Cost of the meal will be $5 for adults, children $3 and senior citizens $3.

The drawing for the pickup that the club has been accepting donations will be held at this time.

All proceeds will go to purchase lights for the new Gruver ball park field.

Much time has been spent planting grass on the new ballpark field located across from the school tennis courts. A fence for the field has also been completed.

The ballpark will be a combination softball, pony league and T-ball field. The men's softball team plan to use the ballpark following its completion later this summer.

Ya'll come to the fireworks

The Board of Directors of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce and the Citizens of Spearman would like to invite all Gruver, Morse and Pringle residents to the 1985 Fireworks Display which will begin at 8:30 P.M. on July 4, 1985 at the Spearman High School Football Stadium. The agenda is as follows:

Benediction.

The United States of America is the greatest country in the world. Our citizenship in some other country would make us less fortunate. During these times, when the world's problems so directly affect us, it is important that we celebrate our country's birthday with fireworks and a show of patriotism. See you there!

Old school room exhibit at museum

The teacher's desk from the old Blodgett school, blackboards from the early-day. Also school; a McGuffey Reader used in Old Hansford school by the late Carrie Wells Cotter — these are but a few items included in a special school room created at Station Masters House Museum.

"Finis Maize" is the name in the McGuffey reader.

Winnie Dacus Allen was kind enough to display her school annual "The Wild Rose" - first one printed and contains many pictures of 1920 - 23 Spearman students.

Histories from all the early Hansford Schools are on display some pictures, report cards and an interesting assembly of memorabilia dating back to the 1800's is shown.

One special case holds early school books: the old Blue Back Speller, 1857 McGuffey's - and a New England Primer printed in 1800. This shirt - pocket sized book is backed with thin oak wood over which was pasted blue cloth. The New England Primer is full of moral aims, rhymes and stories. The purpose of Puritan education was to teach children the principles of religion and the laws of their country and to train them for useful labor.

These rare school books are very interesting relics.

Mrs. Sada Hoskins, who has been a teacher since the early 1920s - helped in supplying materials for the special school display. She furnished many items used by "Miss Tuttle" in the 1930s.

The public - especially Ex-Students here for the All - School reunion July 5 and 6 are invited to visit the Museum in the afternoon till 5:00 p.m. Tuesday thru Saturday.

The old school room exhibit will occupy the main room at the Museum through out the summer months.

Fire Dept. answers 23 calls in June

Ronnie Antalek, Fire Department Chief reports that there were some 23 fires and rescue calls during the month of June.

There were 5 calls in a 24 hour period from 8:30 Saturday until 8:30 Sunday.

The majority of the fires have been grass and wheat stubble, with 2 caused by fireworks.

The variety of sirens that we have been hearing is a result of the moving of equipment to the new city hall.

Also, according to Antalek, there is no fire department phone system as there was previously, and firemen have to rely on their pagers and the sirens.

The sirens for a storm remain a high-low continual blast.

PDRA cuts cost of lake project

Amount of a proposed water revenue bond election for construction of a dam by the Palo Duro River Authority may be reduced by $3 million because of lower construction estimates and a possible $15 million state grant.

Original estimates placed the cost of the dam, water treatment plant and pipeline system at $56 million, but the engineering firm working on the plans now believes the project can be built for $53 million.

Johnnie Lee, general manager of PDRA, reports the Freese and Nichols estimates for the project to supply six cities with water have been lowered since Perryton and Ochiltree county declined to join the district.

The district hopes to obtain $15 million in Texas water development funds to reduce the amount of a revenue bond election. The election will be called later this year to build the dam and construct a treatment plant and water supply system.

The system would supply water to the cities of Dumas, Sunray and Cactus in Moore county, Gruver and Spearman in Hansford county and Stinnett in Hutchinson county from a 60,000 acre-foot lake northwest of Spearman.

Lee explains that the original cost of $56 million was estimated early this year before Perryton and Ochiltree residents voted against annexation by the PDRA.

Both Moore county and the City of Stinnett in Jan. 19 elections approved annexation by the river authority. Hansford county was already a member.

