Lions, Ladies Hear True West Texas Crime Story

A WHODONEIT STORY that kept 150 listeners on the edges of their chairs Tuesday night was the principal feature of a Lions Ladies Night program held in the basement of the Methodist church. The grim story was true. Harold LaFont, Plainview attorney, former judge and district attorney, was the program speaker.

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Probably the most useful device coming to the hands of the average man in a change of national administration is the publication that crack-pots are confined to one party.

Progress may destroy the part where we keep little bits of memories tied. It may be a careless brush, paint over a canvas of a treasured tradition or break the vase in which our fragile dreams are blooming.

Personally, I have no desire to see a pastel-colored liar see I shall prefer to remember a life in its true color; a part of the life and work of the faded cowboy.

My nature is not that of an artist but something has slipped a cog in a nation which has built factories swinging round the clock to achieve opposite ends. One kind of a pill make people sleep and another kind to keep them awake.

A lonely little freighter with cargo of memories is anchored in the misty shores of my childhood. Somewhere in the bales of impressions is the picture of a slim cowboy who rode with the toes of his boots touching the stirrups. His hands used to whip his sandy mane like a strand of hemp spinning to break in an over-axed block and tackle. He always held his hat in front of his eyes when he lit his cigarette and searched for more matches which he struck with unusual dexterity on the metal horn of a saddle.

Nothing has ever been accomplished through the creation of trust in a man's heart unless it is an achievement.

Courtesy embraces the responsibility associated with shoulders holding up the pants of a relationship in any emergency.

One surprising aspect of government in our republic is that has been able to endure generations of politicians whose shoes were molded by the likes of favor-seekers.

A man can not become small if he has first assumed that great; his ignorance will become offensive until he is convinced of his own brilliance.

Temperance in drinking has not the same chance as a toffee and lettuce diet.

GOING WELL ATTENDED
Third Sunday Singing in the American Legion hut last Sunday was well-attended, according to reports. Visitors were from Lubbock, Floydada, Pampa and other surrounding areas. Interest is mounting in the monthly community-sponsored "sing-song", and everyone cordially invited to attend on third Sunday.

TOURNAMENT POSTPONED
Tournament scheduled for tonight will be held instead on Thursday night, March 31, as announced this week. The tournament will be sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary and will be held in the VFW hut. Continuing activities previously scheduled in the community, with the change in the date of the tournament.

MEMBERS OF THE WHITEFLAT HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB who worked against discouraging odds to change an almost worthless building into a community asset. Although the community has since taken the project to its heart, these women have accepted a constant assignment in helping make their dream into a reality. They are (front row) left to right: Mrs. J. W. Pritchett, President; Mrs. J. M. Jameson, vice-president and Mrs. A. K. Wilkinson, secretary-treasurer. Middle row, left to right: Mrs. L. A. Carlisle, Mrs. Varner McWilliams; Mrs. Alfred Watson, Mrs. Wilson Barton (recreation chairman), Miss Melba Jameson. Back row, left to right: Mrs. Tom Tilson, Mrs. Cecil Brogdon, Mrs. Roy Mitchell, Mrs. Clovis Murphy, Mrs. Bill Smith, Mrs. M. D. Morriss and Mrs. Tom Edwards. Other members of the club not in the above pictures are Mrs. Fred Bourland, Mrs. Lee Parker, Mrs. Ed Whitaker and Mrs. Bob Martin. Although everyone in Whiteflat shares pride in the community center, members of the home demonstration club feel that their greatest accomplishment is the children's room (with regular attendant) which will encourage young mothers to attend the club meetings.

OLD WHITEFLAT SCHOOL HOUSE CONVERTED TO COMMUNITY USE

GHOSTS of past glories returned Friday night to Whiteflat's old red brick school house. The long neglected and unused building was ablaze with electric lights, echoing with laughter and music. A community miracle had transformed an almost worthless building into a valuable asset—a community center. The miracle was conceived by the Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club and made a reality by a great amount of hard work and cooperation.

The school that had once provided facilities for over 270 students (about 1929) had been empty for about nine years since Whiteflat became a part of the Matador Independent School District. Students since that time have been transported here by bus.

The old building (constructed about 1920) had "gone to rack and ruin", as have small school buildings throughout most of Texas. Some of the time it has been used as quarters for cotton pickers. Many windows were out. The building needed paint and repairs.

