MacArthur Calls His Task Of Review 'Repugnant,' Asks Prayers For Peace

TOKYO, Nov. 24. (AP)—General Douglas MacArthur today denied clemency for Japan's 25 top war criminals and ordered the execution of Hideki Tojo and six others who dreamed of conquest but lost an empire.

Oregon Enters Cotton Bowl Grid Picture

DALLAS, Nov. 24. (AP)—The Dallas Times Herald sports editor, Jerry R. Hayes, said today that "should North Carolina stall too long there is a keen possibility that Oregon will be invited to the Cotton Bowl."

Hayes said he had learned such was the case as another day passed without any sign of a decision from any team to accept an invitation to play Southern Methodist in the Dallas New Year's Day gridiron classic.

Oregon entered the picture after the Webfoots were voted out of the Rose Bowl although finishing in a tie with California for the Pacific Coast championship.

Cotton Bowl officials think Oregon could obtain permission from its conference to play in the game here.

North Carolina has been reported the choice of the Southern Methodist squad, and it has been generally expected that the Tar Heels would agree to come here.

While Hayes takes the view that North Carolina is stalling for time, hopeful of coming up with an invitation to the Sugar Bowl.

President And Marshall Have Second Talk

Truman Will See Chinese Ambassador

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24. (AP)—President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall today held their second foreign affairs conference of the week. The Chinese crisis was believed to be foremost among the problems up for early decision.

Even as Marshall entered the White House at 9:45 a. m. (EST), the press office announced that Mr. Truman would receive Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo later in the day.

Marshall talked with Mr. Truman for 25 minutes. He declined when he left the White House to tell reporters anything about the discussion. He said he always left it to the President whether anything was to be given out about a White House conference.

There was no immediate indication of the purpose of the Truman-Koo meeting. But it stirred speculation that advanced progress has been made by the President, Gen. Marshall and other top government officials in their study of what to do about the China situation.

Some officials believe the Communist sweep in China is certain to cost the United States more billions in foreign aid over the next two years whether or not grand scale aid is given to Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek.

As policy planners here see the picture, two points stand out: 1. If President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall determine that China still can be saved from Communism—and decide to go ahead with an aid program—they will have to ask the New Congress for several hundred million dollars at least. And that would be just a starter, since any new China program is regarded as a long-term undertaking.

2. If—in spite of American help or without it—all China falls to the Communists, the task of rebuilding Japan and providing it with a stable economy will be much more costly. That is because Japan would find trade relations with Communist China more difficult.

City Says No Dial Plan, No Rate Hike

Verdict Rendered On Bell Petition

No dial system, no rate increase. That was the verdict rendered Tuesday by Big Spring city commissioners on an application of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for a new rate table here.

The decisions were reached after H. F. Fox, Midland, district manager for the telephone company, presented a letter which indicated installation of a dial system here probably could begin in not less than five years. Commissioner Jack Y. Smith said the commission had hoped that the company would promise a dial system within three years.

In his letter Fox said production expected to match demands for dial telephone equipment is not some time and that the company is using all available dial equipment to expand facilities in cities already served by dial systems, as replacements in exchanges which have completely outgrown manually operated equipment, and in cities where substantial construction projects are required to expand facilities to meet present-day needs.

Commissioners observed that a sizeable construction project had been conducted here this year, but that apparently a dial system had not been considered.

On a motion by Commissioner Willard Sullivan the commission voted to withdraw an ordinance granting an 18-month rate increase. The measure had gained approval on first reading at the Oct. 12 session. The telephone company was reluctant to accept the proposal, however, and City Attorney Charles N. Sullivan issued an opinion that the commission did not have authority to establish rates for a definite period.

Subsequently, the ordinance was tabled for further study until yesterday's session.

Other matters referred to the commission on a short agenda included a report on the local fire department as compiled by the Fire Prevention and Engineering Bureau of Texas, authorization for the mayor to sign a brief on behalf of the city requesting that Pioneer Airlines be granted route extensions in Texas and New Mexico and approval on first reading of a revised plumbing ordinance.

The plumbing ordinance will be brought up to date in accordance with recommendations of the Master Plumbers association and the League of Texas Municipalities. Sufficient copies of the revision will be prepared within the next few days for distribution to all local plumbers and other interested people.

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson said that testimony at a recent hearing showed that "there is now an ample market for flare gas."

"The commission sees no further reason for not requiring that this gas be used for a lawful purpose," he declared.

The orders applied to the following fields: Heysler Field, Calhoun County; South Caesar Field, Bee County; Conroe Field, Montgomery County; Magnet-Withers Field, Wharton County; North Withers Field, Wharton County; Flour Bluff Field, Nueces County; Tijerina-Canales.

LOCALLY

'Quiet Day' Seen For Thanksgiving

With family gatherings around feast-laden tables and a "quiet day" generally scheduled as the observance, Big Spring suspends its business activities along with the rest of the nation for the traditional Thanksgiving Day holiday.

Business of every type, with the exception of those in various types of public service, will shut down for the day. The post office, all public offices and public agencies will be closed, along with practically all retail businesses and banks. The Herald's Thursday edition will be issued early.

Public schools and Howard County Junior college were to close shop after today, classes being suspended until next Monday morning. A group of teachers will be in Dallas over the weekend for the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers association.

Principal item on the day's program locally is the traditional city-wide Thanksgiving service, to be held at the First Baptist church at 10 a. m. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Alsie Carleton, pastor of the First Methodist church, following professional, call to worship, invocation by the Rev. L. B. Moss, and reading of Scriptures by Capt. Olvy Sheppard. After the closing hymn, benediction will be by the Rev. R. C. Love.

The general public is invited to the service. Some Big Springers will be following the high school football team to Sweetwater in the afternoon, for the final Steer grid contest of the season. Other holiday activities include a dance at the American Legion clubhouse tonight, one at the Country Club Thursday night.

Friday, most local business will be concentrated on the opening of the Christmas shopping season.

Soviets Say Oil Interests Wreck Partition Plan

PARIS, Nov. 24. (AP)—A Soviet bloc delegate said today British-American oil and military interests wrecked the United Nations partition plan for Palestine.

Andre A. Galagan of the Soviet Ukraine told the general assembly's No. 1 political committee that it should order troops from the neighboring Arab states of Egypt, Trans-Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Iraq out of Palestine.

He said an independent Arab state should be set up alongside the new Jewish state of Israel and opposed giving the Arab section of the Holy Land to "the British puppet of Trans-Jordan."

British and American oil interests, Galagan said, have planned pipe lines in the Middle East that would be carrying 2,000,000 barrels of oil daily by 1952.

Auto Mishap Injures Two

Roy Grandstaff and R. L. Lane who were injured in an automobile accident early Tuesday between Sweetwater and Abilene were due to be transferred to Cowper hospital for further medical treatment today.

They were carried to a hospital in Merkel after their car turned over on a curve near Trent early Tuesday morning. Grandstaff suffered a fractured right arm and an injury to the spine, while Lane received a fractured right ankle. George Fowler, also a passenger in the car, suffered cuts and bruises but was released after first aid treatment.

Grandstaff and Lane were to be returned here this afternoon in an Eberley Ambulance.

Queuille Receives Vote Of Confidence

PARIS, Nov. 24. (AP)—Parliament voted its confidence in Premier Henri Queuille's middle of the road government today.

The unofficial count was 320 to 185. The bulk of the vote against Queuille was by Communist deputies. If the vote had gone the other way, the cabinet would have resigned.

Some influential White House advisers are known to feel that any substantial rise over Mr. Truman's present $15 billion ceiling on next year's military outlays could set the inflation spiral whirling again.

On the other hand, Nourse has stated that, were it not for foreign aid spending and rearmament, "deflationary" evidences would by this time have become clearly evident.

BLS said food alone was responsible for the October drop in living costs. Groceries and meats declined "substantially" to carry the index down despite price rises in all other major commodity groups, the agency said. It was the third straight monthly drop for food-stuffs.

Slaughter Will Fight To Finish On Indictment

Purged Solon Faces Charge Of Lobbying

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24. (AP)—Roger C. Slaughter, the Missouri Democrat President Truman purged from Congress in 1946, today mapped a "fight to a finish" against a lobbying indictment he called "politically inspired."

The 43-year-old former representative was accused by a federal grand jury yesterday of failing to register with Congress as a lobbyist for grain interests who, the jury said, said Slaughter over $43,000 for his services.

The indictment was returned after a three months investigation by the Justice Department. It charged Slaughter with violating the lobbying act—passed the same year Mr. Truman successfully fought the Kansas Citizen's re-election bid.

Slaughter said, however, the department "not only knows that it cannot make a case, but likewise knows that my contracts of employment, in writing, as drawn by me specifically exclude 'lobbying activities'."

He said that one grand jury decline to act "after hearing all the witnesses" whereupon "the department sought to persuade another jury to act, which it has."

"This misdemeanor indictment is not unexpected," Slaughter's statement said, "although it was difficult to believe that a political grudge fight would be carried to the point of utilizing the Department of Justice."

