Edwards Test Has Potential Of 2,184 Daily Allowable To Be Set At 230 To 300 Barrels, Says Report

Tested for proration, Noel T. Lawson, A. E. Service and others' No. 1 M. M. Edwards, Glasscock county's latest producer, pumped 91 barrels of oil the second hour giving it a potential of 2,184 barrels daily. The daily allowance was computed unofficially at 250 to 310 barrels.

The well has extended the Phillips-Coffey pool one-half mile west, 330 feet from the south line and 1,050 feet from the east line of section 18, bloc E33, township 2 south, T. & P. Railway Co. survey, on 30 acres secured from the Texas Co. Pay was from 2.112-23 feet, total depth being 2.125.

No. 1 Edwards swabbed 169 barrels of oil in two and one-half hours on its first test, lowering the oil only from 1,700 to 1,000 feet. It ran 3-inch tubing and on last Thursday pumped 86 barrels of oil hourly for two hours before a break in the equipment necessitated a shutdown.

Ferguson's Cause To Be Pushed Here

Supporters Call Meeting Saturday Evening At 8 o'Clock

Supporters of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson are requested to attend a rally at the Court House here at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, July 30 to plan for organizing a county-wide Ferguson-Fer-Governor Club, and to carry out an aggressive campaign for her until the second primary, August 27.

"Plans for securing speakers and other means of bringing the merits of Ferguson over Governor Sterling to the people will be discussed," said the announcement, signed by Albert Edens.

"All those who would help rid Texas of the present corporation-controlled government are urged to attend this rally. Tell your friends about the meeting and urge them to attend," the statement read.

Sterling Says Dan To Help During Runoff

Smith County Manager For Hunter Supports Ferguson

DALLAS (UP)—Political interest in Texas centered today on the rapidly shaping run-off battle between Mrs. Miriam (Ma) Ferguson and Governor Ross S. Sterling for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

There were two important questions seeking answer: "Where will Tom Hunter's votes go?" and "what effect will Dan Moody's campaigning have on Sterling's race?"

Governor Sterling was in Dallas laying plans with Ernest Alexander, his manager, and other workers. James E. Ferguson, who is his wife's political manager, was expected to make a statement today about their run-off plans.

Tom Hunter, eliminated though he polled nearly 200,000 votes, went home to Wichita Falls today after conferring last night in Austin with both Ferguson and Moody. He said he would make no choice now.

"If I later take any side, it will be because of economic issues, not as a choice between personalities," he explained.

Meanwhile, Ferguson leaders in North and East Texas concentrated their verbal fire on Moody, who attacked "Fergusonism" in his campaign for Sterling before the primary. Governor Sterling denied emphatically that he was even considering or had thought of taking Moody off the stump in the run-off.

Some Sterling supporters were understood to advocate such action. One Ferguson leader said Mrs. Ferguson carried nearly every county where Moody spoke in the first campaign.

"Dan Moody, as everyone knows, countered Sterling, 'has done valuable service to me and the cause of good government and I appreciate his help.'"

It seemed certain that Moody will aid Sterling again. The governor himself will resume his campaigning in a few days, probably after a statewide rally and conference at Fort Worth next Monday.

Part of the Hunter vote has been promised the Fergusons. E. E. Fisher, who managed the Smith county Hunter campaign, told Joe K. Morris, North Texas Ferguson manager, that two-thirds of the Hunter vote in that county would go to Mrs. Ferguson.

Fisher said he believed the percentage would hold good over the state.

Order Issued For Eviction Immediately

Attorney General Tells Wrecking Crews To Raze Shacks

WASHINGTON (AP).—One unidentified veteran was shot dead and another was seriously wounded in rioting between bonus seekers and police near the Capitol Thursday. Troops were ordered out in the direction of President Hoover.

WASHINGTON (AP).—Troops were ordered out this afternoon because of rioting between police and members of the bonus army.

From Fort Myer, Virginia, squadrons of cavalry rushed into the city headed for the White House. Meanwhile drove near the Capitol police station to keep order among the veterans who were in an ugly mood after being fired upon by police.

