

Joe McCarthy Skips Talk, Is Termed 'Ill'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) failed to keep a Cincinnati speaking engagement tonight, and his wife explained that his elbow infection "has not cleared up."

Mrs. McCarthy, reached at the McCarthy home by telephone, said the senator was there and that reports in Cincinnati that he was gravely ill were "a little exaggerated."

"I'm surprised they put out the story they did," she said. John Heid, chairman of a committee handling the dinner at which McCarthy was slated to speak, had said Mrs. Mary Driscoll, McCarthy secretary, had told him on the phone that McCarthy was "gravely ill."

However, Mrs. Driscoll herself failed to bear this out in a telegram she sent to the diners. It said simply that the elbow "was not given sufficient time to respond to treatment."

For a while tonight there was some mystery as to where McCarthy was. But Mrs. McCarthy said he was at home.

Throughout the evening reporters had knocked on the McCarthy door, rang the bell and telephoned, without getting a response.

Mrs. McCarthy said the senator's personal physician came to see him today and had the first chance in several days to examine the elbow, injured when a vigorous handshaker pushed it against a glass table top.

"The doctor put his foot down and said, 'I'm going to take care of you or else,'" she related.

She added that "the infection has not cleared up and he shouldn't have left the hospital when he did." She said McCarthy is going to get some further treatment of the elbow at home.

The Washington Star, in its Sunday edition, said the report that McCarthy was gravely ill was unfounded.

It said:

"A source close to the senator said his private physician visited him yesterday afternoon and 'absolutely forbade' his making the Cincinnati trip, possibly in fear of further injury to the elbow."

Likewise the Washington Post and Times-Herald said a close friend of McCarthy stated that the senator's doctor looked at his elbow, found it had a slight infection, and advised him not to make the trip.

McCarthy was to have addressed the Cuvier Press Club in Cincinnati tonight, two days after the Senate passed a resolution condemning his conduct on two counts.

Just where the senator was tonight was something of a mystery. Reporters who went to his home not far from the Capitol rang the bell and knocked repeatedly but could get no answer. There was a light on the second floor of the house and the shades were undrawn.

Bethesda Naval Hospital, where McCarthy was treated recently for an elbow injury inflicted by a two vigorous handshaker, said he was not there tonight. Nor could reporters find him at other Washington hospitals.

Motel Holdup Suspect Flees; Others Held

A gunman took about $20 from the Triple Gables Motel here at approximately 8:45 p.m. Saturday and two hours later a man fitting his description fled from a car which Ector County authorities stopped at Penwell west of Odessa.

Two other men who were in the car were taken into custody.

The man who escaped was dressed in khaki clothing, of the same type worn by the bandit who held up the Triple Gables Motel.

Big Spring police had broadcast an alert following the holdup, and the Odessa authorities presumably stopped the 1941 Plymouth as a result. Neither of the pair taken into custody had made a statement in connection with the robbery here late Saturday night, however.

The nervous young bandit walked into the motel office between 8:30 and 8:45 p.m. where Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smart, the owners, and Jim Bowlin, her brother, were watching television.

Mrs. Smart arose from her chair, thinking the man was a customer.

"Get back over there and sit down. This is a holdup," the man said. He then told Smart to "give me what you've got."

The motel operator told the bandit the money was in an adjoining room.

"Go in there and get it, and don't make a crooked move," the gunman ordered Mrs. Smart.

She went into the other room, keeping in sight of the robber, and secured the money which was in a bag.

"Is that all of it?" he asked. "It's not very much."

"That's all of it," Mrs. Smart said she told him.

The gunman then backed to the door, pocketed his gun and the money, and told his victims to accompany him to the car.

Butler, Choice Of Mitchell, Is National Demo Chairman Gets Dixie Votes In Winning Post

Imprisoned Mother Pleads For Son

James William Morgan, 18 (left), sits in the death cell at the state prison in Reidsville, Ga., awaiting execution for the fatal shooting of a taxi driver. His mother, Mrs. Ruby Anderson, 38 (right), made a last-minute plea for his life from her own cell in the same prison before he was granted a 15-day stay of execution. She is serving a two-to-four-year sentence for smuggling a gun to James after he was jailed. She gazes out the window at the white building a mile away where her son is being held and scheduled to die in the electric chair. (AP Wirephoto.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 4 (AP)—Paul M. Butler, Indiana committeeman, today was elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee, succeeding Stephen A. Mitchell.

Butler's election climaxed a controversy among party leaders. Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, incoming speaker of the House, wanted to postpone action until early next year.

Adlai E. Stevenson, 1952 presidential nominee opposed delay and the committee decided to go ahead.

Mitchell resigned effective Jan. 1 to re-enter private law practice.

The choice of Butler, representing a victory for the Stevenson-Mitchell wing of the party, although Stevenson had said two other leading candidates — Michael V. DiSalle, former Toledo, Ohio, mayor and price administrator, and President James Finnegan of the Philadelphia City Council — were equally acceptable to him.

Butler was the first member of the committee to be promoted from the ranks to the chairmanship in a decade, and the first to be chosen in a contested election in about 40 years.

The election came on the first roll call. Unofficially, Butler had 70 votes of the 105 cast. Only 53 were required for election.

Michael DiSalle, former mayor of Toledo, Ohio, and price administrator, was second with 18.

James Finnegan, president of the Philadelphia City Council, received 15 and Joseph F. Donahue of the District of Columbia received only one vote.

After the vote, George Rock, Colorado committeeman who nominated DiSalle, moved the election to be made unanimous. Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh who had nominated Finnegan, seconded the motion and Butler was elected by acclamation.

The official vote was never announced.

Butler entered politics in 1927 and has held nearly every organization post in the party — precinct committeeman, county chairman, and district chairman, but never served as state chairman.

He was named Indiana's national committeeman in May 1953 for a four-year term.

He is a prominent South Bend attorney, is married and has five children. He is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame.

Butler is allied politically with the Indiana Democratic faction led by Henry F. Schriener when Schriener was governor of Indiana from 1949-52.

As national committeeman from Indiana, he replaced Frank McHale of Indianapolis, who led the other faction along with former National Chairman Frank McKinney, McHale and McKinney were close to former President Harry Truman, while Butler, Schriener and the present Indiana state chairman, Charles E. Skilleen, have been close to Stevenson.

Butler told the committee he was proud he had had support from all sections of the country in his election as chairman. He said the vote "demonstrates that there is harmony and unity in our party."

"I am against any sectionalization on any issue, action or proceedings in the Democratic party," he said.

Butler said he regarded his election in open balloting as having made "political history," adding that "we do have differences of opinion."

Butler pledged "dedicated service" to the National Committee in a campaign he predicted will bring Democrats a "glorious victory" in the 1956 presidential race.

Butler, who is 49 years old and never held elective office, told an informal news conference that while he was one of the original supporters of Stevenson in 1952, as chairman he intends to be "just a Democrat working for the party."

Butler said he was pleased by almost solid support he received from delegates from Southern states. He said he subscribes to the action of the Advisory Committee of 69 yesterday in tossing out the so-called "loyalty oath" requirement for presidential nominating convention delegates.

Asked about the Supreme Court's decision against school segregation, Butler replied: "I do not consider segregation as a political issue."

Rayburn had proposed a delay in the election for 60 days or more. Later he met with veteran party leaders, including Carmine DeSapio, New York national committeeman and Jacob Arvey, Illinois national committeeman, and then passed the word that he would not press for a postponement.

Five Children Die In Flames

CLEVELAND, Dec. 4 (AP)—Fire flashed through the third floor of an old and crowded East Side tenement house today and killed five small children in their beds.

The death toll was the worst of any Cleveland fire in nearly nine years, and it prompted Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze to demand a complete report, promise stricter tenement house inspection and urge a speed-up of the city's slum clearance program.

The victims, all first cousins, were Janice Johnson, 6; her brother, Frank, 5, and her sister, Estella, 2, children of Mrs. Ruth Johnson, 24; and James Duvall, 4, and his sister, Vicki, 2.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Duvall, parents of James and Vicki, were in a basement suite of the two-and-a-half story frame tenement when the fire was discovered about 2:30 a.m. Flames and smoke drove them back when they tried to reach the third floor—Duvall by an outside stairway and his wife on the inside steps.

An arson squad investigator said, "We have tentatively decided the fire was due to defective wiring." And Building Commissioner William D. Guion began a personal investigation after a fire battalion chief reported to him that the tenement owner, Mrs. Laura Gillum, had no city license to operate the rooming house. The 50-year-old house was occupied by at least 26 persons, police said.

Mrs. Keathley, Glasscock Pioneer, Dies; Rites Today

GARDEN CITY — Funeral for Mrs. Jennie Cornelia Keathley, 94, the good neighbor of Glasscock County for nearly half a century, will be held here at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Keathley died at 9:40 p.m. Friday at a hospital in Big Spring where she was taken a week ago. She had been in failing health for several years.

Services will be conducted by the Rev. R. O. Browder, Ropesville, assisted by the Rev. R. L. Bowman, Westbrook, and the Rev. H. Lee Crouch, pastor of the First Methodist Church here. Burial will be in the Garden City Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, B. A. Keathley, who died April 22, 1949. Eberley-River Funeral Home in Big Spring is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Keathley was born June 10, 1860, in Arkadelphia, Ark., and came to Texas when a small girl. Her family settled in Navarro County near Frost. In 1892 she was married to B. A. Keathley and they came to Glasscock County in 1906 and settled on a ranch about five miles northwest of Garden City.

In the days before physicians were available, Mrs. Keathley nursed the sick and attended many women in childbirth, possibility as many as 100. Nothing dissuaded her when a sense of duty was involved, for she even nursed several diphtheria cases. So long as strength lasted, she was active in the First Methodist Church where she always held her membership.

At the age of 87 she spent an entire day once picking up apples which had been blown from trees in the orchard by a windstorm. That night she didn't feel well but wouldn't see a doctor. Next day she was taken to a hospital with a ruptured appendix, which seemed to slow her only momentarily.

It was two years later before she and Mr. Keathley left justifying in returning to Garden City to live. They had kept a house there as a residence for "when we are old."

A couple of years ago one of her daughters caught her slaving away at cleaning out the chicken house. Suggesting that if her mother just had to clean up something, she might find the house easier, she got the characteristic reply that "you girls would clean up the house but not my chicken house."

McNard, Houston; three daughters, Mrs. A. D. Cook, Mrs. Fred Chaney and Mrs. John Lee Parker, Garden City; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ila Keathley; a sister, Mrs. Lucy Highower, Garden City; 17 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

Palbearers will be grandsons and include Jack Cook, Weldon Parker, Allie B. Cook, Alton Cook, W. E. Chaney, Curtis Chaney and Sanders Chaney.

One son, Basil Keathley, preceded his mother in death in 1948 and is buried in the Garden City Cemetery.

PONTIFF RALLIES

Ailing Pope Reported Showing Improvement

By ALLAN JACKS
VATICAN CITY, Dec. 4 (AP)—A new course of treatment brought fresh improvement to ailing Pope Pius XII today. Tonight he was resting more easily than since his collapse Thursday.

Doctors said the rally, begun after 48 hours of desperate illness, would continue if food can be given the 78-year-old pontiff.

The first alkaline washing of the stomach—part of the prescribed course of treatment—took place in the afternoon.

An official medical bulletin at 8:42 p.m. (2:43 p.m. EST) said: "The bettering of the condition of the Holy Father continues. The treatment announced in the (earlier) medical bulletin has begun with good results. This afternoon the Pope rested better than for some time."

Another heartening word came from the Vatican. The Pope feels strong enough so that from a bedside microphone he will give his blessings to thousands scheduled to assemble in St. Peter's Square tomorrow for mass prayers to his recovery.

One of five medical specialists called last night to the Pope's bedside said he had a recurrence of vomiting with traces of blood this afternoon. The specialist said, however, that this was not "pre-occupying."

He added that the pontiff must have absolute rest for at least a month if the new treatment begun today is to be successful. During this period, the Pope must remain in his Vatican apartment, and possibly in bed, he said.

The Italian radio said tonight the Pope's digestive difficulties may have been aggravated by the accidental swallowing of some chronic acid about a year ago, when he was undergoing dental cure. This could not be confirmed.

The doctors initiated a new treatment of blood plasma, vitamins and other medicines designed to build up the Pope's strength.

Two of five physicians attending the 78-year-old pontiff said in a medical report: "It is imperative to reestablish the strength of His Holiness. His strength, without any doubt, will rapidly recover if a gradual feeding is carried out and the therapy of vitamins and liver extract, already started, is continued."

They dispelled fears that cancer might be involved in his gastric distress by saying he was not suffering from a tumoral sac of the digestive tubes.

The confidence expressed in the report was echoed by all those who visited the weakened leader of the world's more than 400 million Roman Catholics during the day. Doctors, cardinals and relatives emerged from the papal apartment with optimistic words.

The statements, combined with the medical report, prompted a wave of optimism that the frail but strong-hearted Pope would recover from his illness—the gravest in his 16-year pontificate.

Reliable Vatican sources said, however, the Pope still must be considered in danger.

He has been confined to his bed, unable to eat, since Sunday. Thursday afternoon he suffered a collapse that brought him near death.

Today's medical report, signed by Drs. Antonio Gabarrini and Raffaele Pasquelli di Valmaggiore, a surgeon, said the Pope's cardiac circulatory system is in excellent condition, that his lungs are untouched and that the history of his illness excludes the possibility of a tumoral sac of the digestive system. It said the hiccup from which the pontiff has been suffering intermittently since last January are attributable to gastritis or an ulcer.

"At the present state of things," the report added, "it is indispensable to succeed in feeding His Holiness" either intravenously or through a tube. It said blood transfusions were not necessary, but that infusions of blood plasma would be "opportune."

The doctors were among five famous physicians summoned to a midnight Vatican conference last night.

Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

If Saturday's blow is a harbinger of next spring, we had better start our prayers for rain campaign earlier than usual. In a way, we blame the Christmas street decorations. Every year just as they are put in place, the wind starts blowing as if to destroy them.

Nevertheless, this didn't seem to dull the Christmas shopping edge. Traffic was jammed downtown and most merchants reported a brisk response for this stage of the game. The volume promises to be well above that of a year ago.

Howard County drew $148,000 out of approximately one million dollars available in the district under next year's state highway maintenance program. The project will be widening, strengthening, leveling and resurfacing 14.3 miles of U.S. 87 from Fairview north to the county line. This is the same sort as from here to Fairview this year, and it made a tremendous difference in the road.

Visitor of the week was Prince Farman-Farman of Iran. Guest of Codden, the Prince was shown firsthand how oil is produced, transported, marketed and distributed in the Southwest. He was as enthusiastic as a schoolboy. Of the Permian Building, where he stayed, he said it was "beautiful."

After sliding through 18 polo cases without much serious involvement, we had a fatality on our 19th.

Our Religious Faiths

What Is A Jew? (Part II of Article I)

This is another of a series of informative articles on the role of religion in today's world written for the Herald by noted authorities of the various faiths and denominations. Last week's article will discuss Catholicism, Christian Science, Baptists, Episcopalians and Methodists.

PART II

By Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer
Director of Interreligious Services for the American Jewish Committee

Exactly what is a rabbi and what does he do?

Literally, rabbi means "teacher." The authority of a rabbi is based not on his position but upon his learning. He has no special privileges. He is in no sense an intermediary between man and God.

In Orthodox Jewish practice, the rabbi rarely leads in the services; it is the cantor who conducts worship. And any well-informed layman may rise to the pulpit to lead the congregation in prayer. There is no religious hierarchy in Jewish faith.

The influence of an individual rabbi is determined solely by his ability to keep the respect of laymen and colleagues as an interpreter of Jewish law.

The modern rabbi, like the minister, is responsible for religious education, for worship in the synagogue, for ceremonial surrounding birth, confirmation, marriage and death and for pastoral guidance.

It is true in Judaism the home is more important than the synagogue.

Yes. Many times in history, Jews have been forbidden to worship publicly; synagogues and temples have been closed by law. Yet Jewish religious life has continued intact.

The center of Judaism resides in the family and the home. Jews regard the home as a fitting place of worship — just as they regard marriage as a three-way partnership between husband, wife and God.

Our religion is essentially a family religion. The mother, lighting Sabbath candles; the father, blessing his children at the table; the many happy rituals that surround holidays; the scroll (mezuzah) on the doorpost which signi-

CHEER FUND IS UP TO $58

Contributions to the city firemen's Christmas Cheer fund eased up a notch Saturday to an aggregate of $58.

Latest donors were Virgil Little $10 and Mayor G. W. Dabney $5.

Proceeds from the fund will be used by firemen in repairing toys and for providing goodies for distribution to needy youngsters on Christmas.

The firemen are donating much effort and time in repairing toys. But they need help in the form of cash.

Dust Storm Blasts Area

Big Spring, along with all of West Texas, absorbed the worst dust storm of the late autumn season Saturday.

Guesty morning winds settled down to a sustained hard blow that reduced visibility to a quarter of a mile at times.

To the west and north, highway traffic crawled frequently as barren fields sent floods of impenetrable sand across roads.

After lulling late in the afternoon, the elements got their second wind, this time from the north, and stirred matters all over again.

With all, it was warm—almost hot—with the 85 degrees setting a new record for Dec. 4 by three degrees.

The weatherman offered relief from the warmth with a prediction of colder weather Sunday. No such hopes were held out about the wind and sand.

At Lubbock, visibility was reduced to one-eighth of a mile as the wind in gusts up to 55 miles per hour built up a dust blanket over the South Plains.

At least one plate glass window was blown out in the Lubbock downtown district. Several large street-wide electric Christmas decorations were crumpled. Electric service was interrupted briefly.

Dollar Day Monday Offers Thrifty Yuletide Shopping

Value features in unprecedented volume are in store in Big Spring Monday as the city observes its customary first Monday Dollar Day.

This event is on the usual city-wide basis, with most major retailers combining their offerings for an over-all bargain day that should attract shoppers from a wide area.

This Dollar Day has an extra attraction because offerings tie in with Christmas gifts. Many of the special bargains listed by the local stores are ideal for giving, and thrifty shoppers will be taking advantage of them. Most of the outstanding Dollar Day features are in advertisements in today's Herald.

Free bus transportation again is available in women shoppers, by use of the special coupon below. Presentation of this to any City Bus driver permits shoppers to ride downtown, or to any of the neighborhood shopping centers, during specified hours.

Mineral Wells Goes Dry By Slim Margin

MINERAL WELLS, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—The sale of beer in Mineral Wells and Palo Pinto County was outlawed today in a special election by a margin of 59 votes.

The vote was 2,690 dry and 2,631 wet.

The county had authorized the sale of beer since a local option election in 1946 when the vote was by 347 votes.

The County Commissioners Court will meet Tuesday, Dec. 9, to canvass the vote. If the official figures show beer was voted out, then the sale of beer will become illegal Jan. 2, thirty days after the canvass.

A turkey shoot sponsored by the Sterling County 4-H Club will be held this (Sunday) afternoon starting right after dinner at the cattle pits on Highway 51 two miles this side of Sterling City.

There will be classes for deer rifles, all sights, for shotguns, for .22 calibre rimfire rifles and for pistols and sixshooters.

Various types of competitive shooting for the frozen turkeys is on tap.

Next Tuesday marks the 25th anniversary of the employment of the Clifford Abra Cranfill with the Cosden Petroleum Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranfill live on a 160-acre farm northwest of Coahoma. They moved there in 1948, and this year raised 22 bales of drought cotton on 68 acres.

But farming isn't anything new to Abra.

His mother, Mrs. Agnes Howell, who now lives in Coahoma, was widowed when Abra was 11 years old. The family was then living on a Seury County farm but moved to Colorado City. A little later the mother bought a small farm in Mitchell County. Abra, in the meanwhile, had become the man of the family.

Mrs. Howell told us a few days ago how, when Abra was 13 years old, he produced his first crop. His mother hired the more than 50 cultivated acres broken, but Abra did the planting and all else with his mother, his three sisters and younger brother helping him with the harvest. At this age he also had hogs, cattle and a horse, all of which he looked after himself. And on top of all this he was attending school and making passing grades.

R. W. McNew of Big Spring recently transferred title on four registered Hereford cows and two heifers to J. L. Mundell of Knott.

Judge Tom Garrard of Taboka sold seven registered heifers to J. B. Billingsley of O'Donnell.

Raymond Cochran of Hermleigh has taken delivery of five cows from Eva A. Hodges of Sweetwater.

Lance Sears of Sweetwater delivered six heifers to Joe V. Edmondson of San Saba.

Twenty-two cows and six heifers were transferred from the herd of Tom Herridge of Llano to the herd of J. L. Sawyer, also of Llano.

Earl L. Brown of Colorado City sold two cows and seven heifers to Leland Jackson of Baird.

Lowie Rice of Big Spring is a member of the Texas A&M College's Senior Livestock Judging Team which won sixth place in cattle judging and 12th place in the 36-team contest held in conjunction with the International Livestock Exposition in Chikago, Oklahoma A&M College won first place.

One of Lowie's teammates, Allen Turner of Valera, a senior in Animal Husbandry, won eighth individual high place in the Intercollegiate Judging Contest. Other team members are Sam McAnally of Brady, Kenneth Killon of Alpine, Frank Parker of Miami and Billy Steele of Streetman.

Modern science appears to have proven that the cattle and sheep wars of old were fought in fact, when cattle and sheep graze together both do better. That's the report from the Sonora Agricultural Experiment Station. Only small differences were noted in weight gains and mohair production when goats were pastured with sheep and cattle.

Tests were made in a dozen 80-acre native grass pastures and the tests were conducted over a five-year period.

Detailed information on the tests may be gotten by writing the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas, and asking for Progress Report No. 1728.

More than 600 entomologists attended the National Cotton Council's insect control conference at the Hotel Adolphus in Dallas during the week, where they heard the possible use of atomic radiation and biological warfare against insects discussed.

Insects, particularly the harmful cotton insects, cost American farmers millions of dollars each year. It was said at Dallas that these insects cost the farmer at least one bale out of seven. Ground in the fight against the harmful insects has not been gained, the specialists appeared to agree, and they said this has been due to the fact that the farmers have increased their cotton yields and have made their plants more palatable to insects which has caused the insect population to increase.

But of all insects the assembled entomologists agreed that the pink bollworm is the worst, a menace that would bring ruin to the cotton industry if it should be allowed to go unchecked. It was reported to the conference that the pink bollworm moth travels by air sometimes as high as 3,000 feet above the earth.

At a recent meeting at the Grandview Gin in Dawson County, landowners in that area of the Dawson Soil Conservation District west of the Brownfield Highway and east of the Lubbock Highway, elected G. Z. Sherman of Grandview as a member of the board of supervisors to succeed W. T. Snellgrove.

Mr. Snellgrove had been a supervisor since the district was formed.

Engineers from the Big Spring office of the Soil Conservation Service have been in Dawson County assisting irrigation farmers. They have aided in locating irrigation wells and in designing sprinkler systems to be used with them.

Among the farmers assisted have been Dan Carley, Bill Archer, Earl Henderson, Gus White, M. G. Riggan, Bailey Edward and J. H. Dorison.

Bobby and Marilyn Sale, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sale of Martin County, and William Cave, another 4-H Club member, will take steers to the Fort Worth Show, according to County Agent Ralph Jones.

Bobby will show two steers and Marilyn one. These steers were bred on the Sale Ranch. The William Cave steer is from the Howard County herd of Perry Walker.

Bobby and Marilyn will also have a trio of steers at the El Paso show, while Carroll Cave will also have another Perry Walker steer at that show. Jones says he also expects Bobby and Marilyn to have another trio of steers ready for the Houston show.

Women Just Little Girls When It Comes To Dolls

By KATHARYN DUFF
Abilene Reporter-News
Written for The Associated Press
ABILENE, Dec. 4 (AP)—Women are just little girls when it comes to dolls.

That's about what the Abilene Reporter-News discovered when it started sponsoring the West Texas doll show in cooperation with the Abilene parks and recreation department.

The paper also discovered that some men, boys and girls are interested in collecting dolls.

About 2,500 dolls were entered in the show, first of its kind in this part of the state. The free show opened Friday and will close Sunday night.

Dolls in the show are as small as a fraction of an inch, as tall as four feet. Dolls are made of corncobs, walnuts, coconuts, egg shells, and gourds. There are rag dolls, stuffed dolls. There are priceless dolls of wax, of rare china and porcelain.

