Sudan Basketball News

The Sudan Varsity girls upped their district wins by defeating Lazbuddie Friday Jan. 13, but the Sudan boys were robbed of their first district win by a controversial basket at the buzzer by Lazbuddie giving them a one point victory.

The Sudan Hornets came out struggling at the tip-off with only two reserves on the bench and fell behind 14-6 during the first period. Kirkland drove for two points and Bartley hit one under the basket. Laceywell added two from the free shot line for the Hornets scoring while everything Lazbuddie put up seemed to go into the basket.

The Hornets didn't fare much better in the second quarter and the Hornets had doubled the score 26-13 at the half.

The Hornets came out fighting in the second half and scored 11 unanswered points to pull within two points of Lazbuddie. The Hornets hit only one field goal and added three from the line during the third quarter while Sudan put 17 points on the board, trailing by one point, 31-30 going into the final period. Sudan pulled ahead by four points with less than two minutes to go when Lazbuddie got the ball on a rebound and went for two points and added one from the line to trail by only one point. The final seconds dragged-out as Sudan was called for an offensive foul and turned the ball over a couple of times. However, Lazbuddie was called for a foul with four seconds to go, but they captured the rebound from the free shot, went the distance of the court and sank a remarkable shot at the buzzer to win 42-41.

Kirkland and Kinnie tied for the scoring honors for the Hornets with 12 each followed by Wood with 9, Bartley added four points with Laceywell and Sheridan each hitting for two.

The Varsity girls put 17 points on the board during the first quarter to take a decisive lead against Lazbuddie. Nix sank four shots from the floor for eight points during that period. Sudan didn't look back and added 13 more points during the second quarter and went to the dressing room with a 30-14 lead at halftime. The Hornets sank 5 shots and added four points from the line for fourteen points during the third period while holding Lazbuddie girls scoreless. Lazbuddie managed only one basket during the last half but hit four out of eight from the line for a total of six points during the last half to end the game 60-20.

Jeannie Nix hit for a total of 17 points for scoring honors, followed by Sharla Harrison with 14 and Missy Fisher with 10. Sherrie Williams hit for 5, Gussie Wolley added six points, Shawnda Masten had four, Kim Powell hit for three and Joan Wooley added one from the line.

The Junior Varsity Boys fell to the Lazbuddie Horns 56-22 after trailing 28-11 at the half. The more powerful Hornets took an early lead which they maintained during the entire game with impressive second and fourth quarters. Mike May led the scoring for Sudan with nine points followed by Moore with four and Gardner with three. Conley, Barron and D. Williams each added two points.

The Sudan JV girls almost reversed the score as they defeated the Lazbuddie team 45-22. They took a four point lead during the first quarter with the Scott girls hitting four from the floor and two from the line. Lazbuddie hit one out of four from the line in the second period to add one point while Sudan added thirteen points to their side of the board, leading 23-7 at the half. Lazbuddie hit for two points during the third period of play while Sudan added nine. However, Lazbuddie finally found the basket and sank five shots from the floor and three from the line for 13 points during the final quarter to make the final score Sudan 45, Lazbuddie 22.

T. Scott was high point for Sudan with 23 points hitting 7 of 9 from the line and seven fg. K. Scott hit for 16 points with Bickett adding six points for Sudan.

The junior high boys defeated Spade 39-17 Monday to up their season record 7-1. The Hornets wasted no time in showing their opponents they meant business when they ran up a 13-2 score during the first quarter. Sudan scored only two points during the second quarter, but Spade managed only 4 points even against the second Sudan team. Sudan scored 20 points in the third period with their starters while Spade hit for three points.

Taylor led the swarm for Sudan hitting 16 with Bartley adding 6, Williams had 5 and Boyles and Salinas each scored 4 points. Griggs completed the scoring for Sudan with a basket in the third period.

The Sudan junior high girls added another victory to their perfect season by outscoring Spade 36-16. The game seemed to be closer than the 23-6 halftime score indicated, although the home team had no trouble with the victory. Sudan let down the second half and Spade scored half of their points (8) in the third quarter, but could manage only 2 points in the final period. Sudan had 13 points in the second half to complete their scoring.

Kirkland led the scoring for Sudan with 12 points. Nix had four fg for 8 points, followed by Roberts and Newman with four each and Powell, Ford, S. Williams, T. Williams each added two points.

Basketball activities continue as district games for the varsity concludes the first go-round Tuesday night when the home teams host the teams from Nazareth. Everyone is encouraged to support the local teams as they represent our community and school in this sport.

