Humble Will Retain Lease On Matadors

A STATEMENT in the Tribune published in December declared the Humble Oil & Refining Company was ready to release its lease contracts on more than 400,000 acres of land formerly owned by the Matador Land & Cattle Co. and made more than 26 years ago. The statement is officially denounced in the following statement directed as special to Douglas Meador, editor of the Tribune.

Humble Oil & Refining Company has entered into an agreement with the Coastal States Gas Producing Company of Corpus Christi for Coastal States to drill two or more wells on the Matador Ranch during 1966, it was announced today by Humble.

It was erroneously reported last December that Humble was terminating its lease agreement this year with the former Matador Land & Cattle Co. involving more than 400,000 acres in the five West Texas counties of Motley, Floyd, Dickens, Crosby, and Cottle. This previous report indicated that Humble was releasing its lease claims to the Torador Royalty Corporation of Dallas.

The lease between the Matador and Humble is perpetuated indefinitely by drilling one well each year.

State Bank Here To Observe 5-day week

CHANGING business conditions with a five-day week will result in the First State Bank of Matador closing all day Saturday, effective March 5th.

Customers are reminded that the county's single financial institution will not be open between 9 and 12 noon, after the deadline of March 5th.

"We have considered the change for several months," John Barnhill executive vice-president said this week. "After the large banks in Lubbock and Plainview decided to change to the five-day week, we had little choice," he declared.

"In the matter of time, it will make little difference," Barnhill said, "since we close at noon, the actual time is only 180 minutes between 9 a.m. and 12 o'clock. It will mean that employees will have more leisure time for their homes and families and that they can plan in advance for week end trips."

"Our only concern is a possible inconvenience to customers, which we hope to avoid. We hope that banking business will be done in advance of the two-day weekly holiday," Barnhill declared.

"We have considered that county and city offices, as well as the West Texas Utilities and government offices have closed all day Saturdays for years, without apparent inconvenience. We hope the trend will follow through banking customers," he said.

Services are scheduled twice daily, at 7 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Following the week day services in the evening, three discussion groups will be held, Rev. Gaede said. One group will be for young people, one for young adults, and one for older adults.

In making the announcement, Rev. Gaede stressed the need for a spiritual revival. "The Lord Jesus Christ only knows how each of us in this community needs to take new steps in our Christian living in these days . . . the pressures of the world are too much for us to stand alone."

Tourney Date Set By Flomot Lions

Flomot Lions annual invitational basketball tournament is scheduled for March 2, 3, 4, and 5 in the Flomot gym.

Teams competing for a first place trophy will be awarded the winner of a 9:30 tilt Saturday night at Lockney, Flomot, Silverton, Turkey, Paducah, Matador, Quitaque, Roaring Springs, and Estelline. Since this is not a double elimination tournament, one loss in first night preliminary action will send a team to the consolation bracket.

Admission will be 25c for students and 50c for adults and players will have to pay admission fees, since no entrance fee will be charged, said Wayne Hunter, vice president of the Flomot Lions, in making the announcement.

TO OBSERVE HOLIDAY
First State Bank will observe Tuesday, February 22 (Washington's Birthday) as a legal holiday, it was announced yesterday. The bank will be closed for the day.

Methodist Church To Hold Revival

A "Spiritual Life" revival meeting will be held at the First Methodist Church beginning February 27 and continuing through March 4th. It was announced last week by Rev. W. F. Gaede, pastor.

The Rev. Lee Crouch, pastor of First Methodist Church, Crosbyton, will do the preaching. Singing will be led by the Rev. Albert Landley, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Earth.

Services are scheduled twice daily, at 7 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Following the week day services in the evening, three discussion groups will be held, Rev. Gaede said. One group will be for young people, one for young adults, and one for older adults.

In making the announcement, Rev. Gaede stressed the need for a spiritual revival. "The Lord Jesus Christ only knows how each of us in this community needs to take new steps in our Christian living in these days . . . the pressures of the world are too much for us to stand alone."

Will Cut Out Holidays
The change to a Saturdays bank week will wipe out some of the usual bank holidays, leaving only six compulsory. These include Christmas Day, New Year's Day, San Jacinto Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day and Thanksgiving Day.

