TRAIL DUST DOUGLAS MEADOR

Too much is said without sincerity; silence is frequently mightier than loud words - a sublime prayer.

Looking at the long windrows of my mistakes, it is readily apparent that I planted the drouth-resistant, everbearing variety. Some of the stubblefield has produced a prolific second-growth.

A beautiful girl must serve an exacting responsibility to escape the reproach of the less attractive, and at the same time prevent her personality from becoming static. If her beauty is reflected from a wholesome character the peccable motives of society spend themselves like arrows aimed at the sky.

Inventors have gone too far like the chemist who perfected the universal solvent without considering the container to hold it. True, they have taken most of the misery out of life, but now they are making my memories appear ridiculous. Some busy little dreamer has produced an electric hoe which requires no more effort than holding the handle and moving it from place to place. When I held the contrivance the years of my childhood suddenly seemed absurd. Long summer days and the hot sand against my feet - the sweat and blistering sun and gnats under the brim of my old straw hat became as futile sacrifices to a degenerate deity.

Rubble gum seems to be the automatic pilot which directs the activities of small boys and girls in the bright and busy kingdom of childhood.

Politics has become a sacrificial altar deprived of glory where servants are clubbed by their masters to appease the greedy gods of favoritism, frustrations, selfishness and prejudice.

Although all the doors to yesterday are securely locked, a secret passage exists through the tunnel of work which permits us to take some unfinished tasks back into the sunlight of the precious hour.

Fear deserves more respect. The human race would have perished from the earth eons ago except for its amazing power. (Tribune files, June 23, 1955)

Crowd Enjoys Senior Play

The Senior Class play, "They Run In Our Family, presented May 9, entertained a large audience under the stage floodlights of Motley County High School.

Directed by Mrs. Reece Timmons, the play centered around a coach trying to win his first game in 20 years against an arch-rival. The coach, his family and his friends got involved in the process of winning the game, during a series of comical misadventures.

Acting and casting in respective roles was accomplished to the delight of the audience.

Royalty crowned at the Annual All Sports Banquet held Tuesday night in the Motley County school cafeteria were Marilee Martin and Steve Stevens. Miss Spirit Award was presented to Ann Barton.

Pepper Nichols was awarded the Dayton Graham Memorial Award presented each year to the outstanding athlete. The award is based on attitude, desire and character. Dayton Graham was once a star athlete in Matador and died suddenly in 1959 following a basketball game in which he had served as a referee. His family began the Memorial Award in 1960 and Pepper is the fifteenth athlete to receive the Award.

In presenting the Fighting Heart Awards in boys and girls basketball, Coach V.V. Scott pointed out that these award winners are selected by the team members on the basis of consciencious concern both on and off the court. Marilee Martin was chosen for the Fighting Heart Award in Girls Basketball and Billy Campbell was chosen for the Fighting Heart Award in Boys Basketball. Pep Club sponsors, Miss Carrye Burley and Miss Beverly Bridge were presented with gifts of appreciation by the Pep Club members.

Featured speaker for the banquet was Cherri Rapp, a native of Estelline. She was introduced by Coach Kirby Hatley. Miss Rapp has just completed her masters degree at the University of Texas in Austin.

She began a very successful athletic adventure in high school and in Wayland Baptist College on the Flying Queens basketball team.

Among basketball honors she has achieved are All-American Basketball for three years; U. S. Olympic tours to South America, 2 years; World Tournament in Brazil; Pan-Am Games in Chile; World University Games, Moscow; and Captain of the U.S. team which hosted Russia in the United States last summer.

El Progresso Club Has Guest Speaker

El Progresso Club met Thursday, May 8, in the home of Mrs. E. A. Day for its Federation Day program and tea, with Mrs. Ben Fulton, Quanah, President of Santa Rosa District, TFWC, as guest speaker. The occasion also honored the graduating senior girls, who were accompanied by their mothers, as special guests.

Mrs. R. E. Campbell Jr., presided during the business session and introduced Mrs. Fulton. Mrs. Campbell, as leader, read the caption from the yearbook. "We must not scatter our interest, but consolidate on a purpose," by Mrs. Joseph B. Dibrell, sixth president of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs

Mrs. Fulton spoke on Rights and "Women Responsibilities in Federated Clubs." She opened her talk by stating, "With women's rights come women's responsibilities. Women want to be treated equally, but we hope there can be a happy medium and not go too far. We live in a free America and want it to stay this way, she said. "We should be thankful for this freedom and should pray for it.

'This is the month of May it means Spring is here, school is nearly out, and we are nearing the end of our club year. We should compliment our officers of the year - praise is like ice cream; it should be served before it melts

Mrs. Fulton's two goals for the year have been in the Conservation and Home Life Departments. In Conservation she urged members to plant mini-gardens, pointing out the opportunity for exercise and better health, as well as a saving on groceries.

According to statistics, she said, the population of the nation will double in 25 years. In a recent survey enough food was thrown out in New York to feed half its people.

Regarding Home Life, Mrs. Fulton declared, "In Home Life, it is what you think of as a home; a place for food, shelter and rest lot of time making what he hoped would be remembered as profound statements. One of those is proving itself more every year ... "We cannot afford to lose that preeminently typical American, the farmer who owns his own land." Many theories abound. Robert Aub-

what he calls the "Territorial Imperative." Others observe simply that a man will work harder for himself than for someone else. Undoubtedly

Subject: Public Drinking Water Supply City of Matador Motley County, Texas

Dear Mayor Campbell:

Recent chemical analyses, Laboratory Nos. 286976, 286977, 296978, and 296979, of samples of water collected from the subject water system indicate that the nitrate content exceeds the limit set by Drinking Water Standards and the Texas State Department of Health of 45 mg/1. The reported values are as follows:

Laboratory No.

286976 52 286977 54 286978 50 286979 52

The nitrate content of this water may cause methemoglobinemia in infants and therefore must not be used in infant feeding. We recommend that your customers be notified of this potential hazard.

In view of the above, this Department would recommend that consideration be given to installing demineralization facilities or to securing an alternate source of supply if possible. Should additional information or clarification be needed, please let us know.

Very truly yours,
