ROKs Hold Firm To Pinpoint Hill As Chinese Continue Push

By STAN CARTER SEUL, Oct. 17 (AP)—Nearly 1,000 Chinese troops assaulted Sniper Ridge in the Central Korean Front tonight under Red artillery fire so intense the South Korean defenders couldn't measure it. The Chinese and ROKs closed in a grenade-throwing, hand-to-hand fight for Pinpoint Hill, center peak on Sniper Ridge northwest of Kumwha.

Late reports said the desperate-battling ROKs still held control of Pinpoint. But to the west, South Korean Ninth Division troops pulled back off Iron Horse Hill at dark after fighting Chinese throughout the afternoon. Communist dead littered the frost-whitened battlefield as Red casualties mounted to record 1952 totals. In the bloody week ended Tuesday, the U. S. Eighth Army estimated the Communists lost 10,182 soldiers. The total—highest since last November—included 5,868 killed, 4,258 wounded and 60 captured.

New Hearings On Bootlegging Set For Nov. 6

AUSTIN, Oct. 17 (AP)—The House Crime Committee will begin public hearings Nov. 6 at Amarillo which "quite possibly" might lead to further indictments in connection with an alleged West Texas bootlegging syndicate, Rep. Waggoner Carr said today. Carr announced the hearing—a follow-up to a two-day closed-door investigation last month—in a telephone call from Lubbock to reporters in the capitol press room at Austin.

He named 19 persons in addition to those who testified at last month's hearing who have been subpoenaed to appear before the crime committee at 9:30 a. m. Nov. 6 in the 47th District Court room at Amarillo. Those ordered to appear include a number of men who have resigned from Liquor Control Board work in recent months.

In addition to the 19, "most of the persons connected with Pinkie's Liquor Stores and Cecil's Liquor Stores in West Texas will be required to be present," Carr said. He said the public hearing was scheduled after the committee studied testimony it received last month and he reports of Potter and Scurry County grand juries.

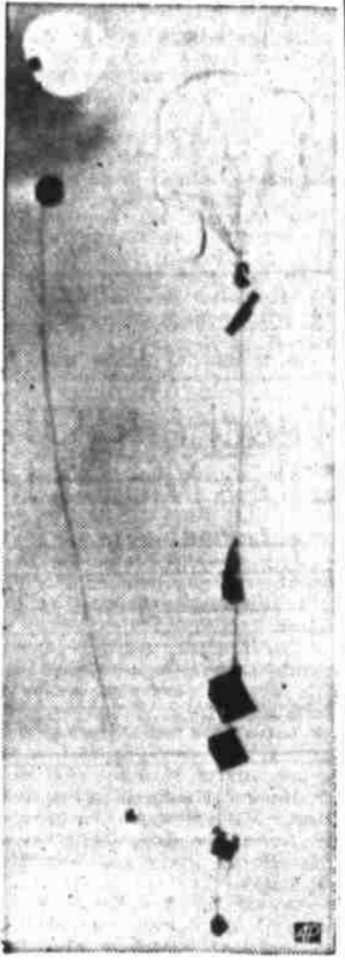

"We feel that the people have a right to know all of this as to the grand jury's findings and the charges that have been made, what's right and what's wrong. We want to make it all public so the people can make up their own minds," Carr, who will be acting chairman of the Amarillo hearing, said. The Potter County Grand Jury has charged that "general statewide corruption" resulted from administration of the Liquor Control Act and that a bootleg syndicate was headquartered at Big Spring and Odessa.

The grand jury also said some liquor board employees know of the syndicate but that it went right on operating through pay-offs and bribery to key personnel on the board. Liquor Administrator Coker Stevenson Jr., who will be asked to attend the Amarillo hearing, reported that seven cases of bribery taken to court by the board in Amarillo last year, only one has been tried and that resulted in a two-year suspended sentence.

Carr said Texas Rangers have been all over Texas this week serving subpoenas on the following persons: Martha Holland Hill, Negro, Snyder; Anderson Davis Sr. and Anderson Davis Jr., Negroes, Snyder; Homer Whinnand, former deputy sheriff, Snyder; Sam Calloway, Lubbock; Clinton Langford, Lubbock; Bud Foreman, Idalou; Erbert Dalley, Childress, Carl Wynne, Lubbock; Leon Bowman, liquor board deputy supervisor in charge of the Abilene office; Bud Shankles, Lubbock; Bohn Hilliard, Arlington, former head of the board's enforcement division, who resigned about a year ago; Charles Fuller, Floresville, former deputy supervisor in Austin and Lubbock; who resigned about the same time as Hilliard; Clarence Jackson and Jack Grant, both under indictment in Amarillo for bribery of liquor agents.

Also subpoenaed: F. O. Goen, Dallas, formerly in charge of the North Texas division of undercover men for the board, who resigned last year; J. T. Hill, Amarillo, former deputy supervisor at Amarillo; Wayne W. McCormick, Wichita Falls.

J. F. McCrary Dies Suddenly; Funeral Pending

James Frank McCrary, 71, who maintained the cobbler's trademark of quiet dignity and philosophy here for nearly three decades, died suddenly Friday morning. Mr. McCrary went to work Friday at his Electric Shoe Shop at 118 Main as had been his custom almost every day since 1924. When he felt quite ill, he returned home to 806 Douglas. He complained of pain in his chest and fell. Mr. McCrary was dead of coronary occlusion a few minutes later when his physician arrived.

The body will be in state at Eberly Funeral Home pending completion of arrangements. Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church where Mr. McCrary was a member, will officiate. Burial is to be in the city cemetery beside the grave of Mrs. McCrary, who passed away in 1940.

Born near Murfreesboro, Tenn., on Sept. 28, 1881, Mr. McCrary moved his family here in 1924 and opened a shoe repair business. Although he made use of modern machinery, he maintained the flavor and unhurried atmosphere of the old time cobbler's shop. A soft-spoken man, Mr. McCrary occasionally indulged himself in homesy philosophy which earned him a wide circle of friends.

Surviving him are four sons, J. O. McCrary, B. E. (Elvis) McCrary, J. G. (Grady) McCrary, of Big Spring, and W. F. McCrary, San Jose, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Lorenz Gast, Laredo, Mrs. H. C. Hamilton and Mrs. Ray White, Big Spring. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Beulah Donnell, Nashville, Tenn.

Adlai Goes After Texas' 24 Votes In Tour Of State

HST Continues To Poke Away At Eisenhower

By ERNEST B. VACCARO ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP)—President Truman declared today that Dwight D. Eisenhower "appears to be willing to undermine our safety if that will get him elected President."

He asserted that the GOP presidential nominee "is apparently suggesting that we pull our troops out of Korea and let the South Koreans do all the fighting."

The President went on to say, in a campaign address prepared for delivery at Lawrence, Mass., during the second day of a train and automobile stumping tour of New England: "I've never seen anything cheaper in politics. We cannot do what he suggested—without appealing communism in Korea—and he knows it."

The President pushed his drive for Democratic votes in New Hampshire and Massachusetts with increasing intensity after speeches yesterday denouncing GOP criticism of his administration as "misrepresented" and "so many lies."

Encouraged by large and friendly crowds in Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, he set up another heavy schedule of talks taking him into Boston for a major speech at 9:30 p. m., EST, in Symphony Hall.

The President drew about 50,000 in Hartford, capital city of Connecticut; 10,000 each in the Massachusetts cities of Worcester and Springfield; and police estimated 25,000 cheered him on his way through the streets of Manchester, N. H.

Fort Worth Site Of Opening Talk

By DAVE CHEAVENS Associated Press Staff Gov. Adlai Stevenson goes gunning in Texas Friday for Republicans threatening to bag 24 electors who could decide the presidential race.

He steps into the cross-fire of a Democratic revolt that could splinter Texas away from the Solid South for the second time in its political history. Stevenson begins his counter-offensive against a thrust earlier this week by Dwight D. Eisenhower. His first speech is at Fort Worth's Will Rogers Coliseum at 4:30 p. m. CST.

Stevenson Hits GOP 'Isolation'

By JACK BELL SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson declared today that the "best chance for a just and peaceful world" hinges on the results of next month's election. Assuming a humble role in his battle with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, the Illinois governor said in an address prepared for an early morning rally here that "no man on earth can truly measure up to the awful responsibilities of the presidency."

But while he said he was humble in the face of the fact that the voters might make him the next President, Stevenson said he is not uncertain nor hesitant.

"At least my mind is my own mind and I am my own man," he declared in an obvious reference to his charges that Eisenhower has surrendered leadership in the Republican party to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Asserting that the contest between the two major political parties this year involves "not just your prosperity but the best chance for a just and peaceful world," Stevenson declared: "I know that unless we reject the Republican idea of isolationism, we will lose the free world—and with it our struggle for peace."

The Democratic nominee was winding up in San Diego a crucial campaign for California's vital 32 electoral votes. His next stop in today's crowded schedule was Fort Worth, Tex., after a six-hour flight eastward. From there, Stevenson planned to go to Grand Prairie and thence to Dallas for a major speech tonight.

In San Diego, the Illinois governor continued his vigorous assault on Eisenhower as a "disappointing" candidate who has given his endorsement to the whole isolationist team of Republicans. "I know for a fact that in doing so, he has disappointed a lot of Republicans, disappointed them bitterly," Stevenson declared. He has said previously that Eisenhower is widely known and that he, Stevenson, faces an uphill battle in getting the public acquainted with his views on major issues of the day. But he said he feels the people are "deeply wise" and "they know it was the Democratic party that turned back both depression and the enemies of freedom—and the people know their future and their destiny."

OIL PRODUCTION Record Allowable Set For November

By BO BYERS AUSTIN, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Texas Railroad Commission today ordered an increase of 87,547 barrels per day in the Texas oil allowable for November, shooting the permissible flow to another all-time record. The allowable will be 3,372,252 barrels daily. The boost was announced after a state-wide oil hearing at which purchasers split rather evenly on whether production should be increased, decreased or held at the current level.

The jump in production will result from continuing state-wide flow on 23 days and retaining East Texas on 18 days in the 30-day month of November. Because there is one day less in November than in October, continuation of the same number of producing days means a greater average daily allowable. Commission Chairman Olin Culberson indicated he wanted a high rate of production maintained to avoid any chance that a sudden cold spell might catch the nation short on heating oil.

Chest Report Meeting Slated

Another report meeting for Community Chest workers will be held at 4 p. m. S. T. day at Chest headquarters, 1174 Runnels, campaign leaders re-located today.

Workers in 11 divisions are urged to report all contributions and pledges. Drive officials also urge workers to proceed with their assignment: so that every group and individual will be given an opportunity to contribute to the Chest campaign.

Sparking the campaign this week have been T&P Railway employees and local carpenters. Representatives of both groups expect to turn in substantial reports at the Saturday meeting.

Lewis Price and Doug Orme, co-chairmen of the business and industry division of the drive, again request that all B&I workers complete their contacts as quickly as possible so that the Chest quota can be reached shortly.

15 Absentee Votes Cast

Fifteen persons in Howard County had cast absentee ballots through Friday morning, County Clerk Lee Potter said that approximately 100 ballots had been sent to individuals through the mail.

Absentee voting officially began Wednesday, but ballots were not received here until Thursday. Many of the people requesting absentee ballots are local service men now overseas.

The law states that absentee balloting must be limited to individuals who will be out of town on general election day (Nov. 4) or those who are sick. Absentee voting will continue through Oct. 31.

U. S. Charges Russia In Attack On Plane

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—The United States charged today in a note to Moscow that Russian planes made a "wanton and unjustifiable attack" on the American B-29 plane missing off Japan since Oct. 7. The note demanded compensation.

Payment is in order, the U. S. said, both for the loss of the plane and for the lives of any of the crew of eight who may have perished.

The U. S. declared the B-29 was on a routine flight off the northern end of Japan, was entirely unarmed and its officers were under explicit orders to remain within Japanese territory.

Whereas the Russians have continued the U. S. craft violated Soviet frontiers, the U. S. note said the attack actually occurred some six miles from the Japanese island of Hokkaido and 32 miles from Russian-occupied Yori Island.

The sharply worded U. S. note advised Moscow "to consider the grave consequences which can flow from its reckless practice, if persisted in, of attacking without provocation the aircraft of other states."

It rejected the Soviet claim, made in a Russian note of Oct. 12, that the bomber was over Soviet territory and opened fire on two Soviet fighter planes before it disappeared.

Moscow was asked to furnish an immediate report on the results of a search operation believed to have been carried out by a Soviet patrol boat operating from Suibon Island, and to provide full information about any crew members who might have survived.

'Follies' A Success With First Nighters

After getting off to a slow start in the first act, the "Follies of 1952" picked up in the second with some clever skits and racy musical numbers that put the show over with the first night audience Thursday evening.

Dazzling costumes added much to the success of the revue and helped put over some dance numbers that seemed to suffer from creeping paralysis.

