

Investigation Into Proration Bribery Case To Continue

AUSTIN, Mar. 14 (AP)—Two assistant attorneys general and two public safety department officers were instructed today to return to Midland and continue an investigation in the case of a deputy oil supervisor of the state railroad commission charged with accepting a $5,000 bribe.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann announced the men, Ben Woodall and D. Burie Davis, who will be accompanied by Special Investigator R. F. Spain and Ranger Joe Thompson, would be sent at the request of District Attorney Martelle McDonald. He said his department would assist in the investigation and prosecution.

It was reported operatives of the United States interior department also had a hand in an earlier investigation disclosed by the press in Midland Tuesday of Gordon Bigham, deputy supervisor in charge of the Midland oil proration district.

Bigham was arrested by Texas rangers, who charged him with having accepted a bribe "contingent upon his recommending to superior officers that no reduction be made in allowable production on properties of the Shasta Oil company." He waived examining trial and gave bond of $5,000, making no statement.

Meanwhile, Attorney General Mann disclosed he had been informed 10 days ago by R. J. Kelley, vice president of the company, that Kelley would be solicited by an employee of the commission to pay $5,000 so that the company's production in Howard county would not be decreased. Mann said he had brought the information to the attention of District Attorney McDonald of Big Spring.

Jerry Sadler, a member of the railroad commission, said that when Bigham was arrested in Midland Tuesday evening, he (Bigham) was in possession of $9,020 and that $5,000 was in bills paid by the Shasta Oil Co. of which the serial numbers had been recorded. In addition to the $5,000, the deputy supervisor had 51 $20 bills, the commissioner said.

The money was passed in Big Spring (at Shasta offices) but Bigham was not arrested until he arrived in Midland, according to Sadler.

Sadler said "no culpability is attached to the Shasta Oil company," and it had "cooperated fully" with the commission, Texas rangers and the department of the interior.

Sadler declared Bigham's arrest culminated a condition in the Midland district of "long duration" and announced oil well potentials in the district would be re-taken by commission engineers.

He further announced that W. J. Christian, chief enforcement officer of the commission, had taken charge of the Midland office.

Mail Route Changes Made

Changes in rural route No. 1 and in the motorized city delivery route were announced here Thursday by Postmaster Nat Shick.

The rural route changes affect an area between Coahoma and Big Spring, while the city delivery will be extended to two blocks in Park Hill addition, said Shick.

Leaving Coahoma, the rural route will proceed west on the new highway (U.S. 69) to the first south line west of Sand Springs and thence to the old highway and on into Big Spring on the existing route.

Under the route change ordered by the post office department, three families between the Coahoma corner and where the route picks up again on the old highway will be omitted from the delivery service. It was estimated that about 30 boxes will be served at Sand Springs on the new routing. The change is effective March 16.

Extension of the city route to include delivery on the 700 and 800 blocks of W. 18th street (Park Hill) will be consummated as soon as residents in that area erect curbs and mail boxes in compliance with a department requirement, said the postmaster.

Late Blossoming Means Lighter Freeze Loss

Damage to the fruit crop in this area after two mornings of sub-freezing temperatures was mitigated Thursday by the general lateness of blooming of the trees. While a generous portion of the young fruit put on by trees which started flowering last week was conceded to be killed, it was estimated that half of the trees of the county had not blossomed in full. Consequently, barring further biting temperatures, fruit that does put on should be thrifty.

Apricots appeared to be hardest hit. Peach and plum blossoms with amazing consistency this year, were not generally or seriously hurt.

SEAMAN CONFESSES ROBBERY SLAYING

LOS ANGELES, March 14 (AP)—William Kenneth Starbuck, 24, merchant seaman of Corpus Christi, Texas, surrendered to officers here today, telling Deputy Sheriff P. M. Kincaid that he shot and robbed a man in Louisiana.

"I couldn't stand the suspense any longer; I had to know whether he died," Kincaid quoted Starbuck.

Starbuck told the officers that while hitchhiking to Corpus Christi he was given a ride by a man he knew as Ralph Wiley. En route, he declared he shot Wiley, robbed him and threw him from the automobile.

FRENCH PREMIER TO GIVE WAR REPORT

PARIS, Mar. 14 (AP)—The senate voted unanimously this afternoon to go into immediate secret session to hear Premier Daladier explain his conduct of the war to date.

The vote was taken after the premier himself, responding to clamorous press comment on the Russian-Finnish peace.

Oil Proration Case To Go To Highest Court

Stay Granted To Give RR Commission Time For An Appeal

HOUSTON, Mar. 14 (AP)—A 60-day stay, so that it may appeal to the United States supreme court, was granted the Texas railroad commission today in its fight against a proposed federal court order nullifying its oil proration orders concerning two companies.

The case involved the commission, the Humble Oil and Refining company, and the Rowan and Nichols company, operators in East Texas.

On Feb. 21, a three judge court at Austin ruled the commission's proration order as it affected Humble and Rowan and Nichols was unreasonable, confiscatory and void.

No ruling was entered at the time, however, and the court gave the commission ten days in which to revise its order or appeal the case.

The commission decided to appeal and the case was set for hearing here today. Federal Judge James V. Allred was not present, but Judges Samuel Sibley of Atlanta and R. J. McMillan of San Antonio, heard the evidence and decided on the stay.

Jerry Sadler, railroad commissioner, was elated at the decision. "It makes me very happy," he said, "for the operators, the royalty owners and employees that the judgment was stayed."

The court at Austin had decided the spread between production allowed poorer wells in East Texas and that allotted better wells was not large enough and suggested, the 20-barrel minimum be reduced.

It said the minimum allotment of the field took up three fourths of the allowable, leaving only one fourth to be distributed on the basis of "values of the various properties."

The rail commission, however, took the view that reduction of the minimum would hurt the small operators and production might be thrown "wide open" as a result of the decision.

The railroad commission a few days ago won the right to a supreme court review in a case brought by Rowan and Nichols.

Rumania To Be Spared?

BERLIN, March 14 (AP)—Germany, an unimpeachable although nonofficial source disclosed today, has obtained a definite pledge from Soviet Russia that Rumania will be spared, come what may in south-east Europe.

This assurance, which probably will be publicly documented soon, apparently has enabled German diplomacy in turn to make Rumania incline toward a Russian-Rumanian non-aggression pact.

Negotiations are being conducted in the greatest secrecy.

Authoritative sources in Bucharest said a Rumanian commission of high army officers was in Berlin.

Just why a military rather than an economic mission should visit Berlin at this time is a mystery.

While official Germany and the Rumanian legation are tight-lipped, unofficial inquiries invariably elicit expressions like "something is doing between Russia and Rumania, the whole complexion of the international situation may change before the week is over."

One well-informed person went so far as to say this week was one of the most decisive of the war and would "furnish political foundations for Germany's military victory."

The Rumanian question, he said, was a factor in the situation.

New Park Amphitheatre To Be Site For Union Easter Sunrise Service

Sunrise Easter services in the new city amphitheatre, will be sponsored by the Pastors Association, it was announced here Thursday.

Conceived as a union undertaking of many denominations, the Easter service will be the first ceremony of its kind here in years and perhaps in the church history of Big Spring.

Now in the final stages of construction, the huge stone amphitheatre on a strategic slope in the city park is due to be near completion by March 24—Easter Sunday. It will have a seating capacity of about 6,000 at that time.

Scandinavian Alliance Now Necessary, Says Finn Chief

Nation Hopes To Avoid Fate Of Czechoslovakia

HELSINKI, Mar. 14 (AP)—President Kyyosti Kallio told Finland today her losing fight with Soviet Russia, ended by a crushing peace after 105 days, had made a Finnish-Swedish-Norwegian defensive alliance inescapably necessary.

The necessity of such an alliance, he said, has "become evident during this war" and he added:

"I dare to hope that the essentially of a northern defensive alliance has become evident also to our neighbors during this war."

Finland counted on new fortifications and a possible alliance, if need be, to save her from Czechoslovakia's fate.

Shorn of heavily fortified frontiers by the pact of Munich, Sept. 29, 1938, Czechoslovakia just a year ago tomorrow passed under the rule of Adolf Hitler's Reich.

