F. Tunnell.
An innovation of the commencement program was a rally of the graduating class of '28, which had also received diplomas from Superintendent Tunnell, who were honored guests of the class of '33.
Those receiving diplomas Friday night were: Winifred Estes, Jewell Hutto, Robert Birchfield, Mollie Barton, Cecil Pipkin, Harry Robinson, Charlie Meador, Julian Edmondson, Elizabeth McMahan, Marie Campbell, Sibyl Scaff, Allen Bryan, Houston Wedeman, Odie Crowell, Etta Marie Birchfield, Hoyet Burman, Ben, H. Clements, Lorene Chambliss, Kelly DuPriest, Kenneth Jeffers, Anna Bell Latham, J. E. Jameson, Jr., Dick Groves, Jaunita Hall, Delbert Groves, Romera Jackson, John Bourland, Homer T. Jinkins and Lois Chandler.

THREAT OF RAINSTORM FAILS IN PREVENTING LARGE CROWD AT SHOW

SLABTOWN MINSTREL REVUE HAS CROWDED HOUSE DESPITE INCLEMENT WEATHER
Braving a threatening rainstorm or worse, a large audience assembled in the High School Auditorium last Friday night for the first curtain of the Slabtown Minstrel Revue, composed of a cast from the seventh grade Grammar School, under the direction of T. A. McDonald.
In the cast of 24 characters were many outstanding performances of genuine talent. Perhaps no show comprised, with one or two exceptions, entirely of local talent could compete with the performance of the Slabtown Minstrel Revue Friday night.

GULF REFINING CO. PUTS NEW DEAL INTO PRACTICAL OPERATION

EXTENSIVE ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED TO SHOW BELIEF IN UPWARD TREND
Here's one of the most remarkable stories, as well as one that is of special interest to all the people of Texas. Three years ago the Gulf Refining Company engineers made a discovery of revolutionary importance to the oil industry. A discovery so advanced, so significant, that it made possible a finer, longer-lived motor oil than the industry had ever seen.
This discovery was an utterly new refining process—the now-famous Alchior Process, exclusive with Gulf. The oil made by it is called Gulpriide.
At first it was possible to produce only limited quantities of this new and remarkable oil. But so amazingly outstanding was its quality that—utterly without advertising and publicity—its fame spread throughout the United States and all foreign nations. It came into universal demand wherever the finest motor lubrication was sought.
Gulpriide has now proved itself beyond question the finest motor oil in the world. This oil is manufactured in the Gulf Refinery in Port Arthur, Texas. It has established seventeen world's records! It has surpassed every set of specifications ever issued for a motor oil, including U. S. army, U. S. Navy, and British Government.
Gulpriide is now in demand in all corners of the earth and shipped to all points from Port Arthur, Texas, where it is manufactured.
The current extensive advertising campaign of the Gulf Refining Company now appearing in Texas newspapers is stressing this oil and, too, the fact that Gulf stations sell three grades of oil and gasoline at three different prices, ranging from the buying power of the motorist who wants a low priced gasoline or oil but wants the most possible value for the money, to the motorist who wants the very best regardless of cost.
Will Rogers can be heard on the air every Sunday evening on the Gulf Refining Company radio program at 7:00 p. m., and Irvin S. Cobb on Wednesday and Friday evenings at the same hour. A weekly comic paper is distributed free at all Gulf stations.

Grammar School Commencement Program Next Thursday Night

SENIORS WILL BANQUET AT HOTEL SUNDAY NOON
Baccalaureate Sermon At Baptist Church Sunday, May 28
The Roaring Springs High School and Grammar School will complete work for the term in commencement programs Friday and Saturday nights. The Baccalaureate Address will be delivered at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. Immediately following the service the Senior class will banquet in the dining room of the Travelers Hotel.
Jim Cloud, county Judge of Dickens county will deliver the commencement address at the Grammar School's Commencement Program which will be held in the High School Auditorium Thursday night, June 1.
Judge Martin of Wichita Falls will deliver the commencement address at the High School Commencement program to be held in the High School Auditorium Friday night, June 2.
Despite many difficulties encountered during the school term an exceptional successful year work in being completed. Great interest and application to studies is evidenced by the general high grades made by students. A commendable high spirit of cooperation by students, faculty and the school board has been shown throughout the school term.
All of the sulphur mined in the United States comes from Texas. This Texas product happens to be a total of 85 per cent of the world's output of sulphur.

W. M. S. Notes

The ladies of the Methodist church met Monday, May 22 at Mrs. Andy Hurst in a social. After playing many games and contests the climax was reached when each one was blindfolded and asked to pin the tail on a pig. He had many peculiar places for his tail.
Mrs. Hurst assisted by Mrs. Guy Braselton served a delicious plate of sandwiches, cake and ice tea to the following guests: Mesdames C. B. Cargile, Ruth Smith, E. S. Favers, T. M. McBrayer, A. J. Hodges, M. E. Keahy, J. D. Mitchell, D. S. Cargile, J. A. Brauley, G. R. Stork, A. Freeman, John Dodson, J. T. Swim, Birdie Gipson and L. W. Harmon, and the following children: Patsy Jean Favers, Betty Jone Cargile and Mary Alice Mitchell.
We were indeed glad to have the visitors with us, come again as you will always be welcome at our Society. We extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. Keahy, we are so glad to have her among us again. She will be an inspiration to us in all our work.
Next Monday, May 29, is an extra Monday being a 5th Monday, we will run a Bible lesson for that day. Come and meet with us and hear the new chapter discussed.
Supt. Publicity.

