TRAIL DUST DOUGLAS MEADOR

A few blocks off the Paseo Reforma Boulevard in Mexico City, a small boy was crying. He was huddled in a dingy back street entrance at the newspaper Novedades carrier boys' receiving stand, and shadows lay in sullen folds behind the basement stairway. His frail, tattered shirt was open, and part of his brown stomach was exposed. A shaft of street light caught his face and the tears and the terror. The earth had ceased its spasms from the q ake, and the buildings had quit dancing to the eerie music of crumbling masonry and collintering glass. The splintering glass. The tragedy of fear was trying to escape his eyes, but the streets and the solid world beneath his bare feet had betrayed him. He waited patiently for the reluctant dawn to break, and for the sun and its strength to

Douglas Campbell Is Lions Speaker

Douglas Campbell was speaker Tuesday at regular luncheon meeting of Matador Lions Club, giving a report on the Farm Bureau's Citizenship Seminar on Baylor campus, Waco. He was sponsored by the Lions club in attending the seminar July 11 - 15, and expressed his appreciation for the opportunity.

The Motley County High School senior is the son of Mayor and Mrs. Kirby Campbell. Other guests at the meeting included Miss Janis Sherrod and Ray Purcell from the Social Security office in Plainview. Introduced by Lion Charles Johnson, Douglas gave a day-by-day account of activities during the seminar, at which the delegates heard talks by outstanding personalities including Dr. Abner V. McCall, President of Baylor University; Dr. Clifton Gan-us, President of Harding College, Searcy, Ark.; and noted author, lawyer and former FBI agent, W. Clem Skousen of Salt Lake City. "The seminar was opened by James E. Burns, Texas Farm Bureau Director, who explained the purposes of the meeting," Douglas said.

"This was followed by Dr. McCall, who welcomed us to Baylor University. Dr. Ganus talked to us about understanding and preserving our American Heritage, and about the moral foundation of freedom and "Pyramid of Freedom." Mr. Skousen's message was on Communism, and his work with the FBI."

Other speakers included Jack Jackson, Instructor for American Airlines, Ed McKay, Director of National Affairs for Texas Farm Bureau, and Joseph O'Connell, Special Agent in Charge San Antonio District, Federal Bureau of Investi-

Boss Lion Emilio Aguilar presided, and past-president Larry Hoyle was presented a 100 per cent President's Award pin, by Lions Secretary Forrest Campbell. This is the first time a president of the local club has qualified for this honor. Requirements include 100 per cent atten-dance at zone, district and state meetings, as well as local, and leadership in community projects.

Sam Ross, president of the Old Settlers Association also announced that four directors would be elected during the business meeting, Aug. 25. Two directors, Bill Peacock and Jim Perryman are up for re-election, and two others, Guy Campbell and Johnny Koonsman have resigned and their terms will be filled. Campbell (Motley County) has served two years of his term, with one year remaining. Koonsman (Dickens County) has two years of his term remaining, but is resigning after having Monday served the past 15 years.
The directors serve f

tions held on alternate years, so that all do not expire the same year. Next meeting of the directors will be Wednesday, Aug. 10, at which time further plans and arrangements will be discussed, Ross said. Algie Groves has assumed the duties of secretarymanager following the recent resignation of C. L. (Corky) Marshall, who has moved out of the county.

Attend A&M School For Fire Officials

by Rodney Williams

Two members of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department, Fire Marshall Don Warren and Fireman Dude Speed, returned home Saturday from a week of training at the Texas A&M Fire School. The course is sponsored by A&M University and was held from Monday through Friday.

Warren participated in training designed especially for fire marshalls. This involved procedures in determining the cause of fires. forms, and other specialized functions of his position as Matador Fire Marshall.

SUFFERS STROKE Joe Berry Meador of Olton has been a patient in Medical Arts Hospital, Littlefield, the past week, following a light stroke which he suffered July 28. His condition Wednesday was described as stable and he will be dismissed today (Thursday) to return home. A native of Matador and former longtime resident, Mr. Meador is with South Plains Alcoholism Regional Council. His address is

Plainview Route, Olton,

Fireman Speed was enrolled in "Fire Fighting." This course involved the many problems and situations that a fireman may encounter at variety of fire scenes. Speed participated in acutal fire fighting situations which included instruction as to the use of the many different types of equipment available to firemen.

The training received by Fire Marshall Warren and Fireman Speed will enable the Matador Volunteer Fire Department to offer more professional fire fighting techniques to the citizens of from both counties.

Firemen had difficulty fighting the blaze, due to a switch in wind directions and the roughness of the area. The fire was located just south of Teepee City along the creek. The blaze took approximately three hours to bring under control, although by sundown, only Matador Ranch employees remained to watch the burned area.

At approximately 6 p.m., during the course of the Teepee City fire, firemen and others at the scene noticed smoke from another fire north of their location. The blaze was discovered to be between Teepee City and the Lucky Knob camp. Matador ranch employees, equipped with cattle sprayers, brought the fire under control before Matador Fire Department trucks could reach the scene. About the same time Thursday afternoon, a fire was burning on the southwest plains of the Matador Cattle Company. Fire fighting equipment from Crosbyton Fire Department responded to the fire and brought it under control.

RETURN HOME

LCDR. and Mrs. James Watson and sons, Chris and Darren left Wednesday to return to their home in Havelock, N.C. after visiting relatives and friends here and in Afton. They have been visiting their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Watson, Matador and Mr. and Mrs. Bunch Williams of Afton, and also with Mrs. James Watson's sister, Mrs. David Keith and family, Afton. Lieutenant Watson joined his family about two weeks ago, his wife and sons having been here the past month. The Watsons visited Childress, Sunday with Mrs. Alfred Watson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Peg Filling the vacancy in the local office will be James Gillespie of Clarendon, who will start August 15. Mr. Gillespie has been District Conservationist at Clarendon for two and a half years, and worked at Stinnett about a year prior to that time. He and his wife, Kathy, will move here as soon as they can secure a dwelling.

"Mike" Isbell and his wife, Jimmie have been active in church and community affairs during their residence here. He is a member of the Matador Lions Club and Mrs. Isbell has been pubilc health nurse for Texas Dept., of Health Resources. They have two children, a daughter, Robbin, 9, and son, Michael,

Mr. and Mrs. Isbell and Robbin are members of the First Baptist Church.

The move to Wichita County will be almost a "homegoing" for the Isbells, since they grew up in Vernon, in adjoining Wilbarger County.

Boy Scouts Attend Camp

An Associational Youth Rally starting at 7 o'clock on Friday night will lead off the revival with services at 8 o'clock, followed by a fellowship hour. Approximately 100 young people and leaders are expected to attend from ten churches in the Caprock Association of Baptist churches of the Caprock-Plains Area.

Activity on Saturday will start at 5 p.m. for all young people, with refreshments preceding the 8 o'clock worship service, and a pizza supper following. A Youth Rally is scheduled for 10 a.m. on Sunday morning, followed by the regular worship service at 11, and regular evening service at 6 o'clock will conclude with an all-church fellowship.

Choir rehearsals in preparation for the revival, started Sunday for the Youth Choir. All young people in the community are invited to join the youth of the First Baptist Church in participating. It is stressed by the pastor, however, that although young people will serve as leaders, the revival is for all ages, and everyone invited to attend the services.