Some dolls are elegantly gowned. One bride doll has a wardrobe valued at $750. Others are tattered, dirty dolls entered in the "most worn" class. One section of the show, stuffed toys, is for boys only.

The dolls are exhibited in a fairland setting created in a building at Abilene Fair Park by Scott Files, parks superintendent. It is

Autry Says Future Good

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Gene Autry predicts the cowboy and the Western will be around for generations yet because "they're part of the national heritage of this country."

The millionaire cowpoke is unworried about being superseded by the space jockey. A man on a horse, he says, is a symbol of pioneer America that will endure.

Autry, star of television, radio, the movies and records, explains that "when you think of George Washington, you think of him riding a white horse."

"It's the same with other heroes of the early days of our country. And the cowboy epitomizes the American pioneer."

The soft-talking cowboy star gives due credit to the horse.

"I would say that in my business the horse probably is responsible for 50 per cent of the popularity of most Western stars," he declares.

Autry has become big business as a singing cowboy and built up a fortune that would make many a Wall Streeter envious.

Aside from his income from his shows on CBS radio and television, his photograph records and his six movies a year, he owns three radio stations, two television stations, a movie producing and distributing firm and two music publishing firms, and is a partner in a huge ranch in Arizona and has oil interests in Texas.

Contracts Signed To Hold Soap Box Derby In Big Spring In 1955

Big Spring will see the "soap box" coasters run again in 1955.

The city's participation in this greatest amateur racing event in the world has been assured again, with completion of contracts with the All American Soap Box Derby.

Again, The Lions Club, Tidwell Chevrolet Company and The Herald will be sponsors of the event, which will see some local lad win a grand trip to Akron, Ohio, to compete in the All-American and have a flyer at the national award of a $5,000 college scholarship.

The city's first Soap Box Derby was run off last July 5, with more than two score contestants and with thousands looking on. It was declared to be a great success, and sponsors are making plans to make the 1955 event even bigger. They are hopeful of signing up 100 boys for the local races.

Last year's winner, Charles Edward Morris, enjoyed a four-day visit in Akron, as he competed in the All-American.

Preliminaries for the 1955 Derby will get started earlier this year, and boys will be able to get rules books and start construction of their coasters in plenty of time to get them in top shape. Announcement will be made when Rule Books arrive.

From national headquarters comes the announcement that official rules have been changed to make for even better local races. The effect has been to make Soap Box Derby car building as simple as possible and give every boy an equal opportunity to compete for the $15,000 in scholarships and other prizes in the 18th All-American.

Following up rule changes made last year, the rules committee which met in Detroit has strengthened 1955 sections covering axles, welding, steering, floorboard and bulkhead construction.

These provisions have been revised to provide that: Official Soap Box Derby axles may be re-inforced by wooden axle trees ONLY.

As in 1954, no welding, brazing or soldering of any type is allowed on any part of the car. However, welding or brazing that has already been done by the manufacturer on official wheels and commercially made steering assemblies is permissible.

The steering wheel must operate to swing the front axle (on a kingpin) ONLY by means of cables attached to the front axle assembly. Any type of tiller bar steering is prohibited.

A car shipped to the All-American Soap Box Derby at Akron must arrive with winning wheels MOUNTED ON THE AXLES. Once the wheels must be left as they were when the car crossed the finish line and should not be dismantled or disturbed thereafter in any way.

Gasoline Consumption In Texas Shows Rise
DALLAS, Dec. 4 (AP)—Texans bought more gasoline in 1954. The U. S. Department of Commerce said today gasoline consumption in Texas increased 1.8 per cent in the six months through June this year, compared to last year. Texans bought 1,438,403,000 gallons of gasoline in the January-June period of 1954.

UT Head Declares Colleges Are Vital

AUSTIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—National survival may depend on making use of our colleges and universities, Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, said tonight.

If the United States lets "hostile forces" take the lead in education, "then national disaster is inevitable for us and our way of life," Wilson said.

He took his stand against restriction of educational opportunity in a speech to the Philosophical Society of Texas.

Cut Travel Barriers

STRASBOURG, France, Dec. 4 (AP)—The Council of Europe, which long ago opened a drive to abolish visas for intra-European travelers, announced this week that visas are required now in only five instances in which nationals of the 15 member states are visiting other member states. These are when Turks want to visit Saarlanders or Icelanders and vice versa and for Greeks who want to visit Luxembourgers.

Burns Prove Fatal

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 4 (AP)—Mrs. J. G. Biffle Sr., 33, died today from burns received Wednesday in a fire at her farm home.

Subways Ruled Out As Traffic Answer

MONTREAL, Dec. 4 (AP)—The newly elected chairman of Montreal's Executive Committee, Pierre Desmarais, has ruled out subway construction as the solution for traffic congestion in Canada's largest city.

Subways do not solve traffic problems, he said in an interview. "A changeover from street cars to buses will solve the problem pretty well," he said. "Express buses will help more. Then, with expressways, the whole problem will be solved."

DO IT YOURSELF Storage Cabinet Has Wide Variety Of Uses

By BILL BAKER

My combination cabinet was designed with one main purpose in mind: to provide the lady of the house with additional storage space.

But as it turned out, the cabinet proved to be one of those versatile items with a dozen uses. Now, in addition to offering just the right place for the storage of special items, it becomes the right furnishing accent for any room in the home.

In the entrance hall, for example, the combination unit becomes the right place for a vase of flowers or a favorite art object. In the living room it is the ideal spot for a small radio, special often-read books or a lamp. And in the bedroom it becomes the perfect night table.

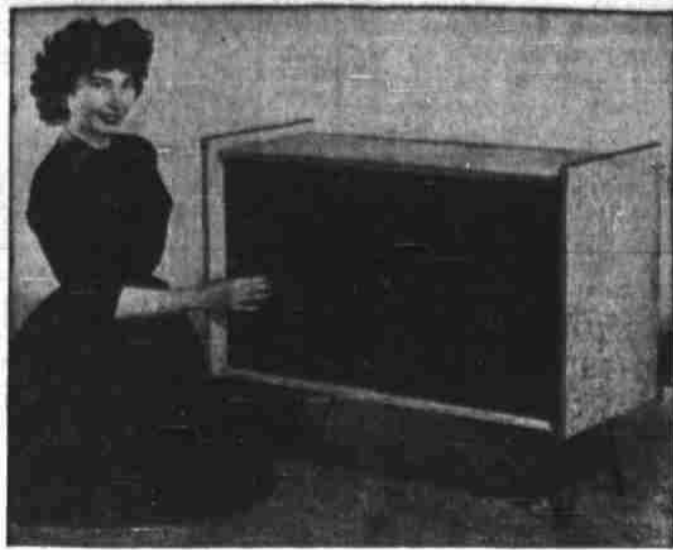

Another perfect spot for the combination cabinet is your dining room. It is ideal as a small buffet.

Here's how you can get a copy of Bill Baker's Combination Cabinet pattern: send your name and address (clearly printed), together with only one dollar ($1) in check, cash or money order, to Bill Baker, Big Spring Herald, P. O. Box 1111, Los Angeles 53, California. Remember to ask for Pattern No. 132.

Serving of food will be made easy when the combination cabinet joins your staff.

In the home where the dining area is part of the living room, the combination cabinet becomes the perfect room divider. And when placed between two living areas this way, it can serve as an end table part of the time, and a buffet when the dinner bell rings.

The physical features of the combination cabinet will really appeal to you. Sliding doors, which can be made in either modern punched masonite or in any solid wood, cover two deep storage shelves.

Use modern iron legs on the cabinet, if you like, or add wooden legs if your taste runs to more conservative styles.

You'll notice I said you could select your own period for this combination cabinet — and the reason you can do this is because the item is an easy-to-build project that you'll construct from start to finish.

The full story of the cabinet is found in Bill Baker's extra-simple Pattern No. 132. With this pattern you'll find construction is no problem.

Exact-size pattern pieces, made of heavy-duty paper, allow you to trace each section of the cabinet right to the wood. Cutting and assembling, then, is made very easy. And you'll need only basic tools.

In Pattern No. 132 you'll also find an easy-to-understand instruction sheet, a full material list and suggested finishes for the completed cabinet.

And one of the best of the combination cabinet is that it's easy to build. You don't have to be a skilled woodworker to do a professional job with this furniture item.

Red China Prepares Fight On Chiang Isles

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Red China apparently has rebuffed Western efforts to moderate its policies toward Formosa, and a period of increased military activity is expected against coastal islands held by the Chinese Nationalists.

This will confront the United States with critical policy decisions, turning on the question whether to join in the Chinese Nationalist fight for islands which are expected to be attacked.

So far President Eisenhower, the State Department and at least a part of the military establishment have taken a firm stand against combat intervention in the one case in which the issue arose for final decision. That was when the Reds were blasting the island of Quemoy in September.

Newspapers and radio broadcasts from the Chinese mainland today carried violent denunciations of a defense treaty which the United States signed Thursday with the Chinese Nationalist government on Formosa.

They also lambasted the British for supporting the treaty. The attacks on the British had more than superficial significance for this reason: Britain in private approaches to the Chinese Communist government, which it recognizes, has been trying to get Red leaders to cooperate in pacifying the Formosa area.

The attacks on the British coincided with reports in diplomatic quarters here that the Reds have rebuffed the British approaches. They say the islands, including Formosa and the Pescadores, are Chinese territory and will be brought under the rule of Red China.

United States officials discount the Reds' assertions about conquering Formosa and the Pescadores, which are close by. They do not think the Communists have the capacity for military operations across 100 miles of the Formosa Strait, which is turbulent water most of the year.

There is no such certainty here, however, about the safety of the Nationalist-held islands just off the coast of Red China. It is likely that since the Reds can't do anything decisive about Formosa they will do everything in their power about the offshore islands. Where a few miles of protected water have to be crossed they could mount some massive attacks. Britain and the United States are working in closer harmony on Far Eastern policy than they have at any time since the Communists conquered China almost five years ago. The main line of their joint effort is to stabilize the Formosa area and eventually make some arrangements there which would end the fighting.

Steers Entered In Arizona Show

Howard County 4-H Club boys and girls will open the 1955 show season by exhibiting a number of steers at the Arizona National Livestock Show.

The show, which is to be a "register of merit" exposition for the first time, opens Jan. 3 at Phoenix.

At least 11 Howard club members will have entries. In addition, four steers from this county will be entered in the open class.

One of the latter will be the Lloyd Robinson steer which has been judged the champion Hereford in every major "register of merit" show in the nation during the fall season. Robinson will have two other animals in the open class and Perry Walker will show one steer in the open division.

Club members to have entries in the club division are Wanda Boatler, Rodney Brooks, James Cauble, Sonny Choate, Royce Hull, Robert Lomax, Lorin McDowell, Joyce Robinson, Sue White, Ann White and Leslie White.

Survivor Of World War II Navy Air Mission Backs Vietnamese Woman's Tale Of Aid

By EDWARD S. KITCH

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—One of two survivors of a World War II Navy air mission over the China Sea today offered verification of a Vietnamese woman's story that she hid 11 American airmen and was imprisoned by the Japanese.

The survivor, Ensign William A. Quinn of Elmhurst, Ill., said some members of the squadron want to locate the 34-year-old woman.

Mrs. Pagnon, now believed in Paris, related Oct. 16 at Saigon, Viet Nam, that she spent 9 1/2 years in Japanese and Vietminh prison camps because she helped hide the 11 Americans.

She told of being forced to leave her 2-month-old daughter, Monique, with Vietminh jailors when they released her and her French army husband, also a prisoner of war, last Aug. 31.

She told her story to American Embassy officials at Saigon and presented some supporting letters as proof that she had assisted the three officers and eight enlisted men. The American officials made no comment on her story but helped pay her fare to Paris, France.

Quinn, a former ensign and co-pilot, read an Associated-Press news story of the woman's plight and came to the AP office in Chicago to fill in some of the details and tell some of the tragedy which resulted.

Quinn, 33, said the patrol bomber was crash-landed on the China Sea Jan. 28, 1945, at Tam Quasua, a point near Quan Ngai, the same as related by Mrs. Pagnon.

as happily as she thought. Only one member of the crew was able to escape in a U. S. submarine three days later.

Only Quinn and radio man Charles Hamilton of Boston, Mass. survive the 11-man crew Mrs. Pagnon helped by hiding them in the hills and bringing them food.

3RD TRIAL TO BE SET

Davis Trial Ends In Jury Deadlock

Ray Davis' second trial on murder charges ended Friday afternoon with a hung jury. District Judge Charlie Sullivan dismissed the jury about 2 p.m. after Foreman Alton Underwood reported for the second time there apparently was no chance for the panel to agree on a verdict. Underwood said the jurors were "reasonably equally divided."

Davis had gone on trial Monday on charges that he murdered Robert A. (Bob) Childers on March 27, 1953, at the Wyoming Hotel. It was his second trial on the same

Wilmer A. Hoyer Completes Work Toward Doctorate

Wilmer A. Hoyer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Hoyer, has completed work on his Ph. D. in physics at the University of Texas. After receiving offers of positions from Humble Oil Co. and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, he decided to go with Humble and will be in their laboratory at Houston.

Hoyer, 27, has pursued his scientific studies since high school days, being interrupted only once for Army service. He was stationed in Japan following the war and was a radio technician with the signal corps.

While a student at Jefferson High School in San Antonio, Hoyer felt it his duty to keep the radios and school loud speakers in repair. Upon entering St. Mary's University in San Antonio, he listed his major as physics.

After two years at St. Mary's, he was called into the service, and on discharge he entered the University of Texas. His bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees came from the University of Texas.

The job with Humble is the first which Hoyer has undertaken, having been a student since he was six years of age.

He is married to the former Marie Schweigert of Three Rivers, and in the couple's last letter to their parents they stated they would move to Houston around Dec. 15.

The Rev. Hoyer is pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and has been here since 1947.

81 Per Cent Of School Tax Paid

Collections on the current roll of the Big Spring Independent School District have eased past the 81 per cent mark.

J. O. Hagood, assessor-collector, reporting on collections as of Nov. 30, said that to total now stood at $385,980.50.

Of this amount $368,268.72 is on the current roll, with $282,589.03 going to local maintenance and $84,196.46 to interest and sinking fund. Discounts allowed stood at $11,483.23 (December payments still merit one per cent discount). Delinquent collections rose to an aggregate of $7,669.28.

Reports Car Stolen

Mrs. Tom Gorrell reported to police Saturday that her 1946 gray two-door Ford was stolen from the Big Spring State Hospital. It was taken around 9 a.m., she said. License number is CC-8172.

The first practical steel writing pen was produced in England in the 18th Century.

Topping Due On Fourth Segment

Leveling-up work continued Saturday on the downtown sector of Fourth Street, and is expected that hit-mix topping will be resumed early next week.

Jarbet Construction Company's paving schedule calls for the hot mix application to follow immediately on the heels of the base coat, said L. K. Mathews, Highway Department Inspector.

The base coat has been installed from Nolan to Lancaster Streets, and Mathews said this application is to fill the cracks in the old paving.

The hot mix topping will give a smooth finish to the downtown sector of Fourth, he said. Work has been received here from Highway Engineer Jake Roberts that proper drainage will be provided when leveling of Main and Scurry Street intersections is effected.

There has still been no word as to when topping operations will start on the east and west segments of the highway, but announcement was made some months ago that Jarbet was shooting for a year-end deadline.

Stray Heifer Held At Luther Farm

An 18-month-old whiteface heifer, apparently a stray, is being held at the John Underwood farm near Luther, Sheriff Jess Slaughter reported.

The animal is not branded and has horns. She showed up at the Underwood place about four months ago.

Progress Is Made On Acquisition Of Rights For Freeway

Only two pieces of property on which improvements have been made remain to be acquired for the U. S. 80 Freeway right-of-way from Big Spring through Coahoma, county commissioners said Saturday.

These two tracts probably will be secured during the coming week. Condemnation papers are being prepared for filing against the property.

Special commissioners made awards during the past week in connection with two other condemnation suits. Johnny Spears was awarded $5,000 for eight lots and a shop building in Coahoma. Charlie Robinson was awarded $250 for an acre of unimproved land.

Appraisers in the Spears condemnation proceedings were Horace Reagan, Jack Cook and George O'Brien. Special commissioners in the condemnation of the Robinson acreage were Ray Prather, O'Brien and Cook.

County commissioners said they still must secure title to several vacant lots in Coahoma, and to some unimproved acreage between Coahoma and Sand Springs. No right-of-way has been purchased east of Coahoma.

Optimist Club Formation Set

All former members of an Optimist Club and any person interested in the formation of an Optimist Club in Big Spring are invited to attend an organizational meeting on Monday evening.

The dinner affair, for which all interested persons will be guests, is slated for 7:30 p.m. in the Waggon Wheel Cafe.

Oliver Cofer, who has been assisting San Angelo Optimists in making contacts here, asked that anyone interested in an Optimist Club for Big Spring be at the meeting or contact him at the Herald office prior to time for the meeting.

The Optimists, a service type organization specialize in work with young boys.

Martin Segment Of Freeway Is Near Completion

STANTON (SC) — Martin County's Highway 80 four-lane construction program, between the Howard County line and the Midland County line, should be completed about the middle of December, according to G. T. Orenbaum, the Highway Department's resident engineer.

The construction was started Jan. 4. The cost of the Martin County part of this highway improvement has been about $800,000.

Orenbaum estimates that the construction between the Martin County line and the Midland city limits should be completed about July 1. The Martin and Midland county projects together have cost approximately $1,500,000.

THOUSANDS ATTENDED OPENING OF BIG SPRING'S NEW SAFEWAY, 13TH & GREGG

Safeway says "thanks" to Big Spring and Howard County folks for their wonderful reception...

This scene shows the parking area of the new Safeway on opening day. Even though there's free parking for 192 cars, the lot was filled to capacity all day long. As soon as cars moved off, there were others waiting to move in.

This is another scene showing the great number of folks who visited the new Safeway on opening day. The lines to the check stands went as far back as the elaborate produce section, shown in the background. These smart-looking shoppers had to wait awhile due to the unusually large crowds but everyone was in good humor on opening day.

It is estimated that over 7,000 Big Spring and Howard County residents attended the opening of the magnificent new Safeway, 13th and Gregg, Big Spring, on Monday, November 22.

Many "oh's" and "ah's" were heard as folks walked up and down the spacious aisles looking over the last-word facilities. The Big Spring Safeway is the newest and latest in the entire Southwest.

The low shelf prices brought more "oh's" and "ah's." Riley Foster, local Manager, said that 1,500 regular shelf prices have been drastically reduced. These are the items that you buy day in and day out, week in and week out. These "reductions" are not "specials" but new, low, regular shelf prices obtainable every day.

Riley and all the folks at Safeway extend their thanks to those who have visited the new Safeway since its opening on November 22, and extend a warm welcome to all to drop by and browse around.

Hundreds of folks made for the self-service meat section as they came into the new Safeway. This is a typical scene at the 11-foot self-service meat section, where Safeway's guaranteed meats were purchased as quickly as they could be cut and wrapped in the back room.

Nine speed-up check stands were operating full blast on opening day at the new Safeway but lines formed anyway as evidenced by this scene. Riley says that you'll be able to go through the check stands rapidly on a normal day.

Another "First" for the new Safeway!

The new Safeway has the only refrigerated garbage room in Texas. In addition, there's a cashier's booth for cashing checks and for leaving empty beverage bottles. . . Magic Carpet entrance and exit doors. . . ice cream cases. . . frozen foods cases. . . dairy foods cases. . . and a beautiful multi-color scheme throughout the store.

GREAT RINER — Paul Morgan

They Brought A Calf Along

The Junior farm skill team from the Westbrook High School brought a calf along to the FFA contests Saturday, because their demonstration was calf dehoring, and who can dehorn a calf if he doesn't have the calf? Members of the team, from the tail of the calf to his head, are John Matlock, Jerry Putman, Danny Swafford and Bill Smith, with John P. (Pete) Hines, their vocational agriculture teacher.

Electricity On The Farm

As electric power has become of greater significance to the farmer and rancher, classes in vocational agriculture in the high schools are required to include it as one of their required studies. To show their familiarity with the problems in selecting and caring for the proper motors for farm jobs this Lamesa FFA team took electric motors for their farm skill demonstration in the FFA contests at the Big Spring High School yesterday. Members of the team are, left to right, Walton Koemel, David Vandiver and Harold Houston. They were coached by Andrew Essary, vocational agriculture teacher at the Lamesa High School.

Brownfield FFA Teams Take 5 Top Places At Area Contest

Teams from the Brownfield High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America won five of the six top places in the Area II FFA contests held at the Big Spring High School Saturday.

Events in which Brownfield teams placed first included senior chapter conducting, junior chapter conducting, senior farm skill demonstrations, junior farm skill demonstrations and radio broadcasting.

The only event in which they failed to place first was the FFA Greenhand Quiz, conducted by L. M. Hargrave of the Department of Agriculture at Texas Tech College. Brownfield did not have a team entered in this event.

Two hundred and nineteen FFA members and their vocational agriculture instructors from over a wide West Texas area were here for the contests and for the FFA Association Banquet which was held in the High School Cafeteria at noon, and at which the menu consisted of barbecued ham, combination salad, English peas, candied yams, hot rolls and butter, apple cobbler, and milk or tea. It was served by the regular cafeteria staff.

The contests and banquet were under the supervision of Lester F. Buford of Big Spring, supervisor of vocational agriculture in the high schools of this area stretching from Mitchell County to El Paso.

The winning Brownfield teams were trained by Ves Hicks and Walter Meyer, instructors in vocational agriculture in the high school there.

The banquet program was opened with the invocation by Fred Igo of the Meadow High School. Spe-

Infantry Division Asks Enlistments

Both opening and closing ceremonies were conducted by FFA teams.

County Savings Bond Total Up

Howard County savings bond sales went over the half-million-dollar mark during October, reports Ira Thurman, county bond chairman. Sales for October totaled $37,304, bringing the 1954 cumulative total to $515,829.

However, Howard County still has a long way to go in order to make the 1954 quota, the chairman said. Needed is $353,171 in bond sales — over 40 per cent — before the end of the year to meet the quota.

Howard is trailing behind most of the other counties in this immediate area, Thurman said. Coke County, for instance, needs only $5,000 in sales to make its quota, having 93 per cent of it in the bag. Nolan County has sold 83 per cent of its quota, needing $63,447 more.

Several counties have only a small edge on Howard, the chairman said. Scurry has accounted for 66 per cent of its quota, and still needs $146,404; Mitchell County, with 62 per cent of its quota sold, needs sales of $102,884.

Taylor County must sell a whopping $831,217 to make its quota, only 57 per cent accounted for to date, according to Thurman. Borden County is 59 1/2 away from its quota, with only a little over 3 per cent made.

Savings bond totals for the state reached $134,779,021 during October, Thurman said. This represents a little over 67 per cent of the quota of $199,500,000.

The Fort Worth area, which includes Howard County, has a quota of $55,037,500 for the 1954 calendar year. This area is leading the other areas through October, having accounted for 76 per cent of its quota with sales of saving bonds totaling $42,030,328.

City To Mark 'Safe Driving Day' Dec. 15

"Safe Driving Day," which has been designated as Wednesday, Dec. 15, by President Eisenhower, will be observed in Big Spring. The Howard County Citizens' Traffic Commission will cooperate with the Texas Safety Association and the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety in the program, it was announced by Bill Cox of the CTC.

Cox has been named Big Spring's director of "Safe Driving Day." The day will be observed on a nationwide basis, and it is expected that Mayor G. W. Dabney will issue a proclamation here and that Governor Shivers will issue a proclamation for the state.

"Safe Driving Day" is scheduled to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be reduced materially when each motorist and pedestrian observes traffic regulations, Cox said. Every citizen is being asked to drive and walk as he would have everyone else drive and walk. The goal of "Safe Driving Day" is for every community to go accident-free for a 24-hour period on Wednesday, Dec. 15.

Cox is of the opinion that Big Spring can and should pass through the day without an accident. The usual quota for this city is about two fender-bendings per day, but during the past month the number has been considerably larger.

Last year over the United States there were 38,300 people who lost their lives in traffic accidents, and the economic loss was placed at four billion dollars in hospital and medical costs, property damage and other expenses.

