Axis Bombers Strike At Vital Suez Canal

Island Raids Also Increase In Violence

British Claim Much Better Results In Downing Nazis

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—The destruction of 12 German planes in daylight today over England and off the coast, with the loss of only one RAF fighter, was claimed by the British tonight.

Axis warplanes delivered a two-hour assault on Britain's vital Suez Canal during the night, the British reported today and struck with mounting violence at the island kingdom itself by daylight.

Nazi pilots reported big fires were raging in Manchester, English industrial city. German daylight raiders attacked Dover's balloon barrage, machine-gunned the streets in a southeast English town, and clashed with RAF defense planes in a series of blazing dogfights over the English channel.

The raid on Suez was believed to have been the longest there since the war began. British officials in Cairo acknowledged that "some damage" was inflicted on Egyptian state railway property but said there were no casualties.

Dispatches from London compared the Nazi hit-and-run forays with the furious daylight activity of last fall.

It was estimated in London that 200 German bombers flew over Britain during the night.

At the same time, Berlin authorities were reported preparing for heavier blows under the lash of the British counter-blastings.

Nazi officials were said to be making a canvass of all homes in the German capital to find shelter for bombed-out residents; and Jewish families were ordered to live in more restricted quarters so that all or part of their apartments could be turned over to Aryans.

Many Jewish families were reported being evicted from the desirable Charlottenburg area. It was explained that while completely few houses in Berlin have been wrecked by bombs so far, the RAF's latest raids—with the new British "super-bombs" and incendiaries—have indicated what might be expected this summer.

On the North African front, Premier Mussolini's high command reported that axis troops had captured important positions in the month-old drive of the British garrison at Tobruk, Libya.

Latest British reports said repeated axis assaults had resulted in only a slight penetration along a 2,000-yard front of Tobruk's outer defenses and that new British works had been thrown up there.

In the war in the air, the British tallied a new record for RAF night fighters—the overnight destruction of 12 Nazi bombers—and the London air ministry reported strong RAF attacks on Brest, the Nazi U-boat base at St. Nazaire, docks at Bremen, oil refineries at the mouth of the Loire river in France, and docks and shipping at Bergen, Norway.

RAF raiders delivered "a heavy and particularly successful attack" on the German battleships Charlemagne and Gneisenau at Brest, the air ministry said, scoring direct hits with heavy armor-piercing bombs on both ships.

DNE, the official German news agency, said Nazi undersea raiders sank 29,950 tons of British shipping in the North Atlantic.

Former Pastor Is Visitor In City

The Rev. J. E. H. Gallbreath, who was pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church when the present church building was erected in 1897, is a visitor in Big Spring today.

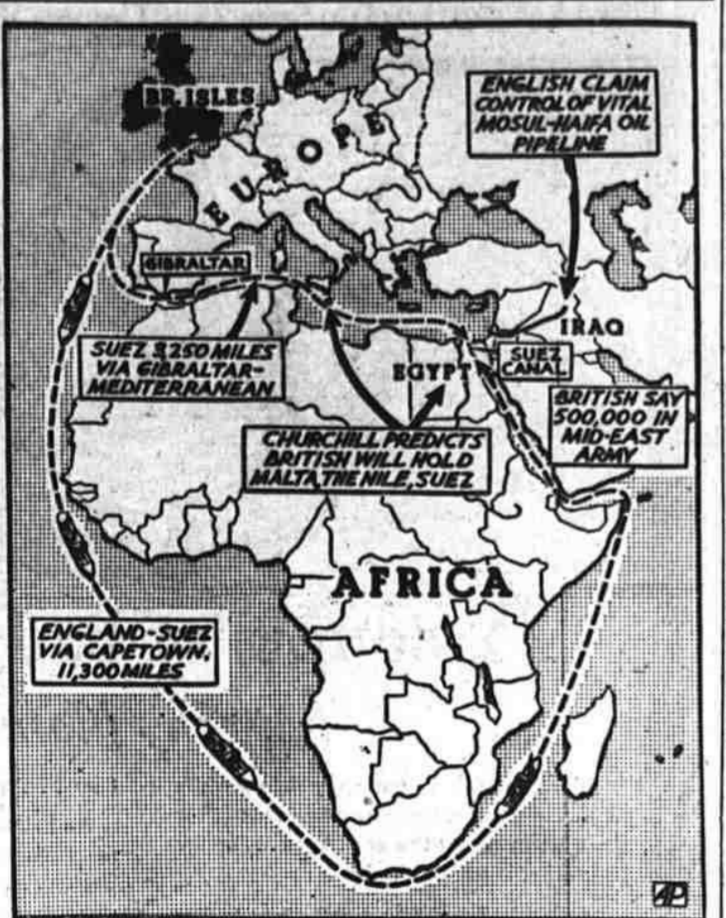

He is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young and Mrs. and Mrs. Van Gleason, but will leave on a night train. He is now living in Louisville, Kentucky.

The Rev. Mr. Gallbreath's hosts during his brief visit are urging other friends to call to see him before he leaves.

Singing Slated At ABC Park

An old time singing will be conducted at the ABC park Friday at 8 p. m. as a part of the community-wide observance of National Music week.

The program, planned and directed by the city-WPA recreation department, will feature old time ballads. Folks were asked to bring their books along and join in the singing.

Britain Tightens Up—Prime Minister Churchill predicted that Britain would hold the valley of the Nile, Suez Canal and Malta. He said nearly 500,000 imperial soldiers stand guard against the axis in the Middle East. Shortest way to Suez and Britain's Far East resources is past Gibraltar through the Mediterranean.

July 1 Tentative Date For Next Draft Registration

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—Army and selective service officials were reported today to have decided on July 1 as the date for registration of approximately 1,000,000 men who have become 21 years old since the first selective service enrollment last October.

The registration will take place at the headquarters of the 4,500 local draft boards now functioning, and authorities said it would be a "fairly simple job" compared with last fall when 16,500,000 men, 21 to 35, were signed up for possible military training.

The date for the new registration will be formally fixed in a proclamation by President Roosevelt. Authorities indicated that the day now tentatively agreed upon was chosen to give the new group of prospective military trainees time to learn whether they are apt to be called for service this fall so they can arrange their school or employment plans accordingly.

Now that the initial groups of trainees have been inducted to provide cadres of more mature men around which to build up the new army, it was learned that war department officials are considering shifting the emphasis to younger men.

One plan reported under consideration would be for the war department to advise selective headquarters officials that hereafter it would take no men above a certain age. Some authorities were understood to favor 30 as the top age limit, while others prefer it as low as 26 years.

Sentenced In Disposal Case

A 70th district court jury found A. D. Martin guilty of disposing of mortgaged property following a hearing of the case Wednesday. Punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary, suspended.

The state had charged that Martin had disposed of several head of cattle on which the State National bank held a mortgage.

C. H. O'Neal entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging driving while intoxicated. He was fined $50 and court costs, given a ninety-day suspended jail sentence, and his drivers' license was revoked for six months.

Turning to the civil docket, the court today was hearing the case of Clifford Cotter against the Tribal Oil company, a suit for wages which had been transferred from Glasscock county. Testimony was underway at noon.

Stockholder Sues Bethlehem Steel Wasted Money

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—Zara Du Pont, a minority stockholder in the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, today began suit in federal court for an accounting and restoration to the corporation of more than $1,000,000 which she alleged was wasted in "illegal and wrongful" anti-labor activities.

Named as defendants were the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Eugene F. Grace, Bethlehem president; the estate of Charles M. Schwab, late board chairman; R. E. McMath and James H. Ward, vice presidents; Frederick A. Shick, comptroller; 13 directors and the estate of Grayson M. P. Murphy.

Maneuvers To Be Largest In History

Over 550,000 Men To Take Part In U. S. War Games

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—More than 550,000 troops will maneuver this summer and fall in war games which army officials said they believed would be the most extensive in history.

The war department, announcing the maneuvers today, said that more than 800,000 other soldiers of the expanded land forces would take part in mobilization training, or would man supply and other services.

Major General Robert C. Richardson said the war games, which will reach a climax in September when two field armies oppose each other in Louisiana, would be "the largest I ever heard of."

General Richardson, war department spokesman, said the European peacetime military maneuvers usually involved only from 100,000 to 200,000 men in any one exercise.

Beginning May 24 with corps maneuvers in California, the war games will gradually build up until September 1-30 when elements of the second and third field army oppose each other in simulated battles in Louisiana, under direction of General George C. Marshall, chief of staff.

A secondary climax is scheduled for November 3-30 in the area between Fort Jackson, S. C. and Fort Bragg, N. C. This will involve elements of the first and third armies.

Armored divisions, the general headquarters air force, and parachute units will take part in the three main war games, in Louisiana, the Carolinas, and Washington. An area around Fort Lewis, Wash., will be the scene of maneuvers of the fourth army.

Hundreds of civilians are to take part as airplane spotters. General Richardson said some of the units would be lacking complete equipment of tanks, anti-tank and other weapons and indicated also that shortages of air forces. Further, he said that unless deliveries were speeded up in the meantime some motor transport would be missing.

Troops taking part in the war games will be in the field an average of seven weeks. The war department said the "most advanced techniques of modern warfare" will be employed in the simulated battles.

Appointment Of Davis Rejected

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—The senate today rejected the appointment of Jeff Davis of Dallas as chairman of the state liquor control board.

It confirmed the appointments of E. D. Battle of Longview as state auditor and Tom Lasater of Fairlairs as a member of the state livestock sanitary commission.

Also confirmed were: Dr. Thomas H. Taylor of Brownwood, re-appointed to the public welfare board.

Mrs. Lillie Stone of Commerce, appointed to the state board of cosmetology.