Medic Laments Wife's Censure Of The Doctors

SCARSDALE, N. Y., Oct. 17 (AP)—When your wife (or husband) writes a book, the results can be embarrassing.

Today's victim is Dr. Manuel J. Barkins. His spouse, Evelyn, a lawyer and mother of five children, has written another book—her fourth.

This one is entitled "Are These Our Doctors?" and will be published Monday. Its advance publicity bills it as "an expose and debunkment of the medical profession."

Dr. and Mrs. Barkins say the medical profession has reacted violently, even before reading the book. There have been "nasty" telephone calls and the whole thing is "very embarrassing."

The doctor, fearing censure by the American Medical Association, has written the A. M. A. saying he does not approve of the book and doesn't want to be held responsible for it.

"All I want to do is get off the line, off the hook," he lamented in a statement to the publishers. "I just want to make my position clear and get out of the picture."

He said, however, in his letter to the A. M. A. that he was not apologizing for his wife's creative effort, adding:

"No husband anywhere has either the legal or moral right to censure or suppress his wife's independent thinking."

NOT A DROP OF RAIN

Lovely Weather In Texas--For Picnics

By The Associated Press

Friday dawned with a promise of beautiful week-end weather for football fans and picnickers but held little hope for the more practical side of life, weatherwise.

There was no rain, not a drop, over the state and the U. S. Weather Bureau had no signs of any moisture in the foreseeable future.

Dallas, responsible for supplying nearly a half million persons and vast industry with water, was caught with its reservoirs down and faced water rationing again for the third straight year.

In Fort Worth, the Texas section of the American Society of Civil Engineers was in convention after a report was heard Thursday from a committee preparing a suggested water policy for the state.

The ASCA report, when finished, will be turned over to the governor of Texas "as a contribution from the engineers of Texas to the citizens of Texas."

Many citizens, it appeared, would be glad to learn more about the state's water supply. Texans were growing tired of water rationing and the generally short supplies over the state.

In Dallas, the city began immediate water conservation measures Thursday night and was expected to ban lawn sprinkling and such so-called "luxury" uses of water Friday. An emergency session of the Dallas city council was called Thursday to discuss emergency means to make the city's four-month supply of water last until the drought is broken.

Acting City Manager W. S. McDonald ordered the Dallas street cleaning department to stop flushing streets and talked water saving with park officials.

McDonald would not say what steps he would recommend to the

The Man Can't Be Lifted Off The Ferry Boat

HONG KONG, Oct. 17 (AP)—Michael Patrick O'Brien, the Irish-American—Hungarian? who went for a ferry boat ride and can't get off, starts his second month tomorrow on the Hong Kong-Macau seaborne interurban which seems destined to become his permanent residence.

Fortunately O'Brien is not afflicted with seasickness—but oh, is he ever sick of the sea!

He was somewhere there Friday night in the 40-mile stretch between British Hong Kong and Portuguese Macau.

The man called O'Brien slipped aboard the ferry Lee Hong Sept. 8 at Macau, without a ticket. Likewise without passport.

The British turned up their noses at an International Red Cross card identifying O'Brien as a stateless Irishman, aged 57. They didn't question his age.

Back at Macau, the Portuguese matched noses with the British and O'Brien stayed aboard the Lee Hong.

He's been there ever since—Macau to Hong Kong, Hong Kong to Macau . . .

O'Brien says he's a U. S. citizen. The U. S. consulate says he's Hungarian.

The U. N. high commissioner for refugees in Hong Kong says there isn't a thing the United Nations can do. While O'Brien can't prove he belongs to any country, neither can he prove that he is stateless.

That lifts him out of the province of the United Nations. But it doesn't lift him off the ferry boat.

Texas Publisher Says Europe Greatly Interested In Election

TEXARKANA, Oct. 17 (AP)—An informed observer and experienced reporter—Publisher C. E. Palmer—says Europeans are divided on the U. S. presidential race and that he met no one in Europe who thinks war is imminent.

Palmer, recently returned from an European visit, is publisher of the Texarkana Gazette and Daily News and several other newspapers.

Most of his time in Europe, he said yesterday, was spent in talking over world conditions with European business men.

"There is great interest in all European countries in our presidential election," Palmer said. "Many seem to have a sincere respect and affection for General Eisenhower and would like to see him have the honor of being President. They feel that he has a thorough understanding of their problems and they know they can work with him. On the other hand, many fear that if Eisenhower is elected, very substantial cuts may be made in American assistance."

Palmer said that while great progress had been made in restoring of the war-damaged countries, such progress did not appear to him to be in proportion to the amount of money which had been spent in Europe.

He said there is no question that West Germany had made the greatest progress towards recovery.

"West Germany is very prosperous," he said. "There is practically no unemployment and much new construction going on. This is understandable when it is taken into account that they have no reparations to pay and no army to maintain. It seems to me that Canada is probably the most prosperous country in the world, with West Germany a close second and probably Switzerland or the United States third."

He said he received the impression Germany seems headed for sincere co-operation with the West in defense and in an economic union of Europe.

"While they ardently desire a reunion with East Germany," he said, "it is pretty generally recognized that with the present attitude of the Russians, this is impossible."

Palmer said he met no one in Europe who thought war was imminent. But he said all realize that Russia is "calling the tune and the free world is dancing."

The publisher said he got the impression that the danger of any of the free European countries going Communist had about passed.

Discussing England, the publisher said that he was inclined to think that unless Winston Churchill makes some grievous error, his government will fill out its five years at least.

"The outlook for England is very gloomy," he said, "but knowing the English people and their solid character, one cannot but believe that she will in some way solve her major difficulties. The trend

BALTIMORE (AP)—George Edward Grammer takes the stand again today to tell his version of the talks he had with police officers the night before he was charged with the mysterious death of his wife.

Although the state has not completed its case, the 25-year-old defendant is being put on the witness stand, his attorney said, to repudiate testimony yesterday of three officers who were with him when he made a statement on Aug. 31.

The content of the statement probably will be made public during the day.

Grammer, manager of a New York metals firm, was formally charged with the death of his wife, Dorothy May, 11 days after she was pulled out of her wrecked car, deep gash on her head.

Dr. Russell S. Fisher, state medical examiner, said she was fatally beaten. The state contends her body was sent down a sloping hill in her car so her death would be blamed on an auto accident.

Dr. Fisher said she could not have received the fatal injuries in the wreck alone.

The state contends Grammer killed his wife so he could marry a 28-year-old Canadian secretary, Mathilda Mizibrocky, with whom he was "hopelessly in love."

Detective Lt. John F. Hettchen yesterday told Judge Herman M. Moser, hearing the case without a jury, that Grammer made a statement concerning his wife's death freely and of his own volition the night of Aug. 31.

Grammer, on the stand earlier, said he made up a statement after two days of questioning so he could get home and have some decent food and some sleep.

The "other" woman may take the stand late today. State's Atty. Anselm Sodaro in his opening remarks said Miss Mizibrocky would testify that Grammer planned to marry her and had not told her he already was married and the father of three daughters.

Dr. Pepper paid 15-cent per share dividends on March 3, June 1, and Sept. 1 this year.

A Bible Thought For Today—

We all have known a few men and women of whom this can be said, but the world needed them even tho it crucified them. We should do kindness for love of God to whom we owe all. "Of whom the world was not worthy." — Heb. 11:38.

It Takes Desire To Give Truly Toward The Welfare Of Others

Here in the final stages of the Community Chest campaign, with well over $10,000 needed to reach the goal, a clearer definition of the meaning of our gifts might be appropriate.

Topics, monthly magazine of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, writes: "Sometimes, in trying to describe something typically American, we use an old, worn-out expression like 'As American as apple pie,' or 'As American as baseball.'"

"Yet, neither apple pie nor baseball is 'typically' American. Neither is any other institution or idea, with one exception. This exception is our organized system of providing for our local charitable and social agencies through a once-a-year fund drive known as the Community Chest."

And from Horizons, publication of Abilene Christian College, come these observations: "There is no land on earth where so many give so much to others."

"Millions of other lands were but yesterday, as history goes, our armed enemies, yet today receive food and clothing from the American people. In every city, town and hamlet on every day of the year, people volunteer their time for the public welfare.

"America's millions are able to help others because they have been so plentifully blessed with this world's goods. Yet, there are countless gifts that are genuine sacrifices."

"One must have both the means and desire if he is to give freely and out of the charity of his heart for the welfare of others."

"It is not vain to say that the American people are the most charitable in today's world. Why is this? We believe that it is true because the founders of our nation, believing in God and His Son, imbedded principles of the Sermon on the Mount into the Constitution of the United States and into the hearts and minds of our people."

In this spirit, give generously to the Community Chest, and let us give promptly and without begging.

Some Answer Must Be Found For Reducing Our Physical Unfitness

The increasing need for manpower in Korea may bring to the fore, before this campaign is ended on November 4, the question of farm deferment for draftees. Already it has been broached in Wisconsin, where Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, a Democrat, charges that the state selective service director, appointed by Republican Governor Kohler, has been drafting farm boys out of proportion to other classifications. Governor Kohler hotly denied the charge.

With "well over a million men" forecast as the need for next year, farm workers may well begin to feel the pinch. If the pinch does come, it is sure to start a bitter argument over whether it is better to draft producers of the nation's food, or youngsters of similar age who merely want to go to college. Offhand, there doesn't seem to be much room for argument there. There might, however, be room for argument over fulfillment of deferment terms. Students are required to keep up their grades, or lose deferment. Youngsters deferred on the ground of essential farm work should be required to prove that they are doing just that.

Meantime, the greatest drain on the nation's potential military manpower is unfitness of the draftees. Current figures show that 42 per cent of draft eligibles have been rejected during the Korean war — a perfectly appalling figure. This is an increase of six per cent over the percentage for World War II. Moreover, much younger men are being drafted now.

The standards, we are told, are about the same as for World War II, so we are to conclude that the specimens being produced for the draft now are simply not up to the manhood of the 1940s.

There must be an answer to this somewhere. Why is the best-fed, best-clothed and best-housed people on earth producing so many substandard physical specimens? A nation of sports of all kinds, where every boy plays some sort of game, has no business compiling such a record of unfitness as is indicated in the fact that 42 out of every 100 is found unfit for military service.

Gallup Poll

November Turnout Of 55 Million Indicated By N. Y. Registration

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 17—If the New York City voter registration completed last week is as good an index of voter interest this year as in past years, the turnout on Election day throughout the country will be about 6 million greater than in 1948 or 1944.

The New York City figures point to a turnout for the nation of approximately 55 million, which would be about 56 per cent of the entire civilian population of voting age.

Although indications are that the vote in 1952 will represent the largest turnout in the history of American politics, it is still substantially below a 60 million vote figure regarded as a normal turnout this year based upon 1936 and 1940 trends, and taking into account the increase in the adult population since 1940.

This year would compare as follows with other years:

Year	Vote	% of Adult Population
1952	55,000,000*	56%
1948	46,794,009	52
1944	47,574,868	54
1940	49,901,835	59

(*estimated)

The reason why New York City provides a good barometer of turnout is that personal registration is required for each election. The period of registration comes near enough to Election day to reflect interest in the approaching election. The estimated 55 million turnout is a projection, based upon the trends indicated by registration figures for New York City in presidential and in congressional election years.

The New York registration totalled 3,519,471 this year. The estimated 55 million vote figure applies to the civilian vote only and does not include any ballots cast by members of the Armed Forces.

In March of this year, based upon an index of relative interest in the coming election on the part of both men and women voters, the Institute estimated a turnout of 55 million.

Goal Set at 63 Million
The probable turnout Nov. 4 is a matter of unusual interest and speculation this year because of the most intensive get-out-the-vote drive in history.

Civic, business, and political groups have all pitched in to work for a record turnout. The original goal, as set by the American Heritage Foundation, was 63 million voters.

Republican leaders are claiming that the increased interest this year represents a protest vote against the Democrats. The Democrats, on the other hand, think it foreshadows a larger turnout of Democratic party supporters.

Whatever the cause, the fact remains that even with a 55 million turnout this year, the United States will lag far behind the voting records of other major democracies.

Machines Improved The Plays

The Greek theater grew up out-of-doors. The stage was in the open air and so were the seats for the audience. As time went on, there came to be enough seats for thousands of persons.

Money was granted from public treasuries to build theaters on hillsides and elsewhere. If rain fell, there was trouble but many days in the year were clear and fair. The Greek climate was then (as it is today) mild enough for outdoor gatherings during most months of the year.

Tents, or buildings, were provided behind the stage, or at one side, for actors to use in changing clothing. There were many changes of costume after Greek plays were made longer, and more interesting.

Some plays were about gods who were supposed to come down from the sky. Aeschylus, one of the writers of plays, felt that there should be a way to show this happening before the eyes of the audience. He asked that a crane be placed behind the stage, at the left side.

