

KBST Joins Columbia Network Tonight To Present Spectacular All-Star Program

Through completion of special arrangement thought to be unprecedented for stations of its size, Big Spring's radio station KBST this evening joins the nationwide Columbia network to join in broadcasting to this territory one of the most spectacular "big name" programs that has been put on the airwaves.

The program is "Irving Berlin's Cavalcade Of Hits," taken from the new motion picture, "Alexander's Ragtime Band." It goes on the air over the local station at 7:30 p. m., and lasts for an hour.

The broadcast is in the nature of a tribute to Berlin, one of the most popular song writers, and also is a prelude to the general release of the film, "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

The film theatre has the picture booked for Sunday and Monday, August 28 and 29, and it was at the instigation of the film management that the local hookup with Columbia was effected.

Manager J. Y. Robb worked hand in hand with KBST officials in a two-day flurry of long distance telephoning and wiring to make arrangements with the broadcasting company, the program's sponsors and others linked in the intricate setup of a nationwide broadcast, to have KBST included in the program. Final details were completed shortly before noon today. It is extremely rare that a 100-watt station is brought into a major network, and today's case is all the more unusual because arrangements had been completed for the nationwide broadcast.

It was pointed out that Big Spring enjoys none-too-good reception from Columbia stations, and the theatre and the local station were desirous that tonight's spectacular program be brought to radio listeners of this section.

The Berlin "Cavalcade" takes tunes from the "Alexander" picture, these in turn being the long list of popular hits which Berlin composed. Starting in the film are Alice Faye, Don Ameche and Tyrone Power.

The picture—and tonight's broadcast—also introduces the two newest Berlin tunes, "Now It Can Be Told" and "My Walking Stick."

The hour-long program this evening presents what is called the biggest array of stars ever on one broadcast. It will include:

Belle Baker, Phil Baker, Ben Bernie, Connie Boswell, Bronx Sisters, Eddie Cantor, Tommy Dorsey, Alice Faye, Al Goodman, Ted Husing, Jack Haley, Al Jolson, Guy Lombardo, Ethel Merman, Tyrone Power, Lonella Parsons, John Steele, Sophie Tucker, Rudy Vallee, Walter Winchell, Paul Whiteman, Darryl Zanuck, Alexander's Ragtime Band Singers, and others.

The body of James E. Wright, victim of a highway collision near Big Spring early Tuesday, was forwarded to Lubbock for funeral services at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. A. Wright. Wright, 53, died instantly when his car collided with a truck on the highway west of here. He was foreman of plumbing installation on the state hospital.

Driver of the truck, Charles Thompson of San Antonio, remained in a local hospital. He suffered injuries which necessitated amputation of the right arm.

Resident of Lubbock for many years, Wright was associated with the Rice-Newton company, plumbing firm which held contract on the hospital job. He had resided with his wife in Big Spring since the start of the work here.

Besides his wife and mother, he is survived by five brothers, Bob Wright of Seminole; Frank Wright of Dimmitt; Jack Wright of Big Bear City, Calif.; and Lynn and C. G. Wright of Lubbock. The last two have worked with him on the hospital contract. A sister also survives, Mrs. Emma Follos of Lubbock.

The body was taken overland from Big Spring in an Eberley funeral coach.

Thompson, 24, is a truck driver for the Southern company, tile manufacturer, at San Antonio.

Another $2 per capita scholastic apportionment payment was received by the county superintendent's office here Wednesday.

The payment on 1,197 scholastic districts of the county a total of $2,394. It leaves only $1 of a $22 per capita apportionment unpaid.

J. W. Doak, field representative of the AAA, visited the county agent's office here Tuesday on a regular inspection tour. Doak's headquarters are in College Station.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART

Usual Parade

More players have performed for the Wink Spudders this season than with any other outfit in the W-T-NM family.

When Jodie Tate brings his crew to town again Saturday for their final series of the year here, a half dozen strange faces may be inserted into the lineup.

Most notable is Bailey White, the "Hal Chase" of Lamesa who has replaced Jubels as the Spud custodian.

The same thing can be applied to Bailey that was recently printed of Dominic DiMaggio: "Good field, no hit."

Bailey simply can't be beat as a snatcher but pitchers are taught not to be afraid of him when he strides toward.

Only Happy Spandier remains of the infield that appeared here when the Wink aggregation played here before Ray and Crockett, short stops, and Kaefer, key-stoner, have gone their respective ways and Jubels, first sacker, has been benched.

Paul Reeves and Robinson, gardeners, are still around but Monago, the Mexican right fielder, has been taken out of the lineup.

New replacements are Wano and Bona, second sacker and outfielder, respectively, and Allen, short stop.

Too, Red Roberts, who was recently suspended for cutting up, has rejoined the crew.

Loop Trouble

A "regrettable incident," happening Monday evening on the Munny softball diamond and growing with leaps and bounds Tuesday, is threatening the harmony of the Major softball league.

Ben Daniel's Devils, in the center of the wrangling, have been accused of playing in unsportsmanlike fashion, certainly have lost "face" in the unusual turn of affairs.

It is hoped that the trouble will be ironed out and the Devils and the other teams agree to agree again.

Softball or any other sport does not call for rowdiness, rather is a test for the true sport.

The Devils have been highly popular here in the past and have carried their name into distant places, supplying reams of publicity over the state.

It is hoped that they can continue to give Big Spring the right kind of publicity.

Baugh And White Both Signed To Grid Contracts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Sammy Baugh is a "bigger shot in pro football than Whizzer White" to owner George P. Marshall of the Washington Redskins who signed "Sluggin' Sam" to a three year contract yesterday.

Marshall made the statement after his agreement with Baugh was consummated, and it was the only indication of the size of the contract gained by the former Texas Christian university star gridster.

White, the Colorado university all-American, signed Tuesday with the Pittsburgh Pirates at an estimated salary of $15,000 for one year.

Baugh, under his contract, agreed to give exclusive athletic service to the Redskins, Marshall said, but he did not say whether this meant Sammy would have to give up professional baseball.

Tyler Moves Into Third Place In East Texas Loop

By the Associated Press

The Tyler Trojans edged into third place in the East Texas League last night by sweeping a double-header with Palestine, but they were still a long way from the leaders—eleven games to be exact.

Tyler took the first game, 5-4, with Jack Levin pitching a five-hitter, then capped the second, 4-2, behind similar hurling by McLendon.

