New Test—Humble Progress—Marland and Blocking Acreage

The development in the Big Lake field, and the bringing of the World well sixteen miles south of Big Lake in Crockett county, has given impetus to development here. With Durham well No. 2, one and a half miles southwest of here producing a good grade of oil, Sterling county is enjoying a fine play for development.—Sterling City News-Record.

Humble Crew on World Test

With the titles approved, the cash paid and the deal closed, the Humble Oil & Refining Company now have charge of the World well in Crockett county, section 2, block BB, sixteen miles southwest of here, and began fishing for the lost swab.

After being agitated, the well produced better than 100 barrels in 24 hours, and it is expected that the swab will be fished out in another day or so. The total depth of the hole is 2,647, and only two or three feet in the oil bearing sand.

The four wells which the Humble and Marland must drill, in different directions from the well, will probably be started at an early date. Tankage is expected at the new producer now.

O'Reilly, Slack, et al, shut down at 2860 feet repairing boiler, etc. Will resume drilling within next day or so. This well has a good showing of oil and gas, and is being looked upon as the next producer.

Dead is being closed whereby the Armstrong-Stover well section 34, blk. 12, University land, will resume operation.

Hoffman No. 2, section 15, blk. 10, is building rig.

Simon, et al, center 5, 6, 7, 8, blk. 10, is getting ready to put up derrick and should spud in the near future.

World well on L. P. Powell ranch, swabbing oil. The swab has not been removed but it will likely be removed anytime. This well has the ear-marks of a ten thousand barrel well.

Several locations made and as soon as titles are completed will be a huge drilling campaign take place in the southern part of Reagan county and in the northern part of Crockett county.

Crockett Drilling Syndicate's Massey is drilling.

Shannon No. 2 is drilling within seven miles of the World well. Considerable acreage has changed hands near this well at enormous figures.

Cook Oil Company on section 14, blk. 29 University land, Crockett county, is rigging up and will spud in near future.

Red Ball Company, Sec. 5, Blk. 29, University land, has spudded.

Timber is on the ground for the Cumberland test seven miles west of Ozona on the Couch ranch.

There is considerable scramble for good acreage all over Crockett county; the eastern part is also getting a good play. Some acreage has been changing hands in this section.

Gulf Production Company is rigging up on section 1, block 2.

California Co. section 13, block 8, set six inch casing at 4035 feet.

Wm. H. Dunning, section 185, T. & P. lands in the northeast part of the county, is fishing at 300 feet.

McGuire well on the Merchant ranch north of Stiles, LSRV block 12 is down better than 3400 feet.

Big Mesa, Upton county, section 17, block 3, University land, shut down.

Hart well, Nancy Lee survey, Upton county, will resume drilling in the near future.

Several drilling contracts being shaped up to drill soon.—Big Lake News.

T. & P. LAYING 90-LB. RAILS

Ninety pound steel rails are now being laid eastward from Barstow. This improvement will be continued to Stanton where the new eighty-five pound steel rails extend.

The Texas & Pacific railway completed the work of laying heavy steel from Baird to Stanton last year and completed the work of ballasting their tracks from Baird to a point seven miles west of Big Spring.

Rejuvenated at Celebration

T. H. Johnson Elected President of Old Settlers Association—One Day Session in July Next Year

Under the cool and refreshing shade of the stately trees in the City Federation Park the old settlers of Howard county met in a two-day session, last Friday and Saturday, to celebrate once more their seniority as natives of Howard county. Forgetting everything for the time—business, and home, aches and pains, and other matters of importance, the old timers came to this beauty spot of nature to become rejuvenated, inspired and to enjoy the gaieties of this out-of-door celebration.

Just the getting together of this large mass of old timers created an atmosphere difficult to find outside of an extraordinary aesthetic soul. Each with his own true tale of "once upon a time," a perfect fairy tale was woven about the hills, valleys and town site of Big Spring—that we find grown and extensive as it is today.

Probably the oldest settlers in this county is W. T. Roberts—who was present on this occasion. He came to our county about 1878, settling in the Moss Springs section. He has watched Big Spring grow these many years, and the Indian trails and buffalo tracks fade into dim memory, as he visualizes them to compare with the paved highways and pikes that have taken their place in this modern day.

Other old timers who were among the first settlers in Howard county are G. L. Brown, G. W. Wheeler, W. L. Shumake, J. F. Wolcott, Wm. Fisher, Mrs. M. E. Barrett, Mrs. D. C. Everley, Mrs. L. T. Deats, Mrs. Steve Tamsitt, J. E. Millhollen of Stanton and A. L. Houston of Stanton.

The old fiddlers, rounded up by I. B. Cauble put the proper kick into the program with the music that they furnished at their concert Friday evening. The old folks just couldn't make their feet behave and F. Heckler of the Luther community was so strung up that he just had to dance a jig. J. D. B. Boydston, one of the real old timers, and aged 85 years, got so pepped up when the old fiddlers got going that he danced the pigeon wing. Every one there had both feet going up and down, and were clapping in rhyme with the music. I. B. Cauble, Joe Curlee, B. F. Logan, and Jim Winslow are responsible for the peculiar antics of these old folks.

Various forms of entertainment were found on this program but one number especially enjoyed was the speeches made by the old settlers themselves. On Friday, James T. Brooks, Wm. Fisher, Mrs. M. E. Barrett, I. D. Eddins, and G. W. Wheeler of Coahoma reviewed what they thought were land marks in the development of Howard county. On Saturday, S. A. Hathcock and G. Y. Wilson of the Morris community spoke.

Another feature on the program was the real wild west shows staged both afternoons. The fetes performed were the real thing and were pulled off in grand style.

At noon time on both days a real feast of barbecued beef with all of its trimmings was served to the crowd. Seasoned by J. F. McKinney, no delicatessen could have tasted finer. A pot of slum-gullion was kept steaming and was served to those whose appetites fancied it. No one left the picnic grounds hungry.

The election of officers was held, at which time T. H. Johnson was elected president of the Old Settlers Association for next year. He is to be assisted by Vice President J. I. Prichard, and Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. G. L. Brown in planning the big affair for 1926.

It was decided to have only one day session next year, the date to be set as the last Friday in July.

The outgoing president, J. M. McKinney, the other retiring officers and committees in charge are to be commended for the splendid manner in which this big event was planned and carried out. It was a delight for everyone in attendance, and it is an evident fact, that all of the old settlers look with anxiety for the date of the next session to roll around.

POST BAPTIST ASSEMBLY TO BEGIN JULY 28TH

A crowd of delegates from Post, Texas, were visitors in our city Tuesday just before noon advertising the Post Baptist Assembly that is to hold its first annual encampment at Two-Draw Lake, Post, Texas, beginning July 28, to August 6. The delegates brought with them a band, which aided them in boosting.

