World Flight A New Factor In Cold War

U. S. Parades Its Big Air Potential

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Diplomats today assigned the non-stop round-the-world flight of an American bomber a significant and highly dramatic place in the grand strategy of the cold war.

An important fact in terms of international politics is that the State Department had opportunity to block the flight but did not do so. Two and a half years ago a similar project was vetoed by the diplomats.

U. S. Backs Up General Clay On Red Mission

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—The United States government, in a note to Russia, today gave Gen. Lucius D. Clay full support in his demand that the Soviet repatriation mission be withdrawn from the American zone of Germany.

The American note, made public by the State Department, said Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's protest against Clay's action was packed with "misrepresentation and distortion of fact."

Molotov's protest was delivered to the American embassy in Moscow on Feb. 24.

The American note was to be delivered to Molotov in Moscow today, by Foy Kohler, ranking American diplomat now on duty there.

Prison Reform Goes To Jester

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—The foundation bill in the plan to rebuild and modernize Texas' run-down prison system was passed by the House and sent to the governor for signature today. The vote was 132 to 1.

House approval of the Senate bill by Jimmy Phillips of Angleton came without amendments. It would appropriate $4,196,075 for new buildings, equipment and livestock.

Also winning final passage was a bill making an emergency appropriation of $529,298 for operation of the prison system during the balance of this fiscal year. The house took up the key prison bill—first major legislation of the 51st session to win final approval—after beating an effort to rub the controversial minimum standards or basic science measure off its calendar.

The decline started at the peak of hopes for East-West co-operation in peacemaking. Its present low point is characterized by the belief of the western powers that military readiness to strike back is now an absolute essential of peace.

In this sense the B-50 trip which ended yesterday at Fort Worth provides a single dramatic instance. It shows what the United States and other western powers are trying to accomplish on a broader scale and in a different way through the proposed Atlantic Security Treaty.

Top American officials define the purpose of that treaty as being to by which they currently mean Russian potential aggressiveness—with such "overwhelming" force that he would not dare attack.

In the flight of the B-50 bomber the Soviets can now read unprecedented evidence of the range of American strategic air power. They may reason that no single one of their cities, should war ever come, would be safe.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee commented solemnly: "This flight offers some measure of what another world war would mean to all peoples."

However, the air force was meticulous in laying out its flight plan for the B-50. It made sure that at no point did the route approach either Russia or Soviet-held areas.

The nearest the B-50 came to Russia was hundreds of miles to the south, when the bomber flew over the subtropical of India.

So far as the State Department is concerned, the flight apparently was not made primarily as a salute rattling gesture—whatever meaning other countries may attach to it. It seems to have been conceived as an effort by the Air Force—perhaps with an eye on congressional appropriations—to prove that such a thing could be done. But officials confirmed today that the proposal was put before the State Department and it was cleared there.

JAMES V. FORRESTAL

Resignation Of Forrestal Seen Today

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—President Truman is expected to accept today James V. Forrestal's long-pending resignation as Secretary of Defense and name Louis A. Johnson, West Virginia lawyer, to the post.

White House informants said the action probably will be announced at Mr. Truman's news conference at 3 p. m. An exchange of letters between the President and Forrestal has been prepared for release, they added.

Forrestal, the nation's first Secretary of Defense, is the last cabinet holdover from the Roosevelt administration. He was Secretary of the Navy before he took the top defense job.

Johnson long has figured in speculation as Forrestal's successor. He is a former assistant secretary of war and served as chairman of the Democratic finance committee in the 1948 presidential campaign.

Presidential associates disclosed during the campaign that Forrestal was expected to step down after the election. The only question was one of timing.

The president is known to have delayed action because of his objections to publicity given his plans.

He and Forrestal have discussed the question of Forrestal's resignation from time to time. At one point it was understood that May 1 had been agreed upon as the date.

However, Forrestal expressed a desire to step out earlier and it is understood now that the change will take place within a short time.

Lucky Lady Crew Gets Shut-Eye

FORT WORTH, March 3. (AP)—The crew of "Lucky Lady II," by chance the first men to fly non-stop around the world, slept off a 24-hour quarantine today.

The fourteen men landed at Carswell Air Base yesterday, 94 hours and one minute after standby orders became operational. They had crossed seven seas and four continents, covered more than 23,000 miles, refueled in mid-air four times and circumnavigated the globe at nearly its greatest girth.

Chance placed "Lucky Lady II" in its pilot, Capt. James Gallagher, and crew in history. Another plane was to have made the flight.

The B-50 bomber which started what the Air Force chose to call a "routine training mission" got as far as the Azores after taking off last Friday. The engine fire which forced this plane down sent "Lucky Lady II" aloft.

Gallagher and his history-making crew had been on standby orders for any emergency that might arise. Their B-50, an improved version of the B-29 super bomber, was airborne at 11:21 p. m. (CST) Saturday.

The sleek, silvery plane returned to its starting point yesterday at 9:21:55 a. m. (CST). Shortly afterward its crew was placed under a 24-hour quarantine, ending today noon.

Lucky Lady II will return to Tinker Air Force Base at Oklahoma City today, where she was readied for her spectacular flight.

Ma. Gen. F. S. Borum, Tinker commanding general, said the bomber will be flown there for an inspection to determine the significance of the flight. The flight, he added, was a compliment to the men and the air depot and the work they are doing.

Tinker employees worked on the plane early this year. They also converted several B-29s into flying tankers—the type of plane used to re-fuel Lucky Lady II in the air.

The quarantine was part of the "training mission." The 14 men were weary-eyed when they dropped out of escape hatches and bomb bay doors, although beaming and in good physical condition. But medical officers wanted to check the effects of a non-stop flight and to give the men a chance to sleep—on beds with springs and sheets instead of GI blankets, thin cot mattresses and a bomber floor.

News men were permitted to question the men only briefly yesterday before they went into quarters. See LUCKY LADY, Pg. 9, Col. 1

Voting Strength Goes Over 6,000

Final poll tax figures released by the county tax collector-assessor's offices this morning would indicate the voting strength of the county to be more than 6,000, considered good in an off-election year.

Poll tax sales amounted to 4,964 while exemptions totaled 836, bringing the aggregate to 5,800. Persons eligible for exemptions who live outside the city limits do not have to register every year. That portion of voters would total the total considerably.

Last year, when national issues figures into the balloting, voting strength was pegged at 8,500.

12 Persons Die As Home Burns

MUSKOGEE, Mich., March 3. (AP)—Twelve persons were reported burned to death today in a fire that swept a home in the little town of Lakewood, 12 miles north of here.

Fire Chief Fred Vejr of the community's volunteer department said 14 persons were in the home when the flames struck.

"Twelve of them are dead," he said.

Basic Science Bill Remains On Calendar

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—An effort to send the controversial minimum standards, or basic science bill to the House Committee on Livestock and Stock Raising failed on the floor of the House today. The vote was 72-55.

Rep. Sam Hanna of Dallas declared that he believed committees of the House were passing out bills without going into them thoroughly.

"I recall once a so-called chiropractors bill was sent to the livestock committee," he said, "and so I move to send this one there."

The minimum standards bill is sponsored by the State Medical Assn. and opposed by chiropractors. It was approved by the House Committee on Public Health last week, 13-6. Sending it back to another committee would have delayed action on it.

Speaking against Hanna's motion, Rep. Abraham Kazen, Jr., of Laredo, said, "Don't you think this is a device to get the House to wait until the Senate votes on the bill and takes the heat off?"

"This is an effort to evade the issue," said Lamar Zively of Temple, a co-author of the bill.

"I voted against this bill two years ago and I'm certainly not afraid to state my stand today," Hanna said. "I'm not trying to joke this bill out of the legislature."

Zively moved to table Hanna's motion and Zively's motion carried. That meant the bill stayed on the House calendar.

Officers Busy On Safety Picture

Several Big Spring peace officers were on extra duty today while two motion pictures on traffic safety were being filmed in the city.

The films, one portraying an intoxicated driver and his experiences with traffic and the law and another dealing with speeding, will be shown at local theatres soon.

Other smaller sized films will be made available to civic clubs and other organizations, said Police Chief Pete Green.

Most of the outdoor action for the pictures was being filmed on the park road, while inside scenes were in the city courtroom and the city jail.

Continental and Pioneer fly parallel routes from Midland to Big Spring, Las Vegas, Nev., to Santa Fe, N. M., and Santa Fe to Albuquerque.

TALKATHON IN FOURTH DAY

South Wins First Filibuster Rounds

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Determined southern senators appeared today to have won the first skirmishes in the cautious battle of the filibuster.

As the talkathon went into its fourth day, the Dixie force could claim these points:

1. Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill.) reversed an earlier plan to offer today a test petition on debate limitation. He said he might be accused of choking off debate too early.

2. The Senate GOP leaders adopted a hands off policy on Republican voting. They concede that, like the Democrats, the Republicans are split on the issue.

3. At least one Republican, Sen. Langer of North Dakota, publicly pledged his vote against "gag rule." In the past he has been one of the longest and loudest Senate speakers.

To date only six of the southern Democrats have taken the floor for first round warm-up speeches. And each of them is entitled to a second one that may stretch out for hours or even days.

Sen. Holland (D-Fia.), who was talking when the Senate recessed at 6:04 last night, won unanimous consent to continue today with both appearances counted as only one speech.

Democratic Leader Lucas said he may ask a Senate session Saturday and he now plans to file the test petition early next week, possibly Monday.

This petition would force Vice President Barkley to decide whether the Senate can halt debate at this stage.

They were the three state highway commissioners, Fred Wemple and R. J. Fouts of Hartline; Hoxie Thompson of Trinity, public safety commissioner; H. L. Mills of Houston, member of the state teachers colleges board of regents; and the following members of the veterans affairs commission: R. W. Akers of Beaumont, Joe M. Daniel of Corsicana, Rene A. Garza of Zapata, Lewis P. Fields of Amarillo, and Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls.

Brown's confirmation followed the apparent dissolving of earlier senate opposition. His appointment was approved yesterday by the nominating committee.

Woman's Murder Trial Postponed

QUITMAN, March 2. (AP)—Trial of Mrs. Jewel Rogers on a charge of murder in the death of Mrs. Viola Gilbreath was postponed yesterday until May 9 because of the illness of the defendant.

The state charged that Mrs. Rogers forced Mrs. Gilbreath to take strychnine at the point of a gun after the two women had a fight on a Mineola Street on Jan. 8. Mrs. Gilbreath died in a Mineola hospital.

Money Approved For Tidelands Battle

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—The House today approved a $100,000 appropriation for the attorney general's department to back up Texas' defenses in the tidelands fight.

Rep. William S. Jameson of El Paso said the money would be used to hire attorneys to do research work "from 1836 up to now" on Texas' claims to the tidelands.

Nearly $3,000 For Red Cross

New reports from volunteer workers stimulated Red Cross roll call tabulations this morning as receipts neared the $3,000 mark.

The total had reached $2,949 shortly before noon and other reports were expected during the lunch hour.

Most of the increase came from the business employe's canvass. Initial reports from that division were made Wednesday, and the volume had increased substantially today. Work in the employe's division probably will continue for several days, since some businesses have planned to solicit contributions from their personnel on varying schedules.

Campaign officials were encouraged over today's reports, however. So long as there is evidence that contact work is being accomplished, they felt that progress would be made on the overall campaign.

COMMITTEE TAKES ACTION

15-Month Extension Of Rental Controls

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—The House banking committee voted 23 to 2 today to extend rent controls for 15 months, rejecting an administration request for a 24 months' continuation.

The controls expire March 31, unless renewed.

The committee also: 1. Turned down an administration proposal to impose fines up to $5,000 and imprisonment up to one year for landlords willfully violating rent ceilings. 2. Rejected an amendment by

The thrill of the history-making non-stop flight around the world has made a direct connection with Big Spring.

One of the crewmen on the now-famous Lucky Lady II—Staff Sgt. Robert R. McLeroy—is a brother of a Big Spring resident, Mrs. Henry (Kay) Bugg.

Mrs. Bugg talked Wednesday night with her brother, who was at the home of his father, W. R. McLeroy, at Alvarado.

"He thought it all was pretty wonderful, but said he was very tired," Mrs. Bugg said.

The Big Spring woman had known for a week or so that "something was up." She had talked last week with her brother's wife in Tucson, who reported that the sergeant had been "quarantined" for some special, secret mission. But nobody had any idea what the mission was—until the news broke Wednesday of the completion of the flight.

