

Madrid Govt. Appeals To League Of Nations

Labor To Ask Federal Law On Short Week

30-Hour Statute Advocated As Means Of Mastering Unemployment

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 27 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor threw its strength back of the 34-hour work-week as "the only means of mastering unemployment," at the annual convention today.

The convention directed its executive council to ask congress for enactment of the short week measure into national law, declaring such a statute would "protect from future depressions."

Security Act Safeguards

The convention yesterday heard President William Green of the AFOL call for an amendment to the social security act to protect the gigantic old age reserve fund from congressional "whims."

Pointing out the old age fund would reach an estimated $46,000,000 by 1980 and payment of annuities would depend on congressional appropriations, Green said: "There is a danger congress might get whimsical and refuse to make these appropriations—or use the fund for some other purpose."

"The payment of these annuities must be guaranteed without a peradventure of doubt."

Other Amendments

An amendment to earmark the old age reserve would be among many the federation would send to congress this winter, Green said. Others now being drafted would:

1. Extend employment insurance and the compulsory old age annuity plans to cover agricultural workers and all industrial employes.
2. Increase the maximum federal contribution for old age pensions from $15 to $25 a month.
3. Have the federal government contribute to the annuity system and reduce the workers' contribution.
4. Provide for federal collection of the entire employer-paid unemployment insurance payroll tax, with subsequent grants to state funds.

Hazard As Basis

State legislatures, Green said, would be asked to set up "pooled-fund" type of unemployment insurance, with payments based on the "hazard of unemployment" and to increase the size of old age pensions.

If a constitutional amendment were found necessary to validate any part of this program, Green said, the federation would support it.

He indicated also that further amendments would be proposed as experience dictated. Asked whether he had talked to "the administration" about the proposed changes, Green said he had not, but the social security board had called for suggestions.

Rehearsal For Show Started

Lions Club Will Sponsor Variety Entertainment On December 8

Various acts of the Lion's Club big variety show to be held in the municipal auditorium, Tuesday, December 8, have already gone in to rehearsal, according to an announcement today by Douglas Doan, associated with radio station KBST, who is getting the show ready for the Lions.

The show, which promises to present upwards of thirty acts, is to be presented as a fast-moving vaudeville show even though amateurs are to compete exclusively, Doan stated. There will be two or three divisions to the mammoth show, yet the acts will be presented in fast enough tempo that the entire show will not occupy more time than is ordinary for such events, he explained.

Among the many acts already billed, together with the firms sponsoring their presentation, are: Bob Pinkston's Hawaiian trio, the Dairyland Products company; the girls' trio from the high school pep squad, Albert M. Fisher company; Mildred White, torch singer and Mary Wade Cooper, accompanist; Humble Oil company, C. L. Rowe; Mary Ann Dudley and Dean Miller, impersonators; Dudley's variety store; and Joe Robert Myers, song stylist, with Tommy Brooks, accompanist, Myers Modern shoe shop.

It is intended that duplication of musical numbers will be avoided during the show and that not too many acts of the same character will be billed for the big show, Doan declared. Other amateurs are requested to appear for assignment of their sponsors and classification of their acts. KBST offices and studios in the Crawford Hotel have been offered to the Lion's club for this purpose.

Persons wanting to see the show are urged to buy their tickets now. Sale of tickets is under the direction of the girl's pep squad of the Big Spring high school.

Sir Basil Zarahoff, 'Mystery Man' Of Arms Deals, Dies

Powerful European Figure Succumbs At Monte Carlo

MONTE CARLO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Sir Basil Zarahoff, 86, so-called "mystery" armaments salesman, died here today.

Zarahoff was accounted one of Europe's wealthiest men. In recent years he had lived the life of a retired country gentleman.

Sir Basil, whose fortune was built largely from armament, ship building, oil and banking enterprises, once was reputed to hold the controlling interest in Monte Carlo gambling concessions, but he never gambled himself.

Mentioned in Inquiries

He gained vast wealth and a world-wide reputation as a "maker and breaker of kings," through deals in armaments and munitions of such scope as to be almost beyond imagination.

During the last two years of his life two of the world's greatest powers sought to draw aside the veil of secrecy which cloak the armament king's existence. His name was linked prominently with arms investigations in both the United States and Great Britain. The fact that little factual information could be gained concerning Sir Basil's life and his activities in armament deals served to build up his position as a "mystery man." The years of greatest activity were those preceding and during the world war.

Physicians ascribed his death to a heart attack. He has seemed in excellent health for years, spending the last few years in Europe's most famous resorts.

Kryl Program This Evening At 8 o'Clock

Famed Conductor Brings Symphony Orchestra To City Auditorium

Hailed by critics as one of the outstanding organizations of its kind in the world, Bohumir Kryl's symphony orchestra appears in Big Spring tonight in a concert at the municipal auditorium. The program, to start at 8 o'clock, is under the sponsorship of the Big Spring high school municipal band.

Kryl himself heads the organization. An able conductor, he also is one of the most remarkable cornetists in the world, and his solos are a featured part of the program.

The Big Spring appearance is one of only a few in this section of the state for the Kryl organization, which, now on a coast-to-coast tour, is entering upon its 32nd consecutive season. It has, during the three decades, given over 12,000 concerts. Indicative of the success of the program is the fact that the orchestra plays many repeat engagements each year.