The site of the encampment is an ideal location for such outings—a beautiful lake for swimming and boating, and lots of cool shade trees.

A splendid program has been arranged for each day of the meeting. Speakers of note on the program are Dr. W. D. Powell of Louisville, Kentucky, Dr. J. D. Sandefer, President of Simmons University, Abilene, Dr. W. M. W. Splawn, President of State University, Austin, Mrs. J. E. Leigh of Dallas, and many others. The program extends throughout the day, beginning each morning with sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30, with class work, song and praise service, sermons and recreation at intervals during the day.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend this big ten-day encampment at Post July 28 to August 6.

T. & P. BALLASTING 200 MILES

F. W. Bettle announces that the work of ballasting the Texas and Pacific railway track, westward, is now in full swing, and a two hundred mile stretch is to be completed this year and next.

The work was started this week at a point seven miles west of Big Spring and at Barstow. Five gangs of thirty men each are now on the job and this work will be carried on without any delay.

Crushed and screened gravel secured from the Sargossa gravel pit on the Pecos Valley Southern Ry., twenty-six miles southwest of Pecos is being used. The Dudley and Orr Co. of El Paso has been awarded the contract to deliver 500,000 yards of this gravel to the Texas & Pacific Railway.

Fifteen carloads of gravel are now being delivered daily but they expect to be delivering thirty cars daily in a short while. The first gravel was unloaded along the T. & P. tracks on Wednesday of last week.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER HERE

The Honorable C. V. Terrell and Walter Geron were in our city for a few hours last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Terrell is a member of the Texas Railroad Commission. Mr. Geron is an inspector for the commission and also carries a card in the Order of Railway Conductors.

Walter is not particular whether he rides cushions or not, and since Mr. Terrell is a sport and anxious to be moving when work is to be done, they came into our city on a freight from Sweetwater, leaving out for Midland on a west bound freight at 8 p. m. that evening. They were on their way to Seminole to be present at the hearing regarding the Katy extension west from Rotan.

HANG OUT A FLAG

Every home should be decorated with our National Flag on July 4th. Let's come alive and do real honor to the occasion.

In view of the fact that the American Legion celebration will be in full swing today as well as on July 4th it would be a good idea for the flags to be placed along the streets in the business section of our city both Friday and Saturday.

There will be many visitors here for the big two days celebration and our entire citizenship should cooperate with the American Legion boys in entertaining them.

DEMONSTRATION AT A. M. FISHER CO.

Mrs. Martha Cook of Philadelphia, Pa., has been at the Albert M. Fisher Co. store this week giving a free demonstration of the products made in the Elmo laboratories at Philadelphia. The Elmo Co. has a complete line of toilet articles, which are sold at the Albert M. Fisher Co. store. Mrs. Cook used in her demonstrations the cleansing cream, tissue cream, tonic astringent, face powder and rouge. The other articles are in display on the counter and can be purchased.

Many ladies attended this demonstration during the week.

Program for Two-day Rodeo

Rodeo, Ball Games, Platform Dances, Barbecue and Band Concert

Features for Two Big Days

The events recorded on the program for the big celebration to be held in Big Spring today and tomorrow are about the biggest and best ever staged in our county, according to the committees in charge appointed by the American Legion members who are backing this affair, to make it a most enjoyable occasion for all attending.

The scene of the celebration will be the Big Spring ball park and the rodeo program on Friday will start promptly at one o'clock. Such events as wild-cow milking, steer riding, calf roping, bull dogging, and bronc busting will be exhibited, one right after the other so that there will be no lag in the program or time wasted. Following the rodeo, a ball game will be played. Lamesa and Big Spring will cross bats, and there is going to be a desperate attempt made by both sides to goose-egg the other one.

A big platform dance will be held Friday evening at the ball park, beginning at 9 o'clock. A lively orchestra will furnish music.

The forenoon program Saturday will consist of a band concert at the band stand on the court house lawn by the Big Spring Booster Band.

Barbecue will be served beginning at eleven o'clock, at the ball park. This early hour for eating is desired so that all can be fed and the crowd moved out in time for the rodeo to start promptly.

Rodeo events similar to the ones staged on Friday will be pulled off again Saturday at one o'clock. Again at 4:30 Lamesa and Big Spring baseball teams will struggle for supremacy.

A platform dance will be given on Saturday evening, too—the same time, place and music will be had as was stated for Friday.

It is hoped that every person in Big Spring, Howard county and all neighboring places are making plans to come here and celebrate with the American Legion boys today and tomorrow. Adequate means are being provided to take care of a host of visitors. Ladies and mens rest rooms will be located on the grounds. Plenty of free ice water will be placed at convenient places to serve all. A cordial welcome is extended to strangers here in our midst.

Come and enjoy one of the best times you've ever had in all of your life—here—today and tomorrow.

BUY SANITARY BARBER SHOP

P. S. Wilkins and son, Glenn, last week purchased the Sanitary Barber Shop on East Second street from Leslie E. Thomas and they are now in charge of this popular tonsorial establishment. As they are well known, and expert workmen, they will not only hold the present patrons of the Sanitary Shop, but will also win many new friends.

Mr. Thomas will be in charge of the hair-bobbing and permanent waving departments of the Vogue Beauty Shoppe, just across the street from the Sanitary Barber Shop.

UNION REVIVAL AT COAHOMA

Dr. W. K. Johnston of Lubbock will conduct a revival at the Methodist church in Coahoma, beginning Monday evening, July 6th. This is a union meeting and all denominations are urged to attend the services. J. M. Manuel, Y. M. C. A. secretary, Big Spring, will conduct the song service.

Dr. Johnston is a safe, scholarly and appealing Gospel preacher, and has good messages to deliver each day. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 8 o'clock p. m.

LET'S SECURE LANDING FIELD

We should secure a tract of level land near our city for use as a landing field for airplanes. It will not be a great while before air mail routes will be designated by our government and cities with good landing fields will be given consideration. A suitable tract can be secured at a reasonable price at present, but if we delay purchase we can expect to pay a much higher price.

BOOST FOR A COUNTY HOSPITAL

Big Spring, today, awakens to find herself in the greatest building era she has ever been a part of. Three new churches going up in the city; fine school buildings already constructed, adequately equipped; business houses and homes being built or improved by remodeling, and extensive work on highways being done on all sides of us. This is evidence enough that the people in the Big Spring country are alive and growing, and have desires to expand even more. Just last week the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. voted to build a modern gymnasium and swimming pool to be operated in conjunction with the "Y."

Build—Build—Build. That is the idea—to construct something that will be an asset and an improvement to the town or community.

Since we find ourselves with such a program before us, it would be well to add another number to it, and let it be the erection of a county hospital. This county needs one. There should be some place at hand where those ill or injured could be taken and cared for. We have no such place at present.

