MRS. LARRY KENT NOLAND (Gail Lynn)

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED BY LARRY NOLAND, GAIL LYNN

Wedding vows for Miss Teresa Gail Lynn and Larry Kent Noland were read at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, March 13, in the First United Methodist Church of Matador. The Rev. John Fitzgerald, pastor, officiated the double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn of Matador, Mrs. Ernestine Noland, Floydada, and E. A. Noland of Gilmer.

Altar decorations included an archway of greenery, scattered with white and purple mums, flanked on either side by a basket of white gladioli and a candelabra of white candles.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Roberta Jameson, organist, who accompanied Miss Patty Edwards, as she sang, "The Lord's Prayer," and "More."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon over crepe, designed and made by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lonnie Lynn. The scalloped neckline and bodice were outlined with seed pearls and long, Juliet sleeves were of lace and chiffon. The long train of chiffon was trimmed in lace to match the dress. The bride's headpiece was of organza petals attached to an elbow-length veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. She also wore the traditional "something old, new, borrowed and blue," including the bridegroom's gift of a pearl pendant.

The bride's attendants were Misses Brenda Wason, Laura Jacobs and Debra Garrison. They wore deep purple, floor-length gowns of bonded crepe, fashioned with empire waists and long, fully gathered sleeves. They wore headpieces of purple illusion, each attached to a purple velvet bow to match the velvet streamers at the waist.

Flower girl was Michelle Lynn of Childress, niece of the bride. Her dress was of white knit, with purple velvet ribbon at the waist. Groomsmen were Joe Mack Breed, Earl Rowan and Sam Green, all of Floydada. Ushers were Johnny Dunlap and Edwin Warren, also of Floydada.

Reception in Parlor
A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with white net over a white cloth, gathered at intervals and caught with clusters of small white and purple flowers. Silver candleholders contained orchid tapers and complemented the crystal punch service and three-tiered wedding cake. The attendants' bouquets of purple and white mums formed the centerpiece.

Misses Barbara Slover and Wanda Matney of Matador and Miss Joan Braafladt of Dimmitt alternated in serving punch and cake. Other members of the house party were sisters and sisters-in-law of the bride, Mesdames B. L. Colwell, Paducah, Robert Morton, Miami Springs, Florida, Jack Davis, Dalhart, Don Burditt, Branson, Colo., Alvin Lynn, Dumas and Lonnie Lynn, Childress, and two nieces, Traci Morton and Becky Burditt.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Bob Harder of Plainview, sister of the bridegroom.

After a wedding trip to Colorado and other points of interest, the couple will be at home in Floydada, where Mr. Noland is engaged in farming. For travel, the new Mrs. Noland wore a three-piece ensemble of white double knit, with a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Matador High School, and attended West Texas State University, Canyon. Her husband graduated from Floydada High School in 1969, and also attended West Texas State University.

'A' Girls Win Consolation in Vernon Tourney

by Olive Curlee

March 12 - 13 proved to be an exciting time as the girls volleyball teams, both 'A' and 'B' squads, traveled to Vernon to play in the invitational tournament held in the Lion's gym. The 'A' girls came home with the consolation trophy and both teams came home with many memories.

The 'A' girls lost the first set of games to Quanah, winning against Seymour and Harrod Saturday, to win the consolation division. The 'B' girls lost to Childress and did not have a chance to play again as the B division had no consolation bracket.

Other teams entered included the above mentioned, Iowa Park, Throckmorton, and Vernon.