The crane was hidden to a large extent by a high piece of scenery. The audience knew it was there, however, and spoke of "the god out of the machine." The machine was used to make it seem that a god went back to the sky, as well as coming down from it. Heroes, including Hercules, also were made to appear and vanish in this way.

The Greeks believed in several gods besides those which were supposed to live on Mount Olympus. These included the god of the sea and gods of rivers. When one of the "water gods" came into the play, he arose to the stage through a trapdoor.

Some plays called for lightning and thunder. To supply lightning, clever men designed mirrors which could be turned; the mirrors provided flashes of light from sunshine. There also was a "thunder machine," to supply rolling or crashing noises.

The time came when every city in Greece, also some small towns, had one or more theaters. The seats for the audience were made of wood at first, but long rows of stone seats were built in later centuries.

Harriman Explains How Trade With Russia, Or Lack Of It, Is A Weapon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The word "trade" is about as unemotional as any in the language, which is why, perhaps, nothing much has been said about it in his presidential campaign although the campaign has been full of talk about dealing with Russia.

And trade with Russia, or rather the lack of it, is one of the major weapons in the cold war, as W. Averell Harriman, director of the Mutual Security Agency, pointed out in a report this week. His organization is successor to the old Marshall Plan.

The latter was created to give economic help to Europe which, had it remained flat and broke, might have been taken over by Russia without firing a shot.

It might seem that, since this country and its allies were in a cold war with Russia, and both sides were building up their armaments which might be used any day in a shooting war, all trade would cease between the West and Russia.

It might seem ridiculous that any country allied with the U. S. or receiving help from this country would at the same time be trading with Russia. But in his report Harriman said "cutting off trade entirely would harm our common defense effort more than it harms the potential aggressor."

He said other non-Communist countries receive from the Soviet bloc "commodities that are extremely valuable to their own defense efforts and economic stability on which their defense is based."

But while some kind of trade with Russia might be all right—trade in items that didn't help Russia's war machine—this country had the problem of being sure Russia didn't get war materials from other western sources.

So the U. S. had to work out arrangements with the countries getting American help to control shipments to Russia. To be doubly sure about it, Congress passed a law—called the Battle Act—making it mandatory for this country to shut off any aid to a country exporting war goods to Russia.

This same law also said American help to any country should be shut off—unless the president decided otherwise—if it exported to Russia materials of strategic value—like petroleum and certain kinds of transportation equipment—that could be used to produce war goods.

Harriman said that for several years the important free world nations "have refused without any exception the shipment to the Soviet bloc of arms, ammunition, implements of war, or atomic energy materials."

The Battle Act went into effect last January. Harriman's report was an explanation of how the act has been carried out. Between January and July he said there were only three cases of countries shipping forbidden goods to Russia.

One case involved equipment for exploring for oil; another, a grinding machine; and the third, a tank er. But they were in the group which permitted the President to use his own discretion about shutting off aid. For various reasons, which Harriman explained at length, the President decided not to shut off American aid to the three countries: The Netherlands, Italy, and Denmark.

But this country and its allies weren't able to draw up a list of items which wouldn't go to Russia and stop there. The list is under steady examination and revision to meet changing stautoin involving both the West and Russia.

And yesterday—as if telling this country they could get along fine in war production no matter what we did about controlling trade with them—the Russians said they could convert their peacetime industry to a war basis in a short time and turn out everything needed for their Army and Navy.

In his report Harriman made it clear this country didn't expect to stop Russia's war production—since it has most of the basic raw material it needs. But he said he did think export controls might slow it up. At least, the controls won't help it.

Pretty Jazzy Time Held At The Hardware Show

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—All in all, I had a rather jazzy time at the National Hardware Show.

I met some lovely young blondes who know even less about hardware than I do, but more about hardware men. I talked with three talented mynah birds who tried to sell me electrical appliances. I also watched a gripping puppet show and picked up a free sample of "Scru-tite screw anchors."

All was relatively quiet in putty knives, plungers and peat moss, but at the next booth a man said I'd be surprised what they're doing these days with dowsing jigs, ratchet tap wrenches, feeler gages, trammel points and repairmen's reamers.

Moving from power drills with an attachment for mixing whisky sours or cake batter, I met a well-formed blonde coming down the aisle.

She wore a string of pearls, pearl earrings, black turtle-neck sweater, black shorts, high-heeled shoes and across her chest a sash indicating her heart belonged to "Elmer paint brushes."

Rather bored with the question, the young lady said she wasn't supposed to know anything about brushes. She was just supposed to walk around. Most hardware men, she admitted, are nice but hardware wits don't flee from the obvious. Item: "You won't give me a fast brush, will you? Item: 'Can we paint the town red?'"

Over the roar of power saws, drills and hammers, a strange whistling drew me to the Westinghouse booth featuring three talking mynah birds named "Tevee" and "Acee" and "Deece."

"Acee" and "Deece" occupied a duplex cage with built-in microphones. A lady led them through some enchanting dialogue in which they said they were fine, darling, meowed like cats, whistled like a man wolf and said goodbye in a male and then, an octave higher, in a female voice.

Pulling a curtain off a third cage, the lady asked "Tevee" about Westinghouse and the bird said,

"I'm fine, darling, how are you?" The lady said she was fine and how about Westinghouse and the bird said, after a tense moment, "You can be sure if it's Westinghouse."

"It took me a whole year to teach him the full commercial," the lady said.

In another booth, I watched the "Pat Percy Puppets" act out "Hardware Hilarity," which really had little hilarity until after some complications and tense moments the little hardware dealer finally won his girl by selling a lot of "Skill portable tools."

Among the lawn mowers, seeders and sprayers, another model showed up in a strapless ballerina costume. She wore an "Apex garden hose" sash and gave away lollipops. "Hardware men," she said, "are noisier than electrical engineers."

On my way out, I stumbled over a small sled with wheels on the runners. This is for underprivileged kids of Beverly Hills and Palm Beach who may be denied snow but not the thrill of bellywhoppers.

Around The Rim—The Herald Staff

This Doesn't Seem Silly After We Consider Political Happenings

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald.—Editor's Note.

Someone pops up and speculates on the political significance, if any, of practically everything that happens these days, which causes us to ponder the episode of the deputy sheriff and the elephant Tuesday night.

In case you missed it, a woman called the law to investigate when she discovered an elephant loitering in her yard. Of course the elephant belonged to a carnival that had set up shop near by, which provides a perfectly logical explanation.

But, the elephant being more than a mere animal in one sense of the word, especially this year, there should be an undertone of politics somewhere in the incident.

No doubt th Winchells, the Pearsons, the Heaters, the Kallenborns, etc., could spot it immediately from their vantage points thousands of miles away.

Frankly, we have no such powers of perception, but our imagination can function fairly well on some occasions. First we considered contacting Frank Hardesty, the staunch Democrat, and Al Dillon, the GOP campaign headmaster for our county, and asking them for comment. Then we reconsidered and simply put our imagination to work and began to speculate on what they probably would say if they were contacted.

"I can easily understand why that woman was excited—it probably was caused by fear," the imaginary Hardesty declared. "Who wouldn't be frightened to wake in the middle of the night and see an elephant trespassing on his property. I think it is significant that this incident came about during hours of darkness—camouflage, if you please. Darkness—that's something millions of American people have come to associate with elephants."

Enter, the imaginary Mr. Dillon: "It just illustrates how active the elephant is becoming here in 1952. I believe it was reported that the elephant uprooted a stake. That sounds like the elephant was liberating itself from bondage. A lot of people are looking for elephants to do just that on a much bigger scale this year."

Both of our imaginary party leaders then dash away to notify their respective national headquarters of this astounding new development. Dr. Gallup begins to sharpen his pencil to make a new survey to determine if the American people would rather have an elephant in their yards than a donkey or a black cat. One of the noted commentators expresses doubt that it really was an elephant—"It's hard to distinguish between an elephant and a donkey in Texas this year," he reminds.

Another is certain that it was an elephant, but thinks it probably would have turned into a donkey if it had been permitted to remain free until the sun came up.

Still another commentator is cautious, requesting additional information before issuing an authoritative opinion. "What a type of campaign button was this animal wearing when found?" he boldly asks.

And so we're off to an imaginary piece of chain reaction, which perhaps doesn't sound so silly, after all, considering some of the things that really have happened and will happen in the campaign. —WACIL McNAIR.

These Days—George Sokolsky

Persons Who Root For Candidate And Then Desert Him Are Scored

A most dishonest and irresponsible crew are those busy beavers who before the Chicago convention devoted themselves day and night to the cause of Eisenhower and who, immediately upon his nomination, took off their false faces and reverted to Stevenson. They lied not only to the American people but to General Eisenhower.

I was recently looking at a list of the excited numbers who gave their all for Eisenhower at that celebrated Eisenhower fiesta at Madison Square Garden, when his campaign for the nomination was launched, to note how many of these light-minded Broadway moths switched from Eisenhower to Stevenson as they had switched from Willkie to Roosevelt.

I have never understood why any candidate for public office would want these mannequins about him, anyhow. The fact that God and a masseuse give a gal a pulchritude that has sales value does not even remotely imply that she can understand a political problem. These unfortunate exhibitionists we can ignore because the best that can be said of them is that they like to be where the lights are brightest and the noise loudest.

A more disreputable element in this switch are the Park Avenue liberals and the socially-minded business men who have reverted to the new deal after invading the Republican party to which they crave no affiliation. They now admit that their pre-Chicago activities were designed to eliminate Taft and, having done that, they have no further use for Eisenhower.

Actually, they do not affect or influence a vote one way or the other. If Eisenhower wins in the election, it will be without the vote of New York City, if Stevenson wins, he will owe nothing, except minor contributions, to Park Avenue. Many of these rich folks base all their political notions on what they euphemistically call "The foreign policy," because it means continued vast expenditures by the government. Their sole interest in America seems to be based on how much of the taxpayer's money can be spent in Europe. They fear that Eisenhower has asserted his preference for his own country.

I shall receive letters complaining that all who live on Park Avenue are not like that—which is, of course, true. Park Avenue has become a symbol for that curiosity in the genus homo who calls himself a liberal and thrives on reducing American interests to those of Europe.

Confucius, many centuries ago, must have encountered this confused type, for he wrote complainingly about them. He said: "The ancients who wished to illustrate illustrious virtue throughout the kingdom, first ordered well their own states. Washing to order well their states, they first regulated their families. Wishing to regulate their families; they first cultivated the persons. Wishing to cultivate their persons, they first rectified their hearts. Wishing to rectify their hearts, they first sought to be sincere in their thoughts. Wishing to be sincere in their thoughts, they first extended to the utmost their knowledge. . . ."

"Things," he said, "have their root and their branches." A regard for honor and loyalty and responsibility is a fundamental of any civilization and bearing false witness—lying—is repugnant to all decent people. The easy-going political playboy, whose judgments are based on café society wisdom and whose activities are the product of barroom plots and schemes and stratagems, is a menace to the well-being of our nation because he interjects himself and his money and his synthetic and temporary prestige into affairs beyond his understanding.

I have discussed this campaign with a number of these changelings and have reached the conclusion that most of them lack political perception. That is why so many of them allied themselves during the 1930's and 1940's to Communist and other subversive activities. They were never Communists because that requires knowledge and decision. Dr. J. B. Matthews invented the term "fellow-traveler" for them. Perhaps a better term would be "style-chasers."

That such should be political leaders in an era of crisis is unfortunate for our country. No Hamiltons or Jeffersons or Websters or Clays are among them, but Talullah Bankhead suddenly emerges as an outstanding political philosopher and evangelist.

I should imagine that General Eisenhower feels clearer for having come rid of them. At any rate, I shall find it easier to vote for him knowing that they have deserted him.

Elderly Newlyweds Miss The Family

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—A pair of newlyweds in their 80s have one regret—"We can't have a family."

Mrs. Ethel Crawford Jones, 81, and William Jones, 86, were married recently at Centralia, Ill. Neither had children of first marriages. Their first mates died a few years ago.

Mrs. Jones commented: "About having a family, we feel young enough to take care of one."

Door-Stealer Jailed

HONG KONG (AP)—Lee Long, a strong but unemployed Chinese, was brought into Court for stealing an iron door from an iron works.

"You seem so fond of iron doors," said Magistrate D. K. Greenfield, "that I shall put you behind one for one month." And he did.

Success Secrets Sought By Group

NEW YORK (AP)—A group to study the secrets of business success has been formed by the presidents of 24 corporations from various parts of the country.

Known as the Committee to Encourage Enterprise, it will survey ways to encourage risk capital to give small corporations more support. John M. Fox, president of the Minute Maid Corp., is chairman.

Fox said his group wants to combat the steady decline in formation of new corporations since 1946.

Filipinos Need Fish

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines government wants Filipino fishermen to go in for deep-sea fishing so the country can stop importing fish.

Dr. D. Villadolid, head of the Bureau of Fisheries, says Filipinos confine their operations to Philippine waters, which "are poor in fish."

