Eternas Club Sponsors Drive Following Fire At Girlstown

The Eternas Junior Study Club is sponsoring a drive for clothing, bedding, towels, cosmetics and toilet articles to be donated to Girlstown in Whiteface to replace things that were destroyed in a fire at one of the dormitories late Sunday night. Also, anyone wishing to contribute money may contact any member of Eternas Club or Mrs. Ron Richards, club president.

The clothing needed is for girls ages 11 to 18 and the sizes are junior 3 to misses 16.

Collection boxes for articles are placed at the Motley County School and the Matador Tribune. The Eternas Club will be responsible for delivering these items. The club would appreciate it if donations could be made by Saturday morning so delivery can be made soon.

Mrs. Alan Bingham contacted Girlstown by telephone Monday and was advised that the girls are staying in the gym, so any articles of bedding, towels, soap, toothbrushes, etc., are badly needed.

According to information received by Mrs. Richards, there were 44 girls and 10 sponsors whose belongings were consumed by the fire.

The Eternas Club will appreciate your help in collecting these things for Girlstown.

A Second Glance

By Leon Watson

The train was pulling out of the station when a man ran up to the depot and out onto the tracks in hot pursuit. He scampered down the track, his feet touching about every fourth railroad tie and when he got about six feet of the caboose, he lunged at it, and missed. "Well, you just didn't run fast enough," said an oldtimer standing nearby, "No," he replied. "I just didn't start quick enough."

We seem to be getting our paper out later and later each week because we continue to accept news and ads after our deadline. This is starting to cause us problems in meeting our appointment time at the press. We are simply not starting on the paper makeup quick enough.

To avoid future delays in publication, only news and advertising submitted before noon Tuesday will be assured of being in the following Thursday edition.

We received some comments about the letter to the editor in last week's paper, where a newcomer to Matador said the people here were not friendly. Some residents said this was not true, others said maybe it was true.

If you have ever moved to a new town, you know the empty feeling and loneliness you can have. When I first moved here, I felt this way.

I felt pretty good when Mrs. Meador said I would be welcome to attend their church and Dude Bailey invited me to his house for dinner. There were a few other people who 'spoke' but that was about all.

The longer I lived here the better it got. Snow Crenshaw and Lonnie Doran stopped by often to visit and Bill Pallmeyer was very helpful. But mostly there were a lot of long looks and blank faces from the people here.

I know now that people here were not "unfriendly", they were just not outgoing, as you might expect in a small town. But at that time, the unfriendly feeling was very real to me and it was enlarged by the strange surroundings, as I'm sure it was to the lady who wrote the letter. We may feel it is not true that we are unfriendly, but to a newcomer it may seem very true and that is what counts.

If we don't want to take the time to welcome each and every newcomer to our town, then we deserve to be called unfriendly.

NEW LIBRARIAN -- Beverly Darsey looks through a few of the books which have been donated to the new Motley County Library, which will be located in a room of the old elementary school building. Beverly was hired by the library trustees last week. The Matador Tribune donated 162 books Tuesday. Others wishing to donate books may do so by contacting Michelle Bearden, Ronnie Thacker, Darla Gwin, Syd Pipkin or Marie Linson. (Photo by Leon Watson)

Candidates Run Unopposed In Saturday's Election

Candidates for City Council, Hospital District and School Board races in Motley County ran unopposed for their seats in Saturday's Election. Only 54 residents voted in the City Council race giving Lewis Bostick 30 votes, L. B. Campbell 49 and Joe Smith 37. There were 15 write-ins for position on the council. For Motley County

Independent School District number 901 race Roy G. Hobbs had 118 votes and Wilberta Jackson had 93 votes. There were nine write-ins for the two school board seats. Larry Hoyle received 113 votes for a position on the Hospital District board, and J. B. (Buzz) Thacker 120. There were two write-ins in that race.

