OIL COMPANY HEADS TO ASSEMBLE FOR REGULATORY MEET AT AUSTIN

AUSTIN, May 16, (AP) — Personal appearance here tomorrow of the policy-making heads of 14 American oil companies is seen by Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson as indicating their willingness to co-operate with the oil regulatory body.

In a prepared statement to the press yesterday, Thompson said numerous questions would be put to them at tomorrow's statewide oil production hearing which will inquire into the importing plans of the major companies.

"As the oil industry," Thompson stated is one important to Texas producers and to the state's tax revenue picture. "If Texas makes more crude available by increasing the allowable production, would you reduce your imports accordingly?"

Thompson said the company representatives would also be asked for figures on imports so far this year and on import plans for the remainder of the year.

"We appreciate the wholehearted co-operation of industry leaders in coming here to testify to the facts," he said. "In this manner we may know the true actual market demand for Texas crude as far as it is possible to ascertain."

The oil company heads have notified the commission of their intention to appear at the commission's invitation.

Part of the decreased demand for Texas crude in recent months—which has resulted in decreased allowances and resulting tax revenue—has been laid to heavy imports of foreign crude.

MEET CELAL BAYAR

New Turk President Is Loyal To West

(See Picture, Pg. 1)
By EDWIN S. GREENWALD
ISTANBUL, Turkey, May 16. (AP)—Turkey's new strong man, Celal Bayar, said today his nation's newly-elected government stands loyal to its alliances and friendships with the western world.

He gave his pledge in an interview after disclosing his five-year-old Democrat Party had already taken 975 of the 487 grand national assembly seats in Sunday's general election.

The Democrats' triumph left in ruins President Ismet Inonu's People's party, which has ruled Turkey for 27 years.

With returns still awaited from some provinces, some observers said Inonu's group might have no more than 80 seats when the assembly meets next Monday to elect a new president.

Turkey receives American military aid under the Truman doctrine and economic assistance under the Marshall Plan. Though not a signer of the Atlantic Pact, Turkey also has been frequently mentioned unofficially as seeking membership in the alliance.

Bayar said his party "shall definitely be most loyal to our alliances and friendships."

"I hope that in our dealings with our allies and friends, we shall be more attentive and progressive so that the outcome of our relations may be satisfactory to all parties concerned," he continued.

Turkey's political and economic relations with the West "will be stronger and will be conducted in a more understanding manner," the 67-year-old party leader declared.

No Hate, No Love, Just Average Man

CHICAGO, May 16, (AP) — Victor A. Johnston, Republican observer whom President Truman calls his little shadow says this about Mr. Truman:

"Nobody hates him. But nobody seems to love him very much, either."

Johnston traveled by airplane to observe Mr. Truman's western trip and prepare GOP ammunition.

He was eating a meal alone in the midst of dozens of Democrats at the Blackstone Hotel yesterday when a reporter asked how he liked the Chicago Democratic shindig. He replied:

"It was a good show—a hoopla medicine show, maybe, but good. The President is a very masterful politician and has exceptionally good staff and research work behind him."

LOST 40 POUNDS

"Before taking Barcolite, my weight was 210 pounds. After taking seven bottles my weight is now 170 and I feel so much better. Thanks to Barcolite," Edward, H. M. Robinson, Southbrook, Texas.

TEXAN SWORN IN

Guill Gets The Glad Hand In Washington

WASHINGTON, May 16. (U.S.)—That Republican representative from Texas, Ben Guill of Pampa, is getting the glad hand in Washington and it's not all from the GOP contingent.

House Minority Leader Martin of Massachusetts and others of the party welcomed him with open arms yesterday as the first Republican from Texas to serve in the House since the death Nov. 6, 1931 of Harry M. Wurrbach of San Antonio.

He was sworn in by a fellow Texan, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham, after being presented by Martin. A burst of applause from the Republican side of the aisle greeted his introduction.

But Democrats as well as Republicans shook hands and the Texas congressional delegation was present at a luncheon Martin gave for him in the capitol.

Rayburn assured Guill he would be welcomed at the delegation's regular weekly luncheons, and wished him well in everything except next November's halting when he faces a long Democratic opponent for a regular two-year term in the House.

The 40-year-old Panhandle insurance man and World War II veteran was busy all afternoon posing for newspaper and television cameras and getting settled in his first-floor suite in the old House office building.

He is directly across the hall from Rep. George Smathers (D-Fla.), who recently beat Sen. Claude Pepper (D-Fla.) in the Democratic primary election in that state. Reps. Teague and Gossett, Texas Democrats, are on the same corridor.

His first vote was on adoption of a motion to permit debate of legislation for a new Washington-Baltimore Highway. It carried 194 to 22 and he voted with the winning side.

Georgia Deer Is Now Engaged To Houston Doe

ATLANTA, May 16. (U.S.)—The engagement of Buck, a Georgia deer, to a Houston doe was announced today by J. H. Elliott, the prospective groom's owner.

Buck will leave today by plane to join his bride-to-be at her home. "It was time for Buck to get married," Elliott explained. "And his apartment here wasn't large enough to share with a wife. So he'll live with his bride in Houston."

The 14-month-old deer was born on Hermitage Island off the Georgia coast. He was given to Elliott about a year ago by Fred Smith, the owner of the island. Elliott kept Buck in a cage next to his antique shop on Peachtree St.

Smith handled the long distance match-making and Elliott said all he knew about the bride-to-be is that she is not a common zoo deer, but is privately owned.

Senate Wants Chicago Crime Information

WASHINGTON, May 16. (U.S.)—The Senate committee investigating gambling and crime has asked Virgil Peterson, Chicago Crime Commission director, for a look at information his group has rounded up.

The request was made by the committee's newly-appointed chief counsel, Rudolph Halley. Halley said today he hopes to have the nucleus of a staff—three to four aides—at work by the end of the week gathering information for the $150,000 nation-wide crime probe. The committee staff already has had a fill-in on big-time gambling and bookmaking data collected by a Senate commerce subcommittee studying anti-gambling legislation.

Highway Group Making Survey Of County Road

Possibility of letting a contract on the Howard county section of FM 87 early this summer has been foreseen by S. J. Treadway, Abilene, Texas highway department district engineer.

Treadway, in a letter to the Herald, said that department personnel is now engaged in making surveys and preparing plans and specifications.

Delay in contracting the section from Big Spring to the Martin county line arose out of the basis on which the project was developed. The route was programmed in Martin county in 1945 when funds were appropriated. Designation for Howard county came two years later. Only recently were funds made available.

George White, chairman of the chamber of commerce highway committee, expressed the hope that the project could be constructed in time for the road to be topped before winter. The Martin county section is now underway.

Truman Visits Flynn In Chicago

CHICAGO, May 16. (U.S.)—Edward J. Flynn, Democratic national committeeman from New York, who suffered a heart attack Sunday, was reported in "good condition at St. Luke's Hospital today.

The 58-year-old Democratic leader of the Bronx was placed in an oxygen tent yesterday. Doctors said he was not in any danger but will remain in the hospital a day or two to rest.

The Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society here guessed what it must mean to a boy to give up his dog—especially a boy who spent most of his childhood in wartime German concentration camps.

So when Eugene arrived with 1,332 other DP's aboard the Gen. R. L. Howze, the society had something waiting for him.

It was a three-month-old black, wire-haired terrier.

The boy looked at the dog and the memories of war and prison camps washed out of his eyes.

The pup looked back and then snuggled in as Eugene dropped to his knees.

They might as well have been alone on the ship for all the attention they paid to any one else—this boy and his dog.