Sgt. McLeroy was born and went to school in Alvarado. His permanent station is at Tucson, where he is attached to the 63rd Bomb Squadron of the 43rd Bomb Group. His wife and four-month-old son are in Tucson, and he is destined for return there soon.

Sgt. McLeroy first entered the service in July, 1940, served through the war, then after his discharge decided to go back into the Air Forces on a permanent basis.

Mrs. Bugg herself is a service veteran, having served in the WAC during the war. She is an active Legionnaire here.

DEATHLESS DAYS 448 In Big Spring Traffic

Pope Asks American Children To Pray For Unfortunates

NEW YORK, March 3. (AP)—In a special Lenten radio message to American children yesterday, Pope Pius XII urged them to think of their less fortunate brothers and sisters throughout the world. "Think of them first in your Lenten prayers," the Pope said. "Pray that they may be able to receive the same schooling, the same books, pencils, school supplies, food and clothing that you enjoy. Pray that they may be able to have the same things, the same health, the same benefits that you have in America. "Some of them will never again feel the welcome of a mother's kiss, nor see the smile on a father's lips. They need you. They cry for pity from your open hearts and hands."

More than one-third of the accidents each year on American farms occur in the homes.

ONLY FEW MORE WITNESSES

Axis Sally's Treason Trial Moving Into Final Stages

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—The treason trial of Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars moved today toward its final stages. Only a few more witnesses remained to be heard before prosecuting and defense attorneys make their final arguments, and Judge Edward M. Curran instructs the jury on points of law. Attorneys, however, expressed doubt that the case will reach the jury before early next week. James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars' attorney, said he wants about four hours—almost a court day—for his final plea. The chief prosecutor, John M. Kelley, Jr., said his final argument might require three hours. Miss Gillars, alternately sobbing and showing defiance, finished six days on the witness stand yesterday, replying to charges that she committed treason by broadcasting for Germany in wartime. Another defense witness, Erwin Christiani, 44, once Miss Gillars' chief pilot and commander of the B-50 bomber that circled the globe in 94 hours, unfolded the story for his wife. Mrs. Gallagher came here from Tucson, Ariz., with her eight-month-old daughter, Kathleen Anne, to visit an uncle during the carnival. She said she was holding Kathleen when the phone rang. "What are you doing, honey?" Came her husband's happy voice. "Oh, I'm getting ready to have the baby's picture made," she replied. And he said, "Well, I just had my picture made." That's how he broke the news of the flying feat.

WORLD-CIRCLING PILOT'S WIFE WONDERED WHERE HE GOT THE GAS

NEW ORLEANS, March 3. (AP)—How could he fly non-stop around the world without stopping for gas was what Mrs. Jimmy Gallagher told her of his record making flight. Capt. Gallagher called his wife wanted to know when her husband here from Fort Worth after he and the crew of the Lucky Lady, the now-historic plane, landed in Fort Worth, and informed her why he had missed their vacation together. They had planned a joint Mardi Gras holiday. "I just flew around the world non-stop," he told his pretty wife. "How could you do that, silly, without any place to fill up on gas?" she questioned. Gallagher, of Melrose, Minn.

Immediate superior on the German radio, also finished his testimony. Prosecutor Kelley and the gray-haired, Maine-born defendant clashed repeatedly. "Is that the only kind of attack that you have, Mr. Kelley?" she asked at one point. Kelley had been insisting that she answer his questions about the late Professor Max Otto Koischwitz. Miss Gillars had testified that they vowed their love for each other in the spring of 1943. Miss Gillars, in reply to a question by Kelley, said she didn't know at the time that Mrs. Koischwitz was pregnant. Mrs. Koischwitz was killed in the summer when a bomb struck a hospital where she had gone to bear her fourth child. Laughlin said this line of questioning was designed only to prejudice the defendant. Judge Curran then cut it off.

Bulgaria Trial Is In Recess

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 3. (AP)—A court recess for Bulgaria's independence day interrupted the trial of 15 Protestant pastors on treason charges today.

Prosecution and defense summations begin tomorrow after the conclusion yesterday of defense testimony highlighted by an effort of a former foreign minister to win alleviation of the possible penalty for the Rev. Vassil Ziapkov, chief defendant.

Georgi Khilchev, the former minister, testified that contrary to previous evidence Ziapkov was not an official member of the Bulgarian delegation to the Paris peace conference in 1946. The prosecution alleged that Ziapkov gave information to western delegations at the conference.

Bulgarian law provides the death penalty for divulging official secret information. Should the defense claim that Ziapkov was only a private member of the delegation he upheld in the court it might lighten the sentence if he is convicted. The court's decision in the case may be reached Monday.

Easing Of Installment Terms Greeted As Stimulus To Many Types Of Sales

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—Many lawmakers today welcomed as a boon to business a government order permitting smaller monthly installments on a list of items ranging from cook stoves to automobiles.

The Federal Reserve Board's action also was warmly greeted by the automobile industry, which saw in the move a possible lift to lagging car sales.

However, Edgar Kaiser, general manager of the Kaiser-Frazier Corp., said, "It is not enough," and a similar sentiment was expressed by Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), who has been demanding an extensive easing of curbs on credit buying. The board's order was issued last night on the heels of its report that installment credit outstanding had dropped in January for the first time in three years. The order becomes effective Monday. It affects these consumer items now under "anti-inflation" controls:

Cook stoves, dishwashers, irons, refrigerators, washing machines, automobiles, air conditioners, radio and television sets, phonographs, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, furniture and rugs.

This is what the reserve board order does:

1. Reduces the down payment for all the controlled items, except automobiles, to 15 per cent, from the present 20 per cent. The down payment for autos will remain at one-third of the total price.
2. Allows 21 months to pay off the balance due after the cash payment on all items. The time limit in force now is 18 months where the credit amount is more than $1,000, or 15 months when it is less than $1,000.

The action followed by only a few hours the board's report on installment figures for January.

The general drop for that month was $145 million, although credit on automobiles increased $14 million. Total consumer credit on Jan. 31 amounted to $8,051,000,000.

Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee, called the board's action "a clear illustration of the wise exercise of government controls" and "a step that will tend to promote the distribution of inventories."

Hungarian Trial In Short Recess Until Saturday

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 3. (AP)—Trial of 14 persons charged with aiding Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in alleged black market money dealings will resume Saturday after a two-day recess.

Final statements of the accused are expected to be completed when the people's court reconvenes. Msgr. Imre Bokai, once treasurer for Cardinal Mindszenty, told the court in his "last words" yesterday that he was "taken away against my will from the pulpit" to work in the cardinal's office.

Bokai earlier pleaded guilty. In his final appearance he asked for mercy, stating he has a 74-year old mother. He spoke of his love for his church and the people. Cardinal Mindszenty on Feb. 8 was sentenced to life imprisonment for spying, treason and illegal money dealings. The 14 present defendants are charged with being linked with the money transactions and political conspiracy. The cardinal has appealed his sentence.

Among the defendants to appear Saturday are four who previously recanted earlier confessions, charging in court they had been forced by police intimidation.

Zsigmond Deutsch, a broker, who originally implicated these four, repeated yesterday he had done so only in order to get himself freed from a month's solitary confinement. He said he was sorry he "dragged innocent persons" into the case.

And Where Is Smog At Its Worst? In 'Sunny' Southern California!

LOS ANGELES—There is only one place in the world where eye-irritating smog is known to exist as part of the climate.

That unfortunate spot is sunny Southern California and the authority for this grim admission is none other than a Los Angeles County official, Dr. Louis C. McCabe Dr. McCabe, a geologist and former chief of the coal division of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, was brought here to do something about smog.

This smog has Southern California belching from morn until night. The dirty, white, hazy stuff drifts waik-like through the palm trees, city streets and buildings, suburban cottages and mansions. There is no escaping it. Angelenos are driven to distraction as they rub their bleary eyes.

What is smog? What causes it? Why the eye irritation only in the Los Angeles area?

Dr. McCabe, whose official title is director of the Los Angeles County Air Pollution District, has assembled a staff of scientists, engineers, technicians and policemen in an attempt to answer all smog questions and give a remedy to the impatient citizenry.

As to just what smog is, the complete answer will only be known after further research, says the doctor. However, it is known that, in general, it is a mixture of man-made air contamination: made up of fumes, gases and dusts.

Other industrial areas have their so-called smog, but the Los Angeles brand is unique. As Dr. McCabe explained in a recent report:

"In Los Angeles County essentially no coal is burned and smoke from improper oil firing is comparatively rare. . . . Most of the dusts and mists we would control are less than one micron (1-25,400th of an inch) in size. This is largely a new and untried field of control. . . . The problem is not 'black smoke' but 'white' emissions, or more accurately, emissions not visible to the eye."

The unique ingredient in Los Angeles smog which irritates the eyes, nose and throat is a first-class scientific mystery.

Dr. McCabe says industry is the major source of smog. Other sources, in order, are burning dumps, backyard incinerators and vehicle fumes.

The smog expert said the largest industrial source is the oil refineries. This is the second largest oil refining center in the nation (the Jersey City area is first).

McCabe complimented the oil companies for their work in eliminating a considerable amount of sulphur dioxide discharged into the air. He said the companies in this area are spending from $6 million to $7 million to install modern control equipment.

McCabe said the refineries have now eliminated 45 per cent of the sulphur gases and that eventually this will be increased to 90 per cent.

When the air pollution control district began operations last April there were 37 burning dumps in this area. McCabe said all but 15 of them have now been closed.

Los Angeles city has built one modern incinerator, and is planning four more. Several other cities in the county are planning modern incinerators.

Nature also has a hand in the smog plague. Los Angeles has peculiar geographical and weather conditions which act to retain smog after man has made it.

Dr. McCabe explained that Los Angeles and its sister cities are on a coastal plain almost entirely hemmed in by mountains in the background. The prevailing winds blow from the ocean over the cities to the mountains.

In general, the industries of the county are formed in a huge arc following the curved coastline on the west and south of the populated areas. Thus the fumes and smoke are blown into the city areas. In addition the area has a peculiar temperature inversion at times. When this condition prevails there is a strata of warm air hanging over the area. This is like a "tight lid," as McCabe puts it, because the cooler air below is held down and so is the smog.

1,245 Volumes Circulated By County Library

Circulation for the Howard County Free Library during February amounted to 1,245 volumes.

These figures were announced Thursday by Mrs. Benny Collins, librarian, in her monthly summary. The library, she reported, now has 9,237 books for circulation.

New books added to the library amounted to 662 of which 188 were for adults, and 474 for juveniles. This is in keeping with a policy to increase the library stock by about $300 each month.

The library reported 45 adults and 42 juveniles as new patrons during February. Jocile Wheat was added to the staff as assistant librarian.

The library continues to experience some difficulty with overdue books. Mrs. Collins said that 44 books were outstanding from December 1948 and January of this year, and that fines in the amount of $39.89 had accrued on them.

"It would be appreciated if the borrowers who have these records would straighten them out with the librarian," she said. "We do

World Day Of Prayer Proclamation Issued

Designation of Friday as World Day of Prayer in Big Spring was made today by Mayor G. W. Dabney in a proclamation issued on behalf of the Council of Church Women.

The mayor took note that "from the foundation of the American republic our forefathers, whatever their creed, or condition, or race, or nation of origin, have been wont to turn to the God of the Universe for guidance and blessing; and the founders of Big Spring early built their homes of worship; and God has signally blessed our people whenever they have called upon Him and followed Him."

He added that "men of all faiths today realize that only Divine wisdom and the following of God's commandments can help our people and the world in the bewildering and turmoil of these post-war years," and that the Council of Church Women in Big Spring were uniting with similar groups across the land in a day of prayer to ask for divine guidance for themselves and all mankind to give plenty to others as a token of brotherhood and gratitude."

In this spirit, said Mayor Dabney, "I therefore do proclaim Friday, March 4, 1949 A. D., a Day of Prayer in Big Spring and to call upon all of our citizens to give reverent attention to the purposes of the observance, to offer their own prayers and petitions to and who have been recently working with the migrants in McAllen, will serve as guest speakers. They will tell of their work with the migrants and will display equipment used in the missionary field.