R. L. Thomas of Dallas, Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston and Malvin C. Eldson of Luling, appointed members of the state teachers colleges.

Mrs. Edwin T. Phillips of Fort Worth, George Barron of Yoakum and S. B. Whittenburg of Amarillo, regents of the state college for women.

Delays Ministry For Army Hitch

Charles Sikes' plans to enter the ministry must wait for a little while, at least until he can do his bit for Uncle Sam in the army.

Today he is in Moffett Field, Calif., as a member of the air corps. Sgt. Troy Gibson, local army recruiting officer said.

Charles, the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sikes, had been planning on entering the ministry after feeling that he was called to preach more than a year ago. However, he will carry on from the army for the next three years.

In connection with his enlistment, said Sgt. Gibson, there exist opportunities for enlistment in the air corps at Moffett Field, Biggs Field (El Paso) and Lowry Field (Denver, Colo.).

National Music Week Broadcast Scheduled

A 30-minute broadcast this afternoon at 4:30 will bring an interpretation of the National Music Week "keynote," "Make Good Music Familiar—in 1941."

The skit will be presented by students from the high school general music class and band. Wilma Johnson will act as moderator for Zero Thurman, who likes "swing music" and Betty Burleson, who just can't stand anything which isn't symphonic. They agree on one thing, however, that it is worth while to "make good music familiar music."

58 Additional Ships Proposed For Navy

Reported Plan To Blowup Hyde Park Termed False

RHINEBECK, N. Y., May 8 (AP)—Capt. John Gaffney of the state police said his men and secret service agents were investigating a report that two men had planted dynamite on President Roosevelt's Hyde Park, N. Y., estate with the intention of "setting it off if the United States went to war." Gaffney said he believed "there was nothing to the story."

Gaffney said the report originated with a workman on the estate. "But we don't believe it," Gaffney said.

Nevertheless, he added, James Maloney, head of the secret service in the New York district, was accompanying the workman about the estate in a checkup of his statements.

State police said the workmen had told them that two men, about 35 and speaking broken English, had disclosed their plot to him when he picked them up in his car after their own car had broken down.

Trooper John Hogan said state police were called to investigate at 7:45 a. m. (EST) today and immediately dispatched four troopers to the estate.

"I suppose Mr. Maloney brought down other secret service agents from New York," Hogan added.

He said that by noon no trace had been found either of dynamite or the suspicious men.

Record Crowd Of Scouts Due Here

Clear, hot West Texas weather today spelled record attendance for the 10th annual Round Up of the Buffalo Trail council at the city park.

Reports from all of the 15-county area indicated that most of the 51 Boy Scout troops would be represented at the weekend camping and scoutcraft rally, and Carl Blomaheld, council chairman, saw no reason why around 1,000 boys and men should not be on hand.

Previous record attendance has been around 800. This year, however, the troop registration is 20 higher than ever before, opening the way for an additional 400 to attend.

S. P. Gaskin, Sweetwater, area executive, and Jack Hodges, Odessa, field executive, joined Stanley A. Mate, local field executive, here Thursday evening to help with advanced arrangements.

With a day left before boys start drawing for campsites at 4 p. m. Friday, Dr. W. B. Hardy, district chairman, announced that "everything looks to be ready."

Contrary to reports, school will not be let out for local scouts. They must make plans to meet their classes as usual since the starting time of the Round Up is not until after school.

Program for the event calls for a "campfire" program at the amphitheatre at 8 p. m. Friday at which various troops will furnish entertainment.

Saturday morning contests will be staged and at noon scouts and leaders will be feasted to a big barbecue luncheon made possible by local friends of scouting. A special feature this year will be competition of trained patrols for the Charles Paxton emergency service award. Paxton is the council president.

Among those who have been heading up committees on arrangements were Carl Blomaheld and Elton Taylor on food and serving; Albert S. Darby, other activities; George Melear, recording; Hugh Duncan, chief judge; Boyd McDaniel, grounds; W. C. Blankenship, awards; Woodrow Wadswick, officer of the day; contest properties, troop No. 3.

In connection with the annual celebration, Paxton had called a meeting of the council executive committee for 6:30 p. m. Friday at the Settles hotel.

Carloadings At New 1941 Peak

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—The Association of American Railroads reported today that 794,301 cars of revenue freight were loaded during the week ending last Saturday.

This was an increase of 72,599 cars, or 10.1 per cent, compared with the preceding week; an increase of 128,754 cars, or 19.3 per cent, compared with a year ago, and an increase of 222,276 cars, or 38.9 per cent, compared with 1939.

Loadings for the week established a new high for 1941 and were the largest since the week of November 2, 1940 when loadings totaled 794,797.

Loadings were the highest for any corresponding week since 1930 when they totaled 974,674.

New Libel Bill Is Before The House

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—A bill providing that the offense of libel may be prosecuted in any county in which the libelous matter is circulated was pending before the house today, having been passed by the senate this week.

The bill specified that "the offense of libel is actually committed wherever the libelous matter is circulated. Under present statutes, it was shown, it was possible for a person to circulate libelous matter by the use of mail as well as by "secret agencies" without exposing himself to punishment in the counties in which the publication carrying the libelous matter was printed.

Official Says Auxiliaries Are Needed

$350,000,000 Program Said To Be For The U. S. Fleet

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—The house naval committee recommended legislation today to authorize the navy to acquire 58 additional fleet auxiliary vessels at a cost of approximately $350,000,000.

The bill represented an increase of 33 ships beyond what the navy requested when the legislation was introduced early in March.

Rear Admiral Samuel M. Robinson, chief of the bureau of ships, testified he had been instructed by Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, to ask that the measure be amended to authorize acquisition of 550,000 tons of additional auxiliaries instead of the 200,000 tons originally requested.

Robinson said rapid developments which could not be foreseen necessitated the increase.

In response to questions, Robinson said the vessels had nothing to do with the British aid program and all were needed for the navy's own use. The navy wants the ships by August 1.

Representative Maas (R-Minn), senior minority member, wanted to know whether any of the idle foreign vessels whose seizure the house authorized yesterday would be included in the 58 ships sought by the navy but Robinson said he did not know whether the navy would get any of the foreign ships.

The total cost of acquisition or construction of the additional auxiliaries, Robinson said, would include funds to arm the ships and to install gear to protect them from magnetic mines.

Before acting finally on the bill, the committee struck out a provision which would have authorized the navy to replace over-age warships with combat vessels of any type deemed most necessary by the president. Current law requires that over-age ships be replaced by vessels of the same type—that is, battleships for battleships.

During his appearance, Robinson told the committee that some sort of rationing of steel supplies probably would be necessary soon because "there isn't enough steel for everything that's going on in this country."

Judy Garland May Reveal Engagement

HOLLYWOOD, May 8 (AP)—Will Judy Garland, like Deanna Durbin, choose her 19th birthday to announce her engagement?

Friends say she will, at a birthday party June 10. Dave Rose, song writer whose ring she wears on her little finger, would be the lucky guy.

The actress said "it's only a birthday party and nothing else. Dave and I are not thinking of marriages."

But Judy's friends said they'd be surprised if she doesn't surprise them with a betrothal announcement.

Mrs. Scott Suffers Rattlesnake Bite

Concern was felt Thursday for Mrs. F. Scott, who resides 35 miles northwest of here, following a rattlesnake bite suffered Wednesday morning. She was rushed to the Malone & Hogan Clinic Hospital for treatment.

Weather Man Cooperates To Open Straw Hat Season

With a winter or so of good hard service behind them, faithful old felt hats were making plenty of perspiration off Big Spring heads today as the mercury climbed toward a new high for the year 1941.

Sunday, however, is officially Straw Hat Day in Big Spring, and thenceforth the old felts will be laid aside while cool straws assume their places. At the rate the sun was beating down today, some folks may jump the gun and buy a straw before nightfall to comfort their sweating brows.

The U.S. weather bureau reported at noon today that the mercury had passed 80 degrees and was steadily climbing. "It looks like this is going to be the hottest day of the year at the rate it's going," said Charles Newton, meteorologist in charge of the station. Previous high was 84, recorded a couple of days ago.

Admitting he hadn't yet bought a straw, Mayer Grover Dunham nevertheless has added the dignity of his official approval to a proclamation of straw hat day. And beginning Sunday, the old felts will be in imminent danger of getting stamped into the sidewalk if they appear in public. It's either a straw or nothing, beginning Sunday. A felt just ain't humane or decent in this kind of weather.

Big Spring merchants have put into their best display space a fine assortment of spring and summer straw hats, guaranteed to keep the most feverish brow cool and calm in spite of a hot sun and troubled times.

Local Teachers Will Cooperate In Thrift Event

Teachers of the Big Spring public school system have pledged themselves to participate 100 per cent in the defense savings program through purchase of bonds or stamps, it was announced following a meeting of the group Wednesday afternoon.

Furthermore, they are going to stimulate children's interest in the government-financed program which also is a thrift affair, in the hope of getting full cooperation on the part of school pupils.

The defense bond campaign was taken before the school group by Dr. P. W. Malone, who has been named chairman in charge of sales for the local professional groups. He said that teachers responded enthusiastically, and that he was confident several classes of pupils would be able to report 100 per cent participation and win a place on the "honor roll" by the first of the week.

School children of the entire county already are familiar with the bond and stamp purchase program, through participation in an essay contest now in progress. They are writing essays on "Why Everyone Should Buy Defense Bonds and Stamps," and three winners will be selected in each school in the county—local high school, all city elementary schools, all rural schools and other independent schools in the county.

To these will go a $1 saving stamp for first place, 50 cent stamp for second and 25 cent stamp for third. The contest closes Friday, and winners will be announced as soon as the essays can be judged.

Pension Checks To Be Smaller

AUSTIN, May 8. (AP)—Old age pension checks for May will be short.