In addition to the symphony selections, the program includes Kryl's cornet solos, numbers by Margery Maxwell, concert and operatic dramatic soprano, and selections by Cronelia Bona, harp soloist.

Readers of The Herald will have an opportunity to see for themselves, through the bright eyes of the two delighted children, all the wonders of Santa Claus land. As Christmas nears, the fascinating story of the trip of Billy and Betty to Toyland is to be pictured in a daily strip every day for four weeks including Christmas eve.

The meeting of the tots with Jack Spratt and his wife; their encounter with Jack the Giant Killer; the parody of the Christmas trees; the true story of Humpty Dumpty who is developed wasn't hurt at all by his great fall; the inspiring story of the Christmas Chimes... all are included in this delightful new picture story.

The first strip appears in The Herald today—and will continue every day until Christmas.

Search Fails To Uncover Trace Of Pair

Rangers Continue Probe Of Disappearance Of Texas Hunters

SAN PERLITA, Nov. 27 (AP)—The search for Luther and John Blanton hunters who have been missing on the vast King ranch for nine days, was at a standstill today as rangers continue to push an investigation of the mystery.

Six mounted men led by Constable Ernest Oakes failed to find a trace of the two men last night.

Ranger Captain Bill McMurray after tracing every clue he said he could find, expressed conviction that the missing hunters had been killed on the ranch.

"They were either killed and taken off the ranch, or taken off the ranch and killed," the ranger said he believed.

He said a thorough search of the area in which they were last seen had failed to reveal any sign of what had happened to them.

"It isn't reasonable that they could have 'just disappeared,'" he said.

Watch for Buzzards

Captain McMurray said searchers from now on would be watching the sky for buzzards, scavengers of the Southwest, circling over the spot where the Blantons might lay dead.

Captain McMurray said he was continuing to question Mexicans and others living in the vicinity of the ranch in hope of learning something that might lead to an explanation of their fate. So far, he indicated, his questioning has been unproductive.

Part of Vast Cattle Empire

The portion of the King ranch on which the men were last seen is a 120,000-acre tract to which the Atwood estate of New York was reported heir.

Residents of Southwest Texas who know something of the nature of the terrain on the King ranch expressed grave doubt that a searching party would be able to find the bodies of the missing men, even if they were on the ranch.

They explained that there are some sections of the range so brushy that a man could be hidden without difficulty in its impenetrable thickets. The ranch is so vast and so matted with thorny brush that those who know it say a man could easily become lost and starve to death and never be found.

ROOSEVELT'S KIN NAMED PUBLISHER OF HEARST PAPER

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—William Randolph Hearst announced today the appointment of John Boettiger, President Roosevelt's son-in-law, as publisher of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Hearst's newspapers waged a strenuous campaign against the president's re-election.

The announcement followed settlement of a strike called by the American Newspaper Guild and supported by the Seattle Labor Council which forced suspension of the paper since Aug. 13. It was the only morning newspaper in the Pacific Northwest metropolis.

KING'S FRIEND IS GUARDED BY POLICE

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—British police guarded Mrs. Wallis Simpson, American friend of King Edward, today. They were apprehensive lest writers of threatening letters attempt to harm her.

A reliable source says Mrs. Simpson gets many antagonistic communications.

State To Pay Workers Early

Over Million Dollars Will Be Distributed Before Christmas

AUSTIN, Nov. 27.—The state this year will give its thousands of employes a chance to do their Christmas shopping out of their December pay checks. It will pour about $400,000 into Christmas trade channels in Austin, and more than $1,000,000 over the state.

Comptroller George H. Sheppard and Treasurer Charley Lockhart announced the state will issue the full December pay checks to all state workers before Christmas.

This will follow a custom of several years' standing. In other months, pay warrants are delivered the last day of the month.

The Christmas holiday for state workers will be defined soon, but the workers are sure of having their holiday start not later than noon of Christmas eve.

The payrolls of all departments, of the eleemosynary institutions, and of the university and all state colleges will be prepared early in December, so the salary warrants will be ready for distribution before offices are closed for Christmas.

COWBOY SINGER GIVEN OFFICIAL WELCOME TO CITY

Gene Autry, cowboy singer of Spring Friday morning by City Manager E. V. Spence. The meeting took place on the steps of the city hall. Autry is appearing on the stage at the Ritz theatre this afternoon and tonight.

Autry, Native Texan, Is Back In Home State

Cowboy Singer Here For Personal Appearances At Ritz Theatre

Gene Autry, a Texas boy who, by voice and personality, has attained wide popularity as an entertainer, returning to his home state for a series of personal appearances in Texas theatres. His engagements in this state started earlier in the week at El Paso, and today he comes to the stage of the Ritz theatre.

Autry spent Thanksgiving traveling, reaching Big Spring Thursday night. He was given an official welcome by city authorities this morning, and was ready to go on the stage at the Ritz this afternoon at 8:25 for his first show. Other shows are to be presented at 5:25, 7:25 and 9:25.

Born at Tioga, Autry still considers himself a Texan. His newest film, "The Big Show," has the Texas Centennial exposition as the background, and Autry was in Dallas only a few weeks ago to film scenes of the picture, just now released. He got his start as a radio singer in the Southwest, advanced to national network programs, and boosted his popularity later with phonograph recordings. The movies claimed him, and recently he has been busy in turning out western pictures which are featured by his songs, many of which he writes himself.