Slaughter said he plans to "fight this matter to a finish and demonstrate for all to see how far machine politics has gripped and taken over the onetime fair and impartial administration of justice in this country."

After his election to Congress in 1942, Slaughter served on the powerful House Rules Committee where he stirred Mr. Truman's ire by teaming with Republican members in opposition to many administration proposals. In the 1946 Missouri election, Slaughter's opponent, Enos Axtell, Axtell was but lost in the general election to Republican Albert L. Reeves, Jr.

In yesterday's court action, the grand jury charged that Slaughter got $25,000 salary and $18,500 in expenses for "attempting to influence" legislation of the 80th Congress on behalf of the Kansas City and Chicago Boards of Trade and the Minneapolis Grain Exchange.

The jury also reported that he got $7,500 salary and $2,587.44 in expenses from the North American Export Grain Assn., Inc., of New York City.

SLOW CLIMB

Chest Effort Will Continue To Its Goal

Slowly, but with some degree of regularity, the Howard County Community Chest is climbing, and board members said yesterday, efforts will continue "until we have met our goal."

The total income Wednesday morning was $34,490, leaving just a little over $2,500 to go. Chest leaders said they had sited some $750 in additional commitments, and felt that before the week is out, victory will be in sight.

They called attention, however, to the fact that many people still have delayed in making subscriptions, and urged promptness.

Package store operators conducted an intensive solicitation campaign of their own Tuesday, meeting with considerable success. New subscriptions, together with money that had been reported earlier, brought the total gifts from this business classification to $1,158.

An earlier figure in The Herald from the railroad group was in error, and the subscriptions from this group should have been reported as $490.

Fund Chairman R. L. Tollett, after a conference with Chest directors Tuesday afternoon, said a unanimous decision had been reached to continue efforts until the organization meets its goal. Directors said the drive is so far along that they are confident that enough money can be raised to meet the budgets for the YMCA, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

WOODS LASHES PLAN

Gilmer-Aiken Meet Reveals Battling

AUSTIN, Nov. 24. (AP)—The Gilmer-Aiken Committee today recommended that Gov. Beauford H. Jester call a special session of the legislature to study the whole problem of public education in Texas.

After approving a final draft of its proposals, with the exception of one controversial section on reorganization of school districts, the committee with one dissenting vote passed a resolution urging the governor to call the special session of the 50th Legislature.

AUSTIN, Nov. 24. (AP)—Today's meeting of the Gilmer-Aiken committee here brought into sharp focus violent differences of opinion on its proposed overhauling of the state's public school system.

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, opened what promises to be a major legislative battle yesterday with a blistering attack on preliminary proposals of the committee named to study reorganization of the schools.

In a letter to Gov. Beauford H. Jester, he called the proposals thus far outlined "undemocratic" and urged the governor not to call a special session of the legislature to consider the report.

Jester himself, who has not made up his mind about the special session, gave the Gilmer-Aiken proposals what he called "approval in principle" but he reserved fuller comment until the report takes final shape.

Dr. Woods said he did not want to see the report "forced down the throats" of the people without giving them full opportunity to study it.

In a letter to all county school superintendents, Dr. Woods said the 33 proposals of the legislative committee could be boiled down to these:

Living Cost Dip May Tone Down President's Demands

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24. (AP)—A slight but welcome dip in living costs raised the possibility today that President Truman might tone down his demand for "standby" price control and rationing powers when Congress meets in January.

Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's council of economic advisers, said a continued ebb in prices, washing out the need for drastic controls, would be "swell." But he didn't predict that would happen.

"It would be like seeing a fever chart go down," Nourse told a reporter, "but we aren't drawing any conclusions yet."

His comment came after the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported last night that its cost-of-living index for October showed a dip of one half of one per cent. This was the first drop in seven months for the index as a whole.

Another top government fiscal official said privately he believes inflationary forces still have the upper hand. And Chester Bowles, one-time boss of OPA and governor-elect of Connecticut, said after a White House visit that Congress "unquestionably" will act against inflation.

Behind all the guestwork lays the big question of what will happen overseas—how much more money will have to go for foreign aid and national defense.

Some influential White House advisers are known to feel that any substantial rise over Mr. Truman's present $15 billion ceiling on next year's military outlays could set the inflation spiral whirling again.

On the other hand, Nourse has stated that, were it not for foreign aid spending and rearmament, "deflationary" evidences would by this time have become clearly evident.

LINER HELD IN PORT BY STRIKE—The SS Queen Elizabeth is lighted brightly at her berth at Southampton, England, after the scheduled sailing of the liner Nov. 20 was delayed by a walkout of crewmen in sympathy with the American East Coast Longshoremen's strike. The sympathy strike was called to prevent the liner from being rerouted to Halifax, and after the Cunard White Star line announced the sailing would be deferred until after settlement of the longshoremen's strike, the crew returned. Meanwhile most of the 1600 passengers remained on board through Sunday and enjoy the best of food and service at the line's expense. (AP Wirephoto).

Businessman Sets Defense On Charge Of Stock Swindle

DETROIT, Nov. 24. (AP)—Free on bond, Business Man Arthur J. Platten set about today to prepare a defense against a charge of a $250,000 stock deal swindle.

The government accused him of bilking 37 persons in the last seven years, charging that among his victims were elderly persons and widows.

Platten, 40, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and engaged in various business enterprises, was indicted yesterday. He pleaded innocent and was freed on $5,000 bond.

A 12-count grand jury indictment specifically accused him of mail fraud and violation of the securities and exchange laws.

Through counsel, however, Platten said he had made "substantial returns" to alleged victims until meeting with "financial trouble" a year ago. He promised to "clean up the whole matter."

Two Children Killed In Bus-Truck Crash

PARAGOULD, Ark., Nov. 24. (AP)—Two 12-year-old children were killed and 14 injured when a loaded school bus and a lumber truck collided on a narrow bridge near here late yesterday.

The dead were Betty Lou Counger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Counger of nearby Halliday, Ark., and Jimmy Schunk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schunk, also of Halliday.

State Patrolman Joe Conner said a charge of involuntary manslaughter had been filed against O. J. Barker, 59, of Rector, Ark., driver of the lumber truck, and that a preliminary hearing had been scheduled for today.

Longhorns Take Final Workout For Final Tilt

The Big Spring high school football Steers stage their final workout of the year this afternoon for their final game of the year Thursday.

Tomorrow morning they pile into a bus and head for Sweetwater where they meet Pat Gerald's Mustangs in the big Mustang bowl in a 2:30 o'clock game.

Sweetwater will be the favorite, by any odds you'd care to give but the Big Springers have taken it upon themselves to break into the scoring column, and that may produce some fireworks. The Bovines are without a tally of any sort in conference play, and that after five starts, some of them against competition far weaker than the Mustangs.

They may need a break or two somewhere down the line but they have every intention of getting at least one six-pointer.

The Mustangs have lost but one contest to date. They've finished high in every poll of state team conducted by the Dallas News. They're that good. They'd be district champions, were they competing in any of a half dozen other circuits in Texas.

The Steers must compete against the brilliant Tom McMillan, ace running back, among others. McMillan may be the best back in 2AA, which is saying a lot. Jimmy Romanus and Jack Pace are other Mustang standouts.

The Ponies led Odessa twice only to lose, 28-12. They mopped up on Abilene and Midland in other important tests.

Former Mental Patient Held On Charge Of Killing Infant

CHICAGO, Nov. 24. (AP)—William Norris Pollard, 26 year old former mental patient, was held in jail today pending removal to St. Louis where he is wanted on a charge of murdering a two-year-old boy last week.
The FBI said Pollard, seized yesterday in Red Cross headquarters, had orally admitted fatally beating the boy and stuffing his body in a drawer in the American Hotel in St. Louis. The child's battered body was found last Saturday, three days after Pollard had checked out of the hotel.
The boy was Joseph Nichols, Jr., son of a friend of Pollard's. They had met when both were patients in a veterans hospital in Chillicothe, O.
Pollard was arraigned before U. S. commissioner Edwin K. Walker shortly after his seizure on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder.
"Guilty, sir, and I'll waive extradition," Pollard said. The case, however, was continued to Dec. 3 pending receipt of a copy of the original warrant. His bond was set at $10,000.

A coroner's jury in St. Louis on Monday decided that the Nichols baby died of internal hemorrhage caused by a sex attack by Pollard, George B. McSwain, Chicago FBI chief, said Pollard in orally admitting fatally beating the child, made no mention of a sex attack.
McSwain said Pollard told this story: He had gone to the Nichols' home in Huntingdon, W. Va., and volunteered to care for the boy so Nichols' wife, Betty, could visit her husband in Chillicothe on Armistice Day. He told Mrs. Nichols he would take the boy to his parents home in Cincinnati.
However, Pollard took the child on a hitch-hiking trip to several cities and arrived at St. Louis Nov. 16. He registered at the American Hotel. He said he slapped the baby to stop him from crying but when he continued crying he threw him on the floor and beat him on the stomach and body with his fists. The following morning Pollard left the hotel and left a "do not disturb sign" on the door of his room. He told hotel clerks the child was ill and should not be disturbed.
McSwain said Pollard was unable to account for his activities since he left St. Louis. He was arrested when he walked into the Red Cross office and asked a worker to wire his aunt for money. He offered no resistance.