The pension administration will mail checks averaging $11.46 to 132,569 recipients as compared to April payments of $14.35 to 128,835.

Efforts to forestall the cut by emergency appropriations apparently came too late but pensioners had the consolation that revenues from the omnibus tax bill probably will start boosting payments in June.

Property taxes, once the main source of revenue for state governments, now represents only six per cent of state collections, according to the census.

Coming Back—Counted as a contender for honors in Big Spring's charity horse show May 16-17-18, is Astral Marillo, mare pictured above and owned by the Diamond M ranch of Scurry county. Astral Marillo took honors for three-year-old five gaited mares at last year's show, being owned then by the Mackey Breeding Farms of Colorado City and shown by Frank Kelley of the same place. Scores of the state's top show horses, plus Palominos and quarter horses which will be shown on halter, are expected to compete for ribbons and cash at the event here, which is for benefit of the Rotary club's crippled children's fund. Shows will be on Friday and Saturday nights, and on Sunday afternoon.

Scouts Hear First-Hand Account Of War Conditions In Germany

A voice from Europe gave Boy Scouts and friends, who turned out in record numbers for a court of honor Tuesday evening at the district courtroom, a real picture of what Americanism means.

Frank Henrich, a Couden chemical engineer who is only 10 months from Europe and who spent two months in a German concentration camp, answered a flood of questions concerning war-time conditions.

A native of Austria, he was placed in a concentration camp for two months because of an attempt to enter Switzerland without a visa. On release he got to Italy and waited 10 months to get a visa to the United States.

In response to questions raised by boys and their leaders, he told of the small value placed on human life, how those who walked beyond a given line in the camp were shot although guards sometimes heeded those across, how possession of a weapon libeled one to imprisonment or death.

Did he ever see Hitler? "No, I was not inquisitive about that." What did he predict would be the war's outcome? "I am for Britain. I have a wish, not a prediction." He spoke haltingly due to his lack of familiarity with his new language, but he said "my only desire now is that I can make a good citizen of the United States."

Attendance award at the meeting was won overwhelmingly by troop No. 15 of Garner, which had more than 80 representatives present.

Special awards were presented to Edward Fisher for organization work and for work beyond his Eagle badge, and to Roy Shipman for 10 years in scouting.

Second class cards went to Thomas Clinkscale, Mack Martin, Des Gerald Thomas, Richard Stripling, Tunney Goodson, Harry Hurk, James M. Hardy, Dean Curlee, Ralph Rowe, Ray Rowe, James Brown, Dols Hays, Bobby Joe Bell, J. W. Warren, Eddy Anderson, L. C. Gibbs, Mos Gaskin, James Jeffcoat, Donald Woods, Kenneth Brown, Billy Gale Hooper, Howard Smith, Gene Shaw, and Herbert Butler. Edward Burchell was given his first class card.

Merit badges went to C. A. Smith, Bobby Barron, Edward Fisher, L. Worio Martinez, John Salas, Ralph Mendes, Manuel Yanes, Felix Villa, Arthur Hernandez, Joe Hinojos, Raul Mendoza, Ralph Garcia, Joe Aleman, Clarence Yanes, Frank Salazar, Alfonso Mendes, Robert G. Hutto, Humbert Lineley, Ned Hale, Harold Boswell, Gray Birkhead, Walter Stroup, W. L. Bell, Ray Rowe, J. O. Sanderson, James Hughes, Cecil Wintebauer, Raymond Stallings, Earl Bryant, Edward Burchell.

W. C. Blankenship, chairman, presided, and others who assisted were Dr. W. B. Hardy, district chairman, George Melear and W. S. Morrison, commissioners; Stanley Mate, Dr. C. W. Deats and Roy Cornelson. The crowd was the largest on record for an affair of that type.

Penn Yan, N. Y.—Want to quiet that puppy when he starts yowling in the small hours of the morning? Dr. Lyndon Potter, veterinarian, says it's simple: Just place a "good loud" alarm clock in the puppy's box. The pup will cuddle up to the clock and sleep soundly, Dr. Potter says, because the loud ticking makes the lonesome dog think he's not alone.

Juarez, Mexico.—A funeral procession moved down this border city's main street.

Move Defeated To Cut Rangers' Pay
AUSTIN, May 8. (AP)—A strong house group has smothered a move to cut the pay of Texas Rangers beginning Sept. 1 and then initiated a drive to up the salaries of highway patrolmen.

The action came during consideration of the big departmental appropriation bill which was before the lower chamber for the third day.

As sent to the floor by the appropriation committee, the measure proposed a $2,700 annual stipend for ranger captains and $2,100 for privates, a $300 reduction from respective present salaries.

Rep. Charles V. Lunsberry's amendment boosting pay in each division $300 a year was adopted.

French May Get Easier Armistice

VICHY, France, May 8. (AP)—A semi-official source indicated today that the French-German armistice convention would be modified as a result of negotiations in Paris from which Vice Premier Admiral Jean Darlan returned this morning.

A prediction to this effect, made to French newspapermen at a conference, followed disclosure only yesterday that Darlan and German authorities in Paris had reached an agreement "envisaging" a 100,000,000-franc reduction in the 400,000,000 francs charged France daily for support of the German army of occupation.

A statement in the French press said only "that in view of the dragging out of the war in certain parts, the armistice convention must be modified in a spirit of mutual understanding."

A couple of bad eggs... but why blame the hen?

A bad egg does turn up once in a while... but that's not a sensible reason for destroying all the good eggs... or for taking it out on the hen.

Beer retailing in America is something like that. The vast majority of beer retail establishments are clean, law-abiding, wholesome places. And still there may be a few "bad egg" retailers who violate the law or permit anti-social conditions.

The brewing industry wants these undesirables eliminated entirely... to protect your right to drink good beer... and our right to make it.

And also to protect the many benefits brought by the beer industry to Texas... such as the $1,165 jobs created... and beer's $21,076,182 annual payroll. Beer contributed $2,373,966.64 last year in taxes to help pay the cost of government in this state.

You can help us in our program of law enforcement, if you will, by (1) patronizing only the legal and reputable places that sell beer and (2) by reporting any abuses to the proper law enforcement authorities.

The War Today—

Joseph Stalin Plans Some New Course Of Action

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Herald Special News Service

Joseph Stalin's surprising emergence from the privacy of the office where he has quietly but firmly pulled the strings of government, to assume the premiership of Russia, is far from self-explanatory, but it strikes me there is one assumption we can make safely—that he forges some imminent crisis and has put himself in the slot to deal with it.

When we go further, however, and try to put a finger on the exact crisis he has in view, we should move cautiously, for the mind of the Muscovite sphinx is a closed book excepting as he resorts to action. Still, there are several logical possibilities.

Among these I should put well to the fore the growing tension between the axis and the United States.

Stalin sees Washington's stiffened attitude, as evidence by such developments as Secretary of War Stimson's plea for use of our navy to guarantee the success of the aid-to-Britain program. The communist leader notes that it is preparing to increase munitions production on the assumption that there is a possibility America may enter the war.

Maybe he too believes that the United States may get into the conlict. I don't know that. He wouldn't be the chief of all the Russias, however, if he didn't have the foresight to prepare for such a contingency. That event would completely alter the complexion of the war, and would be bound to have a profound effect on the Soviet Union.

There is another matter which is of vast concern to Stalin. That is Germany's thrust into what Russia considers her preserves in the lower Balkans and on the Dardanelles, and the indications that Hitler may strike into the Near East, thereby further menacing soviet interests.

Then there have been signs that Hitler is again looking with speculative eyes on Russia's Ukraine. Possessions of that productive state would give the nazis vital supplies which they lack. Hitler's first move in that direction would mean war with the bolsheviks.

And there is still another possibility. Hitler is reported to be applying the heat to Japan to force her to make war on Britain and the United States in the Far East, to create a diversion for the benefit of the European conflict. Stalin can't overlook that situation which is full of dynamite for him.

Is the bolshevik chief thinking of sending his great army into action?

It would be rash to take that for granted, as I see the position. It is fair to assume, however, that he envisages that possibility and is getting set to meet the crisis if and when it develops.

I believe Stalin's taking over of his new office was to place accent on his leadership—to bring him into active command in the field so to speak. Such a move isn't strange, for he can see that the world war is on the verge of momentous developments. Russia might easily be drawn into the melee, and in any event he wants to be prepared to take advantage of any opening which will benefit Russia and the communist world revolution.

Although tobacco is America's oldest industry, the wholesale tobacco trade reached an all-time high in 1939, 28.6 per cent above 1929, according to the census.

IN VENEZUELA—Gen. Isaias Medina Angarita, who has been minister of war and navy of Venezuela, was elected president of that country by the congress for a five-year term. He will take office soon, has visited the United States.

Temporary Trestles Wrecked By Flood On Red River

DENIBSON, May 8 (AP) — Both temporary trestles across the Red river at Denison dam site last Tuesday as the stream climbed above 18 feet, the highest since 1935. The upper bridge was lost completely and a 500-foot slice was swept from the other. The trestles were owned by Guy F. Atkinson company, contractor for the eastern embankment and spillway excavation at the $54,000,000 dam project. The company said the loss was heavy but that reconstruction would start as soon as possible. The project otherwise was not damaged by the rise, caused by excessive rains the past two weeks. The rise is expected to reach its peak today.

Defendant Guesses Sentence
ST. JOSEPH, Mo.—Phillip E. Hunt, 51, has been in difficulties with police so frequently that he knows just about what to expect when he goes to court. "I'll take five years for this rap," he said when he came before Judge Maurice Hoffman on a robbery charge. The judge agreed that was a suitable sentence, and the case was closed.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or heavy passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Texas Towns May Receive Arms Plants

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP) — Brig. Gen. H. K. Rutherford of the munitions board said a number of Texas towns were under consideration as sites for a munitions plant or plants.