"There is practically no limit to where we can go to fish in international waters," he said. "Some of the international fishing grounds are surprisingly close to our home ports."

GAME BEGINS AT 9

Steers Slight Favorites To Defeat Ysleta Tribe

A victory-hungry team of Big Spring Steers makes its longest trip of the season today, motoring to Ysleta where tonight it meets that city's gridders. Kickoff time is 9 o'clock, Big Spring time.

The Longhorns appeared confident of returning to winning ways in this one, when they departed via bus at 5:30 o'clock this morning. They're favored to bring home the bacon, by most observers.

Ysleta is fielding one of its weaker teams in recent years but a team that is still capable of upsetting an apple cart every now and then.

The youngster capable of lighting a fire cracker under the Longhorns is little Henry Dutchover, a 150-pounder who is best in a broken field. If he ever gets in the open, he's as hard to bring down as a Texas jackrabbit.

Dutchover has learned to pass, too, they say. Pass defense has been one of the big weaknesses in the Big Spring pattern.

The Steers gave Brownwood quite a tussle after falling four touchdowns behind last week. They finally lost, 33-21, but not before Brownwood came to realize it had been in a battle.

Bobby Hayworth will again direct the Big Spring attack. J. C. Armistead will be the locals' top running threat and will get a little assistance from such operatives as Doyle Maynard, James Hollis, Billy Martin, Ted Scott, Brick Johnson, Donald Mac Richardson and others.

The Steers will field a heavier and perhaps more experienced line than the Warriors.

Of the Ysleta players who will see action tonight, six were regulars on the club that drubbed Big Spring, 40-0, last year. They are Forrest Cooper, Elizarlo Loya, Dutchover, Ray McCormick, Rudy Resendez and Tom Spidel.

Salvador Arzola and Rodney Brunson, up from the B team, lend Dutchover a lot of help in the backfield.

Ysleta operates from the Single Wing and the Spread. The Indians won seven and lost two games a year ago.

Probably starters: YSLETA—Raymon Harlas and Paul Derral, ends; John Lane and Tom Spidel, tackles; Alan Marshall and Ray McCormick, guards; Elizarlo Loya, center; Henry Dutchover, Forrest Coope, Joe Candalaria and Rodney Brunson, backs.

BIG SPRING — Raymond Gilstrap and Wayne Medlin or Jimmy Porter, ends; Jimmy Ellison and Carlisle Robison, tackles; Bill Dorsey and Jackie Millam, guards; Norman Dudley, center; Bobby Hayworth, Doyle Maynard, Billy Martin and J. C. Armistead, backs.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Carl Coleman, head football man at Big Spring High School, figures he should have one of the better pass defenses in this area by 1953. He's converting Jimmy Porter into a defensive halfback, mainly because Jim rides tall in the saddle. As his other defensive half, Coleman has Carlisle Robison, the defensive demon who intercepted three of Leonardus Fry's passes in Brownwood last week.

Porter is only a junior, Robison a sophomore. That combination should start paying dividends this year. Porter can be moved into the backfield because Coleman has Lefty Don Reynolds and Roger Brown returning in '53 to man the end posts. They should be as good as the best by next fall.

Sonny Wimberly is a youngster you may be hearing a lot about before long. Sonny, now playing for the Big Spring High School B team, is one of the fastest backs wearing a local uniform, and he's only a sophomore. He teams with Ronnie Wooten, Tommy McAdams and Nugent Reid to give the Dogs a fine backfield.

Give a liberal amount of the credit for the resurgence of the Big Spring Steers to Assistant Coach Wayne Bonner, who has that knack for getting along with the boys.

Bonner, recently named to succeed Larry McCulloch as head basketball coach, should fill Mac's shoes adequately.

RUTHERFORD HAS MUSTANG CAGERS WORKING Down Sweetwater way, Bennie Rutherford, once of Our Town, already has his high school capers going through their paces.

Rutherford inherited a wealth of material at Sweetwater and is dead set on winning the District 1-AAA title his first year at the helm.

His mainstay will be Carl Anderson, 6-foot-6, who passed up football to play the cage game.

Bernie Bierman, who fielded some of Minnesota University's greatest football teams, is now an "advisor" on the UM athletic staff at a fixed salary of $250 a month.

He increases his stipend by writing football pieces for a St. Paul newspaper.

Gorgeous George, the grappler, isn't hitting the papers these days because he's a former world wrestling tour.

George once wrestled here while using the name given him at birth, George Wagner. He since has had it legally changed to Gorgeous George.

INTERCEPTIONS HURT Yearlings Beaten By Colts, 25 To 0

SWEETWATER — The Sweetwater Colts used Big Spring fumbles and passes to help defeat the Yearlings in a junior high school football game here Thursday night, 25-0.

The Yearlings, coached by Earl Peeler and Harold B-nitely, more or less dominated offensive fireworks in the last half but two intercepted aeriels enabled the Colts to go all the way.

Harold Hobbs scored three touchdowns for the Sweetwater team and Ray Allen one.

Sweetwater recovered a Big Spring fumble on the Yearling 30-yard stripe and drove the distance in seven plays for the first half's only touchdown, with Hobbs going over.

Hobbs then went 45 yards on an intercepted pass. Allen raced 70 yards after plucking a Yearling aerial out of the ozone and then Hobbs accepted a pass thrown from a teammate and galloped 75 yards for the fourth Sweetwater tally.

Larry Hodnett looked to best advantage among the Big Spring backs, despite the fact that he was favoring an injury.

Jerry Graves, center; Bob Fuller, end; and John Davenport, tackle, were among those showing to fine advantage for the Big Springers.

In a previous game at Big Spring, Sweetwater had nudged the Yearlings, 13-12.

The Yearlings next see action a week from Saturday, at which time they play Bowie of Odessa in Odessa.

Her Cardinal tally in the third. Joe Graves followed with a 21-yard touchdown sprint.

Charles Rinehart counted for Hermleigh in the fourth on a ten-yard dash. Gerald Johnson booted while Bill Houston got one.

The Bulldogs could count only five first downs against the rugged Hermleigh line and never did threaten seriously.

B Game Moved Up To 2 P. M.

The Big Spring-Sweetwater B football game, originally scheduled as a night attraction here, has been moved up to 2 p. m. Saturday.

The Shorthors will be gunning for their second win of the season and seeking to avenge a one-touchdown defeat suffered at the hands of Sweetwater in an earlier contest.

Big Spring has won from Snyder and lost to A teams of Stanton and Seagraves in other starts.

Probable starters for Big Spring will be Joe Liberty and Don Washburn at ends, Dean Porter and Bob Jones at tackles, Dickie Millam and Ray Shaw at guards, J. W. Thompson at center and Tommy McAdams, Ronnie Wooten, Nugent Reid and Sonny Wimberly in the backfield.

Jones is the heaviest boy in the Big Spring forward wall, at 210 pounds. Porter tips in at 190, as does Thompson.

The Dogle backfield is light, however. McAdams, at 150 pounds, is the heaviest. Wimberly weighs 145, Wooten and Reid 140 each.

Tommy Hinson, who the Big Spring Head Coach, Carl Coleman, tutored at Stamford High, will bring the Sweetwater team here. Bennie Rutherford, ex-HJC cage mentor, helps Hinson.

UPSETS ARE FEW

Defense Has Come Into Own In Collegiate Grid Play

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—This 1952 college football season, which has not even reached the half-way point has shown at least two unusual tendencies: (A) there have been few upsets, and (B) defense has become THE thing.

The teams that were thought to have the power at the start of the season generally have come through. Perhaps the biggest reversal of form to date was Pitt's triumph over Notre Dame last week. But the Irish were not considered any great shakes.

Wisconsin got beaten by Ohio State in another upset but there again the Buckeyes always were tough and not too many observers (outside Wisconsin) were actually startled.

The others all were strictly minor, a surprising situation in these days of teams facing major opponents without warmup games—or even without spring practice.

As for defense, since the two-platoon system went into effect, the kids who tried to hold the enemy were the untuning heroes. Some of them, in fact, weren't even heroes. They were just un-tuning. Period.

But it was the defense that licked Wisconsin for Ohio State. It was Penn's defense that held off Princeton and enabled the Quakers to snap the Tigers' 24-game winning streak, and it is the defensive platoon that's carrying Southern California.

Well, there's no guarantee that those trends will continue hereafter when virtually every team in the country moves into action.

Groom Dies, 25 Horses Missing

CHESTER, W. Va. (AP)—A Negro groom trying to lead horses to safety from flame-filled barns died and at least five horses are missing as the result of a roaring blaze which swept through a large section of the Waterford Race Track stables.

The flames broke out during the running of the seventh race yesterday. Nearly 4,000 spectators were asked to stay in their seats a half-mile away as grooms and other track employees rushed to release frightened horses.

About four hours after the blaze had started firemen found the body of William Toppacott, 45, near one of the eight leveled stables.

Jockey Tim O'Harrington, 25, of Shreveport, La., suffered rib injuries when he was knocked down by a fleeing horse.

There were 359 horses stabled in the barns which were destroyed. Many fled over the countryside and some are still being rounded up. It will probably be late today before it can be ascertained if any of the missing horses were destroyed in the blaze.

Origin of the fire could not be determined immediately.

Lubbock Is Happy Over Turnouts

LUBBOCK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Colleges of the Southwest are moaning about the drop in football attendance this season—but they won't get any sympathy from Lubbock High School or its supporters.

The Westerners, defending state Class AAA champions, have already played before some 33,000 persons in three home games.

Largest single home crowd was last week when 20,000 saw Lubbock and Odessa. Nonconference games with Highland Park and Plainview drew 18,000 and 17,000 respectively.

Attendance is likely to drop to a mere 10,000 tonight when the Westerners play winless San Angelo but another 20,000 sellout is virtually assured when the Lubbock team returns home on Thanksgiving Day to close out the schedule against traditional rival Amarillo.

Tourney Medalist On The Tee

WITH AN 83

Billie Dillon Gains Medal Laurels In Fem Tourney

Mrs. Billie Dillon won medal honors in the annual Big Spring Country Club Women's Golf Tournament Thursday with an 83. Women's par is 74. She beat Lois Hodges and Inez Roden by two strokes. Billie trailed Mrs. Hodges by a stroke after nine holes when Lois responded with a 40. Mrs. Hodges ran into trouble on the 14th and 15th holes, however, and her score ballooned to a 45 when she had to accept a five on the par-three 17th. Six players rate the title flight in pairings drawn up by Pro Shirley Robbins. Twenty players are in the field but Robbins arranged it so that linksters of near-equal ability would be playing against one another. Mrs. Roden, who qualified earlier in the week and, for that reason, wasn't eligible to try for the medal prize, was included in the top bracket, along with Wanda Griffith, Tot Stallcup and Bernice Jordan. Mrs. Roden and Mrs. Jordan draw the first round byes while

Mrs. Hodges squares off with Mrs. Stallcup and Mrs. Dillon has it out with Mrs. Garner. There'll be a first flight and a beginners' flight, with the latter having eight players. Match play will get underway at 1 p. m. today. Semi-finals are down for Saturday and finals on Sunday. Mrs. Hodges is the defending champion and as good a bet as any to repeat, but she has her work cut out for her, since she is in the bracket with Mrs. Stallcup and Mrs. Roden. First round pairings: CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT (Entry listed with qualifying score) Lois Hodges 85 vs Tot Stallcup 101; Inez Roden 85, bye; Billie Dillon 83 vs Wanda Garner 107; Bernice Jordan 97, bye. FIRST FLIGHT Virginia Wright vs Edith Liles; Mary Nell Hatch bye; Wynona French vs Norman Griffin; Flora Bell Wright bye. BEGINNERS' FLIGHT Mary George Orr vs Mildred Rule; Jeana Hutto vs Jody Sabatto;

Christine Coughlin vs Madeline Atkins; Faye Morgan vs Jane Haller.

Hoppe Retires At Age Of 65

CHICAGO, Ill. — The strain of tournament competition has done what no billiard expert could achieve in the last 46 years — make Willie Hoppe quit.

HOPPE

At the age of 65, the silvery-haired cue-master has announced his retirement from the tourney trail which he ruled with a matchless invincibility. Thus, a sports era closes, locking in Hoppe as the last of the great champions of the golden 20s that included Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones and Jack Dempsey. He retires as sports' longest reigning champion, a holder of a world's billiard title of one kind or another since 1906. With a collection of 51 championships, Hoppe has monopolized his field like no other sports figure in history.

He overwhelmed opponents of the ballgame and angle with an outward mein of calculating coolness. But the tenseness with which the mid-mannered, well-groomed little man trained and competed vibrated within him. It only began to show several years ago. "A new, jumpy feeling swept over me," Hoppe explained. "And when I won the three-cushion title last March in San Francisco I got some spells with my heart. It palpitated. Sure, it scared me. Took a lot out of me."

Jordan Due Back As Rocket Boss?

