

UN Hits Reds As Responsible For Koje Riots

Prisoner Issue Is Stumbling Block At Truce Parley

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—The senior United Nations truce negotiator today charged the Communists with responsibility for Red prisoner of war riots and for continuing "a bloody and profitless war."

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison accused the Red delegates at a fruitless 22-minute session of directing "your captured personnel at Koje Island to endanger their lives to further your nefarious schemes."

Hundreds of captured Reds have been killed or wounded on Koje in Communist-led riots.

The key issue blocking a truce is the U.N. stand that no prisoner be forcibly repatriated. Only 70,000 of 169,000 captured Reds have expressed willingness to return to Red rule.

Harrison said refusal of the Reds to accept this stand was incomprehensible. He added:

"You must realize that you are choosing between an honorable armistice and the continuation of a bloody and profitless conflict."

North Korean Gen. Nam II replied in stiffened tones. He accused the U. N. of "incessant atrocities" and "slaughtering" of war prisoners. It was the first time in five days he had repeated these charges.

Nam brushed aside Harrison's suggestion that a recess be held to give the Reds "time to reconsider your unalterable decision."

Nam II said he wanted to meet again tomorrow. Harrison agreed to meet at 11 a. m. (9 p. m. Monday, EST).

Field Marshal Lord Alexander, Britain's defense minister, was asked at a news conference in Seoul Sunday what chances the truce talks had to succeed. He replied:

"I wouldn't bet one way or another. It's a toss-up as far as I can see. I honestly do not know whether the Communists are sincere."

Alexander said that in his opinion it would not be wise to appoint a British delegate to the armistice talks although "I think the people in Britain would be pleased if they had a representative."

He said appointment of a British representative might give the Communists the false impression that the Allies were changing tactics to yield in the deadlocked talks.

The U.N. Command on Sunday sent the Communists a note accusing them of endangering lives of captured U.N. troops by failing to mark five POW camps in North Korea.

Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, commander of the U.S. 24th Division until his capture in August, 1950, was reported held in one of the camps named.

Harrison's letter to the Reds said:

"Your continued failure to mark adequately many of your prisoner of war camps places in jeopardy the safety and security of our personnel now in your hands."

Red POWs Burned Out

A dense pall of smoke fills the air as U.S. paratroopers move in on Compound 76 and break defiant Communist prisoners up into smaller groups at the Koje Island POW camp June 10. Thirty-one Reds were killed and scores of prisoners and Americans were wounded in the bloody battle. (AP Wirephoto).

Athletics Planned For Koje's POWs

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP)—The U. S. Eighth Army plans an extensive work-and-play program for Communist prisoners of war on Koje once the POWs recognize Allied authority completely.

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, Koje commander, hopes to start the program soon after he finishes splitting the present large, unruly compounds into small units.

The dispersal operations probably will be completed within a week.

Field Marshal Lord Alexander, Britain's minister of defense, inspected the POW stockades today. He toured the island in a jeep driven by Boatner.

Alexander was accompanied by Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. S. Eighth Army commander, and a party of leading military and diplomatic figures.

The group drove through the ruins of Compound 76 where more than 6,000 prisoners fought desperately to prevent being broken up into small units. Boatner told Alexander it was "a hell of a fight."

Alexander made no public statement while on Koje.

But Selwyn Lloyd, British minister of state for foreign affairs, said "obviously the situation is being cleared up very fast and a great deal of good work is being done."

Alexander's party returned to the Korean mainland.

Once he has uncontroverted control over the prisoners, Boatner plans to use POW labor on road construction and other engineering projects. He also plans to expand athletic and other recreational facilities inside compounds. Sports equipment has been ordered.

Eighth Army officers stress that there will be no relaxation of the new firm policy in handling POWs.

The basic policy governing operation of Koje prison camps is strict adherence to the Geneva Convention.

Of Koje's present POW population of 80,000, some 30,000 will be moved soon to other islands off South Korea.

Remaining POWs will be set to work building roads, drainage ditches, fences and camp buildings.

Camp officials declined to say whether prisoners would be paid for such work, as they were in World War II.

No such work projects have existed on Koje in its 18 months as a prisoner island.

There will be no effort to reintroduce the education program that was abandoned last April because of prisoner indifference.

Camp officials say that any effort to start it up again would "not be appropriate now."

Perhaps the most ambitious part of the new, long range program will be the athletic side.

It is planned to expand facilities and provide equipment for track meets, soccer, volleyball and other sports allowing for mass participation.

It is also expected that recreational facilities will include stages in each compound for plays, musical entertainment, dance performances and singing. Prior to the current breakup of the large compounds, there was a stage in each compound.

Seek Plan To Supply Steel For Defense

Some Steel Mills Reach Agreements, But No Big Ones

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government will try this week to start enough steel flowing from the nation's strike-closed steel mills to prevent a crippling halt in the production of weapons.

The White House announced that a four-man committee of the CIO United Steelworkers had been directed by Union President Philip Murray to help work out an acceptable plan for meeting defense needs for steel.

Both the union and industry agreed when wage negotiations collapsed last Monday to permit sufficient steel production for essential defense items.

So far the government has announced no specific plan for this output. The White House said a plan had been worked out to transport steel stored in struck warehouses to weapons manufacturers.

Meanwhile, a few individual steel mills reached agreement with the steelworkers and prepared to resume operations immediately. But these were independent of the big steel producers who hold a united front against the union.

Already nearly 3 1/2 million tons of steel has been lost since the mills shut down, with 88 per cent of the nation's normal steel output cut off. Production had been running just under 300,000 tons a day.

Over the week end, Murray told a news conference that the American steel industry had failed to expand in the direction of facilities needed for defense. President Benjamin Fairless of United States Steel, the world's largest steel company, struck right back, blaming the steelworkers union for any shortages of steel for military needs.

"Mr. Murray knows full well that if there is any shortage of steel for defense it is caused solely by the strike for which he and his associates must bear full responsibility," Fairless said in a statement. He added:

"There has not been one instance in which we have failed to produce what the armed forces asked us to produce."

There were no signs of a break

House Has Another Social Security Bill To Look Over Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House took a second look today at a bill that would boost social security benefits by about 300 million dollars.

Rep. Doughton (D-NC) called for consideration of a measure slightly different from one the House failed to pass May 20.

It provides for an increase of 85 or 12 1/2 per cent, whichever is larger, in payments to social security beneficiaries.

Rental Contracts Boost To Permits

Building permits, requested last week by Henry A. Young Construction Company, were issued Monday for 68 residences to cost a total of $288,200.

The houses, part of a 300-unit rental housing project under way in Monticello Addition, were started late last week. Unit costs range from $4,000 to $4,300 with most of the buildings listed at $4,200.

Glass Glenn Succumbs Here

Death claimed Phillip Glenn Glass, 68, today, following an illness which had kept him hospitalized for approximately eight weeks.

Mr. Glenn died at 6 a. m. in a local hospital.

He was a native of Kaufman County, but lived in Haskell County for several years before moving to Big Spring in 1927.

In Big Spring he was manager of the Hathcock Hardware Store, and subsequently operated a farm north of town.

Mr. Glenn was affiliated with both the Masonic and IOOF Lodges, and was a member of the First Christian Church in Big Spring.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Glenn, two sons, Grandville Glenn of Big Spring, and Walter Glenn of Tyler; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frances Glenn of Big Spring; a granddaughter, Mrs. Dewey Stevenson of Big Spring, and a grandson, Wayne Glenn of Big Spring.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Era Pope of Irving, and five half-sisters, Mrs. F. O. Allen, Mrs. Bicie Wall and Mrs. I. B. Idings, all of Big Spring, Mrs. Mattie Bradley of Tahoka, and Mrs. Iva Jordan of Terrell.

The Rev. Lloyd Thompson will officiate at the funeral service which has been set for 4 p. m. Tuesday at the First Christian Church. Special rites at the church will be conducted by Odd Fellows, while Masons will be in charge of graveside services.

The body will be at Eberley Funeral Home until time for the funeral service.

