Street Lights Going Up

Work was begun this week by a West Texas Utilities Company crew on the new street lights for Matador. The company is paying the cost and labor bills for the lights, and power will be paid for by the town and Motley County.

Five men comprise the crew and two extra have been hired. Monday they were breaking the concrete to erect the 14 cross-arms. Later the poles will be painted aluminum silver.

If brackets, which have been ordered, arrive, it is expected that the new lights will be turned on this week.

The poles will be arranged along the curb of the business district streets, around the courthouse square, and will replace the bulky center posts now in use. Each bracket will be equipped with a 150 watt bulb, providing bright and adequate illumination for the down-town section.

The construction crew while here will probably construct a line to the Boy Scout hut, which has already been wired for electricity. This work will require the setting of five poles and stringing the wire.

W. G. Hatcher Withdraws From Race

Withdrawal of W. Gregory Hatcher, of Dallas, candidate for railroad commissioner, was announced this week by Pat Sheridan, County Chairman. Notification was received too late for a ballot change, so that Mr. Hatcher's name will appear thereon, although he is no longer eligible for election to the office.

No reason was given by Mr. Hatcher for his withdrawal. It was regretted that the news was received after the ballots had already been printed.

MARVIN JONES TO BROADCAST

Congressman Marvin Jones will deliver a series of four radio addresses over Station KGNC at Amarillo, beginning Monday, July 18, and continuing through Thursday, July 21. The time of the addresses will be from 7:00 p. m. to 7:15 p. m. each evening.

The addresses will cover topics of special interest to the Panhandle, including discussions of soil and water conservation, the farm program, and the credit structure.

NEW COACH TO ATTEND SCHOOL

Matador's new football coach, Don T. Martin, will attend the sixth annual Texas High School Football Coaches School at Lubbock August 1, and will arrive here immediately thereafter.

The coaching school will be climaxed by a gridiron clash between high school all-stars from North and South Texas on Saturday night, August 7, at Tech Stadium. Harry Stuhldreher, Wisconsin University coach, will handle the north Texas team, while Lynn Waldorff of Northwestern University will coach the South Texas All-Stars.

Tickets may be obtained in advance from the Texas High School Football Coaches Association at Lubbock.

Measure Crops In County

Supervisors Are Getting Figures On Farming

Actual farm measuring will be used this year to insure accuracy in checking of farm land for compliance with the 1938 farm program.

Farm measuring began this week in Motley County, in all five of the communities, with performance supervisors in charge. The supervisors were selected and trained in a school of instruction last month. They are: H. M. Morton, Matador; Herb Harris, Whiteflat; Walter Keahey, Roaring Springs; W. H. Webb, Flomot; and Tom Moore, Northfield.

The County Agent's office has requested that every producer be present when the supervisor measures his farm. After the acreage has been calculated and put on the report of performance, the producer will be notified to call at the Agent's office and approve or disapprove the acreage of each process.

Once the report of performance has been approved and signed by the producer, there will be no changes made on the report except for the correction of typographical errors. This is the chief reason that producers should be present when measurements are made.

Each supervisor is aided by two chainmen.

COUNTY WOMEN MEET WITH COMMISSIONERS

Chances Of Hiring Home Demonstration Agent Discussed

Fifteen women from communities in Motley County met with the Commissioners court here Monday afternoon to discuss the possibility of securing a Home Demonstration agent for the county.

Outcome of the discussion was a promise of consideration of the subject by the commissioners. Should the commission favor the move, an appropriation will be included in the 1939 budget, to be drawn up this month. Approval of the budget will be announced August 16, according to County Judge W. R. Cammack.

Prominent women from practically every town and community in the county entered the round table discussion. If the appropriation goes through, an agent could be hired next year.

Motley County would be required to pay a part of the salary expense, with the remainder being shared by the State of Texas and the Federal Government.

A routine session of the commissioners court was held.

PUBLISHERS START ON VACATION TREK

That strange sound you heard this morning was not an explosion, it was the publishers of the Matador Tribune, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meador, getting the "town car" warmed up to begin a vacation trip. By the time the Tribune reaches the more indifferent subscribers we expect to be reaching the western border of Texas or repairing another flat. Pipkin Put On Spot

FLOYDADA. Kangaroo court Tuesday noon jerked up Henry Pipkin, an estimable citizen of Matador, and tried him at the Floydada Lions club Tuesday when he visited that club in company with District Attorney John A. Hamilton, also of Matador. Pipkin was "convicted" on a trumped up charge of "embezzlement" from a club "pig" at Big Spring more than a year ago, but escaped punishment when it was established that he spent the money wisely on good looking widows and old maids of Motley county.

As usual in kangaroo courts procedure, the verdict was a howlingly popular one with spectator members.

T. W. Quirk, acting president presided at the meeting.

Battle Rages Against Pests

Fighting continued heatedly in all sectors this week in the Motley County grasshopper war. The county mixing station has been unusually busy, and infestation has been heavy. Ammunition supplies, in the form of grasshopper poison, were depleted, but a new shipment, a carload, is expected to arrive the latter part of this week.

Farmers have already been urged by the County Agent's office to poison out hoppers in the turnrows, barrow ditches and pasture margins, since continued warm weather drives the insects into the fields of young crops, where poisoning is more difficult.

WPA workers and the State Highway Department are cooperating with the County Agent's office and the farmers themselves in fighting the horde.

Deputy Sheriff, H. H. Courtney, with Mrs. Courtney and their son Hal, attended the Stamford Reunion at Stamford Wednesday of last week.

JUDGESHIP GIVEN GOVERNOR IN HOME TOWN

A tremendous crowd of West Texans greeted the President of the United States at Amarillo Monday night, when Franklin D. Roosevelt spoke at Ellwood Park. Rain fell throughout the speech, but did not dampen the enthusiasm of many Panhandle residents who were seeing their chief executive for the first time.

Earlier in the day Mr. Roosevelt had announced, from his train platform at Wichita Falls, the appointment of Governor James V. Alford to the federal judgeship of the southern Texas district.

Governor Alford, youthful statesman, received the surprise appointment from the president at Wichita Falls, his home town. Two precedents were established by the appointment, one of naming young men to such posts, and the other of appointing a non-resident of the court district as federal judge.

ODIS CROWELL SUGGESTED FOR ALL-STAR TEAM

Friends of Odis Crowell, Matador High School graduate who made good at Hardin-Simmons, are being requested by the University this week to cast their votes to elect Odis, and Ed ChERRY, Shamrock, to the 1938 national All Star football squad.

