started breathing and opened his eyes.

The Motley County ambulance conveyed Bradley to the front gate where AeroCare picked him up and flew him to UMC in Lubbock. Bradley remained in Intensive Care until Friday evening, and returned home late Saturday afternoon, where he will recuperate. He will return to the doctor for another cat scan in six weeks. He is a very lucky little boy!

Bradley's mom and dad are Don and Colleen Baxter of Matador. He also has a sister, Stachia. The Baxters stated that they feel so much thankfulness for Jeremy, and everyone who was there and helped in anyway. Jeremy stated that he is glad he was able to help and he knows that God was there and led him while he was working on Bradley.

Jeremy is the son of Jim and Carla Meador of Matador and Jonathan Jones of Fremont, California. He will be departing for Abilene in a few weeks to begin College at Hardin-Simmons University.

FACTS ABOUT GOUT

Once known as the disease of good food and good drink, gout or gouty arthritis afflicts mostly men over the age of 40. All gout sufferers are overweight. Certain foods and drinks seem to increase the onset. Eating purine-rich foods such as brains, kidneys, liver, sardines, anchovies and dried peas and beans as well as drinking alcohol can evoke the symptoms, since about one-third of the uric acid in our systems comes from food and the rest our bodies produce in ordinary metabolism. If you have gout and kidney stones, then you will probably be advised to reduce purine-containing foods, drink at least six to eight glasses of water, and reduce or avoid alcohol consumption. Certain new medicines have been discovered and used in the treatment of this disorder. Contact your physician if you have any of the symptoms of this disease -- mainly pain in the joints due to collection of uric acid crystals. One primary site first noticed when the victim goes to bed is severe pain in the great toe and more rarely in the heel, ankle or instep. Contact your local physician if you are experiencing any of these problems.

AMERICA'S EATING HABITS EAT 11 PROBLEM

What we actually eat doesn't always match what we think we eat. Is vegetarianism actually a growing trend? Not so according to Edition 11,

"Eating in America Today Study" recently unveiled by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. The findings support that confusion exists among Americans about meat consumption. The study indicated that consumers are confused about meat's role in the diet. The study found that Meat Eaters, Meat Avoiders, and Vegetarians all consumed more than the recommended 30 percent of calories from fat. The Meat Avoiders' fat intake is lower than the other two segments because they consume that least amount of food from all food groups. Women and teens think they need to cut back on meat because they are concerned about fat. This probably is not the case because lean meat provides many essential nutrients. Instead people should cut down on fat intake by reducing fried foods, rich sauces and desserts which provide calories and fat without the benefits of meat. If you are interested in learning more about the Eat 11 Study, contact C.J. Reynolds at the National Live Stock and Meat Board, 444 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611, (312) 670-9227.

Educational programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, religion, disability, age or national origin.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: The really happy man is the one who can enjoy the scenery, even when he has to take a detour.

LIBRARY NOTES
by Suzanne Abbott

We had a wonderful Arts and Crafts Celebration last month at the Library. Among the many people who loaned their things to be displayed is Lou Ann Jameson. We appreciate her contribution and the efforts of the Arts and Crafts Club to make this celebration successful.

The Library had an unwelcome visitor last week. A big rat tried to come in. Carolyn, from Guys and Gals next door, said he was just trying to find a cool place, but I know he really wanted to read a book. The rat didn't get in the Library, thanks to an anonymous man who carried him off, but if he had, I am sure the rat would have chosen to read such books as Of Mice and Men, by John Steinbeck, Little Elephant and Big Mouse, and, certainly, Rat Race and Other Rodent Jokes by Dave Ross.

We have two more new Dr. Seuss books thanks to the Friends of the Library. These books are How the Grinch Stole Christmas and Horton Hears a Who! We appreciate the Friends for buying new copies of these favorites for the Library.

If you are looking for fun vacation in a far off place, the Spring, 1996, issue of the Elderhostel International Catalog is now in the Library. It tells about exciting trips planned for the Spring. For instance, under France, it lists barge programs, bicycle programs, fine arts, folk colleges, and homestay plans. Come by the Library to get more information concerning Elderhostel.

A new book from the Texas Department of Health arrived last week. The Texas Vital Statistics publication gives information of all kinds about us Texans. This interesting volume lists figures for births, deaths, marriages, and divorces. For example, the leading cause of death of Texans ages 1-14 is accidents. This publication is in the reference section of the Library.

August, being the time for Old Settlers, is Local History Month at the Library. More about that next week.