New Schedule Set For Shrub Watering

A new—but still experimental—schedule for the limited irrigation of shrubbery was announced Monday for Big Spring.

Revised plan divides the city into three sections with residents of each area to water plants for five hours on separate afternoons during the week. On a fourth day, VA Hospital grounds, parks, and boulevard "islands" will be watered while pumping facilities "catch up" with heavy water consumption anticipated as a result of residential irrigation.

This week's watering will be started Tuesday by residents east of Settles Street. Wednesday, persons living in the area between Settles and Runnels will be allowed to water shrubs, and Friday is designated "watering day" for residents of the section west of Runnels.

Thursday is scheduled as a "breather" for the city water system, with only shrubbery around the city hall, VA Hospital, parks, and along boulevards due to be irrigated.

City Manager H. W. Whitney stressed that the limited watering plan still is an "experimental basis" and subject to revision. Continuation of the program will depend on the degree of co-opera-

East Reich Riots Said Put Out By Red Police

Civilians Resist Forcible Moving

By BRACK CURRY

BONN, Germany, June 16 (AP)—Five thousand German Communist police appeared today to have stamped out a wildfire of revolt in more than a dozen Soviet zone villages where East Germans protested their eviction from the Communist frontier security belt.

The fights between police and villagers—at times reaching the proportions of pitched battles—have been going on for five days. Scores have been arrested. More than 30 casualties have been reported.

Police riot squads were reported dispatched by the Communists to at least 16 villages along security belt, as desperate civilians resisted being forcibly moved out ruthlessly to make way for the new frontier no-man's land. The villagers also protested a Communist police hunt for "undesirables" in the border area.

The resistance centered in the border state of Thuringia. In Kaltenbornheim, 1,000 villagers tried to free two families of "political unreliable" from the village jail. They clashed with 300 Red police reinforcements.

At Streudorf, angry farmers armed themselves with axes and scythes and tried to beat off a police patrol bent on evicting eight families and deporting them to the interior. Three police were wounded before riot squads rushed in and quelled the revolt.

In many other incidents, police were reported ambushed or attacked openly. Parol cars were smashed and burned. In some places, entire villages joined in the resistance. But at present, police reinforcements appeared to have the situation under temporary control.

The East German Communist government began a radio and newspaper propaganda campaign to justify its police measures as needed to "save democracy and our republic."

At the same time the East Zone Communist Bosses were reported sending a new wave of spies and

No Relief Seen As Texas Heat Wave Continues

By The Associated Press

TEXAS' man-killing June heat wave continued unabated Monday with more 100-plus temperatures and no relief sighted.

A cool front that hit Dalhart, high in the Panhandle in the wee hours of the morning, was expected to turn tail and run, the U. S. Weather Bureau said.

Searing hot winds in excess of 20 miles per hour blasted across the Panhandle and South Plains early Monday. Lubbock, Amarillo, and Big Spring bore the brunt of the winds but no dust was reported.

Increased winds, the weather bureau hinted, would surely send the dust swirling into the air.

A 40-year-old Mexican farm laborer, Jaramillo Olmos, died Sunday night on a farm near Pecan after collapsing while chopping cotton in the area's 107-degree heat.

The sultry weather sent the mercury sky-rocketing Sunday with Presidio's 110 degrees the state's highest. It was 105 at Wink, 104 at Childress and Dalhart, 103 at Lubbock and Amarillo and 102 at Wichita Falls. Mineral Wells, Abilene and Midland had 101 degrees with most other Sunday temperatures in the high 90s.

The heat was off to an early start Monday with El Paso reporting 80 degrees at 4:30 a. m. Other temperatures at that time included 78 at secured Salt Flat, 79 at Galveston, 76 at Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Del Rio; 75 at San Antonio and Amarillo and 74 at Junction. Lufkin's 70 and Beaumont's 71 were among the lowest pre-dawn temperatures.

The heat, centered in West Texas Sunday, was due to move eastward with searing winds and few clouds today. Temperatures well in excess of 100 degrees were expected in the heavily populated Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The only rain reported Sunday was .02 of an inch at Dalhart. None was expected today, weathermen said at dawn, although a late forecast had called for thundershowers in the Panhandle late Monday afternoon and night.

Russian Jets Shoot Down Sweden Plane

By LARS EKLUND

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 16 (AP)—Soviet jet fighter planes shot down an unarmed Swedish military search plane off the coast of Estonia today, the government announced. The seven-man crew was picked up later by a German merchant ship. Two of the Swedish crew were reported wounded.

The plane was searching for another Swedish Air Force plane missing with eight men aboard in the same area, where the Russians are reported holding vast air and sea maneuvers.

The Swedish government, reflecting the anger of people in the streets, delivered a strong protest to the Russians.

Soviet Ambassador Constantine Rodionov was summoned to the foreign office to receive the protest personally from Prime Minister Tage Erlander, who is also foreign minister. Crowds in front of the Soviet embassy jeered Rodionov as he left and spat into the embassy compound.

Sweden demanded an immediate investigation and prompt punishment of "those responsible for the outrage."

Erlander also delivered a second request to the Russians that they halt further espionage activity by their diplomats in Sweden. This note referred specifically to the trial which opened here today of seven Swedes charged with selling out this nation's entire vital north-

Summer Here Week Early

It's been hot for a long time now but it had been 273 days since the thermometer reached the 100-plus mark in Big Spring before Sunday.

Sunday the temperature moved to 101 by the official U. S. Weather Bureau report. The thermometer remained at 100 or the one degree above from approximately 3:30 to 4:30 p. m. Sunday. Official maximum forecast for Sunday called for 98.

The last time the temperature went above 100 was September 26, 1951. The reading that day was 102. Forecast that day was 102. Forecast that day was 97.

To make the day seem even hotter, just remember that this is still spring. Summer doesn't start until next Sunday.

Deaths Mount Over U.S. In Heat Wave

By The Associated Press

Deaths mounted Monday under the hot pack of heat and humidity that covered most of the nation.

A survey by the Associated Press showed a four-day total of 76. The toll included six deaths attributed directly to the effects of the oppressive weather, and 70 drownings.

The heat wave lay like a steaming blanket on a huge section of the U. S. that extended from Texas eastward and northeastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Records were melted in many cities. Sunday readings reached as high as 110 degrees. That high was recorded at Presidio, Tex.

Chicago's 94.8 high Sunday was the highest since Aug. 8, 1949. New York's 90.5 was the hottest of the year.

St. Louis had a scorching 101, a record for the date and the hottest day there since 1947. It was the 11th straight day of 90 or higher temperatures in St. Louis.

Six persons were treated for heat prostration in St. Louis hospitals. The city has had only .73 of an inch of rain this month.

Lincoln, Omaha and other Nebraska cities have voluntary water conservation programs.

A serious water shortage threatened Wichita, Kan., after a break in a water main. A contributing cause in the water shortage there is excessive sprinkling of gardens and lawns during the current dry spell.

The heat wave is ripening wheat sooner than expected in Oklahoma. This development is taxing combines and manpower needed to harvest the record crop before it is ruined.

A comparatively cool front moved into the northern and central plains area today. Cooler weather was forecast for Tuesday in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and parts of Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

But no quick, general relief was in sight.

Temperatures of 100 or more were recorded in at least 17 states—Tennessee, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Colorado, Indiana, Texas, Arizona, Alabama, South Dakota, Oklahoma, New Mexico, California, Mississippi, Kentucky and Illinois.

Only northern New England, Wisconsin, Minnesota, the northern Rockies, and the Pacific Coast escaped the thermometer readings of 90 or more.

Famed Female Spy Stabbed To Death

LONDON (AP)—A beautiful Polish noblewoman with a brilliant war record as a British spy was found stabbed to death early today in a Kensington hotel.

The victim was Countess Krystyna Skarbek, 37, ex-saboteur of World War II and a combat veteran of the French Maquis.

Dennis G. Muldowney, 41-year-old porter, was picked up for questioning by detectives.

The countess, who became a naturalized Briton in 1947, signed on the liner Winchester Castle six weeks ago as a stewardess. She had checked in at the hotel alone on Saturday.