President Kallio spoke in a broadcast address and he said to his people they should not forget that Finland still is independent and still possesses a powerful army.

He expressed appreciation for American relief activities and said that "in this respect the work done by former President Hoover has been of extreme value." He also thanked the Scandinavian countries and western powers for their aid.

Work on the road to begin the work of removing thousands of Finns from areas to be ceded to Soviet Russia.

Premier Risto Ryti and the delegation which accepted the Russian settlement in Moscow returned to Helsinki last night with the text of the peace pact.

Kallio declared "this nation must fight for its own strength" and "win for the great reconstruction task," but added "we trust that those civilized nations which recognized the fundamental principles on which our defensive struggle was based will make it their duty to support us."

Foreign Minister Vaino Tanner made it clear that despite the crushing peace that ended the war, Finland intended to take every step to protect her newly-narrowed borders from future threats.

Asked if fortification of the new borders would be permitted, Tanner flashed back:

"Who is going to stop us?"

He added, "our military commanders say all borders are defensible."

Nevertheless, with the great Manerheim line and most of Finland's other frontier defenses ceded to Russia and a Russian naval base to be established on the key peninsula of Hanko under Tuesday's treaty of Moscow, Finland looked forward to discussions aimed at a defensive alliance with Sweden and Norway.

Foreign Minister Halvdan Koht of Norway said his country agreed several days ago to "consider the possibility" of such an alliance and the Swedish foreign office made a similar announcement today.

These northern neighbors already have agreed to talk it over at Finland's initiative, Tanner said, although they refused such an overture when the war was in progress.

To the mourning public of Finland, which lost thousands of its sons and much of its wealth in the futile struggle against invasion, the government broadcast a plea for continuing in peace cooperation and unity that was so characteristic in war.

The grim little Finnish army prepared for the step-by-step withdrawal from its snowy battle fronts as provided for both armies in Russia's truceless peace terms.

Valley Crash The Worst In State History

Fruit Pickers Of Mexican Descent Victims Of Crossing Tragedy

MCALLEN, Mar. 14 (AP)—Twenty five persons were killed today when a Missouri-Pacific passenger train splintered a truck loaded with fruit pickers at a crossing six miles east of this Lower Rio Grande Valley town.

Seventeen were injured, many critically.

Worst In History

State Police Director Homer Garrison, Jr., described the wreck as apparently the worst in Texas history.

The Missouri-Pacific train crashed into the truck at 8:06 a. m. and carried the vehicle on its cowcatcher for about 600 yards, with bodies and limbs being scattered along the tracks for that distance.

Nineteen bodies were taken to two McAllen morgues and four were carried to nearby Weslaco.

Identification of the victims, all passengers in the truck, was slow but all apparently were laborers of Mexican descent living in the farm areas around Alamo, Texas.

The 17 injured persons were taken to the McAllen municipal hospital.

The truck burst into flames under the impact of the crash, and one victim was found charred when the train had stopped.

Garrison, commenting in Austin, said:

"The McAllen crossing wreck apparently is the worst of its kind in Texas history. Our records go back only to 1935 when the public safety department was created but no one here can recall a crossing incident in which more lives were lost."

One of the worst previous crashes occurred Jan. 22, 1927, in which 10 Baylor university students were killed and 12 injured in a crossing accident at Round Rock, Texas.

The train's flaring in the McAllen crash runs between Harting and Rio Grande City. The track parallels the main lower Rio Grande valley highway.

Justice of the Peace Bob Savage of San Juan was investigating.

Eye witnesses said bodies were strewn along the right-of-way for 500 feet, and a half dozen ambulances picked up the injured and carried them to hospitals in nearby Lower Rio Grande valley towns.

Names of the dead and injured were not immediately available.

The truck in which the orchard workers were riding apparently was struck squarely in the center, and remained jammed on the front of the locomotive when it came to a halt.

He not only returned him to his post, but he increased his authority, it was understood. Instead of acting as a division engineer and having no connection with other engineers in districts 7-B, 7-C and 8 (West Central Texas and the Permian Basin area), he will now be in charge of three other engineers in the tri-district territory.

Stipp was in Midland again Thursday, but he planned to be back at his office in the Petroleum Building Friday. He had keys to the new lock on his door, put there on order of Bigham, who served Stipp with first notice of his dismissal in February and barred him from his office.

Sadler made Stipp's reappointment retroactive to March 1. Stipp is a graduate of Oklahoma university, a former district superintendent for Pure Oil Co. and the T.&P. Land Trust, and has been with the railroad commission since 1932 when he spent two years at Henderson before being assigned to Big Spring.

Hubert C. Stipp, division petroleum engineer for the Texas railroad commission, Wednesday evening reopened his local office from which he had been ousted Feb. 16.

Return of Stipp to his post was announced by Jerry Sadler, railroad commissioner who summarily announced his dismissal a month ago without amplification.

Sadler, who was in Midland Wednesday assisting in investigation of the bribery charge against George Gordon Bigham, deputy supervisor for the railroad commission, asked Stipp to Midland for a conference, it was learned here.

More appointments were announced today by Edmund Nottelmeier, general chairman, as preparations for entertaining the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention here May 13-15 gained speed.

R. R. McEwen was named head of the registration group with A. Swartz, Pat Kenney and D. D. Douglass in charge of local registrations and Joe Pond handling out-of-town registrations.

Bill Tate will be in charge of the entertainment group, said Nottelmeier. J. C. Douglass, Sr., will be housing committee chairman, and J. B. Harrison in charge of group arrangements. J. C. Douglass, Jr. was announced previously as in charge of decorations for the WTCC meet.

3 Others File For City Posts

Big Spring voters have a longer list of candidates from which to choose three city commissioners in the municipal election on April 2, as a result of announcements Thursday. Three more names had been filed with City Secretary Herbert Whitney.

They were J. B. Collins, R. L. Cook and D. W. Webber, each of whom acted independently. Other candidates are R. V. Jones and Elmer Cravens, both standing for re-election. J. C. Loper and Ed Merrill. Another commissioner whose term expires this year is Vic Mellinger, who has announced he will not run again.

No formal statements came from any of the three whose names were filed Thursday. Collins, prominently known business man and civic leader, and Cook, also widely known in business and civic circles, told The Herald they had no "platform" to offer other than a desire to be of service in maintaining an efficient city administration, and in continuing harmonious municipal operations. Cook several years ago served for a brief period on the city commission, and both he and Collins have been members of the local school board. It was known that both men had been widely urged to submit their candidacies.

Webber, for several years a resident of Big Spring, former manager of a local department store, and now an employee of the Cooden refinery, was an unsuccessful bidder for a place on the commission two years ago. He has voiced a desire to assist in directing an economical and progressive administration for Big Spring.

Under municipal election statutes names may be filed for the ticket, without petition, through March 16. Saturday. Candidacies may be filed by petition through March 30.

Freight Rate Ruling Favors The South

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce commission refused today to reopen for reargument its decision in the long-fought south-to-north freight rate case, in which the south won an important victory.

The commission also today ordered reductions put into effect June 1.

As in the original decision, the commission voted 5 to 4 against granting petition filed by the northern railroads and northern intervenors for reargument and rehearing.

In its original decision the commission ordered reductions in rates on 18 commodities from the south to the north to a basis approximating that within the north. The south-to-north rates on the commodities involved now are about 37 per cent higher than the rates within the north.

Three Held In Robbery Of Texas Bank

SHERMAN, Mar. 14 (AP)—Two Denison brothers barely in their twenties and a 38-year-old escaped Missouri convict were held in the county jail here today in connection with the robbery of the First National bank of Bells, east of here.

No charges had been filed although officers said the fugitive convict admitted robbing the bank and took all the blame. They also said Justin West, the bank teller, identified the convict as one of the robbers but was not sure about the others.

The trio was captured by Constable Ira Jesse, Police Detective A. J. Harton and Deputy Constable Paul Smith, all of Denton, yesterday afternoon barely an hour after the bank was held up. The officers reported finding $1,127.

The capture was made six miles east of Denton.