The squad, which will comprise sixty odd senior stars of the 1937 football season, is sponsored by the Chicago Tribune and more than 150 associated newspapers. The boys will meet the Washington Redskins, national pro league champions, at Soldier's Field in Chicago, for charity, August 31.

Odis, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crowell, reside at Flomot, starred on the Matador High School squad several years ago, and has played four years with the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys. Last year he was tackle and co-captain of the undefeated 1937 team. Crowell is signed to play with the Chicago Cardinals in the pro loop next fall, and earned selection or honorable mention on a variety of mythical elevens in 1936 and 1937.

Balloting for the boys will end on July 24. The Matador Lions Club plans to sponsor a petition in Motley County for Odis, and individual votes may be mailed to Arch Ward, All Star Game Editor, Chicago Tribune, Chicago Illinois.

Boys selected will spend three weeks at Northwestern University in training for the game, as guests of the associated newspapers. Proceeds of the game go to charity, and travel and living expenses are paid by the Chicago Tribune.

HENRY PIPKIN HEADS FOR LION CONCLAVE

Henry Pipkin is to leave Friday for Oakland, California, to attend the Lions International Convention July 19 to 22. Mr. Pipkin will be the official representative of the Matador Lions Club at the twenty-second such gathering of Lions from all over the world. Lion Pipkin planned to join a delegation at Lubbock, and go on from there by train.

W. M. U. CIRCLE TO HAVE SALE

The Dorcas Circle of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union announces a bake sale which they will conduct Saturday, July 16, at Campbell's Food Market, for the purpose of raising funds to be donated to the Church Building Fund.

Since completion of the new building to the extent that it is being occupied, the various missionary circles and Sunday School department are now endeavoring to furnish the interior of the class rooms and furnish them, and to completely furnish the kitchen.

Various home cooked foods and other food products will be offered for sale, it was stated, beginning Saturday morning.

Interest In Primary Up

Candidates Increase Activities As July 23 Nears

Candidates and campaigners descended upon Matador and Motley County this week in large numbers, as the primary election date, July 23, neared. Major result of their visits was a perceptible increase in political interest in this section.

Estimates of the number of voters who would go to the polls varied, ranging from conservative 1,000 to 1,300. In the county, only 1,340 qualified voters, it was estimated last spring, make up Motley's voting power.

Tuesday the county clerk's office reported that 22 absentee votes had already been cast, while 27 applications are out. Deadline for absentee voting is next Tuesday, July 19, at 12:00 p. m. Two years ago around 60 absentee votes were cast in the primary.

Hungry Lions Destroy Much Fried Chicken

Ladies' Night At Golf Course Is Declared Tops

About 40 roaring, hungry Lions, accompanied by their wives, sweethearts and a number of visitors, devoured large quantities of fried chicken at the Matador Golf Course Tuesday evening as the "Sheep" division of the Matador Lions Club played host to the "Goats." It was estimated that more than 80 members, friends and members of their families attended the Ladies' Night affair, declared to be the most successful in the history of the club.

Young, milk-fed fryers weighing about two and one-half pounds each were cooked in deep dutch-ovens over a mesquite fire until three large dishes-pan were filled. Lion Elbert Reeves raised the 32 chickens which were cooked under the supervision of Lion Chef (Still At Large) Henry Pipkin. Other items on the menu included iced tea, coffee, pickles, potato chips, tomatoes, bread and chicken gravy. It is reported that Lion Pipkin received some interesting marriage bids after the meal was finished.

Tail Twister J. D. Craven made a canvass after the chicken-fry and asked each member the number of times he returned for servings. Those who did not return as many as three times were fined ten cents.

A few members retained enough energy to play games after the meal but the majority were satisfied to remain at ease and talk. A large Texas moon rising over the picturesque hills added enchantment to the pleasant evening, which many declared the most successful social function ever held by the club.

Due to a slight delay, the meal was not started until about 8:15. Lion Henry Weldon delivered the invocation.

JIM CANON TO AUSTIN

Jim Canon, State Game Warden, of Matador, plans to leave Sunday for Austin, where he will attend a short course of instructions for all Game and Fish Wardens and Lake Deputies of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission of Texas. Mr. Canon will return to Matador Saturday, July 16, since the short course will last from July 11 to July 15. Sessions will be held at Camp Mabry. Mr. Canon will accompany Austin O'Neil, Wellington, and Charles Smith, Canadian, both game wardens.

The next reunion is to be held August 25 and 26. A number of committees are to be appointed at the meeting Monday afternoon, and other important business is to be transacted.

DRAWING OF NEW FAIR BUILDING

This is the architect's drawing of the new Merchant's Building to be constructed on the Panhandle South Plains Fair grounds at Lubbock. The new building will contain much wider aisles than the old structure, better lighting and ventilating systems, and will be one of the outstanding attractions of the 25th annual fair and silver jubilee which will open its gates on Monday, September 26, closing Saturday, October 1, 1938.

Republicans May Change It, But PLAINS POSTMASTERS HAVE LIFE JOBS

If—when and if they get back into power—the Republicans don't decide they want boys of their own political faith directing the stamp selling, at least 90 postmasters in the Tri-State territory have lifetime jobs.

That means that creditors (if postmasters have creditors) can be assured that at least 90 persons in the Tri-State region will draw down from $1,300 to $4,000 a year for the rest of their life, or until they decide they want to do something else.

An act passed by the Congress in its last session gives incumbents of first, second and third class postoffices life tenure in office whereas heretofore their terms have been for four years only. Until now it has been an accepted fact that when the administration in Washington changed, the incumbent postmasters in the respective towns of the nation started looking for new jobs.

While at present first, second and third class postmasters (meaning the class, from the collections standpoint, of their postoffices) theoretically have life-time jobs and so will those in the future appointed by the President, it is the opinion of Washington generally that as soon as a new administration sets up housekeeping it will promptly repeal the law in order to install postmasters of its own political faith.