President Truman, in Chicago yesterday for a speech climaxing the three-day Jefferson Jubilee program, visited Flynn yesterday afternoon. He stayed in Flynn's room a few minutes and then returned to the Blackstone Hotel, less than a mile from the hospital.

Cuitti Massages Lamesa Pitching

By The Associated Press
In case you might get to thinking that the West Texas-New Mexico League is settling down into a pitcher's loop, just look what Albuquerque's Art Cuitti did to the hurling of the league leading Lamesa Lobos.

Cuitti walloped three home runs and a double in five trips as the Dukes were taking a ten-inning slugfest from Lamesa, 10-13.

The Clovis Pioneers edged a half-game closer to first place by splitting a twin-bill with the Abilene Blue Sox. Abilene took the opener 6-1, but dropped the second to the Pioneers, 6-3.

Arraignment Set In Wife Drowning

NEWARK, N. J., May 16. (U) — Joseph Otoban is to be arraigned on a murder charge here today, while funeral services go on in Danbury, Conn., for the wife he is accused of drowning in a bathtub.

The drowning happened Sunday morning, on their first wedding anniversary. The sergeant quoted him as saying he went out for some heavy drinking Saturday night, came home at 2 o'clock, drank some beer, and then "all I remember is that I shoved her with both hands while she was in the bathtub and said, 'Drown, you...'"

Police found the nude body of Louise, a 38-year-old blonde, still in the tub.

The number of dead was not stated.

After the outbreak of shooting, Dutch commanders ordered their Indonesian troops to their barracks. Dutch and Indonesian officers meeting with a neutral United Nations military observer brought the situation under control.

The Dutch-commanded Indonesians involved in the clash are members of the Dutch army in the Indies who have not been transferred yet to the Central Indonesian army command. Considerable bad feeling has existed between these troops and those of the federal Indonesian government.

This resulted in a rebellion in Makassar, the capital of the state of East Indonesia, in early April, when federal government troops sought to garrison the city. Former Dutch forces rebelled and held the town for two weeks but surrendered finally to central government forces without bloodshed.

Similar troops also have carried out two rebellions on the Island of Ambon in the East Moluccas Chain. The first mutiny was quickly quelled but rebellious soldiers and political leaders who declared the South Moluccas Independent of the Jakarta Government on April 20 still are in control of the island.

Fish Develop Cancer When Kept In Dark

NEW YORK, (U) — On Bimini, a small tropical island in the Bahamas group, 80 miles east of Miami, American Museum of Natural History researchers are investigating in fish the relationship of light and hormones to growth and cancer.

The scientists divide their time between the museum's laboratories in New York and the Lerner Marine Laboratory, a museum field station, on Bimini. Their project is supported by research grants from the American Cancer Society.

It has been found that fish kept in darkness develop abnormal growths, including several types of cancer. The light factor apparently reduces activity of hormone-secreting glands of the fish. The hormone ACTH is being injected into the cancerous fish and its effects on the tumors are being studied.

KITCHEN MAID SEEKS TELEVISION FOR 14-YEAR-OLD POLIO VICTIM

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 16. (U) — Marie Gagne, a kitchen maid at Charles V. Chapin hospital, spends part of her $17 weekly salary on child patients—but a television set is too big an order for her to handle alone.

So Marie is resorting to prayers and personal appeal to the kind-hearted to obtain a set for a 14-year-old polio victim, identified only as "Edgar." He has been confined to the hospital since last summer.

Police approved her lone campaign by kicking in $4 after telling her she didn't have to have a license to receive contributions.

Her initial tour of likely collection spots will carry her to all fire and police stations, she said, because "those fellows are pretty big hearted." And she'll go to church every night to pray.

"I know when I pray for something I usually get it," she said. "I know I can't do it alone."

Hospital Show Program Folds

WASHINGTON, May 16. (U) — The veterans hospital variety-show program has folded, but the Veterans Administration is hoping that the suspension is only for the summer months.

Camp Shows, the organization which has been bringing professional entertainment to the nation's 100,000 hospitalized war veterans, lost its main source of support early this year when USO (United Service Organizations) went out of business for lack of funds. USO was supported largely by community chest funds.

Representatives of the entertainment industry have been discussing the possibility of a fund-raising campaign to enable resumption of the program next fall.

TO ROLL SOON

Wheat Crop In Area Ready For Harvest

WICHITA FALLS, May 16. (U) — The 1950 wheat crop is expected to begin rolling to grain elevators throughout this area in the next 10 days or two weeks.

Reports received by the Record News here yesterday indicated the harvest may begin in either Young County, Texas or in Tillman County, Oklahoma.

The first wheat in the nation normally is produced in North Texas or southern Oklahoma.

"With good weather, the harvest should get under way in Young County around May 26," County Agent R. O. Dunkle of Graham said yesterday.

Vernon Duncan of Frederick, Okla., Tillman County agent, said harvesting in that section of Oklahoma should start "in another 10 days or two weeks if the weather is right."

Agent Max Carpenter of Wichita County predicted combining will get under way there between May 26 and June 1.

Brighter prospects for "fair to good" wheat crops were forecast in many sections. A month ago, in the midst of a prolonged drought and considerable insect infestation, farmers were predicting much smaller yields.

In Young County, which produced the nation's first wheat last year, Dunkle predicted an average of 10 bushels per acre. The county averaged 11 bushels last year.

Recent rains have brightened prospects in Haskell County, Tex., Agent F. W. Martin said. The average yield has been set at 10 bushels an acre—the same as last year.

Haskell expects to harvest about 20,000 acres, compared with 105,000 last year.

In Cotton County, Oklahoma, the yield will range from zero to 20 bushels on 120,000 acres, N. H. Carter, production marketing administration official at Walters, Okla.,

Race Wire Snipping Brings 'Hot' Words

EL PASO, May 16. (AP) — The snipping of a race news service wire has New York and Texas spokesmen exchanging charges. El Paso County Atty. Ernest Guinn said last night that Sheriff Joe Campbell did right when he had wires cut to stop horse racing news to the Silver State news service at Anapra, N. M. A Western Union spokesman said in New York last night that Campbell had "no reason whatever" to disrupt transmission by the Continental Press Service. A Federal Communications report said Anapra was a relay station for racing news to the West Coast and Mexico, until Campbell's order last Saturday night. "There was no reason whatever for any law enforcement officer to cut any wire, to violate the law by damaging property," the New York wire official said. "There never could be any reason for such action, because Western Union cooperates with law enforcement officers everywhere." He added: "All that any law enforcement officer has to do at any time is to say to Western Union that any wire is being used contrary to law and the company will immediately stop service." County Atty. Guinn said the Western Union wire was cut after it failed to stop the racing news service. "Western Union officials in El Paso were given notice in writing to stop service—that it was in violation of laws of this state," Guinn said. "They not only failed to cooperate, but made actual misrepresentations of actual conditions to us."

Snake-Handler Arrested After Three-State Hunt

BEAVER, Okla., May 16. (AP) — Dodge City, Kan., plumber and snake handler, Calvin Hanson, 32, was arrested in his car near here yesterday ending a three-state manhunt. Harper County Sheriff Jack Owenby and Highway Patrolman Bill Lancaster made the arrest. They said Hanson was wanted in connection with the stabbing of Bob Wright, 35, in an argument last Thursday at Wright's home in Turpin. Wright is in a critical condition in a Liberal, Kan., hospital.