Two overall-clad men held up the bank. The officers said they suspected one of the brothers was the convict's companion and the other brother drove the get-away automobile.

The bank reported $1,089 taken, meaning more money was found with the men than was believed carried off in the holdup. Officers quoted the escaped convict as saying he fled from Jefferson City eight months ago while serving a bank robbery sentence.

The capture was perfected as the trio was preparing to switch from a late model car stolen at Denton Tuesday night to an old model truck. Two guns were taken from the men. The officers found $784 buried in the sand at the side of the road.

The bottom is still falling out of part of undermined Shenandoah.

Slowly and barely perceptibly, the northeast corner of this anthracite town of 21,000 is sinking into a coal mine, ten days after the ground first started to sag last March 4.

Final Figures On Water Job Are Approved

Final figures on the city's PWA waterworks improvement program, approved by city commissioners, shows expenditures were only .997 of one per cent above estimates of $546,000 for the job.

Actual cost was $556,039.49, according to the statement of the account.

The city put $275,000 in bonds and $47,232 in general funds into the construction of the extensive project which included two lakes, pipelines, filtration plant, reservoirs, etc.

PWA paid in $222,688 in four separate grants, and has been re-questioned for a fifth and final grant payment of $23,011. The city has paid in $21,893 of this amount and will expect its general fund to be reimbursed in this amount.

Tabulation of costs follows: Advertising, printing, bonds, water permits, etc. $1,232; land, right-of-ways easements, $20,519; engineering, $26,361 (including $24,534 for supervision, inspection and engineering; $1,148 for testing materials and $679 for test well and survey expense); legal administrative and overhead, $248; miscellaneous $40; and $497,537 for construction.

Construction costs are divided thusly: Elevated steel tanks, $17,913; supply mains to tank $15,924; dams and diversion channel, $198,115; pipelines and filtration plant, $242,809; concrete reservoir and covers for old reservoirs, $26,979; transfer relay mains, $4,965; 12-inch Venturi meter, $825.

Accompanying the report was a memorandum to commissioners concerning the final PWA audit. "I wish to advise," said City Manager E. V. Spence, "that Mr. C. L. Canlin, federal auditor, has completed a thorough audit of the entire expenditures of both PWA and city funds in connection with the construction of our waterworks improvements program. Mr. Canlin has authorized me to advise the city commission that he has found all expenditures properly accounted for and that Mr. (H. W.) Whitney's (city comptroller) records were in excellent shape and that he received full cooperation and assistance during this audit and that his report to the federal government would be made accordingly."

Medicine Plant From China May Come To U.S. As A Result Of War

Test plots were planted and it was discovered that with proper care plants could be developed to furnish ephedrine in usable quantities. It was found that naturalized plants could produce as much as 1.64 per cent ephedrine as compared with the Chinese-grown shrub content of 1 per cent.

Though known in China for thousands of years as Mahuang, the plant and its drug were scarce-

Who Gets The First Planes?

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14 (AP)—While congress took a hand in the controversy over allied warplane purchases, aviation circles tried today to reconcile reported Franco-British eagerness for American fighting craft with the slow trickle of actual orders.

The release of latest type American war planes to the allies aroused many congressmen, and a house military affairs sub-committee ordered an inquiry next week to determine whether national defense interests were being jeopardized. A move for a kindred investigation was instituted in the senate.

Aircraft manufacturers are confused by contradictions.

The allied war purchasing mission has been represented as desperately eager to obtain the latest model American planes in large quantities. There have been contentions that pressure was exerted to sidetrack army and navy orders to speed up European deliveries. But the aviation record does not bear this out.

Despite last week's announcement the allies intended to spend a billion dollars for planes, there has been no indication of a speed-up in contracts, aviation sources said.

In the last three months only about $40,000,000 in allied aircraft orders have been placed.

U. S. Will Continue Its 'Moral Embargo' Against Russians

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—With President Roosevelt indicating uneasiness over Finland's future, the United States will continue to regard Russia warily for some time.

This became apparent today when it was learned that the "moral embargo" against Russia, imposed by Mr. Roosevelt and the state department after the Soviet invasion of Finland, would be maintained indefinitely regardless of the Baltic peace.

The president laid down the "moral embargo" on the shipment of airplanes and parts to Russia in December. This was later amplified by the state department to include materials going into the manufacture of airplanes, and also plants and plans for the manufacture of aviation gasoline.

No move to lift any of these embargoes will be made for some time, it was learned, because:

1. Officials are not sure that Russia will not again move against a weakened Finland.
2. Nor are they sure that Russia will not move against other nations, perhaps in the Balkans or the Near East.
3. Nor are they sure that materials sent to Russia are not going on through to Germany.

President Roosevelt's concern over the Finnish situation was expressed in a statement issued by the White House late yesterday. He said:

"The ending of this war does not yet clarify the inherent right of small nations to the maintenance of their integrity against attack by superior force. x x x

That the president still resents aerial bombardment of Finnish cities, which provoked the "moral embargo" against the Soviet, was clear from the White House statement.

Continued financial support of Finland is pledged by Jesse Jones, Federal Loan administrator, who is keeping the $30,000,000 allocated by the Export-Import bank available to the republic, regardless of the fact that the war is over.

FINAL PENDERGAST CASE COMPLETED

KANSAS CITY, March 14 (AP)—U. S. District Attorney Maurice M. Milligan's docket of cases against Pendergast machine leaders is empty.

Conviction of Matthews S. Murray, former state WPA director and former city public works director, cleaned up the list.

Boss Tom Pendergast: E. M. O'Malley, former state insurance superintendent; Otto Higgins, former police director; John J. Pryor, machine-favored contractor, and Charles Carollo, gambling king, all are in Leavenworth.

All pleaded guilty to income tax evasion.

Angelo Donnici, pudgy tavern keeper who headed a million-dollar-a-month narcotics ring, also is in the federal prison.

Murray is the only one who fought the government. He pleaded innocent and elected to stand trial without a jury.

Band Uniform Contract Let

Measuring for new uniforms for members of the Big Spring municipal high school band—made possible through generous donations by local business firms and individuals—was to be started Thursday afternoon by Lee Hanson's haberdashery and the Evans company which will supply the uniforms.

Contract for the uniforms—there will be 72 in the initial order—was awarded to Hanson Wednesday, by a special committee which had devoted considerable study to samples and bids offered. Representatives of the Band Boosters club, the school administration and others served on the committee.

Perhaps a dozen bids were offered, and committee members deliberated at length as to price, quality, construction, color, etc. The Hanson bid of $29.50 was finally accepted. Two other bids were slightly lower, but members of the committee said they took into consideration quality of material offered and general construction detail of the garments. The choice was unanimous.

Hanson said 30 band members were to be measured Thursday afternoon, and that the work of taking measurements would be completed Friday. The order will be speeded as much as possible, so that band members may have the new uniforms to wear for special events next month.

Farley's Daughter Opens Campaign Against Him

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—A pretty young girl who knows a lot about politics has launched a campaign against Postmaster General James A. Farley for president.

She is, of all people, his 13-year-old daughter, Ann.

It is not disloyalty that has brought out the New York school-girl against her papa. The way she looks at it, it's loyalty.

Ann is simply tired of not seeing enough of the postmaster general and chairman of the Democratic National committee.

Ann lives with her mother in New York. A sister is at college and a brother at boarding school, and Mr. Farley is in Washington most of the week.

The postmaster general, his daughter claims in common with lots of other people, is good company. She wants him around more, and it's politics that keeps him away.

If Ann had her way, Mr. Farley would get a good job and settle down at home. And—she doesn't mind telling him so.

Calls For Manifestation Of Spirit, But There Is No Response To Plea

CHICAGO, March 14 (AP)—Claude Noble, a magician, stood on a bleak bridge in Jackson park, held out a hymn book, and called upon the spirit of Clarence Darrow to manifest itself if it could.

Hopefully, he stood in stances for a full minute. A bird squeaked in a naked tree and outside the park the hum of the city's traffic rose and fell. Then he turned to the newspapermen and said: "No manifestation."

It's been the same story for more than 75 years.