In Texas there are 41 first class postoffices, 204 second and 494 third class postoffices. In the Tri-State region, embracing portions of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, there are five first, 30 second and 55 third class postoffices. They are:

- TEXAS: First class—Amarillo, Lubbock, Pampa, and Painview; second class—Borger, Brownfield, Canadian, Canyon, Childress, Clarendon, Dalhart, Floydada, Hereford, Levelland, Littlefield, Memphis, Paducah, Perryton, Shamrock, Tulia, and Wellington; third class—Abernathy, Amberst, Bovina, Channing, Claude, Crosbyton, Lefors, Lockney, McLean, Matador, Miami, Mobeetie, Muleshoe, Olton, Panhandle, Petersburg, Quitaque, Seagraves, Silverton, Skellytown, Spearman, Stratford, Sudan, Texline, Turkey, Vega, Wheeler, White Deer, Dimmit, Dumas, Estelline, Farwell, Follett, Friona, Groom, Gruver, Hale Center, Happy, Hedley, Higgins and Kress.

OKLAHOMA: Second class—Boise City, Elk City, Guymon, Hollis, Sayre and Woodward; third class—Arnett, Beaver, Cheyenne, Erick, Gage, Hooker, Reydon, Shattuck, and Texhoma.

NEW MEXICO: First class—Roswell; second class—Artesia, Carlsbad, Clayton, Clovis, Hobbs, Portales and Tucumcari; third class—Elida, Fort Sumner, Lovington, Melrose and Texico.

LUMP-SUM PAYMENTS: The Social Security Board is now making lump-sum payments to wage earners in covered employments who have reached age 65, or to the estates or relatives of such workers who died before that age. The amount in each case represents 3 1/2 percent of total wages, as defined in the Social Security Act, received by such worker after 1936, and before he reaches age 65 or dies. Applications for these lump sums should be directed to the Social Security Board, 1012 Oliver-Eagle Building, Amarillo, Texas.

DON'T OVERLOOK CASH

Persons entitled to lump sums under the old-age insurance program are being paid 3 1/2 per cent of total wages received from employment after 1936, and up to attainment of age 65 or death. For example, if a worker's wages during this period amount to $1,000, the lump-sum payment would be $35. Information concerning the filing of a claim may be obtained from the Social Security Board, 1012 Oliver-Eagle Building, Amarillo, Texas.

PICTURE ARRANGEMENT

MANY snapshotters read about picture composition, and decide it is something subtle and "arty," and pretty much of a puzzle. But it needn't be a puzzle, at all. Composition is simply pleasing arrangement.

The woman who arranges flowers in a bowl, or furniture in a room, is "composing" in much the same way as an artist composes a picture. Both are seeking balance, harmony, and an attractive arrangement that appeals to the eye.

Picture composition can be very subtle, but it does not have to be. As a rule, the simpler the arrangement, the more effective it is. Clearness is the first need of an effective picture arrangement. One way to obtain this is to seek contrast. For instance, if a gray object is pictured against a gray background, the two tend to "run together." But if a gray object is pictured against a white background, with lights so arranged that it casts a black shadow on the white background, there is good contrast, and the object "stands out." A good example of contrast would be a light-haired person pictured against a background of deep shadow.

Another thing is to avoid confusing lines that "lead out" of the picture. Lines have a definite "pulling power," especially if two run together to make a point near the picture edge. Suppose, for instance, you snap a picture of a cat's face and want the eyes to stand out. In that case, the cat's sharp-pointed ears need to be in shadow, or the picture should be trimmed so that the tips of the ears are cut off—otherwise, they will draw attention upward away from the cat's eyes.

The shapes and outlines of things play a great part in establishing the "feel" of a picture. A "pyramid" arrangement gives weight and stability, while slender forms, such as a flower with a thin stalk standing in a slim bud-vase, suggest lightness.

Lines differ greatly in their effect. Low, level lines suggest quietness and sadness, while tall straight lines, such as the trunks of forest trees, suggest dignity and grandeur. Curved lines have grace, especially the S-curve such as is seen in the arch of a horse's neck or a swan's neck. When the same shape of line is repeated several times in a picture, the arrangement tends to take on a pleasing "pattern quality."

Try choosing your viewpoint so that the lines and forms in your pictures have a definite character. The results will please you.

ELI CULBERTSON SAYS FIFTH SUIT BRIDGE WILL LAST WITH MAJOR CHANGES

THE King and Queen of England bought one of the new five suit decks of playing cards, a small cable dispatch appeared in the American newspapers a fortnight later and an international bridge controversy was launched.

Will five suit bridge last? "Yes" and "No," says Eli Culbertson, long an authority on bridge. The man who made "his business" of the game explains his answer in a signed article in June Good Housekeeping.

It will be the "widow" or the "widow" card, has been used so many fascinating new angles to the modern bridge player, Culbertson contends.

"The most serious students and lovers of contract bridge, after a brief examination of five suit bridge, have rejected it as an inferior product," he says. "At first I was inclined to be of the same opinion."

"Five suit bridge," the noted player predicts, "begun as a stunt to promote the fifth suit, with an unobtrusive widow thrown in as Bridgeman Culbertson an afterthought, will very probably end up as a national game featuring the widow, but with the fifth suit completely lost." Culbertson, in his Good Housekeeping story, points out that the five card suit is the biggest news in the 400 year old history of the card game.

"But the same 400 years, Culbertson insists, has proven to generations of card manufacturers that the pastboard world is jealous and intolerant of any changes, however slight, in the makeup of the familiar decks.

The veteran player reveals that he has been experimenting for years with a system of "widow contract" bridge but he refuses to state when he will place it in play.

"When the time is ripe," he says. He explains the intricate scoring of the new game in his article, and demonstrating the fantastic possibilities of the widow card in bridge, sets up a hand conceived by his partner, Mrs. Josephine Culbertson.

"No," Mr. Culbertson says, the new game will not easily displace the scientific four game suit. "Good players," he says, "are the privileged class of bridge. They will not easily give up for a new strange game their profitable accomplishments acquired after so much effort."

Conquest Of Rural Poverty Problem Home Management

The conquest of rural poverty, resulting in greater stability among the low-income farmers, and opportunities for the children of the coming generations, is reflected in Motley County, according to Mrs. Juanita G. Butler, Home Management Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

Near the beginning of a new fiscal year for this Department of Agriculture agency, Mrs. Butler looks back over the accomplishments of the farmers in this county who have received help from the program. She notes that scores of families have had more to eat, and more to wear, than they have had in years and that their net worth has been rising along with their standard of living.

A number of families, Mrs. Butler says, have been completely rehabilitated and no longer need financial aid from this supervised agricultural and credit agency. The present borrowers repay their loan and prove they can make good without further help from the FSA, her agency is then able to extend this aid to other worthy families.