OPENS SAVINGS DRIVE

Russian Immigrant Buys First Bonds

PHILADELPHIA, May 16. (AP) — A Russian immigrant opened the 1950 U. S. savings bond drive by buying $500 worth of individual and national security. Benjamin Poysoff, 54-year-old custodian at Independence Hall bought the first bond yesterday after Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder kicked off the nationwide "E" bond drive by tapping the historic Liberty Bell. At Chicago, President Truman said purchasers of U. S. savings bonds can "achieve personal financial independence and preserve our national freedom." The chief executive spoke prior to a major political speech at Chicago Stadium. He took part in a radio and television show that brought the opening of the $653,950,000 bond drive into the homes of millions of Americans. Snyder said Poysoff a $500 bond after ringing the bell at Independence Hall where it is enshrined. Poysoff came to this country in 1908. He fought in World War I and his son served five years in the South Pacific in the last war. The secretary said the bond drive was of threefold significance: 1. "Every bond that is purchased will contribute to the economic independence."

Seaboard Runs Electric Log

Seaboard, et al No. 1 C. R. Porter, north and slightly east of the North Vealmoor discovery (Seaboard No. 1 Porter Hanks) was running electric log Tuesday. Bottom of hole was at 5,174. This was approximately the same as the 5,175 (corrected) top of the No. 1 Porter Hanks, which completed from 5,175-5,225 for 215 barrels, but later developed considerable water trouble. Location of No. 1 Porter is 660 from the south and 2,126.4 from the west lines of section 18-32-3n, T&P. Three miles southeast of the Vealmoor pool, Seaboard No. 1 Akin Simpson, section 45-32-3n, T&P, was below 7,952 feet in lime and shale and had not yet spotted the anticipated reef top. In the Good pool of southwestern Borden, Seaboard & Pan-American No. 19 Good, in the northeast quarter of section 37-32-4n, T&P, was digging rat hole. No. 14 Good, progressed to 7,342. No. 17 Good, on the south edge of production and in the northwest quarter of section 48-32-4n, T&P, was below 6,200 feet. No. 15 Good, in the northeast quarter of section 29-32-4n, T&P, was at 4,583 feet. Conductor No. 4-39 Good, in the southeast quarter of section 38 and on the west side, set intermediate string at 5,565.

Progress Takes Toll, Mansion Moved Again

ATLANTA, May 16. (AP) — When John Silver built his big brown granite mansion at the corner of Marietta and Spring Sts., in 1885, he foresaw that one day it would stand in the way of progress. The far-sighted drygoods merchant provided for that eventuality. He purchased a tract of land on Peachtree Road, a wooded rural area at that time, and stipulated in his will that the house be moved there when necessary. In 1908, in the wake of Atlanta's growth, Silver's 20-room house was taken down block by block, and re-assembled at its new site. This week Silver's 85-year-old daughter, Mrs. W. A. Speer, is moving out of the 65-year-old transplanted mansion. Again, progress caused the move. Demolition crews will clear the site to make way for a new express highway.

Sander's Plow Job At An End

CANDIA, N. H., May 16. (AP) — Dr. Hermann N. Sander has completed his task as a plowman. The young country doctor, who was acquitted March 9 of murder in the death of a cancer patient, has been plowing neighbors' fields for the past month at $4 an hour. He supplied his own motorized plow. With the season for plowing ended, the doctor did not say what kind of employment he would turn to now to support his family. He has been stripped of his right to practice medicine in New Hampshire until June 19, when he may apply for reinstatement of his license. Approximately $20,000 raised by friends has been used largely to defray legal expenses of his trial.

A Bible Thought For Today —

Some have profited by a humiliation of the flesh. It should be practiced only under sound advice. "I humbled my soul with fasting."—Ps. 35:13.

Stay On Your Side Of The Road And Perhaps You'll Live Longer

The State Highway Department is spending half a million dollars this year to mark center lines, lane lines and barrier lines for no-passing zones. The fact that rural accidents alone last year cost 1,385 lives, left over 24,000 injured and maimed, and piled up an economic loss of around $43,000,000 was reason enough for the expenditure.

In these rural traffic accidents, 253 persons died because somebody was driving on the wrong side of the road—not trying to pass another car, but department hastens to point out, but just dawdling along on the wrong side of the road. Thirty-six hundred accidents were caused this way. The barrier lines wouldn't figure in this carnage, for they don't appear on straight, level patches of highway where many of the 253 people got killed by wrong-side drivers.

There are all sorts of fools driving motor vehicles, none more foolish than those who ignore the plain message of the barrier lines. These painted broken lines appear on curves and on grades steep enough to prevent a clear vision of what's ahead. If these dashes of paint appear on your side of the center stripe, it means no passing, stay on your side. Simple enough, and elemental. Yet the rule is violated tens of thousands of times every day. That's one reason why rural areas are so deadly.

The department also points out that many fatalities occur when some driver gets the notion to pass another vehicle without taking into account the speed of a vehicle approaching from the opposite direction. If the driver cuts his estimate of speed and distance too fine, head-on collision or side-swiping occurs. If you're driving 60 mph and decide to pass another vehicle doing 50 mph, you need six and a half city blocks or 2,300 feet, to make the passage and get back on the right side of the highway if another car doing 60 mph is coming toward you. That's nearly half a mile. Too many don't know this or don't care.

If everybody observed all the rules all the time the mortality rate would drop by at least 90 percent.

Revival Of Popular Demand May Bring Action On Ordinances

Clean up reports to the directors of the chamber of commerce directors Monday occasioned considerable discussion on matters involving city ordinances.

For instance, chamber committee members are encountering some indifference from businessmen who profess to see fulfillment in trying to maintain clean fronts and backs when their neighbors sweep trash out the back door or onto the front sidewalk.

Then there is the matter of keeping Third street clean—a particularly vexing problem because the thoroughfare is subject to eddy currents and heavy traffic.

And finally, there are many other problems such as cleaning vacant lots, conformity to standard garbage can rules, etc.

How can these problems be solved? The civic and beautification committee intends to talk it over with the city commission.

In practically every case, there are statutes which cover the difficulties. It is a question of bringing them to bear. Like any regulation short of those governing offenses of violence, there needs to be an occasional revival of popular demand. Individuals, feeling they have been wronged by negligent neighbors, can resort to complaints to authorities. Because many are prone to suffer and smoulder in silence, perhaps a conference between city authorities and the chamber committee can accomplish something.

It's Getting Harder For Bug To Be Snug In Rug Nowadays

BY FRANK CHREY (For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, (AP) — IT'S GETTING harder for a bug to be snug in a rug wherever else bugs hang out.

Scientists employing atomic energy are invading the privacy of cockroaches, mosquitoes, houseflies, beetles, and other pests in new attempts to achieve better control.

The scientists are putting ray-emitting atomic energy materials into the bugs so they can trace their meanderings or flight ranges.

They may sneak some radioactive stuff into the food of mosquitoes or inject a ray-emitting substance into the belly of a knocked-out cockroach and then free him to go about his business.

THESE RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS can be detected for a long time in the insect's body by means of an instrument.

The scientists are also studying the habits of insects which often are pals to man in that they prey upon insect pests. Also under consideration is radioactive study of insects which pollinate various crops, so that these beneficial creatures can be better protected from insecticides designed to kill bad bugs.

Doctors Dale W. Jenkins and Charles C. Hensert of the Army Medical Center in Maryland, tell about the Research in Nuclear Sciences Journal. They say scientists are making a large variety of insects radioactive with these ideas in mind:

- To study the migratory habits of various kinds of mosquitoes as a possible means of making better use of the weapons we now possess against such pests.
- To study the speed and distances travelled by such pests as the Japanese beetle, gypsy moth, and European corn borer—the better to establish effective quarantine zones.
- TO ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF the way certain insects transmit diseases to plants. The scientists even see the possibility of studying how the parasite of malaria develops in an animal after it has been bitten by a malarious mosquito.
- To detect natural enemies of bugs. In one study it was found that yellow fever mosquitoes are tasty morsels for the praying mantis.
- To determine sources of insect food supply which might have been overlooked. For example, it has long been suspected that mosquitoes can take nourishment from flowers—but it wasn't proved until scientists made certain flowers radioactive and the detected radioactivity in mosquitoes buzzing around them.
- To get new tips on earth-inhabiting bugs which prey on agriculture. Scientists are tracing the depth, location and side-to-side movements of such creatures in the earth.