FRANKLIN LAKES, N. J. Nov. 24. (AP)—Junior has a new excuse for staying home from school—the wells have run dry.
The Borough's elementary school will remain closed indefinitely, the board of education ruled, until drought conditions pass. Two wells supply the school.

Forty Guests Safe After Hotel Blaze

ALICE, Nov. 24. (AP)—Forty guests of the 2-story Travelers Hotel here slid down ladders and ropes to safety early today when fire broke out in the structure.
Most of them were scantily clad. Mike Reynolds, whose room was on the first floor, saw the flames licking at the stairway and gave the alarm. Within a few minutes the lobby and stairway were ablaze.

Goods, Trends And Government Financing Figure In Program

The President has named Dr. Edwin G. Nourse to direct the planning of an anti-inflation program to be presented to Congress when it convenes in January.

He would be aided by other economic advisors in recommending a program, which, in the final analysis, would have to be passed on first by the president, and then by the Congress. What the final result will be is a matter purely for conjecture.

There are both hopeful and ominous signs on the economic horizon. Many indices point to the possibility that the peak has been attained and that the price situation is now on a general levelling or ever so slight decline. But with matters still in a state of flux, such straws in the wind may not be taken as established facts. The goods supply is said to be in better balance and wholesale prices have shown a tendency to ease a trifle. On the other hand metals and many heavy consumer goods have been rising merrily on their way. These divergent courses cannot forever continue. One or the other will have to yield.

The government's fiscal policy will have a bearing on the picture, too. An anonymous figure has estimated that $5 billion would be required to save China. Already we are pumping billions into European recovery. Combination of the two would almost certainly mean deficit financing, and that would be definitely inflationary. There is reason to believe that whatever can be sent to China (and on very realistic terms at that) should represent the amount we are able to save on our projected European program. Recovery there is coming along, and as it does, demands should be lessened.

Do You Know What Your Gifts Bring Through Christmas Seals?

Letters have gone into the mail to several hundred Big Spring people, urging them to send in gifts for Christmas seals.

It is all too easy to lay aside the pleasant seals, and to forget mailing a check.

Perhaps if people were reminded what those seals represent and what your money for them will buy—perhaps if they had any personal experience with tuberculosis, the response would be instantaneous and generous.

Except for what it received from seal remittances and special gifts, the Howard County Tuberculosis association has no finances to carry on its program.

What program? Didn't you know about the sustaining administration of tuberculin tests in our public schools, with follow-up x-ray diagnosis where the tests are positive? Didn't you know the association also carries on an extensive program of education about tuberculosis to enable children and adults to be on guard against it by maintaining resistance or to recognize symptoms?

Didn't you know that the association has stepped in to administer other aid and assistance in dire cases? Didn't you know, that TB has shown a tendency to increase in the past few years? Didn't you know that in our truly underprivileged sections that tuberculosis is a constant threat, and that its presence in our community is not cause for complacency?

Didn't you know you can help do something about all this? If you don't, then just mail in a liberal check—and then don't forget those seals. Use them. Help spread Christmas cheer all year.

German Communists Shaping Plans To Seize Nation When Allies Leave

WASHINGTON—THE BERLIN grapevine reports that last week Kurt Fischer, head of the German police in the Russian zone, called a highly secret meeting of his top Communist aides to give orders as to what the Russians expected.

Fischer said that the Kremlin had assigned two main tasks to the German Communists:

1. Keep the Communist Party in power in Eastern Germany and prevent democratic uprisings or riots.
2. Prepare for the day when the Allies pull out of Germany and permit Communist-trained German police to seize complete control of the entire country.

Fischer also informed his colleagues that he had instructed him to build the German police force up to 400,000 men.

CONGRESSIONAL NAMES
Pun-makers will have some old and some new names to conjure with next January when the roll is called in the New House of Representatives.

The Republicans lost a Foote in Connecticut, but kept a Hand in New Jersey. Democrats Rains (Alabama) and Brooks (Louisiana) and Dixiecrat Rivers (South Carolina) will be joined by a Flood—Democratic newcomer from Pennsylvania. . . . A Lea (California Democrat) retired, but there's still a Hill (Colorado Republican) and a Lane (Massachusetts Democrat). . . . A Bishop and a Church (Illinois Republicans) and a Priest (Tennessee Democrat) also were re-elected. . . . and though the House lost a Harness (Indiana Republican), it kept a Stockman (Oregon Republican) and gained a Steed (Oklahoma Democrat). . . . There will be two Browns (Ohio and Georgia), two Whites (Idaho and California), one Green (Pennsylvania) and a Golden (Kentucky) in the next Congress. . . . As might be expected, however, the Smiths will dominate the new Congress. There are four congressmen by that name—one each from Kansas, Ohio, Virginia and Wisconsin.

FORRESTAL FEUDING
If James V. Forrestal is still Secretary of National Defense next January, Democratic senators plan to give him an even more intense going over than the Republicans regarding bickering between the Navy and Air Force.

They point out that Congress specifically passed the unification bill to prevent this bickering and that Forrestal, former Secretary of the Navy, was made the boss of both. Yet now he can't control the admirals who lobbied to put him in the top defense job.

Two secret military conferences at Key West and Newport, R. I., have been held to prevent this bickering and to decide the all-important question of whether Navy planes or Air Force planes shall lead the air assault in case of war. Nevertheless, the old feud was reopened recently before a secret session of Ferdinand Eberstadt's committee, set up by Herbert Hoover to study military reorganization.

Eberstadt, who was maneuvering to be Dewey's secretary of defense, let assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air John Nicholas Brown give a long argument on why Navy planes, not Army planes, should head the next war offense—even though this was twice decided before at Key West and Newport.

"We have been asked by your chairman to discuss whether the Air Force should absorb naval aviation," began Mr. Brown in the secret hearing.

This was an unusual remark since no one ever made such a recommendation. Eberstadt, a close friend of Forrestal's and a great Navy fan, knew better. Nevertheless he listened eagerly as Brown continued to tell why the Navy was more important than the Air Force.

"In outlining its view on this matter," he said, "the Navy wishes to make it clear that it dislikes being placed in the position of making ridiculous comparisons with a sister service.

"The desire for some cheap and rapid way to bring an enemy to submission is old, but always fresh because it is so appealing. Certainly I do not think we should exclude the possibility of it. Neither should it be forgotten that there are senior officers of all services who doubt its feasibility. They doubt that bombers can range over thousands of miles of defended Soviet territory to destroy targets of which the exact location is not known. . . .

"Vast ocean distances must be made safe, and surmounted, and footholds won on the far shores. The enemy's air forces must be met and diminished over the seas and adjacent shores before that is possible. That is naval warfare, of which the principal striking weapon is naval aviation."

AIR ADMIRAL EXPLAINS
Brown then introduced Vice Adm. A. W. Radford, vice chief of naval operations, who has long spearheaded Navy propaganda that the airplane carrier is the best means of dropping the atomic bomb.

"Members of the Air Force of the United States," said Radford, "argue that we can win a surian war quickly and completely by the application of a single military force—long-range bombing by atomic weapons. An examination of the geography, matched against known technical limitations of present day aircraft leads to something more than a reasonable doubt of our abilities to carry out such a program.

"We agree with Air Force spokesmen that sustained bombing of targets in Russia could be carried out only from bases on the perimeter of Europe and Asia. This requires a battle for bases, which must be seized or occupied and secured before mass bombing can be launched."

Radford then gave the Navy's plan for carrying war to the enemy: "Naval airpower is essential to meet known enemy capabilities of today and tomorrow. Its mobile carriers attack the points of origin of enemy long-range bombers; those same aircraft can strike enemy submarine pens, building yards and operating bases."

"There is nothing small about a fast carrier task group," Radford declared. "It is difficult to visualize, even to imagine the size of such a group."

Hastily he added: "An atom bomb could destroy one ship. But the others would be saved by distance, and would readily leave any contaminated area. It would not be a profitable target for the bomb."

Admiral Radford also made this strange argument: "To anyone familiar with the realities of overseas warfare, an overseas airbase on land is more vulnerable to submarines than are carriers."

NOTE—When Secretary for Air Symington fired a letter to Eberstadt, protesting against the Navy's testimony, his letter leaked out to the press. Angrily, Secretary Forrestal announced that he would investigate the leak. But, after checking code numbers on the letter and tracking down who had handled it, the leak was narrowed down to only one possible source: The Navy itself.

Harold Lloyd Planning Yet Another Comeback

HOLLYWOOD — Harold Lloyd, the shy guy with the horn-rimmed glasses, is planning yet another screen comeback.

I have this authority of Harold Lloyd, the hearty millionaire, bowler and Shrine bigwig.

"I have just the germ—you might call it the weenie of an idea for another picture," he told me. "It is the kind of thing that only I, or somebody else who has been in the business for a long time, could do."