WASHINGTON, UP—Shooting broke out between police and veterans camped on Pennsylvania avenue two blocks from the capitol.

The veterans surged about a partly dismantled brick structure they were occupying when suddenly a fight broke out with officers trying to disperse them. A half dozen shots were fired.

Two veterans were wounded, one in the neck, the other in the side. The clash, accompanied by throwing of bricks and bottles was quieted by a larger number of police, rushed to the scene after an earlier clash in which four police and several veterans were injured.

One police private was in a dangerous condition. It was evident the bonus army was in an ugly mood.

In the melee, superintendent of Police Pelham Glasgow was hit by a brick and his badge torn from his coat.

Police backed away, using clubs. Several drew revolvers. No more shots were fired and order was restored in an short time.

After a conference with treasury officials Glasgow told at least two veterans there would be no more evictions today.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Immediate eviction of all bonus seekers from federal property was directed Thursday by Attorney General Mitchell. He said jails were available to care for all veterans who proved rebellious.

The order came shortly after a group of veterans had been removed from the building they occupied on lower Pennsylvania Avenue near the capitol. Some were removed forcibly and at least two were arrested who refused to leave voluntarily.

Wrecking crews were sent to the site early Thursday under instructions from the treasury to tear down the structure and to effect preliminary razing of others in the vicinity which have been occupied by the veterans.

A group of veterans resorted to violence after eviction. They chased police some distance, throwing bricks at officers.

Amerada Has Glasscock Pay

No. 4 Coffee Fills 800 Feet In 48 Hours, Drilling In Lime

Amerada Petroleum Corporation's No. 4 R. C. Coffee apparently is Glasscock's latest oil producer in the making. When drilled to 2,340 feet in lime Tuesday it had filled 300 feet with oil in 48 hours. The first oil was struck at 2,155 feet and there was an increase in oil with a showing of gas from 2,168-71 feet.

The test topped the lime at 2,060 feet, 501 feet above sea level, and cemented 5 1/4 inch casing at 2,086 feet. While waiting for the cement to set it changed from rotary to standard tools. Location is 1,300 feet from the north line and 1,250 feet from the west line of section 22, block 33, township 2 south, T. & P. Ry. Co. survey, an east offset to Humble Oil & Refining Co.'s No. 2 C. H. Harrison. The Humble well topped the pay at 2,278 feet, drilled to 2,289 feet and was completed for initial production of 598 barrels of oil daily plus a small amount of water.

Amerada No. 5 R. C. Coffee had drilled to 1,300 feet in redbeds. It is 2,310 feet from the north line and 1,650 feet from the west line of section 22, block 33, an offset to Humble No. 1 J. Arrington, a north offset to Lion Oil Refining Co.'s No. 2-B Coffee and a northeast offset to E. L. Smith's No. 1-B Coffee, all producers. Humble No. 1 Arrington topped the pay at 2,285 feet and was completed at 2,300 feet for 500 barrels of oil in 17 hours.

Since there are producers both east and west of them, the Amerada tests are certain to develop production.

After one day's rest county commissioners were in the harness again yesterday to listen to complaints of private property owners. Monday and Tuesday commissioners heard oil and utility representatives, groups which last year were assessed more than fifty-three per cent of county valuations.

Private owners were scheduled to finish business with the commissioners Thursday. Tax rolls will be completed by October 1, according to Tax Collector Loy Acuff.

It is probable that the new Howard county budget will be released by Aug. 1, tentative copies of it having already been presented to the commissioners' court by County Judge H. R. Debenport.

The Other Woman; Color, Black, Kills Man After Jilting

ODESSA—Dewey Edwards, 27, negro, bell-hop at Elliott Hotel at Odessa was shot and killed early this week in Midland. The killer, Dorris Dixon, 24, Midland negress, was bound over to the grand jury without bond to await trial in September.

District Attorney W. R. Smith Jr. after several days of investigation secured state witnesses concerning the complexity of the darktown affair. Edwards had recently moved to Midland to play in the colored orchestra there and had made an acquaintance with Dorris Dixon. Prior to this time he had been living in common-law relationship with an Odessa negress. The "little love nest" made by the former hotel bell-hop and the Midland woman was broken up when the Odessa negress brought the two together and asked Edwards which one he preferred. After due consideration the colored boy claimed the Odessa woman. Then the trouble started.