Mankind Is Now Old Enough To Prefer Life Over Death

NEW YORK, (AP) — FIVE YEARS AFTER the most devastating war in history, talk of still another war is loud.

Flatly, I think it is guff, stuff, and nonsense.

The world isn't ready yet for another international war. It hasn't finished picking itself up from the last one. Of course we have to keep ready, but—

If I were a boy 18 years old, I certainly would go ahead with my college education and not worry about whether a draft call would interrupt my scholastic career.

The reason I mention this is that I have met several youngsters of that age recently who take it as a foregone conclusion that they will be muscling guns overseas in 18 months or less. Therefore: Why start college?

BUT THEY ARE ONLY HURTING their own future. They should pursue their careers on the assumption there never will be another war.

And you know—they might even be right. I feel they could be.

Some people say we don't really have a peace right now, and I'll admit it's hard to get the dove of amity to hold still long enough to count its feathers.

That's why some people subscribe to the theory we are hotly entangled in a cold war that is bound to erupt soon in flaming battle.

My idea is that this theory is all wrong.

My feeling is that we aren't likely to have another international war in our time. It just doesn't make common sense. By that I mean within 10 or 15 years. And I am stubborn enough of an optimist to hope that if war is staved off for that long it will possibly be found to be permanently unnecessary.

Of course, that will demand some adulthood.

The main problem is still, as it has ever been, to develop the untapped resources of a fruitful earth so that all men can live better—and hand down hope, like a racing baton, to their children.

A WAY HAS BEEN SHOWN FOR ALL people to live better.

That is the avenue of atomic power. But it is a power that can destroy men as well as cure their time-worn ills.

Fear... fear at the top... is the danger.

Russia controls one heartland of the world... the largest but the less developed, America bosses the smaller heartland, but one whose resources are more compact and more exploited.

To erase the mutual fears, to make each side realize its welfare is dependent upon the other, to build a bridge of mutual respect between one great heartland and the other—that is the duty and the challenge of diplomacy.

You have to believe that mankind has grown up enough to prefer life over death.

GOPs Now Have So Many Publicists, They Need A Boss To Control Them

WASHINGTON — Genial GOP Chairman Guy Gabrielson now has so many statement-makers that he's had to hire a boss to control them. In fact, there are almost more ghost-writers and publicity men in and around Republican headquarters than there are potential candidates for the White House, and each ghost-writer seems to be working for his own particular dark horse.

But now there are so many high-priced GOP publicity men that Chairman Gabrielson finds himself a quarterback on a team where everyone else is calling the signals. Here is the roll call of the GOP ghost-writers and the party fixtures they represent:

Bob Humphreys—Ex-I.M.S. correspondent, paid $20,000 a year by the national committee, but actually works for ex-speaker Joe Martin. With a staff of 15 at the George Washington Inn on Capitol Hill, Humphreys grinds out speeches, statements and strategy for Martin and his small crew of kingmakers in Congress.

Vic Johnston—Former Harold Stassen lieutenant, paid $15,000 by the national committee to find words for senators. He has a staff of five. The white-haired, easy-going Johnston represents the mildly progressive GOP wing and is popular with newsmen.

Arthur Hachten—An ex-I.N.S. reporter, is Sen. Ken Wherry's "brain." He is paid $10,000 annually by Congress and is the man who enables Wherry to make those quick comebacks at Truman. Hachten writes 'em and Dickie speaks 'em.

Dickie Guylay—Onewtime New York Herald Tribune newsmen, now a public relations and advertising expert specializing in Republican campaigns. He is paid by Sen. Robert Taft out of his own pocket.

Bill Mylander—Former correspondent for the Cowles papers, he has the unhappy task of trying to co-ordinate all the GOP press agents. Bill gets $25,000 a year as the new GOP publicity director.

NOTE—What got Gabrielson really sore was a rumor apparently circulated by GOP ghost-writers that Gabrielson was on his way out as national chairman.

One of the chief proofs offered by Sen. McCarthy and Louis Budenz that Owen Lattimore is a Communist is that he called the Chinese Communist "agrarian reformers" and got other writers to do the same. Thus they deceived the American public and the State Department.

However, careful research into the writings of American experts on China now reveal that it was not Lattimore who called the Communists "agrarian reformers," but a high-ranking Republican—none other than Patrick J. Hurley.

Hurley, who was secretary of war in Hoover's cabinet, GOP candidate for senator from New Mexico, and U. S. ambassador to China, has been held up by the McCarthy group as the man who was dead right about the Chinese Communists, and whose work Lattimore was trying to undermine.

Yet on returning from his ambassadorial post in China, Hurley, speaking before the National Press Club Nov. 29, 1945, was quoted in the Washington Post as follows:

In discussing the Chinese Communists, Hurley said there might be some among them who took to Moscow for guidance, but he thought most of them were just reformers—outs who wanted to be ins.

"The only difference between Chinese Communists and Oklahoma Republicans," he said, "primarily, is that the Oklahoma Republicans are not armed."

NOTE 1—In the same speech, Hurley blasted the State Department. And having already resigned, he could hardly have been reflecting its or Lattimore's views.

NOTE 2—Lattimore says he knew that the Chinese Communists were not simple peasant reformers, therefore never wrote anything to that effect.

Two of the most powerful men in the Senate are old-timers Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, appropriations boss, and Tom Connally of Texas, foreign relations chief. Both are granddads in experience and have snapping-turtle dispositions. However, they turned their sharp tongues on each other last week during the debate over "point four" aid to backward nations.

"Where are we going to get the money?" demanded McKellar in the middle of Connally's plea for the point four program.

"We are going to get the money out of the appropriations committee, that is where we are going to get it," snapped Connally.

"I am opposed to the amendment, and I shall oppose it in the appropriations committee," announced the senator from Tennessee, who is chairman of the appropriations committee.

"The senator will probably kill it if he opposes it in the appropriations committee," bristled Connally.

"I shall do my best. I assure the senator, I think we are going wild, we are going mad, and I do not intend to go along," blurted McKellar angrily.

"We shall certainly miss the senator," sneered Connally.

"The senator may miss me, but I am going to keep my record straight," McKellar cracked.

"The senator has a very fine and splendid record, and I hope he will keep it unblemished, socially and otherwise," flung back the gruff Texan.

Grandpa McKellar sputtered with rage, but Grandpa Connally outbouted him and refused to yield for a reply.

Finally the presiding officer interrupted with the announcement: "The time of the senator has expired."

NOTE — Despite his temper, Connally has done a remarkably good job in pushing foreign affairs measures through the Senate. Though he gets little notice in the headlines, his legislative record is one of the best in Washington.

Fredric March Finds Oscar Little Help

HOLLYWOOD—Does winning an oscar help a star?

"Not much," answers two-time winner Fredric March, back in Hollywood after a two-year absence. He is here to act in a six-day role that another actor turned down.

March recently closed on Broadway in "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," which suffered a grave deficit. But his biggest laugh—he's in the happy position of being able to view such things humorously—was turning down "Death of a Salesman."

After leaving here, Mr. and Mrs. March devoted 19 strenuous weeks to making "Christopher Columbus" for the British. He agreed with the press and public who discovered that "pictures unsuccessful."