League-leading Marshall downed Jacksonville, 5-4, Hal Simpson's two doubles and two singles topping a 16-hit assault.

Second-place Texarkana downed Henderson, 5-3, Archie Cook, a newsmonger, giving up but six hits in his second try.

Kilgore made it two out of three in the series over Longview with an 11-4 victory. It was a free-hitting game with both sides clouting 28 blows.

Rowe And Dean Face Each Other In Beaumont; Oilers Finally Win One

By the Associated Press

Schoolboy Rowe and Paul Dean have faced each other twice on the mound since being sent back to minors and to date everything is in favor of the former Detroit ace.

Rowe is now with Beaumont of the Texas League where Detroit hopes he will work the trouble out of an ailing arm. Dean was shut-out by Dallas by the St. Louis Cardinals for the same reason.

Today when Dallas and Beaumont meet at 10 a. m. Dean vs. Rowe for the third time.

Beaumont took the second game and Dean of the series yesterday.

Mill May Be Washout—

No Interest Shown In Armstrong-Ambers Go

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—It appears that the astute Mike Jacobs finally has been sold a pup in his big triple-decker championship fight between Henry Armstrong and Lou Ambers next Wednesday night.

Two days of investigation reveals that the great fight public simply isn't much interested, even with three titles on display and one, the lightweight, actually involved.

Perhaps it's the heat. The fight, looked like a stem-winder when it was arranged. If for no other reason, it offered Armstrong the unheard-of opportunity of adding the lightweight crown to the featherweight and welterweight tiaras he already held.

But now there's little talk about the battle and the advance sale has been so poor there have been persistent reports Jacobs would plaster on another postponement. But Mike vows there will be a fight a week from tonight if there's nobody but him and the others to lend voice.

One difficulty is that Ambers doesn't lend himself readily to the old ballyhoo. For all his boxing skill, the lightweight champ is a colorless individual. Nothing exciting happens to him, and he doesn't say much.

There was an abortive attempt to stir up a controversy the other day. Ambers' manager threatened to claim the welterweight title if Lou won. The Armstrong camp didn't enter into the spirit. Eddie Mead, Henry's pilot, fanned himself a moment and said: "It doesn't matter, because Ambers isn't going to win."

Montana And Morioka Vie Tonight

Winner To Meet Dido For Bantamweight Championship

By EDDIE BRITZ

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—If Fred Apostoli and Young Corbett don't open the Garden's indoor season October 3, they'll settle their mid-weight dispute in the same arena (as Announcer Harry Balogh would announce) on November 18.

That guy licking his chops down there at Morgantown, W. Va., is "Little Sluggo" Glenn, head football coach at West Virginia. He has "com" only three deep in every position and is set for all comers, including Pitt. Believe it or not.

Every incoming train brings a load of broke horse players from Saratoga. Bet on the Yankees, boys, and sleep nights.

Don't let anybody try to tell you this Clay Bryant didn't hell himself a ball game at the Polo Grounds yesterday. His fast one was knocking the buttons right off the Giants' shirts.

Winner of tonight's flyweight go here between Small Montana and Morioka, the Japanese-Canadian, will meet Little Dido of California for Benny Lynch's old title.

John Henry Lewis' $300,000 suit against the three members of the New York boxing commission is expected to be filed today. And now comes Doug Smith from way up yonder in Trail, British Columbia, to suggest that Tony Galento may have caught his cold from being "frozen bitten." To which we say each with a big O.

There's a tall one going the rounds out at Hobbs, N. M., that Ernie Lombardi's nose is so long he can light a cigarette, stand under a shower and not get the coffin tack wet. Is that so Schmoxy? Minnesota must have something on the ball at that.

Keep your eyes on a Bronx mid-weight named Al Bernard who has Texas on fire with 29 wins in 30 starts. Goosh, but it's hot up here.

Temple Ousted From Tourney

WACO, Aug. 3 (AP)—The field of contestants for the state semi-pro baseball championship had been cut to five today with Grand Prix of Houston and Alvin clashing tonight in another elimination game.

Conroe defeated Temple last night, 5-0, to take the latter out of the race. Lefty Chambers held the Surgoons to one hit.

Conroe can gain the finals by defeating Mount Pleasant Thursday night.

The Waco Dons are the other aggregation remaining in the race.

LIGHTS OUT

KEIJO, Korea, Aug. 3 (AP)—The government today ordered lights out at night and air defense measures throughout northern Korea, near the disputed Japanese-Siberian frontier area. Residents were evacuating some villages in the border sector, Domei (Japanese news agency) said.

Chapman In Line For Presidency

LUBBOCK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Lubbock was making a spirited bid for re-enthronement of the coaching school of the Texas High School Coaches association here in 1939 as the organization prepared to hold its annual meeting tonight.

W. B. Chapman, coach of Lubbock high school and vice-president of the association, was in line for elevation to president.

The north and south all-stars, each squad at full strength, went through another hard workout today in preparation for the annual game scheduled for Saturday night.

More than 400 coaches and visitors heard lectures by Coach Harry Stuhldreher of Wisconsin, Coach Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern, Frank Leahy, Fordham line coach, and John Da Gossa of the Philadelphia professional football club, who are serving as instructors in the school.

BOMBERS IN ACTION

HANKOW, Aug. 3 (AP)—Eighteen Japanese bombers and 10 light combat planes bombed railroad approaches, warehouses and Chinese defense positions here today.

SUCCESSFUL FISHERMAN

PORT ISABEL.—R. J. Montgomery, mayor of Rio Hondo, Texas, and twice champion of the annual Rio Grande Valley Fishing Rodeo, held here in August of each year, is shown with a sailfin and the first blue marlin ever taken off the Texas coast. Montgomery landed both prizes during last year's fishing rodeo. The marlin was 10 feet, 2 inches long and weighed 325 pounds.

Devils Forfeit To Lone Star Ten

T&P Clerks In Surprise Win Over Ford

Lone Star Chevrolet softball aggregation received credit for second half play in the Major league Tuesday evening on the Munny diamond when the Devils forfeited at the end of six innings of play.

Leading 8-7 the Devils walked off the field when an umpire refused to change a decision.

The opener resulted in a surprise 14-7 victory for the T&P Clerks over Big Spring Motor. The Clerks tallied nine runs in the first frame.

Box score (first game):

TITLE FOR CORRIGAN?

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3 (AP)—It will be "Colonel" Douglas Corrigan if the recommendation of Representative Charles Kramer to the secretary of war is heeded.