Bids On Courthouse To Be Opened Tuesday

A few bids on jail and elevator equipment for Howard County's proposed new Courthouse already have been forwarded here by mail, County Judge Walter Grice reported this morning.

Most bids, however, are due to be submitted tomorrow in person by representatives of the potential contractors.

Bids on six phases of the Courthouse project will be opened at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the District Court Room.

Separate proposals have been asked on general construction, plumbing, air conditioning, electrical work, jail equipment and elevators.

Ike Gets Zweifel's Side Of Texas Issue

FORT WORTH, June 16 (AP)—Henry Zweifel, national Republican committeeman from Texas, today wired General Eisenhower what he called an outline of the situation among Texas Republicans.

Zweifel, a Fort Worth attorney, is state campaign leader for Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio for the GOP presidential nomination.

In his telegram to Eisenhower he repeated his previous contentions that the general's supporters in Texas were Democrats and not bona fide Republicans. He also quoted Texas election laws which he said left party contests up to the party's state executive committees.

Texas has two sets of 38-member delegations to the national convention, one predominantly for Taft and the other for Eisenhower. The Eisenhower supporters held a rump state convention after the state executive committee and pro-Taft convention refused to seat most of their contested county delegates.

The text of Zweifel's telegram to the general in Denver:

"Today's newspapers quoted you as saying that your opinion of the Texas delegate situation is based mainly on what you've read in the papers and that you would make no further comment before ascertaining the actual facts. Permit me, General, to submit for your consideration an outline of some principal facts. The Texas Election Code, Article 220, reads: 'all contests within a political party shall be decided by the state, district or county executive committee as the nature of the office may require, each such committee to retain all such powers and authority as conferred by law.'

"The District and Supreme Court of this, your state, have upheld the clause and have gone further to clarify it by saying: 'The state executive committee of a political party is the sole judge of the qualifications of its member.'

"The state executive committee held open hearings which were in full view of members of the press and television and open to radio microphones. It remained in continuous session from 10 a. m. Monday morning, May 26, until 6:45 a. m. the next morning, May 27, with members of the state executive committee present and voting. After listening to evidence and witnesses on each case with ample time given to each side to present the case, each contest was decided on its merits and some delegates favorable to you were seated. Where your delegates were disqualified, the simple and usually admitted reason was that the voters were not bona fide Republicans. They were Democrats and intended to remain Democrats. I did not vote on a single contest."

Martin Gains Third Devonian Producer; Borden Adds Well

Another good producer was added in Northwestern Martin County's Bredlove-Devonian field today.

Shel finished a producer in the lake basin area of Southeastern Borden County, but it made a heavy quantity of water.

Efforts to produce from a Pennsylvanian zone in a Hermleigh-Elbenburger edge in Southeastern Scurry were for naught and American Trading No. 1-A Howell will probably final in the Elbenburger.

Phillips No. 1-C Schar, a Martin County venture swabbing in the Spraberry, recovered only water.

Shell No. 7 Sterling, 1,980 from the south and 467 from the east lines of section 70-25, H&TC, became a completion in the Von Roeder extension area. Total depth 6,753 in lime. Top of the reef tentatively was put at 6,743. Operator flowed through 32-84 choke, getting 121 barrels of 36 gravity oil and 256 barrels of water in 4 1/2 hours. This gave a calculated daily potential of 645 barrels of oil. Gas-oil ratio was 563-1.

Odessa Notes Service From Water District

Odessans celebrated regular deliveries of water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District Sunday.

Several hundred people turned out for the brief ceremonies which signified the event, and for some high jinks which symbolized the exuberance of the people in having an ample water supply.

J. L. Rhoades, president of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce and a member of the CRMWD board of directors, declared that the day was a significant one not only for Odessa and other member cities of the CRMWD but for this area of West Texas as well. Private initiative and private capital, he reminded, had made the venture possible. Cody Harboure, other CRMWD director for Odessa present at the rites, spoke briefly as did Mayor Fred Gage of Odessa, City Manager Dick Peppin, Jesse Owens, chamber of commerce manager, and others. Members of the governing bodies of Odessa and Ector County were introduced along with those of visiting officials, which included George White, CRMWD director, E. V. Spence, CRMWD general manager, and H. W. Whitney, city manager, and Joe Pickle, CRMWD board secretary.

Big Spring: R. A. Schooling and Lyde Duffebach, CRMWD directors, and Leon Huff, chamber manager, Snyder.

As water was turned into "Lake Ector," a small pond created for the occasion, Don Maxwell, Odessa sporting goods dealer, "hooked" a big catfish. Bathing beauties promenade along the "beach" and youngsters splashed away.

Oilman Ordered To Repay Funds From Trading

PECOS-An oil property suit involving valuable oil holdings which an oil company alleged were "wrongfully and improperly" acquired by its own geologist ended here today.

Federal District Judge R. Ewing Thomason entered judgment in the case of Standard Oil Company of Texas versus Gail H. Stoddard, former head of the company's Midland district geological and exploration department, in favor of the company. He ordered Stoddard to return property he had acquired while with Standard in various personal transactions.

The property acquired, the judgment said, represented transactions which were "wrongful and improper" and amounted to a breach of trust of the obligation and duties owed to the plaintiff Standard Oil Company of Texas by the defendant Gail H. Stoddard.

The court ordered Stoddard to return $2,110.27 of cash and to pay a further amount on the judgment of $21,317.50 of which a lien of $17,000 was entered against his home in Midland. The suit alleged that Stoddard had built his home with money from proceeds of transactions that were "wrongful and improper."

The suit was filed originally in February of 1951 in District Court at Midland but was transferred later to Pecos division of the U.S. Court in Western Texas. Stoddard had filed a counter suit in District Court at Midland, charging libel and slander. Action involving oil properties and individuals in Jasper, Scurry, Upton, Dawson, Jasper and Newton Counties were dropped by Standard.

Stoddard was ordered to return to Standard all gains acquired through the sale of information and all properties bought from sale of such information or from such profits or gratuities. Attorneys indicated that the judgment as entered would end all litigation in the case.

Compliance Plans Used To Stabilize Rents In Area

Very few landlords seek to evade the Federal Rent Law and demand prices above the set level, Arch L. Propps, Acting Director of the Rent Stabilization Office, reported today.

But for the minority that attempt to evade the law, it is necessary to establish a compliance program to effectively stabilize rent in this area, the director explained.

Should a case of rent above the set level be reported, the Rent Office seeks to explain the national rent law and to work out a settlement between the tenant and the landlord.

Tenants are protected from overcharges by a provision permitting a suit against the landlord for triple damage and court costs.

Two types of compliance methods are used by the rent office—mediation and litigation.

Through mediation, most cases are worked out between the tenant and the landlord. In these cases, the rent office serves only as advisor for both sides.

Cases in which one side is a repeat violator—constantly attempting to beat the law—the office uses full authority of the federal law in the case. This can end in treble damages for the convicted and, in some cases, an injunction to halt further violations.

Man Is Injured In Auto Mishap

X-Rays were being taken of L. M. Bankson of 104 W. 8th Street at the Malone-Hogan Hospital Clinic early this afternoon.

Bankson was injured in an automobile mishap shortly before noon some 25 miles south of Big Spring on the San Angelo highway.

He was rushed to the hospital in an Eberley ambulance.

Three Fined $100 In County Court

Three fines were assessed in County Court this morning, each of them amounting to $100 and court costs.

W. A. Hurley and Henry Shaw, each pleaded guilty before Judge Walter Grice to charges of driving while intoxicated. Julian Trevino had already signed a plea of guilty on a similar charge.

Fines Of $325 Assessed Man In City Court

Probably the largest aggregate of fines ever assessed against one person in Corporation Court was levied against a Big Spring Latin American man Monday morning.

The man was assessed four fines for a total of $325 after he pleaded guilty to charges of leaving the scene of an accident, reckless driving, speeding and affray.

The assessment was made during a court session that approached records in two other respects.