The comedian has other film plans, too. He is going to reissue one of his great old films, "Movie Crazy," made in 1932.

"I tried the picture out at a theater in Redondo Beach," he related. "I would say that 65 per cent of the audience didn't know me, or at least didn't know my work. But the response was terrific."

"So I am going to put it out again—if I can get the right kind of presentation. But if it isn't presented nicely, it's not worth my trouble."

Lloyd said the film hasn't aged much—in fact, the women's skirts are the same length as today's.

Sandstorms May Furnish An Economic Barometer

Sandstorms constitute one of the evils of this country. There was a time when they were considered necessary evils, but more recent thought is that they constitute an indictment of our crude ventures in land management.

There is a popular belief that sandstorms did not exist until man put plows into the virgin sod of the Panhandle and South Plains. Pages from early history, however, tell us that there were some formidable blows back in the buffalo and open range days. Because cultivated land has laid bare the breast of the earth, there is no reason to doubt that expansion of cultivation has aggravated the wind erosion of soil.

There always will be some sand and dust to whip about in this sector. Semi-arid climate, with drought intervals, combine with restless and strong wind currents to make total anchorage of soil impossible.

Several things have been done and are now being attempted as a means of reducing the amount of transient topsoil. Several years ago a gigantic venture popularly called the "shelter-belt" was launched. People mistakenly got the idea that it would be a dense forest straddling the Panhandle and Plains area. Actually it was a combination of hundreds and hundreds of road and fence line plantings of shrubs, native trees and thick evergreens. While not sensational, the project made some contribution to holding the soil.

More effective has been the campaign among soil conservation enthusiasts to leave stubble in fields and to encourage the planting of cover crops. These crops, usually small grain, would protect the topsoil by furnishing a carpet of green blades. In the spring they should be turned under green for manure purposes. Here we encounter one of two difficulties.

If a crop is good and green, farmers want to hang on to it in hopes of a good grain harvest. The other difficulty is that lack of moisture in the autumn won't bring cover crops up to a good stand. Stubble is not totally effective, but plenty of litter left on the ground does curb drifting from a particular field.

Terraces and contour furrowing are indicated in many instances as means of controlling soil erosion. In particularly rugged seasons, farmers frantically scratch blowing spots to stop the drifts. Others deep break land to bring clay particles on top. A new school advocates implements which will barely disturb topsoil while chiseling or breaking the subsoil.

Not a great deal can be done about the wind unless scientists and meteorologists come up with some entirely new answers. The most practical approach seems to be in soil management. To succeed in this direction, it is apparent that one of the big jobs is to restore organic matter to soil, for when this almost microscopic fibrous condition is present, it seems to serve as a binder. When it is absent, tiny grains of sand get itching feet.

Right now the Panhandle area, reaching into Colorado and Kansas, and South Plains are on the bottom side of an aggravated cycle. The more organic matter is lost the more soil erodes; the more soil will crust and block moisture penetration and plant germination; hence less organic matter, etc. The happy part of the picture is on the reverse side of the cycle. Once turned over, increased organic matter means less blowing, easier moisture absorption, easier and better crop stands, more organic matter returned to the soil, etc.

Sure, we always will have some sandstorms in this area, but how many and how bad may furnish a barometer of our future as a productive area. — JOE PICKLE

'Red Dean' Will Have Hard Time Making Us Love Reds

AP NEWSFEATURE
WE HAVE IN OUR MIDST THE VERY REV. Hewlett Johnson, dean of England's ancient Canterbury Cathedral, who is known as the "Red Dean" because of his extreme left views and his great friendship for Soviet Russia.

The good dean is speech-making and is devoting much of his energy to reproving us for our aversion to Communism. He says "peoples all over the earth view with misgivings the encirclement of the Soviet Union by 434 American air bases," and the "expenditure by the United States of vast sums for war purposes."

The "Red Dean" was denied a visa by the U. S. State Department last August when he sought to come here under sponsorship of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. That organization is an Attorney General Tom C. Clark's "subversive" list. However, the State Department withdrew its objections after a group of educational leaders offered to sponsor the doctor.

So we have Dean Johnson with us, extolling the virtues of the Bolsheviks. As a matter of fact the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship is sponsoring a rally in New York's Madison Square Garden Dec. 13 and among the speakers will be the "Red Dean" and Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushin.

One would think the "Red Dean" would have enough business of his own to mind back home, the vast majority of Britons being hostile to Communism. However, his propaganda there doesn't seem to have achieved the success which he craves.

Twice the "Red Dean" has been publicly rebuked by the prime of all England. But to give the dean credit for steadfastness of purpose, he hasn't seemed to give a tinker's dam. Perhaps more than incidentally, the dean isn't answerable to the head of the Church of England but only to the government.

So the dean ("You can call me Red") is barnstorming in our land, trying to convince us that Communism has a heart of gold. Well, we can take it, but if the good doctor would pause to look about a bit he would see that he will have trouble in persuading us.

Dr. Johnson came here via Canada, and while there he surely must have learned of the bitterness of the dominion towards a Communism which used Ottawa as the base of a far-flung spy ring which included America. As a clergyman he might be interested in the document published in Washington Monday by the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives: That declares:

"You cannot be a Communist and believe in God. . . . In all their plans and actions, the Communists mark down religion as enemy No. 1."

On second thought, maybe that line wouldn't impress the dean. After a trip to Russia in '38 he said that "It is totally wrong to say these people are irreligious if they deny God. It does not matter what they say with their lips; it is what they mean in their hearts."

Matter Of Fact — Joseph And Stewart Alsop

Close Link Has Been Forged Between Truman, Solon Leaders

WASHINGTON — The great accomplishment at Key West, it now appears, was to forge a close link between the President and the Congressional leaders. The President on holiday took all sorts of good resolutions to rectify one of the great errors of his first administration, which was failing to keep in touch with the day to day conduct of legislative business.

At Key West, he told both Vice President Barkley and Speaker Rayburn that he was determined to enact what his staff calls his "second New Deal." And he promised to work closely with them on this long, complex and arduous task.

If these good resolutions are kept, Key West has answered one of the two big questions about the future of the second Truman administration. But unless a good many of his Key West companions were utterly misled, the President put off answering the other, even bigger and much more painful question until his holiday was over. His central problem, of staffing the new administration with men who will command the utmost public confidence, does not appear to have been finally solved as yet.

Certain steps have been taken, to be sure. The President evidently concluded during the campaign that if Secretary Marshall had to leave the State Department, Chief Justice Vinson would be the best replacement. This was in his mind, of course, when he conceived the Vinson mission to Stalin. It now seems to be fairly well established that the Chief Justice was sounded out about leaving the court soon after November 2, and indicated the greatest reluctance to do so. Thus, no doubt, the President's own reluctance to part with Marshall, the man he most admires, was still further increased.

Then, too, there is evidence that the President has already told his two particular cronies in the Cabinet, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and Attorney General Clark, that he wants them to star on if they wish to do so. But it is not yet clear whether Snyder and Clark will remain permanently in the Cabinet, or will move on at once to the Bank of America post and the important law partnership they have been respectively considering, or will stay for a while and move on later. The last alternative seems the most likely.

What has happened to date, however, merely makes the President's central problem a bit more thorny. The logic of the election demands that the domestic side of the new Truman administration be given a much more New Dealish tinge. But this will be far harder to do if the distinctly conservative Snyder and Clark are retained, and are joined by the President's fishing friend, the amiable but entirely second rate lame duck Governor of Washington, Mon C. Wallgren. Equally, the logic of the election demands that if George C. Marshall, Robert A. Lovett and James V. Forrestal are to resign the management of foreign and defense policy, they must be replaced by men of equal caliber. And this will be immensely hard to do also.

Here the President's problem has been complicated by an extraordinary campaign of rumors directed against Lovett and Forrestal, originating in certain Zionist quarters, and countenanced by some of the less creditable members of the President's own staff. The President has given warm evidence of his taste for the whole business. His ablest and most important staff member, Clark Clifford, in whose mouth some of these stories have been unscrupulously put, has formally registered his strong indignation. Yet the complication none the less remains.

Common field crows are among the most intelligent of all birds; yet in historical records the word crow is synonymous with "despicable character."

Nation Today — James Marlow

Debate Is Being Conducted On Fining, Rewarding Voter

WASHINGTON, — AFTER EVERY election in this country come screams about the small number of people who voted.

But what's the answer?

1. Should people be prodded into voting by fining them for not voting?
2. That would get more people to the polls. It works in Australia and New Zealand, where there are fines for the stay-at-homes.
3. Should the people be given some kind of reward or inducement to get them to vote, like a tax reduction?

That, too, probably would get a lot more people to the polls.

4. Or should voting or not voting be left up to the people themselves? But suppose the Democracy collapses sometime because not enough voted?

BUT, ANYWAY, KLEIN WANTS HIS idea to be a starting point and if some better way of getting people to the polls can be worked out, he'll be satisfied.

This month about 48 million out of 94 million Americans of voting age went to the polls. That's just a little better than 50 per cent.

In Australia a person is fined about $10 if he fails to register when he's supposed to. But if he registers and doesn't vote, he's also fined.