Nutrition And You

Fewer Calories Shouldn't Mean Less Nutrition

Many people are cutting calories and getting more exercise now than before. That's good. But they are not aware that they may not be meeting their nutritional needs. That's bad. There is even some question about the value of the current American diet. Many of the foods we choose do not provide all nutrients. And, unfortunately, Americans more often select their food according to convenience, cost, and appearance, rather than because of the nutritional value. It is important to know the facts about such subjects as Vitamin C, fiber, and minerals, with an eye to current research in the field of nutrition.

According to Dr. James Scala, a noted authority on nutrition and vice president for Science and Technology at Shaklee Corporation, "The challenge of the 1980's will be to make people aware of how to achieve good nutrition through the judicious use of food and food supplements."

"Scientists can devise 1,500-calorie menus to meet the recommendations, but they vary widely from the way most people eat. Another solution is to increase the caloric intake and balance that with increased exercise. An answer for more and more Americans in the eighties could probably be to use food supplements along with their diet."

RODNEY WILLIAMS, member of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department is shown with the "Alert All" and "Tot Finder" stickers to be placed on the bedroom windows of children, elderly, or handicapped persons. These stickers will be distributed free of charge and are designed to help firemen or rescue personnel to locate these people quickly in case of fire. The Fire Department will begin placing these stickers at residences in Matador during their regular Monday evening fire practice. It may take several weeks for the firemen to distribute these stickers, but if you have a child or handicapped or elderly person in your home and have not received a sticker within a few weeks please contact any member of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department.

Golf Season Begins

Thursday, March 26, Tommy, Syd, Grace, Marguerite, Frances, Lucretia, Winifred, Loys, Geneva, Kathryn, Laverna, Dorothy and Nita met at the Savings and Loan Party Room for a covered dish luncheon, starting the golf season for the Women's Golf Association.

Invitations were read for tournament April 28, Snyder CC...and also one from Snyder for Aug. 8-9. Raggedy Ann and Andy. Quannah partnership is June 20.

 ANNUAL Barbecue Supper sponsored by the Golf Association Tuesday, March 31, featured another Walter Jones' famous meals of barbecued beef and chicken. About 100 guests enjoyed the most tasty and delicious food—with the women furnishing desserts. Tables were attractive with a golf decor.

Leona, as tournament chairman, handed out the Women's Association golf books. A special thanks to Shelley Cox for typing and putting the books together. And we are especially proud of the covers. Frances, with her ingenious and inimitable talent sketched each player with pertinent pose and situation—all very appropriate and clever, and we appreciate her time and work.

 PLAY DAY: Thursday, Lucretia, Marion, Leona, Geneva, Laverna, Winifred and Hazel enjoyed lunch at Billie Dean's. Despite the gusty, dusty wind, these played at 1 p.m.: Geneva, Louise, Loys, Frances, Syd, Kathryn, Leona and Dorothy. Louise won the ball on putts.

Orange 'N Honey Glazed Coffee Cake You Can Make In Minutes

When company is coming or as a family treat, make delicious Orange 'n Honey Glazed Coffee Cake. The tender, moist pull-apart rolls are topped with a golden honey glaze, bursting with fresh orange flavor.

Since it takes only minutes to make with refrigerated biscuit dough, you can even serve it to drop-in guests.

ORANGE 'N HONEY GLAZED COFFEE CAKE

2 cans (10 biscuits each) Pillsbury Refrigerated Biscuits
1/2 cup sugar
1/3 cup chopped pecans
1/4 cup margarine or butter, melted

Glaze
1/4 cup honey
2 tablespoons orange juice concentrate
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Heat oven to 375°F. Grease a 9-inch square pan. Separate dough into 20 biscuits. Combine sugar and pecans. Dip biscuits in melted margarine, then in sugar mixture. Arrange biscuits in prepared pan in 4 rows, overlapping biscuits slightly. Combine Glaze ingredients in saucepan; mix well. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until bubbly. Spoon Glaze over biscuits.