Noble, who came from his home in Detroit to conduct the experiment yesterday, said magicians had been trying to get a glimpse into the great beyond since the days of Confucius.

There are always arrangements made beforehand. In the case of Darrow, the great criminal lawyer and agnostic, they were agreed upon at a meeting in a Detroit hotel three years ago.

"I was there and so was Howard Thurston," Noble said. "Thurston believed in spiritualism, but Mr. Darrow did not. But Mr. Darrow agreed to try to manifest his spirit if I would give him the opportunity."

Darrow had promised to try to "ignite the book so that it would fall from Noble's hand. The magician trembled, but nothing stirred the book, not even the wind."

Formal Opening For Elliotts' Remodeled Store Is Scheduled Friday

Pictured above is the enlarged and modernized Elliotts' Crawford Pharmacy, which will celebrate a "formal opening" Friday with an invitation to the public to call from 2 to 4 p. m. Friday, there will be souvenirs and fountain drinks free to ladies, cigars to men, and ice cream free to children accompanied by their parents. The new Elliott store represents extensive remodeling and expansion, the floor space having been more than doubled. In addition, a new fountain and new soda tables have been installed, fixtures rearranged and modernized, new floor covering laid, and up-to-date lighting fixtures installed. A new neon sign graces the outside of the store, which is floodlighted, and neon tubing is used in interior lighting. In addition, a handsome new fountain pen case—containing a large display—has the modern fluorescent lighting. Enlargement of the store has resulted in expansion of the prescription department, to make it one of the most complete in the city. The store has been made much more attractive with re-arrangement of shelving and displays. Said J. D. Elliott, who with Mrs. Elliott, owns the store: "The new expansion comes as a result of the fine business we have enjoyed in Big Spring, and we are enlarging the facilities of our Crawford store to give better service than ever before. We believe our patrons will be pleased to see the new and up-to-date accommodations we have arranged for them." The Elliotts first opened their Ritz drug store here six years ago, and have enjoyed expanding business. The Lyric unit was added, then the

First, fill in and mail the Reservation Form printed below.

The purpose of this form is not to obligate you in any way but to enable us to estimate the quantity of records and Record Players to have on hand to meet the demand.

Each day during this music appreciation offer we will publish a reminder coupon setting forth the date on which each symphony will be ready. You can get the four symphonies listed above at any time—come in for them as once. Subsequent symphonies will be released one every two weeks and will be available thereafter. Watch the reminder coupon which will be published daily. It is not necessary for you to clip the coupons in order to get your records or Record Player.

You obtain each symphony, which consists of three or four double-faced, 12-inch records, for a payment of $1.49. This payment is not for each record but for all THREE or FOUR records. Symphonies which consist of FIVE double-faced 12-inch records require a payment of $1.98 for the entire symphony of all FIVE records. The Oscar Franck Symphony in D Minor, on account of its great length, is divided into two units, each unit consisting of three double-faced, 12-inch records, and the cost of each unit is $1.49, the same as for any other three-record group.

A quantity of de luxe records, known as Pathematic Transcriptions, enclosed in beautiful record albums which have been designed individually for each particular symphony, are available at a slightly higher price.

Thus, whether you get your Record Player before or after you have obtained all of the symphonies, the cost to you is only $3.

For those who want a more elaborate Record Player, a Symphonic De Luxe Model, enclosed in a walnut case, is available at a higher price. First, mail the Reservation Form to assist us in our distribution problems. Please check whether or not you want the Record Player reserved. We will acknowledge your reservation by mail. MARKETS Wall Street

NEW YORK, March 14 (Sp)—The question of what will happen in Europe following the Russian-Finnish peace apparently did more than anything else today to stymie stock market speculation.

Leaders tacked up minor fractional changes either way at the start, and that was just about the way they closed. Transfers were around 850,000 shares for the full session.

While bullish forces were encouraged by further signs of a lessening of the business downturn, and comfort was derived from the fact offerings of important stocks never assumed threatening proportions, traders were disposed to keep commitments light pending more definite trans-Atlantic news.

SENTENCED FOR 1925 KILLING

FORT MORGAN, Colo., Mar. 14 (Sp)—A district court jury today convicted Henry Harrison Markley, 31, of first degree murder for the drowning of a boy 15 years ago, decided he was sane at the time and ordered him sent to prison for life.

Markley has been on trial for the deliberate drowning of Frank Myers, 10, near Brush, Colo., in 1925.

At the time, Markley escaped trial by claiming insanity. That defense also was offered for him at his trial.

The state accused Markley of drowning the boy after an unsuccessful homosexual attack. The state, pressing the murder charge after Markley won release from the Colorado hospital for the insane, sought to show that Markley had feigned epileptic seizures in order to be committed to the hospital.

Liquor Board Awaits Ruling From Mann

AUSTIN, March 14 (UP)—The state liquor control board today awaited the decision of Attorney General Gerald C. Mann whether to prosecute under a law barring board employees from political activity.

Assistant Secretary of State Claude A. Williams yesterday asserted that 13 former board employees and one present employee had violated the statute.

Mann was studying information given him by Williams and Edwin Lacy, Gov. O'Daniel's recent appointee to the public safety commission.

Williams said he conducted his investigation at the request of W. D. Bradfield of Dallas, militant prohibitionist and former Methodist minister, whom O'Daniel named to the liquor board last fall.

State Liquor Administrator Bert Ford recently was exonerated by board members D. J. Decherd of Flatonia and E. W. Crouch of McGregor of political activity accusations made by Bradfield.

"Fifteen former employees (of the liquor board) drew as compensation and expenses the sum of $6,788," Williams stated, "and had been engaged in campaigning for William McGraw for governor during the months of June and July (1938)." Bradfield has severely criticized enforcement methods of the board

Three Linked With KKK In Probe Of Atlanta Floggings

ATLANTA, March 14 (UP)—Evidence before a coroner's jury of widespread terrorism by night-riding floggers, accused of numerous abduction-whippings and one death over a two-year period, linked three church-working county officers with the Ku Klux Klan today.

One of the Fulton (Atlanta) county deputies and a suburban policeman were identified with a flogging. A leather strap used in the fatal lashing of Isaac Gaston, East Point barber, was matched with the scars of another flogging victim.

A coroner's jury heard the evidence yesterday, failing to name Gaston's slayers. Its verdict said he died from "an unlawful beating administered" by three or more unidentified men. His beaten body was found last Friday in a lonely suburban section.

T. E. Young of East Point, where several of the lashings were reported, bared his back to the jury, showing scars he said were caused by wounds inflicted by the terrorists last summer. Assistant Solicitor Daniel Duke matched the heavy four-foot strap, found near Gaston's body, against the welts on Young's back.

Called as a witness, County Deputy Sheriff W. W. Scarborough testified he was the exalted cyclops (head officer) of the East Point Ku Klux Klan. He declared Deputies Herb Eldison and Edward Burdette also were active in the Klan but denied he or the Klan were identified with the floggings.

Odessa Group Here To Boost Stock Show

More than two-score good-will ambassadors from Odessa, on a jaunt to advertise the forthcoming Sand Hills Hereford show in that city, were visitors in Big Spring Thursday morning.

The trippers spent 30 minutes here, offering a brief program of entertainment and publicity that went out over station KBST, and members of the party making visits to downtown business establishments.

The Sand Hill Hereford show will be March 21, 22 and 23, and Odessans were issuing a broadcast invitation for West Texans to attend. The boosters had a long trip ahead of them, travelling eastward as far as Abilene, then doubling back to San Angelo for the night. Friday they were to continue westward from there to Fort Stockton, then were to go to Pecos and back in to Odessa.

The trip is being made by bus, accompanied by two highway patrol cars. Sponsoring organization is the Odessa junior chamber of commerce, with Jerry Debenport, chamber of commerce manager, in charge.

Dorchester Farms Win Honors At Stock Show

FORT WORTH, Mar. 14 (AP)—Glenn Retreat Farms of Dorchester, Tex., today won the gold bell trophy, indicative of being the premier exhibitor of the sheep division of the 1940 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show.

This special award is offered by the Union Stockyards of Chicago and becomes the permanent possession of an exhibitor after being won three times.