The county could well afford to vote bonds and erect a modern, up-to-date hospital, adequately equipped, where those who are unable to receive treatment at a private hospital, can be treated by the county, and be relieved of their human sufferings.

We have a hospital in our city, under splendid operation, but it just isn't large enough to accommodate all the demands. Our neighboring counties, Mitchell, Dawson, Midland and others support one or more hospitals and find it as big an asset to their town as a railroad.

The citizenship at large seem heartily in favor of the erection of the county hospital. Some of the biggest taxpayers in the Knott, Coahoma, and other communities, acclaim it as the very thing Big Spring has always needed but lacked.

With a modern structure, all up-to-date equipment and complete furnishings, with a competent trained nurse at the head, our county could serve its citizens to as great an advantage as to supply it with a wholesome supply of drinking water.

An ambulance fitted out for comfort should be supplied, so that patients who needed treatment but who were unable to be transported themselves could be sent for. The thing should be done right and no compromises ought to be effected. This thing can be put over, and when its real necessity is fully realized, it will be put across.

Some folks will raise their hands in horror at the thought of the issuance of more bonds in order to erect it. Some think it would be better to go without it. But no—New York City has been issuing bonds for hundreds of years, and still continues to issue more every day in the year. We can well afford to do the same thing in proportion, as long as they do, and still enjoy prosperity.

Talk this matter over among your friends. See if it isn't exactly the next good thing that our town needs. All is well, when folks are strong and happy, but when one is worn out and diseased something has to be done for them. Think this over. It will be worth your while.

"M" SYSTEM STORE OPENED

The "M" System store opened its doors to customers at 9:30 o'clock last Saturday morning, and a good business continued throughout the day. Two hundred and seventy-one enrolled, before closing time.

J. O. Cochran was the lucky winner of the $10.00 worth of groceries, free to the person guessing nearest the number registering at the store that day. His number was 249.

This store has a complete line of groceries attractively arranged in the new fixtures and is ready to serve the public.

Sam Weaver, L. W. Croft and Clyde Fox are not being given an opportunity to overlook the fact that it was a big, fine boy and not a girl that arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pursor Monday, June 29. In fact, they say Dec takes real pleasure in reminding the trio of this.

READ CHILDREN HOLD REUNION AFTER 44 YEARS

Centered in the homes of the Read families this past week has been a group of relatives, brothers and sisters and their children, celebrating a reunion of being together in a group for the first time in forty-four years.

Leaving Kentucky in 1881, and going to various places, the group has not assembled en masse until last Thursday evening when at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurt, the old family circle was again formed. H. Clay Read and Chas. Read and Mrs. John H. Hurt of Big Spring, and Mrs. Hugh Potter of Bowling Green, Ky., Ewell Read of Amarillo, Texas, and Mrs. Oscar E. Nickey of Artesia, N. M., brothers and sisters, have occasioned this happy get-together. They are of a family of ten children, all of whom are still living, but four were unable to attend.

On Friday, the house party was entertained at Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurt's, and since then a series of entertainments have been their enjoyment until the reunion came to a close on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Read were host and hostess to them on Saturday and they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Read on Sunday. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Potter was the scene of pleasure on Monday. Tuesday the group enjoyed a big picnic at the City Federation Park, at which time thirty-three relatives were present. The closing day of the reunion, was spent on the Read ranch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Read.

This was one of the jolliest occasions ever enjoyed by the members of the party—composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Read and children, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Read, Charles, Fannie Sue, Roger and Hezlie Read, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Read, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Read; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Potter of Bowling Green, Ky., and son, Earnest Potter, wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Read, and son Earle Read; Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurt and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hurt and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hurt, Mrs. J. B. Thomas and children of Midland; Mrs. Oscar Nickey of Artesia, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Read and children, Velma and Eleanor of Amarillo, Texas.

The out of town guests returned to their respective homes on Thursday.

Texas on Wheels.

Just now the highways are literally lined with tourists. To the fellow chopping cotton or running a binder in the July sunshine or the woman baking bread for harvest hands in a red-hot kitchen, it seems like the whole world is on wheels. But it's not. You who are at home at work these fine Summer days are not alone in your loneliness. Most of the world is with you. For, after all, only a few of the people are so situated that they can get up and pack up, lock their office door, load in the family and lie away to the mountains or sea coast or some other Summer resort.

But it's true that a lot of folks are on the go at this time. And thousands and thousands more people take time these days to go somewhere for a short vacation than used to go. You know why that is. Simply because they have to go. That's why. All these people we see whizzing up the Colorado to the Gulf Highway, the Ozark Trail, the Lee Highway, the Bankhead and the Meridian Highways, the Glacier to Gulf Highway, the Pat Neff Highway and all the other State highways evidently have a little more time and money to spare than most of us. And have you noticed the government falling to pieces or the towns being wrecked because these folks get out and go somewhere and see something new and hear something interesting once a year? No, most of them are scarcely missed while they are gone. And when they come back they feel so good and they have learned so many new things that they soon make up for all the time and money they spent on the trip.

And that's just the way it will be with you sometime if you ever decide to allow yourself a vacation. And if you don't stop your work and worry for a few days and get out under a big tree or on the bank of a creek and listen to the birds sing and the katydids chirp and rest a few days pretty soon, about a half dozen of your best neighbors will come over to your house some day and carry your for your first vacation but you will never have the thrill of coming back to see how much you were missed. And listen, Mother, Father, the world will move right on the next morning without you just the same as it would if you would pack up the family and take a little rest.

So Important.

It's marvelous how important most of us feel. The great majority of us feel that we can not possibly be spared a day or a week from our home or business. Suppose you didn't get out your paper for a week. It might be the best thing that ever happened to your business. Somebody might miss it and actually appreciate it after that. And think how many interesting things you would have to tell in its pages next week. Suppose you did miss a sermon in your own church. It might do the people more good to have a chance to attend some other church once a year. It might mean a real vacation to them to get to hear another preacher. Suppose you did go off and give the children a chance to run things a few days. You would be surprised how much more joy they got out of managing the home than when you are around to boss everything. This thing of never feeling that you have a right to go anywhere or that the world would cease to turn around if you went away from home for a little rest and pleasure is all in your head. True, there are many people that can not get away easily at any time of year but I notice when Mother gets typhoid fever or has a nervous breakdown and her mind gives way that times are not too hard then to give her a lay-off. Yes, and we have Texas. In Seattle, Washington, all noticed folks take time to bury these busy people once in a while. Oh, the people that need to GO somewhere and get away from home for just a few days! But the trouble is the folks who have the most to enjoy at home are usually the ones who get away from home more often. But that's their business and that's no excuse for YOU and YOU and YOU not having a little rest and recreation some time this Summer. But the chief trouble is