"The new estimate eliminates the supply pipeline to Perryton, but keeps the 7.8 million gallon per day treatment plant," Lee points out. "Also the treatment plant has been relocated on the south side of the lake."

The new site is on the same side of the lake as the current district members, eliminating the expense of a pipeline crossing on the Palo Duro Creek.

The PDRA general manager notes that the project estimate from the engineering firm "is as high as it can possibly be," and notes that the board of directors may do some additional trimming to get costs down.

For example, Lee points out, each of the four pumping stations along the water supply line to member cities are designed with dual sets of pumps - a primary and a backup system.

"Since the cities still have underground water supplies, the PDRA may not need to install the second set of pumps, which could save another $2 million," Lee declares. "PDRA directors are going to have to make some hard decisions on where to cut."

PDRA directors at the July 10 board meeting will consider a resolution asking the Texas Water Commission for a $5 million low-interest loan and requesting the state to buy $10 million in water storage.

Lee and Bob Davis of Austin, bond advisor, will meet this week in Austin with water commission representatives.

"It is just a matter of completing the red tape necessary on the project," the PDRA executive believes. "If we can get the state funds before the revenue bond election, it will lower our money needs considerably."

Revenue bonds will be necessary to construct the dam at the junction of the Palo Duro and Horse creeks in northwestern Hansford county and build the water supply system to member cities.

The project costs had been placed at approximately $56 million by Fort Worth engineering firm last fall when the PDRA was promoting the annexation elections in Moore county and Stinnett.

The cost of treated water from the lake to member cities was estimated at $2.14 per 1,000 gallons - a cost that "would build everything without any taxes," Lee says.

"The cost of water because of lower construction estimates and the state funds has not been projected," the PDRA manager notes. "But the $2.14 price can be lowered."

Miss Lynn Sarabee, of Texhoma, a student at WTSC was a week-end guest in the Billy Haden home over the week-end.

Two high school students from Corpus Christi are building their muscles and getting a good tan before school starts, out at the O.C. Holt farm. Bill and George Eisenauer are spending the summer with their grandparents and incidentally, making pretty good hands, according to Granddad, O.C. Their mother, Anita, regrets that she will be unable to attend the all school re-union.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ferrell participated in the Cowboy Camp Meeting at the YL Arena, eleven miles from Canadian on Sunday. This is a annual, interdenominational meeting and ministers of various faiths conduct it. This year it opened on Thursday and continued thru Sunday. There was a very large attendance, some coming from as far as 500 miles. They came in R.V.s and spent the entire several days. This year the ministers were: George Shelton, Hutchinson, Kansas; Boyce Evans, Lubbock, and music director Bill Cole, Amarillo.

What might be called an exodus of the Viola Boyd Family occurred this past week when on Wednesday Dee Allen, Carl Urban and Justin Ooley went to Red River. On Friday Viola Boyd, Winnie Carol Allen, Christa Urban and Sandy McLeod joined them. Roy Gene and Martha Boyd arrived Saturday. Also on Saturday Carol Ratliffe, Canyon, her son, Raby, and his children made their presence known. Then to complete the gathering on Saturday Scott Boyd, Spearman and Robbie Ratliffe, Amarillo joined them. They all enjoyed boating and fishing and returned late Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Evans, formerly of Hansford County, now of Satanta, Kansas visited his mother, Mrs. Nina Evans, and brother, Jerry and family, on Sunday. Billy Joe is manager of a feed lot at Garden City, Kansas.

Little Candace Sue Boyett arrived on June 18th to brighten the home of Lori and Terry Boyett, Amarillo. She weighed 7 lbs. and 3 oz. and was born in Borger, Texas. Candace Sue made her debut at a family shower on Saturday, June 29, at the home of her great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kiff White. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tommie White and Tommie states that he is doing his part toward the population explosion as this makes him six, three boys and three girls.

Mrs. Connie Steger returned June 29 from Madison, Wisconsin, where she attended the Bethel Series Teachers Clinic. The Clinic was held June 23 thru June 28 at the Yahara Center, a beautiful wooded area, out of Madison. Students from 15 states attended, and represented many denominations. The training lectures were held mornings, afternoons, and many evenings. Interspersed between the lectures was inspirational music provided by the talented staff.