COTTON POLICY AND FARM BILL

Cotton policy options for the 1985 farm bill will be based to a large degree on policy lessons learned from the past 50 years, notes an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The critical issue in the 1985 farm bill debate will involve selecting the balance between the degree of income support through the target price mechanism, price support through the loan program, and production controls. Farm bill options include moving to a free market, developing a system of mandatory production controls, fine-tuning current policy, or establishing a stabilization and cost-sharing partnership between producers and government.

Cultural Affairs Council State Wide Art Contest

The Plainview Cultural Affairs Council will be adding a state wide art contest, seminars, and demonstrations to its second annual "Arts in March" program March 2 - 31.

This year's activities will include the popular Lone Star Ballet from West Texas State University, Amarillo's Harrington String Quartet, demonstrations by artist Bill Barrick and a group of weavers from Amarillo, art exhibits, a play, and two concerts.

The Plainview Cultural Affairs Council and Pioneer Seed Company are co-sponsors for a state wide art competition called "Texas in Two Dimensions." $2,000 in prize money will be awarded.

Becky Duval Reese will jury the show. She is education curator at the Archer M. Huntington Art Museum at the University of Texas at Austin and is "one of the best in Texas," said Jim Davis, local Cultural Council vice chairman.

The afternoon of March 3 Ms. Reese will do a seminar and slide presentation on using a museum in education.

"This seminar is aimed primarily at educators, but the public is also invited," said Davis.

March 6 there will be another seminar-discussion panel on the history of art in Texas featuring Ms. Reese, Mary Frederickson, director of the Conservation Center at West Texas State University, and Steven Bradley, art curator of the Texas Tech University Museum. They will be discussing the kind of art Texans have created and imported and the current state of Texas art as it all related to Texas culture.

Art exhibits on display at the Houston Street School during "Arts in March" will be "Citation," a new exhibit which is the result of a Texas art competition, and "Texas Only." These exhibits include about 50 pieces from the Texas Fine Arts Association and are all Texas art by Texas artists.

"The whole theme of this year's 'Arts in March' is Texas," said Davis.

"Citation" and "Texas Only" exhibits will be on display March 2 - 31, along with the results of the "Texas in Two Dimensions" competition.

Cake Mixes Vary In Cost And Calories

Not all cake mixes are created equal either in cost or calories, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service foods and nutrition specialist.

Some packaged cake mixes can be economical and actually cost less than similar cakes baked from scratch, says Mary K. Sweeten. But "better quality" cake mixes can cost three times as much as simpler mixes and still require the addition of costly ingredients at home.

For example, a "butter" cake mix requires the addition of one-quarter pound of butter and three eggs, which would add about 75 cents to the cost of the cake. The shortening used in the cake mix is usually soy oil, so the only butter in the butter cake is added by the cook. Yet the butter cake may cost up to 50 percent more than a competitive yellow cake mix, notes the specialist.

Research conducted by Cornell University Extension home economists compared "pudding mix" cakes with their plainer counterparts in the same product line and found that the richer texture of these cakes was due primarily to the cook's additions, says Sweeten.

They also found that nutritive value of the dry mixes are identical for protein, calories and fat, with the pudding mixes providing two extra grams of carbohydrate. But the finished pudding cake has twice as much fat, and 25 percent more calories than the plain layer cake.

The addition of extra eggs and oil to the pudding mix increases the calories as well as the cost of the cake, she says.

Sweeten suggests that consumers make it a habit to read the labels on mixes, since nutritional differences among cakes are surprisingly large.

The fat content of various cake mixes ranges from four to fourteen grams for one twelfth of the cake; the cal-

Families Can Ease Transition

To Nursing Home

Moving an elderly relative into a nursing home can produce a family crisis. "Whether the move is initiated by the older person or the family members, it brings to the surface all the mixed feelings that characterize close human relationships," says Judith L. Warren, a family life education-aging specialist. With the move to an institution, all family members aware of the older person's declining health, and aware that it is probably the last move which he or she will make, says Warren, who is with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economics program.

Families need to maintain close ties at this time in spite of feeling angry, hurt, afraid of rejection and deep sorrowful. The entire family may actually be grieving for the passing of an era," she says, "and adult children may be confronting their own mortality for the first time."

In this difficult situation, many adult children may have the impulse to retreat, notes Warren.

Yet research indicates that the best thing families can do is to stay close during the first few weeks after the move while the older person adjusts to the new surroundings.

At least one family member should spend the entire first day at the home and daily visits by as many family members as possible should be made for the first two weeks, suggests the specialist.

While the adjustment period is critical, it's also important that family members continue contact with visits, phone calls and notes, she adds.

"This contact demonstrates the adult children's commitment and reduces their parent's fears of abandonment," says Warren.

Prior to admitting an older person to a nursing home, Warren suggests that families carefully select an institution that encourages the maintenance of family ties.

