TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

The scythe of time cuts so quietly that the fields of youth are leveled before many are aware, and often the fruitful acres of middle life are drying in the sun before many see the barren horizon. The golden period of age is frequently left to gleaming amid shattered pieces of dreams.

If you don't recognize your weaknesses, you can always find someone who will point them out and point out their possibilities.

It seems that with the winds of West Texas the old time wind charger was a great invention that should have succeeded. It was, of course, much more complicated than its predecessor, the windmill. On the other hand so much depended on pumping water from the ground in a semi-arid land, the wind power was almost forced to succeed. Its destiny was assured by necessity.

The dispositions of drivers are indicated as they pass in excess of the speed limit. Many people feel that the law was intended for someone else.

Washington has always been the seat of the nation's news, but since Watergate, it has grabbed more than its share of headlines. They are the kind of headlines, however, that Washington does not want and a nation does not want.

That fact that advice is free does not mean that it cannot be costly. The tragedy of advice is that often the best quality is ignored and the worthless is often used. The only way it can be evaluated, and then not with perfect certainty, is first to consider the source.

It is true that you can lead a horse to water but that you cannot make him drink. It is some relief to the conscience, however, if the animal suffers from thirst and no water is available.

A hungry man sees the world through hopeful eyes and with a subdued spirit.

United Methodist Women met Tuesday night, May 7, in the church parlor for a continuation of the study, "The Healing Fountain."

Chapters from which the discussions were taken were, "Church and World," and "Faith, Hope and Love."

Mrs. Douglas Gossett served as leader in the absence of Mrs. Bill Pailmeyer. She was assisted by Mrs. Charlie Keith and Mrs. Nelson McMahan.

Mrs. Gossett read a selection of scriptures from Matthew, Ephesians, Titus, Mark and Galatians. In her discussion of the chapter, "Church and World," she said, "For too long the church seemed to be Church or world, but that was always a false distinction. Jesus warned us to be in the world, but not of this world. He spent His life in witnessing to the world, and died for it."

Mrs. Keith's discussion was from the same chapter, and included the work of Janet Lacey, a British lady and a social worker with displaced persons in Germany following World War II. Mrs. McMahan discussed the work of Toyohiko, a Christian Japanese lady, who worked with the underprivileged in the slums of Japan, spreading the gospel by witnessing and distribution of gospel tracts. Her discussion was from the chapter on Faith, Hope and Love.

Mrs. John Hamilton conducted the business and plans were made for a salad supper for the next meeting, May 17. At that time, the District Superintendent will meet with the group.

STUDIES ABOUT THE BIBLE

I believe H. G. Wells, noted British historian, listed Christ "number one" in a company of the world's famous religious teachers. This rating agrees with the Bible. But the Bible goes farther. It declares Him to be the "Son of God."

Matthew writes of an occasion when Satan speaks, attempting to overcome Christ through the weaknesses of the flesh.

And the tempter came and said to Him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." Ma. 4:3.
"If you are the Son of God throw yourself down;..." Ma. 4:6.

When Christ arrived on earth, many of the Israelites were expecting Him. They did not know the generation, but they were expecting Him because of many references to the Messiah who should deliver them. Satan knew these scriptures and planned to stop the Messiah before His gospel could be given to the world.

Matthew gives an account of Jesus' quieting a storm on the Sea of Galilee. When the storm was over Matthew quotes the apostles.

"You are certainly God's Son!" Ma. 14:33.
On another occasion the high priest asked Christ a direct question about His identity.

And the high priest said to Him, "I adjure You by the living God, that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God." Ma. 26:63

After the trial and the innocent Christ was condemned to the cross, the chief priests, scribes, and elders mocked Him in this manner.

"He trusts in God; let Him deliver Him now, if He takes pleasure in Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'" Ma. 27:43.

Seventeen Seniors Started Together In Three Schools

Seventeen of the 1974 graduates of Matador High School started together in the first grade, in the three elementary schools in the county, Matador, Roaring Springs and Flomot, the class history reveals.

Starting together in Matador in 1962, were Sherry Green, Travis Jameson, Kelly Keltz, Jackie Martin, Doug Meador, John Nimmo, Paula Pallmeyer, Thomas Tilson and Gary Richardson.

At Roaring Springs were Buddy Allen, Larry Clifton, Jesse Hernandez, Sheila Lefevre, Johnny Palmer and Glenda White. At Flomot were Darla Cruse and Marvin Starkey.