Then community leaders and members of the Home Demonstration Club saw possibilities in the building. They contacted Supt. Bert Ezzell and the trustees. They received complete cooperation including use of the building and funds for the repairs.

Everybody Worked
A lot of work was to be done. The club leaders (and their husbands) started to work and soon almost everyone in the community was helping in cleaning and repairing the building. Even those who at first had doubted that the ambition could be achieved were working as hard as the others. Supt. Ezzell estimates that between $1,500 and $2,000 worth of labor was donated in bringing the building back to community usefulness.

QUARTET RESPONSIBLE for the Whiteflat Community Center is shown above. A Tribune reporter was told several times that but for the work (starting almost five years ago) of these two couples, the project would not have been accomplished. They are, left to right: Mrs. J. W. Pritchett, President of the club, her husband, J. W. Pritchett, Wilson Barton and Mrs. Wilson Barton (recreation chairman). They are seated at one of the club's (home-made) 20 domino tables going at one time during the Friday night house-warming party.

Marshall Formby On Ten-Country Tour
Marshall Formby of Plainview member of the Texas Highway Commission was in Cairo, Egypt on March 13, as a member of the Wick Editors tour, where he wrote Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meador of the Tribune. He said he was having a good trip but that the schedule forced them to move fast. He and 35 more editors and radio station representatives are scheduled to return home about the first of April. They left February 23 on a trip to Germany, Austria, Turkey, Yugoslavia, France and England where they interviewed high government officials. Mr. Formby is representing radio stations KPAN, KFLD, KTUE and KSML.

Mr. Palmeyer said the junior livestock show will exhibit the work of both 4-H Club members and also members of FFA groups in the county. More detailed information of the show will be published in a subsequent issue of the Tribune.

LOCAL SCOUTERS RECEIVE AWARDS

Local scout leaders Freddie Welling and Algie Groves were each presented with the Scouters' Award at the annual Haynes District Scouters Banquet held Thursday evening, March 17, in the Plainview High School Cafeteria. The Scouters' Award is a recognition for Scoutmasters who, over a period of at least three years, have met prescribed requirements in four areas: training, performance, service, and tenacity.

Mr. Welling's training includes instruction at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico, and Mr. Groves' service includes one year as a district commissioner for the Haynes District.

A camping certificate was presented the local troop for having completed at least ten nights of "camping overnight" during the past year.

District Chairman H. M. LaFont acted as master of ceremonies for the program and introduced Dr. Kirk Rogers as the speaker of the evening. Special music for the program was provided by the Matador "Star Dusters", a group of eighth grade scouts and explorers, Gerald Pipkin, Ronald Bailey, Lee Smith, Manuel Nichols, Harry Campbell and Lewis Fair, accompanied on the accordion by Mike Groves. They sang the scout song, "On My Honor", "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho", and as a benediction at the close of the evening, the scout vesper song.

Other local scouters attending the banquet were Lion's Scout Committeemen D. E. Pitts, Jr., B. C. Cox, M. L. Hoyle and Gerald Yeates accompanied by their wives, and Mmes. Welling and Groves.

PLAY CAST READY FOR PERFORMANCE

All is in readiness for presentation of the junior class play, "Little Aconia", Friday (tonight) night. Curtain call is set for 8 o'clock.

Diligent practice by the cast has been in progress the past three weeks, under the able direction of Bill Moss, class sponsor.

The comedy-packed entertainment promises to be well worth the price of admission (50c for adults and 25c for school children) and the public is extended a cordial invitation.

Proceeds of the play will be used by the class in entertaining the senior class with the traditional junior-senior banquet.

HOME FROM VISIT

Mrs. Berta Campbell has returned home from an extended visit with relatives in Houston and in other sections of the state.

Spring Has Cold Kiss

SPRING arrived in the Texas Panhandle early Monday morning with an embrace of freezing winds and snow. Although brief, it was one of the most severe storms of the winter that destroyed the fruit crop except in isolated areas, killed flowers and early gardens and developed highway hazards. The mercury dropped here to around 20 degrees while Amarillo reported a low of 12 degrees.

Snow began falling early Monday morning and continued until noon when skies started to clear. The snow was of little benefit, however, because of the small moisture content.