Declaring Corrigan's feat in flying a $500 airplane from New York to Dublin "will long stand as a splendid example of American youth," the congressman urged that the title of honorary colonel in the army air corps be given the Los Angeles aviator.

Riggs, Grant And Kovacs Remain In Running For Tennis Title

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 3 (AP)—The tennis "veterans" finally seem to be catching up with this season's brilliant crop of newcomers, but one of the youngsters, Frank Kovacs, appears to be holding his own.

The Meadow club's invitation grass court tourney whitened its singles field down to eight yesterday before taking a day off to start doubles play. And here are the survivors, in the order in which they will meet tomorrow:

Robert L. Riggs of Chicago, second in the national ranking, and the top-seeded player; Hal Surface of Kansas City; Joe Hunt of Los Angeles; Kovacs; Bryant (Billey) Grant of Atlanta; Sidney E. Wood of New York; Don McNeill of Oklahoma City, and Charles Hare of England.

Notable third round victims were Lewis Wetherell, who lost to Kovacs, 6-3; Frank Shields of Hollywood, former Davis cup player, who was beaten, 6-2, 6-6, 6-4, by Hunt; and Bobby Kramath who lost a 5-4, 6-2, 6-1 beating from McNeill.

Barons Move To Lubbock Today; Lose To Pioneers

YANKEES AND PIRATES ARE BEATEN; INDIANS MOVE UP

By HUGH S. FULLESTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

At least two major league clubs have learned recently, if they didn't know it before, that a good ball team isn't quite enough to win a pennant in the kind of races the two big circuits are staging this season.

There's no doubt that the New York Giants and Boston Red Sox are good ball clubs, but they're some distance from the top and Managers Bill Terry and Joe Cronin are working hard and spending freely in an effort to remedy matters.

The Giants remained five games behind Pittsburgh's National League leading Pirates despite a 7-4 hitting by the Chicago Cubs yesterday, but that was only because Pittsburgh took a 3-1 setback in Boston when Johnny Lanning came up with a four-hit game. The Cubs, however, cut New York's second place margin to 1 1/2 games.

Similarly the Red Sox didn't lose any ground to the Yankees, and still trailed by 5 1/2 games after their 7-4 loss to Cleveland. That was because the Yankees dropped a 4-3 decision to Detroit's reviving Tigers. Cleveland thus gained a four-game margin over the Red Sox.

Brooklyn's Dodgers regained fifth place in the National League by a one-point margin over Boston when they won two games from St. Louis, 6-2 and 9-3. Johnny Vander Meer's return to form helped keep the Cincinnati Reds on the Cubs' heels as they downed Philadelphia 5-2.

Washington gained a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Browns in a game protested by the losers after Umpire Harry Geisel had suffered a broken wrist in a collision with Billy Sullivan. The Chicago White Sox beat the Athletics, 8-4.

E. D. Harrington of Tucson, Ariz., was through here Wednesday visiting with old timers. Harrington is one of the pioneers of this section coming to Big Spring for the first time over 54 years ago. Later he moved to Midland and in 1908 went to Tucson. He is the father of Mrs. E. D. Merrill.

Mrs. H. Reeves and children, Bennett, Roy Don and Patsy, have recently returned from Fort Worth where they have been visiting relatives.

Rain Handicap To City Play Program

Total Of 31,500 Took Part During Month Of July

The July attendance report of the city recreation department shows that a total of 31,500 took part in the program during July. That was a decrease of 45 per cent under the previous month due to a week of continuous rain.

In playground activities 13,082 boys, 6,403 girls, 872 men and 163 women participated. Another 4,628 were spectators.

Special events promoted by H. F. Malone and his staff of co-workers during the month included continuation of both senior and junior softball play, an all-star softball game, bicycle and pushmobile races, still contests, pet shows and community singing.

The department lent its cooperation in making the West Texas junior golf tournament at the Munny course a decided success.

Activities scheduled for this month include a city-wide washer pitching tournament Aug. 19; croquet tournament and the softball league playoff.

Geisel Bruised In Collision With Sullivan

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—Harry Geisel, American League umpire, remained a hospital patient today suffering with a slight brain concussion, a fractured left wrist and bruises, the penalty for getting in the way of speedy Billy Sullivan, St. Louis Browns catcher.

Dr. Robert F. Hyland said Geisel probably should not be discharged "for a day or two." The umpire was injured in the second inning of the Browns-Senators game yesterday when Sullivan attempted to score from second on Oral Hildebrand's single. The two collided on the third base line. Geisel was carried from the field unconscious.

Frankie Jacot Slated For Box Duty

CLOVIS, N. M., Aug. 3.—The Big Spring Barons move on to Lubbock tonight where they open a three game series. Tuesday they dropped a 10-4 decision to the Pioneers but did not lose any ground in the battle for fourth place due to the fact that Wink also lost.

Frankie Jacot, the southpaw who has chalked up victories in his last two starts, was due to get the starting call against the Hubbers tonight. The left hander, tamed the Hubbs in his first start of the season but since has been shellacked twice by the league leaders.

Johnny Roden was hit hard and often in the series finale with the Pioneers. He surrendered 12 base hits and, aided by five errors on the part of his mates, kicked the game away in the third frame when the Pioneers tallied six runs. Jake Christie limited the Barons to six hits and pitched shutout ball until the sixth frame.

Score by innings:
Big Spring.....000 001 030—4 6 5
Clovis.....006 010 102—10 12 4
Bona and Bernold; Christie and Ratliff.

Are In For A Lot Of Activity
From All Indications, The A's

Looking about the A's in the alphabetical list of telephone subscribers of the Big Spring exchange led many interesting bits of news concerning the goings and comings of those people whose names begin with the first letter in the alphabet. And from all indications, the A's are in for a lot of activity this month.

Here's what the A's answered when asked, "What's new?"

ADAMS, MRS. HARRY A.: Has had as her guest for several days her cousin, John Burke of St. Louis, who returned to his home this week by the way of Muskogee, Okla., to see his aunt, Mrs. John Folgood. Burke was also a guest of his aunt, Mrs. John Pike while Mrs. Pike said he was expected to arrive in St. Louis Friday.

ADAMS, MRS. T. G.: Said she didn't know of anything in the way of news but recently she and her husband and son, Alfred, spent their vacation days in El Dorado, Ark.

AGNELL, MRS. DELLA: Is vacationing in the Davis mountains on a fishing spree with her son, T. W. Agnell of Austin, who came by for her the past weekend.