The three-hour session was one of the longest ever conducted and fines levied totaled $911 on 32 pleas of guilty to various charges. In addition, seven persons forfeited bonds totalling $95 when they failed to appear in answer to drunkenness and disturbance charges.

Drawing the $325 in fines was a motorist arrested by city police Saturday night and released Sunday on bonds aggregating $350.

The defendant was arrested after he fled from a northside cafe when officers arrived to investigate reports of a fight.

All city police units participated in rounding up the man and a companion who was fined on disturbance charges. Police said they chased the pair approximately a mile. They said he struck two other vehicles with his automobile while trying to make a getaway. Not damaged extensively were autos owned by H. A. Pachall, Gall Route, and Adam M. Moraes, 509 N.E. 9th.

Fifteen drunkenness fines totaled $325 during the Monday morning court session. Two persons were fined $40 after pleading guilty to affray.

Six pleaded guilty to speeding charges and were fined a total of $95. Another pleaded guilty to driving without license and was fined $25 and required to write a traffic slogan 100 times within the week. A motorist was fined $25 after he pleaded guilty to running a red light and becoming involved in an accident.

A $45 fine was assessed on a plea of guilty to disturbance. Parking on sidewalk cost another driver $4; passing in a no-passing zone resulted in a $15 levy, and prohibited zone parking cost a driver $2. A $5 fine was assessed for prohibited left turn and a plea of guilty to overtime parking resulted in a $1 fine.

Three persons were found not guilty on charges of driving without license. One charged with driving while intoxicated was transferred to County Court as was one charged with aggravated assault on an officer. Transferred to the district attorney was a complaint of assault with deadly weapon. One person charged with intoxication was released to air policemen.

Odessa Notes Service From Water District

Odessans celebrated regular deliveries of water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District Sunday.

Several hundred people turned out for the brief ceremonies which signified the event, and for some high jinks which symbolized the exuberance of the people in having an ample water supply.

J. L. Rhoades, president of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce and a member of the CRMWD board of directors, declared that the day was a significant one not only for Odessa and other member cities of the CRMWD but for this area of West Texas as well. Private initiative and private capital, he reminded, had made the venture possible. Cody Harboure, other CRMWD director for Odessa present at the rites, spoke briefly as did Mayor Fred Gage of Odessa, City Manager Dick Peppin, Jesse Owens, chamber of commerce manager, and others. Members of the governing bodies of Odessa and Ector County were introduced along with those of visiting officials, which included George White, CRMWD director, E. V. Spence, CRMWD general manager, and H. W. Whitney, city manager, and Joe Pickle, CRMWD board secretary.

Big Spring: R. A. Schooling and Lyde Duffebach, CRMWD directors, and Leon Huff, chamber manager, Snyder.

As water was turned into "Lake Ector," a small pond created for the occasion, Don Maxwell, Odessa sporting goods dealer, "hooked" a big catfish. Bathing beauties promenade along the "beach" and youngsters splashed away.

Snake Invades Railroad Yard

Add to the hazards of outside work in West Texas these days, rattlesnakes.

Jack Dyer, 24, was going about his job in the railroad yards here last night when he was bitten in the leg by a rattler in an ugly mood.

He reportedly was resting well in a local hospital.

Plans To Begin For Building

An Abilene architectural firm has been retained to prepare plans for the six-story office building to be erected at Second and Scurry by Cooley Interests of Fort Worth, it was learned here Monday.

David S. Castle Company was named as the firm to prepare the plans. The same architect made preliminary plans for the structure when local interests were considering construction.

No date for start of work has been set, although lease contracts signed Saturday calls for office space to be available by June 30, 1953. The Cooley group is to construct the building on land formerly owned by the Chamber of Commerce at Second and Scurry, just south of the Petroleum Building.

The chamber Saturday sold the lot to Cooley for $25,000 with the consideration to be received in the form of office rental in the new building. Cosden Petroleum Corporation so far has largest future tenant of the building, having contracted for the lease of two floors Saturday.

Lad Falls 1,500 Feet, But None Of Bones Broken

LAKE ARROWHEAD, Calif. (AP)—A 10-year-old boy who tumbled down a 1,500-foot cliff and didn't break a bone was recovering today.

Attendants at Santa Anita Hospital said Kenneth Wright Jr., suffered a concussion, cuts and bruises and possible internal injuries in his fall yesterday but is expected to be all right.

Kenneth, of Compton, Calif., was playing atop the cliff with two companions when he slipped. His playmates, Ralph and Gary Sangster, said he dropped 200 feet virtually straight down, landing on a nearly vertical rockside more than 1,000 feet long.

He rolled and tumbled down the slide then took another drop and roll before reaching the foot of the cliff.

Big Springer Gets Harrison Holdings

C. L. Ray of Waskom has turned extensive mineral holdings in the Waskom oil and gas field of Harrison County over to James Ott Duncan of Big Spring.

It was one of the largest oil and gas transactions recorded at Marshall in several months. Revenue stamps indicated a consideration up to $26,000, which would figure out around $35 an acre.

The deal involved 377 acres in one tract; 18.78 acres in another; 50 acres in still another; 159 in a fourth tract; and 107 acres in the final unit.

TRANSIENT BUILDING Is Damaged By Fire

A former school building, parked temporarily at 610 Lamesa Highway, was slightly damaged by fire about 2:45 a.m. today, firemen reported. The structure was being moved here to be sold.

Firemen who extinguished the blaze said a group of hobos sleeping in the building apparently started the fire. One wall was slightly damaged.

Three alarms were reported Sunday, all occasioned by trash fire. No damage resulted from any of the blazes.

MARKETS

WALL STREET, June 16 (AP)—The stock market was mixed today with trading quiet, prices changed fractionally for the most part, but extended a little more to a point on the downside.

Rails and steel held steady. Copper mining issues and golds were slightly higher.

Chemicals sagged.

The market started on an irregular, week-end orders were cleared out in a hurry, and the tape halted frequently. The action of the tape halted frequently, irregularly followed the line rather than the market. And there were some market influences with the continuing steel strike the greatest barrier to a concerted market movement.

In the deadlock that has idled 650,000 of Murray's union for two weeks and no new negotiations were scheduled.

The industry said the main issue was its refusal to accept the union shop under which all steelworkers would be required to join the union. Murray, however, says there are other issues.

The White House continued to give no hint of whether President Truman will follow the recommendation of a Senate-adopted amendment calling on the President to invoke the 80-day no-strike injunction clause of the Taft-Hartley Act. The Senate voted last week to tack the amendment on a measure to extend wage, price, rent and production controls.

The House still must act on the measure and is expected to follow the Senate. Presumably this vote will come before the controls act expires June 30.

If Truman does invoke the Taft-Hartley Act, which he detests, he was not expected to do so until the House votes on the amendment.

This amendment, sponsored by Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), drew the fire of the CIO over the week end. The union newspaper, CIO News, said in an editorial that "Dislegis"—Republicans and Southern Democrats—had kicked labor in the face by passing the amendment.

MRS. BILL THOMPSON

Bill Thompsons To Live In Doyline, La.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson will make their home in Doyline, La.

The bride is the former Anita Forrest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Forrest, 405 Wills, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thompson of Doyline are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Maple Avery, pastor of the E. 4th Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony Saturday at 6 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. The couple repeated their vows as they stood before an altar decorated with a background of greenery intermingled with white stock and gladioli.

Mrs. F. G. Talley, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Jo Nell West, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length white embroidered organdy dress. It was fashioned with a basque pointed waist, bouffant skirt and demi-bolero. Her hem-length French illusion veil was attached to a starched lace cap dotted with rhinestones.

She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations on a white Bible.

In carrying out the bridal tradition, she wore a cameo ring, an heirloom belonging to the family of Miss West, as something old. New was her dress, borrowed from a strand of pearls belonging to her sister, Mrs. T. W. Crow; and blue was a miniature arrangement of forget-me-nots in her headdress.

Lou Ann Nail was maid of honor. She was attired in a blue French organdy dress with bands of white embroidered organdy inset in the skirt. The dress was designed with a basque waist, Peter Pan collar and covered buttons down the front.

