Former Protein Processors Will Be Handling Sunflowers

Friday night, it was a full house at the community center in Farwell where farmers gathered to hear the latest proposal to help area farmers. The dinner meeting, sponsored by Kelly Green Seeds of Farwell; Triumph Seed Company, Inc. of Ralls; L&W Sunflowers of Ralls and SVO Enterprises Corporation of San Francisco, Calif., the meeting was to discuss contracted sunflower acreage in this area. Jerry Monk of Kelly Green Seeds commented, "We at Kelly Green have arranged for receiving and shipping sunflowers. We have been looking for a sizeable plant in this area to use as a delivery and shipping point. "Tonight, we can let the secret out. We obtained the former Protein Processors at Muleshoe for our main delivery and shipping point. Kelly Green will be a transfer point, but Protein Processors will be used to store, and as the shipping point for sunflowers. "In the past," he continued, "most sunflowers grown in this area were shipped to Mexico. At least 90 percent went to Mexico, but now, we have cottonseed mills interested in crushing the sunflowers in this area, so we should see a great increase in sunflower acreage."

Triumph Seed Company president, Noble Kelt of Ralls spoke about a new sunflower seed, TRISUN H0847, which has been

New 'D' Stamp Now Available At Post Office

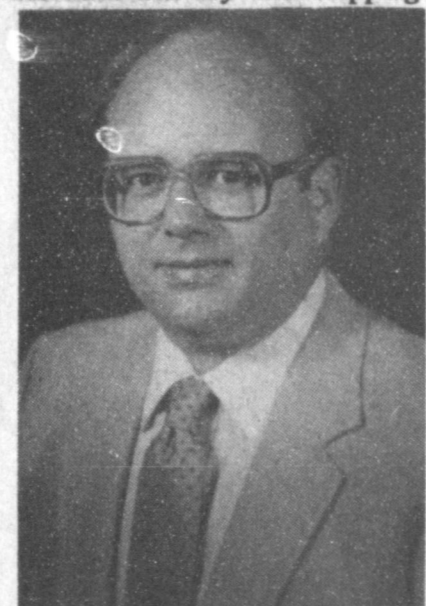

An adequate supply of 'D' stamps and other non-denominated items is available at the Muleshoe post office to help customers make a smooth transition after the February 17 postal rate change.

Postmaster Bobby L. Tipton says that the non-denominated 'D' stamps in sheet, coil, and booklet formats represent the new 22-cent first-class rate. There are also non-denominated postal cards and plenty of two-cent stamps that, when added to 20-cent stamps, make up the first class letter rate.

"Nobody likes to see higher postal rates, but this increase is moderate and justified," Postmaster Tipton said. "Since the last increase in November 1981, the cost of living in the United States, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, has gone up almost 13 percent. The 22-cent stamp is only a 10 percent rise."

The non-denominated items are available because we estimate that stamp inventories in post offices at present will fall short of public demand and, we want to avoid customer inconvenience," he added.

Commemorative stamps, beginning with the Jerome Kern stamp, and other 22-cent stamps, are expected to replace the 'D' stamps by the end of March, the Postmaster said.

Mock Trial Team Slates Performance

Muleshoe High School's mock trial team will soon be competing on the regional level at Lubbock. To prepare for the competition, the teams will be presenting the case for the public Monday night, immediately following the patriotism week program, which will begin at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The Mock Trial Team presentation will begin at approximately 8:30 p.m. and will be conducted at the Bailey County Courthouse. A special invitation has been extended by the teacher, Jean Allison, and mock trial team to all Muleshoe citizens to come and observe this group of young people and encourage them in their efforts to win at the regional competition.

According to Mrs. Allison, the Muleshoe mock trial team will be competing against the top team from the Lubbock schools, "so they need all of the practice and encouragement they can get," she said.

School Board Election Slated Saturday, April 6

On Monday, February 11, the Board of Trustees of the Muleshoe Independent School District called a school board election for April 6, 1985, to be held in the High School cafeteria from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. Doyle King was appointed election judge, with Jesse Leal as alternate judge and Lula Mae Shanks as clerk.

Two positions will be open on the school board. The terms of Royce Harris and Gordon Wilson will be up, and Wilson has filed for re-election. As of noon Friday, Sam Harlan has filed for a position on the board.

Other persons interested in filing will have until 5 p.m. on March 6 to go by the Administrative offices of the Muleshoe ISD, between 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Absentee voting will be conducted by the Bailey County Clerk on March 18 through April 2, at the county clerk's office in the Bailey County Courthouse, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Lions And Rotary Basketball Game Is Tuesday Night

Ouch! Lots of local businessmen are going around these days with sore muscles, bumps, bangs, and minor cuts these days. They are the city's 'brave ones'--the fearless basketball players for either the Muleshoe Rotary Club or the Muleshoe Lions Club, who are practicing, practicing, practicing....

Tuesday night, the townspeople of Muleshoe are in for a big treat, and if you attended the last Lions-Rotary basketball game, you will remember an evening of action, laughter and entertainment.

They are going at each other again--and all to benefit the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. The game will be tipping off at 7:30 p.m. in the Watson Junior High gym, so be sure to plan to be there to root for your favorite team or player.

