VOICE OF THE FOOTHILL COUNTRY

75TH YEAR-No. 44

MATADOR, MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 1972

PRICE TEN CENTS

Modern technology has come long way to improve communications with sight and sound. As the Old Year was being played out on the east coast, many celebrating the event on the west coast were barely started. But little was lost with the sounds of drunks being almost the same in New York, Chicago, Dallas and San Francisco.

Less than delicate by nature, a now deceased pioneer cattleman of this area, had his own formula for success. It was this: "Keep your bowels open and your mouth shut.'

Death and birth were always close to me as a boy growing up with animals on a farm. Perhaps the most pathetic was the death of an old horse, who would fall and never be able to rise again. His hoofs would paw crescents in the ground in an effort once again to use his feet. Sometimes they would linger for days, at the mercy of wolves who might tear away pieces of flesh while the animal still lived. The kindest act would be a bullet in the brain but kindness is not always easy.