March recently closed on Broadway in "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," which suffered a grave deficit. But his biggest laugh—he's in the happy position of being able to view such things humorously—was turning down "Death of a Salesman."

Answering the question about the advantages of winning an Academy Award, March said: "The first one I got ('Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' in 1932) didn't have much effect. That was when Oscar was young and the awards didn't get much publicity."

The latest one (for "Best Years of Our Lives" in 1946) didn't make much difference, either. It might help someone who is new to pictures, but it would not bring any change to someone who has been in the business as long as I have."

The actor said Oscar didn't increase his salary. In fact, his returns since "Best Years" have been unfortunate. He followed the award winner with two films for which he deferred part of his salary in lieu of a percentage of the profits.

The first was "Another Part of the Forest," which produced no profits. The second was "Act of Murder," just now crawling out of the red ink.

"Fortunately I took more salary on that one," he said.

Students Should Be Judged On Every Day Work, Not Exams

Now that we're far enough from campuses that we don't fear the consequences of such a statement, we'll offer our opinion on final examinations.

When we were in school, such examinations seemed a little unfair and they still do. We've just never understood why teachers, who had students in their classes all year, couldn't honestly know by the end of the year without the help of an examination, whether a student was in the A, B, C, D or F class.

We're sure that there are a lot of students who just like us, always came to the close of a semester with some unfinished class projects. In addition to this unfinished business, most students find the teachers giving some last minute assignments. This situation leaves very little time for study. Why not give the student an opportunity to catch up on whatever back work may be pending?

But even if all the students should be up on their work at the end of every semester, there's still some argument against final exams. In the first place, the students have 18 weeks of study to review and if one took an entire evening for review, it's possible that one would not touch one question listed on the exam. Why ask a student to study for an exam when it's impossible to know what it is?

And again, if you have someone working for you, you usually have a pretty good idea whether or not their work is satisfactory. You judge the quality of their work every day. You don't give an examination at the end of every 18 weeks.

In our opinion, students should be judged by what they are accomplishing every day, not by how lucky or unlucky they may happen to be in studying for an examination.—MILDRED YOUNG.

President Holding To Simple Talks To West Tour Listeners

ABOARD PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPECIAL TRAIN.—President Truman's approach to the people is simple and unobscured.

He is only their hired man, he tells them over and over again in colloquial Missourian. He says he makes a report to Congress every year and he's got a right to come back and report to the people, too. He always gets a laugh by adding that he wants them to see for themselves whether he is wearing a bigger hat than in 1948.

He intimates that the only way they can get the real McCoy about him is when he tells them personally. This glancing blow at the press is standard operating procedure among Presidents.

The President explains that all in the world he is trying to do is keep peace in the world and go forward with his programs to make people happier and more prosperous. He exudes confidence that his listeners believe him and the fact is, they seem to.

There are only two colors on the Truman word palette. His own intentions are pure white and those who oppose him are very black indeed—reactionaries, greedy and privileged, robber barons and self-interest, prophets of gloom.

When something goes wrong, as he was compelled in Idaho to admit something had with the potato program, it's because of interference by such characters. Luckily there is always the 80th Congress to fall back on—they passed a potato-support bill without provisions for proper marketing quotas.

Such people are still abroad in the land, the President warns, including the isolationists who brought on the last war. Well, this time, he says, "They aren't gonna get away with it."

The President always concludes that he's having a fine time, he's never had such a warm welcome, he is happy he came to Nampa, Broken Bow, Shoshone or whatever, and he hopes to come back. This is either reasonably true or he can show a Barrymore how to act Hamlet. He has good crowds, they are uniformly responsive, sometimes ardently so.

Mrs. Truman and Margaret take the curtain calls, smiling but mute. Occasionally a venturesome listener suggests that Margaret sing for them which she turns aside with a quip that it's too early, too late or too near lunchtime.

No union man would keep the President's hours, even at times and a half for overtime. He kept saying Monday that he was 66 but he sure didn't feel it. He doesn't act it, either. Wednesday he was joking with a Pocatello audience at 6 a. m. After 11 stops, at all of which he talked and shook hands, he got into a car at 9 p. m. at Walluga, Ore., drove 18 miles to Pasco, Wash., spoke from a platform erected in front of the Elks building, and returned to his train at 10:30 p. m. This was his preparation for Thursday's arduous jaunt to the Grand Coulee Dam.

Mr. Truman adds nothing to and subtracts nothing from the New Deal. The details vary but centrally it's the more abundant life. He'll get us there yet, he insists.

One press-car cynic stared wearily at his typewriter and said: "remember that lawyer who told his client, 'don't worry, I'll get you out of this jail if it takes all your life!'"

The folksy Truman performance is a far cry from the Great White Father act with which the handsome and magnetic Franklin Roosevelt spread the New Deal gospel. With Roosevelt there was always the impression of a white horse and brilliant banners lurking in the wings. With Truman, there seems to be exactly what meets the eye.

But no one can complain about his fidelity to the text of the role.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Conservatives' Local Success Shows Swing Back To 'Right'

THE CONSERVATIVE SUCCESS IN Britain's town and city council elections, at the expense of the Socialists, represents a continuation of the country's political swing back towards the "right."

Now that doesn't mean the country is discarding socialism in toto and is returning to the extreme Toryism of old. Rather it represents a readjustment in the social and economic leveling-off process which is remaking England both politically and socially.

A British friend of mine aptly described the position in the remark that "the pendulum continues to swing."

THAT'S A GOOD METAPHOR. THE political pendulum took a violent swing to the "left" in 1945 when the Socialists ousted the Conservatives, headed by Prime Minister Winston Churchill. It wasn't that the country had "gone Socialist," but that it was weary from the austere life of war and felt the urge for a change.

Then in the general election of last February the pendulum took such a violent swing back to the "right" that the Socialist government was all but thrown out of power. In the current town and city council elections the pendulum has continued its rightward course a bit further.

THEREFORE THE SOCIALISTS HAVE to decide whether they are going to pursue the old policy of tradition and be opportunists, or whether they shall pursue the dyed-in-the-wool Socialist objective.

The left wing Socialists of course aim at total state ownership and control. The right wingers think in terms of a mixed economy, in which private enterprise would play its part as at present. Somewhere between these two ideas the pendulum will come to rest.

The next big political test of course will be another general election and the political prophets feel that this cannot long be delayed—perhaps not longer than autumn, at best.

WORD-A-DAY

A Quarter Lunch

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP)—Martha Gumpert, 8, had a quarter for lunch—literally. Given a 25-cent piece to buy her noon meal at school, she amused herself by tossing it in the air and catching it in her mouth. It was fun until the time the quarter kept right on going, down her throat.

A physician said there was no cause for alarm.

Russian Boy Prisoners

STRASBOURG (AP)—Several hundred Alsace-born youths, who were pressed into service with the German army after Hitler annexed Alsace-Lorraine in 1940, are still being held as prisoners "somewhere in Russia," local witnesses say.

Most of them were still at school when the Nazi powers swept into their rustic villages along the Rhine and in the foothills of the Vosges. Today the conscripts from Alsace and Lorraine find themselves pawns in the cold war between the western powers and Russia.

MAYBE NO MORE FLU?

Possible Lead For Destroying Human Influenza Discovered

BALTIMORE, May 16.—A possible lead towards a drug treatment for the most prevalent type of human influenza and a costly disease of chickens has been described to the society of American bacteriologists.

A California scientist reported that a substance derived from a microbe found in hay proved capable—in laboratory experiments—of destroying viruses of human influenza "A" and of Newcastle disease, a serious malady of chickens.