Between 90 and 95 per cent of the people of voting age in Australia now vote. Before the fines were imposed, only about 85 per cent—a higher percentage than in this country—look the trouble to vote.

In New Zealand there's a fine for not registering although there's no fine for not voting. The number of people who register is near 100 per cent and the number of those who vote is about 90 per cent.

OF COURSE, WHILE KLEIN'S IDEA—a tax reduction for voters—can be looked upon as a reward or inducement to vote, it is in effect a fine for not voting.

A lot of people have argued long and loud whether people in a Democracy should be fined or rewarded for voting.

One argument goes: Voting is a duty. People should perform it. But voting or not voting should be a man's free choice in a democracy. And—

A Democracy should be permitted to rise or fall upon the interest which the people show in it.

Another argument on the other side goes: Why force everybody to vote? That would mean forcing a lot of people to vote who don't know the issues or don't care who wins.

This latter argument seems to be based on the idea that everyone who votes knows precisely and intelligently why he votes the way he does.

IN THAT CASE, DEMOCRACY WOULD have to be marked off as a failure which collapsed by itself. But is that too much of a chance to take?

These are old questions. But now they've been given a shot in the arm by Rep. Klein, New York Democrat.

He's just announced he'll introduce in the new Congress a bill to give a tax reduction to people who vote.

He doesn't seem to have high hopes that his bill will become law. But he hopes it will start talk which may result in action or an answer.

His idea is this: Give everyone who votes a certificate that can be used in getting a deduction from the income tax.

How much deduction? About $30 from a person's gross income before he starts figuring his tax. The actual tax saving would be small.

There wouldn't be any benefit to the voters whose income is too small to be taxed.

Wonderful Thanksgiving, Voting Over, Solons Rest

NEW YORK, — THERE ARE MANY things to be grateful for this Thanksgiving, not including the price of turkey.

For example, everybody can still afford a cranberry.

So let the cost of the drumstick soar. It'll take more than that to turn the 1948 Thanksgiving into a turkey. We can always give the traditional bird a traditional bird—and pick something besides pinfeathers out of our teeth.

Forget the turkey. Let's count a few real blessings to be thankful for:

The election is over, and it is now possible to turn on a radio without hearing a politician running for office on his vocal chords.

The longshoremen's strike tied up scores of vessels, but the ship of state is still rocking along on an even keel.

Congress is out of session.

The new look isn't getting any longer.

NOBODY HAS STARTED A POST-SEASON football contest called "The Soup Bowl."

More stores are stocking two-pants suits. It has been weeks since anybody was bitten by a mad English sparrow or struck by lightning in a barroom.

The goose hangs high in the land. Everybody is working, going to college, or waiting for the army to call him up and end his housing problem.

The hay fever season is over and the real pneumonia weather hasn't set in.

The business depression predicted for 1949 hasn't arrived. The financial Casandras who forecast it have joined the political polsters of the mourner's bench—or else are taking lessons in astrology.

AFL Wants Peace Talk With Lewis

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—The American Federation of Labor is ready to talk peace with the International Assn. of Machinists, the CIO and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

President William Green, who met yesterday with the executive council to wind up business of the AFL's 67th annual convention, explained the peace movement is in accordance with a convention resolution calling for a unified labor movement.

The machinists left the AFL in 1946 as the result of a dispute with the carpenters over installing plant machinery. The miners withdrew last year. Unions which created the CIO were suspended in 1936. Green said he will talk peace with the three groups "at the first opportunity."

The council turned most of the remaining problems over to Green or deferred them until the next council meeting at Miami, Fla., on Jan. 31.

Green said he will call a meeting of the newly created legislative council soon. That group will consider legislative work to be done, most important of which will be the drive to bring about repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law and restoration of the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

Methodist Bishop Hits House Group For Religion Paper

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 24. (U.P.)—The House Un-American Activities Committee last night drew censure from Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam for what he called "a futile attempt to discredit the word 'Protestant.'"

The bishop had reference to a committee report issued Tuesday which called the Methodist Federation for Social Action "a tool of the Communist Party."

Oxnam told the northern New Jersey conference of the Methodist Church:

"The committee on Un-American Activities, whose chairman is under indictment for activities allegedly Un-American and criminal, has now presumed to speak in the field of religion."

The committee report was made public in a summation entitled "100 things you should know about communism and religion."

British Official Pleads For Arabs Who Are Starving

LONDON, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—A British expert on Middle East affairs is advocating an immediate international airlift to save thousands of Arab refugees dying of starvation in the hill countries of Palestine and Trans-Jordan.

The proposal was made in a statement yesterday by Brig. I. N. Clayton who retired recently as minister for Arab relations attached to the British Embassy in Cairo.

'SHOOTING EYE AS SHARP AS EVER'—Former Vice President John N. Garner looks over his gun in the trophy filled room of his home in Uvalde, Texas, on Nov. 22, his 80th birthday. As he prepared to go on a three-day turkey and deer hunting trip Garner boasted his "shooting eye is as sharp as ever" and that he would get his limit in a hurry. (AP Wirephoto).

U. N. Heads Set To Thrash Out India-Pakistan Differences

PARIS, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—The Security Council is scheduled to meet tomorrow to thrash out some means of keeping the peace between Pakistan and India.

Immediate concern of the United Nations body is how a flareup can be averted in the Himalayan state of Kashmir where Indian and Pakistan armies face each other—ready for action.

The council also is slated to consider the dispute for the princely state of Hyderabad, which India took over in September.

Neutral diplomats fear that if fighting breaks out again in Kashmir it will spread beyond the state's southern borders and possibly involve the two dominions in open war.

Diplomats, who have studied the 3-month-old quarrel, say swift international action alone can ward off a fight.

The crux of the quarrel is whether the decision of Kashmir to accede to India is valid.

India contends it is and is ready to defend by force what she says is her territory.

Pakistan claims the decision is invalid and says fighting in the princely state has been a "struggle for liberty" on the part of the 80 per cent Moslem population.

It is estimated that India has between 100,000 and 110,000 troops in Kashmir. They are supplemented by Kashmir state forces.

Pakistan regulars are said to number about 30,000, supplementing some 40,000 Azad Kashmir tribesmen who invaded the state. All these forces operate under the Pakistan high command, according to a report of the United Nations Kashmir Commission.

India has formally warned the UN that the continued presence of Pakistan troops in Kashmir could lead to war.

Pakistan declares her relations with India could never be satisfactory unless the Kashmir question is settled justly.

The council is expected to begin studying the interim report of the five-nation Kashmir commission. The United States, Argentina, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, and Colombia are represented on the commission which spent two months on the scene.

GM Pay Is Still Same Despite Drop In Living Index

DETROIT, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—Pay rates of General Motors' 270,000 production workers remained unchanged today despite the reported GM's wages are geared in part to the government's cost of living index under the agreement signed with the CIO United Auto Workers last May.

The reduction in the index, however, was too small to make a difference.

The GM-UAW famed "escalator clause" pushed the GM worker's pay up three cents an hour last September, bringing to 14 cents his third-round post-war pay boost.

With the exception of General Motors, the auto industry in general gave its workers a flat 13 cents an hour increase last spring.

GM settled for 11 cents with an escalator provision calling for a quarterly wage boosts or cuts for each fluctuation of 1.14 points in the index.

War Crimes Trial Head Says Nations Can Work Together

TOKYO, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—Faith in the ability of nations to work together was expressed today by the president of the international tribunal that convicted Japan's top war criminals.

Sir William Webb said his experience as president of the court convinced him nations of the world could work in harmony in a world court such as set up by the United Nations.

Speaking at an overseas press club luncheon in his honor before his departure for Australia, Webb said he felt that the judgment of the tribunal in the trial of 25 Japanese leaders "set forth no new law—it merely discovered law already in existence."

Lafayette May Yet Make Sun Bowl Contest

EL PASO, Nov. 24. (U.P.)—Sun Bowl officials say they didn't tell an Eastern college that it couldn't bring a Negro player to the New Year's Day football classic.

Apparently, said C. D. Belding last night, Lafayette College of Easton, Pa., jumped to a conclusion. Belding is chairman of the game selection committee of the Sun Carnival Association.

Belding issued his denial after Lafayette, in turning down the bid, quoted Belding as saying Texas law would prohibit Lafayette Negro Halfback Dave Showell from playing.

He made his denial in a telephone conversation with Chuck Whitlock, sports editor of the El Paso Times. Whitlock had this to say:

"The College of Mines, the players, the co-captains, and some Sun Bowl officials are highly in favor of Lafayette bringing its Negro player if they come to the Sun Bowl."

Whitlock added that "There's no law against a Negro playing in a football game with whites in Texas." There is a law, however, which would require that separate lodging be arranged for a Negro player.

Lafayette may have a chance to reconsider its rejection. Belding issued a formal statement saying that the game selection committee, on getting Lafayette's rejection, immediately got in touch with other high-ranking schools. Lafayette's invitation cannot be reconsidered, he said. "Until these other colleges have expressed their desires."