The Bethel Intensive Training was started in Spearman about two years ago, and the Congregational Phase is due to begin in October, 1985.

Pat and Diane Sloan, with girls, Lisa and Joy, are visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Sloan. They plan to stay until after the school reunion. Pat is associated with an Ad Valorem Tax Consultant in Krum, Texas, where she lives.

Mrs. Frances Cudd spent Monday in Amarillo checking on Mrs. Garnet Cudd who is in the hospital there. Mrs. Cudd, step-mother of Gene lives near Booker. She has worked with horses for many years. About three weeks ago, she was working with two horses and in some manner became entangled and broke an ankle, and on the other leg, broke a knee. She is recovering very well.

According to Ronnie Gibson there was an unexpected development in the condition of his daughter, Rhonda, which necessitated back surgery. Two steel pins were implanted on either side of the spine, and some bone grafted. However, her prognosis is good at this time. Rhonda was injured some weeks ago and has been confined to a hospital in Amarillo since.

Dan Vaughn, now of Victoria, Texas, stole a jump on the school re-union as he arrived in Spearman Monday and is visiting in the home of Ronnie Gibson. His mother,

Our Heritage of Faith

Historical Christian Worship is in terms of 'Liturgy' and 'community'. Liturgy is from a Greek word meaning "Work of the People" in the sense of doing a public service. The early Christian writers joined this word for public work with another community word, 'ecclesia', which came to mean 'the church'. Ecclesia was a community

The Church picked up the idea of participation in the business of the community and public work and applied it to Christian worship and daily living. Christian Worship then is not for spectators but for participants. This is not new, for this was found in

It's been said that the sign of a good marriage is that it can always get better. Having a close relationship with someone and having a good family life were two of the most sought after goals of 86-96% of the respondents in a recent Gallup Poll.

Marriage and family are still a vital element in America's daily life, yet few adults recognize the time and effort needed to maintain a strong married relationship. Noted family specialists identify three essential elements for a successful marriage: commitment, communication and conflict management.

A commitment to ongoing growth is the first essential. It's a recognition that marriage is not a static state, that people change and so will their marriage relationship. The concept of "marrying and settling down" is a rigid concept promising eternal happiness just because you've gone through a wedding ceremony. A wedding is not a marriage. It's only the beginning of an undertaking in which it takes years before a strong marriage relationship can evolve.

The second essential for a good marriage is communication. Research studies indicate that about 87 percent of all couples experience difficulties with communication. Not only could they not communicate with each other, they could not seem to get through to their partner, nor could they hear what the other was saying. Good communication between husband and wife is based on self-understanding, knowledge of one's own personality, a readiness to show and a willingness to support and encourage love and affection for each other.

Conflict is a part of every relationship. It can range from a minor disagreement to a major confrontation. It is impossible, though, for two adults - no matter how much they love each other - to agree on absolutely everything.

Conflict provides a couple material for significant growth. When a couple runs away from conflict, they run away from vita growth which any couple needs for closeness.

Any aspect of a couple's life together can become a problem or difficult area for them. In the final analysis, the most important factor is how the couple deals with problems that do arise and that each partner finds the solution satisfactory.

No funding for Crisis Center

All right. Are you ready? We did not receive any funding from the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission. This should not be a shock, for after all, it makes sense that more densely populated centers should receive the funds. But it also makes it difficult for those of us (like the Panhandle Crisis Center) who live in rural areas and who also have problems, and find access to the metropolitan centers difficult if not totally discouraging.

Fortunately for us, the Department of Human Resources has been able to come through, and we have signed a contract for three months that will help immensely.

We haven't given up, though, on grant proposals. We are preparing three more to send out at the close of the week. (And let me testify that preparing a grant proposal is a wooly boogery!) Optimism isn't high, but effort is.

Meantime, your gifts are of vital importance.

