Matador Twirlers Attending Clinic

Matador High School twirlers Lou Anne Woodruff and Paula Pallmeyer are in Levelland this week attending a twirling clinic on the campusof South Plains College. The girls were accompanied to Levelland, Sunday by Mrs. Glenn Woodruff, and will be accompanied home Friday by Mrs. Bill Pallmeyer, who will go for them.

Approximately 12 states and three nations are being represented on the South Plains campus where the Caravan of Champs Gymnastic is also being held. Approximately 135 students are enrolled in the twirling part of the clinic. Instructors are from Florida, California, Colorado and Texas.

A special exhibition show, free to the public, will be held Thursday (tonight) at 7:30 in Texan Dome on the campus. Olympic and National members of the instructing staff, along with many of the students will be featured in the show.

The clinic features classes for beginner, intermediate and advanced boys and girls. Instruction is given in all phases of baton twirling, tumbling, trampoline, and olympic events in gym-music education major at Texas nastics. States represented in the clinic the position of Choir and Youth include: Massachustts, Michigan, Director at the First Baptist Nebraska, Kansas, Arizona, Okla-Church. homa, Texas, New Meixco, Florida, New York, California and Georgia. Following the new pick up time that went into effect at the Matador post office July 1, mail is dispatched as follows:

Weekday mail deposited in the post office or sidewalk box in front of the post office by 2:20 p.m. leaves at 2:30 and arrives by bus in Lubbock at 4:20.

This is an especial advantage to airmail according to Postmaster Scaff, as it will catch 7 p.m. flights out of Lubbock and be delivered the next morning to points as far as 600 miles from Matador.

The last pickup from the sidewalk box on week days here is 5:10 p.m. All out of town mail must be deposited in the sidewalk box by 2:05 p.m. on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.