Thanks to many people for many things

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING . . .
And there is much for which we can all be thankful in this great country of ours.
Certainly we are thankful for a bountiful harvest of grain and corn, for a high level of production and employment, for a standard of living that is the envy of the world.
Most of all, perhaps, we are grateful for our American heritage . . . freedom of opportunity, freedom of choice, freedom to think and worship according to our own beliefs.

We Feel as a Chevrolet dealer it is an appropriate time to convey our sincere appreciation to the people of this community for their loyalty, patience and understanding.

For Despite Chevrolet's production of more cars and trucks during 1948 than any other manufacturer there is still a long "waiting list" for America's most-wanted cars and trucks.

Chevrolet is doing everything within its power to maintain and increase production. Meantime, we would like to express our thanks . . .

Thanks to Buyers and Prospective Buyers of New Chevrolets for your generous recognition of the honest value built into this first-choice car in the low-priced field. More people have bought Chevrolet cars and trucks, during the eighteen-year period from 1931 to date, than have bought the cars and trucks of any other manufacturer.

Thanks to Those Who Are Waiting for Orders to be Filled for your patience and understanding. You can be sure we are doing our best to treat all customers fairly . . . doing our best to speed the day when we can give you the good news, "Your waiting days are over!"

Thanks to Service Customers for the opportunity to keep your present cars in safe driving condition. We have tried to serve you well, and appreciate your patronage.

Thanks to all whose friendship and favor have helped maintain Chevrolet's leadership . . .

Thanks for your patronage which has made

Welcome Visitor

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 24. (AP)—Mrs. O. C. Hartzog hasn't lost her memory but she'll be glad to see Mrs. Ida Titus.

Yesterday a news story from Fort St. John, B. C., said Mrs. Titus, a former neighbor of Mrs. Hartzog, was on her way here to help Mrs. Hartzog regain her memory. Mrs. Titus understood that the Wichita Falls woman couldn't recognize members of her own family since a recent traffic accident.

Mrs. Hartzog says her memory is good—but it will be pleasant to have a visit from her former neighbor, anyway.

Joy For Troubled Christmas

NAVY WILL FLY TWO CHILDREN TO POLIO-RIDDEN MOTHER, DAD

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 24. (AP)—"God bless mama and daddy—and bless the Navy Department too."

That prayer was offered up last night by Sandra Oldham, eight, and her six-year-old sister, Barbara, after they learned they would be able to spend Christmas with their mother—an infantile paralysis victim—and their stepfather, a sailor stationed in California.

After the children's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Oldham, was stricken with infantile paralysis in San Diego, Calif., the two little girls were sent to Wilmington to live with their stepfather's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Oldham.

The children's flight from the West Coast was arranged by the Navy Department and the Oldhams began rearranging their small Wilmington home to accommodate the two newcomers. A daughter and her two children also live with them.

Despite the move, things didn't look too bright for the two little girls. Their mother had been told by doctors she probably would never walk again and would be hospitalized for two years. Their stepfather was on destroyer duty at San Diego.

Yesterday things took a definite turn for the better. Oldham's parents said they received a telephone call from their son that he was being transferred to the Philadelphia Naval Base and that his wife was being moved to the naval hospital in that city.

Judge Has New View Of Divorce,
Witness Stand

ATLANTA, Nov. 24. (AP)—For years, Judge Virlyn B. Moore has bent a sympathetic ear toward those who want a divorce.

He has heard literally thousands of such cases; so many that he is considered a local authority on matrimonial woes.

In court yesterday the judge crossed the hall to take the witness stand and ask for a divorce from his wife of 10 years and custody of their seven-year old daughter.

Judge Moore charged he made only $13,500 a year and his wife spent $20,000.

Mrs. Moore, asking for alimony, asserted the judge considered the marriage "more of a business arrangement" than a family relationship. She said he was always "fussing" about finances.

The court took the case under advisement.

Father, Two Sons Charged In Robbery

WACO, Nov. 24. (AP)—Charges of robbery with firearms have been filed here against a father and two sons accused of the Monday mid-night hijacking of a railroad station.

Robert William Cleary, 59, and his son, Charles, 32, and Carl, 23, were accused of taking $140 from the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad station at Eddy, 20 miles south of here.

Federal Reserve

SPECIAL COLD-WEATHER FACE CREAM

keeps complexions soft, lovely; helps to prevent roughness, chapping. Don't let strong winds, biting cold, drying artificial heat, spoil the beauty of your complexion this winter. Start now to protect your complexion by using the amazing new cream, PEARLS IN WINE COMBINATION CREAM. A recent scientific development, PEARLS IN WINE COMBINATION CREAM guards against wintertime damage in three very important ways:

- 1 It keeps the skin effectively lubricated, because of a special ingredient it contains. Thus it helps to offset the drying effect of strong winds and artificial heat.
2 It stays on hour after hour when used as a powder base, and so acts as a protective shield for the face.
3 It penetrates deeper into the skin surface and pore mouths than creams without its special ingredient, and so cleanses far better. This helps to preserve the original texture of your skin... loosens and removes, with a brief massage, grime, dirt, keratin, and cosmetics.

MAKE THE CHANGE NOW... before your skin begins to get rough and chapped. Ask for PEARLS IN WINE COMBINATION CREAM today.

Funeral was held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Eberley chapel for Jess L. Coulter, veteran Cadden employe who dropped dead Monday evening. Rites were in charge of the Rev. Gibson and the Rev. Suller and burial was in the city cemetery. Mr. Coulter was survived by his wife; four sons, A. G. Coulter, Plainview, Edwin and Jerry Coulter, Albuquerque, N. M., and Jess L. Coulter, Jr., Raton, N. M.; and one daughter, Darlene Coulter, Big Spring. Pallbearers were B. D. Rice, C. A. Tonn, Neel Barnaby, Leonard Morgan, Thurman Gentry, J. C. Fallon, Jack Tibbs, L. E. Maddox. All Cadden employes were considered honorary pallbearers.

First Baptist Choir Has Annual Banquet

First Baptist Choir members gathered in the church Tuesday night for the annual turkey banquet. Table and room decorations for the occasion carried out the Thanksgiving theme. J. O. Haygood served as toastmaster for the evening.

Floral decorations included yellow daisies and white pompons. Dark red flowers formed a turkey-shaped centerpiece. Strips of orange and brown paper and orange pyracantha completed the decorations. Wayne Williams gave a short after-dinner speech. Others on the program included: James Lee Underwood, Ronald Wooten, Darlene Agee and Delores Hagood. The Rev. Dick O'Brien presented a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Logan, former members of the choir, who recently moved to Lamesa.

Those present were: Weidon Bryant, Mrs. Alton Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Crofford Norman, Arthur Atkins, Mrs. M. B. Beam, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Nance, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Atkins, Mrs. John B. Gordon.

Packard Agency Plans New Home

Work is to start immediately on a new home for the Packard agency. H. M. Rowe, who holds the franchise in Big Spring, announced that contract had been closed with J. D. Jones Construction company for erection of a $30,000 plant at 1011 Gregg. The structure will be of finished tile and concrete with space of service department, parts, offices and display. It will contain approximately 5,200 square feet of space.

Special Services

Special Thanksgiving Day services are planned for the St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The Rev. J. R. Maceo, church rector, has announced the services for 10 a. m.

Panther Tackle Gets AP Laurel

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. (AP) — Nick Bolkovac, Pitt tackle who started the football world with the touchdown run that upset Penn State, gained further honors today. He was named lineman of the week in the Associated Press poll.

Bolkovac, a 210-pound sophomore from Youngstown, O. did himself proud against Penn State. He intercepted an Elwood Petchel pass and ran 23 yards for the fourth period touchdown that won the game. And he made a terrific goal line tackle of Stee's bruising full-back, Franny Rogel, on the very last play of the game to avert a possible deadlock.

That performance brought Bolkovac the most votes in the poll. He gained the top spot over the excellent play of Brad Ecklund, Oregon center; Dominic Tomasi, Michigan guard; Len Szafaryn, North Carolina tackle; and Gerald Weatherly, Rice center.

Weatherly tackled a Texas Christian runner so hard on the second half kickoff the runner fumbled. Rice recovered and scored. Later he intercepted a TCU aerial and returned it 20 yards to set up another Rice touchdown.

Don Webster of Tulsa of the U. S. Hockey League is starring as a defense man, after playing forward for nine teams since he turned pro in 1942.

Johnny Malaise's Steers Launch Workouts Friday

Play Opener Here Dec. 1

Coach Johnny Malaise, Big Spring high school's astute basketball coach, has booked a heavy pre-Christmas schedule of games for his Steers, who he greets officially for the first time at 10 a. m. Friday in the Longhorn fieldhouse.

The Bovines will break the barrier here Wednesday, Dec. 1, when they entertain Zolotaro City. They return to action two days later (Dec. 3) here with Snyder.

Malaise takes his charges to Snyder for a return to get with the Tigers on the night of Dec. 7, then has them booked with Colorado City there Dec. 10.

Big Spring opens its District 3AA schedule as early as Dec. 14, at which time it plays Abilene's Eastern.