Nursing homes that have open visiting hours, provide facilities like coffee shops and lounges where families can spend time together, encourage families to bring special food treats and reduce obstacles for visits to relatives' homes encourage family closeness, says the specialist.

American Heart Association Names Campaign Chairman

Una Loy Clark, widow of artificial heart recipient Dr. Barney Clark, has volunteered to serve as National Residential Campaign Chairman for the American Heart Association's 1983-84 campaign.

Working toward a national $100 million goal, volunteers across Texas are hoping to raise $8,200,000. Through door-to-door canvasses of many Texas neighborhoods during February and other fund raising events within the coming months, funds will be collected to benefit cardiovascular research and education programs within Texas.

Hoping her involvement with AHA will help further the cause of basic heart research, Mrs. Clark said, "Through my husband's experience, I realize just how many people are afflicted with heart disease and how devastating it can be to both the patient and the family. I want to do whatever I can to help alleviate the trauma heart disease brings to people."

Dr. Clark, a 61-year-old retired dentist, became the first recipient of a permanent artificial heart on December 2, 1982, at the University of Utah Medical Center in Salt Lake City. Living 112 days with the polyurethane mechanical heart, Dr. Clark died of multiple organ failure on March 23, 1983.

And, thus, ended the Bailey County Junior Livestock show for 1984. Though local showing ends here, many of these youth will be traveling to the larger livestock shows in the next several weeks. The 1984 show proved to be one of the best shows and one of the smoothest run in the history of our county shows.

In another adjoining county, Parmer County had a total mixed drink tax revenue of $196.80, with a rebate of $29.52 for the final quarter of 1983. There were no city rebates recorded in Parmer County.

Texas cities and counties each receive a 15 percent rebate on the tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries under the law that legalized the sale of mixed drinks in the state.

The state's general revenue fund will receive the balance—$27 million—of the tax money collected.

The mixed drink tax is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and city-count rebates are sent out quarterly by the Comptroller's Office.

Bullock said the mixed drink tax brought in $149.3 million during 1983.

After his decision to run for the Senate, the Hance's moved back to Lubbock, where they have a son in Tech and a 14 year old daughter in Lubbock schools.

"Kent is dependent upon the media and the rural areas of our state," Mrs. Hance stated. According to her, Hance's number one priority will be to get people to the polls on May 5. Hance's campaign is now organized in 234 counties out of the 254 counties in Texas.

"Most of our hardest work will be in the south and east Texas, where Kent's name is not as well-known. The valley will be a hard area for him," Mrs. Hance explained.

Citing some of Hance's issues of concern, Mrs. Hance told the Journal that he was very concerned about education, agricultural problems, the farm program—which he feels does not address the needs of farmers, and has not for a long while. He is also concerned with the oil industry and the amnesty to illegal aliens. She stated that Hance was very concerned about the economy in general.

"I think that Kent has proven himself to be a thinking man, and one who will stand for what he believes in," Mrs. Hance stated. She told Muleshoe citizens who were assembled that she had received extremely warm welcomes in all of the cities she had been in, and asked that each and every one support Kent Hance for senate.

Hance plans a visit to Muleshoe on March 17th for a dinner and other activities.

Agent Advises On Cold-Damage Plants

Record-breaking cold temperatures have caused devastating damages to ornamental plants over much of Texas, says Spencer Tankley county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Excessively low temperatures over a prolonged period with little or no accompanying moisture caused damages and losses that will be remembered for many years, not s Tanksley.

He lists some of the most frequently asked questions about freeze-damaged plants and the best course of action for homeowners:

1. Should I cut back plants that appear dead?

Tropical and herbaceous plants that appear dead probably are and can be cut back or removed immediately. Woody shrubs, broadleaf evergreens and trees that appear damaged are best left unpruned until they leaf out in the spring or when a definite assessment can be made.

2. Why can't I prune off the apparently dead growth now?

Pruning tends to stimulate new growth which could be easily damaged again by typical winter cold spells.

3. The leaves are all falling from my live oaks—are they dead?

Probably not. Live oaks often lose their foliage in mid-to late-winter just before new growth appears. This bare, dormant period likely will be longer than usual this year but not permanent!

4. Can I replace my dead plants now?

Yes, but look for split bark and other damage on plants in containers. Plants in containers are more susceptible to damage than those in the landscape, and if they have not received cold protection, their root systems may be damaged or killed. Texas nurserymen have sustained severe damages and are making a concerted effort to restock with healthy, undamaged plants for winter and spring planting.

5. When will I know for sure if my plants are dead or alive?

When lawmakers set up the tax law, they made it a pay-as-you-go system. If you have a job where taxes are withheld from each paycheck, based on the number of allowances you claim, there is likely to be no problem. But if you have other income of $500 or more -- from self-employment, interest, dividends, capital gains, or rents for example -- where there is no withholding, there may be a problem, the Internal Revenue says.