Others who will receive diplomas with these, on Monday night, May 20, will be Billy Osborn, Jimmy Don Hurt, Doretha Ruth Pitts and Morris Timmons.

When the three groups graduated from the eighth grades, others in the classes were: Matador: Terry Carson, Lucretia Couch, Debbie Doran, Essie Leakes, J. D. Hurt, Jimmie Medrano, Billy Osborn, Glenda Stockton, Margaret Storey, Robert Thompson, Morris Timmons, Connie Welch and Rodney Williams; Roaring Springs: Cindy Carpenter, and Flomot: Tim Meyer, Cindy Morris and Francis Reed.

This year's senior class has an outstanding record of achievement. Since they first started to high school, theirs was the first Matador team to reach the semi-finals in the Texas State Football playoffs. There were more seniors out for track than from any other senior class; senior girls showed a lot of interest, effort and enthusiasm in leading a fine girls basketball team during district play, and class members have taken a leading role in other scholastic activities.

"This will be the last time around for Matador High School," the historian declares. "We join other proud graduates. It is our hope that those of you remaining will show courage and pride in promoting your Motley County High School. Matador High School seniors have once again tried to set a fast pace..."

RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Darla Cruse received a $700.00 scholarship for Lubbock Christian College. Darla was awarded the scholarship on the basis of a high score on ACT college entrance exam and high probability of her making an outstanding student. Darla, this year's salutatorian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cruse of Flomot.

WILL ATTEND GIRLS STATE, BOYS STATE

This year the girl who will be going to Girls State will be Marilee Martin of Flomot.

The boy was to be Charles Giesecke of Matador, but due to another honor of being chosen to participate in a six-week Science and Math workshop this summer in Abilene, he will not be able to attend Boys State. His alternate is Pepper Nichols of Roaring Springs.

Marilee and Pepper attended a Girls State and Boys State Banquet at Lubbock on May 10.

Motley Roundup

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINED AT SEVERAL RECENT EVENTS

Mrs. J. E. Edwards entertained her senior math students with a luncheon, Friday, May 3. She presented each of the students with a personalized "Book of Mathematical Formulas."

Mrs. Reece Timmons entertained her senior English students with lunch at Smith's Steak House, Wednesday, May 8.

Fall Release For Annals

La Arena, the high school yearbook will be delivered at the first of school in the fall. This change in delivery dates has been made in order to include spring activities in the annual.

Last fall the student body voted to try, for the first time in school history, this change in delivery dates.

Advantages of this change will be that pictures of U.I.L. tennis, volleyball, track and literary events may be included. Also pictures of the various spring banquets will be featured and, according to the seniors, most important of all will be a graduation section.

Dedicated To Couple

Also for the first time, the annual will be dedicated to a couple, rather than an individual. The annual is dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss. Mr. Moss is a long-time Vo-Ag teacher in high school, and Mrs. Moss has been serving the school as office assistant.

The annual is produced by editors Darla Cruse and Paula Pallmeyer Mullin, with the able assistance of Kellie Green, Marilee Martin and Lisa Ross. These three assistants will be editors of the annual next year and will be aided by Charlotte Johnson, Darrell Moore and Tony Rose. The six young people will be attending a yearbook summer workshop in Lubbock, July 28-31.

CHEERLEADERS WILL ATTEND CAMP AT LCC

The 1974 Cheerleaders are getting very excited about attending Cheerleading school at Lubbock Christian College this summer starting June 22. The girls will learn new yells to start the coming football season.

The head cheerleader this year is Naomi Simpson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson of Matador. Helping her will be Deidra Cruse daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cruse of Flomot, Pennie Marshall daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Marshall of Roaring Springs, and Charise Cullin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cullin of Santa Fe, N.M. and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell Jr. of Matador.

Highlight of the camp will be for the Cheerleaders to attend the Coaches All American Football Game on June 22.

A breakfast Sunday morning, May 6, in the basement Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church honored the graduates. The Baptist Young Women were hosts for the event. Invocation was by Rev. Leonard Sims, pastor, who also introduced "The Gloryland Two." Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kinnison of Lubbock, who presented a program of gospel songs. The breakfast consisted of bacon and sausage, scrambled eggs, cantaloupes, biscuits, jelly, coffee and orange juice.

