Reconveit administration will gain or lose prestige through the come.

The contest in which the president has the most at stake is the Rentucky Democratic senatorial primary Saturday. Mr. Boose-elt appealed for renomination of his senate leader, Alben W. aarkley, who is opposed by Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Senate committee agents are completing their investigation in contucky into charges and countercharges of coercion of WPA markers and misuse of federal and state patronage.

Senator George L. Berry (D-Tenn.), is seeking renomination arising against four opponents, So fierce has been the struggle long the five men and their backers that the senate committee, icining "schemes and questionable devices" reported by its agents, cast a contest on the senate flood over seating the winner.

The excitement aroused by the Tennessee primary campaign has abated somewhat today by an announcement from Gov. orden Browning that he would not send troops for election day by the Memphis, stronghold of the opposing Grump organization. Here is a glance at the other principal contests in tomorrow's maries:

Missouri Senator Beanett Champ Clark, an anti-administration for, is expected by politicians in Washington to win Democratic omination because be has powerful state and city organization

Kansas—Senster George McGill, Democratic backer of the president, has nominal opposition for renomination. Among the aspirants for the Republican nomination is the Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, openly opposed by National Chairman John Hamilton and other regular party leaders.

Virginia—One of two contests for Democratic nomination to the house of representatives, tantamount to election, is the race between Representative Howard Smith, opponent of some Reoseveit measures, and William E. WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (47—Today might well be celebrated as 'New Year's Day' in Dixie's land of cotton.

Officially, the marketing season for last year's crop closed July 31 and the season for the new crop, picking of which has started in South Texas, opens Angust 1.

The old cotton year went out with a record something like this: Exports, approximately 5,655,000 bales, an increase of about 150,000 bales over the previous season.

Domestic consumption, about 5,600,000 bales, a decrease of about 2,5600,000 bales, the largest on record.

Production, 18,945,000 bales, the largest on record.

Something of the new year's course will be known next Monday, when the U. S. department of agriculture issues its first production forecast.

Brook Takes Pirates Into Camp Again: Giants And Cubs Beaten

Associated Frees Sports Writer
As a hard-boiled baseball fan, whose only reason for standing during the "lucky" seventh inning is to get limbered up a bit, you may not put much stock in baseball superstition. The "jinxes," however, seem to be playing their usual important part in the pennant races.

In particular, Pittsburgh's Pirates, National league leaders, seem to be jinked by the Brooklyn Dodgers and the second-place New York Glants by the Cincinnati Reds, and now the Humble Phillies are woubling Chicago's Cubs.

It wasn't any great surprise to the cash customers when the Dodgers knocked off the Pirates, 4-3, yesterday and the Reds outlasted
the Giants, 7-6, in an 11-inning struggle. Pittsburgh has won just half its 16 games in 17 starts against the Reds.

The Cubs dropped their third straight close one at Philadelphia, 6-5, when Bill Atwood belted a home run with two out in the 12th inning of a twin bill opener. They eame back to win a seven inning nightcap, 4-3. The even break left Chicago 2 1-2 games behind the Giants and one up on the Reds.

Cards Drop Pair

Despite the victory, the Dodgers dropped to sixth in the standing when the Boston Bees won two 3-2 decisions from the St. Louis Cardinals to pick up a half game.

The New York Yankees worked overtime to win two games from the The Cubs dropped their third

But only Madriguera was there really. He sat fifth row on the alse, holding his straw hat in his lap, gazing straight ahead. Tyrone Power was on the screen, sharing honors with Don Ameche and playing the role of a sensitive, somewhat melancholy young man who seemed hurt but didn't want anyone to know it. And by some curious chance of studio make-up he had become Madriguera's win. I have always thought that Madriguera's countenance was exceptionally sensitive and sad. On the gress, is described in reports reaching here as gaining adherents among farmers. It has been criticized by Secretary Wallace as unworkable and inadvisable from a foreign trade standpoint.

It is quite probable, officials said, that a referendum will be held in the midwestern corn belt to determine whether growers favor imposing market quitas to keep price-depressing surplus grain off the market.

AUSTIN, Aug. 1 (27—State Agriculture Commissioner J. E. Me-Donald today charged Secretary Wallace's plan of sending speakers into the cotton belt to oppose the domestic allotment farm plan was "further evidence Wallace is determined to dominate American agriculture and regiment the farmers of the nation.

McDonald, who consistently has supported the allotment plan, as serted that if Wallace was sincere ly interested in agriculture welfare se would have himself gone into the agriculture sections to study the merits of the domestic allotm proposition instead of sending "lleutenants" into the wheat and cotton belts to work against it.

The love letters and art works of Augustus W. Roil, 45-year-old hachelor and gentleman farmer found alain yesterday, were scrutinized today by state police in an attempt to solve his killing.

Roil, a man of extensive property holdings formerly an Algonac church vestryman, was fatally injured by blows over the head with a hoc handle. The hoc was broken into four pieces. The body was found in a chicken house on Roil's five-acre country place where he resided in a neat three-room, ivy-covered cottage.

Dear Diary—

What a Summer this has been! Our family has never had so much fun. Picnics, and beach-parties, and trips, of course. But for the first time we've really enjoyed our home. Dad and Mother have done wonders. A new porch swing and gay cretonne covers for the furniture. A croquet set for the garden, shuffleboard in the garage. My room done over-I helped with that! A sand-pile and gym corner for Pobby. Mother is mildly amazed that all this cost so little. Dad takes credit for thathe's a rabid ad-reader, and when the time came know just what and where he could buy advantageously.

Of course, I've always been thataway too! When one has such a small allowance one soon learns to do preliminary shopping in the newspaper advertisements. And I know it was that darling blue evening frock I bought "as advertised" that brought Midshipman Duncan to his knees!

What a glorious Summer . . . Thanks to our favorite newspaper and its ads!