Generally, you may be required to pay estimated tax if you expect to owe $400 or more in tax for 1984, and you either expect to have $500 in income not subject to withholding or expect your gross income to be more than:

- $20,000 if you are single, a head of household, or a qualifying widow or widower, or
- $20,000 if you are married, entitled to make joint estimated tax payments and your spouse has not received wages for 1984, or
- $10,000 if you are married, entitled to make joint estimated tax payments, and both of you have received wages for 1984, or
- $5,000 if you are married and not entitled to make joint estimated tax payments.

Generally, when all is said and done, if you owe $400 or more in taxes for 1984 you might be in for a surprise -- a penalty for not making estimated tax payments or for not paying enough estimated tax. The penalty for not making estimated tax payments, or for not paying in enough estimated tax is 16 percent a year from January 1 to June 30, 1983, and 11 percent a year from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1984, and the penalty cannot be abated. However, you will

Chamber Manager Speaks To Students

The SCAC was presented a framed Constitution of SCAC, which was written by Jimmie Lee and K.K. Flowers and lettered by Melissa Wilbanks. This will be hung at the Muleshoe High School.

Frozen Lake Incidents Fatal To Nine Texans

At least nine persons have died from drowning or exposure after falling through the ice on frozen ponds during December and January. Several near drownings also were reported.

Water safety officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said three Grand Prairie youths fell through the ice on a partially-frozen pond. Two of the boys drowned and the third apparently succumbed to hypothermia while crawling for help.

Two adult hunters drowned while attempting to rescue their hunting dog which had fallen through the ice on a farm pond near San Marcos.

Two children, eight and nine, perished in a similar incident in Hopkins County.

A 15-year-old boy who already had pulled two youths from a frozen pond near Bellville drowned while attempting to rescue his eight-year-old brother from the same pond. Both drowned before help could arrive.

Officials warn that it is dangerous to venture onto any frozen body of water, no matter how thick the ice might appear. Rescuers also should not walk onto the frozen surface, but should attempt to reach the victim by throwing a rope or using a long pole or tree limb from the bank.

"Texans are not often exposed to weather cold enough to freeze the lakes, so possibly many of them are not aware of the dangers," Capt. Larry Williford, chief of water safety law enforcement. "We have even had reports of people driving cars out on the ice on major reservoirs, and at least one where the car fell through," Williford said.

Williford said parents especially should warn youngsters of the dangers of venturing onto frozen lakes, in the event of another severe cold wave.

MOST SMALL GRAINS TO RECOVER FROM FREEZE

While the late December cold wave that swept Texas dealt a heavy blow to grazing from small grains, most of the crops should recover, says an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Both wheat and oats were burned back severely by the long period of extremely cold weather. Oats were especially hard hit along with late-planted wheat that had not yet developed tillers (secondary stems). Plants should recover if they have green color in the growing point or crown node about one-half inch below the soil surface.

File Estimate Tax Now To Avoid Penalty Later

not have penalty if:

- you had no tax liability last year, were a U.S. citizen or resident for the entire year, and your taxable year was a taxable year of 12 months.
- the amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is equal to or more than your total tax for 1983, or
- the amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is more than would have been due on your 1983 income using 1983 rates and personal exemptions, or
- the amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is equal to or more than 80 percent of the tax on your annualized taxable income, for 1984 for the periods from January 1, 1984, to March 31, May 31, or August 31, 1984, or
- the amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is equal to or more than 90 percent of the tax on your actual taxable income for 1984 for the periods from January 1, 1984, to March 31, May 31, or August 31, 1984.

If you believe you should be making estimated tax payments and you also have wages from which income tax is withheld, you may be able to fill out a new Form W-4, "Employee's Withholding Certificate," and have more withheld each pay period instead of making estimated tax payments.

For more information contact the IRS for the free Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax."

Texas Businesses Outside Law

Get Once Only Chance

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said January 23 that Texas businesses operating outside state tax law will get a one-time-only, penalty-free chance in February to get right with the Comptroller's Office before Bullock lowers the boom in March.

"We'll give them 29 days in February to get right with the law," Bullock said. "If they come in and wipe the slate clean, we won't charge them penalty and we won't file charges against them. If they wait until March or if they wait until we find them, they'll be too late."

Comptroller enforcement officers will begin using new procedures designed to more quickly identify and collect taxes from errant taxpayers in March. Under the law, the Comptroller can collect a 10 percent penalty and has the power to file criminal charges for unreported state taxes.