ANDERSON, MRS. WALTER: Reports that her daughter, Barbara Anderson, returned over the weekend from a trip to the Yellowstone National park, Salt Lake City and Grand Canyon. The trip was made with her aunt, Mrs. Pat Thompson of Bay City, Tex.

AMOS, MRS. C. A.: Says her family has been thinking about a vacation but it will probably not be until September and is too far in advance for any definite plans. She promises to keep The Herald informed.

ANDERSON, MR. AND MRS. J.

F. Have been vacationing at Hot Springs, N. M., for three weeks, and write friends in Big Spring that they are going to Santa Fe, Taos and on into Colorado before returning.

ALLEN, MRS. F. O.: Was honored with a visit recently from her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Miles, of O'Donnell, recently.

ALLEN, MRS. J. T.: Is expecting relatives of Mr. Allen, this week who have been to California and plan to stop here en route home. Mr. and Mrs. Laut Hardy of Arg., who have been guests in the Allen home for several days, left Wednesday morning for a 15-day visit in Los Angeles.

ANGELL, MRS. CLYDE: Returned recently from Lubbock where she spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tate.

ARNOLD, MRS. O. T.: Was all a dither over the arrival of her husband's sister and two nieces of San Antonio expected some time this week. The sister is Mrs. Alice Dixon and the nieces are Mrs. Jewel Holt and Mrs. Kathleen Lott.

ASHCROFT, MRS. C. L.: and husband have already been on their vacation and spent the time at Temple with her parents.

ANDERSON, MRS. E. W.: Has hopes of being able to attend the State American Legion and Auxiliary meeting at Austin Aug. 28-30. Mrs. Anderson is quite active in the auxiliary and is department safety chairman of the state. During the telephone conversation she also mentioned the fact that her sister-in-law, Mrs. V. T. Anderson, left Wednesday for Monahans to spend two weeks with her parents.

ATKINS, MRS. S. J.: was all upset because she had to get up at 3:30 a. m. to get her son, S. J., Jr., off to the boy scout camp near Barksdale, Texas, where he is to serve on the staff with Charles Tingle as aquatic director. Mrs. Atkins is expecting a visit from her niece, Ola Belle Singleton of Austin sometime this summer. Miss Singleton is secretary to Governor Allred.

ASHLEY, MRS. T. W.: Said her daughter, Lula Ashley, spent several days recently at Seminole with Mrs. Herbert Coball.

Knott Rebekah Lodge To Be Organized By Local Group Thursday

Arrangements were completed for the organization of the Knott Rebekah lodge Thursday evening at a meeting of the Big Spring chapter Tuesday at the L. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Nora Gullett, deputy president, is to organize the lodge assisted by Mrs. Leota Johnson, deputy president of Midland. The Odessa lodge is to initiate the new members and the Big Spring group is to install the officers.

At the meeting Thursday evening the charter will be drafted for Mrs. Mamie Dale Brown of Iowa Park, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas, who died July 3. Every member of the lodge is urged to be present for the organization, Mrs. Gullett said.

Botanical Names Of Plants Discussed
By Garden Members

One of the most interesting meetings of the Garden club this season was held at the home of Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow Tuesday-morning when the botanical names of plants were discussed.

Mrs. R. L. Beale gave an enlightening paper on "Botanical Names of Plants" and Mrs. J. H. Greene conducted a contest called, "Do You Know The Botanical Names Of These Plants?" Winner of the contest was Mrs. J. M. Morgan who received a bouquet of giant orange zinnias from the hostess' yard.

The club has ordered several books for the library that are expected in soon and Mrs. Beale donated a book to the members entitled, "Culture on Perennials." Mrs. Morgan offered the club the use of her new garden encyclopedia.

After the program the group made an inspection of Mrs. Bristow's yard and were served local drinks on the lawn.

Others present were Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, Mrs. Cliff Wiley, Mrs. Robert Stripling and Mrs. Preston R. Sanders.

Former Resident Of Big Spring To Wed
At Gladewater

Several people in Big Spring have received invitations to the wedding of Dr. James Roseman Barcus of Gladewater, formerly of this city, to Lillian Phillips Davis there Sunday at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Foshee. Dr. Barcus was associated with the Bivings and Barcus hospital in Big Spring from 1929 to 1932 when he moved to Gladewater and the hospital became known as the Bivings hospital.

TO SUPPORT GRAVES

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—Charles A. Phippen of Dallas, eliminated in the July 23 democratic primary, today pledged his support to Harry N. Graves of Georgetown who is seeking nomination to the court of criminal appeals in the August runoff primary. The contest is between Graves, the incumbent, and James A. Stephens of Knox county.

Mrs. J. M. Simmons and sons have returned from Abilene and Baird where they spent several days with Mrs. Simmons' husband and the boys' father, J. M. Simmons.

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred was ill today from effects of a cold and hay fever.

Senate Investigator
Watching Kentucky
Primary Campaign

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—A senate investigator hastened back to Kentucky today to obtain more facts about primary campaign tactics which his superiors called deplorable.

Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.) of the senate campaign expenditures committee said the investigator would be kept in the state through Saturday's primary election so that no matter who won the democratic senatorial nomination, the senate would have all the facts.

Kentucky thus became the second state in which the committee has hinted that the election eventually may be contested on the senate floor.

The committee last week criticized Tennessee's democratic primary campaign, saying the victor might face a contest in the senate on the ground of "excessive expenditures."

Ickes Says He's
Just Hod-Carrier
For Roosevelt

SEATTLE, Aug. 8 (AP)—In an unscheduled speech before Seattle builders, Secretary Ickes described himself as "just the hod carrier for the greatest builder of all time—President Roosevelt."

Ickes was introduced last night as "the greatest builder in the nation today." The secretary of the interior replied:

"I have merely helped carry out a public works program of some $500,000,000 to the end that we might get business going. The crux of the whole situation lay in the building trades. For every man actually employed in building, two and one-half more are indirectly employed. It starts other wheels, an ever-widening spiral."

TERRELL HOSPITAL
COSTS ARE LOWER

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP)—A report by Tom C. King, state auditor, showed today operating costs for the Terrell state hospital, Kaufman county, decreased $2.65 per inmate for the biennium ended Aug. 31, 1937.

Total disbursements were $1,239,380, including $929,193 for operating costs and $310,186 for acquisition of building and equipment.