Edwards was standing in the hall of a negro hotel when Dorris rushed down the corridor with a pistol in hand and shot the boy in the left breast. She claimed she shot Edwards because he considered her "the other woman."

Responsible Belt officials must be located in Fort Worth. Present neutrality in handling traffic and switching must be continued to afford equal service to all railroads reaching the rails of the Belt. Existing traffic and operating relationships must be maintained.

History Of Post Office Reviewed In Address By Postmaster On Eve Of Observance Of Bicentennial

In an address crammed full of interesting and little-known information E. E. Fahrnkamp, Thursday, postmaster at Big Spring, outlined the history of post roads, post houses, and the system now known as world's largest business, the United States post office department.

Mr. Fahrnkamp spoke, in part, as follows: "The first post office in America was established July 26, 1776—thus Post Office Day, to be observed July 26, 1928, next Tuesday, is the bi-centennial of that office and a part of the Washington bi-centennial observance."

History from earliest times records some sort of post system. In all years post roads existed. More than 2,000 years ago Cyrus the Elder, after conquering Persia ordered that the governors of all parts of his wide spread empire communicate with him by letter at frequent intervals that he might know what was transpiring in their provinces.

"There is a Biblical phrase to the history of post offices. Esther 2:12 reads 'For he sent letters into all the king's provinces according to the writing therein.' Esther 2:15 reads 'The post went out, being hastened by the king's command.'"

"In 1516 A. D. there was a postal system between Berlin and Vienna. In 1523 A. D. the English system was originated for use of the royal family."

"In 1529 the American general courts of Massachusetts legalized by ordinance permission for Richard Fairbanks of Boston to receive and distribute pieces of mail from abroad. Soon the Virginia colonies originated a system whereby each handsomer man to his next neighbor messages in writing or packages we now allude to as mail. Penalty for failure to do one's duty in this arrangement was a hog-head of tobacco."

"Benjamin Franklin really laid the foundation for our post office department. All its early history centers around him. He opened the first post office in Philadelphia in 1753. He was the first deputy appointed in 1758, of the post office general for the British colonies in America. It was quite a feat to carry mail from Boston to Philadelphia every six weeks and only once every three months in winter."

"In 1763 after the British acquired Canada he was sent to Quebec to open the first post office. The colonial postal system, was a losing business, as is our post office department today."

"The government allowed Franklin to shoulder the deficit personally. He received a salary of 600 pounds and paid his own assistant. In three years he had paid the deficit and had a surplus of 275 pounds. In 1763 this had grown to 484 pounds. He continued until 1774 when he was removed by order of the British king."

"In 1774 when it became obvious the colonies would secede the Continental Congress was called in Philadelphia. Some method of communication with its members was needed and Franklin was made chairman of a communications committee. On a report the first colonial post master general was appointed on July 26, 1775—he was Benjamin Franklin. He opened the first post office July 26, 1776."

"The postmaster general was not a member of the president's cabinet until 1829 when William T. Berry, who was appointed by Andrew Jackson attained that status."

Abilene Woman Fatally Hurt, Three Injured As Explosion Of Gas Wrecks Store Building

Abilene—An explosion of gas which had accumulated under the store floor wrecked the Singer Sewing Machine company at 1025 North Third street Thursday afternoon, bringing death to one Abilene woman and injuring three other people.

Mrs. R. C. Winters, 34, wife of a local attorney and public accountant, succumbed at the West Texas Baptist sanitarium four hours after the blast. The injured are Mrs. Russell Stephens, who is in the hospital suffering from bruises over the body and severe shock, and A. D. Odell and Bernice Cundiff, both of whom recovered slight bruises and cuts about the arms and legs. A fifth person in the building, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, was not hurt.

Shock of the explosion, which occurred about 3:30 o'clock, was felt throughout the main business district of the city and in parts of the residential section on the north side. The machine company store was located in the rear of the Lorraine building, which is owned by Dr. J. M. Alexander. The gas apparently had accumulated in a two-foot space between the wooden floor and the ground. The floor had not been laid on a concrete base as it is an addition to the main building and the basement did not extend under the addition.

Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Stephens were customers, the other three employees of the store. Odell is assistant manager.

Injuries of Mrs. Winters included internal bruising of the chest to which her death was attributed. She also had a fracture of the left thigh bone femur, lacerations of the face and mouth and severe shock.

Brother to Rescue Charles Lehrer, brother to Mrs. Stephens was the first to reach her. He had picked the woman up and started to the door before he realized who she was. A pink percale dress caused him to look again at the face of the woman he was carrying.

The women looked so ghastly it did not recognize his Mrs. Winters, who lies across the street from us," he said. "Three of us boys, standing on the corner of North Third and Cypress streets when the explosion occurred, rushed to the building. One woman was lying on a door frame, in the center and about five feet back from the entrance. We picked her body up and passed it on to others who had come in."

Boards and pieces of timber covered the body of the second woman, whom we thought to be dead. After clearing away the debris I picked up the limp form and started to the door when I noticed the material of her dress was familiar. I had seen sister wear a dress like it. A look at her face confirmed my horror—that the woman was my sister."

Mrs. Stephens was placed in a Laughter ambulance, her brother getting in the rear, too. As the machine started to move, she opened her eyes and whispered "Bud," a familiar nickname by which young Lehrer is known. She has been conscious since.

Her injuries include lacerations to the scalp, cuts about the arms and legs and severe bruises to the hips. None of the injuries are considered serious by the attending physician.

Calhoun Says Ad In Forum Unauthorized

AMARILLO—An advertisement appearing in the Ferguson Forum of July 23 attacking "one of my opponents" was prepared without Calhoun's authorization or knowledge.

Calhoun, in a written statement, said his attention had been called to the advertisement by friends in both the Ferguson and Sterling camps, each group appearing apprehensive that the advertisement was the work of someone in the opposing faction.

"I never saw this advertisement until yesterday afternoon when I saw it in a printed copy of the Forum," the statement said. "It appears without my authorization or knowledge."

Calhoun also issued the following statement: "One of the many parts of his record which James V. Allred is not discussing before the voters of Texas is the prospective big fee for certain of his associates—including the attorney employed by agents of the Quaker State Oil company—in his anti-trust suit against the oil companies."

Instead of handling the anti-trust case with his own staff, or employing special counsel out of funds at his disposal, he chose to call in the county attorney of Travis county, who in turn called in three Austin lawyers and a former law associate of Allred.

"As a result, fee provisions of the anti-trust laws were brought into operation, and if the maximum penalties for which Allred is suing are awarded, $892,000.00 will be divided among the county attorney and the four other lawyers acting as special counsel."

"This great fee exceeds by nearly a hundred thousand dollars the total of state warrants issued last year in payment of fees to all sheriffs, attorneys and clerks in Texas, (See the Comptroller's Report for 1927)."

"It is equal to the state's share in the upkeep of public schools in 25 counties in Texas. To put it another way, it is equal to the amount contributed by the state to the education of 50,000 Texas school children for a period of one year."

"It would run the state orphan's home for more than three years, the Confederate Home for more than five years, or the Confederate Woman's Home for seven or eight years."

Destroying A Lie

This is another item that should be placed in the scrapbook of the taxpayer.

DEPARTMENT OF THE HIGHWAY EQUIPMENT WAS FOUND IN THE HANDS OF INDIVIDUALS OR CORPORATIONS FOR PRIVATE USE.

There is only one way to destroy a political lie and that is to muzzle the political snake. There is only one way to put the mouths of irresponsible whippersnappers and their ilk to jam the facts and figures from the report of the state auditor down their throats.

Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene was leading Joe Jones of Eastland in the election of 1,788 votes on incomplete returns tabulated by the Texas Election Bureau to 1 p. m. Monday in the 17th congressional district race.

Word was received here Monday by friends stating that Miss Eleanor Bentley, teacher in Big Spring public schools, who is spending the summer in England, had undergone an operation there Sunday for acute appendicitis. It was said that she was getting along nicely following the operation.