"We will only waive penalties and charges if the taxpayer comes forward voluntarily during February," Bullock said. "Chronic late filers, delinquent taxpayers and other taxpayers already under investigation or court prosecution don't qualify for this relief."

The February-only, no-penalty period is aimed at:

- * A business operating without a tax permit.

- * A business (such as an out-of-state corporation) which owes Texas taxes even though a tax permit isn't required.
- * A business not reporting taxes on a new activity added since it got its original tax permit.
- * A business with a single tax permit, but more than one business location.

"The February period is for the business operating outside the tax law or beyond the limits of its tax permit. We want them to come out in the open, get a permit and start reporting taxes like most other Texas business people," the Comptroller said.

Congratulations!!!!

GREAT JOB!

Scholar Aid Provides

Regional Info

Scholarships and educational grants are available to area students and others from this region seeking higher education.

Over three billion dollars a year is available in scholarships and grants according to Scholar Aid, 2 Surrey Road, Melrose Park, Pa., a national scholarship matching service.

"Much of this money goes unclaimed," Steven Sewell, president of Scholar Aid reports, "because students are unaware of its availability."

Scholar Aid offers a guaranteed match of at least five possible scholarship sources for undergraduate students. "If we cannot provide a minimum of five scholarship sources per student, our entire fee is refunded and the student is sent those referrals we did obtain" said Sewell.

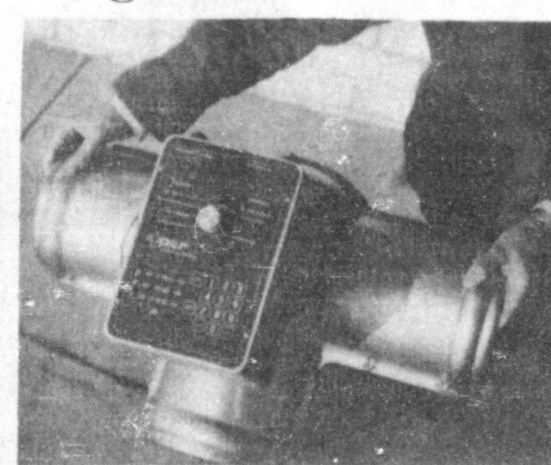

Scholar Aid's vast computer data bank of scholarships is constantly updated and can also serve graduate students and those seeking athletic scholarships.

"Every person in America deserves an education" said Sewell. "Anyone contemplating college entrance is invited to send their name and address to Scholar Aid, P.O. Box 29793, Elkins Park, Pa. 19117 for full and complete information that may mean the difference between education and a dead end job."

"The recent announcement that average college costs have increased by at least 10% makes financial aid almost mandatory for the majority of people seeking higher education."

Coaches Comments

Coach's Comments by Roy Donaldson
 "The Mules enjoyed great competition in our tournament games beginning with Olton. We were even up at the end of the first quarter with each team having 4 points. We really wanted the edge if possible at the half time break, so to change things up a little, we put on a full court press that turned out to be just the thing. We scored another 5 points, but the constant pressure from our defense held them to only 1 point, giving us that 13 to 5 lead we wanted by halftime. The second half was our game all the way as we applied good defensive pressure on the Colts and outscored them 8 to 4 in the 3rd period and with a comfortable lead stalled the ball the last 4 minutes of the last quarter. The final score was Mules 23 and Colts 15. Michael Dunham led our scoring with 9 points, David Sanders with 7, Richard Ring 6, Estevan Sandoval 2, and Brad Long 1. Long sprained his ankle in this game and will be out of action for awhile. He has done a fine job for us on the boards and defensively as well.

GAME #2, FRIDAY
 The game of the year so far turned out to be just the thing. We scored another 5 points, but the constant pressure from our defense held them to only 1 point, giving us that 13 to 5 lead we wanted by halftime. The second half was our game all the way as we MJHS had all the reason to be proud of our team as our excellent defense carried us to an 11 to 8 first quarter lead. Richard Ring sparked the team with his hustle. As all good teams do, Amherst kept their composure and came back strong in the second period and took the lead, making the halftime score 20 to 15.

We knew we were in a dog fight and that intelligent playing and team pride would be of utmost importance. Carrying the words "Mule Pride" with us, we took the court the 2nd half very aggressively. We had a very even scoring pattern with four of our five players putting in points. This makes it tough to defense for the other team and we tied the score up 27 to 27 by the end of the 3rd quarter.

The final quarter was a time of lead switching, but with 2 minutes remaining in the game, we managed to be on top by 2 and forced Amherst to press the ball and foul. We hit another field goal and two free shots to add another 4 points to our already 2 point lead. The final score was Mules 39, Amherst 33. Richard Ring hit for 16 points, Dunham 9, Sanders 8, Hicks 4, Sandoval 2.