Big Spring itself did not have any traffic fatalities on the road. Two people were killed in the city, however, by automobiles. Seven people were killed during 1953 in Howard County in traffic accidents.

Chamber Directors Will Meet Monday

Directors of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday at noon in the Chamber conference room at the Permian Building.

Petitions which are being circulated concerning Webb Air Force Base will be discussed, according to J. H. Greene, manager. A manufacturer's exhibition, recreation facilities for the north side, and a perpetual trophy for the Hereford Breeders' Association will also be discussed.

Dr. Sheppard May Go On Stand Soon

By ARTHUR EVERETT
CLEVELAND, Dec. 4 (AP)—A defense timetable calls for Dr. Samuel Sheppard to take the stand as his own life or death witness next week. He is on trial for the July 4 murder of his wife, Marilyn.

Defense attorney William J. Corrigan was not committing himself today to an exact lineup of witnesses as he mapped his counter-offensive to the state's first degree murder case against the boy-faced, 31-year-old osteopath.

However, he said he expects Dr. Sam to take the witness stand in his own defense before the eighth week of Cleveland's celebrated criminal trial is over. Five and perhaps six other members of the Sheppard family of osteopaths also are listed as defense witnesses. One of them, Dr. Stephen Sheppard, 34, launched his brother's defense Thursday morning. He was still under cross-examination by the state when court recessed Friday afternoon for the weekend. He returns to the stand Monday.

"We have many more questions for him to answer," said assistant

Library Has Best Sellers

Many books now appearing on best-seller lists throughout the nation are now available in the Howard County library, reports Mrs. Opal McDaniel. Glancing down a recent list of the Saturday Review of Literature's library poll, the librarian indicated the following books are in the library:

"I'll Cry Tomorrow" by Lillian Frank; "Not As A Stranger" by Morton Thompson; "Mary Anne" by Daphne du Maurier; "Love Is Eternal" by Irving Stone; "The Power of Positive Thinking" by Norman Vincent Peale; "The Dollmaker" by Harriette Aron; "Katherine" by Anya Seton; "The Roosevelt Family of Sagamore Hill" by Hermann Hagedorn; "Never Victorious, Never Defeated" by Taylor Caldwell; "TNT — The Power Within You" by Claude Bristol; "A Family" by William Faulkner; "The Mind Alive" by Harry and Bonaro Overstreet; "Come With The Wind" by Margaret Mitchell; "Sweet Thursday" by John Steinbeck; "The Fall of a Titan" by Igor Gouzenko; and "My Brother's Keeper" by Marcia Davenport.

Also, Mrs. McDaniel said, the library has received a new shipment of how-to-do-it books which are in the process of being placed into circulation. Aids to the handyman can now be checked out on auto repair, carpentry, refrigeration, welding and house wiring.

Retail License Deadline Looms

Not many days are left to pay the state retail license, E. R. Trego, district supervisor of the State Comptroller's office, said here Saturday. The store license must be paid before Jan. 1 to avoid penalty, he warned.

Other state licenses and taxes are also due before the end of the year. Only the cigarette license is exempt from being renewed at the end of each year, Trego said. The comptroller's office will be closed Dec. 23-29, he added, and merchants should keep this in mind.

Navy Recruiter Due Here During Week

Chief E. H. Linsenbaker of the Lubbock Navy recruiting station will be in Big Spring Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. Linsenbaker is interested in talking with young men who are considering joining some branch of the military service.

Interested persons can see him in the basement of the post office from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Dec. 6-8.

Pellets Riddle Truck

A Seven-Up Bottling Company truck was riddled with B-B pellets Friday night, resulting in heavy damage to the windshield, two fog lights and two headlights, police said.

Prince Says Wider Markets Needed For Iranian Crude

An Iranian prince, former director general of petroleum for his government and now financial advisor to the prime minister, observed American oil production methods here Friday.

PRINCE FARMAN-FARMAIAN

"And for West Texas he had a list of superlatives. What did he think of this area?" "Hi!" he cocked his head. "Marvelous."

Prince Manousch Farman-Farmaian came here as guest of Cosden Petroleum Corporation, fulfilling a desire to see how oil is produced, delivered and processed.

In his country the government owns all mineral rights and one or two wells may drain an entire pool. The prince was amazed at the various spacings and policies of offsetting to protect rights of mineral and royalty owners. Tank batteries on a lease were new to him.

"We have one well that flows with such pressure that it pushes the oil up a huge hill to a battery of long separators and then sends it on its way by gravity to the sea 140 miles distant—all without a pump."

Prince Farman said average production was 7,500 barrels per well in Iran, and one well flows 19,000 barrels per day. All gas is flared but some products (such as kerosene, fuel oil) which have no immediate market are recycled.

Oil was discovered originally in Iran in 1908, he said, and the discovery well flowed for 40 years with loss of only 10 pounds pressure. Oil is produced from depths of 3,000 to 7,000 feet.

Prince Farman put in a bid for independents to buy some of the Iranian output. He said five per cent had been reserved out of concessions to majors. Iran is realizing only 60 cents a barrel out of production of its oil, he told a group of oilmen at a party R. L. Tollett, Cosden Petroleum president, gave in the prince's honor at the Petroleum Club in Midland Friday evening. Sixty cents is too little, he added.

This furnishes barely enough revenue to absorb the deficit and leads to instability of the government, he asserted.

"You must realize that the government must face our people constantly. It must be able to say 'this is what we have done; this is what we are going to do.' If it doesn't, then it may fall."

The vast Abadan refinery is idle and the prince would like to see it operating again and broaden markets for products, rather than leaving the country only with crude to export.

Currently production is 150,000 barrels per day; in another year it is due to be stepped up to 225,000 barrels per day. He is looking to European rather than American markets, declaring that "an increase of only 3 or 4 per cent in Europe will absorb our oil. We think we can see that easily."

The prince contended that it was South American and not Iranian oil that was causing domestic difficulties in the United States oil field.

He harbored no delusions about the power or Iran to resist if Soviet Russia should attack.

"They couldn't use our oil," according to the prince. "It would be of value only by depriving the Allies."

U. S. popularity has slipped perceptibly in his country, he said, but Iran still looks to this nation as the one to back her up in telling other powers "no."

The danger of communism in his country, he continued, was due largely to the fact that the masses really had nothing to defend. To them one system of government meant about the same as another.

"I wonder if you realize that in world affairs you are the winner of the race and have the prize—the loving cup—and that in order to keep it you must keep on running hard and fast?"

The prince was a great admirer of the United States, of the way things are done here, even though he laughingly said that of the hundreds of oil wells: "You do things the hard way."

Actually it is his people who do things the hard way, he explained. Many activities and processes are essentially the same as they were centuries ago. The land is eroded and "all washed out." Uneasiness hangs over agriculture and it is deteriorating. Occasionally unrest rises to the point that open robbery "just like your old Wild West (you thought you started something, ha? We were doing it centuries ago)."

But when he warmed to his favorite subject of Persia it was with a special pride—Persia was a sort of Texas in Iran, he admitted.

After spending the night in the Permian Building Penthouse, the prince made further inspections of Cosden's refinery Saturday morning and was guest of honor at a luncheon before being flown back to Fort Worth. He will be in the country yet another three weeks and must report to the Shah of Iran when the ruler visits the United States soon.

AMARILLO, Dec. 4 (AP)—S. A. L. Morgan, 69, nationally known authority on oil and gas law, died here today after an illness of several months.

Death came at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. B. L. Morgan, where he had been living since he returned here from Houston Nov. 23.

Morgan had been special attorney for the Texas Co. since 1937. He first gained national recognition the same year when he won an antitrust case between the federal government and the oil and gas industry. Out of 84 cases involved in the litigation, the oil and gas industry won only four, and Morgan's case was one of those four.

After beginning his law career in Vernon, Tex., Morgan moved to Wichita Falls, then a booming town by oil discoveries. There Morgan became interested in oil and gas litigation.

In 1926 he opened law offices in Amarillo.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Mrs. David Rasco of Amarillo and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, who lives in Italy; and two sons, John Morgan of Denver, a Medal of Honor winner in World War II, and S. A. L. Morgan Jr. of Chicago.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Polk Street Methodist Church here.

POSSIBLE FIND IN CLEAR FORK HIT BY WALKER

A. E. Walker of Big Spring No. 1 Tommy Humble, southeast Sterling County, appeared Saturday to be a discovery in the Clear Fork.

Missing the San Angelo, which yielded a commercial well in Walker No. 1 Humble in the once depleted Crandell pool 15 miles southeast of Sterling City, operator had free oil in the Clear Fork at 1,530. There was no water. Saturday casing was being run and the hole may be treated Monday.

The test is located 330 from the north and 1,532 from the east lines of the southeast quarter of section 30-11, SPRR, about a quarter of a mile northwest of the No. 1 Humble which pumped 36 barrels on completion test.

Moore Venture To Potential

A Moore field project which made upward of 80 barrels on its last 24-hour run is being potentialized this weekend. It is Duncan Drilling Company's No. 2-B Wilbanks. The Duncan venture has depth of 3,170 feet, and location is about eight miles west of Big Spring. Drillsite is 390 from north and 990 from east lines, 32-34-in. T&P survey.

Another Duncan try, the No. 3 Brindley, is drilling cement on plug at 3,202 feet with cable tools. Total depth is 3,222 feet. Location is about six miles southwest of Big Spring, 1,650 feet from south and 2,320 from east lines, 18-33-in. T&P survey.

Other Moore field ventures are reportedly drilling ahead.

Holmes No. 1 Frazier had depth of 3,020 feet over the weekend. This project, six miles southwest of Big Spring, is 330 from south and west lines, 17-35-in. T&P survey, on a 640-acre lease.

Lone Star No. 6 Walters, about seven miles southwest of the city, was drilling at 850 feet Saturday. Location is 1,650 from northwest and southwest lines, 34-34-in. T&P survey. It is on a 642-acre lease.

Illinois Governor To Head Compact

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Gov. William Stratton of Illinois was named chairman today of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

He is the first Illinois governor named chairman in the Compact's 20-year history. Also for the first time, governors of Michigan and Nebraska were named to the Compact's executive committee. They are Mennen Williams of Michigan and Gov. elect Victory Anderson of Nebraska.

Maurice Acres of Texas was named vice chairman. Earl Foster of Oklahoma City, was chosen executive secretary of the commission again.

The commission is made up of 28 governors who formulate conservation practices in oil and gas.

Red Newsman Turns Up In Vatican City

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 4 (AP)—Among the scores of newspapermen from all over the world waiting in the Vatican press office for news of the ailing Pope is one reporter from Rome's official Communist organ, l'Unita.

"As far as we know," said one Vatican press official, "it's the first time a Communist ever set foot in here."

Drilling In Basin Raises Its Tempo

Drilling crews in the Permian Basin are working more frantically during this Christmas season than they have at any other time during 1954, according to the latest Reed Roller Bit survey.

A new 1954 high of 485 units are reportedly turning in the Basin. This figure was based on tabulations made Nov. 25, and it is believed to be even larger now. Results of the survey were released Saturday.

Andrews County had more rotary rigs drilling when the survey was taken than at any other time in the year. The total for the county was 89, a jump of seven over the previous count.

Lea County, N. M., on the other hand, slipped to its lowest level of the year, with only 59 rotary rigs in operation.

Reagan County boasted the largest increase, with a jump from the seven rigs on the last tally to the 25 now turning. Cooke County is jumped from 25 to 32. Activity in the Spraberry Trend Area also picked up, going from 18 to 25.

The two-week period between the two Reed surveys showed a jump of 22 in the overall Basin total.

Wildcat Locations Staked In Five West Texas Areas

Wildcat locations were spotted Saturday in Andrews, Yoakum and Ector counties.

The Andrews prospector was staked by the White Eagle Oil Company of Midland, and it is the No. 3-A University. Location is 467 from south and east lines, southwest quarter, 7-14-University survey.

The No. 3-A University is about four miles northwest of the Andrews community and will be drilled to 6,500 feet for a test of the Glorieta.

In Yoakum County, Kay Kimbell of Lubbock spotted the No. 1 F. Dean Suddeth. It will be 660 from south and west lines, 582-B-Gibson survey, placing it 11 miles west of Plains.

Projected drilling depth of the Yoakum prospector is 5,700 feet. Elevation is 3,740.

The Ector County wildcat is Cities Production Company and others No. 1-Q TXL. Its nine miles northwest of Goldsmith, and elevation is 3,236 feet. Operations will be by rotary to 9,800 feet.

Drillite of the No. 1-Q TXL is 660 from south and east lines, northeast quarter, 21-45-in. T&P survey.

Sterling Holes Near Pay Zones

Operator of Wilbanks and Rutter No. 1-B Bade, project in the Parochial Bade field of Sterling County, will drill into pay Monday with cable tools, it has been announced.

This project has a total depth of 2,182 feet, where cable tools have been awaited for drilling into the Clear Fork. Location is 330 from south and east lines, northeast quarter, 21-22-H&TC survey.

Boykin Bros. No. 1-A Bade, 1-263 from the south and 330 from the west lines of section 22-22-H&TC, 10 miles west of Sterling City and in the Bade Parochial field, drilled to 1,890 feet in lime Saturday. There were light shows in the San Andres, which were not tested inasmuch as the project is going to the Clear Fork around 2,100. It is being drilled with cable tools.

Another Wilbanks and Rutter project is the No. 12-C Proctor, is drilling at 5,405 feet in Reagan County. This venture is seeking the Spraberry.

National Activity Is On Even Keel

DALLAS — A total of 2,804 rigs were active in oilfields of the United States and Canada for the week of Nov. 29, 1954, according to a report to American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors by Hughes Tool Company. This compares with 2,838 reported a week ago, 2,542 a month ago, and with 2,970 in the comparable week of 1953.

Duncan Drilling On Currie Well

Duncan Drilling Company No. 1 Currie, project in the Howard-Glasscock field, was reported making hole at 2,230 feet Saturday. Location is 330 from south and 994 from east lines, 12-33-4s. T&P survey. It is on a 324-acre lease and slated for 2,600 foot depth. Location is some 12 miles south of Big Spring.

Completions Now Past 15,000 Mark

AUSTIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—Texas oil well completions for this year soared to 11,149, this week as 219 new wells were brought in, the Railroad Commission said today. This compared with 9,435 a year ago.

Operators completed nine new gas wells, bringing the year total to 1,130 against 1,044. Plugs went into 120 dry holes.

Wildcating led to 10 of the 219 new oil wells, 3 of the gasers and 71 dry holes.

The total average calendar day crude oil allowable rose to 2,977, 639 barrels, up 22,483 from a week ago, as the December producing

Independents Gun For Imports Law

By MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Crude oil imports hold a high priority among items independent oilmen plan to place before Congress next year.

When a natural gas price fixing dispute broke in June there was some indication the industry-wide strategy would be to concentrate on an amendment to the Natural Gas Act.

Indication now is that there will be a double-barreled Washington attack seeking "corrective legislation" for both natural gas and foreign crude.

The objectives are:

1. Legislation removing any doubt that Congress intended to exempt producers and gatherers from provisions of the 1938 Natural Gas Act.

2. A solution that would assure the independents that foreign oil imports would supplement and not supplant domestic production.

A number of strategy meetings are on schedule within two weeks. Both camps hope to have their plans perfected before the holiday.

W. M. Vaughney, president of the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America, said this week some specific restraint must be placed on imported oil.

"The record-breaking volume of oil imports violates all rules of equity," he said.

Hines Baker, president of Humble Oil, carried the natural gas price-fixing fight before the Investment Bankers Assn. of America.

"The only sure way to remedy the situation is for Congress to pass corrective legislation," Baker said. "The corrective legislation required is amendment of the Natural Gas Act so as to make it doubly clear the act does not apply to the production and gathering of natural gas."

The Supreme Court held June 7 that the Federal Power Commission has authority to regulate the price of natural gas sold by a producer to an interstate pipeline for resale in another state.

Scurry Test Is Finalled

French M. Robertson has announced the completion of his No. 6 Wellborn in the Sharon Ridge-1700 area of Scurry County. Potential is 96 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

Completion was made from perforations between 1,736 and 1,741 feet. There was no water, gravity of oil is 29 degrees, and the gas-oil ratio is 260-1. Some 500 gallons acid were used.

The No. 3-A University is about four miles northwest of the Andrews community and will be drilled to 6,500 feet for a test of the Glorieta.

In Yoakum County, Kay Kimbell of Lubbock spotted the No. 1 F. Dean Suddeth. It will be 660 from south and west lines, 582-B-Gibson survey, placing it 11 miles west of Plains.

Projected drilling depth of the Yoakum prospector is 5,700 feet. Elevation is 3,740.

The Ector County wildcat is Cities Production Company and others No. 1-Q TXL. Its nine miles northwest of Goldsmith, and elevation is 3,236 feet. Operations will be by rotary to 9,800 feet.

Drillite of the No. 1-Q TXL is 660 from south and east lines, northeast quarter, 21-45-in. T&P survey.

Independents Gun For Imports Law

By MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Crude oil imports hold a high priority among items independent oilmen plan to place before Congress next year.

When a natural gas price fixing dispute broke in June there was some indication the industry-wide strategy would be to concentrate on an amendment to the Natural Gas Act.

Indication now is that there will be a double-barreled Washington attack seeking "corrective legislation" for both natural gas and foreign crude.

Authority On Oil Law Dies At Amarillo

AMARILLO, Dec. 4 (AP)—S. A. L. Morgan, 69, nationally known authority on oil and gas law, died here today after an illness of several months.

Death came at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. B. L. Morgan, where he had been living since he returned here from Houston Nov. 23.

Morgan had been special attorney for the Texas Co. since 1937. He first gained national recognition the same year when he won an antitrust case between the federal government and the oil and gas industry.

Out of 84 cases involved in the litigation, the oil and gas industry won only four, and Morgan's case was one of those four.

After beginning his law career in Vernon, Tex., Morgan moved to Wichita Falls, then a booming town by oil discoveries. There Morgan became interested in oil and gas litigation.

In 1926 he opened law offices in Amarillo.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Mrs. David Rasco of Amarillo and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, who lives in Italy; and two sons, John Morgan of Denver, a Medal of Honor winner in World War II, and S. A. L. Morgan Jr. of Chicago.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Polk Street Methodist Church here.

Scurry Test Is Finalled

French M. Robertson has announced the completion of his No. 6 Wellborn in the Sharon Ridge-1700 area of Scurry County. Potential is 96 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

Completion was made from perforations between 1,736 and 1,741 feet. There was no water, gravity of oil is 29 degrees, and the gas-oil ratio is 260-1. Some 500 gallons acid were used.

The figure rose from 473 to 495. Increased activity between Nov. 10 and Nov. 25 was seen in Andrews, Borden, Coke, Ector, Gaines, Howard, Kent, Nolan, Pecos, Scurry, Concho, Hookley and Loving counties.

Counties included in the survey, with the previous count in parentheses, follows: Andrews, 80 (82); Borden, 9 (8); Cochran, 2 (3); Coke, 32 (25); Chaves, 2 (2); Crane, 23 (27); Crockett, 4 (6); Crosby, 1 (1); Dawson, 5 (5); Ector, 28 (27); Eddy, 2 (2); Floyd, 1 (1); Gaines, 26 (24); Garza, 9 (9); Glasscock, 1 (2); Hookley, 4 (3); Howard, 14 (13); Jeff Davis, 1 (1); Irion, 1 (1); Kent, 8 (7); Lamb, 1 (1); Lubbock, 1 (1); Lea, 59 (60); Lynn, 1 (1); Midland, 38 (26); Mitchell, 6 (5); Menard, 1 (1); Nolan west, 9 (8); Otero, 1 (1); Pecos, 13 (11); Reagan, 25 (27); Reeves, 1 (1); Runnels south, west, 1 (2); Scurry, 17 (13); Schleicher, 5 (6); Sterling, 1 (2); Sutton, 3 (3); Tom Green, 5 (6); Terry, 6 (8); Upton, 17 (18); Val Verde, 2 (2); Ward, 12 (18); Winkler, 7 (5); Yoakum, 11 (16); Spraberry, 25 (18).

Meet The 'Seniors' Of The COSDEN FAMILY

This is the 18th in a new series of special Cosden presentations, recognizing the long and valued services of those employees who have been associated with the company 15 years and longer. Cosden is proud of the scores of its workers who have contributed their efforts through so many years toward the success of the company.

H. T. BRATCHER

Though a newcomer to Big Spring, H. T. Bratcher is not a newcomer to Cosden Petroleum Corporation. He is one of the organization's senior employees, having worked continuously for the past 17 years.

Bratcher, who owns his home at 1505 Ayfford, started with Cosden in June, 1937, as a pumper at Graham. He worked his way up in the production department to the position of farm boss and in 1948 was transferred to the Orme terminal in Arlington as manager.

He was transferred to Big Spring in June of this year as a production foreman, and his wife and two children arrived about three months ago after completion of their house.

Bratcher, who is 45, was born in Leitchfield, Ky., where he graduated from high school. He attended college at Bowling Green, Ky., and then graduated from Draughon's Business College. His first job was that of bookkeeper for a Chevrolet Company in West Virginia.

He came to Texas in the early '30's and worked with Cosden as a rouabout on a part time basis at Vernon. Then he became an office employee for Fain Magaha Oil Company in Vernon. He was married to the former Frances Simmons in Vernon in May, 1936.

After being transferred to Arlington he became a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Oil Industry Information Committee there, and a Lions Club member. He was also past master of the Masonic Lodge there.

The Bratchers have two children, Joan, 12, and Gayle, 10. His hobby is electric trains, and he has conducted exhibits at oil shows in Dallas, Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring and Arlington.

Editorial Writer Frank Grimes Has Anniversary In Journalism

Frank Grimes, who has poked fun at his lanky frame and mused on homespun ways, is a familiar figure to the West Texas journalistic fraternity.

To the general public, however, he may not be quite so well known. Yet many Herald readers know Mr. Grimes better than they realize, for the Herald avails itself of many of the editorials which he produces primarily for the Abilene Reporter-News.

Saturday marked the anniversary of his association with that paper in 1919. He served as city editor, managing editor and became editor in 1928, concentrating from that day forward on editorial writing.

His output has been phenomenal, writing an average of three editorials each for the afternoon and morning editions. He has won national acclaim. Many years ago at a special seminar at Columbia University, an expert praised the editorials in his paper and commented that if he had not known that it was humanly impossible, he would say the same person was writing for the afternoon and morning editions.

Although limited on formal education, Frank Grimes is accounted one of the most learned men in West Texas. What he has to say on the occasion of 28 years of editorial writing is of much interest.

"We had no special ambition to be an editorial writer; it was a job somebody had to do, so we started doing it. Thirty-five years, ten or twelve typewriters and somewhere near 18 million words later we rather like the chore. It has run into a bit of work, of course, but our index fingers have borne up nobly under the strain.

"An editorial most resembles an essay in literary form, but it is much more flexible. It can be both interpretive and analytical. It can be informative and enlightening. It can be controversial and speculative. It can be amusing or dull. It can be long or short.

"But whatever it is, it's wasted time and space unless people read it. No man who ever lived could avoid writing dull editorials as well as occasional bright ones. His success, like that of a baseball player, lies in maintaining a fair percentage. The god of chance quite often comes to his rescue; for he writes something he wouldn't wipe his feet on, and it strikes a popular chord. On the other hand, he pours everything he has into an opus that satisfies his artistic standards, and the thing falls as flat as a pat-tycake.

"You learn to write 'em and let 'em go, hoping for the best and fearing the worst, never knowing whether you've done well or ill. If an editorial writer let himself become pathologically concerned about what people think of his work he would be done for.

"We have seen individuals and corporations flourish and grow in power, prestige and influence, and we have seen them wither and die. We have seen families start with nothing and work their way to success and the respect of their fellows, and we have seen them reverse this process. Money or the lack of it seems to have little to do with it; it is character that counts, and only character.

"We have been witness to their joys and sorrows, their little and big successes, their small and large failures. We have seen high school halfbacks and girls in pig-tails grow into grandparents. We have watched vigorous young manhood decline into stooped old age, and the dwelling places of the poor and the well-to-do alike fall into disrepair, and revive.