Mrs. Butler is working with 21 farm families in this county. The progress thus far, of course, is varied, but she declares that a great majority of them are happier today than they have been in years and are looking forward to the future with a degree of confidence that did not exist when they were on or near the relief status. One contributing factor in this respect has been the health and sanitation program sponsored by the FSA through the home management supervisors. Adequate diets and necessary medical attention, made possible through this and other cooperating agencies, have resulted in definite progress.

Mrs. Butler's records show that the families with whom she is working in this rehabilitation program have increased their net worth largely through producing the family's living at home and by selling the surpluses. Many of the farm women working with this program have purchased pressure cookers and canning equipment with funds borrowed from the FSA. Many now own profitable flocks, nearly always a source of extra income, because of initial loans obtained from the Farm Security Administration. In addition to improved health conditions and material gains, Mrs. Butler notes many low-income farm families in this county have shown definite home improvement involving comfort and beautification.

Mrs. Butler attaches a great deal of importance to the making of family budgets and home records. "As I check over the records of all the families with whom I have been working this past year, I observe that most of those showing the greatest progress are the ones who make a budget at the beginning of the year and then lived within that budget each month. We ask our families to keep close records of income and expense and it is surprising to learn how helpful these records are in a program of rehabilitation."

Due date for June contributions to the Unemployment Compensation Fund is Monday, August 1st. Reports for the quarter (April May and June) are also due at the Unemployment Commission on that date.

Where an employee performs his services, and not his residence or the controlling company's location, is the main factor in determining the state to which contributions on wages should be paid by employers.

Let's Talk About Service

MOST everyone knows that SERVICE, as defined in the dictionary, means: "the act or occupation of working for another . . . the manner of performing work . . . that which is supplied or furnished to meet a demand," etc.

Working for you is Your Electric Servant's occupation. By that act of providing light and power for your home and business, the electric company renders a service. You pay a small amount each month as compensation for this service.

It, perhaps, seems like a simple transaction: but, in order to perform the work of providing the electric service you demand, this company is forced to employ approximately 1,000 men and women to whom it paid over $1,200,000 in wages during 1937. As a citizen and property-owner in every community it serves, it paid the equivalent of $9.25 in taxes per customer in 1937.

By maintaining three centrally-located power generating stations, it eliminates the necessity for less-efficient, isolated and expensive small plants in each community. Its 2,000 miles of high tension transmission lines are interconnected with still other sources of electric power so that failure of any one, or all three, of its own plants means only temporary interruption of the service you have learned to demand.

Efficiency in operation of this system of power plants and transmission and distribution lines permits rendition of electric service at its present low cost. The "manner of performing work" allows this company to render the good service you are receiving at an average net residential rate below average!

We want you to know we are glad to render this service, "supplying and furnishing that which meets a demand," and we invite you to use this service freely.

EDWARDS-KELTZ NUPTIALS READ

Of interest to friends in this vicinity, is the recent wedding of Miss Marguerite Keltz of Port Arthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Keltz, of Matador, to Jake E. Edwards, of Tyler, son of Mayor and Mrs. G. T. Edwards, Matador, at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. R. J. Creech, Dallas, Saturday evening, July 2, at 8:00 o'clock. Dr. J. B. Mrs. Creech played the wedding music (Lohengrin's "Wedding March," "I Love You Truly" and Mendelssohn's Recessional). An altar was improvised of peach gladioli and blue delphinium, with a blue mantle mirror and candle-type indirect lights as a background.

The bride was attired in an Elen Kay model of parisond trepe with white accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias. Her only attendant, her sister, Mrs. James Holladay of Vernon, wore a dusty pink knobby knit, with a corsage of white carnations. M. J. Green of Eden, Texas, served the groom as best man.

Collection Of Relics Loaned Canyon Museum

CANYON—Many old guns, a spinning wheel, two metates, and a fine collection of arrowheads, lances, hide scrapers, and flat axes have been loaned to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum here by Mr. and Mrs. J. Sillcott, Jr., of Panhandle.

All are in excellent condition. The guns include World War weapons, an early model of the Springfield army rifle, an unusually heavy rifle of 22 calibre, a Kentucky squirrel rifle, a snarbarreled revolver, and other weapons.

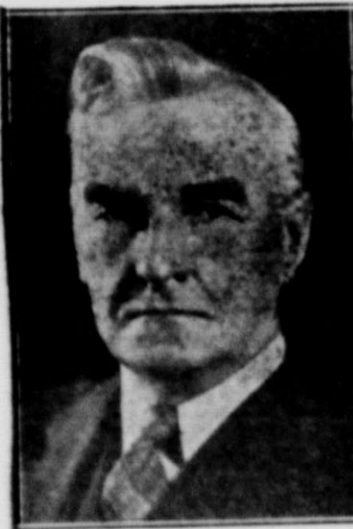

The Indian relics, numbering more than 200, were collected in the Panhandle and in the Southwestern states. Mr. and Mrs. Sillcott collected such things as a hobby. The spinning wheel is an exceptionally good model.

The collection is prominently displayed in the main hall of the museum. Prof. L. F. Shelly, executive secretary of the society, says that the exhibit is attracting much interest among the hundreds of visitors who see the museum every week.

RECENT BRIDE

Above is the former Miss Sue Carrie Alley, a native of Motley County, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Frome of Houston June 23 was announced last week. Mrs. Frome, who made her home with her grandparents, Mrs. D. C. Keith here, is the daughter of Mr. R. T. Alley of Gail, Texas.

definite coat for years, designers are trying to get away from it, in order to create more sales of coats. True enough, a black coat may be worn longer and without being conspicuous than any other color. If the buyer is careful in selecting a conservative type in cut, the coat can be worn for several seasons.

But with colors being introduced in coats, women will grow more tired of them and will buy them more often, which is just exactly what the designers want them to do.

Since color is all-important this season (it is color for sale) one must be careful to pair up sets of accessories with costumes in such a manner that they may be interchanged.

Not replacing black satin afternoon dresses, but certainly proving just as important are the deep purplish blue satins, lighter than navy and the new platinum gray satin frocks. These will both be excellent to wear with other shades launched this season, for they may form a basis of a costume of varied colors.