Glenn Retreat Farms had both the champion ram and champion ewe in the Hampshire division. Oscar Winchester & Sons of Waukomis, Okla., took all championship awards in the Shropshire and Southdown breeds. Winchester & Sons won the gold bell in 1937.

Early exposition goes, including the Coleman delegation, and the Mason visitors, completing their two-day visit today, gathered in the coliseum arena at 8 a. m., and divided their attention between the dairy cattle, draft horse, jack and mule, and the beef cattle judging.

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—Albert S. Goss has resigned as federal land bank commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration. AN ANALYSIS OF THE WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Of highest importance—especially with all Europe in ferment over the Russo-Finnish "peace" and its potentialities — is Italian Undersecretary Sodd's announcement that Italy is ready to defend its liberty of action with a million trained men under arms and with a fortified bulwark across its Alpine frontiers.

The general added that the frontier defenses facing both Germany and France had been strengthened. That's making distrust, or caution, out both ways.

This supplements, accidentally or otherwise, the straight-from-the-shoulder message which Nazi Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop is understood to have taken back to Fuehrer Hitler this week—that Italy will stay out of war so long as the fascist chief considers it advantageous.

What these two announcements amount to is that Il Duce—who is a very practical man—is free-lancing. And he will fight to maintain his prerogatives. You couldn't ask for a more blunt definition of policy, though you probably would like more details.

It isn't that Hitler wants his partner in the Berlin-Rome axis to come into the war, for I don't believe he does. But there must be an anxious question in the fuhrer's mind as to which way the Italian leader will go if and when he does get into the conflict.

The duce's statement of policy stops short of clearing up that point, so far as the public knows. And it is a vital point for Hitler. Wisdom dictates that Il Duce refrain from being rough with powerful Hitler, and cautions him against raw-hiding England and France enough to draw French troops across his border and set the Anglo-French navies to blockading his almost never ending coast lines.

As a non-belligerent Mussolini can set his merchant marine to sailing the seven seas, picking up profitable markets which formerly belonged to the combatants.

In short, while the other major powers of Europe are doing a fine job of burning up their economic resources in war, Il Duce is trying to make Italy prosperous. And he is bent on keeping war away from the Balkans and the Mediterranean.

'NO LEFT TURNS'

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 14 (AP)—Traffic Patrolman Roger Rydlund swears it's a fact—

"Trudging through the snow on an avenue where 'No Left Turn' signs abound, a woman stopped to ask him:

"I see those 'No Left Turn' signs all the way and I'm tuckered out. How much farther do I have to walk through this snow before I can turn left?"

LEAVE 'EM WHERE THEY LIE

If the Pelvis (Hip Girdle) Is Broken Treat Shock—Leave 'Em Lie

Usually shock is severe following injury to the pelvis and so it is very necessary to protect them as much as possible.

Such an injury requires that they be stretched out flat—kept warm and given a drink of something—in most bad accidents the driver had had a drink—so how about giving the fellow that is hurt some?

Such a break cannot be splinted as a leg or arm, but can be supported and helped a lot by strapping the pelvis tightly with one or two belts or using the sleeves of a couple of shirts to tie tightly around it.

They must NEVER be lifted into a sitting position as a jagged piece of bone inside may slide into the bladder or injure a gut or tear something else.

You ask how you'd know? There is pain of course, unless shock is too severe to feel pain. It hurts to move—worse to try to sit up; there is often numbness of one or both legs; the lower part of the spine may be injured too.

If the bladder is punctured or ruptured, there is severe pain in the lower part of the abdomen and of course shock would be greater, and the urine would be bloody.

Treat shock—lay them flat—keep them warm—strap the pelvis—give them drink.

Don't pile 'em into the back of a car but remove the back seat to carry them on—wait for an ambulance or truck—keep 'em flat.

Strap 'em tight—treat shock—don't move 'em until shock is less—always flat—never sitting up.

Leave 'em lie—warm—quiet.

O'Daniel Meets With Labor Group Which Marches On The Capitol

AUSTIN, Mar. 14 (AP)—A group of more than 30 roughly-dressed laborers today marched to the capitol, asked an audience with Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, got it, and were promised the chief executive would "look into" their grievances.

Harlan Armstrong and Leeroy Wier of Austin, leaders of the group, informed the governor they had been out of work for months and asserted they were being discriminated against on a local low-cost housing project being built by an independent contractor.

One of the governor's secretaries first barred the press when the laborers were escorted into the richly-furnished reception room but the secretary later called in reporters who witnessed the conference.

The governor told the group: "I'll have to investigate this matter. It's all news to me. I'll get all the information I can."

When one suggested they had had time enough to explain their grievances and reminded "the governor's a busy man," O'Daniel said: "Take all the time you want, boys. I'll see what I can do."

"All we want is a square deal, governor," Wier said. "Some of our families are hungry and we've got to feed them. They promised us some jobs and we haven't gotten them. We belong to a local labor union. We've taken it up time after time with heads of the job. Many of us have been registered at the employment office and at the WPA a long time."

For several days, white laborers have sought through the project contractor, Mayor Tom Miller of Austin and union heads to be placed on the work.

Recently, Miller stated the matter was settled.

Only WILSON & CO. Makes Certified Smoked Ham

"TALK ABOUT A TASTE THRILL... THIS WILSON'S SMOKED HAM HAS IT!"

WILSON'S Certified SMOKED HAM
—the original TENDER EXTRA-MILD

It's hard to describe a taste to someone else, but this smoked ham flavor is different—it really is. This real, smoky taste is still there, but it's been sort of streamlined—smooth and mild and sweet. It's the Ham in Bright Orange Wrapper.

EASIER TO COOK. This smoked ham requires no parboiling. Have ham at room temperature. Bake according to your favorite recipe 16 minutes to the pound for whole ham (19 minutes to the pound for half ham) at an oven temperature 325° F. to 350° F. This shorter cooking time saves fuel and reduces shrinkage.

Reduced Cotton Acreage

Many Texas interests are concerned, and rightly so, we think, over the reduction in Texas' cotton-acreage allotment for 1940.

The three regional chambers of commerce in the state, ginners, seed-crushers and others directly interested in the cotton industry are cooperating on this undertaking, with the program headed up through the State-Wide Cotton committee, of which Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro is chairman.

The allotment this year has been put at 8,240,000 acres. This is compared to 9,004,000 acres cultivated last year, which yielded three million bales.

There is evidence that farmers are learning how to produce more cotton from fewer acres, and that is a worthwhile trend.

The answer will be, of course, that the law of supply and demand is still operative, and that markets for Texas cotton have all but disappeared.

NEW YORK—It is interesting to watch John Barrymore play to street crowds while pretending to be unaware of their existence.

This usually happens about 2:15 in the afternoon. A long black car rolls up to the curb.

Then John and his manager get out. He has a hemburg at a sort of dejected angle on his classic brow.

On these occasions Barrymore is very gay and jovial. From his manner you would think that he and his manager were all alone on a deserted street.

Reason? Well, that's the actor of it. That's just a wee bit of stage alley Hamlet that takes place every matinee day in New York.

Exact whereabouts of Lowell Thomas' office in Rockefeller Center must be a deep secret. He comes in every day and gets on the elevators—and disappears.

Leap Before You Look

Chapter Nine The Blonde Gaffly

Tom loved beauty. She wanted friends, the girl chums that the Toland barriers had kept from her.

"Just what are you doing in here?" demanded the vision. "Didn't you see the no trespassing sign on the gate?"

Tom's smile grew sweeter. So this was Lily, the girl who, according to Old Abe, hung around Allen.

Besides, it was difficult for anyone to tell Lily anything she didn't want to believe. This strikingly pretty girl in slacks and sweater was not what she had expected in Timothy Toland's heir.

The appearance of Old Abe offered relief from the irritating smile. "Abe," she ordered, "kindly tell Miss Toland that Miss Mankin is looking for Mr. Bartell."

"Kindly tell Miss Mankin that Miss Toland wishes her luck," returned Tom blithely, and skipped up the steps and into the house.

Tom wasn't smiling when Abe joined her a few moments later. She was walking up and down the living room, saying, "This is mine, mine—all of it!"