GAME #3
 The Mules played the Plainview Bulldogs for the championship Saturday. We played a fine ball game, but we just didn't have the edge we had the day before and against a team like Plainview, you have to have it to win.

We were tied up 8 to 8 first quarter, but down by 3 at half. The 3rd quarter was ours by 2, making it 27 to 26, Bulldogs' favor. With 3 minutes left in the game, we trailed by 4, so we pressed the ball and Plainview handled it well and managed to take advantage of the situation by adding another 3. The game ended Plainview 45, Muleshoe 38. David Sanders hit for 17 points, Sandoval 8, Dunham 7, Ring 4, Murphy 2. The defeat gave us the 2nd place trophy. We are proud of our team and encourage your support for us."

It's much easier to spend money than to make it.

The lucky man is the one who forgets his bad luck.

Snappy remarks are often senseless utterances.

MULES VS. LITTLEFIELD

"The 7th boys enjoyed a good start this season, being beaten only once before the Holidays and that loss was to Littlefield. We would have liked to at least evened up the win - lose record against them with a win, but that turned out not to be the case.

We fell into a slump after the holidays. It seemed as though we could not do anything well. It's not uncommon for 7th grade teams to have these slumps but you never enjoy them when they do come your way. We lost a lot of confidence after our defeat by Dimmitt, January 9, and that's hard to recover from in just one week.

Our second game with Littlefield got underway with the Mules jumping out in front the first quarter. Points were scored as such: Micheal Dunham 2, David Sanders 3, Estevan Sandoval 2, Richard Ring 2. As you can see we had a well balanced offensive attack and held Littlefield to only 2 field goals to make the score 9-4 in our favor.

The second quarter was all Littlefield, as they scored 15 pts, and we could only account for 5 pts. We had three starters on the bench in foul trouble this quarter and the inability to rebound put the ball into Wildcat hands too many times. With David Sanders 4 points and Richard Ring's 1 point we went to the dressing room at half - time with the score Mules 14 and Littlefield 19.

The second half was a different type of ballgame for us. We went into a zone defense because of so many players in foul trouble. We had not run that in a game before and due to the lack of experience could not get it to get just right. scored 4 points for the Mules, but the Wildcats poured in 14 more to lead at the end of 3 periods, 33 to 18.

PECAN TREES HURT BY COLD

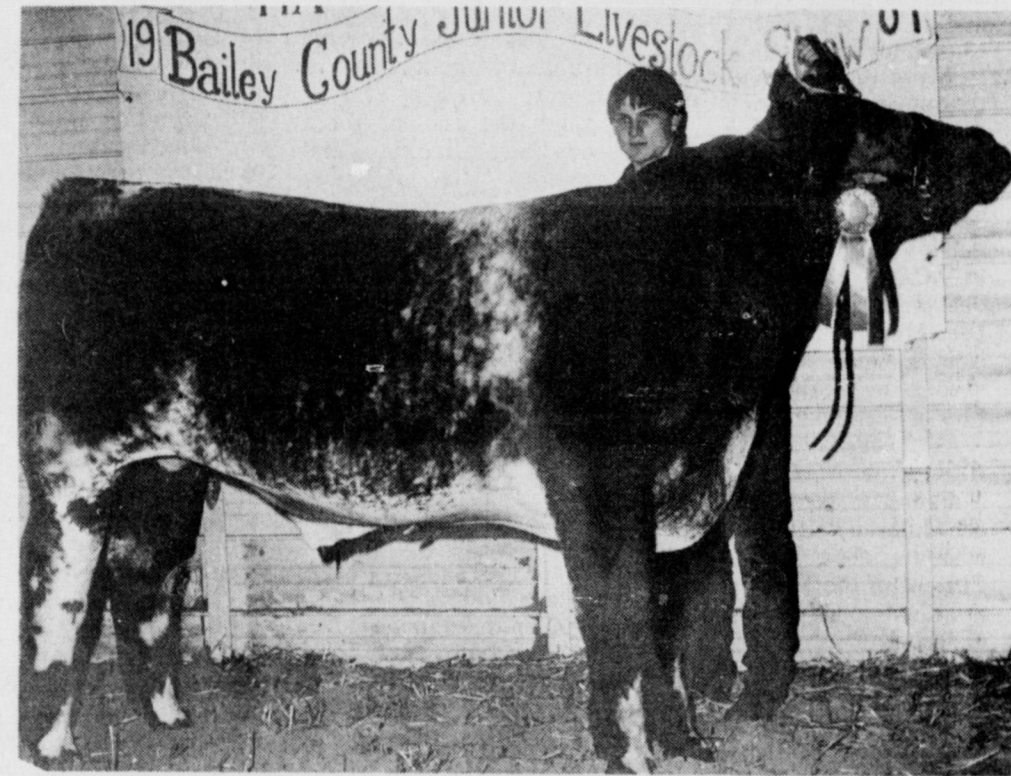

The late December cold spell in Texas could have a major impact on the 1984 pecan crop. Many rapidly growing young pecan trees (less than 7 years old) as well as pecan trees in nurseries took a severe beating from the prolonged cold weather, says a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Mature trees that were stressed from a heavy crop in 1983 could also have suffered from freeze injury. This is especially true of Barton, Mahan and Wichita varieties.