He said it would be decidedly premature to presume that Eastland or Marshall or any other town was in a particularly favorable position to be selected.

Other sources said the Marshall chamber of commerce had recently submitted a strong case to the board on behalf of Marshall. Several months ago a group of West Texans filed application for locating a plant in the Cisco-Eastland area.

Used car dealers—4,680 reported in the last census—sold $193,790,000 worth of second-hand automobiles in 1939.

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt remained afebrile today in an effort to overcome a stomach ailment. He still had a fractional degree of temperature and while he wanted to get up his physician, Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, ordered him to stay in bed.

Nickels, Pennies Used To Pay For U. S. Defense Bonds

PARIS, May 8 (AP)—Dick Hopper had to use a truck to get his money to the postoffice where he swapped it for some of those United States defense bonds.

The reason: It was all in pennies—54,300 of them. Postmaster T. W. Russell had to do the counting.

Hopper had been saving pennies for two years. QUITMAN, May 8 (AP)—Mrs. Lucy Terrell, a widow who lives near here came to town and purchased a $50 defense bond, paying $37.50 with 750 nickels which she had saved during the past six years. She had enough nickels left over to buy six 10-cent defense stamps. Mrs. Terrell said she would have had 300 more nickels to loan to the government except that four years ago she was bitten by a snake and was forced to spend $15 of her nickels for medical treatment.

Judge Defines "Skyjarking" OAKLAND, Calif.—In upholding a five-year-old $1,750 judgment in an auto accident suit, Judge Homer Spence wrote into the law a legal definition of "skyjarking." He defined it "as indulging in antics or cutting capers when driving at a high rate of speed for the sake of the thrill produced with indifference to the consequences."

Give Mother A Break Sunday And Do The Cooking On Her Day

Observance of Mother's Day has become an annual custom in nearly all American homes. Sons and daughters—in fact, all members of the family—pay their respects to the mothers of the land on the second Sunday in May.

While the modern celebration dates only to 1914, when President Wilson gave the event official standing by asking for the display of the national flag "as an expression of love and reverence for the mothers of the country," the custom really goes back many centuries in the western world.

In ancient times there was an annual Festival of Motherhood, a celebration that was introduced into Rome by the Greeks about 250 years before Christ. The festival was in honor of Cybele, mother of the gods in Greek mythology, and the rites were attended by all the superstitions of those early days. Celebrations were held mainly in deep woods and caves for three days at a time, and the festivals were followed by feasting and general rejoicing.

We have outgrown the superstitions of the past, but our modern equivalent, Mother's Day, is a day for rejoicing and feasting. You may be planning to give mother some gift—flowers, candy or other appropriate tokens. Why not give her a really unusual present? Let some other members of the family take over the cooking duties for the day!

Here are several tried-and-true recipes that should make mother—and her offspring—enjoy some dainty morsels not only on "Her Day" but before and after as well. To start Mother's Day with a smile all around, try these delicious waffles served with honey or syrup, or your favorite jam.

DATE YEAST WAFFLES (About 12 to 15 waffles)

1-2 package fast granular yeast
1-4 cup lukewarm water
1-4 teaspoon sugar
2 1-4 cups milk
2 tablespoons butter
1 quart flour (sifted)
1 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
3 ounces chopped dates
Pour the yeast into the 1-4 cup lukewarm water and add the 1-4 teaspoon sugar. Beat the milk and allow to cool. Rub the butter into the sifted flour and add salt, the milk which has been cooled, and the softened yeast. Beat for several minutes until smooth. Cover and set to rise in warm place until light.

Beat egg whites and yolks separately. Add yolks to the batter, mixing well. Then stir in the beaten egg whites and beat vigorously. Set to rise again until you are ready for breakfast. Just before cooking, mix in the finely chopped dates, slightly floured. Serve with honey, syrup or jam.

CURRENT SPICE BUNS (20 to 24 buns)

1 package fast granular yeast
1-2 cup lukewarm water
2 1-2 teaspoons sugar
1 1-2 cups milk
About 5 1-2 cups flour (sifted)
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
1-2 cup sugar
1-3 cup butter
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup dried currants
Pour the yeast into the 1-2 cup lukewarm water and add 1-2 teaspoon of the sugar.

When thoroughly softened make a sponge using the 1 1-2 cups of scalded, cooled milk, about 4 cups of the flour well sifted, and the softened yeast. When well mixed, spread over this sheet the butter, well-softened, then sprinkle with the remaining sugar, the cinnamon and currants. Roll up like jelly roll and cut into rounds about 2 inches long. Set them in a large greased pan (on end and separated), then set to rise until ready (about an hour). Bake 1-2 hour at about 375 degrees F.

When baked, remove from oven, brush with a very little milk and sugar, then return to oven to brown.

Permian Basin Assn. Adds A Tax Worker

MIDLAND, May 8—J. E. Erwin, formerly of Dallas, has joined the staff of the Permian Basin association, it was announced today by Wilburna Page, executive secretary. Erwin will do contact work in member cities and will work and confer with local tax committees in carrying out the association's tax program. The new staff member has been in organization work for a number of years, having recently been with the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association with headquarters at Dallas. Prior to this, he was for a number of years executive secretary of the North Texas Oil and Gas association in Wichita Falls.

Erwin is a graduate of the University of Texas where he majored in journalism. For some time following graduation, he was in the editorial department of the Wichita Falls Record-News.

"We feel extremely fortunate in securing the services of Erwin," Paul C. Teas, Lubbock, Permian Basin association president, said. "His long experience and numerous friends in this work will be invaluable to us in carrying out the strong program which we have outlined for this year." Mrs. Erwin and two daughters will remain in Dallas until the end of the school year, when they will join Mr. Erwin and establish their home in Midland.

Sanford Edwards, 10, Gets Honors In Piano Playing

Piano lessons begun when he was four years old and living in Big Spring have brought rewards for young Sanford Edwards, ten year old son of W. K. Edwards of Big Spring and Mrs. Dorothy Edwards of Tulsa, Okla. Recently the young pianist was presented in recital at the University of Tulsa by the College of Fine Arts. Sanford is the grandson of W. P. Edwards of Big Spring.

Sanford, who was the pupil of Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser, resided here until 1940 when he moved to Tulsa. Outstanding record as a pianist was accorded him when he won the highest possible rating for four successive years in the National Piano playing tournament held here and in Abilene.

His ability, remarkable for a ten year old, was testified to at the recital when he appeared with a 13-year-old girl, Elizabeth Ann Goldsmith. Sanford played a difficult repertoire considered comparable to requirements for high school graduating students.

The selections included a "Duet—'Knight Rupert'" by Schumann and Mozart's "Sonata" C Major, Allegro, Rondo. His second group included a duet "Spie and Span" by Gehring, "Romance" by Schumann, and "Invention" D. Minor and F. Major by Bach were the third group.

His last group was "Piré Dance," by Eckstein and "Desert Star" by Eckstein; "The Bee" by Schubert, and "Juggler in Normandy" by Lehman. The program closed with another duet by Sanford and Elizabeth Ann. "Prelude" by Gurliitt and "Shepard's Hay" by Grainger. Sanford and Elizabeth Ann are the only two child pupils of Helen Ringo, head of the College of Fine Arts at Tulsa university. The pianist also appears on a weekly radio program in Tulsa.

Pony Express Race Added To Horse Show Program

Expected to be one of the top events from the standpoint of excitement, in the Rotary club's charity horse show here next week is the "Pony Express" race, planned as a feature of all three performances.

The event will be open to all amateur cowboys and horsemen, Show Director M. H. Bennett has announced, and if there are enough entrants, the Pony Express will be staged as a concluding feature of each show.

The Pony Express is a multiple-mount, relay affair. Riders will race around the arena to a given station, where they must unsaddle, and then saddle a new horse to continue the chase. There may be two or more stations, where riders, horses, saddles and bridles may get untangled during a mad scramble to stay ahead.

Bennett said he was expecting at least 12 entrants. If that many materialize, six would compete on Friday night, the other six on Saturday night, and the first and second place winners in those preliminaries would ride Sunday afternoon in a four-man final. Special awards will be posted.

In addition to the gaited horses which will be seen in the various classes of the show, animals of special interest to West Texans will be exhibited on halter for ribbons. These will include Palominos, quarter horses and Thoroughbreds—stallions and geldings, mares and fillies.

Other special events are being lined up for the show, and a meeting of directors and Rotary committee workers is called for tonight at the Crawford hotel to map final arrangements.

Shows will be staged at the rodeo grounds at 8 o'clock Friday and Saturday evenings, and at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

All proceeds will go to the Rotary's crippled children's fund. Advance ticket sales and pre-show interest indicate that big crowds will be on hand. Out-of-town interest is being manifested in gratifying fashion, report those who have made trips to neighboring places in the interest of the show.

Delegation To WTCC Meeting Is Named

An official delegation of ten men named, local civic leaders Thursday inaugurated efforts to have Big Spring well represented at the annual West Texas chamber of commerce convention, to be held at Mineral Wells on Thursday and Friday of next week.

Big Spring was host to the conclave last year, and Chamber of Commerce Manager Jimmy Greene said he hoped the city would "return the courtesy" by sending a sizeable group to Mineral Wells.

In addition to Greene, those who have received cards as official delegates are B. Reagan, Grover Dunham, W. G. Hayden, Bob Whipple, Dave Duncan, Ben LeFever, Jake Douglas, B. F. Robbins, Cliff Wiley, J. Y. Robb and Carl Blomsheld.

Reagan and Dunham are this city's directors on the WTCC board, while Reagan is district director.