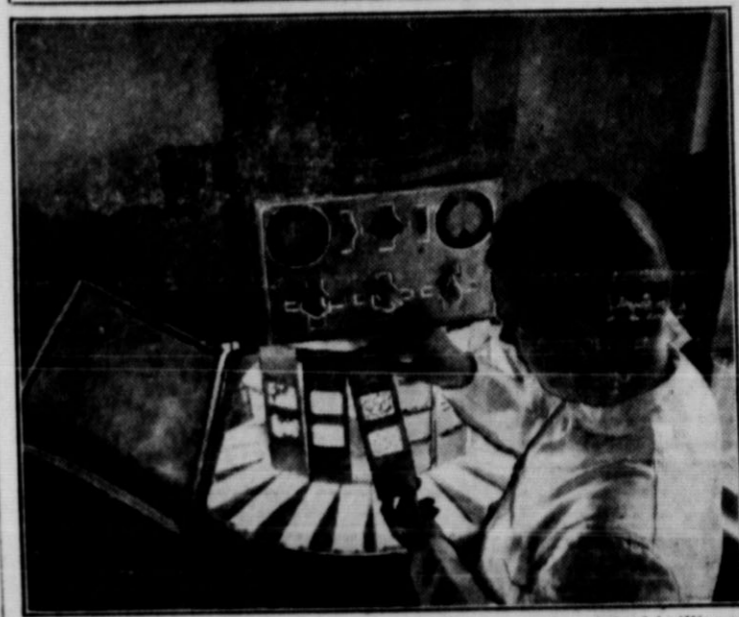

QUICK WORK

The Social Security Board's record-keeping system utilizes the most advanced mechanical equipment. On the average, it requires 1.68 minutes to establish an account for an employee. Accounts for all workers are maintained in one building at Baltimore, Maryland.

An employee working for an employer not covered under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, is not covered for the time he works for such employer and receives no credit with the Unemployment Compensation Commission for his earnings. If he becomes unemployed, the Employment Service will help him find employment but he will not be eligible for unemployment benefits.

Liability under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act is for a two year period even though an employer's total personnel occasionally falls below the minimum of eight. Texas employers must therefore make contributions for two years. They must show a full calendar year in which less than eight were employed before the Commission is permitted by law to terminate their liability for contributions.

Science Beats the Sun

INDUSTRIAL engineers have now developed the device shown above. Consumers Information reports, to test color-fastness of fabrics, so that manufacturers can make sure in advance that their materials won't fade in the sun. Women never used to be sure that their dresses and draperies would retain their original brilliance until they had actually been exposed to sunlight. But through the use of this machine, developed by industrial research experts, it is now possible to tell whether dyed fabrics will hold their color. This is one more example of how industry helps the consumer.

RUST SHADE FALL FEATURE

"Rural Autumn" is the name given a pleasing shade of rust which will be featured in the Fall coats. Because black has been such a

TYPHOID CAUSES ECONOMIC LOSS

AUSTIN, Texas.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, estimates that the State of Texas suffers an economic loss of one-half million dollars annually from typhoid fever, a preventable disease.

Last year 378 Texans died of typhoid and approximately 4,000 were ill with the disease. The average duration of the illness is from six to eight weeks plus a from six to eight weeks plus a convalescence. This means that typhoid is responsible for the loss of approximately 200,000 work days each year in Texas, with the attendant loss of income over a several months period.

Early fall and late summer each year sees a tremendous increase in the prevalence of typhoid in Texas, due to vacation travel and the hazards brought to the local population by itinerant labor.

Inadequate Sanitation Typhoid is particularly prevalent in those sections where there is seasonal employment bringing into the area great numbers of laborers who live in tents, shacks and trailers without adequate sanitation.

The local communities have the problem of dealing with this shifting population put squarely on their own shoulders. Insofar as is feasible, the itinerant population should be immunized against typhoid and should be made to conform with sanitary regulations (particularly with regard to disposal of waste) as a protective measure to the permanent community population.

Typhoid fever can be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk or clean milk, clean foods, proper disposal of sewage, screening against the fly and destroying its breeding places, by search for and care of human carriers, and by general practice of immunization.

In selecting a place for a vacation, choose one where you know that the water and milk supply is pure. Be sure that the kitchen and dining room are screened to protect the food from flies. When camping it is best to boil water used for drinking, unless you know that it is pure. Clear, sparkling spring water is often nevertheless polluted.

WORRY MAKES TEETH DECAY

WASHINGTON.—Worry makes the teeth decay. That may seem like a far-fetched statement, but it appears to be a logical enough conclusion from a recent study at Cornell University by Drs. A. L. Winsor and Barney Karchin.

Upsetting the diets of older physiology textbooks that the saliva in your mouth is naturally alkaline, the experiments of these investigators, carried on over a year, indicate that instead the saliva is naturally somewhat acid.

When the flow is increased, as it is by chewing or by appetite, this acid content becomes diluted, the saliva is less acid.

When one worries or is angry, the mouth is dry. The tongue "cleaves" to the roof of the mouth. That means that the normal flow of saliva is cut down and with the lessening of the flow the acid content is increased.

The degree of acid remains proportional to the flow whether one's mouth waters from the odor of broiling beefsteak or the smell of pickles or merely from chewing gum, these investigators found. The greater the flow, the less the acid content.

But after prolonged mental activity, when one is very tired, or after sleeping, the saliva is more acid, the Cornell investigators found. The secretion that accumulates in the glands during rest periods is less acid if the previous flow was plentiful.

"Marvin Jones Committee, Lewis Fields, Chairman"

LET'S RE-ELECT BOB ALEXANDER TO THE LEGISLATURE

A WEST TEXAS FARMER FAMILIAR WITH WEST TEXAS NEEDS

Six years ago, the people of the 121st legislative district composed of Childress, Hall, Motley and Cottle counties, elected Bob Alexander to the House of Representatives. He was and is the first actual dirt farmer ever to be elected from this district, and is one of a very few actual farmers in the Legislature. He now lives on and works a farm four miles west of Childress on Route 2. We feel that his active and vigorous interest in behalf of farm legislation, as well as all other matters affecting his district merits your support.