Influenza "A" is the commonest of all known "flu" types. At present, there is no specific drug treatment for it or for any other type of "flu." Neither is there a drug weapon against Newcastle disease once it develops.

Dr. A. J. Salle of the University of California at Los Angeles emphasized that his experiments have been limited to trials on viruses of both diseases purposely made to grow in hatching hen's eggs.

But Dr. Salle said the work constituted a forward step in that it marked the first time that any substance had been able to destroy viruses of these types in a developing chick embryo without killing the embryo itself.

Other scientists at the golden jubilee meeting of the bacteriologists said the work had this further significance:

Up to now, germs of the "virus" class have proved virtually invulnerable to all drugs—even the wonder drugs like penicillin.

Now, for the first time, Dr. Salle has apparently found a dent in the armor of two medium-sized viruses.

If his experiments with chick embryos can be repeated in experimental animals, there might then be hope of practical application.

Also, hope would be advanced of attacking other stubborn viruses.

The substance used in the tests is called "subtilin." It is an extract of a particular strain of "bacillus subtilis"—a microbe that is found in hay.

Subtilin is classed medically as an "antibiotic"—that is, a substance produced by a living organism and then used to combat other living organisms.

DEMO POLICY STATEMENT

Democrats Condemn "Smear" Attacks

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, May 16.—The Democratic Party said today it is against government employment of Communists but it is also against "smears."

A policy statement adopted by the party's national committee declared:

"We condemn efforts to gain partisan advantage of smears and innuendoes which hamper our government and blacken the characters of innocent citizens."

No specific mention was made of charges by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) of Communist infiltration in the State Department.

However, the statement, voted at a midnight session of the committee following President Truman's Chicago Stadium speech, said:

"It is the duty of every citizen who has evidence of disloyalty to furnish any such evidence to the government."

"We reaffirm our belief in fair play and honest factual investigation."

"We believe that development of facts better serves the interest of our people than development of headlines based on rumor and distortion."

"The Democratic Party will never advocate fighting Communism with the police state terrorism which Communism imposes upon its own victims."

Generally, the policy statement was a renewal of pledges made in the Democrat's 1948 platform and a pledge of support for Mr. Truman's fair deal program. It said:

"We are proud of an administration under which the national income has more than tripled in 17 years and we offer it as proof that wise, liberal government contributes greatly to the growth and prosperity of our free enterprise economy."

Ballinger And Big Spring Wind Up Series Tonight

Tabbies Lead Set, 3 To 1

Rain washed out the Ballinger-Big Spring baseball game her Monday night but, barring another downpour or a light failure, the two aggregations will have at it tonight, beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

Ballinger leads the Cayuses, 3-1. In the current set and will be seeking to clinch the series.

After tonight's engagement, the Cayuses hit the road for two games, moving to Midland for an important series with Harold Webb's Indians.

Manager Pat Stasey will send either Emelio Cano or Bert Garcia to the pitching rubber tonight. Dutch Funderburk, the Ballinger skipper, is due to lead with Bobby Rodriguez, who always gives the locals a lot of trouble.

The local fans will get their first look at Oskie Santa Cruz, rookie infielder who played second base for the locals' on their last road trip. If Santa Cruz gets into action tonight, Jorge Lopez may move to first.

Big Spring fell further off the pace last night when both Odessa and Roswell, who lead the Broncos, won their respective contests. Odessa trimmed Vernon while Roswell was measuring Sweetwater.

Shorty Hamby Wins 2 Races

Shorty Hamby paced "hot rod" drivers in the Big Spring Hot Rod races Sunday winning two events and placing second in another.

Hamby won the Australian Pursuit, a six-lap race, and the fast car race, an eight-lap sprint around the track on the Snyder highway northeast of Big Spring.

He came in second in the 25-lap feature event which was won by J. D. Reed of Odessa.

Reed also won the Helmet dash, another six-lap race. D. H. Sales, Colorado City, was first in the slow car division's eight-lap competition. Cotton Mize of Big Spring finished third in the feature.

Consolation honors went to J. B. McCullough, Big Spring driver. Raymond Hamby of Big Spring turned in the fastest time, negotiating the slightly less than a half mile distance in 33 seconds.

Largest crowd of the season witnessed the six-race card Sunday. Two minor mishaps occurred during the races.

Jim Doe turned over during a time trial, but was uninjured. Jack Belcar sustained a cut in the left arm when his machine overturned on the west curve.

Races will be held on the Big Spring track again next Sunday.

Valley Brigades In Zany Shows

By The Associated Press

The Rio Grande Valley League celebrated its return to a six-team league last night by treating the fans to some of the whackiest ball of the season.

The Corpus Christi Aces took the opener of a twin-bill from Del Rio, 12-5, but booted the ball 15 times in the nightcap as they lost 11-16.

Harlingen and McAllen put on a three-hour exhibition that had nine hurriers take the mound. First Baseman "Stretch" Jackson of Harlingen had two tries at it, alternating between first base and the hill. McAllen won 16-4.

Daniel Farris pitched and batted the Laredo Apaches to a 6-4 win over the Brownsville Charros. Farris allowed only five hits, but had to leave the game in the eighth due to illness. He tied up the game three-all with a homer in the third.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Two of Texas' all-time golfing greats, Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan, have acquired oil interests in north Howard county.

A Fort Worth man, Willard M. White, gave Lord Byron and Bantam Ben royalty deeds to some property in that sector last week.

FANS CAN'T GET USED TO BRONCS' SLUMP

Current slump of the Big Spring baseball professionals is worrying the co-owners of the club, Pat Stasey and Al Aton, but apparently not nearly as much as it is most of the fans here.

The supporters can't get used to the fact that the Steeds should be anywhere but first place in the league standings. That recent losing streak—which extended through five games—was the longest in the history of the club.

Stasey doesn't mind if the Odessa club occupies first place for a while, since the locals have had the pressure on them for three seasons running now. He just doesn't want his charges to fall too far off the pace.

It's a long time between now and September and anything can happen.

HAROLD WEBB SIGNS UP THREE NEW HANDS

Three new players have arrived in the Midland Indians camp. They are Jack Mattias, rookie outfielder; Glen Edward Austin, infielder and a brother to Fort Worth's Bob Austin; and Ken Carley, left-handed pitcher, a limited service operative.

Skipper Harold Webb can be expected to be tough to beat, as always, when the campaign becomes torrid a little later on.

The Texas league is now given scant chance to play to better than 2,000,000 paid admissions again, due to the bad weather the circuit experienced the early part of the season.

Most other circuits are having poorer business, including the Longhorn league. The recession out this way can be blamed on the elements, too.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS MAY JOIN T. I. L.

There's an outside possibility parochial schools will gain admission into the Texas Interscholastic league.

Pleas for admission into the TIL have been made by leading educators within the Catholic church. The league's constitution would have to be rewritten, if such came to pass.

Hal Rhyne, who used to be quite an infielder in the major leagues, is now a prison guard at Folsom prison, near Sacramento, Calif.

The University of Houston, which has great plans in an athletic way, will play the first of a five-game football series with Tulsa university next fall.

BUDDY TRAVIS MAY ATTEND LONG ISLAND

Followers of the HCJC basketball team will be interested to know that Buddy Travis, Amarillo JC's best cager, may attend Long Island university next fall.

Travis may accompany the Black Birds as a guest on a South American tour before the regular season gets underway.

Coach Clair Bee is making the overtures to Travis. Buddy would have three more years of athletic eligibility at LIU.