What To Do About Hard Water

By Katharine Fisher
Director, Good Housekeeping Institute

If you live in a hard-water district, there is no need to tell you how hard water adds to the problems of housekeeping—the sticky scum that collects on the inside of your dishes and adds to the chore of getting glassware and dishes sparkling clean, the soap suds that cling to clothes in washing and makes them harsh and often gray, the "fishy" ring of loss of flavor in foods, and the hard scale that collects in your cooking utensils and sometimes clogs your hot-water supply system.

Nowadays getting soft water for household use is no more of a problem than getting an adequate supply of hot water. The solution lies in a device called a zeolite water softener. Such a device will completely remove all the lime and magnesium salts—the cause of hard water—and convert the water into one that is as soft as rain right out of the sky.

This device has a tank which contains the zeolite, a mineral substance. The tank is connected to the house piping. After flowing through the zeolite the water leaves the tank and then flows to the faucets from which it is used. The zeolite lasts indefinitely, but every week or two it must be reconditioned by flushing with a solution of pure salt similar to that used for the table. In the hand-operated water softener, this reconditioning can be done by anyone—yourself or a member of your family. No special skill or knowledge is necessary. In the automatic type of softener the reconditioning is done by an electric motor which is started by a hand switch, or by a time clock, or by a water meter. The only attention required for the automatic softener is to load the brine tank at infrequent intervals.

Of course, you must have a water-conditioning equipment of a size that meets your needs. This will depend on the amount of impurities in the water to be treated, and the number of gallons of water used per day in your home. The manufacturer's representative will collect data that will enable him to estimate how much water is being used. To determine the composition of the water it is necessary to analyze a sample.

The reliable manufacturers of water-conditioning equipment maintain their own laboratories for making such analyses, and have already tested the water supplied to the principal cities and towns of the country. Then, too, there are different kinds of zeolites, and each has its own special characteristics. Some are better suited to certain waters than others. After analyzing a water, the manufacturer knows what zeolite should be used or whether some other treatment is required, and is in a position to guarantee that the equipment he offers will give satisfactory results. Be sure, therefore, that the water you use has been analyzed and that the manufacturer of the equipment you purchase is familiar with its composition.

Once you have experienced the delights of soft water as contrasted with hard water, you'll wonder how you ever managed without your water-softening equipment.

A lot of applause—more than 100 million cans of it—is put up annually by U. S. canners, according to the census.

Conoco Men Told Of New 'Nth' Oil

More than 75 West Texas commission representatives and dealers for the Continental Oil company assembled in Big Spring last night to learn the details on a completely new Conoco product—Nth motor oil.

Result of seven years' research and the expenditure of thousands of dollars in experiment and testing, the new oil—still with the exclusive Conoco germ processing—derives its trade name, the agents were told, from the observation that "it represents the Nth degree in motor oils."

An impressive presentation told the West Texas Conoco agents of an extensive advertising campaign Continental will use this summer—in newspapers, magazines, by outdoor poster and radio—in acquainting the public with the qualities of Nth oil.

The meeting was directed by C. L. Oden of Fort Worth, assistant division manager, who showed motion pictures revealing the great research and the rigorous testing behind the new product. Oden also outlined the advertising campaign, and distributed publicity kits to the dealers. John Simmons of Sweetwater, district manager, presided for the meeting, and H. W. Smith, new commission representative for Conoco in Big Spring,

Woman Slain And Another Wounded

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., May 8 (AP)—A young mother was killed, her baby was placed in her arms, and her house guest was critically wounded by a gunman in the desert near Cajon Pass early today.

Mrs. Jean Wells, 20, of San Bernardino was slain. Rose Destree, 17, of Escondido, wounded, crawled to a highway and attracted motorists, who rushed her to a hospital for an emergency operation. Mrs. Wells' 13-month-old daughter was rescued by officers.

Mrs. Wells' husband, Ray, was missing and officers said he might have been harmed.

Undersheriff J. W. Stocker made a statewide police broadcast asking for the arrest of Alfred Wells, Mrs. Wells' brother-in-law.

Stocker said Miss Destree told this story: Wells, angry that his half-sister, Violet, had left his home, went to Mrs. Jean Wells' home about midnight. He demanded that she and Miss Destree help find Violet.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., May 8 (AP)—A young mother was killed, her baby was placed in her arms, and her house guest was critically wounded by a gunman in the desert near Cajon Pass early today.

Mrs. Jean Wells, 20, of San Bernardino was slain. Rose Destree, 17, of Escondido, wounded, crawled to a highway and attracted motorists, who rushed her to a hospital for an emergency operation. Mrs. Wells' 13-month-old daughter was rescued by officers.

Mrs. Wells' husband, Ray, was missing and officers said he might have been harmed.

Undersheriff J. W. Stocker made a statewide police broadcast asking for the arrest of Alfred Wells, Mrs. Wells' brother-in-law.

Stocker said Miss Destree told this story: Wells, angry that his half-sister, Violet, had left his home, went to Mrs. Jean Wells' home about midnight. He demanded that she and Miss Destree help find Violet.

Tribe, Cards Fall As Loops Become Even

Both Clubs Rapped Twice To Put Sad End To Miracle Legend

By Associated Press

There are no miracle teams in the major leagues this year and the pennant races today are as wide open as the day the season started.

After soaring along on spectacular winning streaks until their followers were fanned into a dangerous state of excitement, the Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Cardinals now have lost two games in a row and both the American and National leagues are in as much confusion as when their first inter-sectional strife began ten days ago.

The Dodgers, in fact, destroyed the legend that St. Louis had a collection of supermen yesterday. They wrung out a 4-3 decision in a gripping drama that ended like a musical comedy when Manager Billy Southworth switched his pitchers four times for six batters in the last two innings and in spite of this intense strategy let Brooklyn lead the bases without a hit and with none out in the ninth.

The Indians, who had great pitching and timely hitting during their 11-game winning streak, got neither against the New York Yankees as they mired down 7-5 on a rain-soaked diamond. The Yankees raided Al Milnar and two other pitchers for 15 hits and, even though the Tribe touched Lefty Marius Russo for 10 themselves, they never shook him out of control.

This victory bounced the Yanks from fourth to second place in one hop and the Boston Red Sox leaped from fifth to third with an 11-inning, 4-3 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

The Detroit Tigers, after a day in second place and minus Hank Greenberg for the first time, were whipped 4-2 by the Washington Senators and slipped to fourth.

The St. Louis Browns captured a marathon 14-inning affair from the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5.

A homer by Ernie Lombardi was the only run of the game as the Cincinnati Reds squeezed the New York Giants 7-0.

The Chicago Cubs climbed out of the cellar by lambasting the Phillies 11-2.

Jim Tobin also pitched and batted his way to a 7-6 victory for the Boston Braves against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Brown Bombers Meet Odessans Here Tonight

Tonight's the night — Odessa Black Oilers baseball club is the foe, Sunshine Butler and his band are the artists of a special brand of swing and shuffle stuff, a jitterbug exhibition is on tap—Robert Moore and his Brown Bombers are ready, willing, and, according to Robert, able to show their diamond prowess. At 8 o'clock this evening the local club and their visitors open festivities on Roberts Field.

Odessa's boys are something of an unknown quantity so far as these parts are concerned but past showings of the Brown Bombers leave little doubt concerning their ballplayer setup. They have a club that has walked away with top honors already this year and tonight they will be expected to maintain their standards before the homefolks.

Seating arrangements are prepared with the expectation of having open house to a good-sized crowd of friends and followers of the Brown Bomber lads, Manager Moore announced.

Detroit Man Heads TB Association

SAN ANTONIO, May 8 (AP).—Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, health commissioner of Detroit, is the new president of the National Tuberculosis association.

He was chosen yesterday at the 37th annual convention of the organization to succeed Dr. Paul P. McCain of Sanatorium, N. C.

Dr. J. Burns Amberson, Jr., of New York, was selected president to serve in 1942. Re-elected honorary vice presidents were President Roosevelt and Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general, United States Public Health Service.

Elected vice presidents were Dr. Fred Heise, Saranac Lake, N. Y., and Dr. H. Frank Carman, Dallas. Re-elected were Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, Philadelphia, secretary, and Ollier Platt, New York, treasurer.

Nat'l Open Has 350 Entries As Deadline Nears

Notable List Of Absentees Remain To Be Signed Up

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP).—The United States Golf association served notice today on prospective entrants in this year's National open championship that the deadline for receipt of entries is drawing near—3 p. m., Central Standard Time, Tuesday, May 13, at the U. S. G. A.'s New York office, to be specific.

With some 350 names already on the books, there remain some notable absentees, including the winner of last month's Augusta Masters tournament, Craig Wood; two former champions, Johnny Farrell and Sam Parks, Jr.; the Mangrum brothers, Ray of Oakmont, Pa., and Lloyd of Oak Park, Ill., and two prominent amateurs, Wilford D. Wehrle of Chicago and Andrew Sawedko of Pittsburgh, the U. S. Public Links champion. All of these players, by having finished among the first 30 and ties at Cleveland in 1940, do not have to compete in sectional qualifying rounds.

Big Guy Rated 'Regular' After 1st Hour In Army

FORT CUSTER, Mich., May 8 (AP).—Hank Greenberg, starting his first day in the army, had a legion of new friends today.

The former Detroit Tiger outfielder had been in camp less than an hour when word got around the huge government layout that "the big guy is regular."

The "big guy," drafted from a $50,000 baseball job, was subjected to the usual banter when he stepped down from the special train last night with 70 draftees from Detroit. Hank took it all smiling and handed out a bit of smart repartee that won over those who met him.

Officials arranged that Greenberg would receive Fort Custer's 18,000th uniform today. If given his preference, Greenberg said he would choose to remain with the fifth division stationed here. It was learned authoritatively that he would probably be assigned to the 11th infantry.