Buddy Vance Lebkowsky has returned from a trip to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. There will be a regular meeting at the clubhouse at 8:00 p. m. Thursday. Buddies Darrell Webb and Clark Sundry were home for the weekend. They are attending Tech at Lubbock. Here is a partial list of new members who have joined the Legion: Buddies Alvin T. Boren, Leo H. Childress, Elmer V. Giles, Martin J. Howard, Elmer N. Hurst, Willis R. Loving, James H. Miller, Merfice H. Munn, Orville L. Penick, Ed A. Savage, J. B. Snider, Harry J. King, Wayne W. Allen, Richard F. Phillips and Everett V. Wegman. We had to get a larger jar for the door prize capsules, and Commander Neel Barnaby tells us our membership quota is now in sight, incidentally our quota has been set at 538 members. Well Buddies, the pot grows larger each week and Buddy William E. Townsley missed his call last Thursday evening at a social. The flags were at half mast twice this week. Buddy D. L. (Les) Massey and Buddy Richard K. Hornbeck, both veterans of World War I were interred with Legion honors in the local cemetery. Buddy Rev. J. S. Parks our chaplain, is out of town on business this week. Buddy Harry King will offer a class of square dancing lessons to Legionnaires. We will hear more about this Thursday night. The Barn Dance last Saturday evening sure "hit the spot" and we have had many expressions of approval and requests for more of this type of entertainment. The Knights of Pythias program of typing blood of everyone in the community has recently had a transmission and certainly has our number one endorsement, keep up the good work.

Accused Slayers May Have To Face Charges In N. York

GRANDRAPIDS, Mich., March 3. — The shadow of New York's electric chair lay today at the jail cell door here of Raymond Martinez Fernandez and Martha Beck.

It remained to be determined, however, whether the two alleged "lonely hearts" killers would face justice in Michigan or the eastern state.

In Michigan the pair are charged with two murders. Authorities say they have admitted a third in New York.

Hawaiian-born Fernandez, 34, and stout Mrs. Beck, 29, waived examination in a lower Michigan court yesterday and were held without bond.

The possibility existed that they might be extradited to New York.

which has capital punishment. Michigan's legislature only yesterday rejected a capital punishment bill, and life imprisonment remains the extreme penalty in this state.

The Michigan charges against Fernandez and Mrs. Beck are based on the shooting of widowed Mrs. Delphine Downing, 29, and the drowning of her 21-month-old daughter, Rainell.

Prosecutor Roger C. McMahon said the pair also have admitted killing Mrs. Janet Fay in New York.

All three slayings, McMahon said, were committed to cover up frauds by the swarthy Fernandez and bulky Mrs. Beck in preying on lovers' women.

New York state officers consulted with Kent County officials today over future action.

Dist. Atty. James N. Gehring of New York's Nassau County said he would ask a grand jury for a first degree murder indictment in Mrs. Fay's death.

New York, he added, then would ask custody of Fernandez and Mrs. Beck if Michigan had no objections.

Ignition Clinic For Mechanics Slated Friday

CARROLL CANNING

Automobile mechanics in this community and the surrounding territory will have an opportunity to attend a clinic on all phases and problems of ignition to be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Marvin Wood Pontiac company, 504 East Third.

An invitation for all mechanics to attend has been issued by the Motor Inn Auto Supply and Walker Auto Parts companies, who are sponsoring the clinic in cooperation with Standard Motor Products, Inc., of Long Island City, New York, manufacturers of automotive electrical parts and devices.

The session will be conducted by Carroll Canning, field engineer of Standard Motor Products. The lecture, which will be illustrated by a film in color, will deal with the "whys and hows of voltage to test regulators and generators, and how to adjust after testing; how coils are built and why; how condensers are built and why; their operation and testing; and too, an analysis of the ignition distributor, and how points should be installed and adjusted according to cam angle. After the lecture a roundtable will be devoted to questions and answers, and to any special problems the mechanics may have.

Movie To Be Friday
Free movies will be projected to the public at the Community Center (the old Day nursery) Friday evening at 7:30 p. m.

"Alaska's Millions" is the name of the featured film and various cartoons will be shown under the sponsorship of the First Methodist church.

Hearing Set On Repeal Of Labor Statute

WASHINGTON, March 3. — A House labor subcommittee will start public hearings Monday on the administration's bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act.

Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich.) of the labor committee said the smaller group, headed by Rep. Kelley (D-Pa.), will call Labor Department witnesses for opening testimony.

The full committee will meet tomorrow to complete writing its minimum wage bill with the idea being to have it ready for floor action next week.

Lesinski predicted the committee will approve raising the minimum wage from its present 40 cents an hour to 75. This was pledged in the Democratic Party's national platform last fall.

The committee has decided to split the difference with the administration on its recommendation for extending coverage of the law to some retail business, he added. All retail business is now exempt.

The bill probably will include retail stores doing a gross business of $500,000 or more a year, Lesinski said.

The administration had suggested including also any retail chain having more than four stores, but Lesinski said "the retail chain thing is out."

CAMP NOTES

DiMag Returns To Yank Camp

NEW YORK, March 3. — Joe DiMaggio and his aching heel headed back to the New York Yankees training camp today after a quick visit to his Baltimore doctor.

The verdict: He's okay. No medical attention required.

The right heel, from which a bone spur was removed last fall, healed up after the Yankee Clipper's first workout Tuesday. Taking no chances with their star, the Yankees sent him winging back to Dr. George Bennett.

Les Fleming, Pittsburgh infielder, signed his contract. All of the Pirates now have agreed to terms. Eddie Stanky agreed to the Boston Braves' offer leaving the National League champions with four on the unsatisfied list. Andy Seminick, Philadelphia catcher, signed and cut the Phils' holdouts to two.

With intra-squad games scheduled for this weekend in many camps, the managers stepped up drills and will continue to increase the pace. Warm weather returned to the Florida camps which had opened Tuesday with the thermometer in the 50's.

The World Champion Cleveland Indians began twice-a-day drills. Observers at the New York Giants' Phoenix camp got spring fever and started comparing rookie pitcher Ted Heitschmidt with Bobby Feller. Brooklyns split its squad into four units with camp games due to start Saturday. Detroit, which has yet to hold batting practice, will work on hitting today.

Missing B-29 Plane That Refueled Globe-Circler Over The Philippines

MANILA, March 3. — Air Force officials revealed today that a B-29 missing in northern Luzon was one of the tanker planes that refueled the globe circling Lucky Lady II on its historic flight around the world.

Brig. Gen. Jaro V. Crabb, commander of the fighter wing at Clark Air Base, said the missing B-29 with its crew of nine, met and refueled the world circling B-50 but failed to get back here.

It was reported last about 90 miles from Clark Air Base.

Search for the missing craft today shifted from the vicinity of the rugged, unexplored mountains of northwestern Luzon to the Baler Bay area on the northeastern shore.

Witnesses reported to the Clark Air Base that a B-29 flying at a low altitude was seen in that area a few hours after the air refueling of the Lucky Lady on Tuesday.

All available aircraft were pressed into the search for the missing B-29. The Sierra Madre Mountain range was being searched also.

General Crabb said the B-29 escorted the Lucky Lady II out over the Pacific after the refueling. Communications between the B-50 and the B-29 were maintained for sometime, the general said.

Gen. Crabb said he was particularly impressed with "how routine it all was. No fanfare. Nothing out of the ordinary."

He added, "A lot of people here didn't know it was going on."

The B-30 was expected back at Clark Field at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The Sierra Madre peaks were obscured by clouds at that time. It is feared the plane smashed into one of them.

Division Of Judicial District Not Only Proper, But Necessary

Division of the 70th judicial district is before the legislature for consideration. Rep. Peppy Blount introduced a measure a fortnight ago which would place Howard Martin and Glasscock in a district (the 131st) and reduce the 70th to Midland and Ector (with the possibility of Andrews being added). This week a similar bill was put to the senate.

The Blount bill was prompted by the Howard County Bar association. Attorneys know that the docket of the 70th court has become so heavy that it is virtually impossible for one man to hear all the cases with ordinary dispatch.

A lesser man than Judge Cecil Collins, who last year was promoted to the appellate bench, would have been unable to carry the load or would have buckled under it. Judge Paul Moss has been confronted with an over-powering situation in succeeding to the bench, for he is obliged to hop almost constantly from one point to the other.

There are sound reasons for a division of the district. One is the extraordinary growth in population, particularly in Odessa and in a lesser sense in Midland. While Howard county has not matched the population gains, it has more than matched gains in litigation before the court. The growth of the docket here would be within itself ample reason for revision of the district, let alone the expansion on the western end. Relief is not only proper, it almost is imperative.

Our Age One Of Unprecedented Wonders Beyond Our Grasp

We live in an age of wonders. Little more than 20 years ago the world was thrown into a state of wild excitement by the non-stop flight of Charles Lindbergh from New York to Paris. This feat captured the imagination of the people as nothing else has done within our generation.

Since then several flights have encompassed the globe but none of them stirred the public to such demonstrations as the hop by the Spirit of St. Louis. Wednesday a B-50 bomber touched its wheels to its base field at Fort Worth after making the first non-stop flight in history around the world. It was a big story, one of the biggest of our times, and yet the popular reaction hardly bordered an amazement.

This all goes to show that we are moving in such a rapidly changing age that even the achievement of the impossible elicits no great excitement. People seem to accept the fact that, as some one has so aptly put it, "that which is difficult can be done today; that which is impossible can be done tomorrow."

Just the other day a double-barreled rocket, a rocket within a rocket, achieved the staggering altitude of 250 miles. Only a short time ago this would have been the wildest sort of imagination. Instead of talking of nothing beside this, the popular mind is dwelling on the possibility or rocket expeditions to the moon or war department dreams of man-made moon bases above the stratosphere.

There was never a time in history when so many fantasies were made realities. The big fly in the ointment is knowing what to do with the things we conjure.

India's Steadiness In A Crisis Encouraging News From East

THE YOUNG GOVERNMENT OF THE Great Dominion of India, headed by Prime Minister Nehru, has encountered the first major attempt to incite rebellion against it—and is able to announce that it has countered the plot.

India's steadiness in this trial by fire is a notable development in an Asia which is seething with civil war and rebellions. Were revolution to grip the dominion's 300 millions, it would create a new and terrible threat to world peace.

Nehru accuses communist elements of "murder, arson, looting, and sabotage" in an effort to precipitate a revolt. However, he says these terrorist activities have been localized by strong government action, and because the Indian people backed his government. There have been many arrests. Referring to Red revolts in neighboring countries, the prime minister says:

"IT PRESUMABLY IS IN FURTHERANCE of this same policy that attempts were made in India to incite the people to native revolt."

Nehru charges that this violence is the work of a revolutionary group which broke away from the original Communist party of India, "but collaborates with it on occasion." He says the government has refrained from acting against the Communist party as a whole, "despite virulent propaganda and incitement to violence." He explains that the government policy is to act only against "erring elements of an organization."

Nehru brings out the highly interesting point that the numerical strength of Communism in India is small, although the exact membership isn't known. When I last was in India in 1943 the total number of Communists was estimated at only about 8,000, although they had secured control of some important trade unions.

HOWEVER, THAT FIGURE CAN'T BE taken as a gauge, because it was only a few months prior to this that the government had lifted an eight year ban on Communism. This ban had grown out of the notorious Meerut conspiracy trials in which 28 Indian labor leaders and three English Communists were accused of plotting to overthrow the government.

With the whole world watching, the cases dragged on for more than four years. Twenty-seven of the accused were convicted and given various sentences. A number of them testified that they were out to overthrow capitalistic governments, no matter who backed them.

Of course revolutionary activities are nothing new in India, for there always has been sedition back through the centuries. When I first went there in 1916 I found the British had one of the most comprehensive secret-service networks in existence.

IT ISN'T SURPRISING TO HEAR NEHRU say Communism isn't widespread in India. That country is intense in its nationalism—the antithesis of totalitarian Communism—and this in itself would tend to prevent the spread of the Redism. The general attitude of thinking people is that, having got rid of British control, they aren't going to saddle themselves with any other.

Then there may be another deterrent to the wholesale spread of Communism in India. Most of the people are intensely religious (the same is true of the neighboring Moslem dominion of Pakistan) and Communism is militantly atheistic.

All these circumstances are especially interesting in view of the fact that India, under the brilliant Nehru, is making a powerful bid for the leadership of the great Asiatic bloc of nations.