It is probable that Tom Jordan will return to the Longhorn League as manager of the Roswell Rockets in 1953. Tom, one-time catcher for the St. Louis Browns, purchased his release as boss of the Austin Pioneers Thursday and expressed a hope he could return to the Longhorn League. He managed Roswell three years ago and was the league batting champion in 1950. His home is in Roswell.

San Angelo is apt to make a determined bid for Jordan's services, however. There has been no indication Alex Monchak will return to Roswell as manager. The Rockets failed to finish in the first division under the ailing Al last season.

Women who will bowl for City Plumbing include Lockey Beach, Vera Dozier, Piri Stein, Beulah Johnson and Ruth Young.

Texas Cup Tests Slated Saturday

DALLAS, Oct. 17 (AP)—The 19th Texas Cup Matches, sending the top professionals against a picked amateur team, open tomorrow at Lakewood Country Club. Doubles competition will feature the first day with Texas PGA Champion Jack Harden of El Paso and runner-up Ray Gafford of Dallas opposing Billy Maxwell of Odessa, former National Amateur Champion, and Don January of Dallas in the opening match. There will be six doubles matches. Also tomorrow will see Ben Hogan, the little king of professional golf, in an exhibition. Hogan, the Texan who won all the awards golf had to offer and was voted the greatest professional of all time, will pair with Don Addington, Dallas amateur, in playing Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, the famed comedians appearing in a show at the State Fair of Texas. All proceeds from the cup matches will go to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children. Several thousand dollars already have been raised and advance ticket sales for the matches indicate there will be a big crowd at Lakewood for the golf show. Here are the pairings for the doubles matches tomorrow: Billy Maxwell, Odessa, and Don January, Dallas, amateurs, vs Jack Harden, El Paso, and Ray Gafford, professionals; Billy Erffurth, San Antonio, and Everett Vinzan, Wichita Falls, amateurs, vs Harry Todd, Dallas, and Bill Trombley, Dallas, professionals; Joe Conrad, San Antonio, and Wesley Ellis, San Antonio, amateurs, vs Fred Hawkins, El Paso, and Chuck Klein, San Antonio, professionals; Buster Reed, Dallas, and Ed Hopkins, Abilene, amateurs, vs Byron Nelson, Roanoke, and Iverson Marton, Fort Worth, professionals; L. GARDEN CITY RESERVES REGISTER 20-13 WIN

GARDEN CITY — In a battle of B six-man football teams, Garden City turned back Klondike, 20-13, here Thursday night. Garden City broke in front when the Bearkats picked up a safety early in the game. Shortly thereafter, Marion Carter raced 63 yards for a Garden City score. Klondike came right back to count when Bob Mitchell passed to Tommy Martin for 38 yards and a tally. The same combination added the extra point and Klondike trailed by a score of only 8-7. In the second, Klondike took a brief lead when Mitchell hurried a touchdown pass to Robert Martin. The Eagles were in command, 13-8. On the following kickoff, Carter hurried 65 yards for the TD that put Garden City back out in front, 14-13. That's the way it remained until the third period, when Don Davidson flipped on a lateral pass to L. T. Nelson and the latter cruised 75 yards for another Garden City score. There was no scoring in the third period but Tommy Martin almost put Klondike back in the ball game on a 50-yard gallop. Carter finally brought him down on the 16. On Saturday, Oct. 25, the Garden City Bees play St. Jo of Abilene in a 2:30 o'clock engagement here. The Garden City Bearkats, still a factor in District Eight football play, visit Christoval for a game tonight.

Forsan Buffaloes Tackle Toyah Sextet At 8 P. M.

FORSAN — The Forsan Buffaloes, who have suddenly emerged as the favorites in District Eight six-man football play, entertain Toyah in a non-conference game at 8 o'clock tonight. Jerry Fowler is ready to prance for the Bisons again and will lend assistance in the Forsan offensive to other operatives as Harold Hicks, Hood Jones, Arlen White, Albert Oglesby, David Wise and others. Toyah is of unknown strength, so Coach Bob Honeycutt has primed his charges for a major battle. The Buffaloes return to conference competition on Oct. 31 with Garden City. That should be the most important test of the season for the Buffs.

ENOS SLAUGHTER 'COMEBACK' TOPS

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Enos Country Slaughter, veteran outfield star of the St. Louis Cardinals, was selected today as the player who made the greatest comeback of the 1952 baseball season.

The slugging country boy from North Carolina, generally regarded as one of the game's fiercest competitors, captured the Associated Press "Comeback-of-the-Year" award handily, receiving 26 of the 61 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Thirteen other candidates were nominated but none proved any serious threat to the rollicking Redbird. Luke Easter of Cleveland came second with 11 votes.

It's easy to see why the experts voted for Slaughter, the original perpetual motion kid, who never walks when he can run to the nearest exit, or base.

The balding flycatcher was considered all washed up last April, after hitting a lowly .281 in 123 games in 1951. But he astounded the critics by not only participating in 140 contests but hitting at an even .300 clip. That was not all. The husky Carolinian, who will be 37 next April, batted in 101 runs and swatted 40 extra base hits including 11 home runs, 12 triples and 17 doubles.

The Cardinals, off to a poor start, caught fire in mid-season and finished a strong third. They played the best ball in the league in the second half of the season, principally because of Slaughter's hot bat that picked up 37 RBIs and seven home runs over the previous season.

Durable Enos became a Cardinal back in 1938 and has been a star ever since. Oldest regular in the major leagues, Slaughter still is the take-charge-guy of his club. His spirit, always fierce and flaming has not waned a bit despite his 15 years in the big leagues.

Ponies, Frogs And Steers Picked By Sports Scribe

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Three teams will be seeking revenge tomorrow when the Southwest Conference football race blooms to maturity.

Last season Texas Christian beat Texas A&M when it wasn't supposed to, Rice stopped a Southern Methodist team that was heavily favored, and Arkansas upset a Texas outfit that was expected to find the Razorbacks just a fair workout.

And now they're meeting again. TCU and A&M clash at College Station and Arkansas meets Texas at Austin tomorrow afternoon while Southern Methodist and Rice play at Houston tomorrow night.

This time, though, the Aggies are the underdogs. Texas and Southern Methodist again are favorites.

It's a fine set-up for a typical Southwest Conference day and night and what'll you bet the favored teams come through?

It marks the start of full-scale conference play, coming after a disastrous intersectional foray that found the league teams taking more beatings than they dealt out. Championship competition is a welcome relief.

While the others are playing for keeps, Baylor will be at Lubbock for a night game with Texas Tech of the Border Conference. It's an ideal set-up for an upset here, too.

Tech hasn't won a game since the season opener, Baylor, which lost its first last week to Arkansas, probably won't be on edge at all. Tech, with its high-geared offense that will score on anybody featuring the running of Bobby Cavazos, could give Baylor a whipping and occasion no startling talk.

And Tech needs a victory over a Southwest Conference team; it was humiliated by Rice three weeks ago.

The Southern Methodist-Rice game opens the conference race for both teams. It matches a tough week since there are only four games so here goes:

Arkansas-Texas—A lusty vote for Texas.

Southern Methodist-Rice—We'll take SMU by the width of a sheet of paper.

Texas A&M-Texas Christian—TCU by two touchdowns.

Baylor-Texas Tech—Baylor and Tech will swap touchdowns with Baylor making one extra.

Coahoma Bulldogs Rate Nod Over Trent Gorillas Tonite

COAHOMA — The Coahoma Bulldogs rate as a two-touchdown favorite to defeat the Trent Gorillas in their District 5-B football game here tonight.

The Bulldogs, coached by Fred Salling, are due to bounce back after losing to Hermleigh last week end, 26-18.

Trent beat Bronte by a touchdown, Coahoma had trounced Bronte earlier, 35-6.

The passing of Bill Read, coupled with a strong running game built around Jimmy Spears and Gerry Hoover, is due to lend authority to Coahoma's bid for victory. Strong end play by Billy Joe Cramer and Jack Owens will be a factor, too.

Bank Urges Mexico Cattle Exports Be Limited Each Year

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17 (AP)—The expected annual export of half a million head of cattle to the U. S. will upset price structure within Mexico, a bank study has predicted.

Banco Nacional de Mexico, the country's largest private bank, urged in its study yesterday that exports be limited to 200,000 head a year, with quotas for each state to make for even distribution.

Cattle exports were renewed a month and a half ago when foot-and-mouth disease officially was declared wiped out in Mexico.

The bank study pointed out that the price of hides to the important national leather industry already has increased 15 per cent. It warned that a sharp advance in meat prices is to be expected.

WONDER WHICH CAUSED MOST OF THE TROUBLE

Comes now a man who carried both the snake and the snakebite remedy. He'd already consumed the remedy when arrested by city police this morning. However, he still carried the snake.

Patrolman T. L. Steele was called to remove the drunken man from a taxicab. The fellow greeted Steele by pulling the snake out of a pocket and extending it toward the officer when he started to open the cab door.

Bids were opened at 2 p.m. Thursday, but the nature of the bids will require a large amount of calculation to determine the lowest figures.

In all, six firms submitted proposals. Five of these, however, submitted bids for only part of the furniture and fixtures. Indications were this morning that contracts probably will be let to more than one firm, but detailed calculations must be completed before the best combination can be determined.

First calculations indicated that furniture and fixtures for the new building can be purchased and installed for some less than $75,000. This will include all types of office furniture and fixtures as well as items for the court rooms, library, lounges, etc.

Herald Locates One Person Due Refund At least one of 3,000 Texas taxpayers sought by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for refunds has been found.

The Herald carried a list Sunday of those whose addresses were given as Big Spring or near here. Emory H. and Jo Ann Blackney, who now reside on Route No. 2, Box 60, Mineral Wells, got word of it and asked the Herald to inform the bureau of their present address.

TRUMAN

Harrison for what he said was his role in the Marshall Plan which kept all of Western Europe from going Communist.

Dean Acheson, whom he praised as one of history's "greatest secretaries of state," also drew praise for his service as deputy chairman of the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization.

"I have set the administrative end of our government on a more efficient basis than it has been since the government was launched," Truman said. "I am not bragging; I am merely telling you facts."

"And I have sent more reorganization plans to Congress of the United States than all the other presidents put together; and I have had more of them turned down by Republicans and a coalition of Democrats who did not believe in the things I want to do, than any other president has done."

He said he was reviewing his appointments because "there never has been an organization about which so much misrepresentation and so many lies have been told as have been told about my presidential family that runs the government of the United States."

But, mostly, Truman stayed on the offensive, adding his customary "give 'em hell" flavor to every automobile stop in front of a town hall or rear platform appearance at the whistle stops. There was heckling to some extent at most of the talks and some mild booing, usually from children.

Kiwanis Hear Of Oil Progress

Kiwanis club members Thursday heard an outline of progress made by the petroleum industry, with emphasis placed on the Howard County and Permian basin areas.

The speaker was R. W. Thompson, production vice president of Cosden Petroleum Corp. Thompson said that the huge West Texas area still possesses the greatest known oil reserves, and predicted that steady drilling activity will continue in the area.

He said the oil industry observes Oil Progress Week each year to focus attention of the general public on accomplishments in the industry. Progress of the oil industry and progress of the general public in American march forward "hand in hand," he reminded.

WSB Set To Study Coal Pay Hike; New Strike Threatens

By ROWLAND EVANS JR. WASHINGTON (AP) — A protest strike of 150,000 miners crept through the nation's coal fields and producers pressed for price increases today as the Wage Stabilization Board, plagued by dissension, scheduled another attempt to decide the legality of the recent soft coal pay boost.

Price officials said the Office of Price Stabilization was awaiting WSB action before considering officially the many requests received from producers for a ceiling price increase.

days, were ready to give their approval to the $1.90-a-day wage boost.

The increase, negotiated by John L. Lewis last month, cannot be paid until the WSB gives its approval because it is nearly twice as high as that automatically approvable under WSB cost-of-living regulations.

But labor members of the WSB, which is composed of labor, industry and public members, have argued that other wage rules justify the increase. They say it is neither inflationary or unstabilizing.

Industry members, however, firmly reject that thesis. They say they have seen no evidence to indicate the pay raise is within existing ceilings.

Industry, meanwhile, pressed for either a lifting of ceilings, or an increase with the OPS, maintaining a "wait and see" attitude pending outcome of the WSB ruling.

One official told a reporter that from 25 to 30 telegrams, plus numerous telephone calls, have been received from producers urging the OPS to give them a ceiling price adjustment.

The price officials said a preliminary survey has indicated that the cost to producers of the new contract will run 40 cents per ton or better on the average. This includes the 10 cents per ton increase in royalty payments to the miners welfare fund.

Putnam and WSB Chairman Archibald Cox conferred for one hour privately yesterday. Soon afterwards, Cox announced he would hold a news conference. But the conference never took place and there was no official explanation why.

From reliable sources, however, it was learned that:

Putnam asked Cox to get unanimous consent from the WSB to postpone further consideration of the important case until the President's Advisory Committee on Mobilization holds its two-day meeting next Monday and Tuesday.