STEEL AS A BAROMETER

The declaration last week of the quarterly preferred dividend by the directors of the United States Steel Corporation and the statement by Chairman Stettinius that there had been a substantial increase of incoming orders accompanied by interest as a straw showing which way the industrial winds are blowing. U. S. Steel not only is the largest producer but has a wide diversification of products and plants scattered all over the United States. Any action by its board of any statement indicating policy or even hinting at expectations is regarded as of almost oracular significance.

Taken in conjunction with the rather heavy deficit of $5,010,426 in the June quarter, a loss which would ordinarily prescribe caution, the ordering of the regular dividend is interpreted as evidence of faith by "Big Steel" management that better times are on the way.

Heartening too, is the fact that current call for steel is maintained without benefit of any substantial orders from the railroad, automobile or utility industries. Building, heavy engineering projects and miscellaneous demand account for the major flow. The price of No. 1 scrap steel, regarded as a barometer in the steel trade, last week hit a new peak at $13.50 a ton, highest since October, 1937.

New impetus should be felt in the industry and business as a whole, when the rail management comes to terms with labor on the question of wages, and order steel for deferred maintenance and needed equipment, when the motor industry begins soon its production of new models and when utility concerns pressed by prospective expansion in the use of power, and reassured as to Federal intentions, buy more liberally in what should be a $2,000,000,000 program of expenditures.—Christian Science Monitor.

OHIOAN OWNS PISTOL USED IN OLD FEUD

CHILLICOTHE, O. (UP)—A revolver that played a role in the feuds of the Hatfields and McCoy's in the possession of Ambrose Major here.

The weapon was given to Major by his father 15 years ago, who obtained it from Yantz Hatfield, a brother of "Devil" Hatfield and "Cap" Hatfield, between 30 and 35 years previously.

Major used the revolver on several occasions and says that it is the smoothest and most accurate weapon he had ever handled.

Today And Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

(Mr. Lippmann's column is published as an informational and news feature. His views are personal and are not to be construed as necessarily reflecting the editorial opinion of The Herald—Editor's Note.)

THE NEMESIS OF TYRANNY

PARIS, Aug. 3.—In the preparation for war and in the conduct of what we may call pre-war diplomacy free nations are under many obvious disadvantages as compared with totalitarian states. They do not have complete control of the lives, the labor, the property, and the opinions of their people. They are dealing with citizens and voters. So they have to persuade their people to make the sacrifices which modern armaments demand. They have to induce them to work. They have to persuade them to follow their leaders. They have to convince them that their policies and their actions are just.

LIPPMAN measures the risks, half-measures, and in the realm of diplomacy it makes for vacillation. Decisive action is difficult when opinions are divided, and ruthless action has to be avoided because opinions are sensitive.

That is why the potentially stronger free nations have not succeeded in mobilizing anything like their full military power. That is why the dictators are in proportion to their resources so very much more ready for the first phases of a war. The free states cannot mobilize their full strength until they are in a state of emergency, and they would not be dictatorships until after a war had begun. That too is why they are out-maneuvered again and again in the field of diplomacy. They cannot act decisively and swiftly and ruthlessly because they have to take into account all sorts of things, such as treaties, laws, the rights of their parliaments, the position of political parties, and the moral conscience of their people and of other peoples.

But these patent weaknesses of which every one is aware, and on which the dictators count so heavily, are not without their compensation. For while the free nations are less efficient in preparing for war and in the first phases of a war, they alone can hope to endure a long war and to emerge from it without a catastrophe.

The reason the free nations can endure a long war is not merely that they have much greater natural resources. Russia has very great natural resources but Russia is surely in no condition to endure a long war. For a modern war means that the peasants and a large part of the working class, all of it not employed in making munitions, have to be supplied with arms. And that is why a totalitarian state which goes to war must win quickly or the regime is lost. For who will disarm the army when the war is over?

These modern despots are possible in the last analysis only because the masses of the people are deprived not only of their civil rights but of all means of resistance. The people are an unarmed and divided crowd faced with a small, carefully selected compact corps which has all the machine guns, all the tanks, and all the bombs. This is the reason why it is altogether improbable that any one of the three great dictatorships will be overthrown by a spontaneous uprising from within. No Paul Revere can ride through the countryside and call upon the farmers to take down their muskets from the mantelpiece and go to war. The farmers have no muskets. Modern weapons are a government monopoly jealously guarded by the modern despot, and there is no kind of personal heroism which can make any impression upon the machine gun and the tank operated by a specially trained Pretorian Guard.

This is the only possible explanation of the fact that millions and millions of men today are enduring oppression more savage than anything that has been known in the civilized world for centuries. The thing is endured not because the people like it and approve it. For there are millions upon millions in the region between the Rhine and the Pacific Ocean who cannot possibly like these iron despots since they are the victims. They endure them because they are unarmed and all resistance is hopeless. If they protest, they are shot. If they fail to approve, they are condemned to starve.

But what would be the position in these countries if war broke out and the masses of the people had to be equipped with arms? How can a despot arm the masses whom he has oppressed without the certainty that they will not easily surrender their arms? Once there is a general mobilization the rulers of the state no longer have a monopoly of the weapons. Then the masses, though they have no civil rights, have the guns in their possession and the military power of the state has in effect been popularized.

It is a coincidence that all the autocratic states which fought in the World War were overthrown either by the returning soldiers or by revolutionaries that the returning soldiers were unwilling to shoot down? It is no coincidence. You can oppress a disarmed people, but once you arm that people, you must not expect the oppressed to give up their arms until they have tried to redress their grievances and to take their revenge.

This is the cancer of tyranny in the modern world, that it is driven by its very nature towards war, but that once tyranny goes to war, it has provided the masses with the weapons by which the tyranny must be destroyed. That is why the dictators, as long as they are able to keep their perspective and to control their wider supporters, must play with fire but must seek by every means to avoid the explosion. They cannot make peace because they are tyrants and they dare not make war because they dare not arm their victims.

So they must move as long as they can in a twilight zone between war and peace, like that which we are now in, using all the measures of war short of war itself.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Until a year or so ago I was as curious as anyone as to who would play Scarlett O'Hara, but now it hardly seems important anymore. They have fiddled around too long. Scarlett is still Scarlett and Tara is still Tara, but a fever burns you only so long. Then you cool out. I think that's happened to a lot of people, and if I were a stockholder in the company that is to film GWTH I think I would be a darn good and sore about it. Because somebody missed the boat. And there isn't any excuse for missing a boat like that.

