Hance Introduces Bill To Stop Phone Increases

U.S. Rep. Kent Hance, D-Texas, has introduced legislation in the House of Representatives that would help stop massive telephone rate increases now expected to take effect in January.

The Hance measure, entitled the "Telephone Equity Act of 1983," repeals a Federal Communications Commission ruling on long-distance access charges that would have added more than $9 billion annually to telephone bills throughout the country by 1990. The charges would have translated into rate increases of nearly $8 each month for the next several years for each American home with a telephone.

The access charge to use long distance lines would be placed on monthly bills, even if the consumer did not make a long distance call.

In anticipation of the FCC ruling, telephone companies have requested rate increases of more than $8 billion from state regulatory commissions throughout the nation.

In Texas, Southwestern Bell originally asked for more than $2 billion in rate increases, but reduced that request in the past few weeks to $1.2 billion.

"The concept of universal, affordable telephone service was seriously threatened by the actions of the FCC," Hance said. "We needed to take steps to make sure everyone would still have access to phone service at prices that didn't cut some people out of the system. My bill will help maintain reasonable rates as well as protect the poor, the elderly and those in hard-to-reach rural areas from losing telephone service, either because of price or location."

In addition to dealing with the potential increase in consumer telephone bills, the Hance legislation creates a "Lifeline Service" which would guarantee service to those families unable to afford telephones.

"Everyone should have access to a telephone for emergency," Hance said. "The 'Lifeline Service' will give the elderly, ill and low-income people the assurance that they will be able to contact emergency fire, police, and ambulance services when they need them."

Hance believes his legislation will find favorable review from other Members of Congress and is hopeful for a quick resolution of problems now facing consumers because of telephone rate increases.

Ex-Students Respond To Homecoming Letters

Replies from former students and teachers of Matador High School and Motley County High School, to homecoming letters are being received daily by Mrs. Hazel Donovan, secretary of the Ex-Students and Teachers Association. Some are planning to be here, while others either can't make it, or are not sure just yet, as indicated in the following excerpts:

Dear Hazel, enclosed is my check in support of Homecoming in Matador. I do not know if I will be there. I had surgery (my third) again in June and I have not recovered well so far. Since I read that the class of '38 will get together (our 45th) I will attempt to make the trip...I hope you will have a large crowd. I am very appreciative that all of you put yourselves out to have Homecoming. Love to all. Jack Robinson Jr. 3104 Cambridge Dr. Arlington, Texas 76013. *****

Hazel: Just a note. Here is Jim's money for dues. He is in room 813, Methodist Hospital, very, very ill. Massive heart failure Sept. 4. Of course I am here each day--so just this note while he is sleeping. It happened in Ruidoso, N.M. He was in ICU there eight days, then to Lubbock in Medic airplane. I am sure he would want me to send this check. Mary Fulkerson, Lubbock. *****

Hazel - Can't believe it's "that time" again! Kinda sneaks up-like Christmas, every year. At the moment there is a question mark for us on that week end...at any rate, I'll think of all of you and here's a little donation for the kitty--to keep those cards and letters coming. Have fun and say hello to any you see from you know which class. Love, Betty Neighbors Rudder, 427 Fir Court, Hereford, Texas 79045. *****

I won't be able to make it this year. Have a good time. Ruth Tilson (Mrs. Wilbur J. Smith, Denton, Texas) *****

From Howard Hamilton, Kent, Washington: Dear Hazel, I will not be able to attend Homecoming this year.... maybe next year. Have a nice time and a happy visit with those in attendance. Sincerely, Howard. *****

H.L. Winter writes from Fort Worth: Sorry, won't be at the ball game. Maybe next year. Have fun. *****

Dear Hazel and All: Thanks for remembering me for Homecoming. Hope it is a good one and that all will have fun. I can't come this year, but enjoyed

DELAYED TOURNAMENT

The Club Championship tournament has encountered several difficulties -- postponements, delays, interruptions (a welcome one caused by rain). Plans are to finish the match and crybaby play -- and will have full report soon.

Thursday, Leona, Olivia, Polly and Lucretia played -- a fun match, with your reporter, Hazel, as a spectator. Geneva and Dorothy C. finished their match play, and later Geneva joined the other group and played with them.

After play the bunch enjoyed lunch at the City Cafe in Roaring Springs.

