New Year's Thoughts From The Old Book

The new year is upon us and the old year belongs to the pages of history. In starting this new year why not carry these 10 thoughts with you from the Holy Scrip-

1. This is the day the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be

2. I will praise Thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become

3. The Lord is on my side; I will not fear; what can man do

4. The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation. 5. I love the Lord, because He hath heard my voice and my

6. Because He hath inclined His ear unto to me, therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.

7. I will walk before the Lord in the Land of the living. 8. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all His people. 9. (I will purpose to remember that)... Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints. 10. Thou art my God, and I will priase Thee: Thou art my God, I will exalt Thee.

THANK YOU

Thanks to all the good people of Matador for the many kindnesses extended to us following the death of our sister, Melba Jameson. We are also very grateful for the care and love shown to her, especially in the past year.

Aurene and Dan Bevers

We would like to express our appreciation for the prayers, the food, and the visits that I received during my stay in the hospital and after I returned home. Thanks!

Grace and Ray Zabielski

We would like to say thanks to each one who helped us in so many ways while I was in the hospital and since coming home. The cards, calls, visits, food and prayers will always be remembered. May each one be blessed in a special way.

HOLIDAYS ARE FOR FAMILIES! Charles and Joan Keith were kept busy by their families during the holiday season, with Joan's children, Marc and Arlene Levin of Colorado Springs and Judi Levin of Los Angeles spending the Thanksgiving holidays in the Keith home. Viola and Charlie Keith joined in the special family Thanksgiving dinner. Charles and Joan found time the following weekend to drive to College Station to watch Texas A&M lose to Texas in the deciding championshp game for the last Southwest Conference Title. They spent the remainder of the weekend with the Schmalstiegs in Georgetown.

And the next weekend, they attended Hal Halff's 90th birthday party - a High Tea hosted by Julia Keith and Liz Schmalstieg at the Page House in Goergetown. Also attending were his daughter and her husband, Merrie and Scott Goguen of North Carolina. Viola and Charlie Keith accompanied them and joined in the festivities.

Joining them for the Christmas holidays were his daughter and her family, Liz and John Schmalstieg and Jack and Ben Charles. Their traditional Christmas Dinner was also attended by Viola and Charlie Keith and cousins Hazel Donovan, Carl Pierce, and Keith and Joan Patton.

On December 27, they drove to Colorado Springs to celebrate Marc and Arlene's third wedding anniversary. They visited Cripple Creek, toured the Colorado Pioneer Museum, were treated to a special evening at the Colorado Springs Country Club, and shopped at Castle Rock - before returning to Matador on December 31, tired but eager to welcome in the New Year.

NO. 4102 THE STATE OF TEXAS RANDALL SCOTT NOELEN CASH BOND SURETY IN THE COUNTY COURT OF MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS JUDGEMENT NISI Date of Bond: 8/15/94 Amount of Bond: $350.00 Offense: Poss. of Marijuana

On this date, this cause was called by the Court, and thereupon came the State of Texas, by her County Attorney, but the Defendant failed to appear and answer. Thereupon the Defendant's name was called at the Courthouse door, and a reasonable time was given for the Defendant to appear, yet the Defendant failed to unless good cause be shown why the Defendant appear and wholly made default.

The Court finds that the Defendant, as Principal, together with the above stated Surety did enter into a bail bond, payable to the State of Texas, in the above stated penal sum, conditioned that the Defendant, as Principal, should well and truly make his personal appearance, instanter, before the County Court of Motley the original bond in this cause. County, Texas, and there remain from day to day and from term to term of the Court until discharged by due course of law, then and here to answer the State of Texas upon a charge by information therein filed accusing the Defendant of the above stated misdemeanor charge. It 4tc-3 is therefore considered by this Court that the State of Texas is entitled to a forfeiture of the bail bond.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, AD-JUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. The State of Texas do have and recover of and from the Defendant, as Principal, the sum of the above stated bond; and in like manner the State of Texas do have and recover of and from the above stated Surety the sum of the above stated bond.

2. That this Judgement will be made final unless good cause be shown why the Defendant did not appear.

3. The clerk of this court shall issue a citation to the princiapl, by publication, and citation to the Surety, to appear and show cause why the Judgement should not be made final. 4. That an alias capias issue for the re-arrest of said Defendant and that the bond for such capias shall be set at DOUBLE the amount of the original bond in this cause. Signed this 26th day of July, 1995.