Standout defense play by the agile Owl pivotsman from Cuero in last week's game with TCU won him the honors yesterday. He had strong competition from a guard and a pair of tackles. They are Roger McCauley, TCU tackle; Boddy Tinsley, Baylor tackle, and Frank Lambright, Arkansas guard.

Other linemen nominated this week by the seven sports news directors: End Bobby Folsom, SMU; End Chucky Moorman, Guard Bobby Stone, Baylor; End James Williams, Rice; End Billy Hix, Arkansas; Tackle John Hamburger, SMU; Tackle Red Marble, TCU; and Center Max Eubank, TCU.

Charlie Nichols and R. C. Thomas of this city, and Stewart Thomas of Lamesa each bagged a buck on a hunt in Mason county this past week.

R. C. Thomas and Nichols dropped eight pointers while Stewart Thomas' kill had six points.

Jim Foley, fullback and quarterback on the Syracuse football team is a brother of John Foley, who called the plays for the Orange last fall.

JOHNNY MALAISE

gies here. On Dec. 17, the Sweetwater Mustangs invade the village for another district tussle.

Four days before Christmas (Dec. 21), the Herd takes an Andrews in Andrews.

Malaise has manpower problems comparable only to those of Football Coach Herschel Stockton. John lost all 12 of the boys he lettered last season via graduation. He'll have to build his team around Culin Grigsby, Howard Jones, A. M. Jones, Jack Lee and Ray Walker, who won reserve numerals in the 1947-48 season.

Grigsby won praise from the coach last year for his floor polish. Howard Jones is due to shine, too. The Steers will draw their equipment at 10 a. m. Friday and undergo an extended drill. They will return Saturday morning for another workout.

CAIN STAYS

Thames Records Second Victory In HCJC Show

The problem of who, if anyone, is going to up-end Henry Thames in the championship bracket of the Howard County Junior college ping-pong tournament remains very much unsolved.

Thames, seeded first in pre-tournament ratings, has waded through two matches. He beat Bill Hammack, two up, in his initial test and then powered his way through Dick Clifton in his quarter-final test, 2-1. Game scores were 21-18, 12-21, 21-8.

A. J. Cain has joined Thames in the semi-final bracket. Cain hurled Ted Pachall, two up and then felled Jimmy Tolbert 2-1. Tolbert lost, 21-16, 14-21, 21-15.

First round results included: J. C. Mittel turned back Vernon Gandy, two up; Ernest Potter stopped Dean Curlee, two up; Pepper Martin thrashed Jimmy Morehead, two up; and Gil Barnett disposed of Horace Rankin, 2-1.

In championship consolation, Hammack won over John Lewis, 2-1, and Gandy halted Curlee, two up.

Audna Neely and Bitsy Jones have reached the finals in women's play. Miss Neely drew a first round bye, kayoed Jenny Miller in the quarterfinals, two up, and then got by Beverly King in the semi-finals, two up. Scores were 21-15, 21-5.

Miss Jones chilled Mary Hendricks in the first round, two up, and Lil Tamsitt in the semi-finals two up.

In consolation play, Mary Hendricks ousted Lindell Gross, two up.

Results in the amateur division included: First round—Kenneth Barnes trimmed Don McDams, two up; Bill Fletcher curdled Don Henry, 2-1; G. W. Kenemer flattened Vancil Scott, two up; R. H. Carter disposed of Loyd Robinson, 2-1.

Second round—Fletcher pummeled Barnes, 2-1; Delmar Turner tripped Harold Cain, 2-1; Wally Slate won for forfeit over Clovis Phinney, Sam Thurman accepted a forfeit from Enoch Blewett, Johnny Swindell ambushed Paul Deatherage, 2-1; Louis Manely forfeited to Bud Purser; James Kinsey beat Jesse Kelly, 2-1; Billy Wheeler cut down Carol Murdock, two up; Harold Davis punched Mr. Shields, two up; Mr. Jolly pounced on Mr. McAlister, 2-1; and Mr. Holbert laced Mr. Thompsons, two up.

Second round—Fletcher pummeled Barnes, 2-1; Carter sidetracked Kenemer, two up; Holly cruised through Clark, 2-1; Slate struck-armed Turner, two up; Swindell breezed through Thurman, two up; Kinsey stopped Purser, two up; Wheeler finished off Davis, 2-1; and Holbert took care of Jolly, two up.

Third round—Carter stiff-armed Fletcher, two up; Kinsey outmaneuvered Swindell, two up; and Wheeler blackjacked Holbert, 2-1.

In eight games, Nevada has averaged an unprecedented 484.8 yards per contest by both rushing and passing. If it nets 287 yards against Wichita, it will break the record of 462.7 yards averaged over a full season by the great Army team of 1934.

Its aerial game has accounted for 2151 yards and 25 touchdowns—both new records—and its total of 135 completions is far and away the best in the country.

In announcing the weekly statistics for major colleges today, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau disclosed that Nevada needs only 13 pass completions against Wichita to break the seasonal record of 147 set last year by Mississippi.

The ten leaders in each department: Total offense — Nevada, 484.8 yards averaged per game by both rushing and passing; Army, 429.6; Michigan State, 416.7; Notre Dame, 402; Hardin-Simmons, 398.5; Oklahoma, 394.2; Miami (Ohio), 383.5.

AT HOUSTON, DALLAS

Two District Championships Go On Line This Evening

By The Associated Press — Two district championships go on the line tonight as the final weekend of the regular Texas school-year football campaign begins.

Lamar and Milby, clash for the Houston district title in the City Conference.

Denton and Highland Park (Dallas) get together at Dallas to decide the District 6 championship in Class AA.

Tomorrow three more titles will be in the balance: Brackenridge and Thomas Jefferson battle for the San Antonio District crown in the City Conference. Victory or a tie for Jefferson gives the latter the title but if Brackenridge wins by more than 21 points it takes the championship. Victory by fewer than 21 points hands the crown to Alamo Heights.

Childrens, Quannah and Wichita Falls are in a tie for first place in District 2 of Class AA. Childrens meets Quannah and Wichita Falls plays Graham. Victory for Childrens would mean the title since it also beat Wichita Falls. Defeat for Childrens would give the title to Wichita Falls provided it won from Graham.

The mix-up in District 5 may be straightened out. Denison leads but has lost one game. Gainesville, Greenville, Paris, and Sherman each has lost two. Denison plays Sherman. Bonham meets Gainesville and Paris takes on Greenville. Denison will have to win over Sherman to take the title; a loss would throw things into a big mess.

Friday night Waco and Temple at Waco. The winner will be District 9 champion.

No other games in the state mean anything. All other district championships have been determined.

Woodrow Wilson of Dallas and Arlington Heights of Fort Worth are City Conference district titlists. In Class AA, Amarillo, Odessa, Austin (El Paso), Breckenridge, Texarkana, Palestine, Port Arthur, Baytown, Austin and San Benito are district champions.

The week's schedule by districts (conference games unless indicated otherwise):

- CITY CONFERENCE
1. Thursday: Adams (Dallas) vs. Woodrow Wilson (Dallas)
2. Thursday: Paschal (Fort Worth) vs. Texas Tech (Dallas)
3. Wednesday: Lamar (Houston) vs. Milby (Houston)
4. Thursday: Brackenridge (San Antonio) vs. Jefferson (San Antonio)
CLASS AA
1. Thursday: Bonham at Gatesville, Sherman at Denison, Paris at Greenville, Texarkana, Palestine at Highland Park (Dallas); McKinney at Sulphur Springs
2. Thursday: Weatherford at Mineral Wells, Breckenridge at Cisco, Stephenville at Brownwood, Tyler at Marshall, Gladewater at Loneview, Texarkana, Tex. vs. Texarkana, Ark., Sanconferenc...
3. Thursday: Cleburne at Corsicana, Friday: Temple at Waco
4. No games
5. Thursday: Port Arthur at Beaumont
11. No games
12. No games
13. No games

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

As if you didn't know, Coach Mule Stockton and his Big Spring high school footballers deserve a round of applause and a pat on the back for their work this season. The Longhorns have won but two of nine games and are afforded little chance of containing the Sweetwater Mustangs Thursday in their final bout of the year. Still and all, they kept their nose to the grindstone all season and never entertained the thought of abandoning ship.

Stockton's entry into the head coaching ranks was ill-limed in that he had no chance to field a winner with the material on hand. Still, he got a lot out of what he had and the two victories the boys wrapped up were two more than they were supposed to win.

The 1949 edition of the Longhorns should be better. It won't be a world beater, true, but give Stock and his aides time and you no doubt will see an improvement in football fortunes here.

LOCAL MEMBERS OF BOWL TEAM HERE FOR HOLIDAY Hal Battle and Frank Barton, the Big Spring products who manned first string positions on Sul Ross college's great football team, are in from Alpine for the holidays and both look as fit as the proverbial fiddle.

Battle had a lot harder time with an aching molar than he ever had with an enemy ball carrier. He finally had it out and picked up ten pounds he can use to good advantage.