A strong and steady India can exert a great influence for world peace.

Today And Tomorrow—Walter Lippmann

National Problem: A Moderate Recession, Or Boom And Bust

In the struggle which President Truman has chosen to precipitate in the Eighty-first Congress much more is at stake than whether all his campaign promises can be carried out right away. There is at stake the power of the government to manage the recession in business.

There is a very considerable risk that in his effort to break down the opposition and obstruction to his legislative program, he will lose control—to all kinds of pressure groups and special interests—over the very delicate and difficult business of deciding how far to permit the disinflation to run and when to intervene so as to prevent a severe depression.

The present recession would almost certainly have come sooner and have been less severe had the Eighty-first Congress not insisted on reducing taxes before election. For if the higher taxes had been retained, the inflation would have been checked sooner—the rise in prices would not have been so great and the decline would not now have to be so big, and so costly to those who must liquidate. If the tax reduction had not been applied when the boom was booming, it could now be applied in order to moderate the recession.

This illustrates the problem: It shows how in the Eighty-first Congress, which the President could not control, an opportunity was lost to manage the economy. The Congress insisted on more inflation at a time when the best interests of the country called for a modern and relatively painless policy of disinflation.

Now at the present time the disinflation, which was postponed, is taking place. There are unmistakable signs that the people cannot or will not buy all the goods produced at the higher prices, and that therefore prices must fall if demand and supply are to come into balance again. This is the "healthy readjustment" that everyone is talking about. Obviously it needs very careful watching. For while prices ought still to come down, they ought not to be pushed down suddenly and brutally, as they would be by raising taxes now or by imposing additional restrictions on credit.

The main need is, therefore, to wait, but fully alerted—not to aggravate the disinflation and yet not to arrest it too soon—and to be ready to act when prices are in better balance but before unemployment has become larger than is unavoidable in the liquidation that is inevitable. That point would probably be reached when the cost of living had come down say ten per cent and unemployment was approaching say seven per cent. Exactness and perfect certainty in matters of this kind are impossible. But statesmen have to have some practical working rule, and these figures are in the judgment of those I think best qualified to judge a reasonable measure.

For Mr. Truman and his Administration, and for the country, the real question is whether the fulfillment of his campaign pledges must mean the loss of his power to steer the country through a moderate recession, away from a prolonged boom and its inevitable consequence, a big bust. That is what is at stake in his decision to fight Congress rather than to persuade and to lead it. That is why his post-election mood, that of the inflexible Wednesday Truman, is not one to bring confidence

"WHERE DO YOU-ALL GET THAT 'WE-ALL' STUFF?"

Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Mr. Truman's Appellation Accepted As Meaning 'Servant Of Brotherhood'

WASHINGTON — It's funny how, when you make a promise to your wife, something always happens so you can't keep it.

Last week while riding home from California, I made a lot of promises first to myself, and later to the little woman about spending more time at home, seeing more of my family, and taking a good rest on the farm. I had had enough of international good will, I told myself. And after I got caught up with a big pile of mail and wrote letters to the heads of the railroads, and a raft of governors, mayors and other folks who had been extremely nice, I would take Mrs. P. away for the little rest but somehow never seemed to manage.

So, filled with all these good thoughts, I got home and began to put them into operation right away. Mrs. P. looked dubious at first, but then she almost began to believe me. For I did a very revolutionary thing. I turned off the telephone.

MR. TRUMAN'S LEMON When I was a youngster I had a prof named Edwin Tomlinson who used to hand out a lot of advice which I didn't pay much attention to them, but which has proved valuable since. One thing he advised was: "If someone hands you a lemon, make it into lemonade."

That's what I'd like to do with the lemon President Truman handed me the other night. I don't see any reason why the initials "S.O.B." should necessarily stand for what Mr. Truman meant them to mean. The meaning of any word is what's in people's minds. Some English words are fighting in England though they have an innocent meaning here. When I was in Australia some years ago I was shocked to hear an Australian girl use a word which never would be tolerated you," they said, "but you were 'Oh,' I replied.

Since I'm supposed to be a tough, thick-skinned newspaperman, I didn't tell them that I was sitting at home listening to their ring and trying to be brave enough not to answer it.

After that the phone just kept on ringing, and has kept on ringing every day since. I haven't written all those letters thanking the folks who were nice to me, and I haven't taken the vacation with Mrs. P. In fact, I'm a little surprised that she's still speaking to me.

"Of course," I was mean enough to tell her, "it's all your fault. You elected him. You were the one who was rooting for him. And if he disrupts our evening and our vacation, then it's your fault, not mine. After all, you were the one who put him in the White House."

HOLLYWOOD — "Now," said Claudette Colbert as she faced the prospect of being swamped by a wagonload of fish. "I've done everything."

"Everything," she continued, "except hang by my heels from a building. And don't tell that to the producers of this picture or they'll have me doing it."

The picture is "Love Is Big Business." In it, she will use jiu-jitsu to toss Robert Young into a pile of fish, then get undated herself by the mass of mackerel. She will also have Max Baer tossed into her lap at a wrestling match and consume a cocktail bubbling with dry ice.

Such indignities no longer bother glamorous Colbert. She'll do anything for a laugh—and several thousand dollars weekly.

In "No Time For Love" she made love to Fred McMurray while waist deep in mud. She also got covered with the slop in her rural epic, "The Egg and I." "Mud I don't mind," she says, "but mud mixed with pig!"

For "Cleopatra," she was followed at close range by a snarling leopard. She dodged bombs and fire in "So Proudly We Hail" and was knocked out when her helmet tapped the floor. In

'Queen's Week' For School Lads Was Not Period Of Gentility

It hasn't been so many years ago that the boys in the classes at high school here paired off for a round of undecorated war referred to as "Queen's Week."

It usually came between athletic seasons—there was no baseball and very little track for the preps then—and served, more than anything else, to expend some of the vast energy wound up in a boy of school age.

Why it was called "Queen's Week" no one seemed to know exactly. It seemed that somewhere in the distant past the students had campaigned to have the fairest lass in their class crowned "queen" of the school but there was never any established method for choosing her, unless you counted the black eyes and the blue spots on the bodies of the combatants in the skirmishes which occurred.

At any rate, the seniors always teamed with the sophomores and the juniors with the freshmen. It wasn't safe to go about by one's self, especially after darkness had fallen, for classmen roamed the streets in packs in search of game.

If you were unlucky enough to be flushed by the opposition, and that fell the writer's fault on two different occasions, your lot was not a happy one. First, you were padded by your captors and in such a way that you cared little for sitting for days.

Next, you got a ride—a one-way trip into some remote spot in the county. That is to say, you rode out and walked in. You usually were in no mood for any further brushes with the enemy by the time you had hoofed it back to town.

Major battles were no exception. Sometimes, leaders of the factions rallied all their forces about them and baited the opposition into battle. One of the biggest such skirmishes took place on the court house lawn and it looked for a while as if the militia would have to be called out to restore order. Luckily, there were no broken heads although one intrepid adventurer got stranded on the highest limb of the tallest tree on the civic square and was bombarded with over-price eggs and mellowed fruit.

His mission was to fly the flag of his class from a point where it could not be touched. It took a beating, too, thanks to the accurate arms of some of the lad's antagonists.

School officials did their best to stop the annual event and turn the boys' attentions to gentler pursuits. Apparently they succeeded. "Queen's Week" became nothing but a legend in time.—TOMMY HART

Tom Carson Of Klondike Career Finds Civilization A Bit Tame

By GEORGE TUCKER
(For Hal Boyle, who is vacationing)
NEW YORK—TOM CARSON KNOWS Klondike history, several hundred funny stories and whisky.

He learned these the hard way, at first hand.

When he was younger, he landed a raft near Dawson City, Alaska, and started digging.

That was in 1899, a year after the Klondike was discovered.

Today, 50 years later, Tom Carson is back in New York—and sorry for it.

"I came east to visit my niece," he said. "She's a fine woman—but I ought never to have come."

He said his niece and her husband lived in a little town about 40 miles up the Hudson.

"They mean well," he went on. "But their idea of a big night is to turn on the radio, mix a pitcher of lemonade, and go to bed. I couldn't stand it."

"I SLIPPED AWAY WITHOUT TELLING anybody where I was going. I came here, and found a wonderful bar, and spent four days there. I cashed all my travelers checks and wound up busted. Then I called Ida—that's my niece—and asked her to wire me some money. She said she wouldn't do it. She said I'd spend it all and they'd never see me until I was busted. But she's driving down tonight with her husband to pick me up. They'll be here between 5:30 and 6."

For this reason, Carson said, he just had to have a small loan until they got here. "To get a meal, and tidy up," he said.

"If you'll let me have it," he went on, "you can have it back first thing in the morning. I'll put it in an envelope and slip it under this door, and you'll find it here."

Carson, at 75, is a bird-like little man whose shirt hangs on him like blistered wallpaper. His Adam's apple flutters like a stricken dove. On and on his voice runs, like Tennyson's brook, until it drowns you in a wave of anecdotes, dates, names, and places.

"I saw the fight that Rex Beach made famous in his novel, 'The Spoilers'... I lost my gear on Chilkoot Pass... I knew Klondike Kate..."

AFTER REACHING THE KLONDIKE, Carson dug gold until his hands blistered. While waiting for the blisters to heal he visited the M&M Saloon. There he met Jack London, Tex Rickard, Robert W. Service, and so many other interesting people that he abandoned prospecting and drank his way through 50 years of insolvency, warm in the memory of his celebrated friends.

After the gold camps dried up and the big cities came, Tom Carson settled in Nome. The bars were good. The years passed. Then, one day, came that unaccountable decision to visit his niece... I know what you're thinking. You're wondering if Tom Carson came back and slipped that envelope under the door.

Yes, he did.

Claim All Exemptions You Can In Making Out That Tax Return

WASHINGTON, D.C.—CLAIM all the exemptions you can in filing your 1948 income tax return. You'll save money.

You can get $600 for each exemption—from your total income before what's left is taxed. You get a $600 exemption for:

1. Yourself, always whether single or married, then you file a return.
2. Your wife, if she had no income or files a return jointly with you.
3. Each dependent.

A word on exemptions for husbands and wives: When a wife has no income of her own, no matter how small, no exemption can be claimed for her unless she files her own return, separately or jointly with her husband.

REMEMBER: A WIFE IS NOT CLASSIFIED as a dependent. That's why the rules covering exemptions for dependents are a little different.

A dependent is any close relative of any age—age doesn't count—who got more than half his support from you in 1948 and had less than $500 income of his own. You can still claim the full $600 exemption for an independent even though he turned over to you his less-than-$500 income. And you don't have to report that income of his.

But—you can't claim as a dependent anyone who had $500 or more income even though he had more than half his support from you.

And note this, because it's a silly spot in the law. A person who had $600 or more income, must file his own return and claim his own $600 exemption.

If he had less than $600 exemption he doesn't have to file a return. But—a person who had $500 or more income, even though less than $600, can't be claimed as a dependent. He's in a kind of no-man's land.

BESIDES THE USUAL $600 EXEMPTION you get for a wife, you get an extra $600 for her if she is blind, plus another $600 if she reached 65 on or before (but not after) Dec. 31, 1948.

But you get only the usual $600 exemption for a dependent, and nothing extra if he is blind or over 65.

These are the close relatives you can claim as dependents:

Your child or grandchild; a stepchild but not his children; a legally adopted child; a brother, sister, step-brother, step-

AND—YOU CAN CLAIM AS A DEPENDENT for the full year a child born to you anytime in 1948 even though it died a moment after birth. If it was born alive, you can claim it as a dependent. You can't claim an unborn child or one born dead.

What of some other dependent who died during 1948; you can claim a full exemption for him, even though he died on Jan. 1, 1948, so long as he was truly a dependent during the part of the year he was alive.

You don't have to do any arithmetic with $600 exemptions if you use Form 1040A or the 1040 short form. They're all figured in the tax table used with those forms. You simply note in the proper place that you're claiming so many exemptions.

In using the long-form, you subtract your total exemptions from your income before applying the tax to what's left of the income.

Bronc Rookies Will Report On March 21

Some 15 Due To Be Here

Pat Stasey, field manager of the Big Spring Broncs, announced Wednesday he would institute spring baseball workouts at Steer park Monday, March 21.