COMMITTEE WORK

Everyone familiar with legislative procedure knows that the important and worthwhile work is done in the committee rooms. During his terms of office Mr. Alexander has held appointments from the various Speakers of the House on the following committees: Agriculture, Livestock and Stock Raising, Revenue and Taxation, Constitutional Amendments, Conservation and Reclamation, Penitentiaries, and Municipal and Private Corporations. He has also been appointed to many important special committees at various times. He has been especially interested and active in soil conservation and flood control legislation. He introduced and passed the bill creating the Upper Red River Flood Control and Irrigation District. He introduced and passed the bill creating the problem of securing Federal aid toward the building of an immense reservoir on Red River in the Cap Rock section immediately west of this district. He is the author and sponsor of the present gasoline tax law, which, in its first year of operation, increased the amount collected by the state from this source by over four million dollars through better collecting methods set out by the bill which Mr. Alexander passed. He has been very active in the passage of much other worthwhile legislation. His untiring efforts in behalf of numerous road projects before the State Highway Commission have resulted in the improvement of many state highways in Northwest Texas.

SOCIAL WELFARE LEGISLATION

Bob Alexander has been friendly from the start to the enactment of a sane and sensible, humanitarian social welfare program by the State in conformity with the federal laws on this subject and the expressed will of the people of Texas at the voting box. He has supported bills which would supply needed revenues for Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Needy Blind, Destitute Children, and for Teacher Retirement.

He is opposed to that portion of the present law regarding Old Age Assistance which requires that the ability of children to support their aged parents shall be considered in passing upon their applications. He voted to remove this section of the law at the last session of the Legislature. He believes that aid should be given to needy aged persons of the state, regardless of the financial circumstances of their children.

IS LEADING CANDIDATE FOR SPEAKER

Many members of the House of Representatives of the 45th Legislature, recognizing the ability and fairness of Bob Alexander, have entered his name as a candidate for Speaker of the House of the next Legislature. This movement has reached such proportions that leading newspaper writers of the state, familiar with matters of this kind, have freely admitted that Mr. Alexander is at this time the leading candidate for this important post. This is the first time in a generation that this section of West Texas has received such recognition, and we feel that his election as Speaker would reflect honor and credit on this section of Texas. The importance of the position of Speaker can hardly be over-emphasized, since it is he who appoints all committees and employees, and presides over the sessions of the House. Mr. Alexander has received written pledges of support from the following members of the present Legislature:

- Hon. A. B. Tarwater of Hale County
Hon. Max W. Boyer of Ochiltree County
Hon. G. H. Little of Potter County
Hon. George Moffett of Hardeman County
Hon. C. L. Harris of Dickens County
Hon. D. M. Harris of Archer County
Hon. Eugene Worley of Wheeler County
Hon. Augustine Celaya of Cameron County
Hon. Walter E. Jones of Atascosa County
Hon. A. T. McKinney of Huntville
Hon. Merritt H. Gibson of Longview
Hon. Travis B. Dean of Jones County
Hon. W. B. Carsow of San Antonio
Hon. J. Fred Felty of San Antonio
Hon. Oscar McCracken of San Antonio
Hon. L. M. Kenyon of Galveston County
Hon. H. A. Hull of Tarrant County
Hon. B. T. Johnson of Tarrant County
Hon. Alfred Petsch of Fredeicksburg
Hon. Robert C. Callen of Kaufman County
Hon. George Howard of Houston
Hon. Grover Burton of McKinney
Hon. Roy I. Tennant, Jr. of Longview
Hon. J. Doyle Settle of Lubbock County
Hon. C. L. Stocks of Gainesville
Hon. Harold M. Hankamer of El Paso
Hon. Rawlings M. Colquitt of Dallas County
Hon. H. P. Jackson of El Paso
Hon. Ben H. Sharpe of Lamar County
Hon. Arnold J. Vale of Starr County
Hon. Clyde Bradford of Ward County
Hon. Harry McKee of Port Arthur
Hon. J. C. Davis of Haskell County
Hon. R. R. Donaghey of Vernon
Hon. Dallas Blankenship of Dallas County
Hon. Sam Hanna of Dallas County
Hon. Jeff D. Stinson of Dallas County
Hon. W. O. Reed of Dallas County
Hon. C. M. McFarland of Wichita County
Hon. Homer Leonard of McAllen
Hon. R. A. Fuchs of Washington County
Hon. Raglin Jones of Falls County
Hon. George Harper of Marion County
Hon. Albert M. Derden of Marlin
Hon. Joe Keith of Sherman
Hon. Jesse James of Milam County
Hon. T. E. Harbin of Erath County
Hon. A. D. Glandon of Bastrop County

In addition to the above names, Mr. Alexander has received many verbal pledges of support to be made public after the primaries. We feel that, in view of the excellent chance the district has to furnish the presiding officer for the next House of Representatives, the people of the district should give Mr. Alexander an overwhelming vote in the coming primary.

A recent issue of the Austin Daily Dispatch had the following statement in a feature story on the speakership race: "Rep. Bob Alexander of Childress, affable, soft spoken cotton farmer is to be the next Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, many members think. Well versed in parliamentary procedure, Alexander stands a good chance to fill the shoes of his good friend, the present Speaker, Robert W. Calvert. . . Alexander looks like the man to win now. His campaign managers started laying ground-work early and they declare that the Childress man has an excellent chance. Probably no man in the history of the Texas Legislature has more friends from the other side of the fence than Alexander. Session after session he has fought fairly and intelligently measures that personally he did not approve, but has won the respect and admiration of his colleagues."

METHODIST CHURCH

Eugene L. Naugle, Pastor

In a storm a ship was floundering in the great waves. The captain of the life saving station got the lifeboat ready, but the crew hesitated in face of the fearful peril. "Captain," said one, "it's no use with that wind. We can launch the boat, and we can reach the ship, but we can never come back." "Boys," said the old hero, "we don't have to come back."

They launched the boat, reached the wreck, took off the survivors, and after nine hours of terrific work got back to the station. It is this heroic sense that moves our missionaries. They hear the command "Go." They hear the command to "Preach." They do not feel that they have to live, or have to come back. But they do feel that they have to go, and have to preach the Gospel to the unsaved.

All true Christians are missionaries. God is expecting them to do their best. Men are dying in their sins. What are we doing to save them? We must go. The Revival season is on. We can pray. We can invite our friends to the services. We can be present at every service possible thus encouraging the unsaved to attend. "The field is white unto harvest. The laborers are few."

The meeting under the auspices of the Baptist Church will begin next Sunday. Let every Christian in the community feel the responsibility for the saving of the lost. Pray for them and then put feet to your prayers. Go and invite them to attend. Help to get them under the influence of the services.