The fourth period turned our way but not enough to win. Sanders added 2 more, Dunham 2, and Ring 3 while Littlefield only scored 3. The final score was Wildcats 36, Mules 26.

I feel that even though we lost, we show signs of coming out of our deep slump, especially in the final quarter of play. We expect better games ahead."

We're Proud of You!

Farm Credit Board Elects New Officers

The Board of Directors of the Farm Credit Banks of Texas has elected Roy A. Seaberg, Jr. of Huggman, chairman and Ray Robertson of Dimmitt as vice chairman. The reorganization came during the group's December meeting and gives each a one-year term in their new capacity.

In 1980 Seaberg was appointed director-at-large of the Farm Credit Banks of Texas by the governor of the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D.C. He serves as a director of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives and the Texas Federation of Cooperatives. He is a member of the Federal Land Bank Association of Dayton and the Beaumont Production Credit Association.

In addition to his Farm Credit leadership roles, Seaberg is vice chairman and director of the Texas Soybean Association and director of the Harris County Soil and Water Conservation District. He is a member of a number of agricultural organizations including American Rice, Inc., American Rice Growers Cooperative Association. He also is a member of the Texas Bar Association and the Texas Society of CPAs. He is a partner in a family farming operation which includes rice, soybeans and cattle. He is co-owner of a seed company, agricultural implement dealership and a gravel company.

Seaberg graduated from Rice University in Houston with a degree in business administration and received his J.D. degree from the University of Texas School of Law. He and wife, Ruth, have three daughters and one son.

Robertson was first elected to the Texas Farm Credit Board by the Production Credit Associations of Texas in 1979. He served as a director of the Plainview Production Credit Association, the Texas Federation of Cooperatives and the American Council of Agriculture. He is a past director of the Castro Cooperative Gin.

In addition to his agricultural affiliations, Robertson is a member of the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce, the Masons and Shriners. The chamber recognized him as "Citizen Through the Years" in 1979 for his outstanding service to agriculture and the community.

He and wife, Joan, have three daughters and two sons, and are members of the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

The new vice chairman farms near Dimmitt with principal crops being corn, cotton, wheat and vegetables. He also does custom farm conservation work.

Other members of the board of directors are: Edward Breihan of Lubbock; Dr. Ben F. Gearhart Jr. of Marfa; W. Clyde Ikins of Bandera; Wilmer Smith of

New Home; and newly elected director B.L. Smith Jr. of Paducah. Serving as representative to the Federal Farm Credit Board is Tom H. Carothers of Palestine.

The Texas Farm Credit System is comprised of the Federal Land Bank of Texas and its 49 Federal Land Bank Associations, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Texas, 30 Production Credit Associations and the Texas Bank for Cooperatives. Collectively they provided more than $4 billion in financing in 1983.

Hohokam Indian Culture Studied

Dr. Vorsila L. Bohrer, research professor in the Department of Anthropology at Eastern New Mexico University, recently returned from Arizona State University in Tempe where she spent the semester as a visiting professor and directed the investigation of carbonized plant material secured from an archaeological site in the heart of Phoenix.

The site, known as "La Ciudad," lies in the path of a proposed freeway. Its prehistoric inhabitants are known as the Hohokam.

The Hohokam were North American Indians centered in southern Arizona. Their culture lasted from about the time of Christ to 1400 A.D., and was characterized by intense agricultural development, large villages, and rich artistic styles in pottery and ornamentation. A highly developed social organization was needed to produce an abundance of corn, beans, squash, and cotton, and to maintain public facilities such as the extensive irrigation system.

The Hohokam culture can be divided into the Pioneer, Colonial, Sedentary and Classic stages. Irrigation began in the Pioneer stage, a period also characterized by rectangular pithouses. Ball courts, irrigation ditches and shell carving appeared in the Colonial stage. A new red pottery type and long, oval-shaped houses characterized the Sedentary stage. Surface house, later multi-storied, and lifelike pottery forms were features of the Classic period. The Pima Indians are the apparent heirs to the Hohokam tradition.