Where to GO.
 Now, we can't all go to Colorado, or California, or the Great Lakes, or to Europe. That is the biggest reason there should be a State Park of some kind within a hundred miles of every man, woman and child in there is a city park with a HALF-MILE of every man, woman and child in that city. In San Antonio, Texas, there is a city park for every square mile of that city's area. It's the country folks and the small town folks who do not have comfortable places to spend even a Sunday afternoon. Folks don't know any where to go within the reach of their time and means. But this is what thousands and thousands of us could do. If you live east of a line drawn north and south through Fort Worth you could drive over to East Texas in a few hours and stretch out under some of those magnificent pine trees. They are beautiful. And there is Caddo Lake over on the Louisiana border. 15,000 acres of it belongs to Texas. One of the most beautiful land lakes in the Nation. And it is in Texas. If you live in the southern part of the State, have you ever visited the Rio Grande Valley? If you have not you have missed a trip to California, which is a lot closer home, and just as wonderful in its sea coast and products. Have you ever been to Devil's River, away out in southwest Texas? It's just grand. If you live anywhere near the central part of the State you could drive there in a couple of days. Have you see Alto Frio Canyon down near Uvalde? And if you would like to get an idea of what a beautiful park can be made of ten or fifteen acres of Texas woods when a little thought and care and work and self-sacrifice is mixed with it then go to visit the Mother Neff Park in Coryell county, or the Boerne Park in Kendall county. Then if you have any more time drive on to the Davis Mountains and up to those great springs at Fort Stockton and on out to Carlsbad Cavern and back through the Panhandle and visit the Palo Duro Park where the Harding ranch has been transformed into a wonderful playground for all the people. And as you come through West Texas don't miss climbing that beautiful mountain at Big Spring where it seems you actually see the sunset. Glorious picture of West Texas. There is so much to see in Texas. Let's all go somewhere this vacation if it is only over into the next county. How many of you have ever been in all the counties that bound your home county? Let's begin this Summer to see some of the beautiful places right in our home state. It will make a better citizen of you. Let's begin this year and see and know more about Texas. You don't have to go away off thousands of miles and at a great expense of both time and money. There is enough to see in Texas to keep us all going somewhere every year for the rest of our lives. Come on, let's go!

BOX CAR PHILOSOPHY

In the Chicago railroad yards some I. W. W. wrote upon the side of a box car the inscription: "No beer, no work."
 When the car reached Milwaukee a brakeman wrote under the first inscription the following:
 "No work, no pay."
 En route to Madison, another workman added this:
 "No pay, no eat."
 In the Madison yards a maintenance man wrote the final chapter:
 "No eat, no live."
 Politicians may screech, preachers may preach, economists may write, sociologists may slum, and their combined output will add nothing to the dicta:
 "No beer, no work."
 "No work, no pay."
 "No pay, no eat."
 "No eat, no live."
 Than work there is no other panacea. Work is the natural state of man. Every normal, healthy man works whether he has to or not. The world lives on production. Hence work must lend itself to production. The man who has an idea of the time when man shall live without work is on a par with the man who proposes to give everybody something without taking anything from anybody.
 A photograph of the side of that old box car with its philosophic inscriptions would become a national treasure if hung conspicuously within the commons of every American city.—Southwestern Machinery.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

STORY OF JAZZ IS INDECENT IN WORDS

Chicago, June 27.—If what jazz says in music were put into plain English words no decent person would allow jazz to be played in his home, according to A. G. Culbransen, piano manufacturer.

DONE BY THE SUN

Light does more mending than any other kind of rays. It is as well as sunlight as it is learnedly about the sun. All we mean is getting Old Mother Sun to do the mending for us. She does it if we give her a chance. We who can stand her rays, those who cannot endure sunlight. In their skins the "transformer" which rays of light which are enough to burn out the body tissues, and turn that which does no harm.

or doctor say that "So-and-so cannot take the light treatment because he does not tan." The skin which shows tan usually possesses that "transformer" in the skin, protecting the body from injury. Those who merely redden may be found to run a more or less high temperature and unless this can be avoided, heliotherapy must be discontinued. Old King Tut was wise in that he was a sun worshiper before he began to worship beetles and cats and other creatures. And the Romans knew the value of sunlight for healing sores and maintaining health. Gradually we are learning what there is in sunlight to serve us in sickness and in health. All those who are able to live outdoors have a fuller benefit from the sun. Glazed of which our windows are constructed are said not to allow the violet and ultra-violet rays—the curative rays—to pass through. Quartz on the other hand will allow them to pass. As for vitamins! Just go and soak up the sunlight. It is easier to take than cod liver oil.—Dr. B. S. Herben in The Health Round-Up.

"A FAMILY AFFAIR" PLEASURES

"A Family Affair," under the direction of E. D. Merrill, presented at the R. and R. Lyric last Thursday evening, scored another success in the line of home talent, however, only a meagre crowd was present to enjoy this splendid treat. This play, a three-act comedy, is full of wholesome wit and good humor. Dan Gillespie, a good natured fellow, whose imagination runs away with him, writes his uncle that he is married and has a family in order that his monthly allowances will be increased. He owns his home, but he lives in ordinary circumstances so that he might keep his gardener, Jorkins Jobson, who is a high authority on potato bugs; and Miss Camson, his housekeeper, in the matrimonial market; and his good-hearted cook, Sally, who unlike most women can really keep a secret; in a family group. This works very well until Gillespie is advised that Deacon Smith, his uncle's attorney is coming on an inspection tour to see his home, wife and baby. His home is there to see—but matters become difficult and quite complicated when he searches for a borrowed wife and child. The deacon is dazzled when three women there claim to be Dan's wife, and the same thing happens again when the family group try and find him a baby, to claim as his own. This complication of affairs is unravelled in the three acts and it furnished entertainment full of laughs and roars during the entire time. E. D. Merrill, as Dan Gillespie; Omar Pittman as Jorkins Jobson; Carroll Barnett, as Deacon Smith; Frances Melton as Sally, and Elzie Jeanette Barnett as Miss Camson—acted each splendidly in the capacity to represent his type of character. Never were they out of line with the person whom they were depicting. They enunciated clearly and slowly, allowing every word to be heard, and the acting did not appear to be that of amateurs. The opening number on the program, a series of musical numbers by Carrol Barnett's "Blue Melody Boys" Orchestra was beautiful and effective. It created the right frame of mind for the audience to enjoy the play. They were applauded heartily. The specialty by J. B. Hrdlicka between the first and second acts was a hit also. In the part of a black face artist, Mr. Hrdlicka can keep an audience charmed for a long spell. The whole program cannot be praised too highly and it seems a pity that a larger crowd was not in attendance. It was a benefit entertainment for the Big Spring Booster Band but they received a very small sum from the proceeds.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL COINS HERE—ONLY A FEW

The first consignment of Confederate Memorial Half Dollars, minted by the United States Government as a "tribute to the valor of the Soldier of the South," which are to be simultaneously released throughout the nation on July 3rd, has been received by the West Texas National Bank, according to an announcement made today by R. T. Piner, cashier.