She wore an arrangement of yellow daisies in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies, gold satin ribbon and maline.

Billie Wayne King served as best man.

Ushers were Pat McDaniel and Sam Thompson, brother of the bridegroom of Doyline.

A reception was given following the ceremony in the church banquet room.

In the receiving line with the couple were their mothers and the maid of honor.

The refreshment table was laid with a white Venetian lace cloth etched in gold and centered with an arrangement of white carnations. Throughout the entertaining rooms were baskets of white gladioli, maroon daisies, greenery and palms.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Venita Allison cut the cake and Bobbie Ruth Johnson served the punch from a crystal bowl.

Fern Crabtree, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest register.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. Bill Kuykendall, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Dean Forrest, Mrs. Glenn Cantrell, Mrs. E. S. Crabtree, Mrs. J. A. Forrest, Mrs. J. Fred Whitaker and Mrs. W. H. Forrest.

Mrs. Thompson is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College one year. At the college she was voted all-school favorite and was a member of the choir, set and Lasso Club. She also served as cheer leader.

Her husband is a graduate of Doyline Junior High School and Howard County Junior College, where he was president of the student body, a member of the Literary Club, the choir and basketball captain.

Barbecue, Rally Is Planned; Club Meets With Mrs. Wise

FORSAN, (Sp1)—The Forsan Service Club completed plans for the Howard Glasscock barbecue and political rally at the meeting Thursday night at the school.

The affair is to be sponsored jointly by the Service Club and the Study Club and will be held Friday evening at the country club beginning at 6:30.

In charge of preparing the meet for the barbecue are W. C. King, E. M. Bailey, Joe T. Holladay, Hamlin Elrod and G. L. Monroey.

Tickets are on sale by club members and are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Proceeds from the affair will go to maintaining the local fire truck.

The Boy Scouts earned $146.80 from the sale of scrap iron, according to the Scout Master, Forrest Wingett. The Scouts will be the guests of the club at the next regular meeting, June 26, after which the club will adjourn until September.

Mrs. M. M. Fairchild served supper to 18 members and one guest, M. F. Valentine.

Mrs. C. J. Wise included three guests when she entertained the Casual Bridge Club in her home recently.

They were Mrs. William Foster and Mrs. Bubba Foster of Sterling City and Mrs. John Sweeney.

Mrs. Foster won high score and Mrs. O. W. Scudday, second high. Winners at bingo were Mrs. James Underwood and Mrs. B. J. Wiss.

Mrs. Wiss will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Ray Shortes has announced an all-day meeting and covered dish luncheon of the Home Demonstration Club in the Methodist Church annex Tuesday.

The business session will open at 10 a.m. and at 11 Mrs. B. J. Wiss will begin a corsage demonstration.

The group will recess at 12 for luncheon and the demonstration will be resumed at 1 p.m. The meeting will adjourn at 2 p.m.

Mrs. James Underwood left Saturday on a three week vacation that will include Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Vancouver, B. C. and a visit with a sister in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

She will return home by way of Minneapolis, St. Paul and St. Louis.

Dorothy Jean Gressett will work in the Continental Oil Co. district office during Mrs. Underwood's absence.

The Ladies Auxiliary will meet at the country club Monday evening for a covered dish dinner and business meeting.

A nominating committee will be named at that time to select officers for the coming year. Mrs. M. M. Hines has announced.

Mrs. Jesse Overton was in charge of the Royal Service program when the Baptist WMS met Wednesday afternoon at the church.

The program topic was "Alaska" and those having parts were Mrs. C. C. Suttles, Mrs. Henry Park, Mrs. George Overton and Mrs. W. J. White.

Mrs. Oscar Pettit led the opening prayer, Mrs. White, the closing.

Mrs. White will conduct the Bible Study at the meeting next Wednesday.

Two Show Corsage Making At Meeting Of Knott HD Club

Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. O. S. Gaskins gave a demonstration on making corsages when the Knott Home Demonstration Club met recently in the home of Mrs. W. A. Burchell.

The demonstrators used roses and baby orchids in the corsages.

It was reported that the club had made $104.17 from the sale of food and cakes at the candidate rally.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Robert Brown. Members are being asked to bring a guest or be subject to a fine at the door.

Nine attended.

Pat Lawson Is Honored; Mrs. Hutchinson Speaks

GARDEN CITY, (Sp1) — The home of Mrs. Vena Lawson was the scene of a party for Pat Lawson given by his mother, Mrs. Robert Lawson, in honor on his third birthday.

Both outdoor and indoor games were played. Each child received a favor.

Refreshments were served to Bradly, Ailee and Dixie Hodges, Susan Cox, Johnnie McMullen, Kay Sawyers, Carol Lynn and Donna Pendergrass, Cecil, Jamie, and Retha Lee Huggins.

Annett and Bryan Fitzhugh, Freddie Chaney, Mrs. Keiso Lockin and Lynda and Kenny of Midland, Gerry and Ruby Schuck of Barnhart, Mrs. Ross Hodges, Mrs. Buster Cox, Mrs. Janet McMullen, Mrs. Sawyers, Mrs. W. A. Pendergrass, Mrs. Warren Huggins, Mrs. Max Fitzhugh, Mrs. W. E. Chaney and Mrs. Eazy Ezell of Barnhart.

Mrs. A. W. Hutchinson gave a talk in the form of a devotional on "Prayer," when the WSCS met at the church recently. Mrs. Tom Asbill led the group in a song with Mrs. I. L. Watkins at the piano.

Mrs. M. L. Prescott and children have returned from Tucson, Ariz., where they visited an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Disney had as their recent guests her mother, Mrs. Rex Keys, and Nancy of Dublin. The Disney's spent the week end in Fort Worth.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Bowman had as their guests during the week, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowman Jr. and Steve Kent of Big Lake.

Mrs. Mamie Gandy and Billie Lou Gandy are spending the summer with relatives in Artesia, N. M.

Mrs. L. B. McElreath, Mrs. G. T. Baum and Mrs. Hamlin Elrod attended the district conference of the Methodist WSCS in Sweetwater Tuesday.

Mrs. B. A. Harris led the closing prayer.

Following the short program the ladies cleaned the church kitchen and took measurements for curtains for the class rooms.

The cleaning of the church was continued when members of the Garden City Methodist Church met at the church Thursday for a day of work. The men worked in the yard cutting weeds and cleaning and bringing in dirt for the lawns.

The ladies worked on the inside cleaning and making curtains. The ladies also served lunch at noon. Ice cream and cake was served when the work was finished.

The second group meeting was held Thursday at the school for those girls taking part in the summer home economics program of the Garden City School under the direction of Doris Jean Morehead.

Chairs were refinished for use in the lab. Final plans were made for the camp Monday and Tuesday at the Baptist Camp in Big Spring.

The group will go to Colorado Tuesday afternoon to go swimming. A trip to Carlsbad Cavern was also planned for June 30. A sack

GOP Farmers Backing Taft As Manual Laborers Favoring Ike

By GEORGE GALLUP Director, American Institute of Public Opinion PRINCETON, N. J. —The fierce struggle between the Taft and Eisenhower forces for the coveted G.O.P. presidential nomination is well demonstrated by the differing attitudes toward the two men among Republican voters in various occupation groups.

Central and West Central states. A substantial proportion of farmers who regard themselves as Republicans are in those two sections of the country. Elsewhere Eisenhower is shown leading in popularity. The national vote as reported June 4 was: Eisenhower 43 per cent, Taft 36 per cent, MacArthur 9 per cent, Warren 6 per cent, Stassen 3 per cent and Dewey 2 per cent.

More Charges Over Texas GOP Votes

By The Associated Press
Counter-charges by Republican presidential candidates over Texas' 38 delegates to the GOP national convention held the political stage center today. But there were other fast-moving developments.

Veteran Finance Committee member Marrs McLean of San Antonio, a backer of Senator Robert Taft, said the Republicans were only carrying out their responsibilities at Mineral Wells when they seated pro-Taft delegates.

Former U. S. Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, who says he is a candidate for President himself, charged in his regular Sunday afternoon radio address that "New Dealers are trying to see to it that Eisenhower gets the Republican nomination."