Two things we desperately need: (1) to be able to guarantee the salary of the full time officer worker, Jeannie Garrison, who not only is efficient but is also dedicated; and (2) to be able to guarantee the salary for a half-time director who is also efficient, well-trained, and highly dedicated. Our own Helen Bussey who is also efficient, well-trained, and highly dedicated. Our own Helen Bussey fills these requirements, and she is currently donating what time she can spare from her own need to make a living. She is a tremendous support and a very knowledgeable director. But we need her on a salaried basis. In our early days we wrote a 6-months contract with her for part-time. When it became apparent that there was no way we could pay her, she graciously released us from the contract, and continues to serve us with what time she can spare. We had earnestly hoped for funding in order to be assured of her salary. Well, we're still trying.....

Our months of service have also emphasized the value of a permanent shelter, where women can find a refuge for up to a month. This is ticklish business, primarily because of money, money, money which we don't have in any quantity, though contributions from the community have been generous enough to keep us going. And we are most grateful to the Ministerial Alliance, which has picked up the tab for the one-two and three-night shelters we've been able to obtain. One minister commented with surprise at how many such shelters had been provided, which shows only that our community has had no idea of the extent of the problem, nor how severe it sometimes is. And some of these women pay for their own shelter!

Yes, we have been able to be very effective for a good many persons, including a batterer or two. You should hear their testimony! If you ever wondered why anyone would get involved with situations like the ones we encounter, you have only to try it a couple of times to realize what it must be like for a victim of battering or rape to find an interested, informed person reaching a helping hand.

Did you get to view BATTERED WIVES, SHATTERED LIVES on TV? It's a documentary of domestic violence - not a dramatization, such as THE BURNING BED. We have access to a tape of this TV show, and if anyone is interested, please call the Panhandle Crisis Center, 435-5008. A follow-up, HOMEMADE VIOLENCE, will soon be presented. Watch for it in your TV guides. The PCC will also tape this one, if the "taper" doesn't miss it.

Now that we've been through national Rape Crisis Week, perhaps we have become more aware of the problem of rape and its painful truths as opposed to the myths we so often subscribe to. Our area is becoming increasingly aware that the old idea that "she asked for it" is not valid, nor has it ever been except in rare instances. Fortunately for the victims, we in our area are developing a more sophisticated attitude toward the very idea of rape. We are learning more and better ways of dealing with it. An aspect of it that is only recently being admitted to the law courts is a husband's rape of his own wife. Like battering, there is no excuse for sexual violence, except ignorance and lack of comprehension. That's no excuse, but it does sometimes explain it. To do violence to another's body can never be acceptable. But even better, we are learning ways of dealing with the "villain" of the piece, who, after all, is himself a victim. Those sexual offenders who seem to be the most difficult are molesters. Here our very best resource is to educate our children in ways of recognizing what is going on and to know how to protect themselves, and always ALWAYS to seek help, no matter what the molester says or who he/she is. The PCC has several programs on this program, too, including a film strip and a TV tape. Anyone interested in viewing either one, please call the center. Neither strip nor tape is offensive either to children or to adults: they are purely informative in a simple, delicate, straight-forward manner.

Remember: The Panhandle Crisis Center is here to help anyone who will get in touch with us. Even yet, clients come to the officer saying, "I didn't know you were here." Please spread the word. We have 24-hour answering service and trained volunteers always available.

Telephone 435-5008.

Patty Barker receives doctorate

CORAL GABLES, FLA. -- Patty Barker, of Brownwood, Tex., received the Doctor of Philosophy degree during recent commencement exercises at the University of Miami.

A graduate of S.F. Austin High School, Barker majored in education, and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Barker, of Brownwood, Tex.

The University of Miami is the largest private teaching and research university in the southeast, with $14,000 students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on four campuses.

July 4 highway death estimate

AUSTIN--The Texas Department of Public Safety estimates that as many as 17 people will die in traffic accidents in the state during the 30-hour July 4 holiday period.

"Though this year's estimate is lower than last year's death toll, the final figure could be even lower if Texans refrained from drinking and driving, stayed within the speed limit and buckled their safety belts," said Colonel Jim Adams, director of the DPS.

Last year, 20 persons died in crashes on Texas streets and highways during the July 4 holiday period. Three additional fatalities resulting from serious injuries during the period pushed the final toll to 23.