A few scattered showers Friday afternoon left some precipitation (as much as 1-2 inch in some small areas). The weather was warm until the cold front struck about midnight Sunday night.

Good rains were reported over much of West Texas Friday reaching as far west as Kirkland (Crowell) and southwestward to Spur.

Bus Line Applies For Permit Over North-South Route

Petitions were being circulated here this week asking the Railroad Commission to grant an operating franchise to a proposed new bus line between Abilene and Amarillo. The new line would operate through Motley county over State Highway 70, north to Clarendon thence to Amarillo; and south through Roaring Springs, Spur, Jayton and Anson to Abilene.

Sponsors of the new line propose two schedules each way daily. Committees appointed by the Lions Clubs in Matador and Roaring Springs are attempting to secure as many names as possible on the petition. A hearing has been scheduled on the application in Abilene for Thursday, March 31. A delegation from Motley county favoring the permit is making plans to attend the hearing.

REVIVAL REPORTS GOOD

Reports of a good revival meeting at Wilcox, Arizona, were brought last week by Rev. Bruce Oliver, pastor of First Baptist Church, upon his return home. He was accompanied by Mrs. Oliver and sons, Ben and Paul, and they were guests of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Groves.

A&M Says Soybeans Are Unprofitable
Soybeans and Texas don't go together. Texas A&M college has been making experiments for 40 years and soybeans don't pay. The Plains and El Paso Valley irrigation districts planting have been profitable but do not compare with cotton and grain sorghum. Last year about 5,000 acres of soybeans were planted in the state.

County Agent Bill Palmeyer said he had been receiving inquiries regarding soybeans here. A&M advises against it. Yields are too low and inconsistent. Everything is against soybeans in Texas, even including the rabbits who have been known to destroy large plantings.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Pied Pinions

BY MRS. J. M.

Recent mis-information had it that Ed Jameson of the Jameson Machinery Company had been injured while working at the Von Tiffin place between Flomot and Quitaque, on an irrigation well job. The message came that he had a pick in his back, but no particulars were available, so his wife, Miriam, got in the family car and drove to the scene of the disaster. There she learned that Ed was hurt all right, but it was a "crick" in his back that had gotten him down, (literally as he had to crawl on his all-fours in getting out of the ditch they were digging.) They went to Plainview, where he was treated.

Which just goes to prove that you can't believe all that you hear.

Story behind Gabriel's recent ad to sell 276 dresses was this: The firm received an invoice for a large shipment of dresses and manager C. M. Barton, supposing Mr. Gabriel had had them shipped here, thought he'd better let the public know. One box containing 80 dresses arrived, were unpacked and marked before notice came through that the shipment—and the invoice had inadvertently been sent here. Truth was they were not even meant for any of the Gabriel stores. It turned out to be effective advertising however, as it brought the customers in.

Held-over: An old gag was resurrected the other day by a noted Texas lawyer, according to H. S. Hilburn of the Plainview Herald. He told of a young lady applying in the early days for a position teaching a small school. The community was a little too modern in its thinking... a trustee exploded a big mouthful of amber into and around a cuspidor, wiped the moist residue from his whiskers and asked the question: "Miss, there's some argument about whether the world is round or flat; what's your ideas about that?" "Well, Sir, I am prepared to teach it either way," was the response.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horton and children, Linda and Richard of Carlsbad, N. M., visited here from Friday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clements.

Graham Children Home For Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Graham, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. M. Graham, last week drove to Ft. Smith, Ark., where they met the former's son, Cpl. Jodie Graham, to accompany him home on Friday. Cpl. Graham received his army discharge at Camp Chaffee, having just returned from duty in Germany.

Their other children who spent the week-end here were Mr. and Mrs. Eddy J. Leary of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. William Curtis Graham and baby daughter, Vicki, of Graham, and Jimmie Graham, T.C.U. student, Ft. Worth. Another son, Dayton, is still in school here.

Sunday guests in the Graham home were Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffers and daughter, Susie of Panhandle, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jeffers and sons, Jeff and Joe, and her mother, Mrs. R. N.