O'Daniel, one-time hill-billy fiddle band politician who climbed to the governorship and the Senate via barnstorming musical tours and radio, did not elaborate on his statement.

Joining the delegate fuss, McLean disputed charges that the GOP state convention at Mineral Wells was improperly conducted.

"This picture of dishonesty on the part of the Taft forces in Texas is definitely and positively not true," McLean said. "It has been handed to the people of the United States and Texas continuously and emphatically by refusal of press associations and many papers in Texas to let the public know facts that would show the Eisenhower forces are the would-be thieves who didn't get away with what they undertook to do."

McLean continued:

"Eisenhower backers tried to control the Republican precinct meetings and county conventions in Texas with Democrat voters who had no rights in the Republican precinct meetings."

McLean then cited the pre-convention meetings in which the state GOP executive committee voted to require an "I-Am-A-Republican" statement from those who took part in party meetings.

Such a statement, he said, "even if signed in good faith, does not make one a Republican voter."

Today, meanwhile, was important for Democratic candidates for state and county offices.

County Democratic committees would allocate ballot positions today and it was also the date for second filings of expense accounts and contributions.

The Democratic candidates were to hear from the county committees over the state just what it was going to cost them to get their names on the ballots.

Rep. Lindley Beckworth, campaigning for U. S. Senate, announced a series of about forty speeches tomorrow through Saturday.

The driving Beckworth, quickening the fast pace of the Senate campaign scheduled speeches tomorrow at Grandbury, Glen Rose, Walnut Springs, Meridian, Hico, Dublin, Comanche and Hamilton.

Price Daniel, Beckworth's most active opponent, scheduled speeches today at Livingston, Woodville, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, and Center. Tonight he was to be a guest at a Carthage banquet honoring State Senator Margie Neal.

Ike Is Becoming A Fighting Candidate

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is edging slowly into the role of a fighting candidate. He and Sen. Robert A. Taft may yet be slugging it out toe-to-toe for the Republican presidential nomination.

Two weeks of civilian campaigning appear to have drawn the five-star general much farther into the active battle for the nomination than he expected when he first returned from Europe.

Some of Eisenhower's associates are predicting that before the end of another week he will abandon his already strained "no personalities" rule and will be striking out directly at Taft, his chief rival.

Already, his aides say, the general came closer in a Saturday night speech in Detroit than ever before to becoming the battling candidate they want to see in action.

In that speech Eisenhower lashed himself a "no-deal" candidate—a thrust at Taft's maneuvers to control the machinery of the GOP convention opening in Chicago July 7.

Having kissed babies, ridden bareheaded in parades, signed autographs and accepted carved wooden elephants, Eisenhower has come a long way from the attitude he expressed in Europe. There he said if the American people wanted him they knew where to find him.

The next step, some of his advisers say, will be to join personally in the hue and cry his campaign managers have raised about what they call the theft of delegates by the Taft forces in Texas and other states.

The general hadn't got that far in a Detroit news conference yesterday. He said all he knew about this was what he read in the papers.

Taft backers generally will welcome a knock-down fight with Eisenhower, believing the Ohio senator is more adept at that kind of politics than the general.

Compared with the smooth operation of Taft's well-trained political aides, the Eisenhower campaign still bears the aura of an amateur performance. Nobody is quite certain what is going to happen, or where.

Eisenhower himself makes it plain he isn't used to doing many of the things now required of him and doesn't like some of them. He regards it as a chore to have to make speeches, particularly those with prepared texts. The general has found he isn't his own boss any more.

Although he has been briefed extensively since his return, he still isn't familiar with political details. He didn't know, for instance, that Secretary of Defense Lovett and John J. McCloy, high commissioner in Germany, are Republicans.

Despite these difficulties, Eisenhower's managers think that since his return from Europe he has done about everything that could be asked of him to push along his quest for enough delegates to get the nomination.

Briton Unhappy As U.S. Youths Grow Up Early

LONDON (AP)—British philosopher Cyril E. M. Joad clucks his tongue disapprovingly at American kids in their cowboy suits and bobby socks. And he has a sigh of pity for them, too.

"Poor little brutes," he sighed yesterday—loud enough to be heard by the 2½ million subscribers of the Sunday Dispatch, which carries his column.

The head of London University's School of Philosophy said American youngsters eat their cake too early and get through it too quickly. It is "this too-early maturity in this matter of manners, customs, habits and dress in Americans which makes them reach such an early, uninteresting and uniform middle-age."

Because they are spoiled and absorb exercise, they grow up stoop-shouldered, he contended. Their "pale, pasty faces are due to the incredibly high temperatures which, by means of central heating, the maintain in their houses."

What shocked Joad was the appearance of a planeload of American "war baby" children who arrived here last week to visit their British grandparents—"little boys of 7 years old dressed in check suits, long trousers and blue trilby (snap brim) hats; children in cowboy suits and bobby socks; children in violent tartans."

"This means that the taste of those who dress them is itself the taste of children, for it is children—and, may one add, savages and birds—who are always attracted by anything which is bright, startling, starting and different . . ."

The professor was sorrowful that the English mothers of the tots "should have had the naive good taste, which we hope they took with them to America, so rapidly corrupted."

Joad said American kids of 14 were acting as if they were grown up—having dates and driving cars. He said he and most of his friends turned 20 "without ever having had a drink or kissed a girl," and that's the way it should be.

TEXAS BRANDS

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
The ST brand was started by Samuel W. Tate in Llano and possibly Burnett and Blaine Counties in the early '70s and was well known during the days of open range and trail driving. Its owner drove cattle up the trail to Kansas in the '70s and continued his ranching operations in Llano and surrounding counties until his death in 1898.

Originally the brand had a half-circle over it, but in later years only the ST was used. The brand was discontinued after the death of Mr. Tate but was later taken up by Samuel A. Tate, grandson of the original owner, who continues to use it.

Maine Governor Tries To Unseat Sen. Brewster

By EARL ARONSON
PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—Maine's Republican voters are deciding in today's primary the outcome of a political fight since he first went to Congress in 1934.

Seeking to block Brewster's third-term Senate re-nomination is a battle marked by charges of lies, conspiracy and hate campaigns. Both voiced confidence of voters.

Brewster is a staunch supporter of Sen. Robert Taft's presidential aspirations. Payne is one of Dwight Eisenhower's prime backers in Maine. The Taft-Eisenhower issue wasn't injected into the fight, however.

Payne generally close at 7 p.m. In an election-eve speech, Payne called for a heavy vote, saying he thought it would bring him victory.

Brewster, in his final statement, said a vote against him would be a "vote to repudiate the Taft-Hartley Act" and "would have incalculable consequences" in the face of the continuing steel strike. Asserting that some labor leaders have put him on "the super purge list," Brewster said Taft-Hartley is the only campaign issue "as far as the nation is concerned."

The Payne-Brewster contest is one of five to be settled. There is a three-way Republican race for gubernatorial nomination, between State Senate President Burton M. Cross, Executive Council Chairman Leroy F. Hussey, and former State Sen. Nell S. Bishop.

Competing for the Democratic senatorial nomination are former State Sen. Roger P. Dube and Earl S. Grant, a Portland business college president.

The other contests are for Democratic nomination to Congress.

The three Republican U.S. representatives are unopposed for re-nomination.

Justice Dept. Reorganization Seen Underway

By JACK ADAMS
WASHINGTON (AP)—A broad reorganization of the government's legal branch, the Justice Department, appeared in the making today in the wake of three new resignations by top officials.

Out of office Saturday went exactly half of the six assistant attorneys general.

Harold I. Baynton, 48-year-old Nevada who headed the Office of Alien Property. His unit had been under congressional attack.

H. Graham Morison, 45, of Johnson City, Tenn., and Bristol, Va., head of the Anti-Trust Division.

William A. Underhill, 42, of Deland Fla., chief of the Lands Division.

President Truman's new attorney general, James P. McGranery, announced in Philadelphia that the resignations had been accepted.