Stasey said approximately 15 rookies from throughout the state will attend the sessions. He leaves with Club President Al Atton on April 1 for Miami, Fla., where he will greet the Cuban element of the team and is lining up an exhibition tour for the Hooses on the way back here.

Part of the rookie crop due to report here two weeks from Monday have been signed by Stasey himself. Others were attracted by Joe Cambria, Washington scout. All, of course, are American boys.

Cement was poured on an addition to the runway under the stands at Steer park Wednesday. The cement will provide a floor for the new concessions booth, to be located on the south side of the main entrance.

In addition, concrete workers poured steps for entrances to both dugouts. Players found it difficult to get into the dugouts last year because there were no steps. Atton said the depression in left field would be filled in "as soon as State street is paved" but he did not know when that would be. The dirt taken from excavation of the street will be deposited in the park.

Cabbies Defeated By Griffin Nash

Yellow Cab failed to match strokes with Griffin Nash and a handicap and lost two of three games of their Automotive Bowling league test here Tuesday night. The Cabbies rallied in the third collision to win by 22 pins, despite the 86 pins they spotted the other team.

In other matches, McEwen Motor edged McDonald Motor in all three games while Jones Motor came back after a shaky start to nudge Marvin Hull Motor company in two of three starts.

Robertson of Jones Motor picked up a 536 aggregate for the top score of the evening.

Looking 'Em Over

by Tommy Hart

As good as the first line of the Howard County Junior college is, it might be better if (1) there were someone on the squad to make the "big four" on the team—Del Turner, Don Clark, Bill Fletcher and Hoss Rankin—hustle to hold their jobs, and (2) the officiating at their home games hadn't been so lax.

With all due respect to the hard-working arbiters who called the games for the Jayhawks here, they weren't quick enough on the whistle. The result showed up in the game against Henderson in the State tournament at College Station Tuesday, when three of the regulars—Turner, Clark and Frank Dunn—fouled out and two others—Rankin and John Lewis—were hobbled with four penalties each.

The Jays committed 28 fouls to 18 for Henderson.

HAROLD DAVIS WORKING TOWARD 1949-50 TEAM
Coach Harold Davis isn't letting grass grow under his feet in thinking about next year's HCJC team, when he must build without Rankin and Clark. When he visited Lamesa the other day, he got big Leon Blair off to one side and told him about the advantage of coming to school here. The 6-foot-5 lad seemed receptive.

Davis later got around to the Bowie bench and chatted with the Bear coach, who said his lads are interested in attending HCJC.

PUBLICATION OVERLOOKS SOUTHWEST CAGE STARS
Just as they used to be in football, the athletes of the great Southwest are being snubbed when it comes time to pick all-star basketball squads.

The All-Sports News, which is fathered by the baseball bible, the Sporting News, selected five All-American basketball teams recently. Only Slater Martin of Texas university rated a mention and he edged onto the fifth team.

Alex Groza, Kentucky; Tony Lavell, Yale; Ed Macealey, St. Louis; Vern Gardner, Utah; and Ernie Vandeweghe, Colgate, were named to the first squad.

Bob Harris of Oklahoma A & M was selected for the second five along with Vince Boryla, Denver; Paul Walthers, Tennessee; Wah-Wah Jones, Kentucky; and Bob Cousy, Holy Cross.

The All-Sports News for this week also blossoms out with quite a story on the All-America Redheads, who put in here last week to play the ABC Club.

One of the girls, Peaches Hatcher, is a professional model in New Orleans during the off season, by the way.

LUBBOCK SHOULD BE FOOTBALL FAVORITE IN 3AA
Lubbock, not Odessa, is liable to be the favorite in the District 3AA football race next fall.

Coach Pat Pattison will be greeted by eight returning regulars and is supposed to be loaded for bear. Only two of the Broncs who were regulars in 1948 will return.

AUSTIN COLLEGE PAYING MORRISON ONLY $5,000
It can now be told that Austin college is paying Ray Morrison, their new football coach, but $5,000 a year. The rest of the stipend, what ever it amounts to, is being made up by business men of Sherman and Austin alumni. It is estimated his salary runs into five figures.

HCJC Hawks Move Into S'finals Of Consolation Bracket At A&M

COLLEGE STATION, March 3.—Howard County Junior college was to meet the Amarillo Badgers, old enemies, in the semi-finals of the consolation bracket of the State Junior college basketball tournament at 1 p. m. here today.

The Jayhawks won the right to continue in the meet by their 51-50 victory over the Wharton county team here Wednesday afternoon.

In the first round, HCJC had been turned back by Henderson, 60-53. Amarillo and HCJC have met twice before this season and both times the Badgers have come out on top, though by narrow margins.

The Wharton-HCJC game was nip and tuck all the way with neither team able to work away to more than a five-point margin. Wharton took an early 9-4 lead but the Big Spring team narrowed the difference and just before the half went ahead, 22-21.

When the last two minutes of the game began to fade away, HCJC had an apparently safe 49-44 lead but the South Texans narrowed it to 49-48 with 29 seconds left. Gil Barnett dribbled under the basket and sank a shot to give the Jayhawks a 51-48 advantage. Wharton's Harry Landers sank a lone one as the time of the game ran out to end the game at 51-50.

Don Clark of the winners topped the scorers with 14 points. Bill Fletcher added ten points to bring his tournament total up to 30. Tommy Irvin led the Wharton scorers with 13 points.

Horace Rankin of HCJC injured an ankle in the Wharton game but Coach Harold Davis expected him to be ready for the game with Amarillo.

In the championship bracket Tyler, Lon Morris, Lamar and Allen Academy won semi-final berths.

Tyler smothered Clifton, 83-38; Lon Morris edged San Angelo, 46-44; Lamar throttled Henderson, 66-63; and Allen Academy swept Schreiner, 64-63.

TOP LURE Webber Booked For Engagement Here Monday

Wrestling Promoter Pat O'Dowdy would like to pull a "Gabe Heatter" and tell the world "there's good news tonight."

O'Dowdy has at long last signed Vic Webber, the handsome New York blond, for an appearance here. Victor comes here Monday night to do battle with George Overhuls of Amarillo in the feature match.

Many a local grapple fan will remember Webber. He is undoubtedly most popular wrestler ever to appear in a local ring, a colorful fellow who used to pack Herman Fuhrer's club to the rafters in the late '30's.

Webb suffered a serious injury during the early days of the war and only recently attained top wrestling shape. He didn't want to return here, he insisted, until he attained that shape.

Cotton Mize will toe the rubber for the Merchants. Others on the Merchants' roster include Red Harrison, Noel Hull, Ted Gross and Ben Kirkland.

The team has staged several workouts and will drill again this evening at the park.

Curtis Rasberry and Martin Fryer have also been working out with the fisticuffs and may see action.

Sports In Brief

BASEBALL
BALTIMORE—Joe DiMaggio, the Yankees' $90,000-a-year outfielder, was told he could return to training camp after Dr. George Bennett, examining an ailing right heel of player, said it was only a "flareup."

SARASOTA, Fla.—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler said he would conduct a hearing on the dispute between the St. Louis Cardinals and Browns over Sportsman's Park, which Browns have asked Cards to vacate. He also plans a hearing Friday on the Yanks-Indians dispute over the signing of two Negro players—Art Wilson and Luis Marquez.

BASKETBALL
NEW YORK—Bradley and Western Kentucky were invited to National Invitation Tournament leaving four spots to fill. Kentucky and St. Louis are already invited.

HORSE RACING
MIAMI, Fla.—Roman Candle won the $20,000 Added Black Helen Handicap at Hialeah in 1:49, a new record for the mile and a furlong stake.

ARCADIA, Calif.—Star Fiddle won the Santa Clara Handicap at Santa Anita.

JONES ON SECOND

Grigsby Named To All 3AA Cage Quintet By Coaches

Cain Grigsby of Big Spring has been named to the Coaches All-District 3AA basketball team, released today by Supt. W. C. Blankenship of Big Spring, chairman of the league's executive committee.

Others honored on the first team were Leon Blair of Lamesa, Larry Messersmith of Midland, Ray Morris of San Angelo and Hubert Ingraham of Abilene.

Grigsby, who scored 255 points during the regular campaign, is a senior. He plans to enroll at Baylor university next fall.

The Big Spring athlete was not even listed on the Steer A string a year ago but came along fast this season and finished as the second leading scorer on the club.

He lacked one vote of being a unanimous choice: Only coach who overlooked him chose his team mate, Howard Jones, instead.

Jones, a junior, rated the second team along with Roy Morris, San Angelo; Bill Galusha, Abilene; Ronald Chapman, Lamesa; and Bill Manning, Odessa.

Jones ed the Steers in scoring, in fact, was the top man in the district, with 296 points.

Blair, Messersmith and Ingraham were unanimous choices on the first team.

Players rating honorable mention in the voting were Clifford Rowland, San Angelo; Gene Morris; Lamesa; Jack Hand, Sweetwater; and Scotty Holland, Abilene.

NAIB Quintet To Be Decided

By The Associated Press
Winners of two sudden death tournament games tonight will play a single elimination game to select the Texas representative in the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament.

Abilene Christian College, Texas Conference champion, and Texas Tech, of the Border Conference, play at Lubbock.

East Texas State, of the Lone Star Conference, and East Texas Baptist, independent, will play in Gladewater.

Winners of these games will meet at a site and date to be selected. The NAIB selection committee picked East Texas Baptist to represent independent colleges of Texas in the play-offs and East Texas State to represent the Lone Star Conference.

Tech, runner-up for the Border Conference title, was selected to represent that league as its outstanding Texas member.

Louis To Tie Up Champion

MIAMI, Fla., March 3.—Joe Louis plans to give Mike Jacobs a dose of his own medicine by using the exclusive contract treatment to tie up the heavyweight title for his International Boxing Club.

When Louis wrestled the crown from Jimmy Braddock in 1937, he agreed to fight only for Jacobs' 20th Century Sporting Club for the next 10 years. Apparently the Brown Bomber learned a lesson in shrewd promotion tactics.

A most important, but generally overlooked, factor in the signing of Exzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott to fight for the championship with National Boxing Association approval was the exclusive contract clause.

Charles and Walcott agree, if victorious, to fight only for Louis and his two partners, Arthur M. Wirtz and James D. Norris, for the next two years.

Hooper Horses Are Favorites

MIAMI, Fla., March 3.—The $50,000 Added Flamingo Stakes, with ten smart sophomores competing, closes the 40-day winter meeting at Hialeah Park tomorrow.

A crowd of 20,000, including Florida's Gov. Fuller Warren, was expected to see the mile and a furlong fixture for three-year-olds and watch the annual parade of Hialeah's 400 flammings.

The pinkish, spindly-legged birds will be herded past the grandstand immediately following the feature event, scheduled for 4:35 p. m. (EST).

Fred W. Hooper's one-two punch—Ocean Drive and Olympia—headed the field of thoroughbreds named overnight for the race, regarded as a prep for the Kentucky Derby. They will carry 126 pounds apiece and likely will go postward the favorite at even money or less.

Two dangerous rivals in the field include George D. Widener's much-improved Revellie and Sidney I. Crew's Commodore Lea, each carrying 120 pounds. Another threat is Isidore Bieber's Palestinian, also at 120 pounds.

Jule Fink's Sneak, F. A. Blaser's Count-A-Bit and Walter P. Chrysler, Jr.'s Imperium carry 117 each. The field is completed with Russell A. Firestone's Sand Run and W. M. Jefford's Fibroch, both at 114 pounds.

Jennings Is Named To Selection Group

CHICAGO, March 3.—Morley Jennings of Texas Tech and James Stewart, Southwest Conference official, have been named to the Sixth District Basketball Selection Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Hughson Ready For Big Year

SARASOTA, Fla., March 3.—Cecil (Tex) Hughson, who almost quit baseball for good last year because of a "dead" arm, loomed today as the answer to the Boston Red Sox prayers for a 30-game winner in 1949.

Hughson, who saw his 20-victory total of 1948 shrink to measly triumphs last year, gave his pitching arm a severe test yesterday. He came through with flying colors.

'Lucky Lady' Crew Gets Some Sleep

antive. Official times and distances were to be computed today. The Air Force had given as approximate figures 84 hours and one minute for a 23,452 statute-mile flight. There were no frills for the Melrose, Minn., pilot and his crew. The trip was made under conditions the Air Force considers strictly "operational."