VISIT AT BOYS' RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Leary of Northfield, returned to Canyon, Saturday by their daughter-in-law, Garland Rattan, to Boy's Ranch where they spent Sunday the latter's husband, also a visitor of McCormick Dormitory occupied by 70 boys. He expressed appreciation to friends here who sent magazines and books for the boys' dormitory, who are between ages of 9 to 13. Anyone who would appeal to boys of these ages, and would like to see them, may get in touch with Mrs. Ward Rattan, who is glad to pick them up.

LIQUID OR TABLETS - SAME FAST RELIEF

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—After prodding from the head coach, line coach and backfield, the Legislature got busy on both the put and the take phases of its money job.

House and Senate committees reported the biggest biennial budget in history. The Senate version calls for $1.5 billion. The House bill ran slightly less.

In one day of debate, the House passed its bill, calling for $212 million in two years from the general revenue fund, now currently in the red. It would require $33,600,000 more than current spending, for general purposes, plus a proposed addition of $27 million for highways.

Hearings by the revenue and taxation committee finally were held on Gov. Allan Shivers' tax recommendations—the Murphy 2-cent per gallon gasoline tax increase, and the Kirklin one-cent cigarette tax increase.

Although the current House is one of the "workingest" groups ever, Speaker Jim Lindsey, called on the members to work harder. He predicted that most of the urgent programs—water, insurance laws, hospital, tax and spending—could be achieved. He estimated $60 million new taxes would be required. Governor Shivers renewed his urging for the gasoline tax hike, backed by the highway commission's estimate that Texas needs to spend $2,200,000,000 on highways during the next 10 years.

Rep. Jerry Sadler who said he was "authorized to speak for a majority of the House", told the revenue and taxation committee that the 2-cent gasoline tax hike won't pass.

Sadler prefers a one-cent per gallon gasoline and condensate processing tax. This, he contends would bring in $160 million a year and permit repeal of the present 4-cent gasoline sales tax. A processing tax would reach out-of-state as well as Texas buyers of gasoline.

Sadler also has proposed a $3.30 per barrel hike in the tax on beer.

Heard by the oil, gas and mining committee was Rep. J. B. Walling's "anti-waste" bill to set minimum prices for natural gas. At present rates this bill would bring in an estimated $20 million a year.

Under committee rules the tax and gas-conservation bills automatically went to subcommittees for a week's study.

Veterans' Affairs

Veteran land deals and their investigation resulted in an ever-growing list of legal suits against Bascom Giles, former commissioner of the General Land Office. Filed by Atty-Gen. John Ben Shepperd in 53rd District Court here was a civil suit against Giles, seeking a lien on property purportedly owned by the former commissioner in Falls Co.

Giles has been indicted by a Bexar County grand jury on a charge of accepting a bribe. He also faces a Travis county indictment accusing him of conspiring to take $83,500 in veterans land program funds.

Issued by the Travis jury was a subpoena directing officials of the Capital National Bank of Austin, to produce Giles' bank records.

Other civil suits for recovery were filed, making a total of over $2 million that Shepperd is trying to recover for the state.

Shivers Testifies Again

Governor Shivers went back a second time to appear before the Senate investigating committee. This time under oath.

He said that neither he nor any of his aides brought "undue pressure" on the veterans land board to expedite processing of applications for loans.

It is the policy of the governor's office, said Shivers, to refer questions about the program to the veterans land board.

Shivers testified further that he had never received any warning of any irregularities concerning the program, and that if he had, something would have been done about it.

Commending the investigators for their work, Shivers said, "There isn't anything as wholesome as bringing out the real facts and letting the public look at them."

Continuation In Doubt

Continuation of the Veterans' Land Program is in doubt. House investigators have recommended liquidation of the present set-up.

Sen. George Moffett abandoned "indefinitely" his plan to ask Texans to vote another $100 million in veterans' land bonds.

Only 15,000 of the 971,000 eligible veterans have applied for land to date, under the eight-year-old veterans' land program. That is less than 1.6 per cent of those who are eligible.

General Legislation

Tourist Business

Texas will be able to advertise for tourists if the House okays a senate-passed measure to permit the State to advertise—and if voters approve the constitutional amendment next year.

Insurance Bills

Sen. Crawford Martin's bill requiring adequate financing of fire and casualty insurance companies, by ample capital stock and surplus, passed the Senate. It also broadened the supervisory powers of the state insurance commissioners.