"One Another"

There are some phrases in the Bible which seem to call for special consideration. One such phrase is "one another". I believe I can understand why it may stand out. For week after week, Sunday after Sunday, we see many of the same faces. And I believe that we enjoy meeting together and seeing our friends and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Our purpose for the assembly is to worship our God. This assembling of ourselves together grants us the privilege and opportunity to encourage one another. We stimulate one another to further our growth and development in Christianity. Such stimulation is seen not only in our assembly for worship, but also in our gathering for Bible study.

If you will, find the time to read Hebrews 10: 24-25 this week. Discover there for yourself, the understanding that we must be attuned to one another. We are to not only look out for one another, but to be able to count on "one another."

David Thompson Will Retire From Texas Highway Patrol

"1113 - Dallas" - "Dallas - 1113"; "1113 - Dallas, this unit 1042".

With this call, his last, at 5:00 p.m. on August 31, 1995, Trooper IV David L. Thompson, Texas Highway Patrol, ends a 25 year career serving the citizens of Texas.

David Thompson, son of Manley and Ruby Thompson, left Matador, Texas on October 21, 1969 heading south for Austin never dreaming that 25 years, 15 Sergeants, 11 Lieutenants, 7 Captains, 7 Major, 25-30 Partners later it would be his time to look around and realize "I'm the old man in this room."

D' School 1969 graduated in February, 1970. David's first duty station was Plainview, after spending 2 months in the Lubbock Regional Headquarters office. Six months later - next stop Paducah - then in July, 1972 David transferred to Dallas. For the next 5 years he worked routine patrol in Dallas, Kaufman and Rockwall counties. Then in January, 1977 Trooper Thompson accepted an assignment with the first DPS Narcotics Task Force Team. The new assignment took him to McAllen, Texas for the next 18 months. David would experience a world unknown to him at that time - the underworld of drugs, long stake-outs, 3-4-5 day patrols along the Rio Grande, whole towns who resented your being there. Never knowing what might lie around the next corner or what might be waiting on the next 'routine' stop. Having the opportunity to observe country's 'blue force' was very interesting, to say the least. In July, 1978 David headed north, back to Dallas, the area that would, in fact, be his last duty station. After returning from the Valley he worked routine patrol until 1980 and then he transferred to the Warrant Office at Region One Headquarters. He finished the last 15 years of his career working with DPS warrants, Governor's Security, duty office, routine patrol, and assisting other agencies when called upon.

David plans to build his dream log cabin 40 miles east of Dallas, play with his grandson, Dustin, teach the Permit to Carry classes, pour bullet lube, fish, and last, but not least, sit on the porch watching the sun go down, drinking ice tea with his best friend, sweetheart, and Dustin's Nana, Penny Lou.

1995 Burleson Memorial Roping Results

This was the eleventh year for the Burleson Memorial Roping at Flomot to benefit Clarendon Jr. College's Ranch and Feedlot operations course. The 1995 scholarship recipients were Gait Taylor, Spur; LeMar Shaw, Alamogordo, N.M.; and Jake McCorkell, Hatch, N.M.

The team sorting and team penning competitors assembled Friday evening to begin the activities.

Cowboy sorting consist of three riders who are given a number between 0-9 and they begin cutting out the cattle in consecutive order in a two minute time limit. Todd Beedy, Brent Brownlee, Floydada, and Tim Washington, Roaring Springs cut the most cattle in two runs.

The team penning, a repeat event, drew eighteen teams with the skilled team of Lisa Martin, Marion Martin and Marty Martin from Tulia with a time of .51 seconds to cut and pen their three head of cattle.

The most anticipated event began early Saturday morning with the youth horse events consisting of three divisions - PeeWee, Junior, and Senior. The six place winners in the Potato Race were: Clay Ware, Floydada; Bo Preston, Andrews; Jerry Whitaker, Perry Whitaker, Matador; Taylor Brock, Lockney; Tye Jones, Levelland. In the Junior Division the six places went to T.C. Long, Andrews; Christopher Hartline, Floydada; Cody Ware, Floydada; Lana McCandless, Floydada; Velvet Johnson, Lockney; and Tana Holmes, Floydada. In the Senior Division, Lindsey Reddy, and Laura Lotz, both Floydada.

In the second event, Flag Race, the six place winners were Clay Ware, Floydada; Bo Preston, Andrews; Jacob Reddy, Floydada; Perry Whitaker, Matador; Kody Porterfield, Brownfield; Taylor Brock, Lockney. In the Junior Division, T.C. Long, Andrews; Christopher Hartline, Floydada; Tyler Phillips, Lockney; Cody Ware, Floydada; Trey Holmes, Floydada; Velvet Johnson, Lockney. In the Senior Division, Lindsey Reddy and Laura Lotz, Floydada.