Bake at 375°F. for 20 minutes. Cover biscuits with aluminum foil and bake 5 to 10 minutes or until biscuits are golden brown and done in center. Let stand in pan 5 minutes before turning out on serving plate. Serve warm. 9-inch coffee cake.

Dear Lady,
You have a standing invitation to visit our church. Sunday School starts at 10 a.m., church at 11 a.m., Sunday night services start at 6 p.m. and Wednesday night services start at 7 p.m.
I hope you have a "bunch" of youngsters or can bring a group with you. We welcome any and all people, denomination or race is unimportant. After your first visit you are no longer considered a visitor. So, if you like good singing, praise, worship and testimony services, we'll be expecting you.

P.S. Our preaching's not bad, either! It is strictly biblical.

P.S. Again, Sorry you don't find your new environment friendly. If you'll visit us, we'll try to change your mind.
Mr. Watson! Don't use my name please. Thank you.

I do not know the person who wrote the letter to the Editor last week, but I'd like to say that I have found Matador people to be very friendly and helpful.
I too am a newcomer to Matador, having been here about one month.
We had been here three weeks when my husband died of a heart attack, and I have found a helping hand wherever I turned.

In the large cities where I have lived, people do not seem to care about their neighbors as in the smaller towns such as Matador. Mrs. A. B. (Ruth) Chambliss

Dear Mr. Watson,
Our President lies wounded, felled by a bullet fired from a "Saturday Night Special." This favorite weapon of the assassin was easily obtained at a Dallas pawnshop.

In all but one of the eleven assassinations and attempted assassinations of Presidents or Presidential candidates, the assassin used a handgun. Presidents Lincoln, Garfield, and McKinley were slain. Candidate Robert Kennedy was killed. Governor George Wallace is crippled. It September 1975 alone, President Ford's life was threatened twice by assassins wielding handguns. Now President Reagan has been shot. Must we bury another President before the Congress acts to pass an effective national handgun control law? Together we can make the Congress act now to control handguns. Join with us today.

County Agent's Corral

By Jerry Cummins

The How And Why Of Transplanting

While it's best to seed some vegetables directly in the home garden, others do best if transplanted.

In this area of Texas tomatoes, peppers and eggplant should always be set out in the garden as transplants. The reason for this is the weather. These vegetables are somewhat fickle when it comes to ideal environmental conditions for setting fruit. Bloom and fruit set must occur before temperatures get too high. Setting out transplants after danger of all frost allows these plants to bloom during ideal conditions and to set a bountiful harvest during optimum weather.

You can also transplant such so-called "cool season" crops such as cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, lettuce and onions. This allows them to mature under ideal conditions and also saves growing time in the garden. Using transplants can lessen the garden growing time by several months or more. However, setting out transplants of crops such as okra, squash, cucumbers and melons offer no real advantage and is usually not a recommended practice.

What about the "how" of transplanting? Handle transplants like eggs! Make every effort to avoid undue stress to young plants. Be sure plants do not suffer from lack of moisture, wind damage or excessive heat prior to and immediately after transplanting.

Most plants that are available locally will be growing in plantable containers such as peat pots or peat cubes. If possible, plan to transplant during later afternoon or at least on a cloudy day. I personally think it's a good idea to set your transplants in a bucket or pan of water for several minutes prior to planting so the root system is thoroughly wet.

Determine the proper spacing for the crop and dig a hole four inches wide and four to six inches deep. Put about a cupful of water directly in the hole and allow it to soak in. Set the transplant in the center of the hole and fill in with soil. Make certain the peat container is completely beneath the soil level as it may act like a wick and rapidly dry out the rootball, thus killing the plant.

Depth of planting is important and often beginners make the mistake of setting plants too deep in the soil. Set most transplants only slightly deeper than they were originally growing. If plant roots are set too deep below the soil level, especially in heavy soils, they will be slow to grow and the plant will have to produce roots along the stem near the surface. The original roots may, or may not, grow eventually. Either way, the advantages of transplanting are lost and harvest may be delayed greatly.