Next Sunday morning we will have our regular Sunday School and preaching services and the Young people will have their service but at the evening hour we will all go to the revival service conducted by the Baptist Church.

UNITED MEETING The Caprock Union of the Young People's Work met at the Methodist church Tuesday evening. Representatives from Spur and Foreman's Chapel accompanied by their pastors and sponsors were present. During the business session plans for a training school in each chapter were made. Also plans for the District Young People's meeting which will be held in Roaring Springs July 22-29 were discussed.

Following the business meeting games were played and refreshments of ice cream were served to the fifty persons present. The next meeting of the Caprock Union will be in Spur August 4th.

SADLER AGIN DOUBLE CROSS "I am told that the highway of political success is dotted and well marked with crosses—the most outstanding and notorious one being the double cross." Jerry Sadler, 30, dynamic young attorney of Longview, candidate for Railroad Commissioner told large Texas audiences this week. "But this, I pledge you, the sign of the double cross will not appear in the political career of Jerry Sadler. I would rather go down in inglorious defeat and return to the obscurity from which I came than to have it said of me that Jerry Sadler double crossed the people. If you want a double-crosser you don't want me." Sadler shouted from many stumps.

FISKE

The Marik Hotel—

The Marik is the principal hotel in Cuernavaca.

The finest feature I liked about it was dining on its open terrace giving out on magnificent scenery. Here one sees snow-capped volcanoes rearing snowy heads into the blue far above the tiled roofs of Cuernavaca and the green of trees and shrubbery filling the barranca (gulch) in the foreground. Somehow it looked like a landscape in Japan.

Two Churches—

Two churches stand out in my mind when I think of Cuernavaca; one is extremely large and old; the other, is younger, smaller but handsomer.

The old church of San Francisco is a huge, venerable old pile built like a fortress, sulphur yellow with huge blotches of black grime on its exterior. It plainly shows the devastating effects of time—of the centuries that have passed over it and that have left their imprint. Beauty of architecture was regulated to the background when this church was built in the early 16th Century. Strength and utility came first. The interior of the church left me unimpressed, but the exterior I shall never forget. It reminded me of a huge pachyderm, greatly befowled, that had been turned into stone.

The church that Borda built stands in this vicinity and is the finest from the standpoint of interior decoration. Borda, it will be recalled, was the Frenchman who was born under a lucky star, came to Mexico in the early part of the 18th Century and extracted millions of pesos from the silver mines. His slogan was "God gives to Borda, Borda gives to God." Hence much of the wealth extracted from the silver mines was returned in the erection of magnificent churches in which he might be worshipped. This is one of them, another one, still finer, is in Taxco. This church here is now but a mere simulacrum of its former self as it was in its prime. Still, even yet, one glimpses much beauty in its decay.

Borda's Mansion And The Famous Borda Gardens—

Borda's palatial home standing nearby the church was the summer home of the silver tycoon. After his death it became the property of the church. Borda's son wore the cloth. It sheltered the former Emperor and Empress of Mexico, Maximilian and Carlota during the summer months. A few reminders of the temporary sojourn may still be seen within the walls. The place is now given over to the shelter and feeding of transients. Its everybody's home now.

The house abuts on the famous Borda Gardens.

Borda was greatly interested in horticulture, especially mangoes. In his day these gardens were known as "Borda's Mangoe Gardens." But hundreds of other varieties of trees and shrubs are now seen. The gardens are laid out in the Italian manner, semi-formal, no marble statuary. As one walks beneath the leafy arbors, pergolas, the branches of trees hoary with age, one comes across two swimming pools. The smaller one was used by Borda, the larger one by the Mexican Emperor, his consort and the court. Marble steps, pillars, small recreation pavilions with their arches are all reflected on the mirror of the waters. Once these waters were all slashed with swimming bodies, the stillness was rent by peals of laughter and merriment that gushed from the throats of the royal swimmers. Carlota was enjoying herself with the ladies of her court, a happy interlude in her tragic life. Beyond the gardens is a gulch, the famous barranca across which the Spaniards came when they conquered Cuernavaca led by a traitor priest who showed the way. Diego Rivera has immortalized this scene in the Cortez Palace here in Cuernavaca.

This stroll did not by any means exhaust all the sights in or near Cuernavaca, much more was to be seen, but not on these preliminary rambles. We must now hurry back to our hotel, to rest, to refresh ourselves.

"HARD KNOCKS" TOLD BY WEST TEXAS EDITORS

Brilliant achievement against a background of early struggles are winning Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin, former West Texan, who is a candidate for Attorney General, the applause of West Texas newspapers.

A fair, clear-thinking fact-facing business man TOM F. HUNTER for GOVERNOR

NEW RED CROSS CHAIRMAN

NORMAN H. DAVIS

NORMAN H. DAVIS, newly appointed chairman of the American Red Cross, has assumed active direction of the nation-wide organization with headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Davis, named chairman by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, following the death of Admiral Cary T. Grayson, has been active for twenty years as a Special Ambassador of the United States to international conferences, dealing with world peace, finances, and disarmament.

He has represented the United States in this official capacity by appointment of Presidents Woodrow Hoover and Roosevelt.

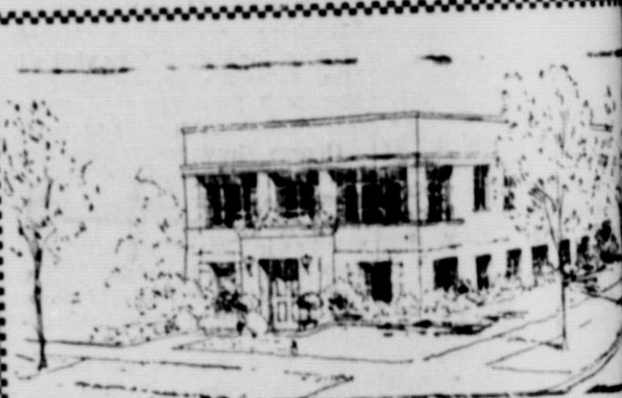

A native of Tennessee, he began in banking in Cuba as a young man and first came into active public life during the World War. He formerly made his home in New York but since assuming his new post with the Red Cross has bought a historic residence in Alexandria, Virginia, across the Potomac from the nation's capital.

The Amarillo News tells of Yarborough having "cleaned railroad coaches during the big West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in 1926 to get a few meals and transportation to the booming Borger oil field" and quotes Yarborough, "I have had various jobs since that time but none has been appreciated more than the work in Amarillo when I needed a grub-stake."