Douglass Will Welcome Scribes In Arkansas Dressing Rooms

By HAROLD V. ATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS, May 16. (AP)—Otis Douglas, the new coach of Arkansas, was rather amazed when other Southwest Conference coaches told the press they didn't want visits to the dressing room after football games for the purpose of doing "color" stories until the players and coaches had had a chance to "cool off," compose themselves and be certain to make only statements that would contribute to the glory of football.

The coaches, Jess Neely of Rice in particular, said they felt there should be a waiting period and Neely declared he would enforce such a rule.

In other words, football fans in the Southwest Conference in the future probably will read only the sweetness and light of football. The players will have that "av stunks he was better'n me," attitude and the coaches will say, "we had very worthy opponents out there today and the officiating was really wonderful," meanwhile checking the hospitals to see how those boys with broken jaws are doing and silently resolving "at that blank-et-blank referee will call no more games for me."

There'll be little of the drama of the immediate after-game, of the color and human interest of the football team that won when the chips were down and the dope against it, of the readable, informative and pungent comments, of the facts of what happened down there in the line where the fans couldn't see it.

Douglas is a newcomer to the Southwest Conference. He arrived via pro football where coaches will exert severe lunch and refreshments, in order to get the sports writers to visit their dressing rooms and write about it.

"Sports writers will be welcome anywhere at Arkansas," Douglas

Stasey Pacing Bronc Hitters

Manager-Player Pat Stasey is leading the Big Spring Broncos in individual batting, too.

In games through Sunday, the Bronc pilot had been to the plate 75 times with 20 runs and 31 hits to his credit. Percentage-wise, that's a lousy .413.

Percentages of other Big Spring players have slided in the last few games with Potato Pascual, second high Bronc, dropping from .594 to .378. Abel Fletes with a .378 average to his credit, is in third position among Bronc batters.

Bert Beer, pitcher-infielder-outfielder, has seen his batting percentage slide from a high of .417 to .374 in the last five games.

Preakness Lineup Taking Shape

BALTIMORE, May 16. (AP)—The lineup for Saturday's Preakness took on some shape today with no change in the first three of the Kentucky Derby betting order.

The cleanup starter, from all past performances, should come from among King Ranch's Middleground, C. T. Cheney's Hill Prince and C. V. Whitney's Mr. Trouble.

That's the way they hit the derby wire. There are plenty of backers for Hill Prince and Mr. Trouble who think they will have the lead position come the end of the mile and three-sixteenths Preakness.

Hill Prince did it last Saturday, beating Middleground in the Withers Mile. It was the third time the two contenders for three-year-old honors of 1950 finished one-two.

Prior to the derby they had run that way in the Wood Memorial.

After Middleground, Hill Prince and Mr. Trouble there are only outsiders to consider, and the best guess is there won't be more than two of them.

Trainer Ed Kelly insists Kinman will start after finishing second in yesterday's Preakness prep. The prep proved little except that Kinman and Dooley, another Whitney colt, don't mind the mud.

S. W. Labret, Jr.'s Arcave was the only other starter.

Dooley beat out Kinman by a nose in the mile and one during prep.

Odessa, Roswell Both Triumph

By The Associated Press

Rain took a hand in the Longhorn League last night, and only two games were played.

Odessa and Roswell one and two in the standings, took advantage of the moisture to increase their leads over the rest of the field.

Odessa, paced by Bill Cozley's three-run homer, scored eight runs in the eighth inning to down Vernon 11-3. Ray Knoblauch limited the Chusters to four hits.

Roswell jumped to a nine-run lead in the second inning, and coasted to a 13-3 win over Sweetwater. The nine runs came on eight hits, two errors, a walk and a wild pitch.

Major Outfits Strive To Get Within Limit

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Most of the major league clubs were busily engaged today clearing the decks in order to come within the 25-player limit.

The deadline goes into effect tomorrow at midnight, exactly a month after the start of the season.

A feverish two days of buying and selling resulted in the release of 13 players and the sale of two others to rival clubs in the majors. More are sure to feel the axe. With some 30 hours to go, there are 19 surplus athletes.

Brooklyn's Dodgers, with 30 on their roster, must dispose of five. Detroit is next with three over the limit. Cleveland, Pittsburgh and the Philadelphia Phillies were faced with two amputations while Washington, the two St. Louis clubs, Cincinnati, and the Chicago Cubs were one over.

Clubs already within the limit include the two Boston and New York clubs, the Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia Athletics. The Yankees have 25, exclusive of Dick Wakefield. They were given special permission to carry the extra man indefinitely. The Giants were expected to bring up outfielder Monte Irvin from their Jersey City farm club and release veteran fly-chaser Mike McCormick.

The Yankees lopped off five players yesterday. They sold outfielder Johnny Lindell to the Cardinals, pitcher Clarence Marshall to the Browns and optioned veteran first baseman Johnny Mize, rookie infielder Al (Billy) Martin and pitcher Duane Pillette to their Kansas City farm club of the American Association.

The Giants optioned Pitcher Frank Fanovich to Minneapolis and outfielder Pete Milne to Jersey City. Fanovich, a bonus player, was obtained via waivers from the Reds.

The White Sox assigned Shortstop Jim Baumer to Colorado Springs of the Western Association and released pitcher Bill Connolly to Toledo. Baumer is a bonus player signed by the Sox last year.

The Cubs placed Hal Jeffcoat on the voluntary retired list and recalled Bob Borkowski from Springfield of the International League to take his place in the outfield. Jeffcoat broke his collar bone in a game Sunday.

The Red Sox, after sending pitchers Bob Gillette to Sacramento and Gordon Mueller to Louisville, recalled Jim Suhecki, another pitcher. Suhecki had a 2-3 record with Louisville. The Braves optioned Walter Linden to Milwaukee to get down to the prescribed player limit. The Cards released first baseman Glen Nelson and pitchers Cot Deal and Tom Poholaky over the weekend.

Only one regular game was scheduled. That between the Dodgers and Braves in Brooklyn. Rain, however, washed it off the boards just as the teams were getting ready to start. Cleveland defeated Pittsburgh, 6-5, in an exhibition at Cleveland.

Winning, Losing Skeins Snapped In Texas Loop

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

All things must end somewhere and five streaks of varying sorts were snapped last night in the Texas League.

For instance San Antonio halted a Fort Worth winning surge that had gone to seven games as the Missions licked the league leaders 5-2. It stopped a San Antonio losing streak at two.

Shreveport led all the way to down Oklahoma City but there were numerous Indian uprisings. The Sports got five runs in the first inning and Oklahoma City lagged badly until the fifth. Jim Halkard and Bill White socked homers for Shreveport with Bob Lemong putting one over the fence for Oklahoma City.

Beaumont spiked the plate for five runs in the sixth to lick Tulsa. Gil McDougald's homer with two on sparked the surge. Ernie Nevel gave up eight scattered hits, holding the Oilers scoreless until the eighth.

Dallas edged Houston 7-6 with Bill Klaus being the hero. He hit a triple in the eighth to drive in two runs and walked in the ninth with the bases full to force in the winning run. Houston plumped into the cellar.

Houston moves to Fort Worth, San Antonio to Dallas. Beaumont to Oklahoma City and Shreveport to Tulsa tonight.

Hogan To Play In Nat'l Open

NEW YORK, May 16. (AP)—Ben Hogan will make his first "comeback" bid for a national championship in the U. S. Open at Merion (Pa.) Golf Club next month.

The little Texas precisionist was one of 12 champions, past and present, who filed entry before yesterday's deadline for golden anniversary tournament June 8-10.

Hogan, in a near-fatal automobile accident more than a year ago, is one of a near-record 1,395 players who tossed their names into the open pot. He won the open in 1948.