The entire senior class was entertained Monday night, May 6, by the American Legion and Auxiliary, in the American Legion building. Speaker was Col. Haynes Baumgardner of Lubbock.

Elect '74 Captains

By Dan Meador

The next year's captains for the Motley County Matadors will be Frank Welling and Steve Stevens. They were elected last Thursday at the first meeting of the 1974 football team. The turnout of 40 young men also discussed the upcoming season and district alignment.

Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Welling of Matador. Welling is a two year letterman for the Matadors and a one year starter.

Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Stevens of Matador. He is a three year letterman and a two year starter at quarterback.

Besides electing captains, Coach Stan Irvine explained the district alignment for the 74 season. The district consists of 14 teams this year. Because of the large size of District 2-B, it will be zoned, the North Zone and the South. The Matadors will be in the North Zone with six other teams. The other seven will be in the South. This means the district champs will have to win his zone then defeat the winner of the other zone.

LISA ROSS

COMPETES IN AUSTIN

Miss Lisa Ross, who qualified for State in Prose Reading, competed at Austin May 3. At State she won third place. Lisa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ross of Flomot. Sponsors of Lisa were Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Moore who went with her to Austin.

Junior Class Play Acclaimed Success

March 14 was an important date for the Juniors this year. Their annual play, "Rest Assured," was presented to a full house, with complete audience acclaim. Class sponsor, Mrs. J. E. Edwards, directed the production.

Mr. Morlock (Frank Welling), a fidgety, nervous, grouchy old goat who didn't like anything but money, wouldn't let his family do anything. He always griped about his aches and pains, feuded with everyone and wouldn't let his daughter Mary, (Diedra Cruse) become engaged to Joe Lanconi, (Billy Campbell) because Joe's papa, Luigi Lanconi (Dan Meador) was poor.

So, when Joe's papa came over to plead his son's case, he was practically booted out of the house. Mr. Morlock, known as "P.U." to his few friends, said if Mary wedded up with Joe it would be over his dead body. Luigi said that if they didn't, it would be over his. Mr. Morlock and Luigi fussed and fought all over the place. Luigi had always had a bad heart and he just couldn't take all this activity and so konked out.

The feud seemed over, but Luigi got special permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock. Lucifer, (Charles Giesecke) the rounder-upper of lost souls from "down-below," dropped in - pitchfork and all - to take Mr. Morlock to the lower regions.

The plot developed at an alarming rate, much to the delight of the audience. In the end, a reformed Mr. Morlock made vast promises, okayed the wedding and peace finally reigned over the Morlock household.

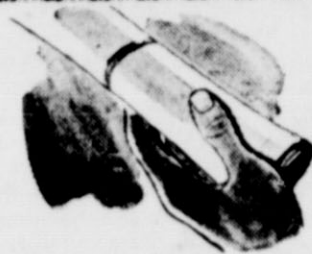

Dan Meador's Italian portrayal of Luigi was outstanding and his sleep-walking scene was especially well done. Other members of the talented cast included Kellie Green as Mrs. Morlock; Marilee Martin as Jessica attorney; Cleddell Campbell as Mr. Schmaltz, a reprobate; Jim Barnhill as Dr. Brown, the family physician; Pepper Nichols as Mr. Black, the friendly mortician; Rick-ey Green as Jake the newsboy; and Will Pallmeyer as the laundryman, Mr. Frinck.

Mrs. Eddie Russell was home overnight Monday from Hale Center, to look after business here. She has been at the bedside of her husband, who is a patient in Hi-Plains Hospital there, and staying with her son and family, the Gordon Russells. Also at Mr. Russell's bedside have been his other son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Ed Russell and Kay, and his sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradshaw of College Station and Mr. and Mrs. Dub Drace of Smyer. Friends from here have also sat with him at night since his recent return to the hospital. His condition is described as unchanged since a slight improvement was noted soon after he entered the hospital.

Now's the time to call your air conditioning serviceman.

(Get a checkup before the heat's on)

Right now your air conditioning serviceman can easily work your call into his schedule and get your unit ready to deliver dependable cooling through the summer ahead.

We know that many people wait until the heat's on to install electric air conditioning or have their units serviced. Later on, your dealer or serviceman may have a waiting list.

WTU wants you to get the greatest value from your electric service. One way we can help is to remind you to get the jump on summer by calling your serviceman early.