When filling the hole with soil at planting, leave a slight depression around the plant to hold additional water from spot watering or from rainfall. Also protect young plants for a week or so from high wind and excessive heat. This can be done easily by placing a shingle, board, milk carton or some similar protection on the windy or sunny side of the plant. A can placed around the transplant when it is set in the garden will also prevent damage from pesky cutworms.

So much for the art of transplanting. Next I'll go into greater detail on how to grow tomatoes like you've never grown them before.

Consumer Views Important To Cattle Industry

Cattlemen must know the changing needs and attitudes that consumers have toward beef before they can hope for beef consumption to increase.

High beef prices are the major reason that consumers give for not buying red meat. This explains the noticeable per capita decline in beef consumption since 1976, says Mary K. Sweeten, food and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"High prices have forced consumers to cut back on beef purchases, substitute cheaper cuts, and buy poultry and fish rather than beef. Others have stopped buying beef altogether," Sweeten explains.

"Cattlemen should realize that recent major changes in society have affected food consumption. Among these," she says, "are the number of available items in the grocery store, drastic changes in living patterns, an increase in the elderly population, health concerns and a reported seven million vegetarians. Although not practicing vegetarianism, another 37.5 million are making a conscientious effort to eat less meat."

Also affecting food consumption is the increased popularity of fast food establishments, government food programs and new food technologies that are resulting in more "engineered foods" such as breakfast bars and space sticks.

"American food policy has always stressed quantitative proportions to avoid hunger and nutrition deficiency diseases. But recently qualitative considerations have become more important," Sweeten says.

Beef is known as a nutritious food that contains protein, iron and the B vitamins that supply the body with nutrients. It also contains calories for energy.

But beef has appreciable amounts of fat that consumers are trimming off and throwing away. Cattlemen should look for ways to raise leaner animals, Sweeten notes.

"Cattlemen must also use marketing strategies to meet the needs of each consumer group in America, low income, senior citizens, minorities and parents. Consumers from different socioeconomic levels and other groups differ in their beef needs.

"Cattlemen must understand the images that these groups have of the beef industry and work to provide leaner beef at more reasonable prices," Sweeten says.

Historical Commission To Meet In Austin

Members of county historical commissions and interested citizens from across Texas will attend the 1981 Historic Preservation Conference in Austin, April 23-25. The program, entitled "Back to Basics: Preservation Issues for the 1980's", will focus on local and state efforts to preserve, interpret, and wisely utilize the historic landmarks, buildings, and cultural resources of Texas.

This year's Conference includes an orientation session to introduce participants to the staff, services, and programs of the Texas Historical Commission. The THC is the official state agency for historic preservation and cosponsor, with the Texas Historical Foundation, of the annual Conference. County historical commissions, in turn, will have an opportunity to report on their local preservation programs and accomplishments.

In addition, the Annual Historic Preservation Conference includes addresses by national and state preservation leaders, workshops and presentations on specific heritage conservation issues, a state preservation awards ceremony, films, tours, and informal social gatherings. The THC consists of an 18-member governor-appointed

State Commission which functions as a board of directors; a professional staff of historians, archeologists, architects and experts in related fields; and volunteer preservationists in county historical commissions, heritage societies, conservation societies, and other interested groups throughout the state. Six new members were named to the THC recently by Gov. William Clements: Mrs. John B. Connolly of Houston; Louise Terrazas of San Antonio; and Mrs. Albert G. Hill, Mrs. H. R. Bright, Duncan Boeckman, and Richard Collins, all of Dallas.

Other current members of the Texas Historical Commission are: Chairman Barney M. Davis, Sr., Somerville; Vice Chairman Mrs. Menton Murray, Sr., Harlingen; Mrs. James F. Biggart, Jr., Dallas; Clifton Caldwell, Richardson; George Christian, Austin; Kenneth Clapp, Austin; Mrs. Sybil Danklefs, Austin; Ms. Sybil Dickinson, Austin; Woodrow Glasscock, Jr., Hondo; Mrs. H. L. Long, Kilgore; Mrs. Argyle A. McAllen, Linn; and Dr. Dan A. Willis, Houston.