"We have known the evil tongue of idle gossip to rip the respectable and the upright, and have come to despise the bearer of false witness against his neighbor. Our faith in the innate decency of most people is stronger than ever; we have seen them crawl away from the edge of disaster, we have seen them bear up heroically under the most trying tests, we have seen them bear crushing burdens without a whimper, we have seen them make sacrifices in behalf of others they could have ducked, but didn't; and having known them we feel much better about being a member of the human race.

"This all may seem a lot of pother about not much of anything, but we felt maybe our readers wouldn't mind in view of the occasion. Regarding our scribbles, which have made up only a part of our daily chores, and not necessarily the most difficult, we can only say that we have done our best and we hope it hasn't been too bad.

"This would not be complete without some reference to those with whom we have worked side by side. Down through the years they must have numbered in the hundreds, mostly young, of both sexes. They have been our friends. If we have or ever had an enemy among them, front shop or back, upstairs or down, we are not and were not aware of it.

"And we would rather have it that way than be rich and famous."

To End Rice Controls

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Dec. 4 (U)—Malaya is abolishing controls on the import of rice, effective Jan. 1. This will permit merchants, for the first time in 13 years, to buy rice abroad freely for shipment into Malaya.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (U)—Sen. Hazel Abel (R-Neb) said she casually hinted to President Eisenhower today that he should seek a second term. She said he responded with a broad grin: "Let's take it step by step."

Code Of Ethics Drafted For Loan Industry In State

AUSTIN, Dec. 4 (U)—A code of ethics has been drafted for members of the consumer loan industry, a statewide grievance committee of that industry informed Atty. Gen. Sheppard today.

Sheppard had warned the loan industry to "clean up their house or face a forced housecleaning."

Grogan Lord of Austin, chairman, said the committee will be constantly active and cooperate with the attorney general's office and other enforcement agencies in investigating complaints of abusive practices.

The code outlines these principles for lenders:

Explain fully to customers the actual cost, terms and obligations of the loan.

Use in loan transactions written instruments as simple as circumstances will permit.

Not to resort to harsh, unreasonable or oppressive collection tactics.

Adhere to generally accepted standards of business department. Cooperate with public authorities.

Wins Railroad Battle

OBERSUHL, Germany, Dec. 4 (U)—This small West German town got back its rail service this week after two years of semi-isolation in a peninsular pocket formed by the Soviet Zone frontier. East Germany shut the line in 1951 when it closed all but six rail crossing points. But the Communists decided later they wanted to run freight trains across the pocket. Rail officials refused until Obersuhl got back its passenger trains too.

Globetrotter Center

The key man of the Globetrotters' comedy show and a hard, aggressive ball player who stands up best under pressure and the kind of a competitor who loves it when the going is toughest is Robert Hall of Detroit, Mich. 6-2, came up through the Trotters' farm system. The careful grooming he received is evidenced by the fact that he's now one of the best pivot men in basketball. This is his fifth season with the Globetrotter organization and he's a great favorite of fans around the globe.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

One more look at the football season: Though four of the eight teams in 1-AAA lost more games than they won in circuit play, total disaster was not visited upon any team. Each had its moments of glory. Sweetwater was favored to cop the bunting but was a disappointment all season until it met Breckenridge, when its play was magnificent. Plainview had little to cheer about until it met Sweetwater, which it proceeded to upset, 19-18. The Bulldogs caught Sweetwater without its ace goal kicker, Harroll Hobbs, in that one. Lamesa wallowed in a deep slump until its next to last game, then pulled the rug from under the feet of Plainview, then almost upset Snyder in its final start. Vernon had the satisfaction of tying Big Spring and depriving the Steers of a chance to get into the playoffs. Levelland was walking with the lame and the halt at season's end but it surprised the world in tying Breckenridge. Snyder's chief surprise was perhaps in outplaying Sweetwater, although it lost, 13-12, but the Tigers did have the satisfaction of scoring more points on Plainview than any other conference team. Breckenridge was at its season's best in beating Big Spring. The Steers went to Levelland as the underdogs but completely dominated play and won, 20-0. In two year's time, the Big Spring club has scored 492 points. The 1933 edition of the club scored 98 more points (in 13 games) than did this one in ten. As far as the scoring went, Breckenridge was in a rut. It managed 35 points in each of five different starts. It's just as well, perhaps, that Tackle Roland Powell and Center Carroll Green have finished their eligibility at Sweetwater High School. Between them, they made 16 tackles in the game against Big Spring.

Bucs Were At Best Against Steers

Roy Baird, the Big Spring B team coach, saw the Breckenridge Bucaroos play six times in a scouting capacity during the past season and says they made fewer mistakes against Abilene and Big Spring than they did against any other club. Harold Bentley, who also coached the Buc for Big Spring, says Breck tackled better against Big Spring than it did any other team. Abilene fandom was much more bitter and antagonistic toward the Bucs than were local grid followers, who continue to pay Breck homage for being a great football team and town. Track workouts have already started at the local high school. Coaches are hopeful most of the future. A team gridders turn out for the track season. Bentley will coach the thinny clads. Larry McCulloch, the Odessa JC cager, has this to say of Paschal Wickard, the HCJC cager: "He isn't fast and isn't quick but he's a fine ball player because he hustles every minute".

Lubbock To Be Best, Says Malaise

When Roswell launched its season's ticket drive for the 1935 baseball season last week, the mayor of the village led off by buying four of the $20 ducats. Sixty-eight boys, including nine of Big Spring, scored one point or more each in District 1-AAA football play the past season. Though he never crossed the goal line once, Big Spring's Glenn Jenkins tied with Levelland's Gary Lawson for 22nd place among the point-getters. Each had 23 points. John Malaise, the former Big Spring High School eagle mentor who visited here recently, says he'll have a fair club at Odessa High School but that Lubbock will be the "power" in 3-AAAA. "Too much height up there," says John, of Lubbock. "The 1934 Oklahoma University football club is generally considered to be the best ever fielded by that school. Odessa will shortly open a coliseum seating about 6,500, in which almost any kind of sport can be played. El Paso had to cancel out its Tri-State Basketball Tournament because of a lack of interest. Last year, the tournament committee paid much of the expenses of the visiting teams. This year, it made no such provision. Big Spring had been entered. When he's away from the

Rosewall Maintains Jinx Over Seixas

MELBOURNE, Dec. 4 (AP)—Australia's little Ken Rosewall maintained his longtime hoodoo over Vic Seixas today when he defeated the United States champion with a brilliant display of racket marksmanship in the Victorian tennis final 6-1, 4-6, 6-1, 7-5. The defeat of the net-rushing Philadelphia threw a blanket of gloom over the American Davis Cup forces who realize that Seixas must find a way of beating the pint-sized Australian if the United States is to recapture the cup. Rosewall's victory was his eighth over Seixas in the last couple of years and the Australian played with cool confidence as he felt he could turn the feat anytime he wanted to.

Trotters To Play Here On Dec. 13

The famous Harlem Globetrotters basketball team comes to Big Spring next week for a 24-hour show in the high school gymnasium. The Globetrotters will take on the Webb Air Base Dusters as one feature of the evening's entertainment. A big variety show also is scheduled. Tickets for the Globetrotter show, sponsored here by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, have gone on sale at the Record Shop and Dibrell's Sporting Goods. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 13. A capacity crowd of 1,800 persons is expected and only that number of tickets will be sold according to Ray Rhodes, chairman of arrangements for the sponsors. Admission price will be $2 per person, including the tax.

The Globetrotters have been dubbed "Uncle Sam's Ambassadors of Good Will" as a result of their many appearances abroad. In every one of the countries on the six continents the aggregation has played, the magicians of the hardwood court have won friendship and good will for the people of the United States. Abe Saperstein and the Globetrotters have been the recipient of many high awards and tributes in every part of the globe. The citations and trophies gracing his Chicago, New York and Los Angeles offices prove the esteem in which he and his teams are held everywhere. They come from kings, queens, high dignitaries of state, sports federations and others. The United States is well represented, too, with citations from the state department, ambassadors, congressmen, top ranking officers of the armed forces and hundreds of others. For the past five summers the Trotters have been winning the hearts of free Europe and North Africa and friends for Uncle Sam on visits across the waters. In 1932 the European jaunt was only a phase of a history-making basketball around-the-world trek. Three different times they have played in South America. Journeys to Mexico, Cuba, Canada and South America have been numerous. This past winter they brought the last of the six continents, Australia, into their fold on a tour of the "down under" country, the Far East and other Pacific Islands. Everywhere the team has appeared it has been received with acclaim. Their visits to some countries where Communism was gaining a stronger foothold proved a highly-potent anti-Red antidote, diplomats have said. Saperstein highly prizes and is deeply appreciative of the many awards bestowed upon his team and himself. Asked what he regards as the highlights of his 28 seasons of global triumphs, he selects two. One was the two audiences given him and his players by Pope Pius XII, and the other the tremendous ovation accorded the Trotters and Jesse Owens by 75,000 fans in Berlin's Olympic Stadium in 1935. The Globetrotters will take on the Webb Air Base Dusters as one feature of the evening's entertainment. A big variety show also is scheduled. Tickets for the Globetrotter show, sponsored here by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, have gone on sale at the Record Shop and Dibrell's Sporting Goods. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 13. A capacity crowd of 1,800 persons is expected and only that number of tickets will be sold according to Ray Rhodes, chairman of arrangements for the sponsors. 'Mr. X' Slated To Wrestle Here

The mystery wrestler, "Mr. X," will make his first appearance in a Big Spring ring Tuesday evening, Promoter George Dunn has announced. The masked man will tangle with Tommy Martindale in a semi-final match, scheduled for two of three falls or a 45-minute time limit. Feature event will pit Con Bruno of Greece against George Curtis of Vicksburg, Miss. This also will be a two-out-of-three falls match, limited to one hour. In the other preliminary, Dutch Schultz of Houston will wrestle Juan Hernandez of Mexico City, for one fall or 20 minutes. The matches start at 8 p.m. in the arena at the Howard County Fair building.

Baylor To Resume Practice Dec. 15

WACO, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—The Baylor football squad resumes training Dec. 15 for its Dec. 31 Gator Bowl game with Auburn at Jacksonville, Fla. The Golden Bears are due to fly to Florida Dec. 27, giving the team four days of practice at the site of the game.

HUNTING, FISHING

Fat Game Found To South, West

While many hunters have been disappointed in Central Texas this season, reports of good hunting come from areas to the south and west of Big Spring. H. G. Jones and Tom Henry Gun each bagged a deer while hunting on a lease in the Fort Davis area. Both got 8-point black-tails. Jones says that deer there were fat. There were plenty of acorns as the region has had a lot of rain this past year, the most in several years. The season in the Trans-Pecos area didn't open until the 20th. Weather the first day or so was on the cool side but it was unseasonably warm thereafter. Jones had been hunting on the same lease since 1942 and in the Big Bend country since 1930. H. B. Reagan got a deer the first week of the season while hunting in the Sonora area. He got a 6-point buck on the third day of his week there. Sherman Smith, who was with him, got a deer the last day of their stay there. Both deer were fat as butterballs, being full of acorns. From the Herald's Garden City correspondent comes the report that Glenn Joe Riley, 14, killed

Port Neches Advances With Win Over Temple

TEMPLE, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—Port Neches took the big step in Class AAA football today, advancing to the state semifinals with a 13-7 win over Temple. Port Neches meets McAllen next week. Temple fumbled three times in the first quarter and all but the last two minutes were played within Temple's 35-yard line—but Port Neches could not score. However, in the last seconds of the period, Port Neches recovered a fumble. On the first play of the second quarter, Bobby Laborde went over from the 5. Bobby Choate kicked the point. Later in the second, Gordon Leboeuf intercepted a Temple pass on the Wildcat 35 and returned it to the 12. Four plays later, Jackie Hathorn went over from the 2 on a quarterback sneak. Choate's kick was wide. Temple scored in the third after an 82-yard drive. Quarterback Curtis Morris completed 6 passes, the last one to Don Davis for 7 yards and the touchdown. Morris kicked the point. The only other serious scoring threat was in the fourth when Temple fumbled again and Port Neches took over on the 18. However Temple held on the 15 and the ball went over. Leboeuf carried 22 times for a total of 100 yards. Laborde carried 15 times for 74 yards. Port Neches held a 16-10 edge in the first downs and a 3-1 margin in penetrations.

Sterling, Garden City Players Are Unanimous Choices

Jimmy Smith of Garden City and Bill Blair of Sterling City were unanimous choices on the district No. 7 six-man football team. The selections, made by balloting among coaches of the district, were announced Saturday. Along with Blair and Smith on the first team were Albert Oglesby, Foran, Harold Hicks, Foran, Marshall Blair, Sterling City, and Wayne Baker, Water Valley. The regional Sterling City champs landed a couple of others on the second team to dominate the all-district picks. Members of the second team were Donald Carper and Leslie Cole, Sterling City; M. McCorquodale, Garden City; Boyd Eidson, Blackwell; Wilkerson of Christoval and Steger of Mertzon. Others who received support in the balloting and who were accorded honorable mention were: Baum of Foran, Woolley of Garden City, Daniels of Garden City, Hollowell of Blackwell, Jewell of Divide, Moore of Divide, Cochran of Christoval, Denton of Mertzon and Turn of Mertzon.

Miller Upsets Waco, 14 To 13

CORPUS CHRISTI, Dec. 4 (AP)—Miller High School of Corpus Christi upset Waco 14-13 here today to move into the Class AAAA semifinals against Stephen F. Austin of Houston. The Miller Buccaneers, in the state playoffs for the first time since 1931, scored twice in the first half, then spent the rest of the afternoon fighting off deep lunges by the Tigers. Not less than three times, Waco was inside the Miller 20 in the last half but couldn't get into touchdown territory. The Tigers even attempted a 20-yard field goal in the fourth period in the effort to make up the deficit. Miller scored first in the opening quarter on a 43-yard end run by Allan Laurence. Freddy Braselton kicked the first of two extra points. In the second quarter, the Tigers drove 49 yards for a touchdown with Dick Clark bulging over from 3 yards out. Donald Poston converted to tie the score 7-7. Miller came back to move 84 yards for its second touchdown with the big play a 44-yard pass from Larry Duetit to end George Hydrick. The payoff was a 17-yard heave from Duetit to Bruce Shugart in the end zone. Braselton kicked the extra point that made the difference in the ball game. Joe Flood opened the third half by extending 93 yards down the left sideline for a touchdown from the kickoff. Poston missed the extra point. Garden City Boys Beat Water Valley, But Girls Defeated. GARDEN CITY — Water Valley girls defeated the Garden City girls here Friday evening, but the boys turned the tables by drubbing the visitors, 44-26. Water Valley jumped to an early lead in the jitsu contest and was never seriously challenged. Abbott scored 24 points for the winners and Alice Clark got 14 for Garden City. McCorquodale was hot as a pistol for Garden City boys in the feature game, pouring 25 points through the hoop. Green was almost as warm for Water Valley, getting 20. Ackerly will bring girls and boys teams here for games starting at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday. Champions Tied MEXICO CITY, Dec. 4 (AP)—Polytechnic, the Mexican football champions, tied San Bernardino Valley College of California 20-20 today. Jose Iniguez managed to slip away in the fourth quarter, with San Bernardino leading 20 to 14, for a 46-yard run around right end and the tying touchdown.

Major Leagues Will Consider Expansion Idea

By JACK HAND HOUSTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—The American League will consider a proposal by Hank Greenberg, Cleveland general manager, to study operation as a 10-club league in 1936 as the baseball caravan moves to New York Monday for the major league meetings. Greenberg will advocate naming of a committee to investigate the merits of expanding the American to 10 clubs, with authority to inform reputable groups that two franchises will be awarded upon proof of financial stability and stadium requirements. According to the American League agenda, Greenberg suggests the committee should report at the 1935 summer meetings, with a schedule and all other matters pertinent to a 10-club league, so that the league can expand to 10 clubs by the 1936 season. The National League also will consider the 10-club idea with the Pacific Coast League teams of Los Angeles and San Francisco in mind at its meetings. One of the most important subjects on the National League agenda is a Milwaukee proposal to require a 3/4 vote, instead of the present majority vote, to expand or contract the league or move a club. Both leagues obviously have Los Angeles and San Francisco in mind as '56 members. The league that does not win the race to the coast probably will take Minneapolis-St. Paul and Toronto. Actions at the minor league convention where the American Assn. moved as far west as Denver confirmed the general Westward-Ho spirit in baseball. Although the 10-club idea is not on the official agenda for Wednesday's joint meeting, it will be discussed. Both leagues already have provided in their constitutions for expansion to 10 clubs. Another Giles proposal, to be considered at both the National League and joint meetings, would provide for playing off all positions but the championship on the day after the close of the regular

QBC To Be Host At Season's First Basketball Game

The Quarterback Club has "bought out the house" for the opening game of the Big Spring High School basketball season and wants fans to be guests of the club. Tickets are being offered free at five places. The only stipulation is that the club wants fans who secure the tickets to use them. Game time is 8 p.m. Thursday at the high school gymnasium with the Midland Bulldogs as opponents. The B game starts at 6:30 p.m. Student tickets and enough adults for teachers are available without charge at the high school office. Free tickets to other adult fans may be had at the office of Jack Cook in the Permian Building; from County Judge R. H. Weaver in the courthouse; from the John Dibrell Sporting Goods Store; from the Bud Green Food Store; or from Jack Y. Smith at Corder's refinery. Smith and Weaver, who are captains of the club, expressed the hope that fans will pack the gymnasium for the opening game.

Lufkin Defeats Sherman, 26-0

SHERMAN, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—The heavy Lufkin Panthers of Dist. 4 AAA scored one touchdown in each quarter for a 26-0 bidistrict football victory over the Sherman Bearcats of Dist. 3 AAA here today. Sherman had to play without its top halfback Bobby Joe Wilson who received a hip injury on the second down of the game. Lufkin chalked up its first touchdown seven minutes deep in the opening period to climax a 25-yard drive which began with recovery of a Sherman fumble. Biff Perdue, right half, went over left tackle from the 9. The try for point was wide. Lufkin took over on its own 24 on a fumble early in the second period and drove 76 yards in 11 plays for the second touchdown. Bill Stroud sneaked over from the 2, and Bill McMillon kicked the extra point. Sherman threatened to score in the late minutes of the half but the drive bogged down when Sherman-quarterback Jim Vester fumbled and Lufkin recovered on the Panther 13. In the third quarter, Lufkin scored again seven minutes deep at the end of a sustained 65-yard drive. Charles Fredrick plowed over right tackle from the 6. McMillon added the point. With three minutes left to play, Fredrick found an opening at left tackle and burst through to outrun two Sherman defenders on a 67-yard run to the goal line. Leading ground gainer was Fredrick with 142 yards on 14 carries. Freddie Brevelle of Sherman, fullback, gained 60 yards on 15 carries while teammate Clyde Hemby had 49 in 8 carries. Sherman's high individual for a single game with 186 Yards Doreier, Dibrell's who had the high score for three games with 472, was second high for one game with 180. Margaret Kelly, also a Dibrell's keyler, was second high for the series with 462.

STERLING CITY (SC) — The Ackerly Eagles made a valiant bid for the Region II six-man football crown here Friday night, but they were unable to withstand the assault of the Sterling City Eagles.

Sterling City annexed the title in a squeeze, 34-30. It was the champions' 12th victory of the season, against no losses or ties. Ackerly closed out its season with eight wins, two losses and a tie. The Sterling sextet got off to an early start, scoring on the third play of the game. Ackerly matched them, touchdown for touchdown, however, through the first half. The score was knotted at 8-8 at the end of the first quarter and 16-16 at the half. Sterling held a 25-16 lead at the end of the third quarter and appeared headed toward a decisive victory. But on the first play of the fourth period, Ackerly scored its third touchdown to climb back into the ball game. For that score, Charles Brown passed to Paul Alexander, who then threw the ball to Pat Grigg for the TD. It was a 34-yard maneuver. Sterling City surged two touchdowns to the fore again on the ensuing kickoff, with Donald Carper taking the ball on his own 10 and racing for the score. Ackerly got its last counter late in the fourth quarter when a Sterling City fumble was recovered on the Sterling one-yard line. Ray Weaver took the ball over for the score. Barney Springfield intercepted a pass flung by Donald Carper to set up Ackerly's first score. Eddie Gill carried the ball from the 33 to the five-yard line. Alvin Cates carried to the one and Gill then scored. Gill also kicked the extra point. Ackerly moved from its own 35 for the second touchdown. A pass and lateral from Weaver to Alexander to Grigg to the Sterling 26 and Grigg scored from that point. Gill kicked the point. Sterling City's first score came on a 36-yard pass play, with Bill Blair throwing to Marshall Blair. In the second quarter, Sterling got another TD when Bill Blair's pass was deflected into the arms of Lynn Glass. Leslie Cole kicked the points after this score. The Sterling County team got two touchdowns in the third quarter to take the commanding 28-16 lead. Blair passed 34 yards to Carper for the first TD and to Marshall Blair for 29 yards and the second. Both conversion tries were failures.

District AAA-1 Basketball Play To Commence On Jan. 7

The Big Spring Steers open their 1935 District AAA-1 basketball schedule at home on Jan. 7. The Longhorns will play Snyder on the local court. All other district teams open with games on the same date. The opening night schedule includes Vernon at Levelland, Breckenridge at Plainview, and Sweetwater at Lamesa, as well as the Big Spring-Snyder tilt. Plainview is the defending champion and one of the favorites to capture the 1935 crown.

Gamecocks Top Citadel, 19-6

CHARLESTON, S.C., Dec. 4 (AP)—South Carolina's Gamecocks, favored to win in a breeze, ran into stubborn opposition from the Citadel today but overcame an early Bulldog lead for a season-closing 19-6 football victory. The fired-up Citadel team stunned its traditional state rival with a 36-yard scoring drive six minutes after the opening whistle. Freshman quarterback Dick Miles from Columbus, Ga., reeled 9 yards around end for the touchdown that had been set up by the recovery of a fumble, by Carolina quarterback Mackie Prickett.

Irish Smother Ponies, 26-14

By JACK HAND
DALLAS, Dec. 4 (AP)—Notre Dame's powerful line smothered Southern Methodist's ground game today as slick Ralph Guglielmi and Joe Heap led the Fighting Irish to a 26-14 victory before a roaring crowd of 15,504 at the Cotton Bowl.

Guglielmi's alert quarterbacking and the power burst of Heap and Don Schaefer behind a bruising line helped Terry Brennan, 26-year-old coach, end his season with a 9-1 record.
Heap scored from the 4 in the first period after Guglielmi's passes set it up and sped 89 yards on a brilliant toe dancing run down the sidelines in the third period of the nationally televised contest.

Guglielmi, closing his Notre Dame career with six other Notre Dame starters including Heap, sneaked over from the 3 in the second period and sophomore end Bob Scannell dashed 19 yards for a touchdown after blocking John Roach's punt just before the half ended.

SMU gave the Irish a rugged battle in the first period, leading 7-6 on Roach's quarterback sneak from the 10 and Ed Berner's conversion. Schaefer had missed the placement after Notre Dame's early score. Schaefer later added two extra points.

John Marshall's fine 78-yard touchdown run in the last period was the best ground move by SMU that had averaged over 200 yards a game all season. Berner converted for the second time.

Notre Dame's second and third teams played much of the last period.

The two long runs highlighted the second half play but the outcome was almost a forgone conclusion after Notre Dame scored twice in the second period and wound up the first half by holding SMU to 5 yards on the ground.

Early in the final period, Marshall got away on his 76-yard gallop around right end. As he turned on the speed, nobody could get close.

Paul Reynolds got away for a 62-yard run for Notre Dame late in the game but the Irish attack bogged down and Paul Hornung's field goal attempt from the SMU 27 was blocked.

Notre Dame, fourth ranked in The Associated Press poll, had been a two-touchdown favorite over the Texans who were not in the top 20. SMU finished its season in second place in the Southwest Conference with an overall 6-3-1 record. The same two clubs open the 1955 season at South Bend.

Southern Methodist fans were wondering why SMU tried to pass often with its ace thrower, Duane Eidom, its best runner, seldom carried.

Notre Dame rolled up 476 yards, 321 on the ground, while holding SMU to 54 on the ground and 49 in the air. The Irish also were shackled by 175 yards in penalties.

Phillips Halts C-City, 34-21

By TOM JAY GOSS II
JONES STADIUM, Lubbock — The Phillips' Blackhaws found a Wolf at their door Saturday afternoon, and promptly had him for supper — well done.