"Citizens of Big Spring now have the opportunity of making sure of obtaining some of these coveted Memorial coins on their national distribution July 3rd, said Mr. Piner "by immediately purchasing coin certificates, redeemable for the actual half dollars on July 3rd.

"As less than two million of the Memorial coins are available to the entire South at this time, the Southern Bankers Committee, arranging details of their distribution has allotted only a limited number to each city and county in the various Southern states. Once these quotas are exhausted no further coins are obtainable.

"The issuance of these commemorative coins by the National Government is an event of the greatest significance to the South. It is a gesture of friendliness on the part of the nation to which the South will spontaneously respond.

"Not only do these coins have a high sentimental value through this national recognition of our Southern heroes, but they also possess an additional worth since the modest premium at which the coins are sold goes to the completion of the great monument to the Confederacy being carved at Stone Mountain, Georgia."

THE FARMER AND HIS CREDIT

At this time of the year all farmers who can, have arranged their line of credit. For those who were successful it might be well to ask themselves whether they will make this credit an asset or turn it into a liability.

Credit, when sought for a legitimate purpose and rightly used, can easily become the greatest asset of a poor, though honest farmer imbued with ambition. He can so coordinate his honesty, ambition, and willingness to toil with his credit that the result will be a nice little farm paid for in a few years' time.

A man who uses his credit well seldom uses his credit to buy feed to make a crop. Of course, there are times of severe drouth and other conditions over which he has no control which might make this necessary. This type of man will be considered a good financial risk by the banker.

The life insurance companies in their mortality tables figure out how many will die in each thousand of population per year and then charge a premium based on these calculations. Credit prices are calculated practically in the same way. The merchants know that so many dollars in every thousand advanced will be a total loss. They make their credit prices high enough to cover the losses plus a profit. These prices sometimes run from 60 to 80 per cent higher than cash prices.

It might be argued, if that is the case, why not go to the bank and borrow money at 6 to 8 per cent. Too often this cannot be done because the farmer sometime in the past has failed to meet his obligations as promptly or has diverted the proceeds of a loan, causing himself to be classed as an undesirable risk. A few years ago a banker told the writer that 98 per cent of his bank's farmer customers failed to meet their obligations when due or to make other satisfactory arrangements.

The general opinion prevails that banks are cold-blooded, hard-boiled, and very particular as to whom they loan money. The opinion is correct. The banks have to be particular. No bank could stay in business long if it operated on its paid up capital and surplus alone. They loan other people's money placed with them on deposit. The banker should, as a matter of protection, see that every note he takes is better than money. If he exercises good judgment in "sizing up" the borrower and makes only good loans, then his bank prospers, does not break and is never hard up.

The poorest risk is the farmer who tries to plant all cotton and buy his corn, hay, oats, and meat, and pay other expenses. A cotton crop can be planted and worked to laying by time in about 90 days. Help will have to be made in gathering it. Expenses go on for 365 days. It is asking too much of a cotton crop made with 90 days work to pay all the expenses of a farm for 365 days and those who persist in trying it usually quit farming via a sheriff's sale.

A good risk is one who sticks to diversification, raises enough food for man and beast, keeps a good milk cow, a brood sow which will give him two litters a year and 100 hens in the poultry yard. He also has a garden producing vegetables all the year round and a cane patch for syrup. This kind of a farmer makes cotton his money crop and has no trouble in securing credit when necessary.

May the farmer soon realize that he is a business man and ambitious man and wishes no success that is not founded on justice and morality. —J. A. Redhead, in The Progressive Farmer.

DONT'S

Here are some don't that may be useful.

Don't grumble, gossip or argue. Don't offend unnecessarily, don't contend and don't brag.

Don't insinuate, retaliate or exaggerate.

Don't deprecate, calumniate or resent.

Don't ridicule, disparage or coerce.

Don't haggle, wrangle or use unnecessary words.

Don't misjudge, slander or embarrass.

Don't dissemble, vilify or assail.

Here are some things that Grenville Kleiser says to do.

It is good to praise, to enjoy, to confirm, to approve and to appreciate. We should also serve, reverence, commend, agree and admire.

Every man should resolve to please others as much as possible, to encourage, to sympathize and reciprocate. He should learn to yield, to accede, to help and to recommend.

It pays to esteem, to give, to honor and to stimulate; also to respect, to befriend, gladden and accommodate.

To these may be added to uplift, compliment, strengthen, comfort, and inspire.

These may be but platitudes, but they are the sort of things that, if we learn to do them, will be to our profit.

The mind also may be compared to a garden. There are certain weeds that we should cast out.

They are such as pride, envy, impatience, fear, resentment, selfishness.

There are also certain plants that we must carefully cultivate. These are kindness, goodness, love, humility, reverence and righteousness.

Only by close attention to the mind's garden and by careful tilling shall we have fruit and fragrance in our lives.—Dr. Frank Crane in Fort Worth Record.

LIMERICKS

That peculiar form of rhyme known as the limerick has furnished much material for discussion and various rivalries in the columns of various publications recently.

Here are examples of some of the best known:

A great Congressional preacher Told a hen, "You're a wonderful creature."

And the hen, upon that, Laid three eggs in his hat, And thus did the Henry Ward Beecher.

There was once an old man of Lyme, Who married three wives at a time.

When asked, "Why the third?" He replied "One's absurd; And bigamy, sir, is a crime!"

A tutor who tooted the flute Tried to tutor two tooters to toot;

Asked the two of the tutor: "Is it harder to toot or To tutor two tooters to toot?"

There was a young lady of Crew Who wanted to catch the 2:2;

Said a porter, "Don't worry, Or flurry, or scurry,

"It's a minute or 2 2 2:2."

There was a faith healer of Deal, Who said, "Although pain isn't real,

"If I sit on a pin, "And it punctures my skin,

"I dislike what I fancy I feel."

There was a pound person named Tate,

Who went out to dine at 8:8;

But I will not relate What that person named Tate

And his tete-a-tete ate at 8:8.

THE STRAY DOG MUST GO

The strict enforcement of laws against unlicensed dogs running at large is urged by Dr. H. O. Sappington, state health officer in the following statement:

"From information given the state board of health by Dr. J. T. Wilhite, director of the Pasteur Institute, it is ascertained that during the present month, the heads of 325 supposedly rapid animals have been sent to him for examination. Of this number, 17 per cent has been found to be infected, which shows a decided decline over the record for previous months, there being 35 per cent in March, and 43 per cent in December. This decrease in the number of infected animals with the advent of warmer days is doubtless due to the activities of the dog catcher at this time of year. The menace from rabies would materially decrease should the dog catcher stay on the job the year round, as the stray dog is the greatest medium by which rabies is transmitted.