MARVIN JONES GETS PEN

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Representative Marvin Jones of the Amarillo district is the possessor of one of the pens with which President Roosevelt approved the farm bill at the White House Friday. The group was photographed with the President in the executive office.
The new farm bill, more sweeping than any measure of the kind that Congress has enacted, was piloted through the legislative shoals in the House of Representatives by Mr. Jones as chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, and in the conference committee the burden of defending the measure with its proposals of farm relief, farm mortgage relief and currency inflation fell to Mr. Jones, and in which he was the administration's spokesman.

Cotton: The South's Greatest Money Crop

The rise and fall of the price of cotton over a period of years is, of course, based on the law of supply and demand. Incorporated in the new agricultural bill fostered by the President is a plan to reduce the cotton acreage which, of course, means a smaller crop. With a smaller crop and in the meantime a reduction of the surplus, we should receive a higher price for our 1933 crop.

All the above means that there should be many openings for qualified cotton classifiers, which has not been the case for the past year or two. With a shortage in training men in this field, it should be an inducement for the young man who is interested in this type of work to qualify himself now.

We have one of the best cotton classing schools in the Southwest; in fact, we do not know of another school that offers a more complete training in Cotton Classing.

We use the United States Government standard type of samples. At the head of our Cotton Classing Department is a man who was instructor in Cotton Classing in the A. & M. College of Texas for a long while prior to becoming connected with our school. He knows the handling of cotton from A to Z.

Any young man who thinks he would be interested in the subject of Cotton Classing will be furnished with full information by writing the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, and indicating his desire to take up this very interesting work.

all. It has elements of greatness about it. Then its panoramic sweep, the milling hordes, London, Trafalgar Square, all this has been re-created with a masterly touch. And the various English characteriza- tions, all are etched so incisively in- to your consciousness, the hatchet- faced servant, the rotund cook, the servant turned soldier, his drunken scene, his death scene all ring true with British fervor.

But after "the tumult and shout- ing dies" and as days lengthen into weeks, weeks into months, another figure detaches itself from all this—it is Diana Wynyard. Her high- bred beauty haunts you, the grace- ous air of her ladyship, the thoro- bred quality with which she is im- bued, all this comes forth and lingers, indelibly impressed upon your mind.

As I close my eyes I see in fancy a tall, graceful alabaster tower, within a light shines forth, the ala- baster becomes alive in its pink- white translucency. This tower seems to be standing on a high emi- nence surrounded by a vast plain. as I approach more closely I hear music, a duet is in progress, and I gather Love and Death are singing a duet in rich harmony. And thru a pierced window I see that they are accompanied by the Jester, Life, plays the accompaniment up- on a woman's heart-strings, and as this vision slowly fades away Diana Wynyard comes toward me through the mist, beautiful, lovely, high- bred.

Methodist Church

With the song written, this pastor feels like singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" for the bountiful rain that fell on Saturday night. God continues His blessings to us—in return what are we doing for Him? Have you given him any of your time, talent or money? If not, won't you begin at once to do so? You have a wonderful opportunity for service through the regular channels of the church.

Last Sunday was a good day. Attendance at all services was good. Rev. Geo. S. Slover, D. D., of Stamford delivered a splendid message to a good sized and appreciative congregation at the evening hour and held our third quarterly conference at the close. We had exactly 75 per cent of the official board present for the conference. The reports were encouraging.

Church of Christ

Attendance and interest were good at all Sunday services. The church put on an impromptu program at night, one of the best yet. Mrs. Chambers and her committee will have a program 8:15 p. m.

Sunday school 10 a. m., Lord's Supper 10:30, then we go to the Baptist church for the eleven o'clock Baccalaureate service.

Sunday night this minister will discuss: "Where Do We Go When We Die?" Where are our dead?—Luke 16.

June 4, at night, the subject will be "Why All Churches Should Unite Into One Body"—Eph. 4:1-4; I Cor. 1:10 and Jno. 17:21. This lesson is an appeal for unity of all professed believers in Christ. It has been delivered at many points in Texas, invited by churches of several denominations, and forty times in Erath county and in every community in the county. It is not a discussion of denominational differences, but a studied effort at agreement in Christ and oneness of Christian faith. The public is welcome.

BEN WEST, Minister.

First Christian Church

Altho we have never appeared in these columns before, we are at our post of duty each Lord's Day morning, worshipping in a room at the school building. We have Sunday school and church worship each Sunday beginning at 10 a. m. Due to the Baccalaureate services next Sunday we will meet at 9:30 a. m.

Strangers stopping over here are always welcome to attend our services, also friends of this community.

MELLOWED 80 MILLION YEARS

While dinosaurs lived and died in OKLAHOMA

Mellowed 80 million years! Such is the history of the Cambro-Ordovician crude oil of Oklahoma which Sinclair refines and blends into Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil—a crude which was already ages old when dinosaurs fought above its hidden reservoirs. Opaline's superior lubricating quality owes much to Nature's age-long treatment, for Nature has filtered it free of impurities, reduced its carbon-forming content, and enhanced its lubricating quality. In process of refining Sinclair adds the crowning touch by de-waxing Opaline and freeing it from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Opaline—observe how little you have to add on long trips—note how it stands up in hard driving!

of childhood return pleasantly when I hear singing in the breathless hours of night. Somehow the songs echoed through the halls of my brave young days and reverberated in a far flung canopy of stary stars. To lie awake and listen to the patter of cottonwood leaves stirred gently by a phantom breeze from top-most branch of a birch tree, or to ride alone at night with a brave hearted singer, or to see their songs seemed to come from the one nearest to my heart. Dream castles of youth have ground to powdered star dust and gone to the winds of life—but the song of a mockingbird singing through the summer has remained unchanged.