Lunacy Trials

Backed by Governor Shivers is a proposed constitutional amendment to permit the waiver of jury trials in lunacy cases. It would permit persons of unsound mind to be committed to mental hospitals on the basis of medical or psychiatric testimony and avoid the mental anguish of jury trial. House members approved the bill 124 to 23.

Labor Legislation

Senate action is awaited on two labor bills which have received favorable committee reports. One would deny unemployment benefits to workers idled by a labor dispute between the same union and the same employer in a different plant. The other would prohibit picketing by a union or organization not representing a majority of the workers.

Junior Class Play To Be Presented

If you have seen some of us juniors walking down the street staring into space, and mumbling to ourselves, don't think we are crazy! We are just learning our last lines for the junior play. The play, "Little Acorns", is to be presented tomorrow night, Friday, March 25, at the High School. The admission is just 25c and 50c.

If you have ever been in a play, you probably know of some of the obstacles which we have encountered. I mean things like, where to sit or stand, how to always face the audience, how to talk loud enough and especially how to look at each other while reciting our lines. We feel that we have overcome these obstacles, to some degree, and are ready to present you with one of the best plays you have ever seen.

The cast is made up of five girls and three boys who are: Sara Carson, Lucretia Edwards, Frank Trawek, Alvin Lynn, Rachel Craven, Pina Sue Sturdivant, Mickie Steen and Royce Kirby.

McMurry Musicians Give Program Here

By Betti Neighbors

The McMurry Musicians from Abilene visited M. H. S. Tuesday and played some music on the trumpets, accordion, piano, and the armbra.

The master of ceremonies, Milt Chester, started the program by introducing Don Hamilton, Don Dennis and Willis Giddon, who made up the Trumpet Trio.

The next number was a freshman, Ikey Dillingham, whistling "The Hot Canary". He was accompanied by Gene Davidson, who played the piano, for all of the numbers.

Next was Don Dennis, accordionist, who played a solo called "Cargas". He was followed by Audrey Carter, playing "Deep Purple" on the marimba.

Willis Giddon played a trumpet solo called "Amora", which was out of the world and Gene Davidson, band's accompanist, played "Bumble Boogie" on the piano.

Nearing the end of the program, the Trumpet Trio and Audrey Carter each did another number.

The last act was Yvonne Caldwell, a freshmen student, doing a twirling act. She was dressed in an Indian majorette suit and first twirled one baton and then another at the same time.

After the program, the master of ceremonies talked about the rest of the band touring Europe, and how important it was to have a Christian education.

We enjoyed the program very much and hope to have them visit us again.

Insurance Questions Answered

One of the most familiar types of contracts is the insurance policy, as nearly everyone carries some sort of insurance protection. Yet, few people take the trouble to read their policies and lawyers have to answer many questions regarding insurance generally.

Here is a problem frequently presented: "I have a hospitalization insurance policy. Will the company pay all of my hospital bills if I become ill?"

It may or may not. Insurance is a contract between the insurance company and the policy holder. In the usual contract the policy holder agrees to pay a certain sum of money for the policy of insurance, and the insurance company agrees that should the policy holder incur hospital expenses that the insurance company will make payment to the policy holder of stated sums, as set out in the policy of insurance.

The insurance policy itself must state the complete contract between the parties. The oral statements of agents not in harmony with the policy are not binding on the company. The company is bound to pay only such sums as are specifically set forth in the policy of insurance.

Practically all policies have a section called exceptions and exclusions. The policy holder should particularly read this section before purchasing a policy of any kind of insurance. It would be possible for a policy of insurance to have so many exceptions and exclusions as to nullify any benefits under the policy.

Another question often asked is: "Can I sue the insurance company which issued a liability policy covering the car of someone who runs into and damages my car?"

For all practical purposes you may not sue the insurance company which carries insurance on the other fellows car to protect him from suits in case of his negligence. You must look to the owner or driver of the other vehicle for your damages. Upon his becoming liable to pay those damages to you, then he in turn looks to the insurance company to make the settlement for him, or to reimburse him for the settlement which he has made.

If the case goes to trial before the jury, even though you may know that the other party carries insurance, if there arises any discussion of the fact that insurance is carried by the other party, then the courts have held that it is the duty of the trial judge to declare a mistrial.