Many banks in the South Plains and West Texas area have been closed all day Saturday for several years. With the large Lubbock banks making the change, directors of the First State Bank here approved the new five-day week schedule, to be effective March 5th.

TRAIL DUST

The old windmill is silent and the water trough is dry. The herds are gone and the bellowing has ceased. The windmill is like an old man with his memories.

Wholesome laughter seems to have a kind of fragrance like the rain-washed wind blowing from a clean prairie.

Thoughts of debt are usually associated with money, but all of us have far greater obligations than the money we have borrowed. Probably the greatest is to the Grace of God for allowing us to be born in a great, free nation, in the greatest age in all history.

Motley County landed two players on the All-District 10-B basketball squad selected by game officials it was disclosed Saturday night at the close of the district tournament in Turkey.

Ten Commandments are Reviewed For El Progreso Club by Panel

The meeting was held at the Baptist parsonage home of Mrs. James Hancock, one of the panelists, with Mrs. R. W. Overstreet as program director.

Mrs. W. F. Gaede wife of the Methodist minister, was the other member of the panel. A third member, Mrs. H. L. Dennis, wife of the Church of Christ minister, was unable to participate due to the recent illness of both Mrs. Dennis and her husband.

Mrs. Hancock reviewed the first five commandments as they appear in the book of Deuteronomy.

"The first four commandments deal with God's relationship to man; the fifth, with parent's to child, and the last five present rules by which to live," Mrs. Hancock explained in her introduction. She then followed with an explicit resume of each of the first five, and applied them to living habits of this generation.

"God is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow," said Mrs. Gaede as she concluded her analysis of the last five commandments. "I believe that these rules for living apply to us today just as surely as they did to the children of Israel, to whom Moses first gave them."

She emphasized the final commandment, "Thy shalt not covet," as one of the most important with regards to man's nature. "What a man thinks is usually what he becomes," she said.

Mrs. Ben Keltz gave "A Club Woman's Golden Rule," and Mrs. C. P. Waybourn concluded the program with the Inspirational Thought.

Miss Sue Glenn, president, urged members to cooperate in making the game parties (scheduled this afternoon) successful and distributed tickets to be sold for the parties, at the homes of Mrs. A. C. Trawick and Mrs. Floyd Henderson.

Big Order Maps Being Printed

AUSTIN. The largest single order for the Official State Highway Map of the Texas Highway Department is now rolling off the presses.

The initial order for 800,000 of the full-color maps is up 200,000 over the first order for 1965 maps. In past years, substantial reprints have been required to fill the ever-increasing demand from both Texas motorists and out-of-state visitors.

The maps are produced for free distribution by the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department. They provide tourists and Texans with up-to-date information on highways, mileages, lakes accessible to the public, Safety Rest Areas, city route maps, and to distinguish Interstate, U. S.

State and farm-and-ranch-to-market roads in the state. The growth of the Interstate Highway network is graphically shown, as the 1966 map shows 521 more miles of divided highways than appeared on the 1965 map. The majority of this increase is the Interstate System. Over 22,000 miles of farm-to-market roads are shown—some 7,500 more miles of this type road than appeared on the 1965 map.

Safety Rest Areas are again indicated on the map by small green dots alongside the highway. Last year there were 914 green dots. This year there are 934.

The reverse side of the 1966 map is devoted to full-color pictures of various scenic attractions of Texas with the challenge to "Discover Texas—America's Fun-tier."

Postcards for convenient ordering of the 1966 maps will be available at each Texas county tax assessor-collector's office, and as Texans buy their 1966 auto tags they may pick up these free order cards at their tax office.

Free copies of the map are also available at each of the eight Tourist Bureaus operated by the Highway Department at principal highway entrances to Texas and in the rotunda of the State Capitol, and at all 25 Highway Department district offices over the state.

Free copies also may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, Austin, Texas 78703.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Have you ever stopped to think how daily rate of gain affects the cost of feeding beef cattle? A report from Iowa State University states that for every increase of one-tenth of a pound in daily gain the cattleman will use 30 lbs. less feed for each 100 lbs. of gain in weight.

Make sure that you are using proper rations so as to allow for the maximum rate of gain.

Secretary Freeman has announced payment rates on crops permitted on diverted acres. Rates indicate percent of regular diversion paid if the following crops are planted: Guar—50%; Sesame—50%; Castor Beans—30%. If you are interested in any of these crops, why not check with the ASCS for details.

