Great Red Spurt Attributed To Dismal Showing Of Cubs, Giants

Babe Ruth, the home run hitter who returned to baseball recently as a coach for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was safe at home today plut it was a wonder.

He was driving himself back to New York from a visit with friends near here last night when his cartangled left front wheels with another automobile, swerved 30 feet across the West Saddie River road, struck a low stone wall and fell on its side.

Tight pliching in the pinches by Hal Capdeville, who whiffed 13 batters, and a seventh inning single by Tom Cigno, scoring two men gave Bieck of Upper Saddie River, driver of the other car, stayed on the road and also was minjured.

Chevy errors settled all doubt as to hefty home run hitter, three times and tally a 4-3 victory. That wit broke the Barons' losing streat that had extended to three games

Tough Situations The young righthander's feat was exceptionally grand in that be pitched himself out of a half dozen tight spots that usually has sounded the death knell of his mound mates. He faced a trying situation in the opening frame when the Hubs loaded the corners on him but out he came unscathed.

His hill opponent, Frankie Grabek, twirled masterfully but he was doomed to fall. He gave up only five hits but Soden's were behind him at the right time Big Spring drew first blood in the third frame when Hank Henderson hooked into one of Grabek's slants for a double, the first Baron lick of the game. Allen Berndt followed with a two-base blow, scoring Henry and came home a moment later when Taylor miscued on Harkey's ground ball.

Bobby Decker messed up one of Malcolm Stevens' ground balls to allow Lubbock to tie the count in the fifth after Bob Mosel had doubled Joe Gedzius home for the first tally and, for a time, the Big Spring stock was dropping. The next frame saw Berndt miss a third strike tip off Hillin's bat and Bobby clout the next pitched ball over the right garden barrier to send the Hubbers into the lead but that advantage was short lived. Decker walked to start the Big Spring part of the sixth, went to second on Dick Hobson's single and tallied on Joe Saporito's single to

Kennedy Calls Post Article A 'Lie'

Says Jimmy Roosevelt Gave Him No Assistance

NEW YORK, June 29 (P)-Jo leph P. Kennedy, ambassador to Great Britain, today denounced as a "complete unadulterated lie" ar assertion in a current magazine article that James Roosevelt, son and secretary to the president, helped get him his ambassadorial post and helped him as well to become "the premier Scotch whisky salesman in America.

The article, by Alva Johnston in the Saturday Evening Post, dealt mainly with young Roosevelt and his career as an insurance sales as he sailed for his London post. Reading the section applying to him he commented with a grain: "I admit I am the ambassade

Scotch whisky salesman in this county. I do like, however, to be the best in everything.

Reading further in the article he added he never had bought "one cent's worth of insurance from Jimmy Roosevelt." He had needed nobody's help in getting public po sitions, he said.