Six cases of human rabies have been reported to the state board of health the last six months, and reports from the Pasteur Institute show that hundreds of people have taken the Pasteur treatment. This shows the necessity for everyone using extreme precaution against infection from this terrible malady. Do not try to get familiar with a stray dog, as he may be rabid. Do not allow your own dog to roam at will over the neighborhood as he may be bitten without your knowledge. When a dog shows a surly disposition, it is best to chain him up for observation. Enforce the law the year round against stray dogs running at large instead of just for the duration of the summer months."

COP NO LONGER A BOKEY-MAN

School children in western cities are learning that policemen are their friends. For the big blue-coated guardians are stationed at the dangerous crossings near the schools to halt motor traffic while the little ones pass in safety.

Every generation has had its parents of low intelligence who have used fear as a means of discipline and most of them have pictured the policeman as the monster who was ever ready to pounce upon the little boy or girl who disobeyed. A new respect for law and authority is likely to be developed out of the modern association between policemen and school children. After a child has felt the comfort of this friendly protection it will not easily be deceived by a stupid parent who tries to picture the policeman as a goblin.—July Sunset.

300,000 SEEK NEW HOMES IN THE GOLDEN WEST

The 1924 wave of immigration into West Texas which transcended any previous year's record in attaining 250,000, mostly to the rural sections, is to be surpassed in 1925 phenomenally under present benign conditions. That is the consensus of realtors, owners of vast ranch domains, and the new farm gentry whispering secrets to "back East" farmers.

Every wave of immigration in the West means an addition "ripple" of prosperity for Fort Worth. It takes people to make a prosperous region and a large city. More land, climate and rainfall cannot bring ideal conditions.

In 1924 West Texas, particularly the Panhandle-Plains area, absorbed 250,000 new inhabitants. That figure is official from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce which maintains a careful scrutiny over population situations. Think of a quarter of a million new people moving into an area that two decades ago was thought by uninformed to have attained to its saturation point. An analysis of the folks who have come speaks volumes for the type of citizenship that the West is calling. It reveals that they are of the sterner type, offsprings of the pioneer ready to make sacrifices of pleasure, time and labor in order to achieve in the final analysis. They are the innocently dissatisfied that make up the cream of the earth, not the particular gentry dubbed "Rolling Stones." They compose the type that suffered privations, hardships and rigor to flee Egypt for Canaan, a land flowing with milk and honey. They are redeeming the "desert," establishing productive gardens, building modern little cities and providing on the Plains a replica of the ancient Garden of Eden.

Lacking the desire and prospective of the throngs which are intrigued to flee the farm and flock to the city for the bright lights, they move to the bounding West resolutely determined to coax from Mother Earth the natural wares which sustain modern life and bring civilization to its present fine point and provide them with the comforts and pleasures of a contented life. They are buying land that today is a prairie with luxuriant grass, far out on the untenanted plain, and that tomorrow undulates in green crops under a friendly sun. They speak the language of their forbears. They are firm in the virtues of their fathers and retain those principles of rectitude that made them great. To sum up, they are the men who compose the real backbone of civilization—the men who are making it possible for the cities to expand, for the city dweller to proceed with his ambition and for the earth in toto to continue uninterruptedly upon its march of progress to the ultimate.

Instead of the 250,000 of 1924 it may be 500,000 in 1925-26. West Texas needs the newcomers. Its ranches are ready to be transformed. Its towns are equipped to care for the new merchants and industries.

The demands of the new population can best be met by the Panther City. An added patronage of 750,000 people for a single city to gain in two years is something to be proud of, something that should be wooed with all energy and attention. A metropolis can be successfully founded on the patronage of fewer people.

It is the "single-rap" of Opportunity to Fort Worth. Will the door be thrown ajar to admit this new trade, or shall Fort Worth sit by and let it escape to towns at remote distance.—Hamilton Wright in the Fort Worth Record.

Character and Reputation

Character is one thing, reputation quite another. Character is what you are, reputation what others think you are. Too many people depend less on character than they do on reputation, and therein lies the reason for their ultimate exposure and undoing.—Grit.

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

DEP, I HATE TO SAY IT, BUT THE TROUBLE WITH SOME BUSINESSMEN IS THAT THEY HAVE A WISHBONE INSTEAD OF A BACKBONE! YOU GOY TO STEP OUT AND HUSTLE IF YOU WANT THE DOLLARS TO ROLL YOUR WAY, AND I DON'T MEAN MAYBE!

REWARD ON EARTH ALSO

While so much is being said about the "crime wave," its probable cause and possible cure, may I have space for a few suggestions for the consideration of thinking people?

First, I want to say that for generations past well-meaning and conscientious men by the thousands have been proclaiming loudly and vociferously, from the hills and housetops, day in and day out, hour after hour and day after day, that right living means a life of sacrifices and self-denials and persecution and humiliation and privations while traveling through "this vale of tears," and that the unrighteous, the sinner may bask in the sunshine of sinfulness and revel in the "pleasures of the world," but that sometime, somewhere, beyond the grave, the righteous will be rewarded and the unrighteous will be made to suffer for the error of his ways.

Understand, I would not wish to deny humanity of the hope of an after life. It is not necessary that this would be done. But whether it be heresy for mankind, who has been endowed with the faculty of reason, to exercise that faculty, we may as well face the issue squarely, we are living in an age of thinkers. We have taught our children that "a bird in hand is worth two in the bush," and they believe it. Why shouldn't they? It is self-evident. The first word in the vocabulary of the present generation is "why?"

Why, they are reasoning, if a life of righteousness and honesty and square dealing with their fellow-creature offers nothing but privations and persecutions and humiliation in the only life of which they are conscious, here and now, should they allow themselves to be duped into living such a life when they know they can enjoy the "pleasures of the world" here and now with nothing but fear of the penitentiary and of a hell they have never seen to deter them.

Every man who has ever tried the experiment of living a clean life knows the indescribable peace and joy and happiness resulting from the knowledge of having done right because it is right. Then for heaven's sake and for the sake of the race, let's tell the truth about it and try offering this generation something they can try out and demonstrate for themselves, and there is

LOSS FROM EARTHQUAKE

The tremor that shook Santa Barbara, California at 6:32 Tuesday morning, June 30, resulted in a loss of about thirty million dollars, according to insurance underwriters there.

Modern buildings and beautiful edifices that were Santa Barbara's pride fell in crumbled heaps of brick and debris.
The entire United States is sending contributions of relief to this stricken area. San Francisco, which suffered a similar fate nineteen years ago, sent $50,000 for immediate aid. Santa Barbara is asking a loan of twenty million dollars.