Merchants and citizens of Ackerly are being congratulated for staging the unusually lively and entertaining rodeo and barbecue held there Wednesday last week.

It was the largest affair of its kind held in this section of Texas in some time, more than 3,000 people having attended from Howard, Dawson, Borden, Martin and other more distant counties. They enjoyed the real old-time barbecue and rodeo, which had been held especially old many old friends meet as contestants in the rodeo.

The affair was sponsored by candidates of the four counties assisted by the merchants and citizens of Ackerly as well as the wholesale houses of Big Spring and Lamesa, which donated coffee and other things for the feast.

Several days of special effort was put forth by the people of Ackerly to make all visitors feel welcome and enjoy themselves.

Pyramiding Of Oil Taxes Fear Of API

COLORADO SPRINGS (UP)—Petroleum leaders are alarmed by the pyramiding taxes on oil and gas products, it was revealed here as leaders of the oil industry gathered for a meeting of the American Petroleum Institute.

W. E. Boyer, Jr., executive vice president of the Institute declared American motorists paid $336,397,456 in gasoline taxes in 1927, and estimated the federal tax this year would add an additional $165,000,000 to the burden.

"High rates are creating a reduction in gasoline consumption," he said. "The oil industry and the motorists are being taxed to death."

Appreciation For Support Given Rodeo And Barbecue Expressed By People Of Ackerly; 3000 Attended

Spring with such supplies as were needed for the occasion.

The Miller boys of Borden county wanted no looper, nor did Shorty Currie and Charles Glenn while Jess and Tom Slaughter of Big Spring made "no time." All events throughout the day were enjoyed and if made an annual affair of the city of Ackerly will put forth every effort in making the 1928 celebration the biggest of its kind in this part of the country, its citizens declare.

Big Spring And Vicinity Fourth Of A Series Of Sketches Written For The West Texas Historical Society

First Churches It is probable that the first evangelist sermon preached in Big Spring was delivered on the streets in March 1853 by Rev. Jacob Albert Zinn, Cumberland Presbyterian minister.

The first church to perfect a formal organization was the First Methodist Church South which was organized July 16, 1853. The charter members were Rev. J. B. H. Thomas, the organizer and the first minister to be appointed to the charge, G. W. Peevey and wife, David Black, and Dr. D. W. McIntyre.

The shucky little congregation that began to worship in the school building soon set about to build themselves a temple of worship. The little frame building, thirty by sixty feet, was the first church building constructed in town.

Probably the first Christian body who began to assemble themselves together on the first day of the week was the nucleus which formed the first Christian church in Big Spring. The first meeting was held in the home of L. D. Eddins in 1852.

There were Baptist among the early settlers of Big Spring and Baptist ministers often visited and preached in town. Among these early visitors was Rev. L. R. Milligan, through whose efforts the first Baptist church was organized on Nov. 11, 1856.

The charter members of the church organization were Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Eddins, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. D. Boydson, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Robinson, Mrs. W. E. Barrett and I. D. Eddins, are still members of the church and reside in Big Spring. H. Clay Reed and his wife have been members of the church forty-eight years.

The Saint Mary's Episcopal church was organized in 1853. The first building is said to have been constructed by an Englishman in honor of a deceased son. During the first years of its existence it was principally supported by Englishmen who worked for the railroad or by English ranchmen.

First house of worship, destroyed by a storm in 1855, was replaced by a better building. It is located on the corner of Sixth and Johnson streets.

The first warren was David Aklin. The following ministers have served the church: Reverends Higgins, Turner, Stewart, Galbraith, Birch, Sanford, Rafter, Wisenbach, Williams, F. E. Etison, Steadman, and W. H. Martin. The Reverend Birch built the present rectory. The parish house was built by the Reverend Steadman.

In August 1851 a German Catholic colony headed by John Konz settled in what is now Stanton, the county seat of Martin county, twenty miles west of Big Spring.

In 1858 Rev. Albert Wagner became the local priest. He was followed by Rev. Simon Weeg. In 1910 the framed building which had been constructed during the middle 50's was removed to the Mexican section of the town where it is still used for school purposes.