The powerful Blackhaws trimmed the Colorado City Wolves 34-21 in a game that will send the undefeated Phillips team to the quarterfinals of the double A football playoffs.

Heralded as a battle between all-state Hollis Galney and all-state honorable mention Don Meek, the Blackhaws fullback, the match was strictly no contest. The Phillips line made the difference, consistently halting the speedy Hoss at the line, while Meek was generally downed by the defensive secondary, often by Galney.

Galney was able to score once and picked up 65 yards in 18 carries. Meek scored three times and gained 224 yards rushing in 36 carries.

The game was played in a howling sandstorm, with gusts reaching 60 miles per hour and visibility about two blocks. Between plays the referee sat on the ball to keep it on the field. The Hawks never attempted to punt into the wind—Colorado City did two times for a total of 11 yards.

The Wolves opened the ball game, Galney scoring on 24 yards after 11 minutes gone in the first quarter. Frank Mackey added his first of three extra points.

Phillips promptly evened the contest, Ben White going 47 yards to cap an 80-yard march, with Don Smith adding the point.

A seven yard pass from quarterback Stanley Wilder to end Arlie Otis put the Blackhaws ahead and Meek kicked the point for a half-time score of 14 to 7.

Phillips had the wind again in the third quarter and added two more TD's. Meek scoring from 4 and 20 yards and kicking the extra points.

Early in the fourth quarter, after the ball had gone over on the Wolf's 31 on an unsuccessful fourth down try, Meek lunged through for eleven yards. Wilder got three and Meek went 18 yards for the final Blackhawk tally. The point try was no good.

Colorado City began to exercise its aerial arm and Williams passed to J. B. Padgett for 24 yards and to big man up front, Center Kurt Burris and end Max Boydston have drawn praise.

Ron Beagle of Navy and Army's Don Hollender are among the other first class wingmen considered as All America timber along with Maryland's Bill Walker, Auburn's Jimmy Pyburn, Miami's Frank McDonald, Notre Dame's Dan Shannon and California's Jim Hanlan.

One of the toughest jobs facing selectors has been at guard where talent plentiful. Ralph Chesnutkus of West Point is one of the strongest. Calvin Jones of Iowa and Tom Bettis of Purdue get the nod from the Midwest while Franklin Brooks of Georgia Tech, Kenny Paul of Rice, Frank Mincevich of South Carolina, Len Benzof of Navy and Gene LaMone of West Virginia come highly recommended.

The South and Midwest furnished most of the tackles. Sid Fournet of LSU, Rex Boggan of Mississippi, Bob Batolomew of Wake Forest and George Preas of Virginia Tech are four Dixie standouts.

Baylor's James Ray Smith and Boston College's Frank Morse made the headlines in their sectors.

Lamesa Woman, 87, Bags 10-Point Buck On First Day

LAMESA — Eighty-seven-year-old Mrs. Mary F. Christopher, 308 North Avenue P in Lamesa, triumphed over other hapless nimrods by bagging a 10-point buck with only one shot on her first day of deer hunting this year.

Hunting with friends at San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ottaman, Mrs. Christopher has for two successive years brought down her buck last year a six pointer, by shooting them in the shoulder with a 30-30 rifle.

Aboard a pickup truck and dressed in comfortable hunting togs, Mrs. Christopher and her friends head for the Ottaman ranch south of San Antonio. On approaching a likely hunting spot, the humorous and indefatigable octogenarian leaves the truck on foot to scout out a favored vantage point to bring down her deer.

The slight and sharp-eyed huntress makes her kill with out benefit of glasses which she insists she can see through in addition to their getting in her way.

Mrs. Christopher had her latest antlers mounted and placed along side of several of her other hunting trophies which she has acquired since taking up hunting a few years ago. She prepared a venison dinner in her home to be enjoyed by many of her friends and some less fortunate nimrods than herself.

She is a Dawson County pioneer coming here from Clarksville, Texas some thirty years ago. She is a widow and the mother of 12 children, four of whom are still living. She celebrated her 87th birthday Sept. 20.

Longhorns Lose Two Close Ones To Midlanders

MIDLAND — Big Spring dropped two basketball games here Saturday night to the Midland Bulldogs but only after carrying the issue right down to the wire.

The Steers were clipped, 32-45, but with a minute and a half to play they were within three points of the victors.

Similarly, the B team lost 37-56 only in the final seconds. In both instances fouls hurt chances of the Big Springers severely.

In the A game, Charles Clark, the ace sharpshooter of the Steers, fouled out early in the third. Wayne Tollett followed before the quarter was over and Jimmy Parks exited early in the fourth. Kenneth Harmon also departed before the game was over.

Jimmy Rice, Jim Kimbriel and George Smith, two of them among top scorers, drew the maximum amount of fouls in the B game. Rice hooped 13 points, George Smith 12, Michael Musgrove 11, York was high for Midland with 18.

Lack of height hurt the A stringers for Big Spring, for Midland boasted one player 6 feet 3 inches and another at 6 feet 4 inches.

In the A game, Big Spring scoring was (field goals, free throws, total points) Charles Clark 4-4-12; Kenneth Harmon 1-2-4; Jim m y Parks 1-0-2; El Klove 4-3-11; Bob by Phillips 2-2-8; Wayne Tollett 3-0-6; Jimmy Bice 2-4-4. Glenn Jenkins, Truett Newell and Leroy LeFever also got into the game.

Halftime score was 24-24.

Lufkin-Breck Collision Is Banner AAA Semifinal Tilt

By BRUCE HENDERSON
The Associated Press
Favored Abilene stomped El Paso Austin 61-0 and Corpus Christi Miller upset Waco 14-13 Saturday to join the semifinals in the fight for the Class AAAA Texas Schoolboy football championship. Next week it's Abilene against Fort Worth Poly and Miller paired with another upset victor — Austin of Houston.

Smashing into the Class AAA Saturday were top-ranked Lufkin, defending state champion Port Neches and McAllen.

Lufkin, only unbeaten - untied team in its class, whammed Sherman 26-0 for its 11th straight victory. Port Neches downed Temple 13-7 in their bi-district clash. McAllen, with only a tie marring its record, rolled on unbroken by blasting San Antonio Alamo Heights 40-13.

In AAA next week it'll be Lufkin against mighty Breckenridge in a banner fight and Port Neches against McAllen.

Sundown Will Meet Albany Here Friday

Officials decided Saturday that the Class A quarterfinal football game between Sundown and Albany will be played in Big Spring Friday. Sundown romped into the quarterfinals with a 33-20 score over McLean while Albany was walloping Sonora 61-32.

Other Class A quarterfinal games next week will match Paducah and Gaston, Grapeland and Mason, Deer Park and Joplin.

Colorado City lost out in their AA quarterfinal bid Friday. Phillips smashed over the unbeaten-untied Wolves for a 34-21 win. Next week Phillips will meet Littlefield in a quarterfinal tilt. Other quarterfinal games in Class AA next week will pit Terrell and Carthage, Waxahachie and Killeen, Nederland and Freer.

The Breckenridge Buckaroos walked over unbeaten-untied Garland Friday afternoon, for a 20-7 score. Next week, the Buckaroos will meet Lufkin, the only unbeaten-untied team left in Class AAA. Lufkin is rated the best team of its class for the semi-final tilt. Only other Class AAA game will pit Port Neches against McAllen.

Four-time loser, Austin of Houston, eased by the Galveston Tors 21-20 Friday, to put them in the Class AAAA semi-finals next week against Miller of Corpus Christi. Miller also won its game by a single point, beating Waco 14-13. Abilene, who sank the hopes of El Paso Austin 61-0, will meet Poly of Fort Worth in the other Class AAAA semi-final game.

Abilene, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—Favored Abilene turned the power on El Paso's Austin today, chasing the far West Texans from the Class AAAA schoolboy football race 61-0.

McAllen Blasts Alamo, 40 To 13

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 4 (AP)—A speedy and deceptive McAllen High School football team that saved its passing tricks for the future vaulted into the semifinals of the state Class AAA football championship campaign with a 40-13 victory over San Antonio's Alamo Heights Mules before 4,069 fans today.

Coach Jack Rucker's Rio Grande Valley aggregation stayed almost entirely on the ground as Johnny Polk, Ramiro Leal and Fred Torres paced a running attack that rolled up 371 net yards to Alamo Heights 116. The Bulldogs tried only 5 passes and completed 14.

Polk scampered 44 and 14 yards for 2 touchdowns. Leal scored on a 35-yard broken field getaway. Torres tallied from 27 yards out. David Alley chalked up still another on an 18-yard run, and Jimmy Jasper punched across the final on the last play of the game from the 1-foot line.

The Bulldogs scored at least once in every period, with three touchdowns in the second enabling them to break a first quarter 7-7 deadlock and coast to a win.

Jimmy Zachery scored Alamo Heights' first touchdown from the 2, and Curtis Franke's conversion provided the point that knotted the score in the first quarter.

Hawks Defeat Arlington, 97-70, Cop Ranger Title quarter to stake Arlington to a 23-25 lead. During the last quarter Davis emptied his bench as the score mounted.

Saturday afternoon HCJC trailed Tarleton 13-12 at the first quarter and 31-30 at the half. Knotts made good all seven field goal chances in the third to forge a 56-47 lead, which melted to one point with a minute and a half to go. Then Wickard broke into the open for a crisp and the Hawks repeated the play with Anderson under the basket, then stalled out the clock.

Friday's game was a thriller of the first water. Ranger hopped to a 11-0 lead midway in the initial quarter before the Hawks found the range and pulled up 12-13 only to trail 25-32 at the half. Jim Knotts had piled up three fumbles in the opening quarter and Coach Harold Davis pulled him out in the second. Early in the third he got another foul and was yanked.

Back into the game in the fourth, he fouled out of the game before the quarter was a minute old.

However, HCJC finally pulled out in front with three minutes to go. After see-sawing with a minute left the Hawks scored a field goal, which mistakenly was credited to Ranger. When the Hawks got the ball again, instead of stalling out the clock, Ray Crooks glanced at the scoreboard and shot. Ranger took the rebound and was fouled. To stop the clock, time was called, but Ranger already had exhausted his quota and a technical foul was charged.

Ranger sank one shot to tie the game and missed the second. Crooks dropped his shot for the technical foul. Only three seconds remained and that was the game.

EAGLES ADVANCE Austin Clobbered By Abilene, 61-0

ABILENE, Tex., Dec. 4 (AP)—The Eagles scored almost at will in every period while El Paso fumbled away its one scoring threat in the fourth period. Abilene meets Fort Worth Poly in Fort Worth Friday at 2 p.m. in the state semifinals. Poly beat Dallas South Oak Cliff 25-7 last night.

Every squadman for Abilene got in the game. Halfback Jim Miller led the scoring parade with three touchdowns, two on long punt returns. Halfback Henry Colwell got two touchdowns and was the leading ground gainer with 148 yards in 9 carries. Lynn Gregory, who played both fullback and quarterback, made two scores and scored back Jimmie Carpenter scored one. End Freddie Green scored on Abilene's one successful pass, a 30-yard toss from quarterback David Bourland.

Gregory kicked two extra points and quarterback H.P. Hawkins kicked the others.

Late in the fourth, El Paso pushed near the Abilene goal but fullback Bobby McCune fumbled and Abilene recovered in the end zone for a touchback.

In the second half, El Paso netted only 5 yards rushing. Halfback Jess Thurman was the leading Austin carrier making 25 yards in 5 tries.

Earlier, it had been reported that Robinson and his assistants will be dismissed when their one-year contract expires Dec. 31, and a new head coach will have full authority to hire his own assistants.

Speculation here was centered on Arkansas' Bowden Wyatt as top choice for the new Tennessee coach. Wyatt denied it in November.

Robinson Out At Tennessee

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 4 (AP)—Gen. Bob Neyland, University of Tennessee athletic director, broke the news to football squad members today: Head Coach Harvey Robinson will be replaced.

Neyland broke the news at a meeting of the squad in the band room in Shields-Watkins Stadium. He told players that a new head coach will be named, but did not say who it would be.

Earlier, it had been reported that Robinson and his assistants will be dismissed when their one-year contract expires Dec. 31, and a new head coach will have full authority to hire his own assistants.

Martin County Tools Are Sold

STANTON, (SC)—Some of the new high-quality carpenter's tools that figured so frequently in last summer's grand jury investigation of this county's financial affairs have been disposed of by the commissioners court.

These included a brace, a complete set of bits, a mitre box, a skill saw, set of wrenches and set of chisels.

The county is indebted to the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co. for about $4,000 and the commissioners asked the creditor firm to take the unused tools in as a credit. At wholesale the lot invoiced about $150 which was credited to the county's account.

The commissioners are also making arrangements to sell the new 200-gallon pressure tank and pressure pump that were discovered in the County Show Barn during the investigation. No explanation was ever found as to how the pump and tank happened to be there.

The tools were also discovered in the barn.

Mrs. J. D. Falkner Funeral Rites Held

COLORADO CITY — Funeral services for Mrs. J. D. Falkner, 89, former Mitchell County resident, were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the Oak Street Baptist Church in Colorado City with Rev. R. B. Murray of Paint Rock officiating. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under direction of Kiker and Son.

Mrs. Falkner died Thursday in Lubbock. She had been living there with a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Leach, for several years.

She was born December 27, 1864, in Bosque County and had lived in the Spade community in Mitchell County for 65 years.

She is survived by two sons, five daughters, 21 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren.

Scottish Accent Needed For Dog

LONDON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Stanley Bear has advertised for a young woman with a Scottish accent to baby sit with his boxer dog Mitzi, 14 months old.

"My wife is Scottish and Mitzi feels at home only when she can hear a Scottish accent about," Bear explained to newsmen.

He said the last time they left Mitzi alone, with no burry accent to soothe her, she consoled herself by destroying six pillow slips, a satin bedspread and the kitchen linoleum.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

A letter asking for information about lakes was sent to me by Maria Abbatipaolo. She also said that information on "young and old rivers" would be helpful in her science class. When Maria speaks of rivers being old or young, she suggests an answer to a poet who wrote about a stream. In a past generation it was common for children to learn lines of the poem, including the words:

"Men may come and men may go, but I go on forever."

Those words were written by Tennyson, a great poet, but he was in error. Neither a brook nor a river nor any other stream will go on forever. Every river has a time of birth and it must come to an end in some future period.

Certain rivers die every year and are born again. Best known among these are some in Africa which dry up during each dry season, and are nothing but river beds for several months. When the rains come again, the rivers return to life.

Rainfall does a great deal to explain rivers. If all rain stopped falling for a year, such great rivers as the Amazon and the Mississippi would die.

In addition to rain, there is melting snow. Water from snow helps to keep rivers going. Even if the rains stopped falling, melting glaciers would keep some rivers flowing.

Some rivers have an age of half a million years or more. Others are "young," in a sense, going back to the last ice age. A river with an age of 40 or 50 thousand years may be described as fairly young.

Most lakes, but not all of them, are wide parts of rivers. At a certain place, the bed of a river may have been blocked long ago. This resulted, in many cases, in the forming of lakes. At length the river usually finds a way out of the lake, and flows onward toward the ocean.

Other lakes exist in natural depressions, including craters of volcanoes. Crater Lake in Oregon is one of these; some parts of it are about 2,000 feet deep.

Legion's Commander Calls For Embargo Of Red China

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 4 (AP)—Seaborn P. Collins, the American Legion's national commander, said today the United States should demand an "Ironclad embargo" of Red China to free the 11 American airmen held on spy charges.

Collins, in a statement, said the American Legion agrees with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles that a blockade of Red China might amount to "an act of war."

He added, however, that the American Legion insists "that the United States demand an ironclad embargo be clamped by all free nations on all materials, including foodstuffs, and that, peaceful means failing, steps be taken for a blockade of Red China."

plice in aiding and abetting a perpetration by Red China of international lawlessness."

Unless Russia persuades Red China to release the fliers, Collins said, Russia should withdraw from the United Nations for "admitting it cannot abide by the obligations (of) a member."

Reds Make Offer

VIENNA, Austria, Dec. 4 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's Red government has promised farmers that if they meet their crop delivery quotas this year the deficit on their 1953 deliveries will be canceled. But the Cabinet added, in a decision announced by Radio Prague, that the arrears will be reinstated and added to 1955 quotas if the farmers fail to meet their 1954 production goals.

THE LOOKERS—One look at the "smilin' Irish eyes" of Mary Ellen Hayes (above) would tell you why she was chosen the Prettiest Girl in the college. This dark-haired, blue-eyed girl, who is typical of Irish beauty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hayes, 100 Lincoln. "Handsome is as handsome does" may be a time-worn cliché, but in the case of Ronald Anderson, it hits the spot. He does a handsome job of upholding the honor of the Jay-Hawk Basketball team as well as being the Most Handsome Boy on the campus. Ronald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, 406 N. Scurry.

BEAU AND A BELLE — Frank Hunt (in photo below) may be checking out something on "How to Make a Hit with the Opposite Sex," but we doubt it, since he was recently chosen by the girls' Lass-O Club as their beau. The pretty library assistant is Frances Walker, who is no slouch either when it comes to being singled out for honors—she's the new sweetheart of the Jayhawk Aggies Club. Frank's the son of President and Mrs. Anthony Hunt and Frances is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nall.

TRIED ON FOR SIZE—After the Christmas Parade float was completed, Paschall Wickard and Myrna Talley couldn't resist seeing how they would feel sitting in the sleigh. Myrna, who was chosen Sophomore Favorite at the college, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Talley. Paschall, another Sophomore Favorite, is from Clovis, N. M.

A LITTLE HELP, PLEASE — And who wouldn't want help when it comes in the form of Lynette Blum, Miss Senior Day of 1954, who is a freshman at HCJC (in photo at right). The lucky guy is Benny Welch, recently chosen an all-school favorite. He hails from Tarzan and is the son of Mrs. I. E. Welch. Lynette, a local beauty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blum.

FAVORITES WITH THE FRESHMEN — The freshmen had a sweepstakes winner in their favorite, Jan Burns. She was also selected all-school favorite. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Burns. Admiring Jan, instead of the view outside the window, is James Underwood, the Freshmen's other Favorite. His parents are the Alton Underwoods.

Jimmie C. White To Wed Joan Randel On Dec. 30

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Randel of Wichita Falls are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joan, to 2nd Lt. Jimmie C. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd T. White of Big Spring.

Mr. White is a graduate of Big Spring Senior High School and was active in the Texas 4-H Club. At Hardin-Simmons University, where he received his BBA degree, he was a member of Alpha Psi Omega, Alpha Phi Omega and the a cappella choir. He is now serving with the United States Air Force in the Medical Service Corps and is enrolled in the basic medical administration course at Gunter Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala.

The wedding will take place Dec. 30 at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Wichita Falls.

The bride-elect graduated from Wichita Falls Senior High School and was presented by the Junior Forum as a debutante in 1949. She received a BBA degree from Hardin-Simmons University where she was a member of Who's Who for two years. She served as editor of the yearbook and was a member of Alpha Chi. Presently she is employed as secretary by William H. Rouzer, petroleum engineer.

Sewing Club Plans Christmas Party

FORSAN — Mrs. George Overton was hostess to the Pioneer Sewing Club in her home recently. Plans for the Christmas tree were made. It will be a feature of the party on Dec. 15 at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jesse Overton.

Ginny Philly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Philly, was hospitalized and dismissed from Medical Arts Hospital.

Mrs. Charlie McGuire and son of Big Lake were guests here of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wash and Dianne visited in San Angelo recently.

Judy Kay Brown Has Party On Birthday

ACKERLY — Judy Kay Brown celebrated her 12th birthday with a supper and slumber party Thursday night. Guests were Rhea Bodine, Betty Belew, Brenda Tennyson, Shirley Williams, Patsy Tenna, Eunice Jones and Sylvia Ann Smith.

Mrs. Ed Hall and Mrs. Temmie Horton were in Westbrook Thursday to attend the Hazelwood funeral.

Booth Bosses

These representatives of the local garden clubs have charge of booths for the sale of TB bangles. Seated (from left to right) are Mrs. James Whitney, Mrs. J. T. Anderson and Mrs. Bennett Brooke. Standing are Mrs. Zack Gray, chairman of the booth sales for the TB Association, and Mrs. J. W. Dickens, Mrs. Della K. Agnell, who will also have a booth, was unable to be in the picture.

Attending the SMU-Notre Dame Game in Dallas over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Robb, Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, H. C. Stipp, Stormy Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. George O'Brien Jr.

Garden Clubs Set To Sell TB Bangles

Sales of the red TB Association bangles have been assigned to the five local garden clubs. Mrs. Zack Gray is heading this part of the TB drive and her workers are listed below.

Mrs. Bennett Brooke of the Green Thumb Club was in charge of a booth Friday at Safeway.

Mrs. J. W. Dickens of the Planters Club will be at the State National Bank next Tuesday, and on Wednesday, Mrs. J. T. Anderson of the Rosebud Club will have a booth at Piggy Wigly.

On Thursday at Furr's Mrs. Della K. Agnell of the Big Spring Club will sell the bangles, and on Friday, Mrs. James Whitney of the Spaders Club will be at the First National Bank.

City HD Club

Members of the City Home Demonstration Club met Thursday morning at a coffee in the home of Mrs. Merle Hodnett. Mrs. Bruce Frazier gave a program on fall flower arrangements. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held next Friday. Members were reminded to bring children's gifts to the council Christmas party. These will be presented to a child in the State Hospital at Abilene. Nine members attended.

HI-TALK

By PEGGY HOGAN

"Everybody can go to college and everyone should go to college" says Dr. W. A. Sutton, noted educator from Atlanta, Ga., who has been with us several days this past week. Dr. Sutton talked, to the juniors and seniors particularly, about teen-age relationships and problems. From the results of an extensive survey, Dr. Sutton discussed those things that trouble young people most — boy and girl relationships, the future, home life, social and economical problems, religion, and personal problems.

Our football squad have certainly received their helping of honors this week. The Lions Club feted them with a banquet Thursday night and then they traveled to Breckenridge Friday where they shared honors, as the co-champions of this district, at another banquet. That's not counting the honor of having three of our Steers on the All-District team — Dickie Miam, Jerry Graves, and Frosty Robison, and our famed Frosty on the All-State team another year. Congratulations, fellas!

However, as the glamour and excitement of football season vanishes, it's time to turn our eyes upon another group of Steers who have the same determination and importance as our football players — the basketball boys. I think it's about time we showed this district we're good for something besides football. Those Steers, under our new coach Johnny Johnson, have spent countless hours preparing for this season and it's up to us, the student body, to support them and encourage them every way possible!

Things were a little different at our pep rally Friday in preparation for last night's game with Midland. The boys out for basketball filled the "honor" position seats on the gym floor level, previously taken by football bruisers. Charles Clark and Bobby Phillips gave pep talks along with Coach Johnson.

BSSHS had eight representatives in the tryouts for the All-State Chorus in Odessa yesterday. One hundred and eighty kids will be selected from all over Texas to take part in the All-State chorus at Dallas in February. They will work under the direction of a prominent director for three days and then present a concert the night of the 12th. Those that made the trip from here were: Sharon Lewis, Marilyn Morrle, Colleen Vaughn, Danna Greenwood, Patty Gregory, Thurber Tinkham, Ray Weathers and Ronnie Smith. Mr. Keith Odum went along as sponsor.

Sunday night meetings of the Methodist Youth Fellowship have lately included a series of programs on dating. Speakers and discussion leaders have been appearing on these interesting programs which will continue for a couple of more weeks.

The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs are making final preparations on their big weekend at Austin. Bussily arranging the last minute details are about 15 kids who plan another big year at Youth-in-Government.

The joint Hi-Y clubs are planning for a masked masquerade ball. So, you guys and gals be washing that brain for cute costume ideas. The dance will be in the cafeteria New Year's Eve.

Some of you wondered about the absence of the Corral Friday. Well, classes were so uncertain and the general confusion of the schedules this week caused editor Glenna Coffey and Mrs. Stewart to postpone the paper until Wednesday. We will be getting our Corral every Wednesday, instead of Friday, from now until Christmas.

Nelda Garrison was hostess to a group of kids from the Young Peoples and Intermediate Departments of the Wesley Methodist Church Friday night. The group enjoyed some of that good old-fashioned friendly fellowship and refreshments.