The Borger Herald continues the story, "Thirty-five year old

Ralph Yarborough who built tanks in this boom town told several hundred Borgerians this experience enabled him to become Assistant Attorney General and Texas tax-payers' savior.

And the Claude News commenting that Judge Yarborough "knows what it is to take hard knocks as a laborer," brings the story up to date by saying, "He is a lawyer and knows what the people of Texas need."

DR. TRAWEEK DELAYS TRIP

A slight illness changed the plans of Dr. A. C. Traweck this week, so that he has postponed his plans for leaving for New York City for a few days. Dr. Traweck planned to catch a plane out of Amarillo Thursday, but a sore throat and severe cold prevented his departure. However, he plans to leave as soon as he recovers.

Dr. Traweck will study as a post-graduate at New York University, where he received his medical training.

AIR SIGN PUTS TOWN ON MAP

Recently completed is an air sign on the roof of Bob's Oil Well Garage making Matador a part of national air traffic. The sign, placed by the Federal Department of Aeronautics, includes two large arrows and the name of the town.

One arrow points to the nearest airport, which is 62 miles away from the city. The other arrow indicates the true north.

Running the entire length of the east side of the garage is the word "Matador", the word extending about 75 feet in letters 10 feet high.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO BE AUGUST 7

Revival plans for the First Baptist Church were announced this week by Rev. H. M. Weldon, pastor. The meeting will take place August 7 to August 21, with Rev. W. C. Ashford, pastor of the South Side Baptist Church at Abilene, in charge. Rev. Ashford conducted services here last year.

Tom Ed Vaughn of Cooper, Texas, will lead the singing. Mr. Vaughn is a graduate of the School of Gospel Music of the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth, and is well known as one of the best gospel singers in the state.

Attendance has much improved at the Baptist Church since the congregation is using the new building, according to the pastor. Last Sunday there were 178 in Sunday School and 50 in B. T. U. work.

Two new unions have been organized, an adult and a primary union, bringing the total in the church to the required five. Others already active include senior, intermediate, and junior unions.

The pastor urges all members to be present next Sunday for these services.

DICKENS COUNTY GROUP HERE

Thirteen cars of Spur and Dickens citizens visited Matador briefly Wednesday afternoon to extend an invitation to their Dickens County Od Settlers Reunion at Dickens July 21 and 22.

The group presented a swing band in musical numbers, and was officially welcomed by John Hamilton, District Attorney. Ben Overstreet of Dickens spoke briefly, as did H. A. C. Brummett, Dickens attorney. The party included business men and young people from both towns.

The reunion will include a carnival, old folks square dance, modern dance, old fiddlers' contest, young fiddlers' contest, goat roping, amateur nights, bicycle races, ball tournaments, and various prizes.

Special services were held at the Methodist Church last Sunday at morning and evening hours, when two leading exponents of prohibition spoke. Mr. S. H. Condrum spoke at the morning service. He was formerly connected with Clarendon College.

Rev. Jeff Davis, a Baptist dry leader of Dallas, and Texas executive secretary of the United Drys of America, spoke in the evening. Rev. W. A. The service was sponsored jointly by the Methodist and Baptist congregations.

Childress Jubilee Begins Sunday

Gold shirts gleaming in the bright afternoon sun, a crowd of Childress boosters visited Matador Wednesday and presented a road show to advertise their Golden Jubilee celebration next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Bob Alexander, state representative, and Jerry Debenport, secretary of the Childress Chamber of Commerce, alternated as announcers of the varied program.

Except for the rodeo and the old timers dance contest, every event will be absolutely free, and most of the entertainment will go over the Gulf Oil Company's $20,000 sound system from a mammoth stage in the center of the business district.

For lovers of the old-time singing, one of the best sacred singing conventions ever staged in Northwest Texas will be held on the opening day Sunday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, in the Childress high school auditorium. The building is completely equipped with a new sound system and a huge crowd can be accommodated.

Beginning at 9 o'clock Monday morning, a continuous free program will be presented from the downtown sound stage, with Bob Alexander as master of ceremonies. The first rodeo performance will start at 2:30 at the Fair Park grandstand and continue until 4:30. Then the free program will be resumed from the sound stage with preliminaries in the old fiddlers contest and finals in the band contest scheduled.

The second rodeo show, under the Fair Park floodlights, will start at 8:30 and will be followed by the Golden Jubilee dance in the Fair Park auditorium with music by Harve Walker and his 11-piece orchestra.

A band concert will open activities Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and U. S. Congressman, Marvin Jones, will deliver an address at 11 o'clock. At 11:45 Tuesday, Gold Badge pioneers will be honored at a barbecue.

One of the biggest attractions of the jubilee, The Lightcrust Doughboys, famous radio entertainers of Fort Worth, will present their regular noon broadcast over the Texas Quality Network from the sound stage in downtown Childress from 12:30 until 12:45 Tuesday. The entire Doughboy band with Announcer Parker Wilson and their sensational child singer, Charles Burton, will be there in person.

Free entertainment will continue until 2:30, when the final rodeo performance opens, and will be resumed at 5 o'clock, with the finals in the old fiddlers contest scheduled for 7 o'clock. At 9 o'clock, old time dancers from three states will compete under the floodlights in front of the grandstand for cash prizes totaling $120. The event is expected to attract a large crowd of spectators as well as numerous dancers.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD REVIVAL BEGINS

Revival services will begin Saturday at the Assembly of God Church, it was announced this week. A tent on the church grounds will house the meeting, insuring cool comfort.

Evangelist Bessie Schafer, from Vigo Park, will preach during the meeting. She will be assisted by Jack Singleton and Wayne Pitts from the Shield of Faith Bible School in Fort Worth.

Everyone is invited to attend the services by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Pitts.

STUDENT TRANSFERS MUST BE MADE SOON

Parents who wish to transfer their children into the Matador Independent School District should see that the matter is completed during the month of July, according to an announcement this week by B. F. Tunnell, superintendent of schools.

Applications for transfer should be made in the office of the superintendent of schools. The final transfer deadline is July 15, when the final rodeo performance opens, and will be resumed at 5 o'clock, with the finals in the old fiddlers contest scheduled for 7 o'clock. At 9 o'clock, old time dancers from three states will compete under the floodlights in front of the grandstand for cash prizes totaling $120. The event is expected to attract a large crowd of spectators as well as numerous dancers.