There were Baptist among the early settlers of Big Spring and Baptist ministers often visited and preached in town. Among these early visitors was Rev. L. R. Milligan, through whose efforts the first Baptist church was organized on Nov. 11, 1856.

The first church home was built on the corner of Fifth and Gregg streets. This building, blown away by the storm of 1855, was replaced by a second structure which was destroyed by fire on Sept. 16, 1908.

Ministers who have served as pastors are: Reverends S. E. Caloway, J. W. Stetson, W. C. Briley (at that time president of Simmons College at Atlanta), J. B. Permitt, C. W. Smith (one of the founders of Simmons College), Charles T. Alexander, J. M. Woodman, G. H. M. Wilson, S. W. Smith, George W. Sherman, William T. Rogers, J. W. Bates, William T. Sherrod, A. C. Miller, W. H. Sims, W. A. Bowen, W. C. Garrett, S. W. Kendrick, E. W. Strother, Dow H. Heard, and Robert E. Day.

The first Presbyterian church of Big Spring was organized Nov. 11, 1851. The charter members were James P. Carlyle, Mrs. Annie Carlyle, E. T. Weed, Mrs. John H. Ewing, Mrs. A. A. Bryant and children, Malcolm and Beulah; Capt. F. M. Ross, Mrs. Larina Ross and children, Frank, Wilbur and Clara Sue. The organization was perfected by Rev. J. H. Zivley and Judge William Kennedy of Dallas. Rev. Zivley acted as stated supply till 1859 when he became the first pastor.

The first officers of the church were James P. Carlyle, ruling elder, and Capt. F. M. Ross, deacon. Pastors who have followed Rev. Zivley are Reverends O. G. James, Sentell, W. S. Baker, T. M. Stribling, John S. Thomas, L. O. Cunningham, F. L. Henderson, J. C. Ramsey, J. W. Harrison, W. L. Shepherd, and E. L. Owen.

The first public school established in Howard county was Common School District No. 1 of which Big Spring was the center. The first trustees were I. D. Eddins, Mr. Hines, and Mr. Stewart. The first teacher was H. M. Morgan. He was followed by Miss Addie Hyde, Prof. Cannon, T. C. Bentley, Prof. Steele, who, Mrs. Zinn states, "nearly whipped Jim Winslow to death," L. B. Trapp, J. C. Matthews and Tom Eddins.

The school was organized in 1850 into a graded system by B. Reagan, now president of the West Texas National Bank. At that time there were five teachers. He put out the first catalog and issued diplomas to the first graduating class. The class consisted of three members: Miss Inez Hyam, now Mrs. William D. Poteet of Thordale, Texas; Miss Ruth Rix, now Mrs. Carl Stevenson of Lubbock, Texas; and Miss Willie Kannon, a sister of Mrs. Tom Gooch of El Paso, Texas. After four years as superintendent, Mr. Reagan was followed by Prof. S. E. Thomas whom he had known in Baylor University. Superintendents following Prof. Thomas were a Mr. Ellis, J. W. Dees, M. H. Brazier, under whom the school was affiliated, A. W. Blankenship. The present high school principal is George Gentry. The school has thirty-one units of affiliation with the Texas State Department of Education.

Howard county, of which Big Spring is the county seat, was named for Volney Erskine Howard, who was born in Oxford county, Maine in 1809. In young manhood he went to Mississippi where he studied law and soon became actively engaged in state politics. In 1844 he came to San Antonio and was made a member of the State Constitutional Committee which framed the first constitution for the state of Texas. He later represented his adopted state two terms in Congress. At the expiration of his second term he was appointed to a federal position in the state of California by President Franklin Pierce. He was a member of the commission that framed the first constitution for the state of California. He died in 1859.

Howard county, before its organization, was connected with Mitchell county for judicial purposes. Its organization into a separate governmental unit was perfected at an election held June 15, 1852. The officers elected at that time were: county judge, R. E. Anderson; county and district clerk, J. M. Anderson; sheriff and tax collector, R. W. Morrow; treasurer, W. P. Lawson, hide and animal inspector, A. S. Robinson; assessor, J. S. Reed, justice of the peace District No. 1, I. D. Eddins; constable, John Moore; Commissioner of Precinct 1, William Howerton; of Precinct 2, J. J. Meek; of Precinct 3, P. T. Hanks; of Precinct 4, D. M. De Witt. On July 1st R. B. D. Boydston was appointed county attorney.