When you received the last issue of "Texas Agricultural Progress", you probably noted that a card was attached for you to return if you wished to continue receiving this magazine which is published quarterly. Don't fail to mail the card if you want to receive this magazine, and for those not on the mailing list who would like to start receiving it, let me know and I will send you your name.

Moisture provided by snow should make it ideal for topdressing small grains. Nitrogen should be applied at least two weeks before grain starts jointing. The following results were obtained in Baylor County in 1965. Thirty-four demonstrations received an average of 10.4 bu. of wheat per acre increase due to N. In 1966, topdressing in Feb. and early March. This meant an increase of $14.73 per acre and a profit due to fertilizer of $9.75 per acre. The increase was 1.3 bu. higher than where fertilizer was applied in the fall, but this was the first year in the last ten that the increase has been greater due to topdressing, than the fall application. Results have also shown that increase from topdressing is also greater on land where phosphorus and a small amount of nitrogen was applied. To determine this requirement, a soil test should be made.

Now is also a good time to take soil samples for crops to be grown this summer. Information sheets should be sent with the samples, as this gives the laboratory technicians a guide as to what the production on the land has been as well as the goal that the farmer is aiming for.

Mailing cartons and information sheets are available for the asking.

Planting time will be here before long, and remember, no crop can be better than the seed planted. Low priced seed is often low quality seed.

All seed offered for sale must have a Texas Tested Seed Label attached, except when one farmer sells to another, and when the farmer does not have to advertise outside his home county or ship by a common carrier.

The percentage of pure seed, inert material, other crop and weed seed must be on the seed label, and these should add up to 100. Good seed of oats, wheat, cotton barley, sorghum and corn should contain at least 98.5% pure seed. Good seed seldom has more than 1.5% inert material.

Buying certified seed is the best guarantee of varietal purity. To be certified, each bag of Texas certified seed must have the blue certification tag and the small tin seal of the State of Texas attached. If these are not attached, the seed is not certified.

It's wise to buy from a reliable retailer or seed producer who stands behind the product he has for sale. Watch out for "miracle varieties" that often appear on the scene.

I have performance tests for different varieties. If you would like to look these over before making a selection, this information is available for the asking.

The 4-H idea began to materialize in the late 1890's when rural school superintendents encouraged students to plant corn, tend a garden, sew and cook. School fairs were held and ribbons were awarded winning exhibits.

The meeting will be held at the Trinity Baptist Church building in Dickens, located on Highway 70. The group expects the District Commander and service officer to explain new regulations and answer questions regarding discounts on medicine and care for veterans of WW I. All Motley County veterans of WW I are invited, and ladies are welcome.

Secretary-treasurer Walter Stokes of Afton requested the announcement be made public.

HIGHLIGHTS and SIDELIGHTS
From Your State Capital

AUSTIN, Tex.—They're back at it again!

Texas legislators were called back to Austin for a special session Monday by Gov. John Connally.

A three-judge federal court's order knocking out the poll tax as a requirement for voting prompted Governor Connally, on advice of Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, to call the extraordinary meeting of lawmakers. Purpose is to pass a voter registration law in case Carr's appeal of the lower court's decision to the U. S. Supreme Court is lost.

Texas has no other form of voter registration than machinery for collecting the poll tax, noted the governor. If the Supreme Court agrees that the

$1.75 levy is an unconstitutional infringement on due process, Carr and Connally feared local election officials would find it "virtually impossible to determine who is a qualified voter."

Connally made it clear that if the Supreme Court accepts Texas' appeal and delays final disposition through 1966 elections, only those who paid the poll tax by January 31 will be permitted to vote. Come what may, the governor thinks those who paid the levy should be considered automatically registered this year.

Federal judges here, while convinced the poll tax is an improper "charge on a very precious constitutional right," disagreed with U. S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach that it has been employed in modern times to deny Negroes the right to vote. All evidence, they concluded, is to the contrary.

As limited as the special session's subject matter is, state lawmakers already are finding room to disagree. Some think voters should be required to register every year to guarantee purity of the ballot box. Others feel the new law should allow re-registration by voting in elections.