"She came to an abrupt stop before Timothy Toland's portrait. 'Just what did you have in your mind when you drew up that will?'"

"But had I known what was ahead, I'd have stayed on with A. J.," she murmured. "This way, I have a six months' start. And, believe me, Timothy Toland, I'm going to take advantage of those months. They'll be lgs... frogs' legs... on every table in the land."

First, however, she must find a place where she might sleep with some assurance of safety. She started a tour of the house and gradually forgot Uncle Timothy, Lily, even Allen Bartell.

now, partner, I reckon we can make a go of it, you and me."

"But why didn't he give the money to me?"

"Maybe he thought you'd spend it for pretties."

"How well did you know Uncle Timothy?" she demanded.

"All it needs is a slide and a mandox to make it a perfect playground," grumbled Tom.

"Well, I wasn't reared with her," stated Tom, emphatically, "and I don't have to put up with her. The idea of her accusing me or anyone else of trespassing."

"I'm not taking her any way," said Tom with such finality that Abe went shuffling out of the house.

Tom went back to her stance before Timothy portrait. Something didn't ring true. If he had thought she had enough business ability to make a success of the farm, why had he thought she would foolishly spend the money he'd set aside?

"She wished she had waited to question Bartell, or hired a Chicago attorney to question him, before she started West. Never have I been involved in legacies, she hadn't realized that six months had to elapse before an estate was disturbed. Anything could happen within those six months. The family might contest the will and win."

"But had I known what was ahead, I'd have stayed on with A. J.," she murmured. "This way, I have a six months' start. And, believe me, Timothy Toland, I'm going to take advantage of those months. They'll be lgs... frogs' legs... on every table in the land."

"Frogs like pigs; they're appetites. They got the same kind of appetites too. They'd eat up your profits if you didn't start movin' 'em to market."

would turn the south side into one big room; at present she'd content herself with the southwest room overlooking the bay—and, her subconscious mind prompted, Allen Bartell's house.

The Automobile She admitted reluctantly that his plan was attractive. It was modern in line with windows like exaggerated portholes, their sea-blue frames gay against the white clapboard walls.

Outside, in a grove of black salt cedars, was a barbecue pit, a court which was probably used for squash and putting green.

"All it needs is a slide and a mandox to make it a perfect playground," grumbled Tom.

"Where does Lily fit into the picture?" she asked thoughtfully.

"Did Uncle Timothy know her?" Abe guffawed. "He sure did. Said once he'd never before seen a blonde gaffly."

"Tom brightened. 'Then why does she think she has some claim on the property?'"

"Sure is," sighed Abe. "Steak—but I couldn't eat it, 'ceptin' ground."

"Where's the garage, Abe?" she asked as he started for the pen. Abe blinked at her.

"Where's the garage, Abe?" she asked as he started for the pen. Abe blinked at her.

Preston Crover Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—Uncle Sam is conducting a treasure hunt—the most thorough in the country's history.

It's a scientific search for seven minerals essential in the making of war weapons. They are: manganese, tin, nickel, chromium, tungsten, antimony and mercury.

The army and navy munitions board lists all seven as "strategic minerals"—that is, if this country went to war, all would have to be obtained, in whole or in part, from sources outside the United States.

A four-year investigation of ore deposits is being made by experts of the geological survey and the bureau of mines. Ore samples are being analyzed in government laboratories, and the bureau of mines is doing research on metallurgical methods.

There have been no startling discoveries since the work got under way last fall. However, bureau of mines engineers say there is hope that potential resources of three metals—chromium, tungsten and antimony—will be found adequate for wartime needs.

The outlook isn't so bright, however, for manganese or tin. Most of the excavation work thus far has been in the west and southwest.

WHAT WE HAVE—AND HAVEN'T Here's the situation on the seven sought-for metals:

MANGANESE—Probably the most critical mineral deficiency. Little U. S. ore is of a type suitable for making ferro-manganese, the alloy used in steel manufacture.

TIN—Second most serious mineral shortage problem. Domestic production less than one-tenth of one per cent of consumption. Some native undeveloped resources. Most of our supply comes from Asia.

NICKEL—Hardly any domestic resources but Canada has about 90 per cent of world supply. Essential in toughening steel and manufacture of armor plate.

CHROMIUM—Current production insignificant but considerable undeveloped chromite ore which could be used in emergency, provided methods are worked out in advance.

TUNGSTEN—Domestic production, about half of nation's consumption, could be stepped up in an emergency. Ore widespread in U. S., but commercial production confined to 11 western states.

MERCURY—U. S. imports about half of its required supplies. Self-sufficiency might be attained for a brief emergency period under stimulation of high prices.

ANTIMONY—Most of our supplies come from a Texas smelter which treats Mexican ore. U. S. resources in this country very limited, but proximity to Mexico helps our strategic position.

Dean Accepts Pay Offer Of Chicubs

Expected To Be On Hand For Exhibition Battle Sunday

By the Associated Press
LOS ANGELES—The no-longer Deanless Cubs and the rookie-studded White Sox launched Chicago's 1940 city rivalry today with the first exhibition game for each. Dizzy agreed to terms yesterday and is expected to be present Sunday when his mates meet the Philadelphia Athletics.

CINCY REDS TO TRY AGAIN AGAINST YANKS

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—You'll have to give the Cincinnati Reds "A" for effort, at least. They hopped over from Tampa today for the sixth attempt (four straight last fall, remember?) to get the best of the New York Yankees and Manager Bill McKechnie was so desperate for victory he planned to throw both Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters at the champs.

SENDS TO USE LATIN HURLERS AGAINST TRIBE

ORLANDO, Fla.—The Washington Senators are planning to give the Cleveland Indians a double dose of Latin hurling tomorrow when the teams meet in an exhibition game. Manager Bucky Harris will open with Rene Montenegro on the mound and follow with Gilberto Torres.

PHILLIES TRIUMPH OVER SYRACUSE CREW, 5 TO 3

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—The Phillies' batting department doesn't look a more robust than last year, but the club managed to capture its first exhibition of the spring yesterday, 5-3, at the expense of Syracuse of the International league. The Phils got only four hits, but benefited from five Syracuse errors.

GIANTS WORK FOR GAME WITH CHAMPION YANKS

WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—The New York Giants took time today to lick their wounds from a 7-3 trouncing by the Boston Red Sox and to prepare for a worse fate tomorrow—a game with the world champion Yankees with the world champion Yankees. The only Giant who stood up against the Red Sox was rookie Roy Jolner, who held the foe to one hit in the three middle innings.

CARDS, BEES WEAKENED FOR CLASH TODAY

BRADENTON, Fla.—The St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Bees were short some of their stars today as they squared off for an exhibition tussle. For the Cards Johnny Mize and Buster Adams were on the sick list with colds. Max West bounced a foul off his own foot in a painful mishap that'll probably keep him on the sidelines along with Eddie Miller.

CARLETON LOOKS GOOD AGAINST THE YANKS

LAKELAND, Fla.—The Brooklyn Dodgers, who have had some luck with castoffs, are enthusiastic over Tex Carleton, the veteran pitcher whom they reclaimed from the minors. He held the Yanks to one scratch hit yesterday and fanned six in three innings.

Texas Wesleyan Defeats Durant, 40-39 To Reach N I-C Tournney Q'finals

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 14 (AP)—Stalling is one thing teams competing in the national intercollegiate basketball tournament haven't been taught. The four games which closed the second round were decided by an aggregate of only six points. A dramatic example is Glenville, W. Va., State.

The Pioneers were leading the defending champions from Southwestern College of Winfield, Kas., by five points with only two and a half minutes to play. Southwestern won, 28 to 27, when Marvin Tucker fired from midcourt in the closing seconds.

Already in the quarterfinals were Texas Wesleyan of Fort Worth; Tarkio, Mo., College; Pittsburg, Kas., Teachers; San Diego, Calif., State; Delta State of Cleveland, Miss.; Maryville, Mo., Teachers and Hamline University of St. Paul.

The Superior, Wis., Teachers bowed out in one of the few lopsided contests, 57 to 40.