When Cox broached that idea to the WSB, labor members angrily rejected it. They reportedly said the job of dealing with the miners' wage increase was one for the WSB, nobody else.

Cox canceled his news conference shortly afterwards.

Should the WSB fail to approve the contract within the next few days the number of idle miners is certain to swell and may shut off up to 80 per cent of the nation's soft coal production.

Lewis bargains for more than 350,000 bituminous miners. The last time they struck was in the long dispute over the 1949 contract negotiations.

Persons close to the WSB were uncertain just what Putnam had in mind when he sought postponement of the present WSB study of the case.

It was felt that the administration was fearful over the political implications, three weeks before election, of a possible all-out coal strike that could follow WSB approval of the contract.

It was also felt that if the WSB approved the boost it might be criticized as acting under political influences, especially in view of Lewis' recent and unexpected endorsement of Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for President.

Stalin Retains Top Red Party Posts

By EDDY GILMORE and THOMAS P. WHITNEY MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist party named its new high command today and kept Joseph Stalin firmly in all the top jobs.

The party's new Central Committee announced election of a Presidium of 25 members and 11 alternates to replace the old Politburo and a 10-man Secretariat to supervise party administration.

Stalin was named head of both key groups. Also elected was a new chairman of the party Control Committee which has charge of party discipline.

The Presidium is more than twice the size of the old Politburo of 11 members and one alternate. Replacing the Politburo, it will direct the work of the Central Committee between the party's quadrennial full sessions and will also take over the duties of the old Politburo—the organization bureau —which dealt with party organization.

The Secretariat also was enlarged. It formerly had only five members.

Stalin's top rank in the party was emphasized by the placing of his name out of alphabetical order at the head of the announced listing of both the Presidium and Secretariat. All other names were given in their Russian alphabetical order.

In addition, Stalin is head of the party's Central Committee and, in the Soviet government, chairman of the Council of Ministers—premier of the Soviet Union.

A number of young party leaders were added to both the Presidium and the Secretariat. Most of these are under 50. Some are barely past 40.

The Presidium also includes several regional party leaders, as well as some of the Soviet Union's top economic specialists.

One significant point was the promotion to Presidium alternate of Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, Vishinsky, now at the United Nations Assembly in New York, formerly was a member of the Central Committee, to which he was re-elected, but he never was a member of the Politburo.

600 At Dinner In Honor Of Wright Morrow

HOUSTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—More than 600 persons attended a dinner here last night honoring Wright Morrow, recently resigned Democratic National Committeeman from Texas.

Among the dinner guests were every shade and hue of Republican and Democrat. No party lines were observed.

Gov. Allan Shivers, former Gov. W. P. Hobby, J. W. Evans, and Chief Justice John E. Hickman of the Texas Supreme Court made talks praising the white-haired Morrow.

"If we weld together all the virtues of good citizenship," Gov. Shivers said, "we arrive at the people we would like to call our neighbors and friends. Wright Morrow is such a person."

"We can say truthfully that he is a man who has carried out the heritage and principles of those pioneers who founded our nation and our state," the governor said.

Too often, he said, men are given to false values of wealth, social position and political position. He said none are lasting.

"But an accumulation of friends is a lasting thing, something far beyond material possessions. Wright Morrow has those friends. He has been a good neighbor, a good father, a kind and loving husband and a good citizen."

Airmen, Destroyers Team Up To Wreck 4 Red Trains

WITH U. S. FIRST MARINE WING, Korea, Oct. 17 (AP)—Two Marine airmen and two Navy destroyers teamed up the other night to wreck four Communist supply trains.

Capt. Thomas S. Moore, 29, Amarillo, Tex., and his radar observer, T-Sgt. K. Harvey, Jr., 28, Utica, N. Y., spotted the trains 35 miles northeast of Hungnam in Northeast Korea.

"There were about 70 freight cars," Moore said. "We attacked the longest string, about 30 cars, and bombed and strafed until our ordinance was gone."

Going in low, the Marines found they had blown several cars off the tracks and started two fires in the second train. There were several explosions as ammunition blew up.

Moore flew the F7F Tigercat out to sea looking for a ship that could finish the job. He found two Navy destroyers and directed them by radio to a point offshore.

For an hour and a half while the destroyers poured shells into the trains, Moore and T-Sgt. K. Harvey circled the target, radioing results and correcting aim.

Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Moore, live at 717 N. Buchanan St., Amarillo.

The Sink Finally Is Given To The Reds

TOKYO (AP) — This time they hit with everything—including the kitchen sink.

The Navy said Lt. Carl B. Austin of Woodbury, Ore., a pilot aboard the aircraft carrier Princeton, recently attached a sink to a 1,000-pound bomb and dropped it on a major North Korean city.

"I wasn't able to see what damage the sink caused," Austin said. "But I guess the Reds can take the hint that we mean business."

IT'S IN THE BOOK

Mary had a little LAMB. But she'd be a lot HAPPIER if she had one of our FINE USED CARS.

1951 BUICK Super 4-door sedan. Why not now? We know this is a good car—it's in the Book.

1950 BUICK Riviera 2-door. Turn to Page 222 and help us sing the good qualities of this one.

1950 BUICK Roadmaster 4-door sedan. Leave them alone and they'll come home—if they have this beauty to ride in.

1951 FORD Club Coupe. Like the book said—everybody is happy about this one.—It's not raining inside tonight.

1951 STUDEBAKER Champion. This one may have come home in reverse—we don't know—but it sure runs good—and you'll find comfort on the back of your seat.

1948 OLDSMOBILE 4-door sedan. There's a black sheep in every family.—So the price per pound is cheap out tonight.

1950 BUICK Super 4-door sedan. Lots of good grazing left in this one.—We're not wagging our tails behind us.—Just our tongues.

1950 BUICK 4-door sedan. Come in and see.—We'll prove that all we say is true. IT'S IN THE BOOK.

Corruption Plentiful In Commie Regimes

By RICHARD O'REGAN
VIENNA, Oct. 17 (AP)—In Romania more than two million dollars have been defrauded from the government Treasury by 24 highly placed officials.
Thirteen other government officials have used their positions to divert thousands of tons of first-class textiles to the black market, making themselves a tidy profit.
Hunting and fishing rights and even diapers have been given away for services rendered.
Newspaper reports from Romania and other lands in the Russian sphere indicate that Communist governments all over are having no end of trouble with corruption.
Even the controlled newspapers behind the curtain indicate official malfeasance exceeds anything seen in the West. Only the newspapers don't call it corruption; they call it "sabotage."
But what it adds up to is that the Communist governments of Eastern Europe are shot through with dishonesty, irresponsibility and bribery.
Partly this is due to the transfer of state power to incompetents. Communist street laborers who find themselves running state factories, apparently find the temptations of office too strong.
Partly it is the past. All the nations of Eastern Europe, including Russia, have centuries-old histories of bureaucratic corruption. From the lowest officials up to the top, it has always been accepted.
Little officials are as bad as the big. In Communist Estonia, for instance, the Tallin newspaper Rabva Haal reported that Director Kruglov, manager of a state industry, not only took most of the day for hunting, but forced all employees to contribute 25 rubles for gifts for his birthday.
On his birthday, the newspaper said, his office was "full of flowers, cakes and liquor." The next day, he dismissed all employees who had refused to cough up.
Newspapers complain that officials who administer the red tape regard small-time bribery as a "legitimate" source of additional income. Police make a point of finding "irregularities" in papers in order to have their palms greased.
Higher state officials are not free from pilfering the "people's property". Newspapers have reported hundreds of cases of disappearance of construction materials, clothes and food. A new low was reached recently when a Budapest newspaper complained of watered wine and 22 instead of 25 cigarettes in packages sold in state-owned tobacco stores.
Not even trusted Communists are free from deceit. The Czechoslovak minister of interior said: "We cannot be happy with the work of 250,000 functionaries of the local councils. There are repeated cases of concealment of land, faulty reports on livestock production, bad rationing and hidden reserves of food."

Rich Newsboy Set To Retire

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17 (AP)—The butcher, the baker, and the banker and the bum today started giving "best of luck" wishes to Jimmy Widmeyer as the 68-year-old "newsboy" hawked his papers and magazines at one of Cincinnati's busiest downtown corners.
They learned yesterday that Jimmy is going to retire on Nov. 1, after 60 years as a seller of newspapers on downtown corners.
Jimmy is the fabulous "newsboy" who once made more than a million dollars on paper through stock investments, lost it all in the 1949 market collapse, and now has made enough money again so that he can retire in ease.
The "newsboy" drives to work daily in his Cadillac or his Ford station wagon. And he is in great demand as an after dinner speaker.
Even the controlled newspapers behind the curtain indicate official malfeasance exceeds anything seen in the West. Only the newspapers don't call it corruption; they call it "sabotage."
But what it adds up to is that the Communist governments of Eastern Europe are shot through with dishonesty, irresponsibility and bribery.

Angelo May Offer Solution To State Hospital Problem

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 17 (AP)—This West Texas city may offer a solution to the problem faced by state tuberculosis patients scheduled to be evicted soon from Moore Field at Mission.
A city commission meeting today was to discuss possibilities of offering TB patients housing at the old Air Force hospital buildings at Matlis Field.
Eight ward-type buildings at the field could be utilized, Dennis Humphreys, manager of the field said yesterday.
The Air Force has given notice that Moore Field will be reactivated and that state tuberculosis patients there must be moved to another location.
Gov. Allan Shivers proposed that the patients be moved to vacant buildings at McCloskey Veterans Hospital in Temple, a proposal vigorously opposed by residents of the Temple area.

Letters Ask U. S. Pray Before Vote

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 17 (AP)—One thousand letters urging prayer before the Nov. 4 election have been mailed out over the United States and Hawaii by the San Angelo ministers and women's prayer groups.
In these letters, they suggest that other cities have a day of prayer similar to a 24-hour vigil scheduled for San Angelo Wednesday, Oct. 29.
All local churches will remain open that day to permit citizens to seek divine guidance before casting their ballot in the presidential election.
"Surely it is right that not only our city but all America should seek God's will before voting, so we pray that you will contact your ministerial alliance, and help plan a day of prayer," the letter read.

Indonesians In Riot When Top Aide Censured

JAKARTA, Indonesia (U)—Thousands of Indonesians ran riot in Indonesia's capital today in the wake of a parliamentary vote censuring Defense Minister Hamengkubuwono IX, the popular sultan of Jogjakarta.

Several thousand persons mobbed the residence of the Netherlands high commissioner, tore down the Dutch flag flying there and ripped it to shreds.

Government tanks and artillery rolled into the heart of Jakarta as some 15,000 demonstrators congregated around the parliament building at daybreak and demanded the legislature dissolved.

Wearing apparel of many of the rioters and some of the banners they carried indicated the Communists had a part in the disturbance.

The parliamentary censure revolution yesterday demanded reorganization of the young republic's Defense Department and armed forces, which the 53-year-old Sultan headed. As a result, the seven-month-old government of Premier Wilopo was expected to resign.

The vote stemmed from charges by an army colonel that the Sultan had been inefficient and pushed policies contrary to the country's interests.

178 New Casualties

Famous Names Seek Mass. Senate Post

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY
BOSTON (U)—Two "magic names" are battling it out in a tight race for the U. S. senatorship from Massachusetts.

On one side is Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., a "blue blood" Harvard graduate, grandson of a senator, and running for the office for the fourth time. He is the Republican candidate.

On the other is Rep. John F. Kennedy, descendant of an Irish immigrant family, also a Harvard graduate, and a son of the former U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, financier Joseph P. Kennedy. Young Kennedy is running on the state-wide ticket for the first time. He's had three terms in Congress as a Democratic representative.

Lodge was co-chairman of the National Committee for Eisenhower in pre-convention days and was one of the chief lieutenants of the convention fight which won the nomination for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower at Chicago last July.

A week after that convention, young Kennedy set up a committee of Democratic congressmen to work for the nomination of Adlai Stevenson by the Democrats.

Back home, the two candidates have been running "family" campaigns.

Young Kennedy began months ago with a series of receptions and teas, at which his sisters, Patricia and Eunice, were hostesses.

Kennedy's mother joined the team a few weeks ago.

In addition to the teas, Kennedy has set up a "Coffee With the Kennedys" program on television. He slips morning coffee with his mother and sisters, and answers telephoned questions.

Lodge's campaign has turned into a family affair, too.

In recent weeks his sister-in-law, Mrs. Francesca Braggitt Lodge, wife of Gov. John Lodge of Connecticut, has been helping Sen. Lodge with bi-lingual speeches—English and Italian—in Italian-American sections of Massachusetts' cities.

Lodge can take care of his own foreign language speeches when he campaigns in the French-speaking sections of many Massachusetts cities. He speaks French fluently.

Lodge was a newspaperman, on the old Boston Transcript and the New York Herald-Tribune, before he turned to politics as a member of the Massachusetts House in 1932. After two terms in the State Legislature, he ran for the U. S. Senate in 1936 and won. He resigned to enter the Army in 1944.