At Battle Creek several hundred fans awaited Greenberg's arrival and called for him to appear on the rear platform.

"Shall I make an acceptance speech?" he laughed.

"We're all for you," the crowd called back.

That seemed to be the consensus of Fort Custer.

Wild 7th Inning Gives Pampa A 9-6 Victory

Clubs Pick Up Battle Again Thursday Nite

PAMPA, May 8.—Sacking up a four-run lead in the first inning then adding to the count with a pair in the seventh Big Spring's Bombers were given a shellacking last night in a hair-raising seventh last half which saw six Pampa baseballers romp across the home plate.

Final Count Was 9 to 6.

After five of Pampa's blitzkrieg wallops came across, Manager Jodie Tate put Andy Mohrlock on the hill to relieve Willard Ramsdell, but the show was too far gone and Mohrlock was nicked for a run before the fracas was brought to a close.

Ramsdell was battered by Pampa's lads of the heavy stick for nine hits all told. Hayden Greer and J. L. Haney accounted for two base hits to take the lead in Big Spring's offensive.

Big Spring comes out for revenge tonight to wind up its two-game series at Pampa. Leaving there, the Bombers are slated to move into Borger, where they will vie with the West Texas-New Mexico circuit leaders, May 9-10-11.

Lookin 'em Over

J. L. Haney, Bomber left fielder and just about as handy a craftsman as can be found on anybody's ball team in these precincts, came through with something of a baseball believe it or not in Tuesday's engagement with Lamesa's Loboes.

He threw out three, count 'em runners—Marshall Brown and Lang on third and Sam Scaling on second—all this in one short inning, the fourth.

Maybe this has been done before in organized ball, but such was not disclosed in a thumping through Menke's record book. Tink Riviere, president of the Big Spring club, said he had never heard of a like performance in all the years he has been moving around in baseball's inner circles. Tink has been up with the upper-bracket lads for a good, long stay, therefore it might be that he is as good an authority on the record as any.

Action came thusly—Lang got to first on a walk, but was thrown out when he tried to get to third on a hit by Carmichael. Brown, getting a double, tried to go to third and there he went out like a light. Then for the third throwout by Haney, Scaling singled, tried to promote his way to second, and there he went down, bringing to an end just about as slick and brilliant a bit of baseball as has been seen around here (in our humble opinion maybe the best).

Harold Akey has put in an order for a life guard at the Munny swimming pool. No standards of Greek-goddiness are asked, just can the applicant paddle around enough to save a potential victim of a watery death from going to his doom. Harold avowed he would look with disapproval on any applicants who might appear with their water wings.

Park Inn Raps Loop Leading Texas Club

Texas Electric Keglers Take 3-Game Win From Toby's

Texas Club is maintaining its lead in the current edition of Big Spring women's Classic bowling league despite a loss to Park Inn's keggers Wednesday night. Texas Electric and Toby's hold a two-game margin over Park Inn to put the number two spots in a deadlock.

In Wednesday's roundelays, Park Inn bested Texas Club with a 3 to 1 count for totals of 2310 pins to 2280. Texas Electric took its shutout victory over Toby's with 2111 marks to 1070.

Mrs. Annette Le Bleu of Texas Club tallied 184-147-178 over the three-game series to chalk up 509 and make top honors for individual total score. Mrs. N. Edmondson, playing under Park Inn colors, took the night's blue ribbon for highest single game, collecting 188 pins in the final round with Texas Club.

Scores: Texas Club—Flint—478, Knaus—441, LeBleu—509, Richards—399 (absent), Myers—435 (absent); Park Inn—Howe—493, Haley—449, Hockendorf—387, Edmondson—441, Simons—501 (absent). Toby's—Vineyard—417, Hall—428, Ramsey—406, Davis—428, Eason—361, Texas Electric—Wells—480, Wasson—407, Robb—407, Parks—452, Griffith—407.

ABCers Rule Minor League Roost Wednesday

American Business club ruled the Minor softball roost last night as they walloped the Herald's crew for a grand total of 15 to 5, and their Sea Scout proteges ran away with a 15 to 7 count over Lions club.

Winners of both conflicts came through the affairs without getting their hair overly mussed and to move into one-two position in the standings list—based on percentage won lot number.

Tonight the Majors, after a hectic session last Tuesday, come out of their corners swinging. In the curtain-raiser Montgomery Ward clashes with NYA at 7:45 and the 9:25 nightcap is put on by Stags, the holders of a surprise win over Cities' Service Tuesday evening, and Phillips.

Buff's Pollet Loses Bid For Shutout Record Wed.

HOUSTON, May 8 (AP).—Nineteen-year-old Howard Pollet, who missed last night his chance to tie the Texas league record for consecutive shutouts—four—is a far better pitcher than last year, when his club president said he was worth $50,000 on the open market.

It is a reasonable assumption, of course, that a young pitcher should improve with experience, Pollet might have succumbed to swelling of the noggin after reading the columns of raves about his performances.

The black-haired, handsome Houston ace, who is only three years away from sandlot baseball in New Orleans, already has set two Texas league marks.

Last year he won 13 straight games from the season's start and in the three straight shutouts he was pitched this year, he allowed only 11 hits, which are two less than Joe Guya of Waco gave up during a similar break 'way back in 1907.

One of his shutouts included a no-hitter against Shreveport.

Last night against Tulsa he started impressively for his fourth shutout in a row, but lost control in the sixth inning and was removed by Manager Eddie Dyer.

"Pollet is a better pitcher now than during last season," Dyer said. "He is a smart kid, young, strong and willing. All this publicity hasn't turned his head. Some other youngster might get so swell-headed you couldn't teach him anything, but not Pollet."

Blazing Pace Scheduled For Preakness Race

BALTIMORE, May 8 (AP).—If speed is what the customers want, they ought to see plenty of it in the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico Saturday—and from the way things looked today, Whirlaway will have to do a lot of catching-up.

There's a world of "foot" in the probable field of six or seven. Indications were that a blazing would be set by front runners aiming to get plenty of daylight between themselves and Whirlaway before Warren Wright's Kentucky Comet uncorks his vaunted "kick" in the stretch.

Our Booty, Royce Martin's colt who has licked Whirlaway in four out of six meetings but failed to show anything in the Kentucky Derby, stepped out as a speedster to be reckoned with when he worked a mile in 1:35 flat between races yesterday. That effort placed him right alongside King Ranch's Dispose, Wheatley stable's King Cole and Crispin Oglebay's Ocean Blue as a speed merchant capable of cutting out a torrid pace.

Meanwhile, Wheatley stable's Bold Irishman was declared out of it. The colt, last in the survivor stakes Tuesday, was "not himself" that day, Trainer "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons said, and later developed a cough and a slight fever.

Colorado City CC Seeks New Members In Drive

COLORADO CITY, May 8 (Sp1). A sweeping drive for memberships in the Colorado City chamber of commerce will be staged by directors of the organization beginning at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, May 12.

The drive will be under the general direction of the membership committee, of which J. Ralph Lee is chairman. Other members are Jake Merritt, Roy Davis Coles and E. R. Bibby.

It will be the first membership campaign staged by the organization in over two years.

Legislature Nears Finish Of Session

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—One of the biggest jobs of the legislature's regular session, making appropriations totalling many millions of dollars to run the government another two years, moved into the home stretch today.

The senate planned to consider on the floor its bill appropriating for state educational institutions, the only one of the major money measures which had not gone to conference committees for adjustment of differences between the houses.

The house of representatives late yesterday, climaxing several days of intermittent labor on it, passed finally the appropriation bill to finance state departments.

The bill totalled $80,550,000 for both years of the new biennium, approximately $4,500,000 more than the total of the senate bill and about $7,000,000 above the appropriations for the current two-year fiscal period.

The action wiped the house's slate clean of major appropriation bills, which, in addition to the departmental and educational, were the rural aid, the eleemosynary and the judiciary.

During floor consideration, the house added nearly $2,000,000 to the appropriations which the house appropriations committee, after long hearings, had recommended.

Major additions were $1,500,000 to buy land for the Big Bend park project and approximately $600,000 for armory rentals and debt servicing on 50 national guard buildings proposed to be built by an RFC loan.

Louis Mayer Highest Paid Executive

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—Louis R. Mayer kept top ranking as America's highest paid executive last year, receiving $97,048 as managing director of production for Loew's, Inc., motion picture company.

This was brought out today in a study of dozens of annual reports filed by large corporations with the securities commission.

Mayer's remuneration from Loew's was $6,777 more than in the previous year. He had no close competition for first place. The second highest on the pay list was Eugene G. Grace with $478,144 as president of Bethlehem Steel corporation. George W. Hill received $456,415 as president of the American Tobacco company and appeared to be a safe third.

These figures do not represent America's largest incomes, however, since many persons who get only small salaries or no salaries at all have large incomes from investments. The treasury reported recently that 41 persons paid taxes last year on 1930 incomes of $1,000,000 or more.

Behind the top three in salaries or other remuneration came H. M. Stromberg, who got $332,267 as supervisor of production for Loew's, and Nicholas M. Schenck, who was paid $318,881 as president.

The $300,000 bracket included: W. C. Fields, $255,000, and Deanna (Edna Mae) Durbin, $209,833, both paid by Universal Pictures Company, Inc.

Bing Crosby was paid $150,000.

Two Injured In Train Collision

HOUSTON, May 8 (AP)—Two members of the train crew of the Missouri Pacific passenger train, the Houstonian, were hurt this morning when the Houston-bound train crashed into the rear of a freight train near Hardin, 33 miles east of Houston.