Two of the teams moving into public favor are the Pittsburgh Teachers and San Diego State, opponents tonight in the feature battle of the quarterfinals.

The Kansasans have stormed to two comparatively easy victories. St. Joseph of Collegville, Ind., was their first victim, 47 to 26, and East Texas State fell in the second, 55 to 33.

Second round results: Tarkio, Mo., College, 56, West Texas State, Canyon, 49. Pittsburg, Kas., Teachers, 55, East Texas State, Commerce, 33. Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn., 61; Kansas Wesleyan, Salina, 60.

Delta State, Cleveland, Miss., 57, Superior, Wis., Teachers, 46. Texas Wesleyan, Fort Worth, 40, Southeastern State, Durant, Okla., 39.

San Diego, Calif., 48, Appalachian State, Boone, N. C., 46. Maryville, Mo., Teachers, 43, Peru, Neb., Teachers, 41. Southwestern College, Winfield, Kas., 38, Glenville, W. Va., State, 37.

VETS TAKE CAMP IN STRIDE BUT FROSH HAVE BIG TIME

By DELLOM GRAHAM
Tampa, Fla., Mar. 14 (AP)—Baseball players are probably the greatest lobby-sitters and trenchermen in sports.

When they're not on the practice field at the various spring training camps throughout Southern Florida most of the athletes are squatting in the soft, deep-cushioned chairs of the hotel lobbies. They'll sit by the hour doing nothing but lazing around, talking shop or reading the sport pages. Managers frown on poker or other gambling games but many players sit in on a few hands of bridge of an evening. Others play bingo.

Some of the rookies wander about the main streets. Others, particularly the good-looking, like to lean against a piazza pillar and oggle the town's pretty maidens as they meander past. The movies get a good percentage. The hot night spots are out. And beer and liquor are taboo. Some kill time playing shuffleboard.

Curfew At 11
Most managers object to swimming and many ban golf. Some permit an occasional fishing trip. Eleven o'clock is usually curfew hour.

After practice the players are ravenous and—since the club is footing the bill—they stow away meals that would choke the average man. Most of them go for steaks.

The rookies and younger regulars get a huge kick out of the spring trips. But the veterans take it in stride. It's an old story to them. After a winter of loafing it isn't much fun to start work again.

Woodruff Seeks Record Tonight

HANOVER, N. H., March 14 (AP)—Running the fastest half mile in human history will be the objective tonight of Long John Woodruff, the University of Pittsburgh's negro Olympic champion, when he makes his first start on Dartmouth's lightning-fast six-lap board track.

That lanky star highlights the Indians' third annual indoor record-smashing carnival, for he has assigned himself the task of running 800 yards in less than 1:49.2, the world's unofficial outdoor record, claimed by England's Syd Woodruff.

Tiger Success Depends Upon Greenberg

Del Baker's New Gardener Looking Great In Left Field

By GAYLE TALBOT
LAKELAND, Fla., March 14 (AP)—Though the complete returns will not be until about July 4, it may be said at this point that Hank

DEL BAKER

Greenberg looks surprisingly good in left field for the Detroit Tigers and that he likes his new job better every day he plays it.

Also, it can be reported that the Tigers look like a better ball club now that the big guy is roaming the outfield and Rudy York at last is in possession of first base, the one and only spot he can play really well. Manager Del Baker appears to have solved one of the most vexing problems that ever confronted a big league pilot.

"One thing that's helping me a lot," said Greenberg is that I can handle ground balls better than a lot of outfielders. I've been stopping grounders all my life, so I'm not afraid to come in and try to trap a lot of balls that the other fellows stay back and take on the mound. If I don't quite reach it on the fly I know it won't get through me.

"That's just as important as catching flies—taking the ball fast and holding runners on base."

Later, watching Greenberg sprint around out there for nine innings, he looked like he had been telling the truth. He easily hauled down every fly that came his way, chased those that went past him enthusiastically, and pegged the ball in hard and true.

So, with Greenberg and York in there swinging, one-two every day the Tigers feel they can't help being a little tougher than they were last year.

Dick Bartell, obtained from the Cubs during the winter, is playing a scrappy game at shortstop and says he's feeling great. Frank Croucher, shifted over to second, completes a fair-looking keystone combination. Pinkie Higgins remains at third.

Bill McCosky, who hit a great .311 his first season, gives the Tigers additional punch in centerfield, while Bruce Campbell and Ervin Fox probably will divide the right assignment.

Eck Newsum, who won 20 last year, and Tom Bridges, a 17-game winner, will again head the mound staff. Otherwise, Baker mostly must hope that Freddie Hutchinson, last year's highly publicized rookie, will come through on a second attempt, or that Schoolboy Rowe or Dizzy Trout will return to form.

Sooner Aggies Lose, 34 To 30

NEW YORK, Mar. 14 (AP)—They hung the S.R.O. sign on Colorado University's bandwagon today.

The Golden Buffs saw to that last night with the most astounding—and convincing—victory of the metropolitan invitational tournament, a 52 to 37 trouncing of a fine DePaul team. That sent the Buffs into the final Friday night, and they've got their work cut out for them then.

For standing in their path to the title is as tough a bunch of basketballers as you ever saw—the presently indefatigable Dukes of Duquesne, who have gone through two tourney games with only one substitution.

The Dukes ruined the 26-game winning streak of the highly-touted Oklahoma Aggies by 34-30 in a game in which the lead changed hands 11 times.

FIVE TEAMS TO COMPETE IN MEET AT STANTON FRIDAY

SWATZY PLANS TO CARRY A BIG TEAM

The Sports Parade

BY HANK HART

Rego Will Find It Difficult To Replace Wolin, Shortstop

Of all the players on his roster last year, the local baseball skipper, Tony Rego, probably hated to part with Don Wolin, the imported shortstop, more than any other individual. What with Wolin in the thick of the fight for the Pacific Coast league team's regular shortstop berth and no chance at all to get the youngster back, Tony is probably worrying more over that position than any of the others.

Wolin, who had plenty of trouble hitting Class D pitching, was the key man in the greatest fielding inner cordon in the league, probably the classiest fielder the circuit ever boasted.

He was generally accredited with being a better fielder than the Lubbock Hubbers' Sally Parker and that is speaking quite a piece.

Wolin jelled shortstops in the circuit during the campaign with an average of .948. He figured in no less than 45 double plays despite the fact that he played in but 65 games.

The entire Big Spring team compiled a total of 112 twin killings, which easily outdistanced the remainder of the field.

Wolin is gone. So are Billy Capps, ace third sacker, Bobby Decker, second baseman, and probably Curdele Loyd, custodian of the initial hassock.

Which leaves little to work with. It is doubtful if a local team has an inner works like that one again for some time to come since Rego is hunting for power and must overlook many of the fancy Dans who are meek with the timber.

Veteran Baseball Writer Is Supporter Of Current Stars

Henry F. Edwards, a veteran baseball writer who has seen them come and go in the American league since 1900, recently submitted his idea of an all time junior circuit team to a news service, honoring such currently active players as Red Rolfe and Bill Dickey, third sacker and catcher, respectively, of the New York Yankees, and Joe Cronin, Boston Red Sox short stop, on the nine but ignoring such standouts as Joe DiMaggio, Yankee outfielder, Bob Feller, Cleveland hurler, and Red Ruffing, Yank mound ace.

Edwards' idea of an ideal team would be Walter Johnson, Washington, Rube Waddell, Philadelphia, Bob Grover, Philadelphia and Boston, and Ed Walsh, Chicago, pitchers, Lou Gehrig, New York, first base, Napoleon Lajoie, Detroit, second base, Cronin, short, Trotter.

Grover Miller, who was clouded out of the WT-NM league in 1939 only to end up in 1939 winning 16 games for the Palestine Pals of the East Texas league, is trying out with the San Antonio Missions. Miller played with Hobbs two years ago and had the reputation of hitting more bats than any other hurler in the family.

Unsuccessful in his bid for a year around job, George Sturdivant has gone to Henderson from his home in Lamesa where he'll start his sixth season as a first sacker in the East Texas league.