In the Barrel Race the six place winners were Clay Ware, Kody Porterfield, Bo Preston, Jerry Whitaker, Jacob Reddy, Perry Whitaker. In the Junior Division, T.C. Long, Velvet Johnson, Christopher Hartline, Trey Holmes, Tyler Phillips, Lana McCandless, Floydada. In the Senior Division, Laura Lotz, first, and Lindsey Reddy, second.

Clay Ware and T.C. Long tied with high points and had to have a flip of the coin to determine the top youth. Luck of the flip gave Clay Ware the trophy and headstall. Clay Ware was riding the family horse, "Speedy" and after the pasture roping events on Sunday "Speedy" became the all around horse winner of the weekend.

While the youth events took place in the arena, repeat winners of the washer pitch took shade under the hay barn to "pitch" it out for the winner buckles. Third time winners in the eleven years were Frank Hollabaugh and Steve Nail from Amarillo.

Saturday afternoon gave team ropers their chance to compete in three categories. Saturday team roping winners were Clinton Ware and Andy Wheatley in the number five; and Tim Massey and Steve Jones in the number four.

Sunday morning provided an opportunity for the novice team ropers to compete. Joe Brice and Brent Whitaker were the roping winners before the team ropers moved to the pasture for the challenging "Pasture Roping".

Floyd Hardin, Childress, and Sam Fortenberry, Lockney, have introduced the ropers for the Burleson Memorial this eleven years. They donate their time keeping the spectators entertained while waiting for the next team to rope. Jamie McNeil and Joel Kirkpatrick, Crosbyton, were the winning team in the first pasture roping and Kevin Hudleston and Wade Jewel were winners of the open pasture roping.

Wayne Dollar, Hereford, made the spurs that were presented to high point roper in the team roping events. Wayne also donated buckles auctioned for the scholarship.

Cattle for the events has been provided by Carl and Johnnie Alford of the Circle A Cattle Company, Hereford.

Newsweek Magazine Names Former Resident and Husband To Overclass People List

Karen Elliott House and her husband, Peter Kann were named to the Overclass list in the July 31 issue of Newsweek magazine.

Karen and Peter make their home in Princetown, New Jersey.

Karen is the daughter of Mrs. Bailey Elliott of Matador. She is a graduate of Matador High School. She began her journalist career at the Matador Tribune under the guidance of Mr. Douglas Meador, longtime editor.

The magazine article reads as follows:

Peter Kann, 52. Yes, some overclassers actually started in the mail-room - or in Kann's case the journalistic equivalent. Once a newspaper copy boy, he flourished overseas and now chairs Dow Jones & Co., publisher of the moneyed-class bible, The Wall Street Journal.

Karen Elliott House, 47. A Pulitzer Prize winner for the Journal, she's the no-nonsense head of the business and editorial staffs of Dow Jones & Co.'s overseas operations. And married to Big Boss Kann.

To Our Hero - Jeremy Jones

This is such a small gesture of our gratitude. We feel like our community needs to know that we have a local Hero!

On July 27th our Bradley was given a second chance in life, because of Jeremy Jones' determination and lots of help from our good Lord above. I do believe that there were Angels watching over Bradley and Jeremy, telling Jeremy to keep on going and not to give up even when the odds were against him. Our lives will never be the same.

In the blink of an eye our 11 year old son was taken from us and given back to us! We can never repay Jeremy and the people who helped us in any way.

The next day at the Hospital, Jeremy and many friends were talking over what had happened and Jeremy was asked if he had any CPR training. He said that when he was a Sophomore he remembers standing over a dummy in Health class for about 5 minutes. Jeremy laughed and said I can't remember if I even passed that part of class or not! Well, he passed the most important test given on July 27!

We will always be grateful.
We love you, Jeremy!!

Gratefully yours,
Bradley, Stachia,
Don & Colleen Baxter

With September now only one month away activity surrounding the Enhanced Boll Weevil Diapause Suppression Program is shifting into high gear. Already the process of mapping some 2 million acres of High Plains cotton is underway using a combination of the newest satellite technology and manual mapping techniques.

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, which will oversee the Enhanced Boll Weevil Suppression Program for the next three years, taking on the boll weevil in such a large area will be a challenge. PCG officials note that thirty-one years of experience gained fighting the boll weevil below the Caprock and the use of "21st Century" technology will be the key to success.

"This year's program marks a fundamental change in the way we view our fight with the boll weevil," says PCG Boll Weevil Program Coordinator Roger Haldenby. "We will continue to use diapause treatments to keep the boll weevil from moving onto the High Plains. This year's intensified and expanded program will further focus on reducing the number of acres infested with boll weevil in 1996."