You can expect lots of that good aroma to float from the home-making lab now, as the girls have really gotten down to cooking. Labs for simple foods of the first year girls all the way up to the delicate dishes of the more experienced have been planned for this week.

Another program that spiced last week was one of the series of road show assemblies. This time it was a Swiss entertainer named Toni Gauer. Not only did he exhibit remarkable musical talent, but he surprised us with startling facts of his native Switzerland. In fact, I'm sure some of us would like to take that flying trip across to the land of no speed limits, commercial-free radio and television, and automatic telephones. Yelps and yodels in the halls Friday recalled the way our Swiss friend expressed his happiness.

The sad thread woven into the pattern of last week was the fact that Pat Tidwell Cosby, first vice president of the student council and leader of various organizations, left us to join her husband in Texarkana. We're surely gonna miss the cheerfulness that surrounded Pat, for no one could ever replace her happiness. Elections for a new vice president will proceed next week.

Nannette Farquhar, senior yell leader, is our Senior-of-the-Week. Nan has a string of honors so long I couldn't begin to name them but I'll try to touch the highlights of her high school career. She has been Sophomore and Junior favorites, on the student council three years and yell leader for two years. She is head cheerleader this year. Nan is vice president of an FHA Club, president of the Majors Club, an officer in the Shorthand Club, past officer in Rainbows, and an active member of Tri-Hi-Y.

Don't forget the Odessa game Tuesday in Odessa and our first home game on Thursday with Midland.

Baptist Temple WMS Has Week Of Prayer

The theme for the Week of Prayer held by the WMS of the Baptist Temple was "O Come, Let Us Adore Him." The Lottie Moon Christmas offering was made during the past week.

In charge of the work was Mrs. Tom Buckner, who read the names on each day's prayer list and also the names of the missionaries who had birthdays at that time. Mrs. Buckner announced the theme for Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday which were Evangelism Through Preaching, Evangelism Through Education and Evangelism Through New Channels, respectively.

On Wednesday evening at the Prayer Meeting hour, a picture was shown, "Christmas Gifts for the World." The Rev. A. R. Posey made a plea for members to give wholeheartedly to the work. Prayers were offered by Mrs. Ross Hill and Mrs. A. W. Page.

On Friday afternoon, the Rev. J. W. Arnett showed a picture on "Advance in Africa." Prayers were offered for all the countries on the prayer list. The average attendance for each day was eight. Members taking part in the programs were Mrs. Roy O'Brien, Mrs. Buckner, Mrs. Posey, Mrs. Tom Adams, Mrs. Sam Bennett, Mrs. Everett Rayburn, Mrs. Rex Edwards, Mrs. Monroe Gafford, Mrs. O. A. Biffle, Mrs. Richard Collier, Mrs. Garland Sanders and Mrs. Bill Sandridge.

Whitneys Entertain Guests At Buffet

Alumni of Pacific University's College of Optometry, Forest Grove, Ore., who are now practicing in Texas, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitney. Following a buffet supper at the Whitney residence, 1312 Tucson Rd., the group attended a dance at Webb Air Force Base Officers' Club.

The guests included Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Abbott and Alan of El Paso; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Roseboom of Brownfield and Dr. and Mrs. Dean Holman, Thomas and Scott of Big Spring. Dr. Holman is assigned to the hospital at Webb.

McMurry Pianist To Appear At HCJC

The public is invited to the piano concert to be given Monday evening at Howard County Junior College Auditorium by Clarence Brady, associate professor of music at McMurry College. It will begin at 8 p.m.

The program will consist of "Andant con Variazione" and "Fantasia, C Major" by Haydn and "Piano Pieces, Op. 119" by Brahms. The pianist will also play Beethoven's "Sonata, Opus 51, No. 3," and two compositions by Ravel, "Oiseaux Tristes" and "Albarado del Gracioso."

Brady, who joined McMurry's music department faculty in 1933, holds the M. M. degree in piano, and another master degree in music literature, from the University of Michigan.

He has done additional graduate study at the Horner Conservatory at Kansas City, Deaver College of Music, Golden Gate College in San Francisco, and in New York City. Brady has studied piano under E. Robert Schmitz, Dr. John Thompson, Maurice Dumesnil, and Joseph Brinkman. He has also had extensive training in organ, music theory and choral singing.

The McMurry professor has been featured piano soloist with the Kansas City-Horner Conservatory Orchestra and the Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra. He has given piano concerts in 10 Midwestern and Southwestern cities, and at more than 15 colleges and universities of the Southwestern region.

To Be January Bride

Mrs. John Hunt Sr., 1301 N. 15th St., Temple, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Jo Ann, to Prentiss (Mike) Rainey, son of Mrs. R. M. Young of Dallas, formerly of Tampa, Fla. Miss Hunt graduated from Temple High School and Temple Junior College. In 1950 she was the Sweetheart of the Temple Eagles Baseball Club and Queen of the Cen-Tex Fair. She is now employed with an accounting firm. Mr. Rainey graduated from Plant High School in Tampa and attended Marshall College in Huntington, W. Va. He has played professional baseball with the Temple Eagles, Midland Indians, and the Big Spring Bronchos. He is now employed with the West-Tex Oil Company in Big Spring. The wedding will take place in January.

Keep It Dry

An exhaust fan in the kitchen or attic can work wonders in eliminating moisture, discourage dry rot, mold and warpage. Ventilating louvers in the attic helps allow moisture to escape. A slight opening of a window in the bathroom while taking a bath or shower will do away with a heavy load of destructive vapor.

Ready Wood First

If you are going to do a finishing job over wood, first make sure nail heads are sunk slightly below the surface, fill holes, cracks and crevices with wood dough, plastic wood or similar crack filler. Press material firmly into place with a putty knife.

Handyman Projects.

A do-it-yourself Christmas ornament set contains eight lustrous colored glass ball ornaments, a brush and three fast drying paints. A rough sketch may be made in chalk on the ornament and the design then painted on.

Toy For Junior

A new game for the children is a toy supermarket. It contains miniature replicas of cereals, groceries and soda bottles, just the thing for midget store keepers. It also has a checkout counter with cash register.

Salt Water Bath

It is said that an old-fashioned salt water bath will perk up your winter skin. Pour three glasses of table salt into warm tub water and stir it around. Climb in the tub for your nerve tonic.

Baby Layette

Before buying a layette for that expected baby, talk to some experienced mothers. That will be one good way to make sure that you spend your money wisely. It is amazing how quickly infants can grow out of clothes.

Johnson spent Monday and Tuesday in Houston on company business.

Why Paint Fails

One of the common house paint failures is non-drying. Paint will not dry properly if applied too heavily, or if applied to a damp, dirty greasy surface. Before painting, it is important to wash the surface with a detergent, rinse and let dry. Scrape off all loose particles and smooth rough spots with sandpaper.

Enjoying The Sunshine

Mrs. Nettie Sady feels that she will never get her fill of the warm Texas sunshine, and she likes to sit on the small balcony just outside her apartment. Here she visits with her son, Lewis, and his five-year-old daughter, Georjean.

Newcomer Says Fare Well-Spent To See Blue Skies Of Texas

"Blue Skies" might well be the theme song of Mrs. Nettie Sady, just recently from New York City. She loves the clear skies here, and she can't get over their blueness. She thought her money was well spent when she paid "$102 to come see the blue skies."

Her skies haven't always been blue, however. She was born in the Crimea, "the Florida of Russia," and grew up during the regime of Czar Nicholas II. For a time, because of a blockade, the people in her town lived on grass, she told us, but the children thought nothing of it, as they had never known anything else.

In 1921, after her marriage to a Russian, who had spent some time in the United States, she left Russia. "It was fate," she says of her escape. She had gone to the dock to say "good-bye" to her husband, who was a sailor. The ship was the last one, a Red Cross Mercy Ship, taking American evacuees from the country. As she stood there, just before they moved the gangplank, the captain of the ship said they could take one more — and he selected her. He told the couple that he had had to leave his wife, and he knew the grief it brought. As they left, she could see the city in flames.

Mrs. Sady had to remain behind when they reached Greece. Later she made her way to Constantinople, where she was kept for three months. Before arriving there she had nothing but the clothes in which she had left her native land. Again, the Red Cross came to her rescue, giving her some clothes and money for meals.

On her arrival at Ellis Island, there was no one to meet her. She learned that her husband had been shipwrecked on the way to the States, and he was delayed. During her stay on Ellis Island, where she stayed in a sort of dormitory, Mrs. Sady decided that, rather than go back to Russia, she would try to swim ashore. At the time, she was expecting her first child. She knew that return to Russia meant certain death for her.

When she and her husband were reunited, they settled in a section of New York City among other Russians, and, of course spoke that language all the time. "Even one word of English I didn't know," Mrs. Sady said in speaking of her early life over here. Their son went to school before he learned to speak English.

When Mr. and Mrs. Sady left Russia, her mother had coal-black hair. A year later, a picture she received showed the older woman with completely white hair. Some of the family were in sympathy with Czar's rule, while others were breaking away from it gradually. Her father was killed during the revolution, which ended the reign of the ill-fated monarch.

Mrs. Sady is the owner of a bracelet, which was given to a member of the family in 1913 and which had been in the palace of the Czar for 300 years. She has had numerous offers for it, but she is saving it for one of her grandchildren. Since 1933 she has heard nothing from any of the family, which was made up of three sisters and three brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sady have two sons. One lives in San Francisco, and one, Louis, lives in this city. He was in the first group of the New York National Guard to be drafted for duty in the Second World War. After his return from overseas, he was sent to West Texas State College in Canyon, where he met the girl who became his wife. He has lived in Big Spring for seven years.

Mrs. Sady remembers the beautiful part of her country. The weather was always so nice, she says, and "the water was so clear you could see through and through."

Shine Up With Soda

Many cleaning chores around the house can be speeded up with plain, ordinary baking soda. A little soda on a damp cloth will shine up dull doorknobs or knockers. Painted woodwork can be cleaned safely with solution of two tablespoons of soda in a gallon of warm water. The same solution cleans and deodorizes refrigerators. And sink drains can be kept open by rinsing a little baking soda down the drain with hot water after each dishwashing session.

Lip Care

Ol' man winter sure puts the bite on your lips. Give yourself a coating of lip pomade before going outdoors on an icy cold day.

Breakfast On Patties

Fried potato pancakes for breakfast make a hearty Texas meal, and sweet potatoes are just as adaptable. A perfect accompaniment for generous servings of scrambled eggs would be these ham and sweet potato patties.

HAM AND SWEET POTATO PATTIES

2 cups cooked ham, cut fine
2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1 egg
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup pineapple, cut fine
2 cups crushed cornflakes
2 to 4 tablespoons fat

Combine all ingredients except cornflakes and 2 to 4 tablespoons fat. Shape into 8 patties. Dip in cornflakes (or use bread or fine cracker crumbs). Melt 2 tablespoons fat in skillet. Brown patties slowly, adding more fat as necessary. Fry on both sides until crisp and well browned.

Bless The Baker

KEFLANK AIRPORT, Iceland—It takes 180 yards of dough to feed the military and U.S. civilians here. The job of baking 2,100 loaves of bread each day requires 1,650 pounds of flour and 20 pounds of yeast among other things.

Popcorn Popper

A new popcorn can in a foil popper that doubles as pan and server. All you do is heat the stove, bend back the cardboard handle on the popper and follow the directions. A tiny hole on top of the package serves as an escape vent and foil expands to permit popcorn to pop.

Liver Is Economy Buy These Days

Now's the time to include beef liver often on your weekly shopping list. With beef production reaching an all-time high, liver is an economical buy these days.

Liver, so important nutritionally, is a good family main dish any day of the week. Properly prepared this variety meat provides good eating in addition to good nutrition.

Young, tender beef liver may be pan-fried. It browns more easily if coated with flour before frying. Brown it in a little hot fat, season and cook slowly over low heat about ten minutes, turning occasionally.

Fry Round Steak?

The question often is asked, "Can round steak be fried or broiled?" As a general rule, the answer is "No." The reason for this is that round steak is one of the lean-tender steaks. Often round steak is cut into two parts called top round and bottom round. The top round is the more tender portion; sometimes high quality top round may be panbroiled. (Better grades have a good layer of fat around the edge and streaks of fat throughout the lean.) Bottom round always should be braised (cooked in a little liquid in a covered utensil until tender).

Holiday Centerpiece

A simple but effective centerpiece for a Christmas table can be made from a big brass brandy snifter filled with different-colored Christmas tree balls and surrounded by Christmas greens. A silver bowl filled with shiny Christmas tree ornaments may be used the same way.

110 RUNNELS

CAMPUS CHATTER

By FRANCES WALKER

A number of Jayhawkers journeyed to Ranger yesterday to see HCJC participate in the basketball tournament there. If you haven't seen the Hawks in action this year you're really missing a treat. They will play host to Cisco Junior College Tuesday night. The "B" game begins at 8:00; the "A" game at 8:30.

Barbara White was appointed to fill the position of Sophomore Student Council Representative until an election is held in January. Richard Read who formerly held the office resigned due to conflicts with his off-campus job. Richard stated that he felt he could no longer fulfill his duties as Council member, and thought that it be best for him to give up the office. His resignation was accepted with regret.

Favorites and club sweethearts will have their yearbook pictures made in formal attire Wednesday at Luceille's Interior Decorating Shop.

These favorites, announced in last week's "El Nido," are as follows: All School Favorites—Jan Burns, Benny Welch; Sophomore Favorites—Myrna Talley, Paschal Wickard; Freshmen Favorites—Jan Burns, James Underwood; Most Beautiful Girl—Mary Ellen Hayes; and Most Handsome Boy—Ronald Anderson.

Tom Gauer, noted Swiss entertainer, appeared in full Appenzel costume before a Jayhawk assembly Thursday. Mr. Gauer played various Swiss accordions, sang, and gave an exciting glimpse of his homeland, Switzerland.

The yearbook staff met their first deadline last Wednesday, sending fifty of the book's two hundred pages to the printer.

The Student Council met Wednesday to discuss plans for the Christmas formal scheduled for Dec. 17, and to discuss the possibility of a college homecoming. Joe Welch, Rex Gibson, and James Underwood were appointed to choose a suitable date for the homecoming.

HCJC was well represented in the Big Spring Christmas parade Wednesday. The float consisted of a large sleigh led by six Jayhawkers. "Professor" Henry Hicks sat in the sleigh with his bag full of knowledge (to later fill Jayhawkers' Christmas stockings).

A large number of students attended the Don Cossack Chorus program in the City Auditorium Wednesday night. HCJC activity cards will admit college students to all of the presentations this year.

Mr. Jack Hendrix, college organ and piano instructor, will present an organ concert in Stanton Monday night.

The Ag Club members met Tuesday to discuss meeting with the Farm Bureau in the near future. The members of the college choir will make appearances in new uniforms in December. The girls will wear lovely turquoise forms as while the boys will appear in tuxedos.

HCJC students were happy to meet for the first time or to renew acquaintance with Dr. W. A. Sutton, noted educator, who spoke in an assembly Thursday. Many of the students were influenced to attend college by talks made by Dr. Sutton when they were in high school.

The geology class made a field trip to Fluvanna Thursday afternoon to collect fossils. The trip was both enjoyable and profitable to all who made it.

All students interested in a Drama Club should watch the bulletin board for announcement of the meeting date. The club will be sponsored by Miss Connolly and will be open to any student interested in speech or in play production. Membership will NOT be limited to speech students.

A number of students have been discussing the value of morning devotions in school. It has been suggested that all students interested might meet every morning from 7:45 to 8:00 for a Scripture reading, songs, and prayer. The group would not be sponsored, nor dominated, by any particular church, but would be a general student devotion. If you think this would be a worthy project, or if you have any discussion for or against it, please express your thoughts to me or to Paula Russell. Be making plans to attend the ball game Tuesday night.

P-TA Council Meets

Reports of the P-TA convention recently held in Corpus Christi were given at a meeting of the P-TA Council when they met at high school. The devotion was given by the Rev. A. R. Posey. Members voted to serve at the party to be given for patients at the VA Hospital on Christmas Eve. Refreshments were served to about 20.

american designer's pattern

by Jo Copeland

Long Torso Design Good For Holiday Occasions

Joe Copeland is known throughout this country and in several cities abroad for dramatic clothes that somehow maintain an attitude of dignified restraint. This model today has the new long torso bodice, which gives a small lift to the bosom. For the holidays make it in a stiff silk to give body to the stand-out hip pouf — peau de soie, taffeta, satin, novelty brocades.

Consider one of the bright new jewel colors such as emerald, brilliant turquoise, or rich ruby red, as a fashionwise change-off from black.

This pattern is cut to DESIGNER MEASUREMENTS, not Standard Pattern Measurements.

Size 10 bust 34½, waist 24½, hips 35 inches; size 12 bust 35½, waist 25½, hips 36 inches; size 14 bust 37, waist 27, hips 37½ inches; size 16 bust 38½, waist 28½, hips 39 inches; size 18, bust 40, waist 30, hips 40½ inches.

Size 12 requires 3¼ yards of 50-inch material.

To order Pattern No. 1159, address Spades Syndicate, Inc., P.O. Box 535, G.P.O., Dept. B-5, New York 1, N.Y. State size. Send $1.00. Airmail handling 25 cents extra. New Pattern Booklet No. 11 now available for 25 cents. Add 4 cents for handling, if paying by check or money order. Make check or money order payable to SPADES SYNDICATE, INC.

1946 Hyperion Club

A Christmas story was told by Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. for the 1946 Hyperion Club recently at their meeting in the home of Mrs. R. R. McEwen, with Mrs. Dan Krause and Mrs. Hudson Landers as hostesses. Mrs. Don Newson, accompanied by Mrs. Champ Rainwater, sang some Christmas songs. Mrs. Rainwater later played Christmas carols. Members brought articles to be presented to patients at the State Hospital.

Mrs. Sullivan Fetes Officers Of OES

Mrs. Hila Weathers of Stanton was guest speaker for the party given Friday evening by Mrs. Willard Sullivan for the officers of the Eastern Star. The group was entertained at a dinner at Smith Tea-room which 45 attended.

Tables were decorated with Santa Claus and his reindeer down the length, with candles at intervals. The speaker's table held an arrangement using a Santa Claus. Place cards were made with Christmas glitter, and tiny bells were favors. Mrs. Sullivan presented gifts to all present and the officers gave her a gift.

Eva Stresses Femininity

Eva Gabor values femininity and individuality higher than beauty. The popular actress, currently being seen in MGM's "The Last Time I Saw Paris," also talks to Lydia Lane about perfume, the importance of being well-groomed and diet.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Stress Femininity, Is Word From Eva Gabor

By LYDIA LANE
 HOLLYWOOD — Eva, one of the much publicized Gabor girls, concedes that her sister Zsa Zsa is the most beautiful, but that she is the most talented.
 "Every time I am in Hollywood," Eva told me as we lunched in the commissary at MGM, "I become very critical of the way I look. Here women are so much more beauty conscious than anywhere else, even in New York.
 "Even the girls you see waiting for a bus on their way to work are clean and fresh looking to the utmost," Eva continued. "It is not necessarily expensive clothes which make an impression but the freshly-pressed, laundered look.
 "I've always appreciated the importance of appearance. When I was trying out for my first Broadway play, I had to read for the producers early in the morning. When I awoke that morning, it was a gloomy, rainy day but I never dressed more carefully. I chose something simple because I was to play a maid but I sprayed myself with perfume from head to toe. I knew that as I went out on that stage, looking my best and smelling expensive would give me confidence.
 "The most important reason for being well-groomed," Eva continued, "is not necessarily to impress others but the effect it has on you. Grooming can dictate your whole attitude. There is nothing that gives a woman self-assurance like knowing that she looks her best."
 It was here that Eva conceded that though Zsa Zsa was the most beautiful of the girls, this did not make her envious.
 "Individuality," Eva explained,

"is more important than beauty. The magazines are filled with pictures of beautiful women who never get much farther than simply being photographed. The success of the Gabor girls lies in the development of other things. We were taught by our mother to listen attentively when someone else is speaking—and above all, always be feminine.
 "I can't think of a better way stress your individuality than by the use of perfume," Eva confided.
PERFUME NEWS
 You'll enhance your femininity and stress your individuality when you learn how to use perfume correctly. And to help you, get a copy of leaflet M-26, "Perfume: How to Choose and Use It." Added, at no extra cost, Lucille Ball's own favorite reducing diet. Get both valuable bits of information by sending only 5 cents AND a self-addressed stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Big Spring Herald. Remember to ask for leaflet M-26.
 "I have used but one perfume ever since I've been in this country. I splash it on extravagantly because I want it to become a part of me — to be associated with ME—a trademark.
 "Women today do all the work that men do, and this makes them more interesting but it makes femininity even more of a challenge. Efficiency is fine but too much self-sufficiency could lose you a husband.
 "If the fire is getting low, let him throw the log on. Men may not admit it but they enjoy waiting on women — especially attractive women.

 "Look dainty even when you are cooking the dinner. Wear your face freshly made-up and smell of some lovely perfume. Try to be gay even if you are tired. That is the way to please a man. That is being feminine," Eva said with assurance.
 Eva is not the least bit vain and she made it clear that she did not treat beauty as a "must" for success.
 "Very often," she commented, "the most fascinating women you meet are almost ugly. But because they are not born with regular features they feel they have to compensate for this in other ways — being well-informed, good sports, developing a good sense of humor. These qualities make them every bit as popular as the most glamorous women.
 How often you see striking, handsome men married to plain-looking women whom they adore for other qualities," Eva reflected.
 I agreed with Eva that mere beauty is not enough because if you put all the stress on good looks, when they fade, and inevitably they do, there is nothing left.
 Eva told me that she wanted to be an actress as far back as she could remember.
 "But I had a hard time getting people to take me seriously," she said. "The best advice I've ever been given was never to be discouraged and let yourself be beat down. When I came to Hollywood from Hungary, I was tested at Paramount. When I came out of the make-up department, the director didn't recognize me because I had lost all my individuality. 'You look just like any other blonde. Go back and fix yourself,' he said. I went back into the room and piled my hair up on top of my head as I had been wearing it, made my mouth up to look natural and I got the contract."

Welches To Live In Tarzan

STANTON — Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Welch will be at home in Tarzan after a wedding trip to Rudoso, White Sands and Carlsbad, N. M.
 Their wedding took place Nov. 18 in the home of the bride's parents in Tarzan. The bride is the former Georgia Ann Glaze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glaze. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. I. E. Welch and the late Mr. Welch.
 The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Hoyt Welch of Eunice, N. M., a cousin of the bridegroom.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess dress of white faille. Her accessories were black and her corsage was of pink carnations centered with a blue bird of happiness. For something old, the bride wore a ring that had belonged to her great-grandmother.
 Attending the bride was her sister, Nancy Glaze, who wore pink faille with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Benny Welch was best man for his brother.
 A reception was held in the home following the ceremony. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Ginger Randolph and Lewis Brown, all of Midland; Mrs. Sally Anderson of Levelland and Mrs. Lova Glaze of Stanton, grandmother of the bride.
 The bride is a graduate of Stanton High School and the bridegroom served three years with the United States Air Force after graduation from Courtney High School.
 For traveling, Mrs. Welch wore a brown wool crepe suit with avocado accessories.

SEC. III BIG SPRING, TEXAS, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1954 SEC. III

Automobile Inspections For '55 Lag Considerably In Big Spring

Compulsory automobile inspections for 1955, which started in September of this year, have been lagging considerably in Big Spring. Local inspectors state that very few automobiles in this city have been checked and approved. About nine out of every 10 cars here still have the 1954 inspection stickers, it is estimated. The slow rate of inspections seems to be common all over the state. The area Department of Public Safety representative from Midland has informed local inspectors that checks are lagging all over his area. The Highway Safety Council of Texas has issued a memorandum from Austin which claims that inspections are going at the "slowest rate since the inspection law was passed."

This is the third year that cars have had to be inspected. The State Legislature passed the inspection law to insure more safety on the highways of Texas.

Big Spring has more than a dozen inspection stations. Most are at the dealership service departments, though some are at independent garages. The independents in Big Spring seem to be making less inspections than the dealers. Dealers inspect cars of their regular customers plus the new and used cars which are sold. Independents have to depend on inspecting cars brought to them for that specific purpose or on inspecting cars brought to them for repair.