There was plenty of food—sandwiches and candy and other items that would keep. Water was carried in five-gallon jugs, standard B-50 equipment. Bedding was the bomber's floor, a few mattresses from regulation GI cots and O.D. blankets. The double crew enabled them to sleep in shifts on regular schedules.

Refueling points were over the Azores, Dhahran, in Saudi Arabia, the Philippines and Hawaii. The refueling "tankers" were converted B-29 bombers, from the 43rd Bomb Group.

Gallagher and Co-Pilot First Lt. James A. Neal of Visalia, Calif., kept the plane's log. In restrained words they told of the epic flight from takeoff to landing:

"Takeoff normal except for an extended takeoff run... minor cold front encountered at 20,000 feet... over Azores, picked up tankers and continued on course... refueling underway about 15 minutes after contact... tanker crews report Champagne at Lagens is excellent and inexpensive... flight to Dhahran... flew for hours over Sahara without seeing a sign of civilization... nice clear night... have radio contact with tankers... first tanker hooked up... we are receiving fuel... ran into severe turbulence. Made contact with second tanker and filled up... on way to Clark (field), P. I... met our tankers... receiving gas as we go... on course for Manila... ran through a pretty severe squall line weather from about 100 miles east of Dhahran.

"This is the leg where we pass the half-way mark... we are all quite happy that we have encountered no major difficulties and hope our luck will remain as good for the second half... rendezvous with first three tankers made over Clark radio... circled Clark twice waiting for other two tankers to climb up through undercast. First hookup... refueled... we're all sweating it out now. One more hookup will see us back to Carswell... most of the crew members are showing signs of fatigue, making errors in their log..."

"Over Hawaii... first tanker gave us... gallons... second tanker gave us... gallons. He had a pretty rough time trying to get the fuel flow started... headed home... we are all peeped but we feel pretty wonderful. Weather here around Hawaii and on our route east worst have ever seen... Flight preparations were super-secret. Families of crew members expressed surprise when told of the trip. Most knew only that their men "were on a secret mission."

Bank Robbery Case In Hands Of Jury

DALLAS, March 3. (AP) — The case of Ollie Otto Prince, Corsicans, charged with bank robbery, went to the jury today.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson said the jury would decide Prince's guilt or innocence and if the verdict is against the defendant, the judge would assess the penalty.

Prince, 44, is on trial for the last Aug. 11 noon robbery of the Rice State Bank, Navarro County. A lone, unmasked gunman took $4,002, some of it in $2 bills, from the bank.

The $2 bills have played a prominent part throughout the trial.

The last reference to the unusual currency came yesterday from Asst. U. S. Atty. Clyde Hood. Hood was cross examining Prince, who had earlier taken the stand to testify to his whereabouts the day of the bank robbery. "Why, Ollie Prince, did you ask Walter Knight for a $2 bill back after you learned one of the $2 bills from the holdup was being traced?" Hood demanded. "You said you wanted it for a keepsake."

TWO HOUR VARIETY SHOW

Curtain Up At 8 Tonight On Lions' Club Minstrel

The curtain goes up promptly at 8 p. m. today in the city auditorium on the first of two presentations of the second annual Lions club minstrel.

For the next two hours, numbers by a 60-voice black-face chorus, an orchestra, piano, vocal solos, trios and quartets will be packed in rapid succession. Lions officials unequivocally predicted a bigger and better show than last year's performances which won high praise.

Proud of a record of starting on time, Interlocutor Harold P. Steck announced that "we will start on time regardless of how many are in the house at the time."

Midway in the program, Rev. R. Gage Lloyd, president of the Lions club, will introduce Joe Blum, who will turn loose Lions to hawk candy. While scenery is set for the second part of the program, Don Royalty and Don Snyder, two youngsters billed as "Ink Blots," will quip at each other.

Approximately 80 persons will be in the cast in one capacity or another. Besides the chorus, there will be 16 specialty acts, featuring several persons with extensive professional experience, including Director Rex Van, who was one of the original "Two Black Crows." Dallas Whaley, Lubbock and a former Big Springer, will be back as an end man and a specialty performer.

All net proceeds go to the high school band uniform fund, Girl Scout hut improvements, and eight conservation and blind work.

This is the way the program will unfold:
Overture by the Black and Tan Combo orchestra, composed of J. W. King, and Larry Evans, trumpets; Milton Knowles, drums; Jerry Williams, trombone; Charles Rainwater, Roy Mack White, Billy Wozencraft, saxophones; and Mrs. Velma Greise, who is show accompanist, at the piano. Then comes a medley by the chorus and introduction of end men, Bill Dawes, Joe Blum, Rex Van, Bob Satterwhite, Dallas Whaley and Joe Fowler Brooks.

Munson Compton, tenor, will sing "A Little Bit of Heaven," a quartet composed of Dawes, Dan Conley, Dr. C. W. Deats, and S. K. Whaley, will sing "Songs of Yesterday;" Brooks will give a vocal novelty, "Louisville Lou;" Whaley, basso, will sing "Lonesome Road;" Dawes, baritone, will sing "Mamy's Little Coal-Black Rose;" Van will present a novelty, "O Death, Where Is Thy Sting?"; the Darktown Jitterbugs (Wilbert Moore, Bill Bell, Maxine Moore and Sara Alexander) will strut their stuff; and the chorus will bring down the curtain with "California, Here I Come."

The second part is pitched as a colored cafe scene. King and the orchestra play "A Little Bird Told Me" and "Buttons and Bows." Mrs. DeAlva Graham, soprano, will sing "St. Louis Blues;" Dallas Whaley will present a monologue, "Private No Class;" Mary Jane Hamilton, soprano, will sing "Stormy Weather;" the Goldust Trio (Mrs. S. K. Whaley, Mrs. Joe Pickle, Mrs. Alfred Collins) will sing; George Warner, piano virtuoso from Amarillo, will present Boogie Madness; Van and Dallas Whaley will revive the "Two Black Crows;" Bob Kramer, baritone and Flatown Shelf, will sing "Shortenin' Bread." Grand finale will be "Roaring Lions" by the chorus and cast.

Hoover Group Calls For VA Improvements

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—The Hoover Commission has proposed "major improvements" in the operation of the Veterans Administration. It laid special emphasis on tightening the VA educational set-up, inefficiency and delay in handling insurance problems and "serious internal organizational defects" in the agency as a whole.

In the ninth of its series of 15 reports to Congress, the government reorganization group headed by former President Herbert Hoover offered six recommendations for improving the VA setup. The result, it said, would be "considerable savings." It did not mention an amount.

The commission said the agency should separate its insurance program from its other functions and set them up in a veterans insurance corporation.

It said the VA program of guaranteeing home loans for veterans should be turned over to the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

And it suggested that the VA set up its own list of certified schools, in addition to state lists of "accredited institutions."

The commission pointed out that in the year which ends June 30, 1950, the Veterans Administration will spend $5,300,000,000 — about 11 per cent of the total national budget and more than any other federal agency except the military establishment and the Treasury Department.

"While the administrator of veterans affairs enjoys broader administrative direction in organizing his agency than most important governmental officials, serious internal organizational defects still exist," the group said, and proposed a general streamlining to overcome the flaws.

It found that the federal government has too little control over the quality of the training provided veterans in many schools.

In some instances, it said, government pays the highest possible tuition and equipment charges to schools where such charges are "difficult, if not impossible to justify." And the VA, it added, has been somewhat slow to recognize these problems and recommend changes in the law.

The commission suggesting giving immediate attention to the possible use of grants to states to promote better job training and to prevent abuses in related school training.

In urging that VA insurance operations — including the processing of death claims from beneficiaries — be conducted within a separate government corporation headed by the veterans administrator, the group commented:

"The incorporation of all insurance activities would provide a freedom of action which would allow the corporation to employ the practices of private insurance companies."

French Commies Get Pledges To Aid Reds On French Soil

PARIS, March 3 (AP)— French Communist leaders are continuing to pledge their followers to greet Russian troops as liberators if they ever arrive on French soil.

Renewal of that pledge by Maurice Thorez and Jacques Duclos, top French Reds, last night brought a thunderous ovation from 18,000 pro-Communists here.

They repeated in a dozen different forms their current slogan: "France will never fight the Soviet Union."

Earlier, the Communist publication, France Nouvelle, published a month-old speech by Thorez in which he quoted the following statement made by Lenin in 1907: "In case war should break out, Socialists have the duty of interfering to end it promptly and to take advantage with all their strength of the economic and political crisis created by the war to stir up as many people as possible and bring to the end of capitalist domination."

Thorez charged the leaders of the French government "on American orders" are "preparing an imperialist war against the Soviet Union."

"We must," he added, break with all the treaties and agreements that have alienated the independence of our country."

The government meanwhile continued its roundup of spies. Interior Minister Jules Moch, target of bitter attacks by Russian newspapers, told the cabinet 20 persons have been or are being questioned and eight have been arrested.

Young Woman Can Take Care Of Self

LOS ANGELES, March 3 (AP)— Mrs. Eileen Meinhard, 22, an unemployed seamstress, puts up a good fight for her money because she needs, it to care for her two young sons.

Officer James Ortega said last night that a man tried to take her purse as she stood on a street corner.

"No man's going to rough me up," the 120-pound woman told the officer. "I hooked an elbow around his neck, stuck my leg behind him and flipped him into the gutter." Officers arrived to rescue the man, who was being beaten in the gutter. They booked Pedro Soto, 22, on suspicion of attempted robbery.

HEART DISEASE NO. 1 KILLER

Two-Thirds County Deaths In 1948 Took Male Victims

When the bell tolled during 1948 in Howard county, it was almost a 2-1 shot it was for a man. This uncanny ratio of fatalities is reflected in a breakdown of death certificates filed with the county clerk during the past year. Sixty-three per cent of the deaths were male and 37 per cent female.

During the year an aggregate of 259 certificates were filed in death cases. Heart involvements followed the national pattern as No. 1 killer, claiming 49 victims in the county. Only cases showing heart disease of various types as the primary cause of death were tabulated; there were many others, which listed coronary ailments as contributing causes.

Cancer was the primary cause of 15 deaths, and again malignancy was present as a contributory factor in others. Nine victims died of pneumonia.

Three persons, all females, fell victim to hemorrhage. Three deaths were attributed principally to malnutrition, all of them infants. Mortality was highest among youngsters (principally infants) with the total standing at 56, of which 36 were male and 20 female. Stillborn babies were included in these figures.

Causes of death ranged from stillborn to senility, from malnutrition to obesity.

Oldest person—a woman—to die was 100 years. The oldest man who died was 90.

One out-and-out suicide, by hanging, was reported, and one other case was uncertain. Records indicate the possibility of an overdose of barbiturate.

Nine persons were killed in traffic accidents. One person was found dead in bed from unknown causes, and one person drowned. There was one electrocution, one death from accidental gunshot wounds, and one from acute alcoholism.

By way of comparison, it might be noted that 1948 showed 707 births in Howard county, 359 girls and 348 boys, thus population was increasing three times as fast by birth as it was reduced by death.

Good Looking, Hard-Working, Are Texas Legislature's Own G-Girls

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—Texas has its own government girls—about 400 of them who are brightening up the staid old capitol this legislative session.

Most of them are young and good-looking. On a sunny day they hang around the capitol steps during their lunch hour chatting like a bunch of college girls.

They're well dressed, too—tailored skirts, clean white blouses, bright red, gray or pastel sweaters. And if they don't roll up their hair every night they've discovered a secret of keeping woman's crowning glory looking nice.

"And they're really putting out the work," said Mrs. Ann Hornburg, in charge of stenographers in the house. "I've never seen as much work as there is this session."

Stenographers salaries run from $6 to $10 a day.

Senators have their own private offices in the capitol and their secretaries work there. A big room also is set aside for a typists pool in the Senate. But all the typing which has to be done for members of the House goes to the forest of typewriters in the wide corridor behind the hall of the House.

Typists' Alley makes its own music. Typists' Alley, they call it. Six-100 girls drumming on 100 typewriters, a low buzz of friendly chatter, high heels hurrying across the tile floor to the coke machine.

"I'd say the greater percentage of the girls back here are married," Mrs. Hornburg said. "Some of them are Austin girls, but they're here from all over the state."

"One girl from Fort Worth said she came down here on a sort of vacation, and working just five months during a legislative session does provide something different from your regular old job."

"It's hard work but it's interesting," is the consensus back in Typists' Alley.