How Often Do You Take a Bath?

WHY NOT GIVE YOUR CLOTHES THE SAME CHANCE

—suppose you only bathed once every month!

You may be getting a bit personal inquiring how often you bathe—but just suppose you only indulged once every month! Does it give you a rather disagreeable picture, doesn't it?—a picture of unhealthfulness and insanitary conditions. But what of your clothes? Think how many people let their suits or their dresses go on for three or sometimes three months without ever paying a visit to a cleaner. And your clothes get just as dirty as your skin! Germs and disease lurk in unclean clothing. The only sure way to eliminate these is to have your garments cleaned regularly by a reputable cleaner. And clean clothes give you so much more service that the money soon pays for itself in the added wear that you get from your garments.

DOUBLE FUNERAL TO BE HELD

"This country would be better off if it could hold a double funeral for Haste and Recklessness."

If the people of this fair town and county don't take care a double funeral is going to be held, with Haste and Recklessness as the cause of such deaths.

I refer just now to the haste and recklessness shown by some of the drivers of automobiles in our town and county. Observers would think that urgent calls were issued incessantly, at the rate some cars make their way down the main streets and on the highways.

In spite of the fact that they are endangering their own lives the risk of other folks lives are put into their hands. Fellow travellers often fall victim to the haste and recklessness of the other person's driving—and many pedestrians either young or aged have been caused to suffer, often killed or crippled for life, because of the haste and recklessness of his fellowmen.

It is astounding to see the carelessness in driving exhibited here in our town. Drivers always in a hurry—bump into and tear up both cars, and often avoid serious accidents merely by a hair's breath.

I believe that if everyone would just stop and think for a minute of the dangers of these two fearful characters, and would weigh the matter over in his own mind, he could see why one would plead for them to be buried.

They must be done away with before one can feel safe and secure, since his life is partly in the hands of his fellowman.

HOOSIER CABINET CONTEST PROMOTED GREAT INTEREST

Hoosier Week at the Rix Furniture and Undertaking store promoted great interest in our city and also throughout the county.

Keen competition was found in the old Hoosier contest. As was advertised, the person turning in the number of the oldest Hoosier, was to be awarded a new model white Hoosier cabinet, in exchange for the old one. Mrs. L. L. Freeman was the lucky winner of this handsome new cabinet—her old cabinet being nineteen years old. Numerous entries were made, one lady whose cabinet dated back ten years expected to be the lucky winner.

Another resident, who failed to read the advertisements until it was all too late, phoned in Monday morning to say that she had a Hoosier that was twenty-three years old. The contest was closed, the exchange had already been made, so she got to keep her old one.

The sale of Hoosiers during this week was very satisfactory.

COTTON IN BLOOM

The first stalk of cotton in bloom brought to the Herald office this year was presented by Mrs. A. T. Lloyd on Monday afternoon. One blossom was open but the stalk was loaded with squares yet to bloom. Fine strong roots were on this plant, ones that would go down deep for the moisture.

The Lloyd farm is adjacent to the U. S. Experiment Farm and Mr. Lloyd has over one hundred acres in cotton. The stand throughout his entire area is just as fine as this one stalk that was brought in. He is assured an unusual return from his crop this year.

Later on in the day, J. A. Davidson presented the editor with a fine stalk of cotton in bloom, that grew in his yard. His yield from his crop will be nothing to speak of, since he pulled up the only plant he had growing.

A tale of life, love and lilies

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
July 6th and 7th

A powerful drama of True Mother Love. The stirring story of a woman, pure and sweet, whose husband deserted her in a rage of unreasoning jealousy, whose baby was torn from her arms, who in the agony of her grief cried:

"There is nothing worth while left in life for me. Life has cheated me. Life is a cheat! You are a cheat. I'll be a cheat."

But — in purity of her heart she could not — and finally life made amends with a wondrous love.

It's a searching story—a passionate appeal for brakes in the race of life. A picture of unusual artistry — magnificent sets, gorgeous gowns and a smashing climax. Be sure to see it.

LAW MAKERS AND LAW BREAKERS

H. M. Atkinson, who is chairman of the Board of the Georgia Railway and Power Company, declares we have become a nation of lawmakers and law breakers. He says:

"What we need is fewer laws on the statute books, more respect for law and more regard for justice in the minds and consciences of men."

"I do not mean that we should take less interest in government. On the other hand, we should take a more active interest than ever before. The greatest trouble is that too many of us have pursued the even tenor of our way and left the affairs of state to the politicians and soap box orators. The result has been that the highest offices within the gift of the people have been brought into more or less disrepute and are seldom sought by men of marked ability and high principles."

"We have defaulted in our obligations to society and need an aroused public conscience with particular reference to our duty as citizens as it relates to the affairs of state and conduct of our government."

A ten-pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Griffice on Friday, June 26th.

LET'S HAVE PLENTY TO EAT NEXT WINTER

"I would have put up a lot more if I had had it," a good farm housekeeper said the other day. Many others would brine, can, dry, or preserve a lot more vegetables and fruits if they only had them to put up. Too many of us fail to plant enough for our needs when the right time for planting comes. Tomatoes, corn, snap beans, butterbeans, okra, cowpeas, etc., to be put up for winter use, should be started this month, or next, even if the cotton does need thinning or cultivating and if the hay is ready for harvest.

The thing to do is to set aside patches large enough to produce in addition to home needs, a surplus for sale and some of the best to take to the fair. We need to make the production of these crops to be put up for winter use a regular part of our program, and give them a regular place in our bills of fare. One more thing we want to urge now—don't wait until the vegetables and fruits are ready to be canned before getting the canning outfit ready. — The Progressive Farmer.

The members of the American Legion are completing plans to entertain one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Big Spring during their big annual celebration today and tomorrow.

Editors Visit East Texas.

Over 200 editor from all parts of the State were guests of Tyler and East Texas from June 18 to 20. Many of them were from the various parts of the State otherwise designated than as "East Texas." Some of them saw East Texas for the first time and these changed their preconceived ideas of that part of the State. The West Texan who has never been in what he calls the "poor, piney-woods, sandy-land," part of the State is inclined to have a feeling of derision for any one who would choose that section rather than the great open prairies of the West. The West Texan can't for his life understand why a sensible being would settle down on a few acres of sandy hillsides with the great West inviting him there. The East Texan, on the other hand, can't see why one would risk drouth and starvation "out West," when he can be sure of a comfortable living on a small East Texas farm.

Visitors Learn the Facts.