With Autry in the stage appearances is a company of four people, including Frankie Marvin who carries the comic part. Also with the cowboy actor is his famed horse, Champion. The trained animal, an experienced performer, will be seen on the stage as a part of the act.

The Autry show carries its own stage scenery and public address system.

START PAVING WORK ON NOLAN STREET

District WPA office today announced that a water system extension project at Brownfield would be resumed at Brownfield Saturday. The project was started once before but suspended in favor of a street paving job.

Govt. Will Operate Vessels To Alaska

Agreement Made with Strikers To Man Relief Ships

(By the Associated Press)

The government moved today to send emergency food-laden ships to Alaska and indicated a similar plan of relief for Hawaii. Food supplies at both places have been alarmingly depleted by the ship tie-up resulting from the west coast maritime strike.

International aspects of the widespread strike were intensified with the announcement of boycotts of American vessels by French and Mexican workers.

While this news on foreign fronts was disturbing, the government untangled part of the west coast shipping tie-up by obtaining verbal agreements with striking unions to man federally-operated relief ships to Alaska "for the duration of the emergency."

Interior department authorities moved at high speed to get an emergency ship under way to Sitka and Cordova within five days to relieve what was described as a situation threatening to become serious.

While thousands of striking men sat down to skimpy Thanksgiving dinners yesterday, union negotiators and government representatives worked out plans for using two fishing vessels and one government ship to maintain 10-day service between Seattle and the North territory.

Italo-German Recognition Is Protested

Citizens Of City Dig Tunnels For Protection From Shells

GENEVA, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Spanish government appealed to the League of Nations today against Germany and Italy under the covenant dealing with "any war or threat of war."

Madrid asked a special meeting of the league council to consider whether international peace is endangered in view of Italo-German recognition of the insurgent regime.

Americans Transferred To Port Of Barcelona

MADRID, Nov. 27 (AP)—Beleagued people of Madrid began today to tun their bomb-torn city into a labyrinth of underground passages. Householders were tunneling from cellar to cellar to provide places of refuge in the event their homes are brought down.

They sought means of escape from asphyxiation, during devastating shelling by fascist artillery, by house-to-house burrowing.

General Kleber, socialist commander, declared that the government forces would "drive the insurgents from the gates of Madrid by Christmas."

At Valencia, 73 Americans awaited evacuation from the border following a trip from the closed U. S. embassy in Madrid.

There were 22 other Americans, mostly newspapermen and businessmen, who stayed in the embassy in Madrid within sound of the battle for possession of the University City area.

Insurgents Blocked Off

Fascists fought forward slowly in efforts to reach the sides of their 2,000 comrades marooned by government lines around the clinic hospital building which an international column of anti-fascists has attacked for two days.

The foreigners fighting in the defense of Madrid halted their activities for a rest, but the government said the insurgents in the building were blocked off on three sides.

British Cabinet Talks Belligerent Rights

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The British cabinet met in a sudden "emergency" session today and discussed the question of belligerent rights for both sides in the Spanish war, informed sources said.

Cabinet members were called together after the Admiralty announced that the Spanish insurgent leader, General Francisco Franco had had accepted to British demands to establish safety zones for neutral shipping at Barcelona, which port France had threatened to bombard.

At the same time a sub-committee on international non-intervention in Spain met in the British foreign office and decided to refer to the full committee a plan for sending neutral observers to Spanish borders to guard against importations of foreign arms.

Suit On Gasoline Pump Removal Heard In District Court

Suit by the City of Big Spring against B. A. and W. G. Rueckart for a mandatory injunction went to trial this morning in the 70th district court.

The city is seeking, at the request of the state highway department, to have gasoline pumps and an awning moved back six feet off of what it contends is N. Gregg street.

Defense counsel sought to show during the morning session that the property was not in reality on the street.

Litigation resulted when the federal roads bureau informed the state highway department it could not accept the highway No. 9 north until the pumps and structure were moved back.

LONGHORNS RALLY TO DEFEAT MUSTANGS, 9 TO 6

VISITORS STAGE A HARD FIGHT

Knocked around considerably by a Sweetwater high school football team that provided a very stubborn defense at times and tossed a scare into Longhorn fans by grabbing a 6-0 lead in the first chukker, Steers rallied and brushed the Ponies for a 9-6 win, keeping the situation fairly well in hand during the last half.

The Thanksgiving Day contest, final of the season for both clubs and the finale for twelve Steers and nine Mustangs, was a hard fought battle between two evenly matched aggregations.

Snaring Harris' pass in the first period, Worley put the visitors into the lead, but Madison turned in a brilliant run behind good interference to tie the count in the second period, and Woodrow Harris made up for this twirling ruse by booting one through the uprights to put the Steers into the lead.

Simmons, Mustang pivot man who did a very poor job, passed over Worley's head late in the game as the Mustangs were preparing to kick out of dangerous territory, and the ball rolled into the end zone, giving the Steers two points and a 9-6 lead.

Three Big Spring boys wound up the season with jam-up performances and will probably rate all-district. They are Harris, tackle; Wilson, guard; and Madison, back. Madison will have strong competition, however. Wilson and Harris have turned in fine performances in every game played this season. McCullough was another standout in the Sweetwater game.