All inspection station operators here report that they are checking only a handful of cars each week. One of the dealers has made only 85 inspections since the checks began, and others report about the same figure.

The deadline for inspection is April 1, 1955. Most inspectors here say that people are in no hurry because they realize that there is plenty of time. One dealer advanced the theory that many people are planning to buy a new car between now and the deadline and consequently are not worried about the inspections.

Some inspectors state that despite the widespread publicity, few people seem to know that the inspections are necessary. Others simply forget about it, while others are just putting it off.

All the local inspectors joined in urging that the inspections be made as soon as possible. They believe that a last minute rush is sure to come and that those getting inspections now will not have to worry. It was also pointed out that cars should be in tip top condition for the more hazardous winter driving. The condition can be assured by an inspection.

SET of toilet water and perfume in beautiful wrapping is traditional gift for women from men.

REGAL scents come in small packages. Pick perfume you like. She wears it for your pleasure.

BEAUTIFUL shapes of fragrance bottles make them ideal stocking gifts for mother and sister.

Cosmetics Always Welcome As Yuletide Remembrances

For presents that say, "I love you," to daughter, sweetheart or wife, there is nothing that quite can equal dainty perfumes and cosmetics.

Fresh and appealing fragrances have ranked as traditional Yuletide gifts since the time of the very first Christmas, when frankincense and myrrh were offered to infant Christ.

Special, sweet-smelling Yuletide packages can be had in a wide range of prices—and in hundreds of fine containers, ranging from gold facions to copies of antique sewing boxes.

Famous cosmetics houses, such as Charles of the Ritz, Yardley and Shulton, have packaged their finest products—colognes, lipsticks, bath salts, toilettries, etc.—in scores of combinations. There's if you're dubious about the wiring of the tree lights, throw the string out. A new one is cheaper than a new house.

Christmas is a good time to institute preventive medicine with teenagers. Give them a humorous stocking loaded with all the things they usually borrow: Scotch tape, thumb tacks, socks, erasers, paper clips, a new pair of gloves.

An excellent little stocking gift is a pretty box of eye cosmetics. Included is Blue Royale, a new color in creme mascaras developed by Azira. A similar type of present is a new body lotion called Bounce which kills bacteria and soothes the skin.

Model Trains Require Space

For millions of youngsters with model trains, the saddest day of the year comes roughly one week after Christmas. That's the time when the tree comes down and Mom says the living room floor no longer can serve as a trackbed.

The trains and tracks go back in their boxes to wait for another Christmas—and it's nothing short of a shame.

When trains are received as Yuletide gifts, they are set up for quick operation. But afterward the tracks should be mounted, so the child can use them whenever he wishes. The effort required is small and so is the usual cost.

The best permanent location will, of course, depend on your home—the playroom, attic, basement, garage, or wherever there's extra space. And to help you design the layout, equipment firms, such as Lionel, offer handy track planning kits.

An excellent mounting surface is any large table, especially a ping-pong table. Or you may wish to build special platforms in custom-made sizes and shapes. These can be built out of scrap lumber in such a way they are easily stored.

Renters of small apartments can mount their platform on casters for storage beneath a bed. Or build it in three or four sections to be stowed in a back of a closet. Or purchase a "corkscrew" layout, with 180 feet of track spiraled in to four square feet.

Folding Carriages Latest For Dolls

Folding doll carriages will take the spotlight in the doll department this year. A new model has an expanding handle which can be changed over the years to fit the child's growth. Smart doll carriages feature all the safety devices used in prams for real babies. Draft-proof, tip-proof construction and sun shades are included to assure dolls comfortable, safe promenading.

LITTLE FUR luxury. It's a white dyed Mink shrug cape.

Children Love Fingerpaintings

A gift that gives free rein to any child's creativity in fingerpainting. The idea behind it is simple: the child needs no brush to manipulate, no set pattern to follow.

Directions: Put the fingers in the paint pot and transfer the color to glossy paper. For tots whose coordination is something less than perfect, there is free arm motion, using elbow, lower arm and wrist as well as fingers.

The designs are beautiful and very satisfying to children's love of color. And each new painting can be hung on the wall.

There's Nothing Like Fur For Lush, Lavish Luxury

There are families where buying a fur coat has all the excitement and Christmas gaily of picking a burial plot. These individuals trudge out and pick an immense unbecoming coat and return home with it, the insurance policy tucked in the pocket. And from then on, it might as well be a security, stuffed away in a vault.

Furs, along with those fantastically expensive perfumes in the one-drop bottles, are strictly for glamor and fun.

Whether she owns a floor-length mink or a tiny collar of rabbit, a woman wears fur because it's becoming, gay and enjoyable. "Mink is so practical," states Lorell Lee, but she doesn't really mean she wants a mink because it keeps her warm—she wants it because it's beautiful and when she wears it she feels lavish and gay.

So if you want a gift that has not a hint of being sensible, furs are your dish. But even though they make women walk as though they owned the Ritz (and they love it) it needn't cost a fortune.

For, say the Associated Fur Manufacturers, a little fur is news again this Christmas. A collar, a tiny jacket, neckties or even the more fabulous stole can be a gift of the year, no matter what the size or price.

rel Nutkin wouldn't recognize his brother when the fur men get through with him.

Mr. Greenberg waxes rhapsodic on the subject of color—pink mink, pink beaver and blue ermine. Fox collars bloom on sweaters—but they match incredibly well.

For something a lucky school gal will actually cover her back with, there are the short coats with real shape. Spy-like turned-up collars and flared fronts stay in shape since they're fur over Pellon.

Even the tiniest nugget of fur is the splendid gift. There's something about it...

All Women Will Cherish Gift Sweater

Be she 6, 16 or 60, the Average American Female has become aware of a fact—that Christmas would not be Christmas if she didn't receive at least one sweater.

But the annual repetition distresses her not a bit. No matter how many sweaters she has, she always can use another. For no other clothing garment adapts so well with her overall wardrobe, teaming with skirts, shorts and dresses for dozens of new combinations.

The sweater shopper in '54 will have an extensive choice. In the women's sportswear field, for instance, one side of the scale is fashion offers classic alpaca and pullover garments in yards of the finest gauges. Off at the other extreme are the popular bulky knits. And making news at the midpoint are several novelty items, featuring bead and embroidery work and finer collar detail.

Fabrics range from butter-soft Orion and nylon-Vicars to cashmere, lambs wool and zephyr wool. Stripes have come into prominence, as have big "artist" collars, nautical themes and border treatments of soft angora.

According to stylist Ruth Roberts, many ladies' sweaters exactly match those worn by men, but are sized down for better fit. There also are short-waisted barrel jackets, in white, navy, red or brown, and full-length, bulky-knit coats. These go along with the trend for reviving the old-time "filden sweater" look.

Do you like carols? There are lots of good records of them if you're not much on singing. There's even one of music boxes playing the old traditional songs.

Pets have their own candy. If your guests feel they must feed Fido a bonbon because it's Christmas, leave a box of doggie candy around.

The Hour Every Motorist Owes to Himself!

The happy man you see in this picture is bringing himself up to date.

Cadillac has written a whole new chapter for the book defining motor car performance, and he's taking an hour to find out what it says.

And it says plenty—of very great importance.

First of all, it tells you what it's like to have command of a 250-horsepower engine that's as smooth as velvet, and so quick and eager that you have to educate your driving toe all over again.

It tells you what it's like to have virtually every unevenness in the highway completely eliminated before it is even noticeable to driver or passengers.

And it tells you what it's like to relax amidst upholstery fabrics and leathers that are found nowhere else, save in the 1955 Cadillac—not even in the finest clubs or hotels.

All this is to say, of course, that Cadillac has made another tremendous advance in design and engineering—so great, in fact, that only a drive and a personal inspection can let you realize its full significance.

And, naturally, there is yet greater emphasis on all the long-existing Cadillac virtues:

—the endurance that enables a Cadillac owner to keep his car just as long as he elects to do so... and with complete confidence in its dependability—

—the amazing economy of operation and upkeep which causes many owners to maintain that it is the most economical car on the American highway—

—the great personal satisfaction that comes from owning a car which is recognized, wherever highways lead, as the Standard of the World.

We cordially invite you to come in—today—to see and drive this wonderful, wonderful car.

There are eight models—in four different series—including the sensational Eldorado.

There is one to please you—exactly. And we think you'll be surprised and delighted at how little it costs, in comparison with lesser cars.

A Bible Thought For Today—

Worms can indeed consume a physical body, but after we have left the body. It is no longer any part of us. The soul has no further need of it. Flesh and bones do not inherit eternal life, Paul taught. "The worm shall eat them."—Deut. 28:39.

It Makes Sense To Work Together In Distributing Of Christmas Aid

For the organizations and agencies contemplating Christmas projects, we commend a contact with the Salvation Army as a means of more effective work.

In cooperation with churches and other groups, the Salvation Army has collected a list of names representing upward of some 300 families in need of help. Between now and the middle of the month, each of these cases will have been investigated to verify need and to ascertain other circumstances which might be germane to furnishing of assistance.

Most church groups and other regular agencies are checking with the Salvation Army to "adopt" certain families. Thus, aid will be more evenly spread and there will be less chance of any deserving case being overlooked. Moreover, there will be less possibility of the "professional" aid cases from reaping an easy harvest at the season of the year when hearts are filled with compassion.

On the matter of this sort, it makes good sense to work together.

Citizens Have Responsibility Of Voting In Senate Race Saturday

On Saturday the people of the 24th District will be obliged to select a state senator to serve the term to which the late Sen. Harley Sadler had been elected.

There are seven men in the race and to the one who polls the most votes will go the honor and responsibility of representing the district for the next four years.

Candidates are Pat Bullock, Colorado City, former senator; Rep. Truett Lattimer, Abilene, member of the House; Rep. David Ratliff, Stamford, member of the House; Dr. Robert F. Wasson, Snyder physician; Cecil Lottel and Justin Morrow, both Rotar businessmen; and Dan Borrell, Abilene attorney.

During the past few weeks most of these men have made visits here and have issued statements which set out their platforms or their views on various state affairs. No doubt there will be other statements and advertisements to follow this week.

From the group it will be the duty of the citizens to select the individual who seems best suited to serve this district and this county.

Making a selection is only half the chore, however. The important thing is getting to the polls. As the case in so many elections, the choice Saturday might be dictated not so much by those who go out and vote as by those who through carelessness, indifference or downright civic laziness stay home.

It is the duty of every citizen to vote.

Military Families Abroad Are Enjoying A Close Home Life

WIESBADEN, Germany — What happens to the scores of thousands of American families, of military or civilian status, sent abroad in the service of their country?

What happens, according to the two principal Air Force chaplains stationed in Wiesbaden, headquarters of the United States Air Force in Europe, is a minor miracle that ought to interest social workers at home.

Because there are so few outside distractions in the form of tree or country clubs, families become far more close-knit than in the U.S.A. There is much more home life, with the result that parents and children work and play together, and both adult and juvenile delinquency wither on the vine.

There are standees at every church service and Sunday Schools overflow.

This is the testimony of Col. C. E. Zielinski, Roman Catholic priest of Holyoke, Mass., and his chief assistant, Lt. Col. Silas A. Meckel, Protestant pastor from Minneapolis, Minn.

"In a foreign land, the family tends to go every place together, including church," said Col. Meckel. And he added, with a wry laugh, "There's at least one crying baby at every church service."

"I have yet to meet a crying baby I can't outtell," Father Zielinski boasted. "They're welcome to come and try!"

Both chaplains said they were continuously hard-pressed to find sufficient space and train enough lay teachers to care for the Sunday School throngs.

On week ends, military schoolhouses, hangars, machine shops and service clubs are pre-empted as Sunday School rooms for the 450 Catholic and the 550 Protestant children who come for religious instruction.

"Juvenile delinquency is negligible, almost nil, compared with the difficulties at home," said Col. Meckel. "Considering the fact the kids are cut off from normal environment, they behave very well."

"They just don't seem to get into the devilry they do back home," Col. Zielinski added. "The cohesiveness of family life keeps kids in the right groove."

Both chaplains were eager to tell about two other Air Force chaplains, Rabbi Simon Kobrinetz of New York, now stationed at Ramstein, Germany (headquarters of the Twelfth Air Force), and Rabbi Selwyn Geller of Brooklyn, now stationed at Orly Field outside Paris.

They are both the modern counterpart of the old-fashioned American circuit rider," Col. Zielinski explained. "Instead of riding circuit on horseback, these two chaplains ride their circuit on Air Force shuttle, passenger or cargo planes. Between them, they hold services at all the main Air Force bases on the continent once a month."

"The Protestant and Catholic chaplains at each base make all preparations for the rabbi's visit. We see that announcements are printed and distributed in advance, and that everything is ready for services when the rabbi arrives."

"We look forward to their visits," Col. Meckel said.

"We certainly do!" added the Catholic chaplain. "In the services, there is a degree of interfaith harmony that is unmatched in civilian life in America. The virus of bigotry is nonexistent!"

Confident Living—Norman Vincent Peale

Give Yourself With The Gift, And Christmas Will Be Happy

High in the Adirondack Mountains, there is a village whose address is "Santa's Workshop, North Pole, New York." Here tourists may see a jolly Santa Claus at work readying his Christmas gifts. There also they may buy presents to take home with them.

Although "Santa's Workshop" is a commercial enterprise, it is also the center of a vast Christmas goodwill program in which the contributions of visitors plus a portion of the workshop's income are used to send toys to thousands of children in orphanages, asylums and industrial schools. And, among its buildings, there is a chapel for the use of those who visit North Pole, dedicated, of course, to St. Nicholas.

This combination of a good business, a sense of charity and a realization of the fact that Christmas, after all, centers about chapel and church offers a fine example for the rest of us at this time of year.

Once again, our streets are colorfully lighted and the shop windows handsomely decorated. Once again, cities and towns are thronged with people shopping and getting into the exciting spirit of the season. And, once again, it is easy for us to forget what that spirit really is and what kind of giving we should do at Christmas.

But, with a little thought, you can make this the happiest Christmas of your life. You can learn that the greatest Christmas gift you can make is the gift of you!

Put something of yourself into everything you give. Make your selections personally. Even if you're not very good at doing so, at least wrap your presents yourself. Because "the gift without the giver is bare." Personally take your present to the person to whom you are giving it at all possible. And, in any event, accompany your gift with a prayer that God's richest blessings may go with it.

In giving don't limit yourself to your loved ones and friends. When you make up your Christmas list, go beyond your family circle, your intimate friends and those who remembered you last year. Add to your list a few persons who never gave you anything and who certainly expect nothing from you. You can find real happiness by giving to those who would be surprised and tremendously pleased. This will put a new joy into your giving, however modest your gift may be.

Don't forget people of other races and creeds in your giving. The only power which can create real brotherhood and understanding in this world is the power of friendship and love. Give in the name of Him who said, "Love one another."

Give something to those who are especially needy and who might otherwise have little joy in the holiday season. These gifts should be among your finest. In doing this you will have the joy of hearing a voice within your heart say, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these... ye have done it unto me."

A gift, however great or small, speaks its own eloquent language. And when it carries the love of the giver, it is truly blessed. All religions teach the sacramental sacredness of self-giving. This ideal lies at the heart of Christmas. "For God so loved the world that he gave... His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

So this year, give yourself with every gift, and your Christmas will be the happiest you have ever known.

Booming Western Europe Beginning To Feel Its Postwar Oats This Year

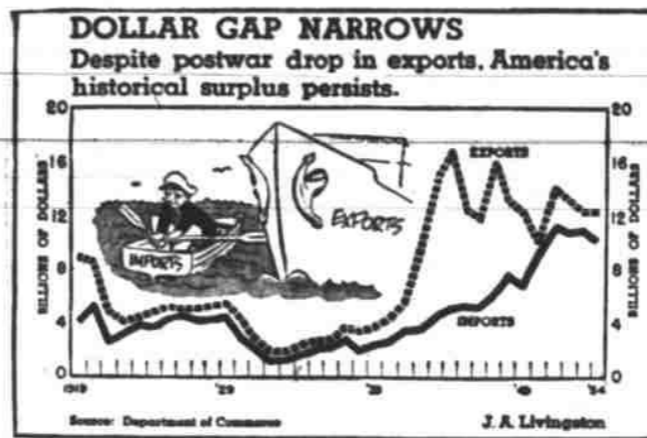

WASHINGTON — Europe is feeling its postwar oats. Or, to use the more elegant language of a United Nations report: "The characteristic of the recent economic history of Western Europe... was the relaxation of most of the strains which had manifested themselves during the whole of the postwar period."

Taking a long look ahead, that means more sales of American foodstuffs, raw materials and specialty machinery abroad. Collectively, it signifies more job opportunities in the United States. It explains why the Chase National Bank has undertaken, with the U. S. Export-Import Bank, to organize a corporation to finance foreign trade — to help American manufacturers sell abroad. That's economic gold in Europe's ancient hills, valleys, and cities.

And a revolt of the angels, Europe's housewives, is just around the corner. America is being rediscovered by European women, who now want homes with refrigerators, washing machines, dishwashers, vacuum cleaners, etc. Such a domestic revolution is a natural outgrowth of Europe's recent economic gains. The standard of living points up.

In France, despite numerous post war political upsets and changes, production is some 35 per cent above prewar. Aside from the vacation months, it has risen steadily this year. In Western Germany, output is almost double that of 1937, and Western Germany is now referred to as the "strong man of postwar Europe." In Great Britain, production has been running about 5 per cent ahead of last year, Britain's all-time best.

This improvement occurred while the United States was going through the mild 1953-54 recession. Europe's improvement can be measured by the rise in gold and dollar holdings. At the beginning of 1953, such reserves amounted Exports to $10.7 billions. By June, they were up to almost $14.2 billions. And every country, except Turkey, participated in the increase.

Country	1952	1953	Increase
Austria	$ 143	$ 289	$ 146
Belgium	1,035	1,055	20
France	967	1,092	125
Germany	691	1,503	812
Italy	655	802	147
Netherlands	815	1,125	310
Norway	160	178	18
Portugal	374	516	142
Spain	130	142	12
Sweden	275	342	67
Switzerland	2,053	2,105	52
Turkey	151	151	00
Unit. K'dom	2,318	3,536	1,218
Others	919	1,318	399

Europe's resurgence won't mean a sudden increase in American exports. Nor will the domestic revolution open a large market for American household products. Manufacturers in England, Germany and France are capable of producing refrigerators, washing machines, and other electrical appliances.

Indeed, it would be economic suicide were Europe to try to import conveniences and luxuries from the United States. Europe's trading position doesn't warrant that.

But a rising standard of living in Europe will require increased imports of raw materials from the United States. After World War I American exports gradually rose (see chart). And now, after the sharp reduction following the World War II peak, it's quite possible another gradual rise will take place. That's the meaning of Europe's economic recovery. The recent weakness in pound sterling is not a contradiction. It's partly a seasonal phenomenon — exaggerated by disappointment.

Many foreign traders expected Great Britain to free the pound this year — go for convertibility. When that didn't take place, holders of pounds simply sold. Nevertheless, Britain's increased productive capacity, improved trading position, and larger gold and dollar reserves are precursors. Sooner or later, the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street — the Bank of England — will be able to walk in the international markets without crutches.

Scientists are puzzled by the fact that the U. S. infant mortality rate is one of the lowest in the world but that among people above the age of 10, U. S. death rates are higher than those in a number of other countries.

Bible Words for Today

PSALMS 34:6—"This poor man cried and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles." (RSV)

Prayer is the most universal religious custom, whether a man is a Jew, Christian, Mohammedan, Buddhist or pagan. At times all men pray. Prayer is the fundamental I-thou relation. Now men do not continue to do something that they have found ineffective. Unless prayer changed things men would long since have ceased to pray. Prayer gives spiritual power—and spiritual power is the most potent force in heaven or earth.

The greatest Man of prayer who ever lived was Jesus of Nazareth. By all odds He has had the greatest influence of any man who ever lived. Prayer is an active affirmation in the reality of God. It is an active affirmation in the personal nature of the universe. You do not pray unless you believe there is a God and that God is ready and willing to aid you.

Prayer can never be measured by earthly standards, but it does put the resources of heaven back of the man who prays. The writer of the marvelous 34th Psalm begins his prayer with adoration, and then goes on to searching of heart; not until then does he petition God for his needs.

You Can't Be Musical Expert Unless You're High On Hi-Fi

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald. — Editor's Note.

Too long have I delayed in getting in my tuppence worth on that new wonder of the age — high fidelity.

Now, I am no expert on this phenomenon of pitch and decibel, but for that matter neither is anybody else who talks so glibly about it.

Some of the biggest frauds that are being perpetrated on patient friends and neighbors in our time are those practiced by self-anointed authorities on what is an honest reproduction of music.

A fellow has only to get himself a music-box which carries the tag of "high fidelity" and he immediately is able to launch into lengthy discourse on timbre, overtones, harmonics, subsonics and super-sonics.

The fakery is not only in use of nomenclature it is also in the comment while listening to the music on the hi-fi. The fellow will bend an overly attentive ear to the third passage in the andante of Mooshehart's Casa Manana Suite, Opus 33 in F Major, and ejaculate: "Ah, hear that note on the glockenspiel? As true as the sigh of the virgin north wind, as crystal clear as the winter moonbeam on the un-sullied snow on the mountain peak!" Naturally, he can get by with this sort of stuff, because you and I didn't hear the glockenspiel at all, on account of the saving of the bass fiddles.

But the hi-fi expert takes even a more authoritative air in his attitude of attention to the melody. Let there be soft, sweet passage in the larghetto, and he will with dignity nod his head from side to side, in sympathetic tempo; let there come the cantabile, and he will softly hum along with the orchestra, not knowing that he himself is about a tone off the pace; let there boom out a burst of grandioso, and grandly he waves his arms boldly and with abandon, seeing himself as the image of a Stokowsky.

Put on a military band piece, and he gestures with the briskness of a Sousa. Then hook up the Polecat Jump, as played by Nightie Knight and his Five Nightmares, and our hi-fi addict will wriggle and stomp just as if he were getting into the first throes of the Charleston.

This you understand, serves to dramatize the full impact of what high-fidelity music can do to the understanding ear and soul.

Next thing about a hi-fi, do not ever expect to qualify even as an expert Junior grade, unless you are ready to turn the volume up high enough to shake the bricks out of the chimney. Nobody, but nobody, you see, can appreciate the total integrity of mechanical sound reproduction without reaching the maximum in decibels.

Last time I got into the hi-fi fever and went for the volume, I concluded the way to get 'er to work was to put the machine in the sub-basement, put 'er on "full," and then go out and sit on the roof of the house while the piece plays. This way, you can qualify in the high-decibel club and at the same time keep from knocking out your eardrums.

I am not ridiculing hi-fi, mind you. I am committed. I have invested in auxiliary speakers and diamond needles, and anti-record-scratch devices. Trouble is, everytime I had another gadget, the music sounds just about like it did before. This makes me, in the opinion of the experts, either a dumbkopf, or completely deaf.

When they toss such accusations at me, all I can do is give 'em the stock answer. "Well, I know what I like."

I like my music pretty, and not too loud.

—BOB WHIPKEY

These Days—George Sokolsky

No Prospects Of Revolution In Russia Presently Are Evident

One of the arguments in favor of a "go-soft" attitude towards Soviet Russia is that an internal revolution is about to take place at any moment. Although no evidence is generally available on the subject, those who believe that such a revolution will take place base their conclusions on statements made by refugees and escapees who have been interviewed by American officials and by various associations which devote themselves to such activities.

The assumption is that the numerous peoples of the Soviet Universal State seek freedom and liberty on the Western model, a condition of life with which most of them have no familiarity. The vast freedoms which are so precious to us have never existed in Russia, czarist or bolshevik. They are unknown to a very large part of the human race and are not believed to be possible or reasonable by many.

In a huge empire the size of the Soviet Universal State, it is always possible that internal disturbances will develop, particularly among the nations on the periphery. Such disturbances are usually the result of one of several causes, to four of which I call attention:

1. Failure in war;
2. Dissent and internecine strife among the Russes;
3. Increasing and excessive luxury on the top levels leading to moral decay and disrespect for authority among the people;
4. Natural disasters, including famines, which lead to desperate uprisings that generally fall in their immediate objectives but which create turmoil among the people and a weakening of authority.