When you think back and consider how you felt about the book yourself the first time you read it, when you think of the excitement and the mass hysteria and the unbelievable possibilities for such a picture if it were timed just right, it makes you a little sad and a little sick. Because here was a chance to land the boxoffice high of all time. And they muffed it. And plums like that don't grow on trees—not even in Hollywood. They just happen, and if you don't pick 'em the birds get 'em. Then where are you? You're standing on a high hill with a bag in your hand looking for something that isn't there anymore.

They say now that a lot of people aren't satisfied with the selection of Norma Shearer. I am not of this number. I am satisfied that Miss Shearer will do all right and I hope she goes ahead with it. It is true that my personal choice would have been Margaret Sullivan but she won't get it and Shearer will probably be just as good anyway.

Unless, that is, those people out there get panicky and listen to a lot of blarney from people who want somebody else playing Scarlett. And that might easily happen. To be perfectly honest I wouldn't be surprised to see Shirley Temple wind up in the role. And if this happens I would recommend that Laurel and Hardy be given the parts of the Tarleton twins. You may as well go home, you know. And for Ashley Wilkes I would recommend Charles Bickford.

That leaves Melanie and who would be better than Mae West? There needn't be any slaves. To make it unique the producers could change the locale to the Sahara and have the Agasha picking cotton in the old cotton field down by the Nile. Wouldn't it be the nuts to have a sleek come riding up with a squadron of his men and bawl: "Yo all git outen that house 'fo I just natch'll blow yuh down." Then John Boles could leap out of a magnolia tree and sing the Desert Song.

I'm not kidding. I really mean every word of this. Since they've fiddled around this long I see no reason why they shouldn't have some fun out of it. Because the real time for GWTH is past. Christmas is the time to eat fruitcake—not August. Of course they'll probably make an interesting picture, but for me it will be just a picture.

Sights And Sounds

by ROBBIN COONS

HOLESY TOOTH—This is a call to all fans to rally 'round and make the Warners do something about Marie Wilson.

You know Marie. She's the beautiful, dumb little blonde. She's played that beautiful, dumb little blonde in movie bits. Now she's played her again—and beautifully—in "Boy Meets Girl." Marie ought to go places like a rabbit now.

But you can't tell. The kid ate her heart out for months waiting to hear whether they'd trust her with "Boy Meets Girl." They trusted her finally—Joan Blondell wasn't available. And she worked like ten troupers to make 'em feel they hadn't been hexed into a decision. She delivered.

But you can't tell—at the Warner factory. Marie might get a good follow-up to "Boy Meets Girl," but she's just as likely to be thrown back to the B's.

The Warners traditionally have little luck developing feminine stars. They lured Ruth Chatterton away from Paramount when Ruth was tops, and when they finished with her Ruth was ready for a comeback. Ditto Kay Francis. Kay's making "Curtain Call" now. That's a new title for the one Bette Davis walked out on—and rightly. It's good enough for Kay, though. Anything to finish up her contract. Well, they have revamped the yarn somewhat, and it may be better now.

But Bette Davis, queen of the lot nowadays, had to get off the lot to win that crown. After she came back from RKO and "Of Human Bondage" she was a star—but in no time she was fighting her bosses in court. She lost, the studio won. She was a good sport. She came back and made hits—"Marked Woman" and "Jezebel" among them. After "Jezebel" they gave her "Conquest" and "Broadway" (now "Curtain Call") and Bette wouldn't take it. Took a walk, instead, and suspension. The studio got smart and all is peace again. Bette's making "The Sisters."

Back to Marie Wilson: She ought to have a chance in something bigger. She ought to have a chance, even, to play a beautiful girl who isn't dumb. Maybe she could, maybe she couldn't—but she's earned the right to try.

Marie, for all her sometimes astounding repertory, is dumb like a fox. She planned her movie campaign with artistry. Had a little money, spent it paying rent, advance, buying clothes, a flashy car. She knew you have to put up a front—and that's what she did.

There were times, I reckon, when she wished she could trade in the car on a ham sandwich, but she stuck it out and persistence won her a screen test.

Dumb thing that she is, she sat down and wrote her own script for that test. It was a good script. M-G-M didn't like it but the Warner factory did. They signed her. They've taken up her option again.

The "dumb" stories on Marie are about exhausted. Haven't heard a good one in months. But the slanders of her mental powers have not let up, by any means. They're even purveying yarns about her Mamma now. Like this:

Mamma goes into a filling station where she owes $5.25. Gives the attendant $3.75. "Give me $1.50 worth of gas and we'll be even," says Mamma.

Now I ask you!

And I really don't care whether I see it or not. I'm certainly going to read the reviews before I do see it. I'd hate to go looking for Margaret Mitchell's book and not find it there. That would be too much like seeing them throw eggs at Whistler's "Mother."

And while we're on the subject I wonder what Whistler's father was like. There, pals, is really the forgotten man.

LOVE ON THE RANGE

Chapter 29

MESSAGE FROM LEE
Lips twisting in a crooked smile, Ankrum whirled to find a gun jammed against his stomach and Hatchford's gloating face within short inches of his own.

"Go ahead," the sheriff jeered. "Grab onto your gun an' I'll get it over quick! I can't see as I'll matter much to you one way or the other. If a blue whistler don't mow you down, within the hour you'll be stretchin' hemp!"

Ankrum prepared to give Hatchford's confidence a jolt. "To bad you can't cut it, Hatchford," he said. "But you're a little late gettin' started. Claydell an' his men are on their way to town right now—must be nearly here by this time."

"So you've swung over to him, have you?" Hatchford scowled. "Well, let 'em come. I've got sixteen deputies in the street outside with orders to shoot the minute Claydell shows."

"Got your Mex killer outside, too?"

Hatchford granted an oath, but no reply.

"Look," said Ankrum softly, "what proof you got that I'm the one who shot Drean?"

"Miss Struthers seen you; she'll swear to it."

"What if she won't?"

"Don't matter. I've got her statement down on paper an' signed."

"You hear that?" Ankrum said for the girl's benefit. "You're in the same boat I am. He'll bump you off soon's he settles with me. You've played your part; your use is over."

The girl said nothing. Hatchford snarled. "Shut your trap or I'll shut it for you!"

Ankrum grinned. "What you waitin' for? Go ahead an' shoot!"

"I'll shoot when I get ready," Hatchford growled. "This thing ain't over yet."

Ankrum regarded the sheriff's beefy countenance with speculative eyes. What was the meaning of those words? Ankrum was nearly trapped; what else had the sheriff planned?