This means that you will have to start all over again and try your case from the beginning before the jury, at a later date. Your case is not dismissed, you do not lose your right to heard on your case because the word "insurance" came into the case, but it does not go to the trial then, in practice must be dismissed and you start all over again before a different jury.

The theory of the appellate courts is that the mere production of any evidence of testimony to the effect that there is an insurance company involved in any way in the case is highly prejudicial to the defendant and his cause of action.

The appellate courts say that it is reversible error that is, such error as will aside the findings of the jury, the jury is retiring to consider their verdict discuss whether or not either or both of the parties might or might not have an appeal to back them up or not.

From where I sit... by Joe Mar...
Finally Talked Herself Out

A certain talkative young lady almost spent a night locked in "Doc" White's drugstore.

She entered Doc's store about 11 PM, going directly to the pay phone. At eleven-thirty Doc went home—not having seen a customer for a half hour. Around midnight he got a call from the store—she had finally run out of conversation (and money) and found the front door locked tight.

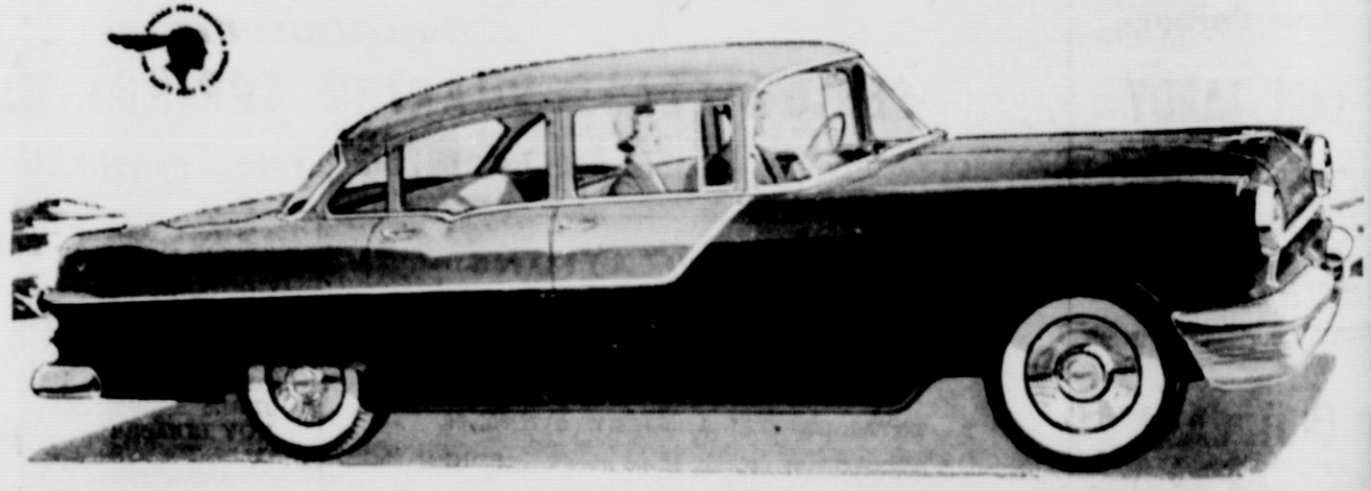

Doc vowed he'd leave her there to teach her a lesson. But Mrs. W. spoke up: "Now you go turn her loose. It's hard to cut a good conversation short—sometimes only a woman understands."

From where I sit, however, plenty of men are as hard up away from a telephone as a female. Some people are naturally long-winded, while others are the silent type, as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. An important thing is to be conversant... before friends start ping us the "busy signal."

If all the talk about horsepower has left you confused, let this one simple fact set you straight.

Model for model, the sensational new Pontiac Strato-Streak V-8 delivers more horsepower per dollar than any car in its field. The Strato-Streak V-8, part and parcel of every Pontiac, produces performance as fresh and distinctive as Pontiac's Twin-Streak styling and Vogue Two-Tone beauty—with traditional Pontiac dependability and the greatest economy in Pontiac history.

But Pontiac's extra value doesn't stop with power. Its Shock-Proof chassis, wide-stance rear springs, long 122" or 124" wheelbase, recirculating ball steering and bigger brakes provide fine-car comfort and handling.