McGranery succeeded J. Howard McGrath as head of the Justice Department at the crest of a corruption-in-government uproar that had led to the ouster of still another assistant, T. Lamar Caudle, fired by the President himself.

The departure of the three others was less dramatic.

When McGranery took office May 27, all division heads submitted "courtesy resignations," so that the new chief might have a free hand in organizing his department.

McGranery announced Saturday, without elaboration, that three of these resignations were being accepted.

Those leaving, for a return to private law practice, all served under both McGrath and his predecessor, Tom Clark, now a Supreme Court justice.

Rep. Hillings (R-Calif.), a member of the House committee investigating the Justice Department, was among those forecasting additional top-level changes "in the very near future."

He made one new appointment immediately—Rowland F. Kirks, 37-year-old dean of National University Law School here, to succeed Baynton as alien property custodian.

Riding The GRUB LINE

By Franklin Reynolds
Her big chance has come at last, according to what we hear.

Big Spring's pretty Patricia McCormick, North America's only lady bullfighter, the slender blonde who abandoned her books at Texas Western College for bulls in the arena, has signed for two appearances in the huge Plaza de Mexico in Mexico City. The dates have not been set but will probably come next month.

There is but one more honor for her to seek, once the Mexico City engagements are past, and that will be an appearance in old Madrid.

Pat will not be the first woman to fight bulls in the Mexico City Plaza but she will be the first to fight them there on foot.

Conchita Citron, a Peruvian bullfighter, made an appearance there but she fought her bulls from horseback. This arena has seats for 70,000 fans.

Pat made her professional debut at Juarez in January and since has been appearing in arenas along the Border at Juarez and Nuevo Laredo. Her next appearance is scheduled for Juarez, next Sunday, June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Norfleet observed their 60th wedding anniversary at their home southwest of Hale Center on Friday the 13th.

Many of the younger generation have never heard of this Hale County rancher, and many others have heard but a part of the story.

Years ago confidence men cheated Norfleet out of a large sum of money in Fort Worth. He didn't ask for help, other than to tell Mrs. Norfleet it was up to her to run the ranch while he was gone. He put more money in his hip pockets, sixshooters in his vest pockets, and derringers in his vest pockets, made up his mind before breakfast, and took the trail. It was a matter of years before he got them all rounded up, but he finally got every one in the penitentiary, and in the course of his detective work he unraveled a number of other crimes that enabled law officers to herd a large number of other criminals in between stone walls and iron bars.

The Hale County rancher's activities in getting this job done were featured in newspapers and magazines all over the world and for years afterward peace officers from all over the Southwest, with perplexing mysteries to solve sought his advice and suggestions. Once he had rounded up these criminals he returned to the ranch.

Some of the finest cow horses and race horses in Texas history have come from the Norfleet band.

West Slates Talks On Varied Problems

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Under the threat of a possible new Russian drive to split the West, United States officials start today a series of talks with British and French representatives on problems dividing the three powers.

Korea, Indochina and Germany are high on the list.

And the talks got added urgency from the week-end disclosure that Moscow is assigning its chief deputy foreign minister, Andrei Gromyko, to be a ambassador to London.

This looks to some officials like a major new Russian move in the cold war—and, more than likely, one aimed at disrupting the U.S.-British-French alliance.

Against this background, the Big Three powers will discuss, among other things:

1. France's desire for increased American help in carrying on its billion-dollar-a-year war in Indochina. This was expected to be the main theme of conferences to be held by Jean LeTourneau, French minister for relations with the Indochinese States, who had an appointment with Secretary of State Acheson today. The Frenchman also is seeking to learn from State and Defense Department officials how much assistance the United States will give in case of a massive Chinese Communist attack on Indochina.
2. The conduct of Korean truce negotiations and the handling of Communist prisoners of war. These matters are expected to be taken up by the British defense minister, Lord Alexander, who is expected here to see Defense Secretary Lovett and other top American officials next week end. Alexander is in Korea for a personal look at the situation. There has been growing criticism in Britain of the way the Korean sector of the struggle with communism is being run, and the feeling has been voiced that if Britain had had a

Land Reform Bill Is Okayed In Guatemala

GUATEMALA, Guatemala (AP)—A new land reform bill here will give the government power to expropriate farms and lease or sell them to farm workers.

The bill originated by President Jacobo Arbenz and backed also by the Communists, was passed by Congress yesterday and now awaits the President's signature.

Landowners will be paid in government bonds paying 4 per cent interest and maturing in 25 years. A 10 million dollar bond issue will finance the scheme.

Strike Hits 300,000 N.Y. Rail Commuters

NEW YORK (AP)—Motormen and engineers struck today against the Long Island Rail Road, almost immediately halting one of the nation's busiest passenger lines with 300,000 daily riders.

Members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers (independent) started to leave their jobs shortly after 3 a.m.

Scarcely an hour later, the railroad announced, "All train service is suspended until further notice."

Commuters were expected to jam highways and overcrowded subways and buses in an effort to get to their jobs in New York City.

The strike, which was rumored for the last few weeks, stems from the application of the National Railroad Agreement of last May 23 to the Long Island.

For users of the bankrupt railroad, the walkout was the latest in a series of wrecks, snowstorms, breakdowns and other troubles which have plagued the line.

Michael E. McMahon, brotherhood grievance committee chairman for the Long Island, issued the strike call to 360 engineers and motormen shortly before midnight last night.

He said the union had "about 131 grievances" and that "nothing has been done in a couple of years to alleviate these."

A company spokesman, at the strike deadline, issued a statement describing the strike as "wholly unauthorized, a clear violation of the National Railway Labor Act."

He said the company has requested the National Railroad mediation Board to advise President Truman of the dispute.

The National Railroad Agreement of last month ended a dispute of more than two years during which the government seized the nation's railroads.

Brotherhood officials have contended that the basic features of this agreement were intended to apply only to large trunk roads

TV Show Dedicated To Doomed Youth

By LOYD WOLFE
CHELSEA, Okla. (AP)—A 15-year-old cancer victim who isn't aware that doctors have given him only three weeks to live is waiting calmly to watch an hour-long television program tonight dedicated to him.

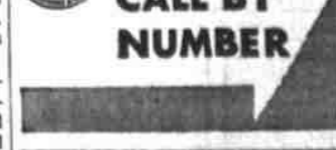

Bobby Shaw, amazed by all the publicity and gifts he has received, has told his mother continually: "I don't deserve it. I'm not good enough for someone to do all this for me."

But Mrs. Earl Shaw says she tells Bobby he's been a good boy who has had a tough time of it, and everyone is trying to help him get well soon.

Bobby is expected to slip into a coma in about three weeks and never recover. He has had three operations in a Tulsa hospital but doctors finally have given up hope.

Television station KOTV at Tulsa and the Tulsa World joined forces to put on the big show for Bobby at 11:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. A large cast of entertainers and well-wishers will be headed by Gov. Johnston Murray who, by letter, will make him an honorary

Three Down Seeking Relief From The Heat

By The Associated Press
Hot weather and efforts to escape it cost at least four of ten lives lost in violent manners over Texas during the week end.

A 40-year-old Mexican bracer, Jaramillo Omos, died last night in Pecos from heat stroke suffered in 107-degree heat while chopping cotton on the R. D. Whittington farm. Whittington saw the man fall and brought him to Pecos, where a doctor pronounced him dead.

Three persons drowned as they sought relief from the heat.

Forsan Wins First Basin League Game

Dee Anderson Counts In 11th

FORSAN — The Forsan Oilers crowded across a run in the 11th inning to defeat Ballinger-Winters, 11-10, and win their first Concho Basin League game of the season here Sunday afternoon.

Dee Anderson led off the frame with his third hit of the contest. He went to third on a hit by Lefty Shelton, from where he scooted home on a wild pitch. No one was out at the time.

The Oilers tied the count in the sixth by a single by Shelton, a walk to George Gray, a hit batsman and a single after two were out by Ken Cowley.

Burroughs blasted a home run with two on for Ballinger-Winters in the second. Buchanan hit a three-run round tripper for the Oilers in the fourth.