Hatchford's place; tried imagining Ankrum's place; tried imagining himself with Hatchford's personal ambitions, lack of moral scruples and ruthless drive for power.

The sheriff's first move at this time would, he felt, be the removal of Rafter's foreman. He wanted to smash Trone's power, to usurp Trone's possessions. Already he had gone a long way in undermining the old man's nerve; Trone had taken to whisky to bolster his failing courage.

What, he wondered, would hurt Trone most? The answer came with a blinding flash. The most effective way of smashing Trone would be through Lee—it would prove the crowning blow to the old man's series of misfortunes!

He recalled that an attempt to get at Trone through Lee had once been made already. Only Ankrum's own interference that night in Poco Pinto had caused the sheriff's plans to miscarry. He remembered that glowing iron will of the Straddle Butte slouching past him on the street before that house and he knew that Hatchford was waiting for Lee now!

No Vain Boast
Ankrum stared at Hatchford's heavy features with new understanding and realized that nothing save death would stop him from carrying out his plans.

"Damn you, Hatchford! You can't cut this thing!"

"Can't cut what?"

"What you've got in mind for Lee."

"So you've guessed it's her we're waitin' for, eh? Well, you're right about that; it is. She ought to be here now. I had things set for eleven."

"You looney fool!" Ankrum spat the words contemptuously. "The hand of every honest man in this country will be raised against you if you harm that girl!"

"You're wrong about that," Hatchford assured him with a lazy grin. "Not a one will dare say boo! I've got this range eatin' out of my hand, an' I'll see that it stays around here'll do what I tell 'em an' like it!"

He looked at Ankrum amusedly. "Besides," he added, "I'm not figurin' to harm Lee Trone. I've got better sense than that. I'm gonna get the same results by marryin' her."

Ankrum laughed, and the sound brought a scowl to Hatchford's face.

"What's so funny?"

"The picture of you as Lee's adoring bridegroom. Why, she wouldn't wipe her feet on you!"

"That's all right," Hatchford's teeth showed in a smirk, "she wouldn't wipe her feet on you, neither. But she'll marry me to save your life or I'll have you shot before her face—an' in the end I'll get her anyway!"

Ankrum had an uneasy feeling that this was no vain boast. It would be like Lee to sacrifice herself for him. On the other hand, if she refused, he believed that Hatchford would be fully capable of carrying out his threat.

Another thought struck Ankrum. Once Hatchford married the girl, there was nothing to stop him from putting Ankrum out of the way; there was always the Lay del Prado! Escaping prisoners were shot at sight.

A devil's temper was stirring in Ankrum; a savage desire to get his hands on Hatchford and bring him to a desire born of desperation.

But somehow he kept his head; he held the turbulent fury under control. "Very slick, Hatchford; plenty slick," he drawled. "But you're forgettin' one factor—a weighty one that's goin' to break your string."

"What am I forgettin'?" Hatchford growled.

"You're leavin' Claydell out of your calculations."

"You're the one that's forgettin'!" Hatchford grinned. "That pone out in the street's got orders to shoot Claydell on sight!"

"How're you figurin' to get away with that?" asked Ankrum, playing for time.

A deep chuckle of joy left the sheriff's mouth. "Claydell," he said, "is the gent that's out to smash the Rafter T. An' I got the proof at last—I've found out what he's after!"

WITNESSES CLAIM PREJUDICE BECAUSE OF UNION ACTIVITY

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 3 (UP)—Testimony of two witnesses alleging threats and employment by discrimination to discourage membership in the local International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers was in the record today as the National Labor Relations Board pushed its investigation of asserted unfair labor practices charged against the West Texas Utilities company.

Roland Elder said he was discharged because of his union activities and W. E. Thompson said he was transferred to another job after he had become a charter member of the I.B.E.W. The respondent's answer to Elder's complaint contended he was released for appropriating company gasoline for private use.

The I.B.E.W. yesterday charged in a supplementary complaint that the company organized a "company union" in an attempt to wrest from the local I.B.E.W. its claim of collective bargaining authority.

BERLIN, Aug. 3 (UP)—Violation of the German border by two Czechoslovak airplanes was charged today by DNB (German official news agency) in a report from Glatz.

The report said the airplanes flew into Germany over Glatz with observers photographing the town. Glatz is 12 miles from the frontier between the two nations.

wrench and a hammer as I went.
"At the top of the stairs the doctor was stooped over, leaning against the wall, and moaning."
"I tried to tell Carroll with the wrench but it came apart. Carroll grabbed the hammer from me and hit Dr. Littlefield with it."
"And then?"
"The doctor reeled and fell after two or three blows."
"I shouted to Carroll, 'You've killed him,' Dwyer said.
"Previously Dwyer had testified Carroll accused him of 'getting Barbara into trouble.' He said he told Carroll he didn't believe it, and that Carroll offered to have his daughter examined by Dwyer's physician to prove it.
"That was why Dr. Littlefield went to the Dwyer home—and his death—that night, Dwyer said.

Elections

Roosevelt despite his vote against the government reorganization bill, lost by about 1,500 votes to former Rep. Colgate Darden, whom he had defeated in 1936. Hamilton said Darden was backed by Senator Henry Byrd's organization.
"The greatest interest was shown in the Kansas senatorial race because of campaign charges that one of the four candidates—the Rev. Gerald Winrod—was prominent. Winrod, who denied the accusation, ran third.
"The nomination went to former Gov. Clyde Reed. The count in that state gave him 22,000 more votes than Dallas Knapp, running second, and 20,000 more than Winrod. The Rev. J. C. Fisher trailed.
"Fendegast loses
"Senator Clark polled three and a half times as many votes in the first half of the state to report as did his three opponents combined. Joseph T. Davis, Willis H. Meredith, and Robert J. Young.
"Missouri democrats, who had taken Clark's victory for granted, were more interested in a fight for a state supreme court nomination between forces of Gov. Lloyd C. Stark and T. J. Fendegast, Kansas City party leader.
"James V. Hillings, endorsed by Fendegast, took an early lead because Kansas City's precincts were counted early, but Judge James B. Douglas gradually pulled ahead as returns came in from St. Louis, his home town.

O'Daniel Supports
1 g Bend Park

FORT WORTH, Aug. 3 (AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel, democratic nominee for governor, in backing the Big Bend National Park project and urged the citizenship of Texas to help the cause with contributions.
"O'Daniel pledged his support in a statement from his vacation headquarters at Galveston, declaring it will be one of the greatest things that can happen for Texas."
"He pointed out that vacationists would spend millions of dollars annually in Texas if it had this park and then cited advertising advantages.