Intercepts Pass After battling around in mid-field early in the first quarter, Bruner intercepted Madison's pass and was brought down on the Big Spring forty by Hildreth. Two line plays and a pass failed and Bruner kicked out on the twenty-two. Madison made one yard on a reverse and Williams scampered wide around left end for five yards gain. Harris then attempted a pass and Worley, breezing down the field at top speed, intercepted the toss and cut over to the sideline, going over standing up for the first tally of the game. Harris was passing to Burrus.

Late in the stanza Big Spring started a drive but lost the ball on a fumble. Madison and Williams carried the ball to the Sweetwater.

Yardstick Of Steer-Mustang Game

Statistics of the Big Spring-Sweetwater football game: Big Spring vs Sweetwater. Includes: First Downs, Passes Completed, Fumbles Recovered, etc.

Yards from scrimmage:— LeRoy Wood—38 yards in 14 plays, 2.3 yards average. Louie Madison—65 yards on 14 plays, 4.6 yards average. Weldon Bigony—14 yards in four tries, 3.5 yards average.

Robert Williams—23 yards in seven tries, 3-4 yards average. Madison passed five times, completing three for total of 45 yards (Bigony, Burrus, Bigony). Williams passed six times, completing two for total of 20 yards (Madison 2). Wood passed four times, completing one for 11 yards (Burrus).

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—One half of the nomination for the Rose Bowl game have been decided, that of the Pacific Coast winner, but the other may have to wait until after the LSU-Tulane game in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers are sure to get the invitation for one of the bowl games, either the Rose Bowl or Sugar Bowl, but they are trying for the one on the Pacific Coast.

Biggest game in the east is the annual Army-Navy classic in Philadelphia, which is expected to attract more than 100,000. For the first time in several years the Sailors will go into the game the favorites.

Spartans Have Monopoly On Track Honors

Michigan State Holds Intercollegiate AAA Cross-Country Title

A far as Eastern colleges' hopes of breaking Michigan State's monopoly of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. cross-country championship are concerned, their prospects look anything but bright for the immediate future. The Spartans have won the team and individual championships four times in a row.

Robert Williams—23 yards in seven tries, 3-4 yards average. Madison passed five times, completing three for total of 45 yards (Bigony, Burrus, Bigony). Williams passed six times, completing two for total of 20 yards (Madison 2). Wood passed four times, completing one for 11 yards (Burrus).

Strong Team in '37 Waitie will be back for cross-country next fall. In addition to Waitie and Frey the Spartans will have the services of Harry Butler, a negro sophomore who developed his speed afoot over the hills of Van Cortlandt park.

Woodruff Far Back The spirit of the Spartan squad was down by Waitie, when the new champion swimmer from the Olympic team, some observers believe, merely will provide fuel for the dispute over leadership and squabbles among union members.

Two New Yorker Rivals Jeremiah T. Mahoney, New York jurist and former president, and Major Patrick J. Walsh, New York, who resigned as union head because he failed to swing an American boycott against the Berlin games, also will figure in the coming battle.

Both New Yorkers are candidates for the presidency. Mahoney has been outspoken in his opposition to Walsh and indicated he would fight any moves to elevate Walsh to the leadership of the union.

Quoting of Mrs. Eleanor Holm Jarrett, the United States' leading woman swimmer, from the Olympic team en route to Berlin because of her taste for champagne, and the suspension of Jesse Owens, negro sprinter, were almost sure to be convention battle points.

Another factor in the dispute will be Jack H. Rafferty, Houston, who was responsible largely for obtaining the convention for his city. Brundage Group Accused Rafferty said the "Brundage gang" would be his target because of efforts to shift the convention to Chicago after it had been awarded to Houston.

Daniel J. Ferris, New York, secretary-treasurer of the union, notified the membership last September that seven executive committeemen and 22 members of the board of governors had decided against holding the convention in Houston, and requested a vote.

Those who attended the Olympic Games felt they could not afford the expense or "loss of time" of journeying to Houston, according to Ferris, who added that "the convention, if held in Houston, would not be representative or successful."

Rafferty, a possible candidate for the presidency, hurriedly polled the membership in protest of the proposed shift, and the proposal was defeated.

Mrs. Elias George was the Thanksgiving guest of Mrs. J. O. Tamatt and other friends here.

Juniors Run Over Colts Here, 28 To 0

Stout Big Spring Forward Wall Repels Every S'water Threat

Beginning their scoring parade in the opening period when stocky little Buster Chaney drove through for a touchdown from the two-yard line, and adding scores in every period but the fourth, Ben Daniels' scrappy Devils closed out their season here Thursday morning by defeating the Sweetwater Colts, 28-0.

A stout Big Spring forward wall repelled every scoring thrust the visitors made and kept the Colts in their own territory most of the game.

Harold Creek, big wingman, gathered in an enemy flip midway of the second quarter and dashed more than 40 yards for the second touchdown and gave the locals their tally in the third period when he ran 80 yards to pay territory.

Robert Winslow came up with the fourth and final touchdown a few minutes later by taking the oval through the line.