According to Dr. Bohrer, who also taught a course at Arizona State University on the recovery and interpretation of archaeological plant remains, the Hohokam house floors, dating from 900-1100 A.D., were preserved within a foot and a half of the present surface -- having been completely undisturbed by the concrete slab foundations poured for modern houses.

Students from Eastern New Mexico University will be assisting Dr. Bohrer this semester in identifying the archaeological plant remains that were recovered from burned houses and trash pits.

Small Grains Will Recover From Freeze

While the late December cold wave that swept Texas dealt a heavy blow to grazing from small grains, most of the crops should recover.

That assessment comes from Dr. Travis Miller, agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Both wheat and oats were burned back severely by the long period of extremely cold weather," says Miller. "Oats were especially hard hit along with late-planted wheat that had not yet developed tillers (secondary stems)."

Miller noted that a considerable amount of wheat was damaged in central and western areas because it was planted late due to a lack of soil moisture last fall. Some of this was replanted wheat where early stands had been poor due to dry conditions followed by heavy rains in October.

To check for freeze damage, Miller suggests looking at the growing point or crown node of the plant about one-half inch below the soil surface. Cut the middle of the stem with a sharp knife and look for green material. If the growing point appears water soaked or brownish in color, the plant is dead. Live plants will generally revive and green color will be restored after a week to ten days of favorable weather.

"The best thing for producers to do right now is to let cattle graze off the dead topgrowth," says Miller. "This is high quality forage with up to 15 percent crude protein. If the small grains were severely frosted, take cattle off the fields to enable plants to recover once this dead growth is removed. If a considerable amount of green leaves remain, continue normal grazing operations. Mild weather is needed and some areas need additional moisture to facilitate regrowth."

The agronomist advised producers to let small grains put forth 4 to 6 inches of new growth before grazing them again. Overgrazing fields prior to the December cold led to heavier than usual freeze damage to wheat and oats in some areas.

In addition to keeping cattle off small grains to speed up recovery, Miller also advised against applying fertilizer at this time. "Fertilizing now would just cause a flush of tender growth which would be highly susceptible to more cold weather," he says.

Small grains should be topped with nitrogen just before the jointing stage of growth, or about the time cattle are pulled off to enable grain production, notes the agronomist. This ranges from mid-February in southern area to early March in the plains.

Texas boasts about 7.4 million acres of wheat this year and about 1.5 million acres of oats. About 70 percent of the oats planted are grazed out by livestock, but a good portion of the wheat is left to make a grain crop, Miller says. Depending on weather conditions the rest of the winter and into the spring, the Texas wheat crop should not be reduced significantly due to frigid conditions in December.

Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Acres tries to explain the December cold spell.

Dear editor: Everybody pokes fun at the weather bureau when it's wrong, but this time it was right. It reported that the past December was the coldest December in the history of the country.

It's absolutely right about that and I've got a heating bill to prove it.

What caused the historically low temperatures is hard to explain. Some weather experts blame it on the erratic path of the jet stream, but what causes the jet stream, they don't say.

They're like the ancient experts when the world was considered flat. When asked what held the world up, they said it rested on the back of a hugh turtle. If you asked what held the turtle up, they chopped your held off.

There is a more civilized handling of a ticklish problem like that today.

Ask a politician how he would reduce the $200 billion dollar deficit and he'll say flat out he'd cut government spending. Ask him where he'd cut and he'll say over his shoulder he has to hurry off to a committee meeting. This saves heads but doesn't affect the deficit.

Nowadays we know the world isn't flat because turtles don't grow that big, and December was the coldest December on record because we've been keeping records too long.

Your faithfully,
J.A.

County Agent Report

by Spencer Tanksley

Landscape plants suffered damages to varying degrees from the cold weather that plagued Bailey County in late December.

However, it's still too early to predict the overall extent of the damage, says Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Much of the damage to broadleaved evergreens appears to be foliage burn, notes Tanksley. These leaves will look bad until new growth comes out this spring. Homeowners will probably have to replace many of the more tender plants. Examine the base of the canes or trunk. If the bark is split and peeling, the plant probably is not salvageable.

Delay and pruning of damaged wood until late February or early March, advises Tanksley. Buds should be swelling and showing signs of growth by then, making it easier to distinguish damaged tissue.

Fertilize any freeze-damaged trees and shrubs late in February or early March to help promote new growth and healing of damaged tissue, suggests Tanksley. Broadcast a high nitrogen-type fertilizer beneath the branch spread of the plant and 3 to 6 feet beyond. Apply at the rate of 2 pounds of actual nitrogen per 1000 square feet and water in thoroughly.

It is essential to provide adequate moisture to cold-damaged plants to prevent moisture stress, Tanksley emphasizes. So supplemental irrigation will be needed during any dry period throughout the spring and summer.