"This year's estimate of 17 deaths compared to the higher number of fatalities last year is in keeping with a downward trend in Texas traffic fatalities," said Adams.

In 1984, 48 per cent of the fatalities reported during the July 4 period resulted from accidents in which speed or DWI was listed as a contributing factor.

"In an effort to limit the number of deaths, additional DPS troopers will again be patrolling rural roads and highways during the holiday period," Adams said.

The Department's "Operation Motorcade," in which the number of fatalities will be reported at intervals through the period to remind Texas drivers of holiday driving dangers, begins at 6 p.m. Wednesday, July 3 and continues through midnight Thursday, July 4.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO IMPLEMENT RATES

General Telephone Company of the Southwest in accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the Rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas gives notice of its intent to implement new exchange access rates for the provision of shared tenant and tenant resale services.

These proposed rates are applicable to customers of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, excluding hotel/motel customers, who provide local exchange telephone service of General Telephone Company of the Southwest to their tenants or patrons on a resale or shared use basis. This resale or sharing arrangement is normally provided utilizing a customer-provided PABX or other similar stored control switch capable of common control processing or other features commonly associated with a PABX "Smart" switch.

These proposed rates are designed to recover costs on a usage basis for local exchange telephone service access and are identical to General Telephone's "Optional Measured Service" rates. The monthly access rate will be $28.95 per trunk line and the usage rates are as follows:

Over	Up To and Including	Band	Set Up	Full Rate Period Each Minute
0	7 miles	A	$.025	$.015
7	14 miles	B	.035	.021
14	21 miles	C	.050	.030
21	28 miles	D	.070	.042
28		E	.090	.054

As this is a new service offering, we are unable to determine the number of customers who may be affected. Currently, there are no known prospective customers. Until any customer utilizes this new offering, there will be no effect on the revenues of the telephone company, and in any event, the telephone company does not expect revenues to be affected by more than 2 1/2 percent. These proposed rates, where applicable, will provide tariffed local exchange access to customers who then will provide shared or resale services to tenants.

These proposed rates have been suspended by the Public Utility Commission of Texas and will become effective as proposed or modified by order of the Commission on a date to be determined by the commission.

The proposed rate schedule is on file with the Commission for public inspection and is also available at any business office of General Telephone Company of the Southwest. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumers Affairs Division at (512)458-0223 or (512)458-0227, or (512)458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Being your own best friend

"What a stupid thing to do." "Way to go, jerk." Sound familiar? No, it is not your mother or your boy friend. The above things are usually said by us to ourselves. Negative self-talk accounts for a major portion of the poor self images in our civilization. Do we naturally hate ourselves, or is there some other reason that we can be our own worst enemy.

For a lot of us, saying something good about ourselves translates as pride or vanity. When we say someone is vain, we are not complimenting that person. Does that mean that we mustn't be proud of our accomplishments? Can we even be allowed to have a positive belief in our own self-worth. Yes, by all means. That's where positive self-talk comes into the picture.

Ever looked into mirror in the morning and said "Go get them, you good-looking doll." No? Try it some time. Not only will it improve your self-concept, it will improve your productivity. In fact, a leading productivity specialist has developed what he calls the "executive wink". He tells his clients to look in the mirror several times a day, wink at themselves and say out loud "Way to go." or "You can do it." Why does that improve productivity? Because we listen to ourselves. When we say negative things, we believe negative things. When we say positive things, we believe positive things.

How can we keep all this positive self-talk from turning us into disgusting and obnoxious people? After you break the negative self-talk habit, keeping from being a pain is easy. First, be optimistic and realistic. For example, note the difference between "I can do anything." and "I will do my best." or "I've never done this before. I'll never get it right." The first sentence is very unrealistic, the second positive, and third is, frankly, a self-fulfilling prophecy. If you believe what you say, you will do what you believe.

What if you do your best and you still fail? Those old negative habits try to creep in to help you suffer. If you don't remember anything else from this article, remember the next sentence. THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH FAILURE AS LONG AS YOU DO YOUR BEST. Nobody succeeds all the time. Everybody fails sometimes. You, too, will fail. Get your positive self-talk working. "Next time I'll do better." "I learned a lot from this experience." "It takes courage to try something new."