CLAIMS ONE 'HONOR' SOOT STILLEY, Ind., Nov. 27 (AP)—Ken Stilley, Notre Dame shock troop left tackle in 1935, claims at least one distinction. Ken says: "I am the man who made it possible for Lynn Waldor to establish himself at Northwestern in the 1925 Notre Dame - Northwestern game. The Wildcats aimed their extremely fast reverse play at Stilley's position—with frequent success."

STAR SNAPPERBACK UNIVERSITY, Ala., Nov. 27 (AP)—Lamar Moe, Alabama center, is one of the best defensive pivots of the South. He "TO ME ARMS" should know his job—for Moe is one of the few "Bama" linemen who played their positions in high school. Moe is good at bucking up the line on running plays, and has an eagle eye for passes. In high school he once intercepted four aeriels in one game.

TO REVIEW OLB'EAER GAME Down at Houston, Cleburn sports commentator, Cy Leland, will review the Baylor-Rice game on the Cosden Traffic Cop program over WEAP at 7:30 Saturday evening. Cy will also give results of other Saturday games and interview one of the outstanding players of Saturday afternoon's game at Houston. The Cosden Traffic Cop program will play a new arrangement of "Only a Paper Moon" and "Prissy" Fraser in "It's a Sin to Tell a Lie,"—both request numbers. Lee and the Humming Birds will sing "A Star Fell Out of Heaven" and the Humming Birds will also harmonize in "My Buddy" and "It Ain't Right." The Higher Octaves will play a new arrangement of "Did You Mean It?"—and the Traffic Cop and his Little Pals will do another "Traffic Cop Club" skit.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 2 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

FORCED OUT OF RUGBY, RANKIN TURNS TO CRICKET OXFORD, England, Nov. 27 (AP)—Bernard Rankin, former Yale university halfback and pitcher, ended his English football career for the season when an old knee injury clipped him from the field.

But Rankin, recalling his pitching powers, decided to concentrate his efforts on cricket during the coming spring season. The knee, first injured during a football game in the United States, is not expected to prove troublesome at cricket.

period, but Rayburn smeared Worley for a three-yard loss on the next play and Reaves and McElroy failed to gain on line plays and Epper kicked to Madison on the sixteen.

After an exchange of punts the Mustangs gained momentum and lugged the ball to the Longhorn 34, losing the ball there on downs when Worley drove at the line and missed making a first down by inches.

As the second half grew old Smith replaced Bigony, sending Bruner to the backfield, and the Mustangs threatened early in the fourth quarter when Worley got loose from the Big Spring 43 to the 23. He picked up two yards on another line play, but on the next play fumbled momentarily and was dropped for an eight-yard loss.

MAYBE THE "experts" are really expert after all! Before the grid activity got underway this season, 145 sports commentators, in a survey made by a college news service, pick the Aggies, the Frogs and the Razorbacks as the jobs in the Southwest conference. With the end of the 1936 schedule just around the corner, the actual figures show these three teams leading the pack.

IF HAS been a madly fought, cut-throat season, just as the "experts" predicted. Many, in the pre-season survey, offered the opinion that "no team will go through the season undefeated." The pickers also correctly named the cellar team for the current race—the Texas Longhorns.

ONE COMMENTATOR seems to have read the crystal most prophetically when he wrote, in early September: "All of the teams can't finish out in front, but there is a lot of less difference in strength between the top and the bottom than has been the case for many a day."

OBIE BRISTOW was an interested spectator at the Steer-Mustang game yesterday. "After 20 years in sports you can't imagine what a relief it is to sit back and watch the others," Obie remarked.

INDIANS Adept at Fantomime SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP)—American Indians used "handies" as a practical means of conversation, Princess Nacoochee, the blue-eyed daughter of a Kiowa chief, told a meeting here. She explained that different tribes conversed by pantomime. Happiness, she said, was conveyed by motions signifying "You make the sun rise in my heart."

Miss Dorothy and Miss Mildred Rhonan arrived Thursday to spend the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Rhonan. They will return to Fort Worth Sunday where they are attending T. W. C.

AGED, BLIND, CHILDREN TO GET HELP FIRST UNDER PROVISIONS OF SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

NOVEMBER'S SOCIAL SECURITY checks under the phase of social security which provides for their care changes almost constantly. The map shows the states in which persons in each of these three groups were being aided according to November 9 reports.

The aged, blind and needy already are receiving government checks in many states. This feature of the social security program is explained today in the last of a series of articles.

By SIGMUND ARNE
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (UP)—This winter about 2,000,000 blind, aged, and the states giving the help, because many state laws had to be revised to meet the federal requirements. But here's the November outline:

Blind persons in 26 states and the District of Columbia received payments averaging $28.80 a month.

Needy old people in 40 states, Hawaii and the District of Columbia received payments averaging $18.50 a month.

Dependent children in 26 states and the District of Columbia received payments averaging $19.80 a month.

States Investigate

Their checks came from the states rather than directly from the federal government. The states are responsible for investigating applicants for such aid. After establishing the number needing help, the states apply for federal funds.

Their applications and rules are passed on by the social security board, then the national treasury sends lump sums to the state treasuries.

The federal funds must be matched by the state funds on a 50-50 basis for the aged and blind. For dependent children the federal government advances $1 to $18 for the first child and of $12 for every other child in a family.