Kennedy was in the Navy for four years during the war, and had a distinguished career as a PT boat commander. He was decorated for rescuing the crew of his boat when it was sunk in enemy action in the South Pacific.

Kennedy is the author of one book, "Why England Slept," based on his observations in England while his father was ambassador.

The Man's Ear Is Worth Only $4,542

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (U)—Restaurantier Mike Miaoouis paid $4,542 here yesterday for a left ear lobe—one that belonged to his friend, Angel P. Gallis.

Gallis asked $25,000 damages for the ear lobe which he claimed Miaoouis bit off during a fight last March at a Mardi Gras dance in the Greek Community Center.

A Circuit Court jury awarded him only $4,542.

Witnesses said Miaoouis and Gallis had been old friends.

Miaoouis pleaded self-defense to the charges of assault and battery and mayhem.

Teamsters Back Adlai

LOS ANGELES (U)—The AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters after adopting a resolution endorsing Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John Sparkman, set about today to elect its own president at the 16th annual convention.

The endorsement of the Democratic standard bearers came yesterday, together with approval of the Democratic platform. The resolution paid tribute to Stevenson's policies, which the teamsters said closely followed those of the AFL.

Stevenson spoke briefly to the 2,000 delegates, telling them that "I am glad to feel men like you are enlisted on the same side, and I think you know where I stand and where the Democratic party stands."

Teamster President Daniel J. Tobin, whose age has been estimated at from 77 to 85, had led the 1 1/2 million member teamsters' union for 41 years. His retirement has been widely predicted and his most likely successor is Dave Beck of Seattle, executive vice president and director of Western locals.

The nominations will be dropped into the box today.

Three food dispensing establishments have been closed for improvements as a result of a survey conducted here in the past three weeks by Dan Mowery, state food and drug inspector, and Lige Fox, city-county sanitarian.

The two health officials inspected more than 100 cafes, groceries and other businesses during the survey. In the group were 70 cafes, 30 grocery stores, three bakeries, and several meat packing and poultry dressing concerns.

The inspections covered facilities and methods of operation from the health and sanitation standpoint.

Formal Opening Set Saturday For New Service Station Here

The new Mobilgas Service station located at the three-way intersection of 11th Place, Washington Place and Settles Street will hold formal opening Saturday.

E. A. (Gene) Turner, manager, stated that the station would open Saturday morning at 6 a. m. He expects to service automobiles until 10 p. m.

Free gifts will be given to those visiting the station during the formal opening, Turner said. Children will be given lolly pops, cold drinks and balloons. Men will be presented cans of "handy oil," and women will be given vases full of hard candy.

He points out that his chassis lubrication machine is the latest model. A brand new spark plug testing and cleaning machine is also in stock.

A small combination machine for pouring battery water and testing cells is also in use, Turner said. It is officially known as the Mobil-o-Scope, and is fresh off the market.

Water and air hoses are operated from a new-type pump stand, and both are on reels. The gauge can be set on any number the auto owner wishes, and the air will stop at the right pressure.

Service will extend to all the various departments of a filling station, Turner said cars would be washed, greased, and serviced for gas, water and oil. Minor repairs will be made. The car ports on both sides of the station, enabling cars to be driven right through after washing.

All kinds of tires, tubes, and minor accessories are in stock. Turner has been in the service station business for many years, but has recently been manager of the Douglas Coffee Shop. Turner lives at 1410 Eleventh Place, only two blocks from the station.

The station address is 2111 Eleventh Place.

SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Mechanical Heart Said Successful

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

DETROIT, (AP)—A successful mechanical heart, to give human hearts a holiday, was announced today.

For 50 minutes, the amazing little machine pumped a man's blood through his body.

Running like a quiet washing machine, it bypassed the left side of his heart. It jetoured the blood coming from his lungs, and pushed it back into his arteries.

Empty of blood, with no work to do, the still-beating heart was opened to repair a faulty valve.

The man, 41, and not identified, is alive and well today, three months after the historic operation, July 3.

Only this one human success was announced—but with a hint it has worked on other persons since.

In dogs also, it's been combined been rigged to bypass both sides of the heart, putting the whole heart on temporary vacation.

In dogs also, it's been combined with an artificial lung to bypass the entire heart plus the lungs.

The heart-lung machine someday may do the same for humans.

This human success marks a milestone in medicine. With mechanical hearts, the heart can be laid open for a surgery, under direct view.

With part or all the heart emptied, surgeons can better remove bullets or other objects, repair valves or dangerously bulging weak spots in heart walls, take out tumors, plug holes in the heart's dividing walls. The spare hearts might someday help save people whose own hearts stop.

The human success was announced in the Journal of the American Medical Association by Dr. F. D. Dorrill, Dr. Edward Hill and Dr. Robert A. Gerisch of Harper Hospital here. General Motors engineers helped develop the mechanical heart, and are working on the artificial lung for humans. The Research was supported by the Michigan Heart Association.

The surgeons said their patient is definitely improved, but it is not yet fully known how much he benefited from his operation.

Rheumatic fever had left him with an enlarged heart valve. It failed to close completely when the lower left chamber, the left ventricle, of his heart pumped to send blood into his arteries. Some blood coursed back up through the bad valve into the left auricle, the upper chamber, which first collects blood coming from the lungs.

Any exercise made him short of breath. He was seriously ill.

This is how the mechanical heart helped him:

The surgeons opened his chest. A tube was pushed into the pulmonary artery, which brings blood from the lungs. Part of the left auricle was clamped off.

The machine sucked the blood from his auricle, then pumped it back through another tube inserted into the man's aorta—the great main artery coming from the ventricle. For nearly an hour no blood was going through the left side of his heart.

For 14 minutes of this time, the surgeons had his heart open, operating on the valve to make it close normally. They sewed up the heart, later disconnected the machine.

In full operation, the spare heart pumps 4 1/2 quarts of blood a minute, as the adult heart does. It maintains even pressure.

It is small, only 10 inches long, 12 inches wide, 17 high. It is a metal encased electric motor, with rubber tubing, glass chambers, stainless steel valves, all working on the principles of the human heart.

It is really two pumps, one on each side of the motor. One pump can substitute for the left side of the heart, the other pump at the same time for the right side.

The pump is primed with a half-pint of donated blood. The drug heparin is added to prevent the blood from clotting. Later another drug is given to offset the heparin. The tubing, valves and glass can all be easily sterilized by steam bathing.

Polio Declines In Texas In Past Week

AUSTIN, Oct. 17 (AP)—A sharp decline in polio the past week—43 cases compared with 83 the previous week—was reported yesterday by state Health Officer George W. Cox.

That was the smallest number of cases reported in Texas since May 31, and Dr. Cox said the state's worst polio epidemic appeared on its way out.

The year's polio total to last week reached 3,785, two and one-half times as many cases as were reported for the same period last year.

Grenade-Throwing Old Colonel Dies, But He Rallies His Men

By MILO FARNETI

CENTRAL FRONT, Korea, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Old Colonel "didn't have any damn business up there" on Triangle Hill, the captain said, his bitterness tinged with admiration.

"I remember the colonel said he had a Rebel flag and was going to pin it up there."

"It was the most remarkable example of courage I have ever seen," the master sergeant said.

The Old Colonel worked his way up Triangle Hill to direct artillery fire. He led an infantry charge instead. That wasn't his job. He died on the edge of a Chinese trench at the crest.

"All the men were stunned and shocked from a grenade shower," the master sergeant recalled. "All the officers and platoon sergeants were hurt. When he joined us, it was like a new outfit."

"The colonel told us he wanted to go up to the top and see if he could get some precision artillery zeroed in to help out the infantry. We had got the order to take the trench again."

The trench—10 feet long, 6 feet deep and 4 feet wide—was at the crest of Triangle Hill, objective of U. S. 7th Division troops who kicked off at dawn, Tuesday in the big gets Allied attack of the year.

Four times two companies of the 7th Division tried to take the trench. Four times their assaults melted in blasts of Chinese artillery, mortar and grenade fire.

After the fourth assault, M. Sgt. John Hanson, Three River Falls, Minn., took over command of his company. That was between 8 and 9 a. m. Every other senior leader had been killed or wounded.

Hanson reorganized his company and set the men to digging in 50 yards below the crest.

That's when the colonel showed up. He was stout and gray-haired.

"The colonel had been dodging mortar and artillery fire all morning," Hanson said. "They were peppering that draw and it wasn't light stuff. We got almost half our casualties in that draw the colonel worked his way through."

"Our two companies were completely disorganized by enemy grenades and mortar. A lieutenant from the other company tried to organize the men to attack again. The Chinese had let up tossing grenades at us for awhile.

"The colonel came up and asked us where there was a hole big enough for him to sit in.

"Then, without saying anything, he walked up to the top.

"He looked on the trench and waved his pistol for us to come up. He yelled that there weren't any Chinks in the trench.

"His voice had a tone of confidence. He was a striking looking soldier.

"About 10 men scrambled up the slope after him. The colonel was sitting on the edge of the trench looking in. He yelled back for grenades.

"We threw him one and started up ourselves. He threw it in the trench and stepped back. The other men also stepped back.

"After the grenade exploded the colonel looked again. Just as he stuck his head over, they set off a satchel charge (blocks of TNT tied together). It made a terrific bang.

"He just doubled up and toppled over in the trench. We could see his feet kicking.

"Then the Chinks followed up with grenades and burp guns. The Chinks kept heaving and heaving grenades so we pulled off.

"I think I rolled back about 30 yards on my belly trying to miss those grenades. We took off for good.

"That's about it. That's exactly the way it came off."

Later, their memories fresh with the picture of the Old Colonel who didn't belong up there, whose legs should have given out long before he reached the top, 7th Division infantrymen stormed and won the crest.

But the Old Colonel's body has not been recovered. He is listed as missing in action.

Chiang Aide Denies Army Getting Stale

By SPENCER MOOSA
 TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The chief of Nationalist China's Joint General Staff scoffs at reports Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's 600,000 man army on Formosa is over-age and getting stale.

Four-star Gen. Chou Chihjou described the Nationalist forces as actually "in their best years as fighting men." Their average is 28.

"We can take the Communists on, one to 10," he asserted in an interview.

As in other armies, he said, over-age officers and men are being replaced by new recruits, drawn from an ample manpower pool of refugee mainlanders and native Formosans.

The Nationalist Army, which once numbered four to five million men, has seen no combat in almost three years.

Chou admitted there were a large number of generals on Formosa, but hastened to add: It should be realized that they were not created here. They came from the mainland of China.

"Under a retirement system we have instituted," he said, "many of them are going into civilian status."

Chou said many reforms had been introduced in the armed force on Formosa. Among these he listed: an insurance plan for dependents, better pay and improved living conditions and the elimination of "paper soldiers"—mythical troops whose pay some commanders on the mainland used to pocket for themselves.

The 54-year-old general said the figure of 600,000 men in uniform in free China was no exaggeration, but that did not mean every man was a front line soldier.

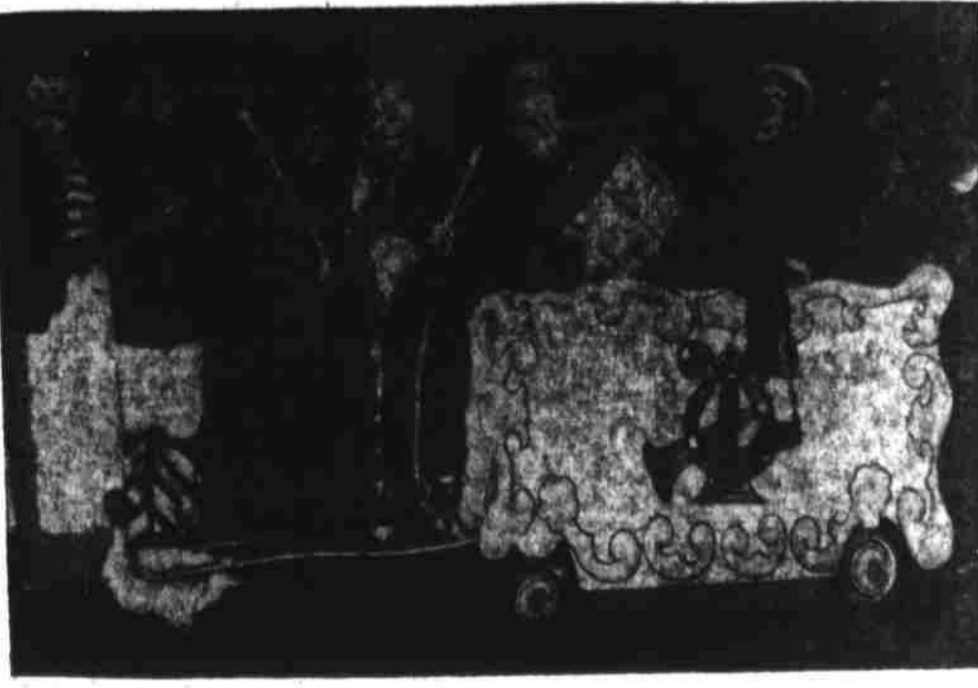

Chou would give no hint on the volume of U. S. military supplies coming to Formosa, but estimated it is more than last year.