Connally Against Public Release Of Treaty Terms

WASHINGTON, March 3. (AP)—A possible hitch developed today in State Department plans to seek full publicity soon for the text of the proposed Atlantic Security Treaty.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) told reporters, "I don't think the full text of the treaty should be disclosed until all the nations have signed it. Premature release might cause trouble if any new question arose before it was signed by all the nations."

State Department officials have expressed the hope that the treaty text could be made public by agreement with the other governments in time to permit two or three weeks of public discussion before the signing.

Pope Observing 10th Anniversary

VATICAN CITY, March 3. (AP)—Pope Pius XII observed the 10th anniversary of his elevation to the throne of St. Peter Wednesday without any special ceremony.

The anniversary, which also was the Pontiff's 73rd birthday, was spent in the usual arduous routine of the papacy, including a long list of audiences.

On March 12 there will be a special Mass in the Sistine Chapel to celebrate the 10th anniversary of his coronation. On April 2 the Pope will make a radio address on the 50th anniversary of his ordination as a priest.

STUDENTS GO STRONGLY FOR TYPING BUT FEW ARE TACKLING SHORTHAND

More than 250 high school and junior college students have their eyes fixed on office careers. This is at least one deduction to be made from the total of 250 enrolled in commercial courses. Nearly 200, or 191 to be exact, are enrolled in typing courses, reflecting the pressure of an age when use of a typewriter is almost as much a requirement in business as being able to write.

Although the Texas Employment Commission office asserts that a girl seeking a business career has the best opportunity as a qualified stenographer, only 28 are enrolled in advance shorthand classes, 16 in Big Spring high school and 12 at Howard County Junior college.

Proficiency in shorthand is, of course, a must for good stenographers. Incidental qualifications are training in filing and clerical work and knowledge of how to use the dictaphone.

Mrs. Flossy R. Low, head of the high school commercial department, reports 61 students of junior and senior status registered for typing. The class is almost equally divided between boys and girls, as is the bookkeeping class, which has 24 students enrolled. The advanced course, composed almost exclusively of girls, contains 18 students.

In Howard County Junior college, according to J. F. Jones, head of its department of business administration, 160 students are enrolled. Boys predominate in the make up of classes as they do in the composite of the total college registration.

Accounting and typing are the more popular subjects. Seventy-five per cent, Jones says, are taking these courses. Twelve girls are enrolled in the shorthand courses, and 17 are studying business correspondence with an idea of learning to write business letters and handle business reports.

Twenty men are enrolled in business arithmetic (or mathematics of finance), and on two evenings of each week 40 men report for instruction in business economics. The only other course now being offered is in business law, which attracts 35 students. According to Jones, a majority of the men, heavily flavored with GI's, have their eyes on businesses of their own or are pointing toward continued professional training in business administration.

ADVENTURES IN SCIENCE

Science Fails To Deliver Many Things That We Expect

NEW YORK (U.S.)—Science has failed to deliver so far on many things the public expects. We can't control weather, turn gray hair dark or blond again, live to be 150, or make the energy in atoms do our work. We can't prevent cancer or the common cold. Science, the 20th century magician, has pulled off many miracles and talked of many others. To some, it seems that science has broken its promises. But science never promises anything. It seeks facts and methods. Scientists have talked of possibilities, and done a lot of exploring. Over-enthusiastic listeners may go off the deep end. Take rain-making. Scientists pulled rain and snow from clouds by seeding them with dry ice and other pellets. They took a first step toward controlling weather and said so. Just that. Lots of homespun experimenters flew up into the clouds to become rain witch doctors. Usually they missed. Meanwhile, scientists were saying you can't make any old cloud dump its moisture. They went to work to learn a lot more about how clouds form and what happens inside them. When they get their answers they hope to make some passing clouds spill rain where it's needed, or keep snow usefully on farmlands instead of city streets. Bad earth quakes bring demands that science do some crystal-ball predicting about them. Scientists can point to regions which are more likely to get quakes from the constant readjustments of the earth's crust. But they can give no guarantees and they are a long way from pin-pointing localities and hours.

Ancient alchemists tried to make gold from lead or other elements, to line their own pockets. Now element-changing is being done in atomic piles. It's making everyone richer in what is learned and done with these isotopes in medicine, agriculture and industry. When the first atom bomb exploded, many people thought the day of atomic energy was just around the corner. Energy would be so cheap everyone could have everything he wanted, for maybe an hour's work a day. Some officials said atomic energy might be put to peacetime use within 15 years. Four years later that guess still stands, give or take a few years. The problems are huge, with some new unforeseen ones. Science still has hopes of getting atoms to do much of a nation's work, but there is no definite delivery date. Scientists long talked about getting gold from the sea. Well, they actually have. There's some 8,500,000 tons of it in the oceans. Getting it out is simply too expensive. But we are mining magnesium and bromine from the sea, at a profit. We may turn to the sea for other elements if demands and costs make it practical. We might also harness the tides for useful energy, or irrigate farms with sea water, if we can take out the salt. The sun pours out energy. It gives the United States 1,600 times more heat energy than all our people and machines use. There's so much that if you paid for it, at like the idea of meat in a crust pill. That could be done, but it wouldn't be good for our present stomachs and digestive systems. But pills can succor sick people with injections of the building blocks of steaks and milk. The riddles of cancer, the common cold, polio, haven't been solved. Often what look like key clues are found. That's all to date. Experiments on rats indicated that two B vitamins might turn gray hair back to its natural color. One of them worked partly for a very few humans. But studies of body chemistry may yet prevent gray hair and baldness. A Russian scientist said he thought people should have a normal life span of 150 years. That wasn't a promise, either. Our length of life is rising steadily. Americans now live 20 years longer on the average than they did in 1900. Practical men think it will be raised to 100 years or more in the future. But not overnight, by a magic pill, so far as we can see now. CHICAGO. — Arthritis is not just a disease of old age, says Harvey V. Pettit, secretary of the Arthritis Educational Society. He said a four-year study showed that at least 27 per cent of all persons under 50 suffer from some form of this disease. He said that "no age group is immune from its ravages. Children are almost as likely to contract this cruel affliction as are their elders."

Economical Casserole Is Made With Rice

The saying goes that "two's company and three's a crowd," but when the three are cabbage, tomatoes and rice, and these three are found together in a casserole, the crowd is one to be looked upon with great favor. And one to be enjoyed.

Ingredients: 1½ cups cooked rice, 2 cups shredded or chopped cabbage, 2 cups drained canned tomatoes, 1 teaspoon sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon grated cheese.

Preparing the Fluffy White Rice
Put 1 cup of white rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups cold water in a two-quart saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During this time the rice will absorb the water and come out deliciously tender. Remove the lid and permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking—and the grains will be separate and tender. Makes approximately 3-13 cups fluffy white rice. Keep left-over cooked rice in a covered bowl in refrigerator—you'll find it handy next time you're in a hurry to fix a quick meal.

Method: Mix the tomatoes with salt, sugar, onion and the one tablespoon butter or margarine. Simmer for five minutes. Cook or steam cabbage in a small amount of water for five minutes. In a greased casserole, place the rice as the bottom layer. Then place the drained cabbage on top of the rice and top with the tomato mixture. If the tomatoes go too "soupy" drain off a little of the juice and save for another dish. Top with buttered crumbs, mixed with grated cheese. Bake until bubbly brown in a 400 degree oven. Will make from four to six servings.

Grocery Firm Honoring Its Veteran V-P

J. W. SHUGART

More than 600 Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico employees of Waples-Platter Company, wholesale grocery firm, will observe "J. W. Shugart Month" all during March as a salute to the company's vice-president and general manager J. W. Shugart. It is announced by J. Clyde Jones, Waples-Platter president.

Shugart, who began his career with the company upon graduation from college, has been identified with Waples-Platter for more than half of the firm's 77 years of operation. During these years he has been a leader in the growing Southwestern food processing and distribution industry, and is widely known throughout the three-state area in which Waples-Platter distributes its White Swan brand of food products.

Highlighting the month in honor of Shugart will be a drive by Waples-Platter's 14 branch houses and several manufacturing divisions for a record volume of business, to express the appreciation of Waples-Platter personnel for leadership and service to the company given by Shugart.

Chicken-Avocado In Patty Shells

Clear Tomato Bouillon, Cheese Straws, Chicken and Avocado in Patty Shells*, Hot Buttered Parkhouse Rolls, Broiled Homed Grapefruit, Beverage.

(Recipe for Starred Dish Follows):

CHICKEN AND AVOCADO IN PATTY SHELLS
Ingredients: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 cups milk, 1½ cups diced cooked chicken, 1 medium-sized avocado, 4 patty shells.

Method: Melt butter or margarine in a saucepan and blend in the flour and the salt. Remove from heat and add milk, in small additions, stirring until smooth each time. Return to low heat, and, stirring continuously, cook until sauce is thickened and bubbly. Add the chicken and continue to cook over low heat until chicken is heated through. Meanwhile cut avocado into halves and remove seed and skin. Cut fruit into cubes. Remove chicken mixture from heat and mix in avocado cubes gently. Fill patty shells with mixture. 4 servings.

Swiss Steak Dish Makes For Happiness

Swiss Steak*, Baked Sweet Potatoes, Mixed Green Salad, French Dressing, Crusty French Bread, Fruit Gelatin, Beverage.

(Recipe for Starred Dish Follows):

SWISS STEAK
Ingredients: 2 pounds top round steak, 1 tablespoon dry mustard, 1½ cup flour, 1½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon freshly ground pepper, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 cup sliced onions, 2 carrots (diced), 2½ cups canned tomatoes, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 tablespoon brown sugar.

Method: Wipe meat with a damp cloth. Mix together mustard, flour, salt, and pepper. Pound flour mixture into round steak—the edge of a heavy saucer may be used to do this. When all the flour mixture has been pounded into the meat, heat the shortening in a large heavy skillet. Brown the meat in the fat. Place in a baking pan (or leave in skillet if all parts of it are resistant to oven heat). Mix together the onions, carrots, tomatoes, Worcestershire sauce and sugar. Pour over the meat. Cover and bake in a slow (325F.) oven for 1½ to 2 hours. 5 to 6 servings.

Special Green Peas Add To Day's Menu

Method: Dice the pimiento finely; put into a saucepan with the peas, cream, onion juice, salt and pepper (to taste). Place over low heat and heat, stirring frequently. Serve at once. 4 servings.

NO MUDSLINGING

Oxford Student To Oppose Churchill

LONDON, March 3 (AP)—An Oxford student who says he is an "invincible optimist" will oppose Winston Churchill in the coming general elections.

Seymour Hills, 38, a member of the Labor Party for 20 years, says he is not fighting the Conservative Party leader "as a man."

"I am not going in for mudslinging," he said in an interview. "Churchill has so much achievement behind him it would not be the decent thing to do."

"I am trying to put over a case for a party which deserves the confidence of the people for another five years."

"The issue is not one of personalities, but of measures, and I think the Labor Party's achievements must be taken into account. Our record of good government will stand us in good stead."

Hills, outwardly a typical undergraduate with a ginger mustache and a flair for dazzling and colorful clothes, will take his final examinations at Oxford in June.

SEYMOUR HILLS contests Churchill. Then, he says, he will throw himself into the election campaign. He has a booming voice, the energy and good humor to wage a vigorous political fight against the experience and polished oratory of Churchill, now 74.

The husky, six-foot undergraduate believes his chances against Churchill "are not as hopeless as they might appear."

"It is an open fight," Hills says. "The constituency of Woodford in Essex is a new one. Its boundaries are being redrawn and people are still settling in the district."

"It is not at all certain that I'll be waging a losing fight. We ought to do well if the labor case is properly put over."

In the 1945 general elections Churchill, roundly repudiated as prime minister, won over an independent candidate with a majority of 17,200 votes.

"I couldn't expect to be given an easy fight in my first political campaign," said Hills, who is vice chairman of the Oxford City Labor Party.

At Oxford Hills specializes in politics, philosophy and economics. He elected president of the Oxford Union, the only trade unionist to be lion, famed debating society at the university from which many of Britain's leading politicians graduated.

Before the war Hills worked in his native Oxford as a printer. Then he went to the pressed steel plant of Morris Motors and later worked at the Briggs Body Plant of the Ford Company at Dagenham.