In each case the state plans must meet certain minimum requirements, including:

1. Until 1940 checks to the needy aged may be denied until the individual is 70, but after 1940 aid must begin at 65.
2. No citizenship restriction can be set up to exclude a citizen of the United States.
3. No state can deny aid to a needy blind or aged person or needy child if he has lived in the state for five of the last nine years and for one continuous year previous to applying for help.

Rose Bowl Has Exiles

PASADENA, Cal. (UP)—Two Pasadena youths will not be permitted to witness a football game in the famous Rose Bowl for at least two years to come. They were caught smashing electric light bulbs in the tunnel leading to the bowl, and the judge sentenced them to two years of exile as far as the Bowl is concerned.

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. . . . ### GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals.

Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Some years ago, an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. 98 per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Just eat two tablespoons daily, either as cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Scotty Pattern In Chair Set

By RUTH ORR
Pattern No. 302

You probably don't permit Sandy on your best chair, but if you choose this set to protect the upholstery, it may save his feelings. We know from experience that Scotties are sensitive, but if he sees one of his countrymen decorating an armchair, he may feel that life isn't so bad, after all.

On the other hand, you may be one of that great army of people who love pets, but prefer them inanimate; here's just the thing for you for, by using mercerized crocheted cotton No. 30, you can make up a whole family of pets in a very short time.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-follow block-and-space diagram, also want crocheted hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 302 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address Big Spring Herald, Needlework Dept., P. O. Box 200, Station D, New York, N. Y.

Reading And Writing

By John Selby

John A. Lomax and his son Alan have a joint madness, which is the folk music of the land, particularly that of the South, and still more particularly, that of the genuine Southern negro.

Together they have explored all the mountain pockets and plantation hideaways they could find which seemed likely to turn up a ballad or a variant of a ballad, and in the course of all this, they have turned up a few prizes. The greatest of these is Huddie Ledbetter, better known as "Lead Belly."

Lead Belly is unique, because he is the only known man who can sing well enough to get himself out of two penitentiaries. He sang himself out of the Texas penitentiary, where he was a guest because he had been convicted of murder.

He picked up songs everywhere, in barrel houses and on levees and on prison farms and in numerous light districts. Sometimes he made up his own songs, and he rarely, according to Lomax, ever etched, left even so familiar a song as "Frankie and Albert" without having added something of his own to it—usually something very good. When he sings he plays his own accompaniment on a 12-string guitar; these change, too.

The Lomaxes devote the 242 pages of "Negro Folk Songs as Sung by Lead Belly" to an account of Lead Belly's lurid life, of his discovery and the succeeding associa-

Buna Edwards Makes Honor Roll At ACC

ABILENE, Nov. 27. (Sp.)—Buna Edwards, daughter of Mrs. Mary Edwards of Big Spring, was listed on the honor roll at the mid-semester report at Abilene Christian college this week, according to the records of Mrs. Clara Bishop, registrar.

Miss Edwards earned honor grades in biology and Bible.

Miss Hope Reed, junior from Colton, Calif., Miss LaVerne McGregor, junior of Troup, Tex., and Miss Cleone White, Abilene, earned honor grades in all of their six courses. Two blind boys in the college had honor grades in five subjects which was their full course.

Analysis of the honor roll shows that 328 students names are on the roll in one subject or more. A grade of B plus or above for the mid-semester report is an honor grade in A. C. C. Twenty students had honor grades in five subjects, 25 in four subjects, and 63 in three subjects.

tion, down to the day when, after confounding and entrancing many large audiences of white folks, Lead Belly left his temporary home in Wilton, Conn., for Shreveport, La. He left under a cloud, somewhat the worse for his sudden fame. For the benefit of the tender-hearted, however, it may be added that Lead Belly returned.

Most of the book is full of examples of Lead Belly's songs translated freshly into standard notation by Dr. George Herzog of Columbia university. These are marvelous, some of them. It is a pity that their flavor simply cannot be translated entirely, and that Dr. Herzog has not occasionally put down Lead Belly's accompaniments.

AN INDIVIDUAL PROBLEM

Commissioners investigating this and that with the laudable purpose of discovering remedies for unsatisfactory conditions here and yonder, make the mistake of considering the problem in the mass instead of individually. What we call the youth problem, for instance, is not a problem of youth as a class, but the individuals. What is an obstacle to one youth may be just a stepping stone for another youngster, and so with all so-called problems.

Much study is being given nowadays to what we call the tenant problem, and it is proper that it should be studied and bettered as quickly as possible. But to conclude that all land tenants are in the same class, and that what is good for one is good for all, is a mistake that will show itself when and if legislation is enacted to cure the ills, if that legislation undertakes to measure each tenant with the same yardstick or other standard.

There are thousands of farmers in the United States, generally comfortably situated, who began as tenants—there are other thousands who began as tenants and still are tenants and will be to the end of their lives. Some have no desire to shoulder the responsibilities of ownership, others have not the capacity to meet and conquer the problems that the land owner sometimes has to solve.

So the problem is an individual one. A statute, if one should be enacted, and if successful in accomplishing the desired end, must take the individual into consideration and ignore the mass. A tenant who shows ability to become and remain a land owner should be given opportunity to do so. The tenant who wishes nothing more than to be secure in tenancy should be given such assistance as he desires and can assimilate.