Battle, by the way, was the only player who voted against going to the Tangerine Bowl game at Orlando, Florida. He, who got his fill of traveling as a paratrooper in World War II, wanted the Lobos to play in the Permian Bowl game at Odessa.

The Lobos should have a better club in 1949 than they have this year, if all goes well. Of the 11 starters, only Barton will be lost to the squad. Battle finishes up his schooling in 1950, which gives him one more season of eligibility.

The Associated Press' 1948 All-America football team will appear in the Dec. 1 edition of the Daily Herald.

Doak Walker of SMU is a near-chance to rate a backfield post. Of other players in the great Southwest, Buddy Burris of Oklahoma, a ferocious guard, stands the best chance to make the eleven.

GIDEON SELLS ONE VESSEL BUT PURCHASES ANOTHER Eddie Gideon, the modest grappler from the "show me" state, Missouri, remains a great boating enthusiast. Eddie sold one craft but bought a bigger and better one before returning to Texas from the Mid-West. At the present time, he has it moored in Lake Erie.

On the subject of wrestling, Glenn Detton, little brother to Dory, is coming here next Monday to serve as referee for Pat O'Dowdy's Monday night show. Glenn is supposed to be quite a man in his own right.

OCU FILING FOR ENTRY INTO MV CONFERENCE Oklahoma City university, which fielded a mean football team a couple of seasons ago, has applied for admission into the Missouri Valley Athletic conference, which has as other members Tulsa, Oklahoma A & M, Detroit, Bradley Tech, Wichita, St. Louis and Drake.

Incidentally, the MVAC is the only league we know of where four of the member schools represent cities of the same name.

Nevada Seeks New Records

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. (AP) — Having shattered two national collegiate marks in forward passing, once-beaten Nevada goes after a listful of other records tomorrow when the Wolfpack winds up a highly successful football season against Wichita.

In eight games, Nevada has averaged an unprecedented 484.8 yards per contest by both rushing and passing. If it nets 287 yards against Wichita, it will break the record of 462.7 yards averaged over a full season by the great Army team of 1934.

Its aerial game has accounted for 2151 yards and 25 touchdowns—both new records—and its total of 135 completions is far and away the best in the country.

Big 'If' Stands In Way Of HSU And Bowl Date

ABILENE, Nov. 24. (AP) — Coach Warren Woodson of Hardin-Simmons University says his football team will play in the Permian Bowl at Odessa—if.

The "if," he said yesterday, involves whether Hardin-Simmons' terms for the post-season game are met, and whether a suitable opponent is signed.

Owl Gains AP Award Of Week

AUSTIN, Nov. 24. (AP) — A lanky reserve center, Gerald Weatherly of Rice, won Southwest Conference lineman-of-the-week honors in the seventh Austin American-Statesman poll.

Standout defense play by the agile Owl pivotsman from Cuero in last week's game with TCU won him the honors yesterday. He had strong competition from a guard and a pair of tackles. They are Roger McCauley, TCU tackle; Boddy Tinsley, Baylor tackle, and Frank Lambright, Arkansas guard.

Other linemen nominated this week by the seven sports news directors: End Bobby Folsom, SMU; End Chucky Moorman, Guard Bobby Stone, Baylor; End James Williams, Rice; End Billy Hix, Arkansas; Tackle John Hamburger, SMU; Tackle Red Marble, TCU; and Center Max Eubank, TCU.

Pennsylvania Over Cornell 11 Claassen Likes Army Over Navy

By HAROLD CLAASSEN AP Staff NEW YORK, Nov. 24. — Stabbing this week's football winners with a turkey pin-feather.

ARMY VS NAVY: The nation's No. 1 gridiron spectacle that will lure 101,000 fans, plus President Truman. He is sitting on the Navy side this year but that is likely to be the Middle's sole distinction. Army goes into Saturday's fray with an all-winning record. Navy with one losing and one tie. Neither streak will end here. Army, Georgia Tech at Georgia; Johnny Rauch's passing Saturday will be too much for the Engineers who have lost two of their last three games. Georgia is bowl fodder and the players know it. Georgia, Cornell at Pennsylvania; Thursday's top game with the Ivy League title at stake. Loss of Hillary Chollet and Jeff Fleischmann, both first string backs for Cornell, by injuries is too much of a handicap for the New Yorkers. Pennsylvania, Kansas at Missouri; The Midwest version of the Yale-Harvard series. Kansas hasn't recovered from the Oklahoma shock. It is another Thanksgiving classic. Missouri, Washington at Notre Dame; Howie Odell reportedly quit as Yale coach last fall to get into the football big time. He took the Washington Post. He will regret his decision. Notre Dame, Tennessee at Vanderbilt; Vanderbilt teams almost always stumble when they encounter Tennessee. But this speedy Commodore team is different as Tennessee will discover Saturday. Vanderbilt, Oklahoma at Oklahoma A&M; Oklahoma has Jack (The Magnificent) Mitchell, Darrell Royal and Buddy Burris all in shape and that is plenty. This is another Saturday affair. Oklahoma, Mississippi, Saturday's card is dotted with civil wars. Here's another. The record says that Barney Poole will close his seventh year of college football with a victory. Mississippi, Texas A&M at Texas; Remember when this annually was one of the year's most important games? They will meet Thursday with only state-wide prestige at stake. Texas, Clemson at Auburn; Bobby Gage's throwing gives his mates a big edge in this Saturday rumpus. Clemson, skipping over the rest in a hurry.

Two Texans Killed In Hunting Mishaps

By The Associated Press
Two Texans were killed yesterday in hunting accidents.
Billy Ray Hall, 17-year-old Childress High School student and athlete, was killed five miles south of Childress.
Ralph Graves, 52, prominent Dayton rice farmer, was fatally wounded while on a duck hunt near his home.

A verdict of accidental death in Hall's case was returned by Justice of the Peace Wade McConnell, Childress County Sheriff Kermit Waters said Ernest Merrell Smith, 14, told him he was following Hall as the two crept toward a duck pond.

The sheriff quoted Smith as saying he was holding the hammer of his shotgun back with his thumb, that the thumb slipped, and the gun discharged. Hall, star basketball player and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, died shortly after the shot struck him.

Graves died on the way to a Dayton hospital after he was shot by State Highway Patrolman Kemp Powers, Jr., according to Deputy Sheriff Tommy Waring. Members of the hunting party said Graves was several yards in advance of Powers and straightened from a crouching position, catching the load of shot in his back. The ducks were flying low, the hunting party said.

Three High School Boys Are Injured By Fraternity

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 24. (AP) — Reports that three high school boys were brutally beaten in a fraternity initiation here have prompted an official investigation "with a view toward criminal prosecution."

Dist. Atty. William N. Hensley said yesterday he had confirmed that two boys were so badly beaten with a paddle cut from a bed sial that they required treatment by a physician.

Hensley assigned Asst. Dist. Atty. Charles Biery to the case. Biery said the initiation, conducted by about 15 youths, lasted from midnight Saturday night to sunrise Sunday.

Biery said the youths apparently lost count of the number of times they struck the three fellow students.

School officials said they had not been informed of the incident. They pointed out that fraternities are not part of the public school program.

Can Black-Draught Help an Upset Stomach?

Yes, Black-Draught may help an upset stomach if the only reason you have an upset stomach is because of constipation. Black-Draught, the friendly laxative, is usually prompt and thorough when taken as directed. It costs only a penny or less a dose. That's why it has been a best-seller with four generations. If you are troubled with such symptoms as loss of appetite, headache, upset stomach, flatulence, physical fatigue, dizziness, mental haziness, bad breath—and if these symptoms are due only to constipation—then see what Black-Draught may do for you. Fourteen Believed Dead In Bus Crash

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 24. (AP) — Fourteen persons were believed to have been killed today when a bus crashed through the rail of a bridge and plunged into water 6 feet below.

The accident occurred after the bus was in a collision with a truck on the Stora Essingen bridge. The bus sank into 74 feet of water in Essingen Sound.

Brussels sprouts, for holiday meals, may be cooked whole or quartered. Be sure to remove wilted and discolored top leaves before washing; the tough core-like center end should be snipped off, too.

Demo Chairmen Will Discuss Vote Changes

DALLAS, Nov. 24. (AP) — The legislative committee of the Texas Assn. of Democratic Chairmen will meet soon to study proposed changes in Texas election laws. The committee will meet in Dallas within two weeks, it was announced yesterday by Arthur Stevenson, Dallas County Democratic chairman and newly-appointed chairman of the state-wide committee.

Stevenson said the committee will use an outline of proposed changes submitted by Grady Chandler, Austin attorney, at the association's convention last week. However, Stevenson said he is strongly opposed to one suggestion by Chandler—that all cities over 10,000 population should not have more than 350 voters in any one precinct. This would necessitate increasing Dallas County precincts from 143 to more than 400 and that would be too expensive, Stevenson said.

Evacuee Ship Lands

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 24. (AP) — The U. S. Army Transport Gen. M. M. Patrick arrived today with 254 American evacuees from China. Fifty-five of them disembarked here and the balance will continue to the United States.