In 1941 he joined the artillery and finished the war as a captain in the coastal gunners. Married and the father of a 12-year-old daughter, he entered St. Catherine's College of Oxford on an ex-serviceman's grant.

Policeman Finds Strange Things

PHILADELPHIA, March 3 (AP)—A policeman must get accustomed to a lot of strange things—such as spotting a peacock crossing the street.

That's what happened to Patrolman William Hipple yesterday. Hipple was walking along, minding his own and the public's business, when he sighted the gayly-feathered bird strutting across a busy intersection.

Hipple placed the peacock in protective custody. Unable to find its owner in the neighborhood, he finally turned the bird over to the Philadelphia Zoo.

Then the policeman settled down to write his official report: "Found one peacock, Craig and Rhawn Streets, 11 a.m. . . ."

Bus Driver Strike Fails To Disrupt Atomic Activities

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., March 3 (AP)—A bus drivers' strike has not disrupted work at the government's three atomic energy plants here, but the Atomic Energy Commission declared that "the public interest is seriously involved."

The strike of about 165 bus drivers of this atomic city's transportation system began yesterday. The drivers seek an increase from $1.25 to $1.42 1/2 an hour.

Pro Leader Dies

LUFKIN, March 3 (AP)—One of Texas' most ardent prohibition advocates, Rev. J. R. Nutt, died at his home here yesterday. He was pastor emeritus of the First Baptist Church of Lufkin.

Amalgamated Assn. of Street Electrical Railway and Motor Coach Employees, burned down the transit company's offer of an eight-cent increase.

President A. K. Gossard of the American Industrial Transit Co. said the offer basically amounted to more than eight cents an hour. Almost all drivers, he said, work 48 hours a week and are paid time and a half after 40 hours' work.

Nearly 100 Texans Serve In Unheralded Secretarial Roles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unheralded workers in Capitol Hill are the secretaries of members of congress. More than 100 Texans, the majority women, hold such positions. Two of them are near the top in length of service among nearly 3,000 secretarial employees of the senate and house.

Miss Alla Clary of Prosper has been with Rep. Sam Rayburn of Bonham, now speaker of the house, since Oct. 1, 1919.

Fules Leverett of Galveston, also rounding out his 30th year here, has continuously served the congressman from the Galveston district since Dec. 15, 1919. His present boss is Rep. Clark Thompson, who also represented that district from 1933 to 1935. His first employer was the late Clay Stone Briggs. Briggs was succeeded by the late J. J. Mansfield.

Congressional secretaries do almost everything a congressman is called upon to do except vote on legislation and take part in committee hearings.

Virtually all of the Texas secretaries are legal residents of the district or state of their employers, and of course not only cast a vote for the boss at the polls but usually do a good bit of politicking in his behalf.

When the election campaigns are over, you'll find them hard at work here in the office buildings a hundred yards away from the Capitol, doing countless chores in the congressman's name. It would be physically impossible for the lawmaker himself to attend personally to all the problems that cross his desk. So, while he's on the House floor or in a committee, his staff is answering mail and telephoning or writing government departments about everything from steel allocations to passports for constituents.

Each senator is allowed an administrative assistant with a salary of $10,000 annually and a fixed amount for secretarial hire. The amount depends on the population of his state. In the case of Texas, each senator is allowed a total of about $56,000 annually for his staff.

Each representative is allowed $9,500 base pay for secretarial hire, to be divided among any number of employees not to exceed five. Along with the $9,500 is a cost-of-living allowance, the size of which varies with the amount paid to the individual employee. No house secretary may be paid more than $5,000 annually in base pay.

the cost-of-living allowance would increase this amount to $7,352.

Arthur Perry, Austin is Senator Tom Connally's administrative assistant. John Connally of Floresville (no relation to the senator), has the same job with Lyndon Johnson.

The secretarial staffs of the Texas house members, taken in order of the congressional districts are:

1. Patman—Lucille Spain, Paris; Miss Vivienne Redfish, Texarkana.
2. Combs—Otis Nyrren, Huntington, Angellina County; Nina Icard, Wichita Falls; and Fort Worth; Shirley Schwartz, Washington, D. C.
3. Beckworth—Helen Cagle, Coleman; Mrs. Peggy Yauvalia, Edna; Simon and Wanda Connor, all of Washington.
4. Rayburn (as Speaker allowed additional help)—Alla Clara, Prosper; John Ball, Ivanhoe; Mrs. Jane Morgan Lagler, Bonham; James W. McDade, Bonham; Mrs. Lorraine Mumford, Kimbrough; Fort Worth and Sherman; Robert Barley, Bonham and Dallas.
5. Wilson—Tommy Bender, Dorothy Beam, Irma Robertson, all of Dallas.
6. Teague—Earl McChesney, College Station; Carey Kinsolving Miller, Corsicana; Emma Meiller, Bryan.
7. Pickett—Julia Lynch Picard, Huntsville; Helen Chenault, Navasota; Edzell Neilsen Shroyer, Crockett.
8. Thomas—Marie Ball, Josephine Frick, Imogene Baumgardner and Peggy Armstrong, all of Houston.
9. Thompson—Jules Leverett, Galveston; Louise Dick, Columbus; Julia Trock, Galveston.
10. Thornberry—Ira Galloway, Ribert Fairey, Miss Billie Strawbridge and Miss Mary Virginia Alves, all of Austin.
11. Poage—Lacey Sharp, Waco; Iva Earle Heath, Cameron; Pauline Graves, Waco.
12. Lucas—Elizabeth Myers, Frankie Caraway and Margaret Peggy Mac Vicker, all of Fort Worth.
13. Gossett—Zeno Phillips, Vernon; Stella Merrill and Geraldine Senft, Wichita Falls.
14. Lyle—Mary Cowles, Corpus Christi; Neta Trevino, Alice; Terry Faget, New Orleans, La.
15. Bentsen—Celia Martin and Hermilia Anzaldia, both of McAllen, and Mrs. Betty McKenzie, Washington.

17. Burleson—John Hardesty, Abilene; Kitty Cunningham and Ruth Richardson, Washington.
18. Lucas—Florence Merriman, Pampa; Margaret Myers and Louise Klutz, Washington.
19. Mahon—Dorothy Rylander and Maxine Drury, both of Lubbock; Mary Lee, Levelland.
20. Kilday—Leo King, Irene Williams and Glorio Valdez, all of San Antonio.

Human Factor Biggest Hazard In Jet Planes, Says Officer

FURSTENFELDBRUCK Airfield (AP)—What's the biggest hazard in flying jet airplanes?

The human factor, says Capt. William Hughes of Merkel, Texas. Hughes is engineering officer of the 39th jet fighter wing at Furstenfeldbruck air field where the U. S. keeps its jet planes busy.

Looking back over recent jet plane accidents Hughes estimated the causes this way:

Running out of fuel: 10 percent. Material failure: 5 percent. Exceeding the structural limits of the plane (the human factor) 85 percent.

In answer to questions concerning jet plane explosions in the U. S. last fall, Hughes said he understood it was only one type in which this sort of accident occurred.

"Those planes were grounded and I don't know if they have been okayed yet," he added.

"But the human factor causes most jet accidents. Because of the high speeds involved, they usually are fatal," he explained.

"It is too often a temptation to a pilot to see what his aircraft came in from Oklahoma City, Okla. during the weekend to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lomax.

Norman Donelson is home after undergoing a tonsillectomy.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Good Cover Grass On Guffee Ranch

Guy Guffee, rancher cooperator with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, has a good cover of grass on his ranch three miles north of Vincent. Guffee left part of his grass ungrazed last year to maintain a protective cover on his range as part of the coordinated soil conservation program on his ranch.

The protective cover of grass on his range will help the soil soak up more water and prevent loss of soil and water from run-off. It also protects the soil from freezing temperatures during cold weather. Temperature checks made during January showed that soil under good side oats grama cover did not go below freezing. Soil temperature on ground with poor grass cover was 4 degrees below freezing.

Marshall Cook, rancher cooperator with the North Concho River Soil Conservation District, made moisture penetration checks recently on his ranch at Garden City. Cook used a sharpshooter to see how deep the moisture soaked in the ground. Checks made showed that the ground was wet deeper on range with a good cover of grass than on range with a poor cover.

Eight acres of Abruzzi rye on the Smith Bros. ranch in the County Line Ranch group is making good growth, the Smith Bros. report. The rye was planted last fall for cover crop to protect the land from blowing. The cover crop is making its best growth where there is a good litter of crop stubble on the land the Smith Brothers said.

Terrace lines were run last week on the Wilson Bros. Ranch in the County Line ranch group. Mrs. Ida Mae Oldham's ranch in the Wild Horse Ranch group and on the farms of H. C. Ernst and J. L. McNeil in the North Vincent Soil Conservation groups. The district cooperators had the help of the Soil Conservation Service in laying out the terrace systems.

I. J. and E. P. Driver made out a soil conservation plan on their farm in the East Center Point soil conservation group last week. Conservation measures included in their farm plan were based on the needs of the land as indicated by the type of soil and amount of erosion.

Lee Warren is building up the terraces on his farm just north of Big Spring. Warren is plowing the terraces with a disc plow making them higher and wider in order to maintain their effectiveness in protecting the land from loss of water and soil. He is building two new terraces to complete the terracing needed on his farm.

V. H. Wolf and Willis Winters, district cooperators in the Vincent Soil Conservation group, started grazing their Abruzzi rye and hairy vetch cover crops last week. The rye and vetch was planted last fall and has made enough growth since January moisture to furnish good grazing. Winters said his oat and wheat crop froze out during the cold weather, but the rye and vetch is doing good.

Mrs. Billings Ends 22-Year Service With Phone Co.

Mrs. J. L. Billings, the former Ruby Bell, who resigned Monday after 22 years of service with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, plans to leave Big Spring between March 15 and April 1 to take up residence on a cattle farm near St. Louis, Mo.

Her husband will come to Big Spring soon to accompany Mrs. Billings to St. Louis.

Mrs. Billings served as service representative in the commercial department of the company and began her work as the only person in the local department back in 1927. Before that time, she was employed by the Western Union Company from 1925 through 1927. Her father, the late B. N. Bell, operated a fresh fruit and vegetable and grocery stand here and she worked in the business until her employment by Western Union. During World War I, she spent four years with the Air Force in Washington, D. C.

Bank People Always Watchful For Counterfeit Possibilities

Counterfeit money which has flooded other sections of the nation, and the persons who print the currency, have never plagued this area but the government inspectors who seek to curb such practices have never written off the possibility that they might.

Bank clerks are alerted to be on the lookout for the bogus paper money and can usually tell a phoney bill from a real one simply by running it through their fingers. The average person, however, probably can't tell you whose features are portrayed on the ten and 20 dollar bills, much less whether it is genuine or not.

The truth of the matter is, a counterfeiter has little opportunity to practice his profession long unless he moves around a lot or sends his money a long way off to be distributed.

Generally, such people work in big cities or thickly populated areas where money has great circulation and where they can lose themselves in a hurry, if the need arises.

When a bank employe spots a counterfeit bill, he notifies a government inspector immediately, who, upon receipt, studies the currency—its texture, its pattern and its ink, leads which can often go a long way toward telling which section of the country the bill came from.

Some one is always thinking up ways and means of outwitting the law. A few months ago, an individual hit upon the clever scheme of changing a dollar bill into a ten spot and managed to pass it at a local bank. He sliced off the ends of the bill just outside the serial numbers, substituting the proper portions of a ten-dollar bill complete with identifying numbers. He pasted the pieces together with scotch tape with such expertness that it gave all appearances of being a real "sawbuck."

The parts of the bills he saved were good because the serial numbers remained intact.

The culprit, of course, was violating several laws, not the least of which was mutilation of money. Such a practice isn't common. It did, however, teach the bank personnel to be more watchful.

TREAT 'EM ROUGH, THEY LOVE IT

HAMBURG, Germany, March 3. (AP)—A German farmer who stripped and tarred his unfaithful wife and then put her on the roof of his barn for all the village to see, was given a suspended sentence of three months.

The farmer and his wife left the court arm in arm.

Texans Must Fight For Tidelands Oil

HOUSTON, March 3. (AP)—It is time for Texans to fight again for their independence—in defense of the oil-rich tidelands, State Land Commissioner Bascom Giles believes.

Speaking here yesterday before the Sons and Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Giles said the federal government's attitude toward the tidelands transcends the right of private property.