Rugged individualism is a characteristic of people in United States. So long as that individualism is used to advance its owner and not injure or destroy others, it is admirable. And it must be taken into consideration in any statute or regulation touching the tenancy problem.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—A writer I know, a cheery fellow, is wed to a lass whose father has forbidden him to enter his door. For nearly three years they have lived in a suburban community, and twice yearly the girl pays a visit to her father and mother.

But, neither the father nor the mother suspects that she is married. They fancy she is writing scenarios for a film company in Hollywood. Their letters are relayed by a friend who dwells in that delightfully mad place.

Recently the daughter flew in from the "coast" for a fortnight's visit and was rapturously acclaimed at the airport by her overjoyed family. Two weeks later, when it became time to return to the "coast," papa and mother accompanied daughter to the airport, accorded her a tearful adieu, and saw her plane disappear into a fiery red sunset.

It was just 20 minutes after this that the lass descended from the plane at Camden, N. J. A few moments later she got on another and came zooming back into Manhattan. As the big airliner came down the runway a tall, grinning fellow stepped from behind a convenient hangar, gathered her into a bear's hug. Then they ferried the river and took a suburban train for their Westchester home, a village, incidentally, that is hardly a stone's throw from the outskirts of the city.

Press Agent In A Fog

Marc Lachman reports the quandary in which Bernard Sobel found himself not long ago. As Ziegfeld's press agent, Sobel was asked to help publicize a motion picture based on the Glorifier's career. Then shortly afterward they induced him to assist with "Romeo and Juliet."

Beset with a thousand chores to perform, Sobel whirled down Broadway in a mental fog. "Hey," screamed a gad-about, "you look terrible—whatcha working on?" "Ah, yes," mumbled Ziggie's old press agent, "another picture—'Romeo and Ziegfeld.'"

A nightclub proprietor stopped me in Times Square just before dawn. He was quite unnerved and it takes a lot to unnerve one of those table cover bandits.

"I know New York is a place where anything can happen," he went on, "but something took place tonight that I

NEWS

BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Stock market situation worries new dealers. Rumors seen as brake to too rapid rise. Commodity price increase cause of concern. Curtailing buying feared if prices go too high.

Washes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27—Mild gloom hints are now coming from anonymous official new deal spokesmen. They have switched their feet from the accelerator to the brake. Simultaneously, stock marketeers have been disturbed by Washington rumors. Most disturbing is the one that the president is against all stock trading, considers it gambling and will continue to punish it. This one probably grows out of the fact that SEC and FRB have been getting hard boiled. Equally disturbing are the unsubstantial rumors that the capital gains tax will be altered. Then, on top of these two, they are revisiting that old one about a war in Europe, which will upset things here. Both the talk and the rumors are probably not as serious as they sound. The new dealers are up against the problem of keeping a rising business situation from rising too fast and getting out of hand. They seem to be just talking it down instead of up, temporarily, for that laudable purpose.

Prices

What disturbs them is that prices are going up, not stock market, but everything else. An official canvass shows that every major category of prices, except electrical equipment, has registered an increase since election. The bureau of labor statistics has officially announced that wholesale commodity prices increased nearly one per cent during the single week of November 14. This is a tremendous lift for a broad price table which generally fluctuates in tenths of one per cent. It brought the general commodity price level to the highest point since 1926. This level was two per cent above the same week last year. Arm products were up nearly 10 per cent above a year ago; miscellaneous commodities nine per cent; foods 1.5 per cent.

The extent of the increases in that one week was 2 per cent for semi-manufactured articles; food 1.1 per cent; finished products 0.6 per cent; industrial 2.3 per cent. What the new dealers are afraid of is that prices will go too high and curtail buying. But prices seem to be fairly well established as far as on a basis of new buying demand, and there is some question whether they can be effectively checked either by hints, official talk or otherwise.

Note—Add to this the fact that the greatest Christmas business in history is expected; that the new tax bill is forcing corporation money into wages and dividends, which should stimulate spending, if not investment; that political bickering has been removed from the national picture; that business is rare but cooperating with the new deal even if it kills them; that popular psychology is now more buoyant.

AAA Plans

Just before President Roosevelt left to fish for peace and barracuda in southern waters, he called

just can't believe. A fellow approached me and offered to lend me $10,000 without collateral. He said he'd heard I was in a jam and wanted to help me because he liked my club. He said the waiters were kind to him there. Can you defeat that? ... and the nightclub impresario reeled off into the night.

A Morgan Speaks

Slipping into his accustomed role of clam, J. P. Morgan declined to give ship news reporters a story when they ambushed him on a private deck on the Queen Mary. Like his father before him, the elderly financier does not encourage interviews and indeed is so loathe to give one that when such an event takes place it becomes front page news. A dozen reporters fired questions at close range—how was Europe, what about the election, did he believe recovery was here?

Finally Mr. Morgan broke his silence. A reporter had shouted, "What about war, Mr. Morgan, do you think there'll be war in Europe soon?" "I don't think," snapped J. P. M. It was his most lengthy retort of the year.

in his farm advisers for a private conference. It was more than half-way agreed then that the president would call important agricultural leaders of the country to Washington for a period of several days to frame new agricultural legislation. The call will probably be sent out through Agricultural Secretary Wallace after congress meets in January.

The idea will be to get the farm leaders who exert the heaviest pressure on congress to gather in the right place to exert pressure for a new AAA program. This is the way the original AAA was accepted in March, 1933.