These officers, elected at the time of the organization of the county, served until after the regular election in November of the same year. At that time the following officers were elected to serve the regular term of two years: County judge, George Hogg; county and district clerk, J. M. Anderson; county attorney, T. G. Anderson.

It was inevitable. The foal's neigh was replaced by the Ford's roar. The garage owner bought out the best lively stable in town. The horse was on his last shoes.

Wet Candidates Being Supported By National Labor Committee

WASHINGTON—Labor's national committee for modification of the Volstead Act today advised its associate and co-operative groups to enter 1932 campaign efforts on electing congressional candidates favoring immediate modification.

Discussing the attitude of the major party presidential candidates, the committee said that while Governor Roosevelt "has manifested his approval for immediate modification of the Volstead Act," President Hoover "has not yet announced his attitude on this subject though his point of view, while food administrator was, and is, in complete accord with organized labor's demand for immediate restoration of a beverage containing not more than 2 1/2 per cent alcoholic content by weight."

"There can be no possible legislative or constitutional relief without support of members of both major political parties," the committee states. "There exists, therefore, the necessity of extreme care and caution on the part of all who are sincere in their desire to change our present national prohibition policy."

Touching upon the Eighteenth Amendment, the committee said "both major political parties have expressed their disapproval of the Eighteenth Amendment, and in substance, have pronounced against a continuation of the effort to secure total abstinence by constitutional prohibition."

"While both political parties have declared likewise against the return of the saloon, the Republican party pronouncement would accomplish that end through some form of federal control, while the Democratic party pronouncement would accomplish the same end through state control."

Cosden Beats Tigers 6 To 1

Brilliant pitching by Southpaw Bob Potter and heavy hitting on the part of Lois Madison and Miller Harris gave Cosden Refinery a 6 to 1 decision over his Mexican team in the fastest game played on a local diamond this year.

Potter's Pitching, Lois' And Miller's Hits Gain Victory

Brilliant pitching by Southpaw Bob Potter and heavy hitting on the part of Lois Madison and Miller Harris gave Cosden Refinery a 6 to 1 decision over his Mexican team in the fastest game played on a local diamond this year.

Potter had the Tigers eating out of his hand most of the contest, although some fancy fielding by Earl Reid in right field was necessary to carry him over the eighth and ninth innings without mishap.

Cosden picked up another run in the third, Madison's single opened the inning and he came home on Harris double down the right field line that Skipper Vega and others of the Tigers protested vigorously.

In the fifth Payne allowed the Oilers two runs after two were out and came very close to being sent to the showers, Madison and Sain both popped up to A. Garcia to start the inning but Morton followed with an infield single.

The representatives of both political parties feel themselves free to choose that method of removing national constitutional prohibition which to them seems best.

Dry Cause Is Defended By Dr. Sandefer

Defense of the 18th amendment was made here Thursday evening by Dr. J. D. Sandefer, veteran educator and outstanding West Texas layman.

"Now all the agencies of all political parties," he said, "have declared against prohibition I must make a confession. The 18th amendment is not enforced as it ought to be."

Prohibition, Dr. Sandefer stated, saved the laboring class from fifteen to thirty billion dollars each year.

Hyer, Bailey, Davis, Parrish Run Well Here

While their choices were well-scattered in the other two congress-at-large races Howard county Democrats Saturday were pretty well grouped in the Place 3 contest.

Julien Hyer of Fort Worth led in the county on the face of returns from 14 of 15 precincts—No. 3 with about two-fifths of the vote was unreported early Sunday morning—in Place No. 3 he received 326 votes.

The second strongest candidate here in Place 3 was Sterling P. Strong, with 298. Joe Burkett was third with 251. This ranking was fairly similar to the vote of the "bree through the state, where Hyer was first, Burkett second and Strong a close third.