Haldenby notes that five mild winters in a row have allowed the boll weevil to survive in ever increasing numbers above the Caprock. The result, according to Haldenby, is that we now have to fight "home-grown" boll weevil populations.

Haldenby notes that so far 1995 has been a record-breaking year for the boll weevil in terms of survival and movement. He notes that in prime winter habitats up to 70 percent of the boll weevils that entered diapause were able to survive the winter of 1995.

Movement into previously uninfested areas was also a common occurrence early in the season. Haldenby notes that Texas Agricultural Extension Service Entomologist Dr. Jim Leser has documented weevil trap catches as far north as Friona and west across the state line into New Mexico.

Haldenby concludes that even though these boundaries roughly mark the weevil's farthest move onto the High Plains the biggest problem is that counties such as Lubbock, Hale, Lynn and Terry now have populations large enough that producers have either considered early season boll weevil treatments to protect their crop or have actually sprayed for the boll weevil.

Haldenby notes the mapping phase of the 1995 Program should be complete within the next 3-4 weeks and that the treatment phase of the operation is scheduled to begin in mid- to late - September, or when 25 percent of the boll weevil population is observed to be entering diapause.

Aerial contractors will be given the opportunity to participate on the 1995 Diapause Program within the next two weeks when they should receive an invitation to bid on aerial contracts for the program.

Social Security Tips

by Mary Jane Shanes
Social Security Manager, Plainview

THREE WAYS TO INCREASE YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFIT

You may not want to know how to build a better mousetrap - but how about three ways to increase your Social Security benefit? They're fool-proof and guaranteed.

Here's one way. If you begin receiving benefits before you're 65, we'll reduce your check by five-ninths of one percent for each month you are under age 65. However - and here's your cue - when you turn 65, we re-figure your benefit to give back the five-ninths of one percent for each month you didn't receive a check. This feature is important if you're still working and have some months in which you don't receive a check because your earnings exceed the annual earnings limit. (The 1995 limit for someone under age 65 is $8,160).

As an example, let's say you started receiving Social Security when you turned 62. We reduced your benefits by 20 percent (36 months times five-ninths of one percent equals 20 percent). A year later you returned to work for awhile and earned so much money that you didn't receive a Social Security check for nine months. When you reach 65, we will re-figure your benefit, increasing it by five percent - five-ninths of one percent for each of the nine months you didn't get a check. From then on, your reduction will be 15 percent instead of 20 percent.

Here's another way to increase your benefit. If you continue working after you start getting benefits and your annual earnings are higher than the lowest of the years we used to compute your benefit, we'll re-figure your benefit each year. We add in the higher year of earnings to see whether it will increase your benefit.

The third way to get a higher Social Security benefit is to delay your retirement beyond age 65 - up to age 70. The percentage of increase depends on what year you were born and is based on a graduated scale. For example, if you were born in 1938, you receive a 6.5 percent increase for each year beyond your full retirement age that you delay signing up for Social Security. And if you're at the top of the graduated scale because you were born in 1943 or later, your benefit will be increased by eight percent for each year you delay retirement.

UPDATE ON THE ROARING SPRINGS COMMUNITY CENTER

Wonder why you have not heard from the Community Volunteers of Roaring Springs lately? We have been busy, getting ready for the Arts and Craft show to be held August 24, 25 & 26 during Old Settlers reunion.

Bobby Jo Witcher drilled a water well on the Community Volunteer property and J.N. Fletcher helped. Bill Peacock made a metal guard to go around the well that can be converted into a picnic table. We now have water lines as well as electricity to all five of the R.V. hookups.

J.C. and Palma Smiley have been busy on the letters to the exes appraising them of the work being done on the community center. Their daughter, Debbie and Mike Ausmus have also been working with them to help get the letters printed and folded.

Rodney Williams and his crew are at work building and erecting the top on the Community Center, thanks to the generosity of our friends, ex-students, ex-teachers, and ex-residents.

Bill Peacock, and Ted and Venita Sedgwick have been busy making signs to be used to advertise the craft show, and mowing the grass on the lots. Lee Peacock has been busy putting ads in the Motley County Tribune and the surrounding towns, Darleen Fletcher has made flyers to be put in the area towns and stores.

Included in our Arts and Craft Show, we will have a Jackson's Barbecue from Post, Texas, roasted corn from New Castle, Texas, and a Coca Cola stand furnished by the Coca Cola Company of Lubbock.

All of the volunteers have worked hard to make this Arts & Crafts Show a success and we hope that everyone will visit with our vendors.

Our regular meeting night is the second Tuesday of each month, and everyone is invited to attend and join us.