Vivian Jacobs Honored With Eastern Star Memorial

Matador Chapter No. 66 Order of the Eastern Star met Thursday at 7:30 p.m. on October 6 for a regular meeting. Opal Bradford is Worthy Matron and Sam Ross is Worthy Patron. Vivian Jacobs was honored with a memorial.

Memorial - In thinking of the wonderful, useful person Vivian was, as she lived among us; I would like to show the parallel in her life with that of Dorcas, Adah, Ruth, Esther, Martha and Electa.

Dorcas - "And it came to pass in those days, she was sick and died. And all the widows stood by Peter, weeping and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them."

Vivian sought opportunities to be selfless services. She had a warm heart and found chances to do good. Her kind deeds opened the way into sad and needy hearts. She did her work at hand in the spirit of love and understanding. "The path of duty is the way to glory".

Adah - Adah denotes fidelity. Vivian was always faithful to any person or organization of which she had committed herself.

Ruth - Ruth stands for constancy, working to continuously to help improve lives. Vivian continuously helped improve lives and situations for others.

Esther - Esther was steadfast in the light by knowing how and what to do in adverse circumstances, by being courageous. Vivian was very self-reliant.

Martha - Vivian had a great capacity for understanding and sharing bereavement. She could see clearly the Hope and Imortality at the end of life. She was a Martha.

Electa - Like Electa she had a great sense of fervency and strongly believed in the service of truth.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, or crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away."

I would like to play, "Beyond the Sunset". Vivian had the fine art of living her song. She sang this song very beautifully many, many times for memorials in our chapter.

Lovingly and fraternally,

Dear Hazel: Enclosed is a contribution and dues for Homecoming. I don't know yet about being there. Our church is having the annual Harvest Festival, Bazaar and turkey dinner on the 29th, and I am usually up to my chin in preparation for that about that (homecoming) time. Now if Class of 1927 was having a reunion, I would make every effort. Jettie (Cooper) Moss, Floydada, Tex.

Dear Hazel: I don't think I'll be able to be there, but here's this to help a little! Am expecting Dick and Mary real soon. Love, Hattie. (Hattie Groves Tomlinson, Lubbock)

Dear Hazel: The Ex-Students reunion always reads as if it would be a lot of fun. Sorry I can't be there. Sincerely, Katie Eubank (Mrs. J.E. Gustafson, Omaha, Neb.)

Bob Harp writes from Kahului, Hawaii (Box 230, zip 96732). Dear Hazel--Hope all is well with you, and hope homecoming is great. Special Aloha to class of '45, and Aloha to you.

From Hollis, Okla.,

If we don't make it, tell everyone we say Hi! Sincerely, Lilly Guthrie Edmondson, class of 1918; Lamar Guthrie, class of 1925; Georgia Westmoreland Guthrie, class of 1931.

"Here we are again--another year gone," writes Lilly Guthrie Edmondson from her home in Tipton, Okla. "I'm not sure that I'll make it over for homecoming, but I'll try. Best of luck to all Matador."

Dear Hazel: Here's my dollar. And, hello to everyone. I so enjoyed my class's twentieth in 1981, and guess it will be the twenty-fifth before I can be there again. I appreciate the work you do, and so treasure all the wonderful folks in Matador who made my life so full of happiness and wonderful memories. Sincerely, Donna G. (Williams) Nelson, Vice President of Evergreen International Aviation (McMinnville, Oregon 97128) and a proud alumni of Matador High School.

From George W. Fulfer, 8711 Walkden Lane, San Diego, Calif. 92119: Dear Hazel, We had planned to be in Matador for the 1983 Homecoming, but because we had to make an unexpected trip to Texas in July, we have decided against making another one this soon. This is the second time in as many years that we have had to alter our plans for Homecoming. Enclosed is our check, with the hope that it will help with expenses. I know everyone will have a great time.

Berl E. Godfrey, with the law firm of Godfrey, Decker, McMackin, Shipman, McClane & Bourland, in Fort Worth, writes: Receipt is acknowledged of your announcement of homecoming activities starting October 20. I am sorry that I will be unable to attend. However, to penalize myself for not being able to attend, I am enclosing a check for $4 more than the normal dues. Sincerely yours, B.E. Godfrey.