Another way to keep from being self-important instead of self-confident is to get feedback from a trusted friend, someone who knows you well, likes you and is capable of being positive himself or herself. Most of my friends are eager to help me feel good about myself. On the other hand, they don't hesitate to tell me when my self-worth starts to become selfish. If you don't have a friend who will give you positive feedback, ask a favorite sister, parent or cousin.

Developing a positive self-image takes practice and conscious effort. Look for things that you do well (and everybody does something well, even if it's only making perfect tea), then give yourself a pep talk. Become your own best friend. Your positive attitude will effect everything around you.

July 4

Richard Henry Lee of Virginia offered a resolution in the Continental Congress in 1776 which was to have worldwide repercussions for centuries. The resolution stated that, "these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent." This resolution was adopted by The Congress on July 2, 1776.

Interestingly, Congress adopted another resolution on the 4th explaining its reasons for declaring independence, and justifying the action. This is the resolution we now celebrate on the 4th.

This resolution was drafted by Thomas Jefferson, chairman of the committee, and Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert Livingston.

A mass meeting in Philadelphia in Independence Square celebrated the declarations on July 8, 1776--and heard them read by John Nixon. General George Washington, on the 9th, included the declaration in general orders to the army, stating:

"The several brigades are to be drawn up this evening on their respective parades at six o'clock, when the declaration of Congress, showing the grounds and reasons for this measure, is to be read in an audible voice.

"The general hopes this important event will serve as fresh incentive to every officer and soldier to act with fidelity and courage, as knowing now that the peace and safety of his country depends, under God, solely on the success of our arm..."

Ronald Reagan, President: "America will never make concessions to terrorism...to do so will only invite more terrorism."

Hard work still represents the main essential of success in life.

A Time to Repledge Ourselves...

Born of a revolution, this country began with a pledge: liberty and justice for all. Now...we, the American people, are still striving for these goals. It's easy to find fault...but it takes dedication and unity to bring about change, as our forefathers did. We have the freedom now to do it peacefully. Let's celebrate that freedom...and honor our nation for what's been achieved...let's join together...with a renewed sense of purpose...to reach our goals.

Beefa Thon TV Auction July 7 to beef. The merchants of Amarillo and the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle have donated over 200 items and the beef producers from the golden spread have donated 23 head of beef. Items range from a mink coat to a talking alarm clock, to a Seiko watch that had a tape recorder in it, to a microwave oven, a recliner, fine paintings, a sapphire and diamond ring, an Elvis Presley collector's doll to a Blue Heeler puppy.

Interspersed throughout the auction will be patient interviews and interviews with physicians who deal with the MS patient. Drs who will be interviewed are; Loralu Raburn, Joe Batson, Michael Ryan, Rush Snyder, Jan Werner, Gary Rose and Robert Gerald. Bob (Pappy) Watson will conduct the patient interviews.

Deere & Co. asks investment credit be retained

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The chairman of Deere & Company today urged the House Ways and Means Committee to retain the investment tax credit at least as it applies to the nation's farmers.

In a statement submitted to the Committee, Robert A. Hanson said that the repeal of the investment credit in President Reagan's tax reform proposal would add an estimated $590 million a year to the tax burden of farm operators "who are still enduring one of the longest farm recessions in history."

He estimated that the increased personal exemptions and the lower tax rates provided by the tax reform proposal would decrease farmers' Federal income taxes by $380 million but the repeal of the investment credit would increase their taxes by about $970 million.

Under current law, if a farmer purchased equipment for $30,000, he would be entitled to an investment credit against his income tax of $3,000. The proposed income tax reform would not allow any credit for machinery and equipment placed in service after January 1, 1986.

Using information from the University of Illinois and the Illinois Farm Bureau Farm Management Association's farm records, Deere estimates that the average farm operator's income tax liability will be increased by about $900 per year under President Reagan's tax proposal.

"It is indeed ironic that a tax bill which promises to provide reductions in taxes for almost 80% of all individual taxpayers, substantially increases the tax liability of our nation's farmers who can least afford it," Hanson said.