Mallory McDonald, special representative of the Missouri Pacific offices here, said that the Houston office had received mangled reports on the wreck, since the telegraph wires had been torn down. McDonald added that according to the railroad's first reports, no passengers were hurt, although Engineer E. L. Drane and Fireman W. Smith, both of Houston, had been injured.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farney and son, J. W., Jr., will leave Friday for McCamey where they will make their home. Farney is being transferred by the Shell Oil company.

Editorial — Frozen Food Locker Program Will Help Farmer's Standard

One of the outstanding sociological problems of the United States is the low living standard of the farmer, whose nose seems to be sticking a little tighter against the windmills all the time. Half the population of our cities are farm boys who came to town because they did not like the farm way of life. We doubt that the farmer can be blamed for having to live like he has, but nevertheless he hasn't had as many of the nice luxuries as his city-bred followers of these vocations have enjoyed. But here and there we see new improvements cropping up for the farmer: farm children laboriously do their homework by the pitifully dim light of kerosene lamps, for rural electric lines are spreading a web across the country. Roads are growing better so that the farmer is not so badly isolated as he used to be. Little by little rural schools are being improved and thus a great injustice to the younger generation is being removed. Another thing that has turned up to help the farmer along is new refrigerating techniques which have made possible the building of frozen food locker plants. These locker plants may do more than you think to improve the standards of living of farm families. Tradition has it that farmers always sit down to bountiful meals. It is not so. With limited income, farm wives have had to pinch pennies at the grocery store in the most careful way. These frozen food locker plants will help the farmer eat more. In these lockers the farmer can store beets, hogs, fresh fruits and vegetables for indefinite keeping. This will make possible eating any kind of fresh meat or vegetable any time of the year. It will save the farmer money on his meat and vegetable bill. And in turn, the farmer's wife will buy more staples and other groceries at the store from money saved. Organization of a rural cooperative to build a locker plant in Big Spring is underway now. We hope that the rural people meet with quick and lasting success in this endeavor.

Man About Manhattan— King Sisters, Singers, Are Really Sisters

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—Unlike the Six King Sisters, the Four King Sisters are really sisters. . . . Their names are Alyce, Donna, Louise and Yvonne. . . . Though they are known for their harmony singing in the air, on records, and with Alvin Karpis' orchestra, they are authorities on Mormonism and the church of the Latter Day Saints. Their uncle is Senator William King of Utah. Their great-grandfather was Percy P. Pratt, world traveler and missionary who preached Mormonism in England, Australia. He was killed by a mob in the midwest 80 years ago. Louise, who is 25 and the oldest of the sisters, is married to Alvin Karpis, the orchestra leader; Alyce, whose birthday is Aug. 14, is 23. Donna is 21, and Yvonne, the baby, is 19.

When they are in the East they live in a big house at Englewood, New Jersey, but their real home is in California. Adhering rigidly to tenets of their faith, they neither drink nor smoke. Each first Sunday in the month is a fast day, and the money thus saved on food is given to charity. At the moment they are on Broadway in one of the major picture houses. They like it here but grow weary explaining that the Mormons stopped having more than one wife 80 years ago. Don Freeman is an actor, publisher, and illustrator. His illustrations have appeared regularly in the metropolitan press. He is also the editor and publisher of Newsstand, a one-man newspaper. And on Broadway, he is cast as Harold Webster in William Saroyan's "The Beautiful People." Lots of parties around town for Maximo Avila Camacho, brother of the president of Mexico. He's a guest in Manhattan and his favorite entertainer is Tito Guizar, a guitarist and grandson of a former president of Mexico. Elmer Rice, who has been a successful playwright for 20 years and who has a grown son who is a drama critic appears much younger than he really is. . . . He doesn't seem a day over 35. . . . Franchot Tone has been a visitor for two days and is at the Pierre. . . . Only about three more openings between now and June, which means that, as a theatrical season, 1940-41 is pretty well washed up. . . . Seasons' end holds few terrors for Hellpoppin, Tobacco Road, Separate Rooms, and Life With Father. . . . These ancient ones go on endlessly, it seems, like Tennyson's river. Separate Rooms was labeled a failure and generally ignored by the critics. But it had that indefinable thing known as audience appeal. . . . Word of mouth advertising gained it a new life, and it has been doing well for more than a

Someday I'll Find You

BY MARGARET WIDDEMER

CHAPTER THREE
CHANGE OF FRONT
"Too long, I'll say, Hey, Martin, this is Eileen. Come round."
"Sure. Straight from New Zealand?"
"Why New Zealand?"
"Oh, that's where I'm going for the moment. Not for long, just for the ride. I'll bring you back a moa. Know what moas are? I don't."
"Something in a crossword."
"I couldn't use a cross word to go—gosh!" The music had stopped, and directly opposite the big wall clock "The clock right" He'd stopped fooling.
"Afraid so."
"Lord, I'll just do it. Good-bye, you sweet kid."
He kissed her quickly and lightly. As suddenly, almost, he was gone. Something had tinkled at her foot. Something which had caught at the clip at her neckline—she had felt the jerk. She did not stop to get it till the swing door closed, and she heard him calling "Taxi!" and a whirl of the starter.
The feeling of his face was still warm against hers, her body was warm from his hold. It had all gone so quickly, so quickly, that it seemed like something she had dreamed. Something she had always wanted to dream, rather than that which had come too briefly true. She stooped to the trinket glittering by her foot.
It was the sort of thing a man wears on a watch chain or in a buttonhole, or a girl on her charm bracelet. A tiny gold ski, delicate and perfect. She turned it over, holding it by its ring. It was inscribed: "M. M. D." and had a date of three years back. Under the date was: "Golden Ski Championship," and the name of a famous international meet. Something a man would hate to lose more than his fraternity pin.
She dropped it into her white silk handbag, then fished it out and anchored it to the lining by a safety pin. She must have it safe to give back.
But she couldn't give it back. He was gone, and she didn't even know his last name.
"But she would give it back."
She moved slowly back into the smoke-heavy main room. The band was back to swing again; some of the dancers were going crazy, others were cheek to cheek in eye-stut slow motion in corners.
A good party. Just the usual traditional good post-graduation party. She saw with faint surprise, as if she had come back a very long way, from somewhere, Jordan Estill moving over to her. He had a worried frown. Jordan Estill. . . . She had forgotten there was any such person.
"Where on earth were you?" he said. "I was worried."
"Dancing," Eileen said.
"The crowd hid you, when you bumped down—darn that fool Huhn!—and when I got round to you you were gone."

"I'm here now."
"What's the matter, Eileen? Were you hurt? Did you faint or anything?"
"Not a thing." Suddenly she stifled. "Jordan, you were right. Let's quit this party. Come on to the Ounderdunks."
Jordan looked relieved.
"We really should have done it," he said, "in the first place."
Chill Party
Denver is a city of magnificent distances. And Jordan's old car broke down once. Not more than usual. It merely needed a little adjustment of the kind that he knew how to give. But to Eileen, tense with excitement, Jordan, in his evening clothes, very elegant even to the rubber gloves evening clothes demanded, was under the hood for at least an hour. Finally they were off again.
"Hurry!" she said.
"There isn't any great hurry," Jordan said mildly. "The Ounderdunk parties always go on for an hour more than this, and we're almost there."
"I want to get there before the Willason party gets away," she said.
"That's all right. We will. They are on a special train. It doesn't go out until—" he looked down at his wrist watch—"One twenty. I had to make some of the arrangements."
She leaned back, drawing a long breath. She relaxed enough to take out her vanity and begin putting herself in order. She looked down into the tiny glass to see what Martin had seen. The great brown eyes were shining. She looked seawy, gay, excited. She must look good. She must look as if Jordan Estill might have a chance with her. She must swing into the stuffy old Ounderdunk party like a small princess deigning.
"I appreciate your doing this," Jordan said earnestly as they got out. "You know how it is. The Ounderdunks mean a lot to the university."
Eileen pretended not to hear him. She was sweeping into the Ounderdunks' wide hall, in its party array of palms and cotton-gloved servingmen, head high, eyes ahead. The polite orchestra was still playing. The long vista of rooms was half empty. Mrs. Ounderdunk, high-bosomed, white-waved, over-sweetly beaming, came forward, hands out. She believed in encouraging the young, and also in the marriage of young instructors.
"So glad to see you," she murmured. "So sorry you were delayed."
No Luck
Jordan was able to say that the car had broken down, and did say so. Mrs. Ounderdunk's black velvet bosom supporting its orchids, lifted sympathetically. "Now, never mind. I quite understand. I don't mind in the least. Come back to the refreshment room. You must be very hungry after all that singing. Miss Gardner. Your good aunt has been quite wondering about her little girl."

Ordinarily Eileen would have been tempted to point out that Aunt Louise was no better than anybody else. But tonight she had only one idea.
"Has the Willason party gone?" she demanded, as they were shepherded out of the hall and into the dining room beyond, still impressive and gleaming with candles.
Before Mrs. Ounderdunk could answer, there were voices at the top of the stair. The party was streaming down. Congressman, one important statesman Eileen remembered from a magazine cover, two or three older men and women, a couple of girls. She ran from the dining room, but the hall was full of others.
Miss Willason was in the center of the descending group, more beautiful than ever in the long red cape she had thrown over the gown she had spoken over. She might have ridden a whole circuit of white horses in her World War girlhood, but eyes sparkling, red lips laughing back to the hatched-faced senator behind her, she scarcely looked thirty.
One arm was thrust through Martin's. Martin himself was talking to one of the young secretaries, a handsome girl in a black dinner dress with black hair brushed shining smooth.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds— Glitter Pays Dividends, Even To Visitor In Land Of Movie Stars

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Just to prove how important it is to bring your glitter along in Hollywood, even if you're not a star, I give you Limsey Piew's story of the navy men and the chairs.
Lieut. Ray C. Needham, flying officer on the U.S.S. Saratoga, and Commander John Poppen, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., medical division, are technical-advising on "Diva Bomber," the service picture.
Lieutenant Needham had been wearing his uniform that day. Commander Poppen was in mufti.
"You ought to wear your uniform around here, Commander," Limsey suggested, conversationally.
The commander smiled, shook his head. Not long afterward, when the two officers were standing around during a wait between scenes, the service boy approached the uniformed lieutenant with a smile and a chair. "Here you are, Lieutenant," he said. Then, to the superior officer:
"I'll get you one in a minute, Doc!"
Commander Poppen, chucking, reflected that perhaps he had better wear his uniform around there.