Forsan counted five runs in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings to close the gap in the late stages of the contest.

Tommy Shafter and Shelton divided time on the mound for Forsan, with Shelton getting credit for the win. Shafter had seven strikeouts. Shelton 17.

Bengals Split With Lamesans

LAMESA — Big Spring's Tigers stopped the Lamesa Red Sox here Sunday afternoon 4-0 to end the Sox's 10-game winning streak but lost the second game 8-7.

The Tiger's Guy Lara blanked the Red Sox on 6 hits while striking out 4. He aided the Big Spring cause by getting two hits.

Big Spring opened the first inning with one run, added one in the sixth, and scored two more in the seventh.

In the second contest, Big Spring blasted out 14 hits to 13 for the hosts but Lamesa gathered theirs to score one more run.

The Red Sox scored in the first, second, fourth, and sixth innings. Lara, who pitched the first game, played short stop for one inning and went to the mound again. He contributed three hits and two runs in the second contest. He struck out four to run his count to eight for the day.

Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N.C., tries a little extra help but his putt rolls around the cup (hidden by ball) on the ninth green of the third round of the U.S. Open Golf Championship at Northwood Club, Dallas. He got a par on the hole. He won the championship with a 281. (AP Wirephoto).

AFTER OPEN WIN

Imagine a big league baseball team dissipating an 11-0 lead? Sound incredible, doesn't it? It happened, though. No later than yesterday.

Hogan, whose 286 for 72 holes placed third and lost him the title for the first time in four tries, won't play any more tournaments this year. Johnny Bulla, who was fourth with 287, is passing up Louisville.

Boros took a check for $4,000, the loot gained in winning the National Open here Saturday, with him. He shot one-over-par 281 for the 72 holes to snare the title with a four-stroke edge.

Big Jules won't play in the PGA for the simple reason that he isn't eligible—he has been a professional less than three years and you have to be one five years to get into that tournament.

Only one of the top four men in the Open will play at Louisville. Hogan, whose 286 for 72 holes placed third and lost him the title for the first time in four tries, won't play any more tournaments this year. Johnny Bulla, who was fourth with 287, is passing up Louisville.

Ed Oliver, golfer's round man who finished second with 285, is due to play in the PGA. Oliver was almost as big a surprise as Boros. But like Julius, Oliver's putting put him across. He sank a 45-foot putt on the eighteenth green in each of Saturday's last two rounds.

Ike Relaxing Before Entering Final Lap

By DON WHITEHEAD
DENVER (U-P) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower took time out from politics today to polish up his golf game and relax briefly before entering the last hard drive to win the Republican presidential nomination.

The general called off all public appearances except a brief visit to a breakfast meeting of Western farm editors. There will be a steak dinner with newsmen late in the day and a quiet evening with his family.

Tomorrow he will officially open his headquarters in the Brown Palace Hotel here and plunge into the stretch fight for the nomination.

Over the week end, the general gave a generous sample of what can be expected in the days to come.

He gave three talks in Detroit, held an unusual Sunday morning news conference, conferred with Republican delegates, and then flew here to receive a roaring welcome from tens of thousands of people who stood under a broiling sun to cheer him and his wife Mamie.

In those two days, the general looked more like a fighting candidate than he has at any time since he gave up command of the Western European defense forces and retired from active Army duty to enter politics.

Developments popped forth in rapid-fire order as Eisenhower made these moves:

1. Labeled himself "strictly a no-deal man" without political commitments in his fight for the presidency.

2. Scrapped the two carefully prepared speeches of his advisers and struck out in Detroit in off-the-cuff talks to convince the people in his own way. He said it an "honest, decent approach" isn't enough—then there is nothing more he can do.

3. Strongly defended the Joint Chiefs of Staff and in effect said he wouldn't bring Gen. Douglas MacArthur into the government if he (Eisenhower) were elected President—statements which put him directly at odds with Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, his major opponent for the GOP presidential nomination.

4. Repeated that the Democrats must be dumped from power and implied he was just the man who could do it.

5. Declared that corruption could be cleaned out of government and added "that applies to primaries... and that applies to my native state of Texas."

This was interpreted as a sharp jab at the Taft forces, who have been accused by the Eisenhower people of "stealing" Republican delegates in Texas.

6. Said he favored keeping diplomatic avenues open abroad—but he would leave to public opinion the decision of whether or not an ambassador should be sent to the Vatican.

7. Said the "truth and facts" should be known about the Texas dispute over GOP delegates to the national convention.

SPRINGMAID Spring Knight SHEETS

Uniform weave and quality finish make the difference in SPRINGMAID SPRING KNIGHT sheets. They're wonderfully soft and smooth yet able to withstand extra-rugged wear and repeated washings. Hold a SPRING KNIGHT sheet up to the light... you'll see the difference. Cellophane wrapped... pre-laundered ready to use... no labels to wash off. Note approval by Good Housekeeping and American Institute of Laundering.

Nationalists In Indochina State Ousted By King

SAIGON, Indochina (U-P) — A new pro-French government ruled the Indochina state of Cambodia today following King Norodom Sihanouk Varmen's firing of his Nationalist-backed Premier and Cabinet.

Acting swiftly in the capital Phnompenh yesterday, the monarch took the premiership himself. Then he formed a non-political moderate government in which princes and others of the royal entourage head nearly all ministries.

The new government was expected to follow a policy of closer co-operation with the French, who still hold final power in all of Indochina not controlled by the Communist-led Vietminh. The government of former Premier Huy Kan-tou in recent months had been openly anti-French.

In taking over, the King threatened to dissolve the National Assembly and demanded that it quickly vote a special law putting all powers in his hands for the next three years.

He charged Kantou's government had compromised the situation "almost without hope." The King promised to clean up the administration in two years and provide greater independence in three.

Cambodia and her sister Indochinese states—Vietnam and Laos—have been allowed considerable self-rule in domestic matters by the French, who have fought a long stalemate against more extreme Nationalists led by Communist Ho Chi Minh.

ON TELEVISION Kefauver, Taft In Gloves-Off Debate

By ED CREAUGH
WASHINGTON (U-P)—If it should be Taft of Ohio vs. Kefauver of Tennessee in the main presidential bout, you can look for a free-swinging battle right up to the knockout.

The two senators staged a gloves-off demonstration of this on television last night. When it ended, the perspiring Taft called it the hottest broadcast of the year—and apparently he wasn't talking about the weather.

"Slur!" Republican Taft cried at one point.

"Then I'll take it back," Democrat Kefauver offered.

That was easily the greatest display of senatorial courtesy that occurred as the legislators—each leading his party in the number of convention delegates—debated foreign policy and a slate full of other issues on "American Forum of the Air."

Once Kefauver called Taft an isolationist.

"Oh, no!" the Ohioan objected.

Again, Kefauver—who gained fame as a televised crime-prober—said it's necessary to weed out racketeers and fixers at all levels.

"Sen. Kefauver and I seem to agree," Taft interjected, "that we ought to throw the administration out on the issue of dishonesty."

The series of barbed exchanges wound up a busy day for both candidates.

Taft had been on television earlier and he said, among other things, that it's now or never so far as his presidential hopes are concerned.

"I'm 62 years old," he said, "and I'll never run for President again."

But he said he thinks he has just about enough votes to win the nomination this time.

What about Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's description of himself, in a Detroit speech Saturday, as a "no-deal" candidate?

Taft said he has made no deals, either—and owes no political debts to anyone.

Was it quite cricket, he was asked, to choose a Taft supporter, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, as the GOP convention keynoter?

Taft said it would be hard to find somebody who hasn't taken sides. The thing to do, he added, was to find the best man for the job.

Kefauver himself had a word—"ridiculous"—for Eisenhower's statement that the federal budget can be reduced some 40 billion dollars in the next few years.

Pakistan Recognizes Farouk As King Of The Disputed Sudan

KARACHI, Pakistan (U-P) — The British Commonwealth's major Moslem member, Pakistan, has recognized Egypt's Moslem King Farouk as king of the disputed Sudan but says it's just a "courtesy," without political significance.