These four causes for weakness have not yet appeared anywhere in the Soviet Universal State, so far as we know. In fact, available evidence points in the opposite direction. Soviet Russia has won every military and diplomatic enterprise up to the new German treaty. The test of a Russian failure would be the ratification of the treaty by France and West Germany.

In the internal affairs of Soviet Russia, the death of Stalin produced no cataclysm; in fact, the movement from an absolute, autocratic dictatorship to "collective leadership" passed with only one hitch, the intrigue of Beria which was put down with swift and effective brutality which did not affect the people in any way or the other. The era of luxury which brought decay to the Roman Empire and to the courts that succeeded Louis XIV in France has not yet appeared in Soviet Russia.

No one can guarantee that there will not be a revolution in some area of the Soviet Universal State. But can anyone guarantee that one will take place, and that if it does take place, it will not be put down as ruthlessly as Stalin managed the 1937 and 1938 purge or as Malenkov handled the Beria incident?

The error in judgment as to the possibility of an internal revolution is only important if the revolution does not take place. For then, any conclusions based on its imminence can be very costly, as costly as the conquest of China by Marxism during the diversionary Berlin airlift.

It is not at all impossible that Soviet Russia has planted the seeds of a fictitious prospective revolution as a method of softening the Western attitude toward the Russian "peace" campaign. The diversionary Berlin airlift should have been a lesson to us because while it was the center of intense attention, Soviet Russia completed the conquest of China and amalgamated China into the Soviet Universal State of which by its constitution, whatever language is employed, China is now a part.

If those in authority in the United States, the President, the Secretary of State, the evaluators of data in the CIA, accept the prospect of revolution as immediately probable, an adoption of a receptive attitude will be based upon the assumption that the Lord is on the side of the righteous. That can turn out to be a pious hope that may not exist in reality. That would make their policy as false as Gen. Marshall's was with regard to China when he was misled as to the nature of Chinese Communism, or as false as the British policy toward Red China has been which was based on advice from Hong Kong traders that swift recognition would result in a split between Russia and China.

John Foster Dulles's counsel of caution does make sense in these troubled times, but the inaction of American policy increases confusion.

WASHINGTON — Republican Senate Leader Knowland sides with Joe McCarthy. As an old Eisenhower crusader, Knowland is due to be made a Knight of the Garter. Every time king Ike hears his name these days, something snaps.

Federal jobs increased by 5,000 in October. Presumably these were memory experts hired just before the election to remind the voters how much the Republicans had cut the federal pay-roll.

Two thousand years before the Senate voted on Joe McCarthy, Plato said: "Mankind censures injustice, fearing that they may be the victims of it and not because they shrink from committing it."

The Navy says two guided missile cruisers will join the fleet. Warfare is improving. Soon you'll never know what hit you — and the guy who fired it will never be sure what he was shooting at.

The Eisenhower team plans a big aid-for-Asia program. Republicans speak to the taxpayer as father did behind the woodshed: "Son, this hurts me worse than it does you."

One foe of Senator McCarthy claims Joe got his sore elbow in a fight. The other fellow had a glass eye.

Churchill apologizes for saying he wanted to re-arm the Germans in 1945. Defense between a statesman and a politician: The statesman apologizes. The politician apologizes for the newsmen he claims misquoted him.

PEGNOIR ensemble and gown of nosegay print is smart sleep-wear twoosome. This outfit is rayon challis.

Know Tastes Of Recipient To Select Ties

The way the story was reported here, a men's store in one large city came up with a novel Christmas plan for saving its customers' eyesight. With every gift-tie bought by a woman, it gave away dark-lensed glasses. It really was only a joke, of course, designed to enliven sales, but it serves to point up a point. So much fun is poked every year at color-wild, eye-stinging Christmas ties that some shoppers now shy away from the item for fear that they'll show bad taste.

In actual fact, however, the trick to selecting handsome ties is simple as simple can be, and few other gifts you can give are so sure to be needed and liked. The trick is to know the man's wardrobe tastes, his hobbies and personality. A guy who is always conservative, for instance, may not go for gay, bold patterns, while an extrovert tends to prefer them. Learn the color of his favorite suit. If it's blue and he wears white shirts, the choice of colors is almost limitless. But supposing his shirts are also blue, or popular pinks and grays? Then you should choose a tie that suggests these colors in dots, stripes or figures—or a solid like gray or maroon. The brown suit calls for beiges and greens, the gray suit for charcoal, blue, red or black, with patterns in soft-spoken hues. Another popular combination is black and purple—charcoal suits with pink shirts. The ties should repeat the same colors. For a gift that is extra-special, cater to hobbies or interests. If the man is a bowler, for instance, a tie with a tennis motif is sure to be down his alley. Other popular motifs are skiing, tennis, baseball, fishing, hunting, boating, horses and chess. Or have the gift individualized by getting a tie with embroidered initials—preferably below the tie's center. This indicates you gave personal attention to the selection. But don't go forgetting your sales slips.

Camera Ideal For All Ages

A Christmas gift that's truly ideal is one that, besides giving pleasure, also gives cherished memories. And that adds up to a camera.

Cameras are suitable gifts for almost any age group. They enable the gift recipient to keep his happiest moments recorded for years to come. And they're priced to fit every budget.

Box cameras for raw beginners can be had for as low as three or four dollars. One new $4 model takes outdoor pictures on two types of film: full color and black-and-white. Others come with flash attachments for use indoors or at night.

Each of the major firms, such as Kodak, Argus and Graflex, now sells a special Christmas package. Included in a typical package are camera, flash unit, batteries, flash lamps, film and carrying case—everything needed to take good pictures. Also offered, by some, are booklets on proper technique.

For the photo-bug who is more advanced, there are cameras to fit every taste and every shade of experience. An expert run-down on each can be had from your neighborhood camera dealer.

Sure to wow expert and novice alike are the newest advances in stereo cameras, such as those by Revere and Linex. If you never have seen one work, ask your dealer to demonstrate. When the picture is seen through a special viewer, the scene becomes three-dimensional. Results are amazingly lifelike.

Another popular favorite is the self-developing Polaroid camera. A minute after you shoot the picture, you can take out a finished print.

For those who have cameras already, you can purchase many accessories items, ranging from film to movie projectors, which will add to their hobby's enjoyment.

BALI is a card-word game that can be solitaire or for two, three or four players. A thoughtful gift for an invalid.

Lovely Things To Wear Will Please The Ladies

The route to the heart of a man may detour around through his stomach, but the path to the heart of his lady is always in open view. On Christmas Day and every day, she's sure to fall every time for lovely—and practical—things to wear.

The woman who can't be thrilled by glamorous gifts of clothing probably doesn't exist. And now, more than ever before, the thrill is easier to give—for there's glamour to fit every budget.

Handsome, luxurious garments, such as petticoats, nightgowns, pegoirs, pajamas, blouses and skirts, range the scale of prices from five-figure numbers to one or two dollars. What once only queens and nobles could afford now is available to all.

If the lady on your list likes dress-up occasions, she'll appreciate a glamorous blouse. This year's new formal blouse styles feature dozens of opulent fabrics. Avisco rayon mat jersey, the popular fabric which has long been a favorite in sophisticated separates costumes, is one of the newer fashion leaders. With its stark simplicity and richness of texture, the mat jersey blouse makes an elegant foil for sparkling jewelry

Values Galore In Typewriter

One of the finest gifts you can give, for the person who goes to business, the student, or budget-pinched housewives, is a modern portable typewriter.

As a suitable gift for a student, of course, the typewriter ranks near the top. In addition to offering homework convenience, it tends to improve his school marks. A controlled experiment by experts has produced some definite conclusions. Schoolroom classes were divided into two sections—half using pen and pencil and the other half using typewriters. Those who typed their work did much better than normal in several fields of study. They also showed more interest and developed stronger neatness traits.

But the typewriter's many gift advantages are not just confined to students. They're ideal for all the family.

As an aid to the housewife, for instance, it will not only speed her household paperwork, but also can earn its keep by bringing in extra money. According to Royal Typewriter Company, many women supplement their household budgets by taking on extra typing jobs, such as addressing envelopes for large mailings by local businesses. Dad will find it invaluable, at home or when taken on business trips, for catching up on his office work. And writing letters to friends no longer will seem a chore.

Most popular hues for winter are the beige and sand tones, coffee, brown and black.

Another gift favorite is sleepwear, with cozy, pretty pajamas and softly elegant gowns offering two extremes. One has old-fashioned comfort, while the other appeals to every woman's sense of femininity.

While gowns are favored for grownups, cute styles like short bloomer pajamas are right for teen-agers. A newly popular adult style is the "waltz-length" gown in printed challis, with matching pegoir ensemble.

The list of other favorites—sweaters, stoles, hats, suits, stockings, raincoats, weskits and so

Weekend In Hotel Nice For Family

Novel Christmas gift: a weekend stay at a hotel for you and your wife—away from the dishes and housekeeping in the quiet luxury of a hotel.

It can be a weekend for the whole family, if you like. The way to do it is to make your reservation well in advance and put the hotel's confirmation card in a box neatly wrapped in holiday paper.

forth—is too long to well describe, and long enough to fit any gift-giving problem. But before you choose, a word of advice:

In buying women's clothing, stay away from the type of item that requires a definite measurement, unless you know the measurement exactly. If you don't and can't find out, many stores have gift certificates which enable the lady to choose for herself, after you've paid for the item.

In the field of accessory items, the list is headed, as usual, by the always-needed handbag. The currently popular tote bag style can be found in all types of leather, from cowhide to suede to kid, and in all popular colors.

The choice of belts is equally wide. You'll see them in the new softened calf leather, so supple that it is draped, pleated and shirred for the cummerbund look. The wrapped look is also developed in smooth leather belts that give the effect of a wide midriff with a curved shaping.

The idea that a gift of gloves is practical but unimaginative doesn't hold true this Christmas. A myriad of colors and textures from the finest soft doezkins and glace kid leathers to pigskins and capeskins are available in gloves for every occasion. And the styling is true-high-fashion.

In the at-home glamor shoe department, there are many novelties to choose from in sandals, wedgies and mules, some of them jeweled and embroidered. Most are brilliant in color.

Come in and Drive the All-New '55 Pontiac

MAKE COURTESY YOUR CODES OF THE ROAD

Road-test the Reasons why America says "IT'S HOT!"

With its first look at the All-New 1955 Pontiac, America said "It's hot!" Now that record thousands have bought and driven this spectacular new car, the verdict is stronger—because Pontiac for 1955 performs even better than it looks!

Come in and see how Pontiac's Strato-Streak V-8 engine—with its remarkably improved economy—gives you acceleration as quick as a wish, with a tremendous reserve of power on tap for every need. Feel how Pontiac's long 124-inch wheelbase and wide-stance rear springing let you enjoy a ride you've never known before. Experience how Pontiac's recirculating ball steering and larger, more efficient brakes provide almost effortless handling. Then glance around you at the wonderful roominess of the all-new bigger, wider, more luxurious Body by Fisher with its all-around panoramic vision. And finally, notice the admiring glances Pontiac's distinctive years-ahead styling attracts.

But don't get the idea this big, high-powered beauty is too rich for your blood—because you can buy a Pontiac at a price so near the lowest that it will fit easily into any new-car budget! Come in soon!

THREE GREAT LINES— ALL WITH STRATO-STREAK V-8 POWER!
FABULOUS STAR CHIEF—Luxury-car beauty, size and power at lowest cost—124" wheelbase SPECTACULAR 870—Leader of its low-price range in length, luxury, performance—122" wheelbase

Romance In Paris

Alan Ladd Stars In 'Drum Beat,' CinemaScope Movie

Alan Ladd's first CinemaScope movie shows Thursday through Saturday at the Ritz Theatre. The film is "Drum Beat" and is in Warner-Color.

Ladd plays Johnny McKay, an Indian scout who attempts to bring peace to northern California but sees his earnest efforts fail and the area becomes engulfed in the Modoc Indian War of 1869.

Charles Bronson has the role of Captain Jack, eccentric and wily leader of the Modoc Indians, who unites the tribe into an effective fighting force and lures McKay into an ambush. Captain Jack was the name given the renegade Modoc chief since he liked to dress in stolen military uniforms and affect military titles.

Audrey Dalton plays a sweetheart of McKay, a girl from the East whose family dies in an Indian attack. Marisa Pavan, sister of Pier Angel, plays an Indian maiden whose love for McKay saves him from death.

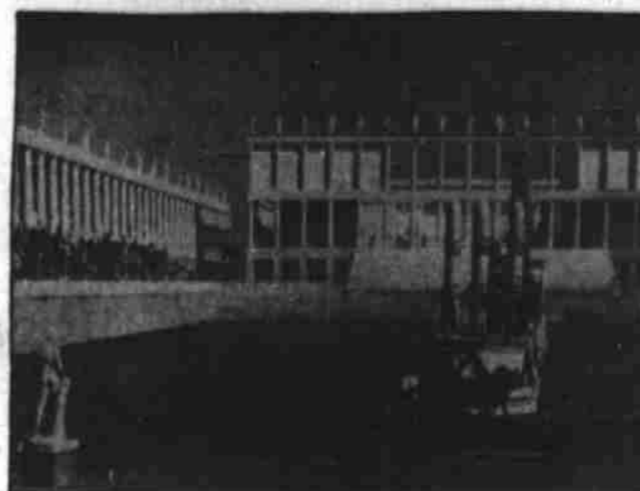

Most of the film was made in the wildernesses of rugged Coconino National Forest in Arizona with its peaks used to represent the Klamath Mountain range of the Modoc-Oregon border. This range was the historic stronghold of the Modoc Indians and the base

Famed John Ford Film 'Lost Patrol' To Show At State

John Ford's famed production, "The Lost Patrol," shows Wednesday and Thursday at the State Theatre. Victor McLaglen, Boris Karloff, Wallace Ford and Reginald Denny have the top roles in this RKO Radio re-release film.

The film focuses on the plight of eleven men, members of a British cavalry detachment lost on the bleak sands of the desert without knowledge of its orders, its exact whereabouts or its destination after the commanding officer is killed by the Arabs.

The men take refuge in an oasis, becoming virtual prisoners when the Arab marauders kill a sentry and steal the horses. Doom seems inevitable and the band slowly dwindles and the Arabs continue their raids.

Glory Of The Roman Empire

Van Johnson And Liz Taylor In Ritz Movie

Van Johnson and Elizabeth Taylor star in "The Last Time I Saw Paris," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer romantic drama showing today and Monday at the Ritz Theatre.

Based on a story by F. Scott Fitzgerald, updated to post-World War II days, the film has Johnson as young writer and Miss Taylor as the girl he meets and marries in the French capital.

Donna Reed plays the embittered older sister who first brings Johnson home, only to have him ignore her for her younger sister. Walter Pidgeon plays the sisters' fun-loving father, a man who believes in living beyond his means but doesn't let it worry him.

Eva Gabor plays a gay divorcee while Kurt Kasznar plays a sympathetic bartender. Roger Moore, young British actor, plays a playboy tennis champion who nearly

Stock Market Test Is Met

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—The stock market this week met its hardest test of the post-election boom, and came through stronger than ever.

For two days, prices were hammered down sharply. Many believed the market was headed into a major reaction, a development long expected.

Selling spent itself, however, and the advance was resumed with more energy than before.

The Associated Press average reached a new high of $148.90, best since Sept. 29, 1929. The all-time high of $157.70 set Sept. 3, 1929, was nearer.

The market has been advancing for nearly 15 months without a major setback.

During the first 11 months this year, The Associated Press average rose nearly 40 per cent.

All signs are favorable for a repetition of historic precedent, with one exception.

On the favorable side, leaders are giving out year-end statements. They are almost universally optimistic. They have excellent earnings and dividends to back up their position. Volume is high. Buyers crowd the market.

On the unfavorable side is the simple fact that the market has been soaring higher and higher without taking time out to digest its gains. This worries many in Wall Street.

This week the market advanced on Monday to a new high. For the next two days it dropped abruptly. Thursday and Friday the market resumed its rise.

The five most active issues this week were Allegheny Corp. up 1/2%, New York Central up 1/2%, Boeing up 1/2%, Baldwin up 1/2%, and Georgia Pacific Plywood up 1/2%.

Tense Scene

'Executive Suite' Film Showing At Terrace

Showing tonight and Monday at the Terrace Drive-In is "Executive Suite," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer drama starring William Holden and June Allyson. The film, dealing with the struggle for power in a large corporation following the sudden death of its founder, also has Walter Pidgeon, Louis Calhern, Barbara Stanwyck and Dean Jagger in key roles.

Holden plays a young vice president not sure that he wants the top job. Miss Allyson plays his wife. Miss Stanwyck plays the founder's neurotic heir.

'Betrayed' To Show

Clark Gable and Lana Turner star in "Betrayed," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer color adventure showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Jet Drive-In. Gable plays a behind-the-scenes operator of Dutch intelligence while Miss Turner plays one of the agents. Victor Mature co-stars as the "The Scarf," a leader of the Resistance.

New Coffee Cake Is Yuletide Treat

For a fancy Christmas breakfast, here is the recipe for the coffee cake that won the junior prize in Pillsbury's Grand National Recipe and Baking Contest, adapted for use with a mixer.

Calico Carnival Bread
Prepare dough as directed on Pillsbury Hot Roll Mix package. Knead on floured board about 5 minutes. Place in greased bowl and cover. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, about 30 to 60 minutes. Knead into dough 1/4 cup gumpdrops, chopped, 1/4 cup walnuts, chopped. Shape dough into loaf. Place in greased 9x5x3 inch pan, cover. Let rise again until dough is rounded above top of pan—30 to 60 minutes. Bake in 350 degree oven 40 to 50 minutes. Frost with confectioner's sugar icing, if desired.

The average school has nearly as much area devoted to corridors, gymnasiums, auditoriums and service areas as to classrooms.

'Garden Of Evil' To Show At Jet

Showing tonight and Monday at the Jet Drive-In is the CinemaScope film "Garden of Evil," which stars Susan Hayward and Gary Cooper. The film, in color, is set in Mexico. Miss Hayward plays the wife of a man trapped in a mine collapse in an abandoned valley off the Mexican coast. Led by the lure of gold, promised by Miss Hayward, three adventurers bound to the California gold rush as well as one of the Mexicans agree to accompany her back to the dangerous valley.

IT'S TRUE, EDDIE-- IT GOES INTO EFFECT NEXT WEEK!

CASPER NEVER MENTIONED A WORD TO ME ABOUT THAT RAISE!

CASPER, HOW ARE THINGS GOING AT THE OFFICE THESE DAYS?

OH-- JUST ABOUT THE SAME AS EVER, TOOTS!-- EXCUSE ME-- COL. HOOVER AND EDDIE ARE WAITING FOR ME!

SO THAT'S IT! CASPER'S HOLDING OUT ON ME! WELL-- I'LL HAVE TO FIGURE OUT SOME WAY TO CASH IN ON THAT RAISE!

--AND I THINK I KNOW HOW TO DO IT!

TOOTS HAD ME WORRIED FOR A MINUTE THIS MORNING WHEN SHE STARTED ASKING ME ABOUT THE OFFICE!

I WAS AFRAID SOMEBODY HAD TALKED-- BUT ONLY COL. HOOVER AND EDDIE KNOW ABOUT MY RAISE, AND THEY SAID THEY HADN'T BREATHED A WORD!

CASPER, GUESS WHERE I WENT TODAY?!-- TO A FORTUNETELLER-- THE GREAT SWAMI!-- AND HE READ MY FUTURE IN A CRYSTAL BALL!

I DON'T PAY ANY ATTENTION TO FORTUNETELLERS, TOOTS!

DO YOU KNOW WHAT SWAMI TOLD ME, CASPER? HE SAID YOU'RE GOING TO GET A $25 A WEEK RAISE!

H-HE TOLD YOU THAT?!

YES--AND HE ALSO SAID YOU'RE GOING TO SURPRISE ME BY GIVING ME THE EXTRA $25 EACH WEEK TILL I HAVE ENOUGH FOR A NEW FUR COAT!

G-GOLLY-- I HOPE HIS PREDICTION COMES TRUE!

OH, I JUST KNOW IT WILL! IN FACT I'VE NEVER BEEN SO SURE OF ANY THING IN MY LIFE!

GRR-R! I'LL MAKE A PREDICTION, MYSELF! THE GREAT SWAMI IS GOING TO GET A PUNCH IN THE NOSE FOR KNOWING TOO MUCH!!

COME ON, SILVER! WE MUST CONVINCE THE COLONEL THAT HE'S LEADING HIS MEN INTO AMBUSH!

HERE COMES LINDA - THE COLONEL'S DAUGHTER.

YEAH, MR. GATE'S-- AND THE COLONEL THINKS SHE'S IN THE HANDS OF THE INDIANS.

LINDA! I TOLD YOUR FATHER YOU'D BEEN CAPTURED!

QUITE THE CONTRARY!

YOU'VE CAPTURED THE INDIANS!

YES, TONTO AND A MASKED MAN CAME TO MY AID.

YOUR FATHER IS LEADING THE TROOPERS TO THE INDIAN VILLAGE.

CHIEF EAGLE WING COUNTED ON THAT. HE'S SET A TRAP FOR THE TROOPERS!

MASKED FRIEND RIDING TO WARN COLONEL OF AMBUSH.

NO USE WASTING TIME TALKING TO THE COLONEL. HE WON'T BELIEVE THERE'S AN AMBUSH-- UNLESS I SHOW IT TO HIM!

RUSTY RILEY

GIVING THEIR HORSES A WORKOUT AT THE FAIRGROUNDS, RUSTY RILEY AND ROGER BIGSLOW PUT ON A MATCH RACE AS A SORT OF TEST FOR THE FORTHCOMING GOLD CUP STAKE.

WOW! LOOK AT 'EM GO!

WHAT A RACE!

COME ON, ROGER! YOU MUST WIN!

NICE GOING, RUSTY... BUT MAYBE MR. CYCLONE AND I CAN GIVE YOU A BETTER BATTLE IN THE GOLD CUP RACE.

JEEPER, ROGER, YOU GAVE US PLENTY OF BATTLE ALREADY... THAT WAS DOSSONE NEAR A DEAD HEAT!

MEANWHILE, ROGER'S PARENTS:

WASN'T THAT A GREAT RACE, DARLING?

"GREAT" 'F... NOT IF ROGER LOST!

SURE HE LOST... BUT THAT'S NO DISGRACE... AFTER ALL, RUSTY IS PROBABLY THE BEST KID HORSEMAN IN KENTUCKY!

WELL, SINCE THIS WASN'T AN OFFICIAL RACE, I SUPPOSE NO HARM'S DONE... BUT RUSTY RILEY MUST NOT BE PERMITTED TO WIN THE GOLD CUP!

YIPPEE! RUSTY WING!

McGraw-Hill, Inc. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

ISN'T THAT CHARMING? LITTLE MAX'S INVITATION MIGHT HAVE COME FROM MRS. VANDERCLIFT HERSELF... SO PERFECT.

HE EVEN HAD IT HAND-ENGRAVED. HE'S CERTAINLY A PERFECTIONIST.

HOW EXTRAVAGANT... MY GOODNESS, HE SHOULDN'T HAVE GONE TO THAT EXPENSE FOR ONE INVITATION.

HE'S VERY THRIFTY. HE'S VERY SUCCESSFUL AND FELT HE COULD AFFORD IT.

I'M THE FANCY COOK THEY ENGAGED AT TH' AGENCY... HMPF... WHERE'S TH' PARTY GIVIN' TH' PARTY?

I'LL HAVE T'HAVE MY MONEY IN ADVANCE... HOW DO I EXPECT A CHILD TO... HMF... OKAY... WHAT A PLACE T' GIVE A FANCY DINNER?

NOW GET OUTA TH' WAY, CHILD... I DON'T WANT THEM SUGGESTIONS... I'VE COOKED FOR TH' BEST... GET OUTA TH' WAY!

I MUS' GET MY TABLE SET WITH MY NEW CHINA... DEAR, DEAR, SHE IS CERTAINLY INCOOPERATIVE...

I'LL GIVE THEM THE MUSIC THEY LIKE... MIZ PLOOKA WILL LIKE 'S BRAHMS AN' CHOPIN... I'LL PUT JOE'S PAL BING CROSSBY ON FOR HIM...