"Farm commodities represent a substantial portion of the country's exports," he said. "Considering the increasing trade deficit, we cannot afford to increase the costs or reduce the efficiency of our nation's farmers."

He pointed out that the repeal of the investment tax credit would have a negative effect on farm equipment manufacturers by increasing their cost of capital goods, while also reducing the demand for farm equipment.

"But more importantly, it will increase the cost of the farmers' capital goods and the cost of producing farm commodities," he added. "The continuing weakness of the farm economy and the competitive challenges from overseas facing our farmers causes the impact of the repeal of the investment tax credit to be felt more keenly than would normally be the case."

"We therefore request that this committee not penalize the farmer by raising his individual income tax but instead continue the investment credit at least as it relates to farm operators."

Candlelight ceremony unites couple

MRS. BYRON JAY SUTTERFIELD

During a candlelight service, on Saturday, May 18, 1985, at 2:00 in the evening in the First Baptist Church of Spearman, Miss Sonya Jo Ooley became the bride of Mr. Byron Jay Sutterfield. The couple were joined in marriage by Reverend Russ Gibbs, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The Bride's Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ooley and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Sutterfield all of Spearman.

Guests were registered by Miss Betsy Jones and ushered by Justin Ooley, brother of the bride, Brent Shira and Greg Gilbreath, cousins of the groom. All three wore blue tuxedos with blue rose bud boutonnieres. While the parents and grandparents were being seated selections of One Love, We've Only Just Begun & Love Story were being played. The grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Ooley of Spearman, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Carlisle of Spur, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hale of Woodward, Okla. The groom's grandfather is Mr. Eugene Scott, of Fort Collins, Colorado.

The groom's mother escorted by her nephew, wore a two piece street length dusty pink suit and the bride's mother, escorted by her son, wore a soft knit dusty rose street length dress.

The candles were lit by Audrey Bulls, cousin of the bride and Jeff Gilbreath, cousin of the groom. Audrey wore a light blue and white lace dress with blue ribbon in her hair and Jeff wore a blue tuxedo with light blue rose boutonniere.

The bride and her father entered on the Tradition song "The Bride March". The bride was attired in a formal length gown featuring a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls with a scooped neckline with a low torso effect. The sleeves were Pego mutton of poly organza trimmed in Alencon lace. Poly organza was over the taffeta skirt with a chapel length train.

She wore a shallow crown hat covered with painted d'esprit trimmed with Rachele Lace and Pearls with matching lace-edged flounce and a circle veil of poiate d'esprit.

As all three stood before the preacher, Mrs. James Walker of Gruver, cousin of the Bride sang, "The Wedding Prayer".

Carrying out the tradition of something old, the bride carried a lace handkerchief belonging to her Great Aunt Adalyn Barnes. Something New her wedding gown. Something borrowed, string of pearls belonging to her Aunt Marilee Bulls of Amarillo. Something blue, her garter. Also the bride wore a six-pense in her shoe given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. Hershel Ooley. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of Blue Sweetheart roses, white geraniums & petite white rose buds with green silk ferns with tiny yellow clusters of flowers. All the boutonniere made by Mrs. Gary Gilbreath, Aunt of the groom.

The bride's father wore a black and white suit and light blue rose bud boutonniere.

Attending as Maid of Honor was Nikki Lozano. Bridesmaids were Lee Ann Gibner and Lana Paul, all originally from Spearman. All three wore identical tea length dresses of light blue taffeta with ruffled neck and sleeves. Each carried a bouquet of long stemmed dark blue roses with tiny daisies and blue lace streamers. They each wore blue ribbon in their hair.

The ringbearer was Bobby Shira of Fritch, cousin of the groom. The petite flower girl was Leah Mackie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ray Mackie. Leah wore a light blue and white lace and ruffled dress with blue ribbon in her hair and she carried a basket full of rose petals. Bobby Shira wore a blue tuxedo with a blue rose boutonniere.

The groom wore a white Tuxedo and a blue rose bud boutonniere with tiny yellow flowers accenting it. Attending the groom as Best Man was Hank Sutterfield, brother of the groom. Groomsman were Ted and Ed Whitefield, both of Spearman. All three wore light blue tuxedos and blue rose bud boutonniere.