There may be exceptions, but a real "comeback" should be preceded by a "going-away"—especially M. M. can be arranged to spend the interim in a play, preferably a hit play, on Broadway.
It was a "heavy" meal in that studio lunchroom the other day. This was the line-up: Edward G. Robinson, George Raft with Marlene Dietrich, John Garfield—and in walked Victor Jory.
Rodeo Royal Line Grows
SHERIDAN, Wyo.—Pretty Barbara Bent has been chosen as flag-bearer for this year's Sheridan Rodeo—a job which means she'll be lady-in-waiting next year and queen in 1942. The 1941 queen will be vivacious Mary Kool Hurst with Audrey Gebo as lady-in-waiting, who'll be the 1942 queen.

Alcop And Kintner— Straws In The Wind Indicate A Change In Washington Trends; More British Aid Due

By ALSOOP AND KINTNER
WASHINGTON, May 8 — The president's approval of the new bomber program was a step far more positive and significant than his order for the Atlantic patrol, his release of additional merchant ships for the British, or any of the other ineffectual half-measures which have recently been the order of the day.
For if the president meant what he said in his letter asking Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson to expand bomber output, he has at last half-consented to an end to "business-as-usual." There is some dispute as to whether he really did mean what he said. The degree of civilian sacrifice to be required to produce the bombers remains to be settled between the war department and the office of production management.
The allotment of first priority to bomber or shipping production must be fought out between the war and navy departments. These issues do not seem to have been squarely faced in the protracted White House conference that preceded the president's move.

Yet by ordering the bomber program, the president has taken the first step along a road which can only have one end. If the bombers are to be turned out in time, civilian sacrifices must be very considerable indeed, in automobiles and other lines of heavy consumer goods. And the navy must relinquish its present first call on raw materials and semi-finished products unless the bomber squadrons desperately needed now are to wait on a two ocean fleet that cannot be finished until 1946. These things being so, and the president having openly acknowledged the need for the bombers, he can hardly draw back.
The fact that the bomber program has at least gone through is evidence that able men, with some notion of the scope and character of the problems confronting them, can always get a job done in the end. When Robert A. Lovett and John McCloy were brought into the war department about Christmas time from a New York bank and law office, the prospects were dark indeed.
Before they had been in the department two weeks, they grasped the obvious inadequacy of the air program. They sensed its weakness in bomber schedules. And they realized that the heart of the difficulty was planning wrong end to, by contracting for finished goods rather than expanding the facilities for making finished goods. They immediately prepared a revision of the air program, with particular emphasis on expansion of facilities for the increased bomber output it was already clear Britain would desperately need. Their revision was in form for a decision within a few weeks. But first the various obstacles in their path had to be surmounted.
The obstacles were so numerous that their position seemed hopeless for a time. The air corps was then disorganized, and in subsection to the ground officers in the army bureaucracy. The army itself had to be won over. The OPM and the army divided authority over the air program, and the high officials of the OPM, among them William S. Knudsen, were disinclined to believe that the air program was inadequate.
Furthermore, the doctrine was current at the OPM that the job could not be done, and to this argument was added the argument that it did not need to be done. The president was beset by conflicting advice from all these sources, and had only the words of Lovett and McCloy that bold and difficult steps must be taken. It is hardly to be wondered at that he deferred a decision until his advisers could be somewhat more unanimous.

One by one, however, the obstacles were cleared away. First the army approval was obtained. Then Lovett and McCloy achieved increased influence by their appointments as assistant secretaries of war. Then the division of authority between the OPM and army was largely resolved in the army's favor, by a quiet assumption by Lovett of the responsibility the OPM seemed too timid to use. Finally, the OPM argument that "it could not be done" was met by documented evidence to the contrary, including a showing that the machine tool plants would be able to meet the new program's requirements. Thus, in the end, the problem went to the president again, and the second application was successful.
As was noted above, certain questions remain to be settled before the bomber program can go through at full speed. Nevertheless, the president's reluctance to go the whole hog all at once does not diminish the significance of the new step. Furthermore, other signs of a changing atmosphere have almost become visible of late.
One was the order to pool all available machine tools, taking them from civilian purposes and converting them to defense uses wherever possible. Under consideration for six months, this order was not issued because of the civilian sacrifices it entailed.
Its eventual issuance was another indication that the period of business as usual is drawing to a close.
Then, too, there was the magnificent speech on Tuesday from Lovett's and McCloy's chief, Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson. Secretary Stimson told the people the blunt and disagreeable truth, in blunter and more understandable terms than they have ever heard it before.
These are no more than straws in the wind, to be sure. The bomber program, the machine tool order, the Stimson speech. . . . such things as these do not insure final fact-finding and fact-disclosing by the president. But if the wind is blowing as they indicated, then perhaps the time of fact-finding and fact-disclosing is not so far off as these last stagnant weeks in Washington have made it seem.
(C. 1941, N. Y. Tribune, Inc.)

How To Torture Your Wife

Among the vagaries of movie casting, consider the strange fate of Dan Dalley, Jr.
Dalley, a handsome blond lad with the leading-man stamp on him, is getting ahead as a character-heavy. His first movie, "The Mortal Storm," made him a learning Nazi storm trooper; the jeering, bumptious "champ" of "Ziegfeld Girl" and the smooth, villainous heel of "Washington Melodrama" are typical of his assignments since.
And where did he get his training for these sinister roles?
Why, he came to pictures from a juvenile lead in the musical comedy, "I Married an Angel."
Busy in one picture and "rumored" for another, Gloria Swanson seems already to have made a triumphant return to this scene of past triumphs.
But it makes you wonder how eagerly she'd have been sought for a return had she allowed herself to become a Hollywood hanger-on—instead of an independent and prosperous business woman in the east.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRIEZE

NEW YORK, May 8.—Jack Doyle, the "Wizard of Odds," has shifted from the Reds to the Cards. They're now 6-5 to cop with the Dodgers and Reds even choices for second place. . . . A horse named Noon Hour came in at Churchill Downs the other day and at the very appropriate odds of 13 to 1. . . . Cubs now are talking of getting a good pitcher from the Reds for Hank Leary. . . . You should have heard General Pheasant of the boxing commission roar when one of the promoters along the subway asked for permission to stage Sunday fight shows. . . . Ben Bernie's crew will furnish the music at the Freakness testimonial in honor of Earl Benda at Baltimore tomorrow night.

Recoup Department

Some of Porter's Cap's faithful followers straggled in from Derbytown yesterday reporting they got part of their dough back at a big cock fight near Louisville last Sunday. Birds from 11 states were entered and the festivities were attended by more than 300 addicts.

Sports Tabloid

Mike Jacobs has just about made up his mind on July 28 for the Louis-Simon Encore. . . . Guessing on the dough involved in the Billy Herman deal ranges from $20,000 to $65,000. . . . (The Associated Press said 50 grand, which probably is as near as any.) . . . Jimmy Wilson warned the Dodgers the Cards are plenty tough and accused them of high riding on the base paths. "They want to play football—and for keeps," growled Wilson. . . . Frank Leahy is getting up a story for one of the big weeklies. . . . Most of the smart guys look for Billy Soose to beat Ken Overlin tomorrow night, but darned if we can see those 5-9 odds against old Ken. He's apt to fool around and B wouldn't hurt.

If the Cardinals can do it On a steady diet of pills, Mebbe Prothro wouldn't due it

Dies Declares Anti-Drafting Move Underway

By The Associated Press
Rep. Martin Dies stepped up his campaign for the United States senate by declaring last night that the American peace mobilization is advising young men in the east how to escape the draft.

Speaking at Gainesville, the chairman of the house committee on un-American activities asserted that the organization has gained thousands of recruits and "is seeking jobs in aircraft and other defense industries for its members and spreading Nazi propaganda designed to impede the defense program and undermine the morale of conscriptees."

Carrying on his campaign in a talk at Plainview, Rep. Lyndon Johnson urged that the United States become the strongest nation in the world. He asserted that essential war material was lacking at army camps he recently visited.

Johnson was scheduled to speak at Greenville at 3 p. m. today. He expected to attend a reception at Dallas Saturday morning.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, another senatorial candidate, spent yesterday in Dallas conferring with workers at his campaign headquarters.

He was scheduled to deliver a radio address at 8:30 p. m. Friday over the Texas Quality network.

Arlon E. (Cyclone) Davis, another senatorial candidate, said he would make his opening campaign speech at Mount Vernon at 1 p. m. Saturday.

At Austin Joe T. Stedham, representing the joint labor legislative board, said that Texas labor is considering the advisability of entering a candidate in the senatorial race because "no candidate who has so far announced has definitely expressed his stand with respect to laboring classes."

Mummy In Panhandle Cave
KENTON, Okla. — A large Indian skeleton, estimated to be at least 300 years old, excavated from a cave shelter in the Oklahoma Panhandle, has been added to the museum here. The skeleton is partly mummified. When found, it still had traces of buckskin clothing about it.

Only five states, all in the South, reported more than 1,000 lumber mills each at the last census. These were North Carolina, 1,879; Alabama, 1,573; Mississippi, 1,277; Georgia, 1,083; and Virginia, 1,068.