If you would like more information on the Annual Historic Preservation Conference, contact the THC, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711; (512) 475-3092.

Corporation's Quarterly Tax Payment Due Soon

Corporations operating on a calendar year basis and having an expected Federal tax liability of at least $40 for 1981 are required to make the first quarterly payment by April 15, 1981, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The amount due by April 15 should cover one quarter of 1981 estimated tax. A worksheet, Form 1120-W, "1981 Corporation Estimated Tax," can be used to compute the tax and amount of each installment. The worksheet should be retained in the corporation's record and not be filed with the IRS.

When payments of estimated tax are deposited in authorized commercial banks or Federal Reserve Banks, they must be sent with Federal Tax Deposit Form 503, according to the IRS.

A free IRS publication 542, "Tax Information on Corporations," and copies of Form 1120-W can be ordered by calling the IRS forms/tax information number listed in the telephone directory.

SERVE UP SOME FUN WITH EASY, HOMEMADE PIZZA

Ancient Romans loved it. Virgil even wrote about it. And, today, Americans too are enjoying their version of this Sicilian pie... pizza. Besides being a delicious meal or snack-time treat, pizza is fun to make at home. Turning your kitchen into a pizzeria is really easy. Start your pizza with a simple, delicious homemade crust like the one below. Just stir Bisquick® baking mix and water together. Then roll or pat the dough into a circle on a cookie sheet. Top with cheeses, tomato sauce, spices and your favorite meat. And in less than a half hour, serve homemade pizza, fresh from the oven.

CHEESE PIZZA

- 2 cups Bisquick baking mix
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil leaves
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano leaves
- 1 large clove garlic, crushed
- 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese (about 4 ounces)
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup chopped onion

Heat oven to 425°. Mix baking mix and water until soft dough forms. Roll or pat dough into 12-inch circle on ungreased cookie sheet; pinch edge of circle, forming 1/2-inch rim. Sprinkle Parmesan cheese over circle. Mix tomato sauce, basil, oregano and garlic; spread over cheese. Top with mozzarella cheese, green pepper and onion. Bake until crust is golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes.

Hamburger Pizza: Top with 1 pound ground beef and 1/2 teaspoon salt, browned and drained.
Italian Sausage Pizza: Top with 1 pound bulk Italian sausage, browned and drained.
Pepperoni Pizza: Top with 1 cup sliced pepperoni.

High Altitude Directions (3500 to 6500 feet): Use boiling water to make dough.

OF MOUSSE AND MEN... AND WOMEN

Mousse, a pudding promoted to princeliness, can be given a special and delicious flavor with a dash of delicious IRISH VELVET liqueur, which is a liquid blend of fine Irish whiskey, coffee and sugar.

IRISH VELVET MOUSSE

- 8 squares (1 oz. each) semi-sweet chocolate, chopped
- 4 tablespoons IRISH VELVET liqueur
- 6 tablespoons butter, cut into pieces
- 4 eggs, separated
- whipped cream for topping

Put chocolate and IRISH VELVET into top of double boiler and place over hot, but not boiling water. Stir occasionally until melted and smooth. Remove from heat and stir in butter one piece at a time, until well combined. Add egg yolks, one at a time and stir well after each addition. Meanwhile, beat egg whites until stiff peaks form. Fold into chocolate mixture until well combined. Pour into 6 individual dessert dishes. Refrigerate 24 hours before serving. Makes 6 servings.

For a free recipe folder containing "Spirited Desserts from IRISH VELVET," send 25¢ for postage and handling plus a self-addressed letter-sized envelope to: Irish Velvet Recipes, P.O. Box 101P, Saddle River, N.J. 07458.
