VISIT SUNDAY WITH PARENTS

Mrs. Arthur (Karen Elliott) House of Washington, D.C., reporter for the Washington Bureau of the Wall Street Journal visited from Friday evening until Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott. Joining her here Sunday for a visit were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fogerson (Lynda Elliott) and daughters, Kristy and Penni of Silvertown, and Larry Elliott of Lubbock, news reporter for KAMC-TV, channel 28.

Mrs. Fogerson, Home Extension Agent for Briscoe County recently spent a week in New York City for a tour with 60 other Texas Home Extension agents, visiting DuPont and other manufacturing plants as well as merchandising and clothing displays in the World Trade Center.

Mrs. House met her sister one evening for dinner at the Plaza Hotel, with Al Hunt as their host. He also is with the Wall Street Journal and married to NBC correspondent Judy Woodruff.

Mrs. House returned to Washington last month after spending two months in the Middle East interviewing heads of states. She also was on assignment covering Secretary of State George Shultz's trip to those countries to negotiate President Reagan's Peace Plan.

FRIENDS OF LIBRARY TO MEET MONDAY

The Friends of the Library will meet Monday, June 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Motley County Library.

BIBLE SCHOOL ANNOUNCED

The First United Methodist Church will have Vacation Bible School June 6th through June 10th.

Time for the Bible School is 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Ages three years to 12 years are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Knight visited recently in Las Cruces, N.M. with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knight.

Mrs. Levi Wilkinson visited the week end in Levelland with her mother, Mrs. Lena Helvey and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hall.

Sandra Miller and her two daughters Toni and Amy were in Matador over the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith, to help celebrate the birthday of her mother Mrs. James Smith.

Memorial Services Held At R.S. Cemetery

Memorial Services honoring those buried there who served our country in time of conflict were held in the Roaring Springs Cemetery Monday morning at 8:00 a.m.

R. C. Giesecke of Matador spoke at the meeting; the Honor Guard composed of the V.F.W. and American Legion fired the gun salute and "Taps" was sounded.

Clyde Clifton gave the closing prayer. All graves of service personnel were decorated with flags before the service.

The Motley County High School Ag boys with the help and encouragement of the V.F.W. and American Legion made crosses to mark each veteran's grave. The work began last year and was completed this year.

Heavy Rains Cancel Little League Games

The softball season for the Minor League teams has been postponed for a week due to the heavy rain received here Monday. No games will be played this week, because of the muddy field.

The Softball Season for the children will begin next week and the schedule will be the same as was published in last week's Tribune, except the dates will be a week later.

El Progreso Club Ends Year With Lawn Supper

A lawn supper Thursday, May 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl King closed the club year for El Progreso Club. Members invited guests for the occasion.

The covered dish meal included a variety of salads, meats, casseroles and desserts and was served from a camper at the back of the beautifully manicured lawn where tables were set beneath the trees.

After the meal, Mrs. John Hamilton, president, conducted a short business session and thanked the arrangement committee, Mrs. King, Mrs. Frank Pohl and Mrs. Ralph Stapleton and others who helped.

Mrs. Frank Price was leader of the program which featured Friendship, opening with a poem on the subject.

One charter member and two longtime members were honored by the club and presented with corsages. Mrs. D.I.W. Birnie, the former Ollie Echols was the charter member, but due to a conflict was unable to attend. Mrs. D. E. Pitts and Miss Mary Keith were recognized for their years of service to the club. Mrs. Pitts is a past president and Miss Keith served as historian for the club and also as librarian when the club sponsored a library during the late 1930s.

Mrs. Pitts is making arrangements to go to Lovington, N.M. in the near future, to make her home near her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pitts. She was born here and has lived here all her life.

Quotations on Friendship were read by members in answer to roll call, and several guests also offered quotations.

Mrs. W. F. Jacobs led the group in singing old time favorite songs, accompanied by Mrs. Pohl, on her Cassio keyboard.

Guests present were Mrs. Howard Limmer (Carolyn Pohl) of Snyder, Mrs. R. W. Overstreet of Floydada and Mesdames Bill McKelvey, Roy Bradford, Alfred Barton Jr., Cecil Shelton, Olive Russell, Clay Gilbert, R. E. Donovan, J. D. Craven and Clay Jameson.

Members present included those mentioned and Mesdames W. N. Pipkin, Robert Dickson, Harold Campbell, Robert Darsey, E. A. Day, C. D. Garrison, Bill McCaghren, Una Simpson, R. E. Campbell Jr., Gus Bird and Douglas Meador and Miss Rachel Patton.

Cards Of Thanks

Thank You Note
To the students of the Senior and Eighth grade graduation classes:
Thank you for the thoughtful gifts and other expressions of appreciation. It was a pleasure being with courteous and talented students such as you and sharing this special time in your life. I wish you the best of everything.
Mrs. H. R. (Earlyne) Jameson

Card Of Thanks
Thank you for your many expressions of love and concern for my weeks stay in the hospital.
The cards, flowers, phone calls, and especially the prayers that were said in my behalf were most greatly appreciated.
May God bless all of you.
Vena and Duke Lipscomb.