The Ellis Paris basketball team of San Angelo, recent blue ribbon winner in the Sterling City independent tournament, has been entered in the state TAAF tournament at Waco. The Angelenos open their campaign against the Second Presbyterian team of Houston Friday evening.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRITZ
NEW YORK, March 14 (AP)—Those stories that Vanderbilt may be the next big college to give up football are not just fairy tales. There is a strong faculty bloc at work. Also, there is a slight matter of a 150 G deficit. If Ray Morrison had stayed down where they would have slashed his pay in half and cut down on the scholarships. If the alumni (who want football) win out, the coaching job probably will be offered to Bobby Dodd, ex-Tennessee U. backfield star. Meanwhile Philadelphia papers are mailing the new Morrison-Henry Frks-Josh Cody coaching set-up as the best Temple ever had.

It's good to read that Dizzy Dean Has used what passes for his brain and come back to the baseball scene.

War correspondents with the Yanks predict Charlie Kaler will out Joe DiMaggio as the club's premier hitter this season. Owner Tom Yawkey is working out with the Red Sox and was fanned six times by the ancient Herb Fenwick the other day.

Denton Eagles Are Favored At Ft. Worth

Welby Williams To Lead Team In Record Tries

DENTON, Mar. 14—Having established themselves last Friday as the foremost track and field squad in the Southwest by their victory at the eighth annual International Border Olympics, Coach Choc Sportsman's North Texas State Teachers college thirty-clique will invade Fort Worth Saturday in quest of their third straight sweep of the college and preparatory division titles of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show meet.

Friday's victory at Laredo, where the Eagles beat out Texas University by one point to regain the championship they won for the first time in 1937, saw the birth of a new star on the NTSTC squad. Welby Williams, diminutive Eagle speed-merchant, startled his most enthusiastic followers by pulling 1940's first major track upset in defeating Texas Lonnie Hill and Rice's Freddie Wolcott, the Southwest's two greatest dashmen of last season, in the 100 yard dash event with a time of 9.5 seconds.

Williams, a little five-foot eight-inch 185-pound sophomore from Wolfe City, outkicked the long-legged Hill to break the tape by a one foot margin while Wolcott, ranked in '39 as one of America's two best sprinter-hurlers, pulled up in fourth position.

In Three Events
The surprise showing of Williams boosted the Denton Teachers' stock considerably in the forthcoming stock show meet. Herald-ed by local sports followers as the greatest NTSTC dashman since Dolmer Brown, Williams is also a certain choice to aid the Eagles in gathering points in the 220-yard dash and 880-yard relay events as well as the century at Fort Worth. Friday at Laredo he served as lead off man for North Texas on the half mile Eagle relay foursome that tied the Laredo record of one minute, 29 seconds.

The surprise showing of Williams temporarily stole the spotlight from the Denton Teachers' famous rideout twins, Wayne and Elaine, who came through as expected with victory in their distance events. This NTSTC pair are odds-on favorites to cop their third successive mile and 880-yard run events at Fort Worth.

North Texas has established perhaps the finest record of any college in stock show meet history. During the past five years of competition at the Cowtown festival the Eagles have gathered a combined total of twenty records, five marks which are now standing in the college division and six in the prep school sector; three college division championships, and four preparatory school titles.

Coach Sportsman this week will bring one of the youngest NTSTC squads in many years to compete at the Fort Worth meet, which last year drew 1,088 contestants from all over the Southwest.

LEAP BEFORE YOU LOOK

By Peggy O'More

"The garage, where we keep the automobile," she repeated. "Oh, that!" Abe jerked his thumb towards a ramshackle shed.

Tommy approached the shed with considerable apprehension, the memory of Allen's words ringing a warning. She took one look inside. So Timothy Toland had had the nerve to call that an auto? No wonder there were doors at both ends of the shed.

Tommy blocked open the south door, which would allow her to drive forward, then surveyed the vehicle. It was almost as old as she and in as dire need of repair. Even the sagging fenders drooped like the caretaker's mustache.

"Maybe," she thought, hopefully, "it has an amiable disposition."

It took her just fifteen minutes to learn that its disposition was a counterpart of Allen Bartell's. There was a maddening chuckle somewhere underneath the hood. The angrier Tommy grew, the louder the engine chuckled.

"Abe!" Tommy's voice was strident with anger. "Abe! Come in and see if you can make this confounded tin-can do anything but laugh."

The old man dragged up the driveway, patted the fenders and opened the car as if it were a "fussy." He squeezed under the wheel and began the same sing-song communion he had used on the frogs. And, frog-like, it responded.

Tommy fled as the car sprang into

Tyler Decided By Tarleton Five

TYLER, March 14 (AP)—John Tarleton college of Stephenville has clinched at least a tie for the Texas Junior college basketball championship.

The Ploowboys last night defeated Tyler Junior college 45-33. It was Tyler's first loss and Tarleton's third straight victory of the round-robin play-off for the title. The two teams meet at Stephenville tomorrow night in the final game.

Lee Junior college, which lost twice to each Tarleton and Tyler, already has been eliminated from consideration.

IS NAMED CAPTAIN

DENTON, March 14—Woodrow Counts, junior from Bynum, was elected to captain Coach Pete Shands' 1940 North Texas State Teachers college basketball team at a meeting of the Eagle cagers this week.

A starting forward and letterman on the Denton squad for the past two seasons Counts was the Eagles' leading scorer of the campaign with 71 tallies, ranking sixth in the Lone Star conference individual scoring race.

Moisture Is Below Normal

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—Unless rather heavy rains or snows fall within the next few weeks, the weather bureau said today, arrival of the planting season for the spring wheat crop will find important producing states with below normal supplies of soil moisture.

In such states as Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota, where spring wheat will be sown next month, precipitation from September through February was only slightly more than half of normal.

Drouth conditions also are plaguing the winter wheat belt, from Nebraska south into Texas and from Colorado east into the Ohio valley.

On the basis of the reduced planted acreage and poor germinating conditions last fall, officials expected the winter wheat crop to be one of the smallest in several years.

In Texas preparations for planting of cotton was said to be going forward. Some of the crop in the southern part of the state was said to be coming up in poor stands because of dryness.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14 (AP)—Chairman Dies (D-Tex) of the committee investigating un-American activities announced today that "the head of the soviet military police in the United States" would be called before the committee soon in an expose he said would involve "people in government circles."

Dies declined to name the prospective witness.

"The purpose of this," Dies asserted, "is to expose the manner in which the OGPU (Russian secret police) operate in the United States."

It was indicated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had arrested the alleged soviet agent.

ROMANCE, TOO—The film version of Kenneth Roberts' spectacular best-seller, "Northwest Passage," has its elements of romance in addition to thrilling action and swift drama. Ruth Hussey has the heroine's role, playing opposite Robert Young, in the picture to play Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday at the Ritz theatre. Spencer Tracy has the starring role.

Douglas Team Assumes Lead

The Douglas hotel keepers went into a tie for the leadership of the Classic league Tuesday night when they fired a 2801 series to lead the Lee Hanson squad by a bare 28 pins. The two are deadlocked at 668.

The Hotelmen took the Big Spring Motor company five in two of their three games while the Hanson team garnered two from White Swan Laundry in spite of the hundred pin handicap they are forced to give. In the other match between R&R Theatres and Club Cafe, the eating house lads took two aided by J. C. Loper's 219-625. The Club squad also fired a 1011 pin second game.

Several "six hundred" series were shot including Ben Daniels' 221-612, Leo Hayes' 234-607, and Jake Douglas' 217-614 which also gave him high average of 194.

NEW AERIAL BOMB TO BE STUDIED

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—An inventor's claims for a devastating new aerial bomb, reportedly developed along the principle of Hitler's boasted "secret weapon," prompted a call today for a joint session of congressional committees on the national defense.

They were asked to consider the weapon Monday.

The bomb, a liquid oxygen and carbon explosive, was described in private before the senate military affairs committee by its inventor, Lester R. Barlow, of Baltimore, yesterday. The session ended on a theatrical note when stenographic notes of Barlow's testimony were burned lest details of the bomb become public.

American military experts have been skeptical of the practicability of such a bomb, but Barlow maintained he had overcome all questionable features.