INVITATION TO COLONIAL—First of the 36 golf champions to be invited to the $15,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf tournament in Fort Worth, May 25-28, was the current U. S. Open champion, Cary Middlecoff, right. Colonial Chairman F. M. (Max) Highfill is shown delivering the engraved invitation to Middlecoff in Houston, where Middlecoff recently added the Houston Open title to his laurels. Thirty-five other champions—all the biggest names in golf—will play for the coveted Colonial title and $3,000 winner's purse. Tickets for the event, which presents more of the top talent in its field than any other sports activity in the Southwest, are now on sale, and mail orders will be filled at Colonial Country Club, Fort Worth.

LSU Girls Win Backing In Fight On School Meals

BATON ROUGE, La., May 18. (AP)—Cheering student demonstrators won legislative backing last night in their protest against an order requiring co-eds to eat all their meals on the campus.

About 400 marching co-eds and rebel-minded boys friends clustered into the state capitol and jammed the house gallery.

Gov. Earl K. Long complimented the students on their industry in familiarizing themselves with legislative procedure.

A teen-age voice piped up, "that ain't what we're here for!"

The students carried signs against "socialized eating." One placard stated "we won't lockstep to lunch." Another asked: "Who wants to die three times a day?"

The legislators, in joint session, quickly approved a resolution introduced by Sen. C. H. Downs of Alexandria that LSU officials reconsider and recall the order, effective next fall.

Flag Raising Fete Slated For Friday

The Big Spring Broncos will raise their 1949 Longhorn baseball league pennant on the newly erected flag pole in Steer park in a special pre-game ceremony here Friday night.

On that occasion, the Midland Indians, 1948 champions of the circuit will be the guests.

The ceremony will get underway about 7:45 o'clock. League President Hal Scales, who presented the flag to the locals, will be invited to be in attendance and local dignitaries will speak.

The 1949 Broncos enjoyed the greatest record ever compiled by a local baseball team, winning the playoffs in eight straight games after sweeping to the regular season flag by 20 1/2 contests.

Flag pole was donated by a local man who made good on such a promise if the Steeds won the playoffs without a slipup. He prefers to remain anonymous.

Drainage Problem Up For Discussion Members of the county commissioners court were due to meet with city commissioners this afternoon to discuss a drainage problem along the T&P right-of-way in the east part of the city.

The county commissioners discussed the problem at length yesterday and expressed a desire to confer further with city officials. City commissioners, who had scheduled a special session this afternoon on another matter invited the county group to sit in on today's meeting.

The drainage problem has been a subject for discussion among both city and county commissioners for several months.

the south of Ackerly and in northwest Howard, had around three-quarters of an inch rain with very little hail.

Forsan reported only .20 of an inch, but five miles east of that point the rain increased sharply and the hail grew intense hail striking some trees and tender plants.

No reports were available from the city lakes. A heavy shower fell at Moss Creek late but it was already sloughing over the service spillway. Whether the remaining six inches of Powell creek to the southeast filled, was not known.

Violent hail, accompanied by gusty winds, lashed crops, range and rural homes along the edge of Comcho and Tom Green Counties early Monday night.

The same tricky clouds which first swept across San Angelo from the east turned around and roiled across the section east of here during the evening.

The altering clouds fell behind, in the Eola, Mereta, Veribest communities, unroofed barns, shattered house windows and walls, and heavy agricultural crop damage.

A specific example of the wind and hail-wrought havoc was at the Frank Peizer farm seven miles east of San Angelo on the Mereta road. There a barn was unroofed, two rooms in the house were blown in, a four-by-10 timber from the barn was sent sailing through the residence, and a sheet of metal roofing was left in the bathroom of the house.

The family escaped injury simply because "we ran to the storm cellar." Hail stood eight inches deep. The Peizers spent the night in San Angelo after the storm.

Concho County was the hardest hit by the hail battering. G. H. Spier, volunteer U. S. Weather Bureau observer at Eden, said hail stones from bird-egg to hen-egg size pelted that town, damaging roofs and popping out windshields. He estimated damage to small grain crops to be $100,000 over the county.

The storm, which struck swiftly and then died, moved in a narrow strip from Sterling County eastward into San Angelo and then into Concho County. Gusts of wind up to 60 miles per hour were reported.

Local Ice Company Set To Observe National 'Ice Day' Employees of Southern Ice company and their families were due to have a get-together this evening in observance of the centennial of mechanical ice production.

Wednesday is being observed over the nation as "Ice Day," marking the 100th anniversary of the production of ice by artificial means. Neither banner nor special activities here during the day.

Until 100 years ago, all ice was the natural variety. In the winter it was harvested from rivers and fresh water lakes and ponds. Cut in blocks, it was packed in sawdust in washhouses and dug out as it was needed.

When an epidemic of typhoid appeared, according to one story, some pointed the finger at natural ice. The answer to that was mechanically produced ice, something that has gained rapidly in the intervening century.

Veteran Student Training Advice Offered By VA

Veteran students who plan to change either their place of training or training objective must secure a supplemental certificate of eligibility from the Veterans Administration before enrollment, Ray Boren, VA contact representative here, has reminded. Four or more weeks usually elapse between the time of application for the supplemental certificate and the date it is received, Boren pointed out, urging all veterans who plan to make changes in their training program to make application promptly.

Another VA ruling that will affect ex-GIs who have completed or discontinued courses and who want additional training in a different field was pointed out by the local contact representative. Such students have to take VA advice and guidance, Boren said. Vet-students who wish to enter Howard County Junior college or any other school for the first time are requested to get their papers in order prior to registration time. Veterans who have never before applied for education under provisions of the GI bill and who plan to start training soon should apply for certificates of eligibility several weeks before they expect to start training, Boren advised. Name of both the course to be followed and the institution where training will be taken must be shown on application for certificates. Boren said his office would assist all veterans in the completion of applications. Local VA headquarters are located in the Petroleum building.

Jewish Loan Sought For New Development
TEL AVIV, Israel, (AP)—The newspaper "Hatzofeh" said Barclays Bank of London has refused to loan $1,400,000 to the City of Jerusalem "owing to the uncertain political situation in the city." COSTA RICA IN STATE OF SIEGE AS THIEVES ROB STATUE OF PATRON

PANAMA, Panama, May 16 (AP)—The daring theft of the million-dollar statue of Costa Rica's patron virgin has brought the little central American country to a virtual state of siege, travellers arriving here from San Jose reported. They said the jewel-encrusted gold image of Our Lady of Los Angeles was stolen Friday night from the Basilica at Cartago, 20 miles southeast of San Jose. The thieves murdered the church watchman and escaped with the two-foot tall statue, as well as with money and jewels from the church alms box. Amid a country-wide wave of indignation, rewards totalling 4 million colones (more than $600,000) have been offered by individuals and business houses for information leading to the recovery of the statue. It is valued at 6 million colones (nearly $1 million). Costa Rica's frontiers have been closed and travel out of San Jose has been forbidden, except with a special pass. Police were reported making continuous raids on hotel rooms and private homes. Persons were stopped in the streets and searched on the spot frequently. The government decreed three days of national mourning for the statue. Because it is believed no Costa Rican would dare steal the nationally-venerated image, foreigners were objects of particular suspicion and were carefully searched when leaving the country. Even priests were not exempted from the searches, the arrivals here said.

Nurse To Doctor Bill Almost Became Law
BANGKOK (AP)—The medical profession as well as the more enlightened press of Bangkok was aroused by a bill that almost became law in Parliament without anyone seeming to notice a "sleeping" clause. The "sleeping" would have permitted male nurses of long hospital experience to become doctors without any further training. As a result of the clamour raised when the measure's provisions came to light, it is now anticipated that the bill will be amended to eliminate the nurse-doctor provision.