NEW PROTEST

TOKYO, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Japanese government directed its second protest in 24 hours to Russia today, in an effort to end bitter fighting along the Russian Siberian-Japanese Manchoukuo frontier.
"The fighting still was in progress early today between large forces of well-equipped troops, with airplanes and tanks, and it was felt in authoritative circles that the exchange of gunfire marked the first round of the Far East's second unofficial war.
"A foreign office spokesman said Japan hoped to localize the trouble and settle it by the diplomatic steps, but the presence of large forces in the frontier area indicated the battle which began Sunday might be merely a prelude to major operations.

Another Appeal Made
For Flood Relief

Mayor R. V. Jones received a second wire from Governor James V. Alfred Wednesday urging more contributions for flood relief at the hands of the Red Cross.
"Pointing to the acute flood situation surrounding loss of possessions by 2,700 families in 12 counties, the governor said 'I am appealing to the citizenship of this state to respond speedily and generously to the Red Cross statewide fund campaign to relieve the distress of our neighbors.'
"Shine Phillips, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, concurred in the appeal, urging people to make contributions as quickly as possible so that Red Cross could administer relief without handicap.

NORTH SIDE REPORTS
INFESTATION OF MOSQUITOES

Complaints were being voiced Wednesday by private citizens on the north side and in the territory adjacent to the railroad yards that a mosquito infestation was reaching serious proportions.
"Heavy rains in June and July have resulted in accumulation of pools in the lowland section, a condition further aggravated by rank growth of weeds. People in that area, and those who suffer from mosquitoes being carried on the wings of the prevailing south breeze, reported the insects more numerous and larger than in past years.

LABORERS AVAILABLE FOR CEMETERY WORK

To aid the clean-up campaign at the city cemetery, the city announced Wednesday that people who were unable to find laborers to clean their lots during this week could obtain them by contacting the city hall.
"The city will find laborers to be paid by the lot owner at a prevailing wage scale. During this week the city will haul away refuse gathered off lots in the cemetery.

Report Given
On Convention

Moving Pictures
Also Shown At Lions Meeting

Reports from the international Lions convention at Oakland, Calif., and motion pictures of local scenes and events were high spots on the Lions club program Wednesday.
Mrs. D. R. Perry showed two reels of pictures taken in and around Big Spring, showing a "duster," flood waters, Spanky McFarland of "Our Gang" comedy fame, Robert Wadlow, the Illinois giant, rodeo and parades, arrival of "tender" trippers, and many other sights.

Mr. J. McDaniel, who is president of the club and was official representative at the international convention, brought back word to the club that Lions stood for only one "ism," that of "Americanism." Time and again, he said, the theme of citizenship was stressed at the meeting. He told of important personages, including governors from Nevada, Utah and California, attending the meeting and gave the gist of several important convention addresses. Joe Ford, past district governor of 2-7, also attended the meeting at Oakland.
Guests at the club meeting were Mrs. Perry, H. P. Smith, Hugh Duncan, and W. L. Dugger, San Antonio, vice-president of the General American Insurance company and first district governor of 2-7. Mr. John Coffey, formerly of Hereford, was in attendance as a transfer from that club.

THREE NEW LOANS

Three loans were closed during July by the First Federal Savings and Loan association, regular monthly financial statement of the association showed Wednesday.
The loans, amounting to $4,500, were for purchase and renovation and gave the association a net gain in loans of $3,500 for the month. At the end of July the association had first mortgage loans out amounting to $88,900, had $12,223 cash on hand, and total assets of $102,389.
Total private shares at the end of the month ran to $53,287 against $46,000 government subscriptions. Undivided profits reached $1,083.

SCOUTS AT CAMP

Two trucks, bearing Boy Scouts from Big Spring, arrived at Barksdale on the Neches river at 3 p. m. Tuesday, C. S. Blomfield, district leader, was advised Tuesday evening.

Up from Big Spring, a distance of little less than 50 miles, was made without incident. The boys left the city at sunrise Tuesday for a week's stay at Barksdale.

BICKLEYS VISITORS

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Bickley, Abilene, were visitors here Wednesday. Mrs. Bickley was here to appear before the Sunday school class with which she was connected when Rev. Bickley was pastor of the First Methodist church. Rev. Bickley is presiding elder at Abilene now.

TO CORPUS CHRISTI

County Attorney and Mrs. W. S. Morrison left Wednesday for a short visit in Corpus Christi.

IN HOSPITAL

Tom M. McWhorter, who was taken to the Bivings hospital for treatment Tuesday, was reported resting well Wednesday. He suffered from a kidney attack.

ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hiddison and son will leave Thursday for a 10-day vacation trip to Pecos, El Paso, Globe, Ariz. and other points west.

IMPROVED

Mary Vane Kenester, KBST program director who underwent an appendectomy last week, continues to improve at the Bivings hospital.

Charles Snyder, 1903 Main street, underwent a tonsillectomy at Bivings hospital Wednesday morning.

Sam Flowers, 200 North Nolan, remained in the hospital for treatment Wednesday. He remained about the same.
L. T. Green, Martin county farmer, residing two miles west of Stanton, was brought to the hospital Wednesday afternoon for treatment of injuries received when he fell from a water tank on his farm about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. He was engaged in piping water from the tank when he slipped and fell from a height of about 12 feet. X-ray examination showed fracture of the left leg below the hip joint.

Commerce Dept. Sees
Better Trade Signs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—The commerce department saw on the business horizon today "definite signs" of expansion in consumer purchasing. It also noted a healthier inventory situation in both the retail and capital goods division.
Richard C. Patterson, Jr., assistant secretary, said, July sales figures afford enough information to indicate that consumer buying will improve sooner than had been anticipated.
A study of available figures indicated that the large quantity of merchandise accumulated in the latter part of 1936 and early 1937 has gradually been liquidated and that for some lines, stock levels are back again to normal.
The survey added that dealers' stocks of heavy merchandise also "have been gradually worked down."

PRODUCTION STEADY
FROM SEWING ROOM

Steady production for the past two weeks was reported from the WPA sewing room here Wednesday.
When the regular semi-monthly transfer of garments to the surplus commodities distribution unit was made Wednesday, a total of 1,236 garments made during two weeks was reported for the sewing room project.