It is good for the people to know each other and for all Texans to know all of the State in which they live, for knowing it all well they come to like it all and to praise it all. The great objection the westerner has had to East Texas is being overcome rapidly. The man out west, above almost everything else, wants a road he can travel over at any time. He likes to annihilate distance whenever he pleases, and thinks nothing of hitching up his flivver for a few hundred miles ride. Most of the editors went to Tyler in their cars and, they learned that good roads are being built all over East Texas. So that objection is being removed. In a few years every village and almost every village and almost every farm, in East Texas will be connected with the rest of the world by a fine road system.

Intensive Farming Pays.

Another thing the westerner saw was that in farming it is not so much the number of acres tilled that counts, but how well the crops are cultivated. The small farms over Tyler way that are thoroughly farmed, that have crop rotation, and that are properly fertilized, are making their owners fortunes and filling the banks with money. It was in Anderson county, near Palestine, that a farmer demonstrated last year that a small cotton patch well tilled produces more lint and makes a greater profit than a larger field not so well cultivated. This is just as true of every other crop as of cotton. Texas will have to get down to a better system of farming than is generally practiced and will have to farm in a way to build up the soil while getting the greatest crop returns from it.

Produces Great Variety.

The East Texas soil will produce many kinds of crops. Around Tyler, and especially at Jacksonville, the tomato yield this year was almost unbelievable, and the small farmers mostly were getting the money for it. The crop was paid for at the shipping station and not consigned to some far-away, uncertain market. The peach market is just opening, and the luscious melons are coming in. Blackberries of improved varieties are growing on the native heath of the wild berries. Potatoes thrive in the sandy soil. Turkeys and chickens are seen on most farms, and Jersey cows have taken the place of he scrubs. The razor-back hog has been crowded out by the Berkshire, the Poland China and other improved breeds. All these things seem not to have interfered greatly with the raising of cotton and corn. In short the East Texas farmer has been forced into diversification and has had prosperity thrust upon him. As yet the West Texas farmer is depending too much on his large acreage of cotton or wheat and cane.

The Danger of Bountiful Crops.

There is a certain amount of danger in any kind of unusual crop prosperity like the tomato at Jacksonville this year, and that is in over-production to the neglect of everything else. The tomato one-crop farmer is as likely to strike a snag as the cotton one-crop planter. His crop may be a total failure any year, and again the money made one year may tempt too many to plant tomatoes the next year. The market may drop below

That is true of almost every thing the farmer grows and it is one of the hazards of farming. For that reason he should have more than one kind of crop. Poultry raising and dairying when close enough to a good market appear to be two fixed exceptions to the rule. The people seldom get too many chickens and eggs or too much milk and butter, and most farmers can depend on raising enough food of a kind to feed chickens and cows.

Homes Are Unattractive.

One of the most striking things about East Texas country life is the unattractiveness and the inconveniences of the country homes. Most of them are unpainted box houses that show little care on the part of their owners. They indicate either poverty on the part of their occupants or an inexcusable indifference. Architects, builders and paint dealers have almost an unexplored field in the country districts of East Texas.

TO THE YOUNG GIRLS

Many girls living upon farms form very erroneous ideas regarding life in a city or town. They imagine that city life is the very height of a happy existence. They think to be a salesgirl in a store, a waitress in a cafe, a clerk in a confectionery or a stenographer in an office is like being "carried to the skies on flowery beds of ease." Nothing is further from the real facts than such a conception. Life means work, strife, laborious endeavor and diligent, painstaking effort, no matter where you live. The country girl coming to the city to fight the battle of life will miss the wholesome atmosphere of freedom that surrounds her farm home. She will find working under an exacting "boss" in store or office quite different from helping her mother with the garden, chickens and household duties, unless opportunities are exceptionally favorable for changing from farm life to that of the city, the average girl had best not take the chance.

"In view of the dangers which often confront young girls," says an observant writer, "the American Civic Reform Union has issued the following warning: 'Don't lose your temper and run away from home. Don't permit familiarities by men. A man who tries to take liberties should not be trusted. Don't leave the country for the city without first arranging for employment and a safe home. You can get good advice on this subject from your minister, your school teacher, your family physician, or your postmaster. Be sure to take enough money for all expenses. A stranded girl is in great danger in a city. Don't make dates with young men to meet them away from home, or for car rides, without the knowledge of your parents. Don't drink intoxicants at all, or smoke cigarettes. They poison the brain, weaken the will, influence the passions and make a girl an easy victim.' — Exchange.

A railroad from San Antonio to Mason and Brady is now being promoted. We ought to get busy and try to have this line extended to the plains section by way of Big Spring. If three lines from the east are desirable, certainly one leading direct to the Gulf ports would prove a winner.

HEAVY LOCAL SHOWERS

The territory extended from a short distance east of Coahoma to Morita and about twelve or fifteen miles north and south of here. But even in this territory the rainfall was spotted, as light showers only were reported at various places.

The heaviest rains were in the Elbow section where an inch and one-half rain is said to have damaged crops in places, due to washing. About nine or ten miles northeast of Big Spring there was another section which had from an inch to an inch and one half fall.

In Big Spring we had a little more than half an inch of rain. This fell in a few minutes and was accompanied by a high wind which damaged many trees in our city.

The section visited by the showers will be benefited to a great extent. The northern part of our county is about the only section that needs a big rain to help boost crops as showers have been more generous in almost every other section.

We can obtain loans on Patented Farm and Ranch Lands at 5 1-2 or 6 per cent on long time. If you desire to borrow money on your land. See STATE NATIONAL BANK. 41-tf.

WEDNESDAY LUNCHEON CLUB

With Sam Hall as toastmaster at the regular meeting of the Wednesday Luncheon club at the T. and P. Dining Hall a lively meeting full of zip and zing resulted.

Fire was the subject of discussion. Its horrors and destructiveness are to be safeguarded against by every possible means in man's power. Both life and property have to be protected from fire, and every way should be employed to fight against it.

Mr. Hall, City Fire Chief, explained exactly what was what, and stated facts to the point. He was followed by talks from Mr. H. Morrison, W. W. Inkman, W. W. Rix, and C. L. Alderman of Dallas, a visitor but a long time resident here.

Stress was placed upon the fact that it is absolutely necessary to place a fire escape on the Central school building, and that attention should be given to see that all of the doors of every school room opens outward. In case of fire this is an important factor.

Wm. Fisher, at the close of the discussion, made a brief talk on Big Spring holding on to the 640 acre tract of land that she owns, but has contracted to sell. He is heartily in favor of the city keeping this property in its possession, and he believes it can be held.

L. W. Croft was appointed chairman for next week.

The sets for the new drama were designed by Milton Menasco and carry the spectator into the homes of New York's "Five Hundred" and down the smart apartments of the "lilies of the field" who live by their wits. Symbolism such as has only been seen in a few pictures has been employed by Menasco in the furnishings of the sets.