The new program will come ostensibly from the farmers, as it did before, but the men who pull the wires here now have a fairly good idea of what it will be, because they will draft it and hand it over to some farm organization to sponsor. This also has been done before. After the AAA was invalidated, the farm leaders were called to Washington and suggested the soil conservation remedy prepared by AAA Administrator Chester Davis.

Therefore, there is reason for believing that the agricultural leaders will not recommend a constitutional amendment, but will urge a change in the soil conservation act so that federal control will be maintained. They will probably also favor production control.

Crop Insurance

The only people taking an interest in crop insurance at present are the wheat farmers in the so-called semi-arid regions. In these regions the farmers usually get only one or two good crops out of five, so they are naturally interested in insurance. Also, when they get a

To Guesses About Allred's Plans Is Added One That He Will Serve Term, Then Enter Private Practice Of Law

By RAYMOND BROOKS (Herald Austin Correspondent)

AUSTIN, Nov. 27.—Gov. Allred is having an experience typical of high public office, in that the rumor factories are manufacturing some new office or position for him, predicting he will resign to become a federal judge, and the like. And, of course, guessing is in order in inevitable, as to his appointments to state offices.

The guessers tried to project him into the United States senate race a year ago. So far, nearly always a Texas governor is prominently mentioned for nomination as vice president; but Texas already had furnished a vice-president this time, and Allred escaped that slant of expert prognostication.

The federal judge appointment idea has been revived for perhaps the third time. Now, because somebody has intimated that congress may consider creating another federal bench in Texas, the speculation has been revived. It all figured out to where Allred has been seated in $10,000 a year life appointment, taken out of any possible future senatorial race, and all the train of consequent events figured out.

Perhaps the only way to evaluate these guessing contests is just to make another guess. One is as good as another now. But one of the fair prospects is that Gov. Allred will finish his second term as governor, then open a law office in Austin, and settle down to the private practice of law.

That lacks all the color of high diplomacy and the juggling of national laws and public offices. But such a law practice would mean an income well above the $10,000 judicial salary. But at least, one excellent guess is that he will not resign the governorship during his final term for any federal appointment or any other reason.

good crop, the price is low. They usually have no wheat when the price is high. The AAA crowd seems to be resigned to trying the plan on wheat alone for the first year, realizing that these semi-arid farmers are probably the only ones who will join up to any great extent. You hear much less here about crop insurance since the campaign is over.

Fascist Chief Man Of Intellect As Well As Action

(By United Press)

Gen. Francisco Franco, who seems slated by impending events to become dictator of Spain, is a man of action but also one of intellect. He reads much, especially books on military strategy, history and political science.

It was no political "barbarian" who, when a rightist government placed him in a position of power, began at once to lay the groundwork of revolution. As head of the "Spanish West Point," built at Zaragoza by Primo de Rivera, father of Jose Antonio de Rivera, fascist leader recently executed by the loyalists at Alicante, he established the influence over other army officers which made him leader of the rebellion.

Last July, while Franco was growing rusty in the Canary Islands, where he had been virtually exiled as military governor, Calvo Sotelo, rightist leader, was slain in Madrid.

Francisco immediately flew to Morocco where the modern Moorish army he had built rallied to him. He took his Moors into Spain and with Seville as a base set about methodically to capture the key cities in the south of Spain.

While other leaders in the rebellion anxiously appealed for popular support, Franco quietly went about the grim business of war. He said: "There can be no compromise, no truce. The enemy knows our terms. We must defend the Catholic and Spanish heirloom of civilization against the Marxist heresy and Russian plague."

They were strong words, spoken by this little man who doesn't smoke, drinks only a little wine at dinner and is inordinately fond of his wife and two children. Somewhere between the extremes of brutality which occasionally have seemed to characterize Franco's war methods and of gentleness and charm which his family and friends have experienced is to be found the personality which makes him Spain's totalitarian dictator.

His friends in Spain have reported that his attitude toward the people is similar to that he exhibits toward his family—paternalistic and loving, but stern. He will always insist on discipline, they say.

Kiwanians, ABC-ers Hear Talks By Local Men, Visiting Showmen

Members of the local Kiwanis and American Business clubs met Thursday in the second joint session in a month. Kiwanians returning a visit that ABC-ers had made them recently.

A variety program was presented at the luncheon in the Settles hotel, with Carl Blomshild of the Kiwanis club in charge. Speakers included Doug Doan, representative of radio station KBST; Floyd Wright, who outlined the organization aims of the Kiwanis club; Darward Carnett, who told of the history and objectives of the Business club; Gene Autry, screen and radio entertainer who is in the city for a day; and Don Sterling, Autry's publicity director.

Autry, known as the singing cowboy, got a big hand as he spoke informally, reviewing briefly a career that has taken him from a Texas farm near Toga to big-time radio networks and stardom in Hollywood. Sterling lauded the spirit that he says is peculiar to Texas.

Carnett told how the ABC organization came into being and how it has branched out to cover most of the United States. Wright spoke in similar vein in regard to the Kiwanis organization, telling of its expansion and listing the club's objectives for the year.

Doan told of the construction of KBST's studios and transmitter station, inviting business men of the city to inspect both units. He said the station hopes to serve not only a successful business enterprise in the city, but also as a factor in developing local talent.