Come in at your first opportunity and road-test Pontiac's spectacular Strato-Streak V-8 performance and you'll quickly see why sales are now at an all-time high!

How Much Is a Penny Worth?

It all depends on how you look at it. These are all American pennies. Worth, at face value, only one cent. But to a coin collector, some of these pennies are worth many times more. To him, their real value is high.

The real value of the pennies you spend for electric service is high, too. Think what you get for them in terms of comfort, convenience and easier living.

Electric service is always there to help with the housework, the cooking, the laundry and dishwashing. It will warm the baby's bottle late at night or help Dad shave in the morning.

When you count all the things your electric service does for you, don't you agree that you get more for the electric pennies than for the money you spend for anything else in your family budget?

Friday night was the official opening event. More than 200 registered including visitors from almost every community in the county. Long tables groaned under their burdens of appetizing home-prepared foods. From the modern, well-equipped kitchen, came the pleasant aroma of cooking as last-minute touches were added to the banquet.

Children romped and played in the children's room while couples talked and played games in the attractive and well-furnished parlor.

The children's room was planned to provide recreation for small children while their mothers attended club meetings. One of the club women acts as "baby sitter" during a meeting.

It was in the main auditorium, however, where the principal crowd engaged in games. At one time 80 people were playing dominoes. On the stage, musicians provided many popular and old-time melodies; later a group collected and began singing hymns.

Pioneer Teacher
Among these engaged in playing dominoes was Mrs. W. L. McWilliams, wife of Matador's mayor, former pioneer resident of Whiteflat. Mrs. McWilliams said she taught school in the community in 1902.

The Whiteflat community center project was started several years ago. The members of the home demonstration club admit they started the idea but refuse to accept the credit for its success. "It is a community project," they declared, "and everyone has a working interest in it. We are glad we have a place for club meetings and a place where young mothers can leave their children while they attend meetings."

Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club is looking forward to the day when the county will again have a home demonstration agent to promote the leadership so essential in the work. Many feel that the training of young wives (and some not so young) in the modern art of home-making is essential to the economic future and stability of the county.

Man may improve the soil—
make them better for crops—allow them to become poorer—
Gustav Larson and Walter Teiler, "What Is Farming?"

Evangelist

Rev. Charles Hyde of Port Arthur, above, who is conducting revival services at the Matador Assembly of God Church, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend. The revival started Sunday and is held each evening at 7:30 p. m. Rev. W. J. Denham is the local pastor.

Relatives Attend Dumas Man's Rites

Mr. and Mrs. James (Doc) Taylor and son, James attended funeral services Friday at Morgan Mill, for a relative, Franklin A. Sparks, 54, of Dumas, who died Wednesday in a freak accident. Mrs. Taylor is a sister of Mrs. Sparks.

Sparks, an employe of a landscape company, was crushed beneath a tree, after excavating a deep trench around the tree which was to be moved to another site. High winds toppled the tree while Sparks was inspecting his work. He had been a resident of Dumas for seven months.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters.

Highway 70 Group Is Organized Here

Meeting in the Legion building lobby here Saturday morning a small group of civic-minded business and professional men organized a Matley county corps of the National Highway 70 Association.

Douglas Meador, editor of the Matador Tribune was named president, with Forrest Campbell as secretary. R. M. (Bob) Stanley was elected vice-chairman.

The group will cooperate with the national organization in promoting US Highway 70 as one of the principal east-west travel arteries of the nation. At present membership fees ($10) are being used to advertise the route to tourists and to aid in promoting improvements of the highway to make it the most attractive east-west road in the nation. All other counties in this area of Texas have perfected their organizations. J. R. Whitworth, cashier of the First State Bank here is one of the state directors.

At 2 p. m. Matador dog owners may again bring pets for immunization and continue until 6:30 p. m. at the east door of the courthouse.

"JIM BO"—the most sensational invention in the history of fishing—the artificial minnow that swims. No more live bait to buy. This is the sure sensation of the 20th century.
IT SWIMS—no springs, uses no lead, it swims as long as you leave it in the water. Swims by unique process of balance and gravity. Fish any desired depth—on lake, stream, pool, bay. Any fish that will strike a minnow will strike JIM BO. This is no gag-get. Looks and swims like a live minnow.
