STUDIES ABOUT THE BIBLE

Paul assured the "... faithful brothers in Christ at Colosse:" that God,

... delivered us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son. . . Col. 1:13.

In the next chapter Paul explains how the Colossians experienced deliverance from darkness to refuge in Christ.

... having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. Col. 2:12.

The faithful at Colosse had experienced the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ as symbolized in baptism. In the above scripture Paul agrees with Matthew, Luke, and Peter.

An Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I command you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Ma. 28:18-19.

And corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. . . 1 Pet. 3:21.

For further consideration about the connection between salvation baptism, read Acts 2:36-38.

COUNTY NATIVE JOINS QUARTER CENTURY CLUB

Buryl Nichols, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nichols of Roaring Springs, has this year joined the Quarter Century Club of Texas Electric Service Company of Fort Worth. TESCO's Roundup, the company magazine, in an article about Mr. Nichols, quoted him as saying of the changes in the company during the last quarter of a century, "For one thing, the numbers have all gotten bigger."

The Roaring Springs native spent three years in the Navy during World War II as a hospital corpsman on an LST. He graduated from Roaring Springs High School and worked in the grocery business with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoyle before entering Texas Tech where he graduated with a degree in accounting in January 1950.

Nichols joined Texas Electric Company, Feb. 13, 1950. Now financial services manager for TESCO, he has spent all but about six months of his 25 years in the financial department. The other time was spent "Accompanying" a line crew, a part of his early training. Nichols and his wife Bonnie married in 1948. In addition to his leisure pursuits of yardwork and "piddling" with the car, he has a "semi-finished" cabin at Possum Kingdom Lake.

"The way I'm going on the cabin, a realistic completion date would be about 15 years from now," he said, which seems about right added to his present age of 50. Mr. Nichols is a brother of Mrs. Algie Groves of Matador.

STUDIES ABOUT THE BIBLE

Paul assured the "... faithful brothers in Christ at Colosse:" that God,

... delivered us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son. . . Col. 1:13.

In the next chapter Paul explains how the Colossians experienced deliverance from darkness to refuge in Christ.

... having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. Col. 2:12.

The faithful at Colosse had experienced the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ as symbolized in baptism. In the above scripture Paul agrees with Matthew, Luke, and Peter.

An Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I command you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Ma. 28:18-19.

And corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. . . 1 Pet. 3:21.

For further consideration about the connection between salvation baptism, read Acts 2:36-38.

Miss Nancy Carole Hawkins and John Kenneth Horn were married recently in Calvary Baptist Church, Lubbock, with the bride's father Rev. Gene Hawkins, former pastor of the church, now pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church of Topeka, Kansas, officiating. He is a former pastor of First Baptist Church, Matador.

Mrs. Bobby Pack of Lubbock was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Pam Dixon of Dallas, Miss Lanette Allison of Plainview and Miss Kay Phillips of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride. They wore pale pink dresses, designed with cape sleeves, and each wore a picture hat and carried a pink, long stemmed rose.

The Rev. Orville Rogers, of Calvary Baptist Church of Tulsa assisted in the ceremony, read at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 22.

The couple's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Hawkins, and Mrs. Robert S. Gard of Dallas and the late Raymond Horn.

Candles and greenery decorated the altar area. Pews were marked with candelabra holding pink candles, and greenery with pink bows.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Joyce Vines of Lubbock, organist, and vocal selections by the bridegroom's mother, who sang "Bless This House," and "Saviour Like a Shepherd Lead Us," and by Miss Lynn Garrett of Seminole, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza, fashioned with Venise lace at the neck, and bands down the bodice, and on the sleeves. The skirt extended into a back fullness to form a chapel length train. Her veil of illusion was edged in matching Venise lace and attached to a Juliet headpiece. Her bouquet was of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Closing prayer was by Mrs. Lloyd Hearn. Others present were Mesdames Olive Russell, Henry Ford, and Mattie Brotherton and Miss Mary Slover.

was best man. Groomsmen were Bobby Pack of Lubbock, Charles Horn of Dallas, the bridegroom's brother, and Keith Hawkins, Lubbock, brother of the bride. They also served as ushers. Lou Phillips of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride lit the candles.

FOLLOWING the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Candelabra and the bride's bouquet decorated the bride's table. The three tiered wedding cake was served with punch and mints. At the groom's table, coffee, finger sandwiches and nuts were served. An arrangement of spring flowers decorated the table.

For a wedding trip to Dallas, the bride wore an ice green pants suit, with a white picture hat and other white accessories. They are making their home in Lubbock, where Mr. Horn is employed by Combined American Insurance Company. He attended Sunset High School in Dallas, and Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, on a track scholarship.

The Roaring Springs native spent three years in the Navy during World War II as a hospital corpsman on an LST. REDDY'S HELPFUL FREEZER TIPS

Lock in flavor. Use moisture and vapor-proof materials especially designed for freezers to wrap your foods. Tightly sealed, these lock in flavor and moisture and prevent "freezer burn" (surface drying) on foods. Don't use wax paper, bread paper or regular cellophane for freezer foods.

Label packages. Date and identify freezer packages so (1) you don't accumulate a lot of mysterious shapes and (2) you'll be able to pick out foods that have been in the freezer longest.

Take advantage of sales. Avoid overstocking with commercially frozen food that's always available; use your freezer as your own bargain counter and store foods you can buy on sale. But do allow space for short-time baked goods, leftovers and special party foods.