A proposed state constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax which will be voted on next November calls for annual registration.

EDUCATION STUDIES BEGIN
Two important studies of the public school system have been launched. A spokesman for one predicts teachers will ask another $500 a year raise at next year's legislative session.

Governor's Committee on Public School Education, directed to make a far-reaching report on school needs, held its first meeting here and selected Glenn H. Ivy, Texas Research League staff member, as its director.

House Interim Committee on Education decided to collect comparative data on what teachers are paid over the nation. Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin said he believes teachers will ask another pay raise in 1967. They got one in 1965.

MANUFACTURING AT RECORD LEVEL—All-time highs in employment, payrolls and value of output were set by Texas manufacturing industries in 1965, and outlook is even brighter for 1966.

So concludes a study of Texas industrial expansion by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Total Texas manufacturing employment this year is expected to rise by 13 per cent, with highest increase in electrical machinery production. Estimated value added by manufacture for 1966 is anticipated to be slightly above $8,500,000,000, a 21 per cent rise over 1965.

A serious problem facing Texas manufacturers, BBR noted, is a shortage of skilled labor (particularly machinists and engineers for aerospace companies supporting the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston.

Shortages of engineers, machinists, technicians and managerial talent emphasizes again the "need to provide a superior educational system at the elementary, secondary and college levels," BBR stresses. Many industries, Bureau warns, can move where needed labor is available, and there is less and less work for the uneducated and unskilled.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES—State Highway Department can buy interest in land needed for enhancement of scenic beauty adjacent to federal aid highways which are part of the Texas highway system, Attorney General Carr has held.

In other opinions, the attorney general concludes:

★ Alabama-Coushatta Indian tribal members cannot create a housing authority as separate corporate entity to which they can make a 40-year lease of state trust land for low-rent housing project.

★ Election workers in counties under 500,000 may be paid for overtime over 10 working hours at polls at rate not to exceed $1.25 an hour.

★ Conviction in a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment is void where defendant was too poor to employ a lawyer and trial court failed to appoint one for him.

Afton Woman Grows Tobacco in Garden

IF YOU have been eating on a hat after smoking some of the popular cigarettes, perhaps you can grow your own tobacco and roll your own cigarettes.

An Afton woman, Mrs. Ray Bateman, has been growing tobacco in her flower bed (see photo above). She planted the seed in pots inside the house about February last year and set them outside as soon as the weather was warm in April.

The tall plants didn't turn green until the recent freezing weather. The earlier frosts didn't seem to affect them. Only pests which came to the tobacco plants were green worms, similar to caterpillars, which were controlled with dusting.

Even if the West Texas tobacco is of no commercial value, the plants are attractive and the stems of pink flowers add charm to any garden or flower bed.

 The semi-finals Friday night, when the home team took on the Turks. The Turks pecked Matador 60-54 after leading throughout the game. In a frenzied fourth quarter rally the Matadors whittled down Turkey's 50-36 third period lead to the narrow 6 point win by outscoring them 18-10, but the horn halted the attack short of victory.

Matador's loss showed the Turks out to meet Quitaque's Panthers for the championship Saturday night and pitted Matador against Flomot, who earned its slot by downing Estelina Thursday night.

Smarting from their only district loss this season, Quitaque's fired-up five romped over Turkey 83-50 and coupled this championship with a first in the round robin to carry off their eighth consecutive district crown.

 service on Appropriations, he has served 10 years as a member of the House-Senate Interim Budget Committee, and six years as a member of the Interim Audit Committee. The Budget Committee is made up of five Senators and five Representatives and the Audit Committee is composed of three members from each branch of the Legislature.

These are highly coveted appointments and to be chosen repeatedly out of a total membership of 180 in the Legislature is an indication of his standing among his colleagues.

The three committees named have primary responsibility in State spending which now exceeds $1.5 billion annually. All money bills must originate in the House of Representatives and the Appropriations Committee, currently headed by Mr. Heatly, must pass on all requests for State funds.

He expects to visit in all sections of his district this year, even though he has no opponent, and will devote special attention to advise him of their views on all matters pertaining to State Government and especially when their personal interests are involved.

Since preparing this release, the Governor has called a Special Session of the Legislature and Mr. Heatly will be busy in Austin for the next several weeks.