After the couple lit the Unity candle, Mr. and Mrs. James Walker of Gruver sang "To Me". They were then announced to their guests for the first time as Mr. and Mrs. Byron Sutterfield.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over blue and centered with the bride's bouquet. The three tiered cake, designed by Jodie Harnish, was decorated with baskets of blue and white flowers and wedding bells. Peach flavored punch and cake was served by Marilee Bulls of Amarillo and Shelene Turner of San Angelo, Texas.

The groom's table was covered with a lace cloth over chocolate brown. The Traditional German Chocolate Cake and coffee were served by Shannyn Nitschke, originally from Spearman and Debra Gilbreath, aunt of the groom.

Rice bags were handed out by cousins of the bride, Beth Bulls and April Fite.

After the Honeymoon trip to Colo. the couple are making their home in Spearman.

A Rehearsal Dinner hosted by the Groom's Parents was held on May 17th at the Home Demonstration Club Room. Members of the Wedding Party and special guests were present. Courtesy given in honor of the couple before their marriage was a Wedding Shower held at the First Baptist Church on April 27th.

To God-A note of thanks

Mrs. E.A. Greever

Friends in Romans Chapter 13 and verses 11 and 12 we read: And that knowing the time it is high time to wake out of sleep for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. This scripture is reminding us we are living in a time of light or day for the love of God and his beloved Son was the fulfilling of the law given Moses. We can now be made a new creature with sin forever banished living a holy life in this present world, certainly not of any good we have done but because of Gods mercy and grace we are washed in the blood shed at Calvary. In Eph. 5:14-18 we are told to arise from the dead (lost and without hope in God) which means repentance, then to walk circumspectly and understanding what the will of the Lord is (And this is the will of God even your sanctification. (The love Jesus had for the church (and then it tells us to be filled with the Spirit. The work of divine gifts by Father, Son and Holy Ghost. The gospel dispensation of time and the good news for whosoever will.

We are warned as believers to stay wide awake and not go to sleep as others. In Matt chapter 25, we read at midnight (a dark time spiritually) a cry the Bridegroom cometh go out to meet him we read they all slumbered and slept but fore were wise while five had not made all necessary preparation and the door was closed against them

1 Cor. 15:34, Awake to righteousness and sin not for some have not the knowledge of God. Behold today is the day of salvation if ye hear his voice harden not your heart. Another scripture. Now is the accepted time. Let us ever remember God is at all and anytime ready to pour out his blessings upon us and we are told no one can come to Jesus except he draw him. St. John 6:44. And certainly the Father can't draw us unless we sincerely want his blessings. Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest the words of Jesus. The spirit and the Bride say come and let him that heareth say come, whosoever will may come. Rev. 22:17, And Jesus said, suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven. This scripture plainly tells us no matter our age we must become as a little child believing God just as small children believe their parents with a perfect confidence. So Lord please help every one of us to remember our life is in your hand for a short time at the longest and be as the writer of Psalms 99:4-5, Lord make me to know mine end and the measure of my days what it is that I may know how frail I am. May the like that is now and that to come be ours through Jesus Christ our Lord, for in him is like and without him there is no like we are told. Hope comes from God. Thanks be unto his holy name.

Its Time to Pray

It's time to pray the world is rushing on,
To utter darkness gloom and great despair
But Jesus calls in tones of love and mercy,
Remember I have borne your every care,
Its time to pray bend low before the Saviour,
He prayed alone in dark Gethsemane,
In agony cried may this cup pass from me,
Yet not my will Lord but thine be done,
It's time to pray and cast your sins away,
The precious blood shed at dark Calvary,
Will make you clean your heart glad and free,
And want you leave your sins at Calvary,
It's time to pray times clock points to the hour,
When Christ will come in glory and great power,
Awake from sleep and gird thyself with strength,
That you may go to meet the Prince of Peace,
It's time to pray and bend your knee,
And do not close your ear to his great call,
It's not God's will that anyone should perish,
The come to me goes out to one yes All.