In his opinion, there will be no enlargement of the Korean War, but he sees no sudden end to it, either.

South Carolinian Is Man Of South In '52

GREENWOOD, S. C. Oct. 17 (AP)—James Culbert Self, 76-year-old Greenwood industrialist who has built one of South Carolina's largest textile enterprises, has been selected as "Man of the South" for 1952.

Self, who began his career as a $100-a-year country store clerk, is president of Greenwood Mills which operates four plants with a new six-million-dollar cotton print cloth mill under construction.

'Goose-oline' Powered Bandwagon

Things are fast and they pick-up quick as these circus clowns try to climb aboard the "goose-mobile" bandwagon pulled by the only clowning goose in circuses. The clowns and "Tiny" the goose will take a gander around the three rings during and between the 46 acts of the first annual Shrine Circus. The local Shrine club has booked the Gil G. Gray Shrine circus for two performances daily, Oct. 22-23, at Steer Baseball Park. Reserve seats go on sale Saturday at Nathan's Jewelry.

Taft Says Most Americans Do 'Like Ike' And Will Elect Him

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said today he has found "the great majority of the people really do 'like Ike'" and predicted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would win the election.

The Ohio senator, who was Eisenhower's chief rival for the Republican presidential nomination, said that after three weeks of campaigning he had become convinced Eisenhower's "very wide personal popularity" would be a key factor in a GOP triumph.

Writing in Pathfinder magazine, Taft said that if Eisenhower wins, "he will carry with him both the House and Senate."

The Senate race will be close, the Ohioan added, but an Eisenhower victory probably would mean the Republicans would pick up nine seats there—and that this would offset some probable losses. The present Senate lineup is 49 Democrats to 47 Republicans.

Taft said he had not campaigned in the East at the time he wrote the article. But he predicted the GOP would carry New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut and Maryland.

He added, however, that Eisenhower could win without New York "particularly if he can add Virginia, Tennessee and Texas to his column, which I believe to be very likely."

Taft said an important Eisenhower asset was that he started the campaign "without any enemies, and without having given offense to any large section of the people because he has not had to take a position on many domestic controversial issues during the past 10 years."

Taft wrote that "the main reason which makes me feel confident of a Republican victory is the deep-seated resentment against the Truman administration and all its works."

Success Of First Atom Test Delays New British Blast

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express said today that Prime Minister Churchill has put off exploding Britain's second atom bomb for a few months because the first blast a fortnight ago was so successful.

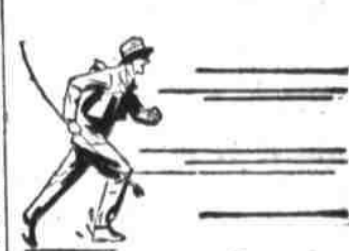

The Express added that Dr. William Penney, Britain's chief atom scientist, had cancelled his reservation for a return plane trip to Australia early next month. Penney came here two days ago from the first explosion in the Monte Belbo Islands, off Northwest Australia.

His return reservation and similar bookings for atom expert Sir John Cockcroft and Atomic Energy Controller Gen. Sir Frederick Mott had sparked reports—not confirmed officially—that Britain's second big blast would be going off soon.

A spokesman for the Ministry of Supply, which controls Britain's atomic energy program, said Penney had canceled his return trip for secret reasons.

Amnesty Granted

CAIRO, Oct. 17 (AP)—The government of Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib announced a general amnesty last night for an estimated 1,000 persons convicted or accused of political crimes between 1936 and the Army coup Aug. 23 which forced King Farouk to abdicate.

Jesus Demands Sincerity

CHRISTIANS MUST NOT BE HYPOCRITES IN WORD OR DEED, CHRIST TELLS US.

Scripture—Matthew 6.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL.
WE ARE now studying the middle part of the Sermon on the Mount, in which Jesus is concerned with our relationships to God in our relationships with men. If we are sincere in our desire to live really Christian lives, we do not parade our good deeds or our petitions to God before men, but to be seen or heard only of our Father in heaven.

Today our nation is engaged in so many enterprises which we hope may be helpful to the whole world, and which we cannot keep secret because we want everyone on the globe to know about them and to understand that we mean them for the good of all. Therefore, they are "news" which must appear in print.

However, there are also many projects that are equally beneficial to everyone in the world that are done almost secretly, at least we seldom hear of them except now and then when we read a magazine article, or hear a lecture. God, however, knows that pray ye:—giving us what we call the Lord's prayer.

How many of us when we pray, even using Christ's own prayer, and whether we repeat prayers at night, morning or in church, really think what we are saying? How many "put their hearts" into their prayers?

Think what you are saying. Send your petitions to God in sincerity and humbleness of spirit, so that He may know that you are His child and that you are coming to Him and asking help from your heart.

"For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you."

Don't be a hypocrite when you fast, Jesus instructed. Don't be "of a sad countenance, or disfigure your face; but anoint thy head and wash thy face; that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret."

Next the Lord touched on the subject of treasure, telling his followers not to hoard earthly treasures

MEMORY VERSE

"Where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also."
—Matthew 6:21.

the United Nations, (to name one organization), in many seldom mentioned ways, is helping the world to understanding and (we hope) to peace.

Jesus tells us to "take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father in heaven."

"Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth," said Christ, "that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret Himself shall reward thee openly."

How does God reward us when we do kind and charitable acts? By the feeling inside us that we have done well, and that He understands and approves.

When you pray, Jesus said, "enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

It is not the prayer given in public that is rebuked, but the prayer that is uttered by hypocrites who are trying to show their fellowmen how pious they are.

"But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions; for they (the heathen) think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

... After this manner therefore

LIGHTHOUSES OF THE LORD

More than 2000 years ago men began building lighthouses to warn seamen of rocky shoals and reefs, and to guide them to shore and safety.

Today within our U. S. A. and its possessions upward of 2000 lighthouses, shore, and harbor warning-lights beckon nightly across the waters to guide travellers safely.

Within the same U. S. A. are nearly 300,000 churches—lighthouses of the Lord. Yet right now it has been reported that 25 million young people and children and 15 million adults are unaware of the Church and its ability to help them live righteously and serenely in these perilous times.

Is someone you know floundering in worldly darkness? Is someone you know desperately in need of the Church's guidance? To expose a life wantonly to physical danger is foolish, but to expose a soul needlessly to spiritual disease and death—this is utter tragedy.

Let the light of the Church guide you and your friends.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Truman Blasts Ike In A Verbal Assault On Immigration Law

By WARREN ROGERS JR. WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has gone "morally blind" and is willing to accept "Nazi practices" although he took a leading part in liberating Europe from their domination.

In a scathing denunciation of the McCarran immigration bill, passed by Congress June 27 over his veto, Truman said it adds up to "the philosophy of racial superiority developed by the Nazis."

Among those who voted for the bill, Truman said, were Republican Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California—now the GOP candidate for vice president—and Republicans Sen. William E. Jenner of Indiana and Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, running for re-election this year.

Truman noted that Eisenhower, as the Republican presidential candidate, has endorsed these men, and added:

"The Republican candidate for the presidency can not escape responsibility for his endorsements. He has had an attack of moral blindness, for today, he is willing to accept the very practices that identified the so-called 'master race' although he took a leading part in liberating Europe from their domination."

The President's remarks were in an address prepared for reading by Howland H. Sargeant, assistant secretary of state, at the mobilization conference of the National Jewish Welfare Board in Washington.

In the speech, Truman apologized for not appearing in person to deliver it. He could not do this, he said, because he is now on a whistle-stop campaign tour through New England in behalf of the Democrats' Stevenson-Sparkman ticket.

At Hartford, meanwhile, Connecticut's Republican Gov. John Lodge quoted Truman as saying in a speech there last night that Republicans were "against the immigration of Jews and Catholics."

Lodge said this was "the most distasteful and false statement which has ever been uttered by a high public official of this nation."

He said Republican administrations had welcomed millions of people from all over Europe.

In his speech to the Jewish Welfare Board, Truman said he was proud of his part in the creation of the state of Israel and hoped his successor would continue technical assistance to that Near East country. He praised the Displaced Persons Act, which expired last June, and said it had made America stronger in character and skills.

Then the President turned to the McCarran Act, which he said Congress passed after he asked for legislation to admit 300,000 more displaced persons over the next three years.

"Although the bill bears the name of a Democratic senator (Pat McCarran of Nevada), I fought him on this bill all the way and I am going to keep right on, because the spirit of it is contrary to everything America stands for," Truman said.

The President said Republicans in Congress "with the help of some Democrats" were "almost solidly" behind the bill.

Among Republicans who voted this way, Truman said, were the members of the GOP's "truth squad" which followed the route of his recent Western campaign tour, insuring rebuttals to his statements—Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper of Iowa, Sen. Eugene Millikin of Colorado, Sen. Homer Ferguson of Michigan and Sen. Francis Case of South Dakota.

"I think you should invite the members of the truth squad to come and tell the truth about themselves," Truman said.

E. L. Tiner of Big Spring, supervisor of vocational agriculture in the high schools of a wide West Texas area, has been appointed assistant superintendent of the Fat Steers Department of the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, February 20 through March 1.

Tiner, a veteran of two and a half years service with World War II's 7th Infantry Division, is a graduate of Texas A&M with both B.S. and M. S. degrees. He has had 10 years experience as an FFA teacher and holds both the honorary Lone Star Farmer and American Farmer degrees. He has served as judge in the county shows of Nolan, Terrell, Mitchell, Dawson, Martin and Midland counties, and has assisted with judging contests at both San Angelo and the El Paso Livestock Show.

Each Soil Conservation District is reorganized every year. At the reorganization meeting of the Martin-Howard District, held at Stanton, Morris Patterson was re-elected chairman of the board of supervisors, and Edgar Phillips was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The other three members of the board are B. O. Brown of Vincent; W. H. Yater of Stanton and J. F. Flowers, recently elected in Midland County.

Last May Fred Keating, superintendent of the Big Spring Experiment Station Farm, dry planted some Buffel grass seed. As the dry days piled one upon another the planting looked mighty hopeless. Then along came the September rains and now the two rows of the grass is up to a good stand.

Keating also reports that he planted some more seed about two weeks in a little plot where he could give it some water and that it is also showing up well above the ground.

Buffel grass plantings in the county, especially the experiments being conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carroll, are being watched with great interest by cowmen interested in providing more and better grazing for their herds. Large plantings of Buffel grass are expected next spring in Howard County.

Gabe Hammack, PMA county administrative officer, reports that approximately 90 cars of the dried disaster hay have been received in this county and that all of it has been sold with the exception of two or three tons of damaged hay.

He says that on the whole the stockmen are well pleased with the hay and that a number of those who have received a part of it have ordered more. Apparently the percentage of good hay received here has been above that received elsewhere according to reports from other points.

"If the hay doesn't come up to specifications," Hammack points out, "the purchaser isn't under any obligation to take it." He figures that only about two or three per cent of the hay received here has failed to come up to specifications.

The Food Looks Good

A small North Korean girl is all smiles as she reaches for a tray of food offered her by Donald Bartley, of Fort Wayne, Ind., an engineer, first class aboard the U. S. Destroyer Cunningham. The little girl was one of the 70 North Koreans taken from a small fishing village near Songjin in North Korea when it came under bombardment of American warships knocking out Communist gun installations. The natives asked to be taken away. The Cunningham took refugees to a friendly island. (AP Wirephoto).

No Shortage Of Anti-Freeze Is Seen By Dealers

Anti-freeze dealers in Big Spring are not expecting a shortage of supplies during the coming winter. A survey reveals that most stations are well stocked with permanent types.

Dealers stated that many people have already started buying anti-freeze for their cars. The recent cold spell accelerated sales slightly, but there is still no great rush.

In past winters there has been a shortage of permanent types of anti-freeze, but the mild winter which has just passed left many local stations overstocked.

Some dealers reported that orders had been placed for anti-freeze during the summer. Also some said that huge orders had been placed because dealers were not used to receiving their full requests. The large orders were filled.

There's more anti-freeze in Howard County now than will be sold during the coming winter," one man said. Others said plenty of the ethylene-glycol was on hand, but they did not know whether stocks were sufficient to last the winter or not.

Practically every major oil firm is now manufacturing a permanent type anti-freeze. Dealers say they are all good. It was explained that Prestone lost the patent on the ethylene-glycol base.

Jobbers report that the filling stations did not buy as much anti-freeze this year as usual, but that the stations were well stocked.

Oregon has the fifth largest percentage increase in population in the nation during the 1940-50 period, according to Department of Commerce figures.