Tickets are a real bargain, too. You can buy one ticket for $3 or two tickets for $5. Also available will be the chance to win a VCR. Tickets are available at the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, from any member of the Lions or Rotary, or at the door.

Last summer, tipping off at the beginning of the game were two 'old pros' at basketball--Jess Winn and Frank Ellis. They are expected to be on hand for the tipoff this year--even though you may not see them in too much action after the beginning of the game, there will be lots of others who will keep you entertained--and it's all for a very good cause.

See you there!!! Let's find out if they really will have a most unusual cheerleading section or if those not actively playing in the game are really cowards.

Alpha Kappa Psi, Sigma Delta Chi, Lubbock Advertising Federation, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Texas Association of Broadcasters, National Association of Broadcasters, Red Raider Club, Area Five Local Industry Advisory Committee--Emergency Broadcast System, Masonic Lodge and Khiva Shrine Temple.

As local teachers are being encouraged to help with planning special activities during the week, the following themes have been given for each day of the week:

- Monday-Symbols of America
- Tuesday-Songs of America
- Wednesday-People of America
- Thursday-The Flag of America
- And Color Day

Each teacher will be incorporating some aspect of patriotism into his/her lesson plans using the listed themes or something else appropriate to the subject being taught.

Junior high will recognize Patriotic Week in various ways, including:

*Speech students will present a patriotic reading each morning on the intercom.

*Student Council members will raise and lower the flag each day.

*Teachers will decorate their classroom doors with the help of students. Each teacher needs to choose a patriotic American symbol for the subject of their decorations. Doors will be completed by Friday, February 15.

*Special Education and Migrant classes will decorate the hall bulletin boards by February 15.

*On Thursday, Color Day, teachers and students are encouraged to wear red, white and blue.

*Monday, February 18, at 7 p.m. there will be a patriotic program held for the community and all school campuses at the High School auditorium. Junior high school has been designated as hosts for this function. Student Council members will be in charge. Appropriate patriotic projects and assignments may be displayed at this meeting at the teacher's discretion.

*Social studies teachers will be responsible for discussion of the history and current renovation of the Statue of Liberty and provide students with the opportunity to contribute to this renovation.

Also, plans for the week at Mary DeShazo Elementary are:

Monday-Statue of Liberty Day --Containers will be placed in the rooms for collecting funds to help with the rejuvenation of "The Lady." Students are asked to give whatever they can. It has been suggested that one cent per student, per day,

Around Muleshoe

Nominations are needed for 'Employee of the Month' says Toni Eagle, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Mrs. Eagle said a certificate will be given the individual chosen as Employee of the Month, and a plaque will be in that person's place of employment for the next month.

Persons named must be employed in a business that is a member of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, reminded Mrs. Eagle.

Funeral services for Abe Mallouf, 75, of Muleshoe, were pending at presstime at Ellis Funeral Home.

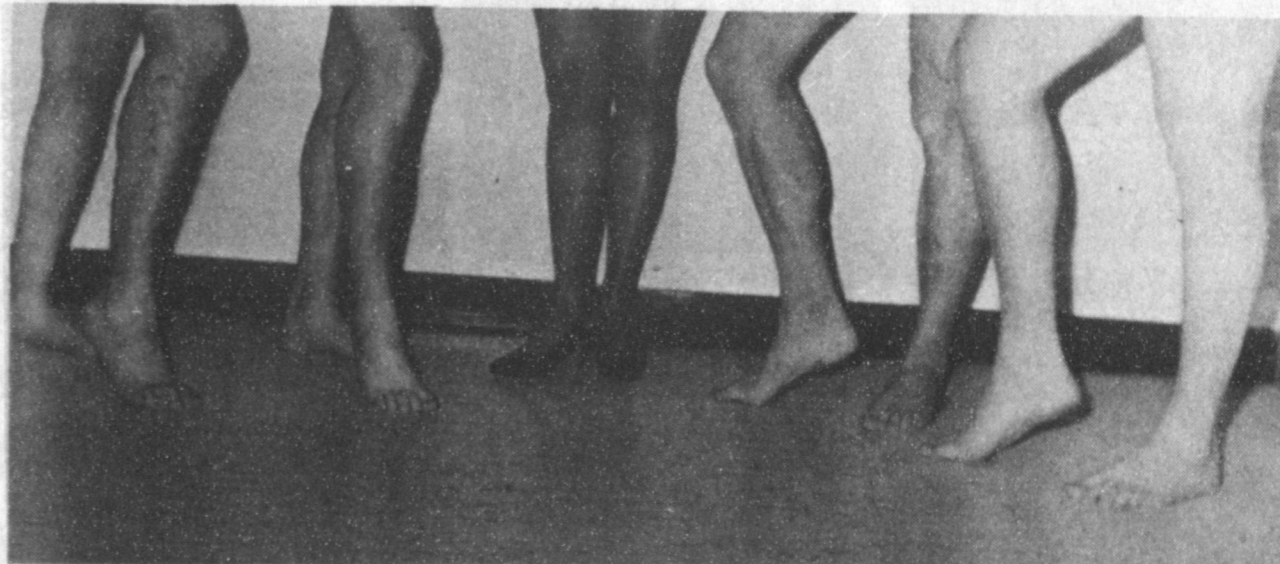

He died at 5:35 p.m. Friday, February 15 at West Plains Medical Center following a lengthy illness.

A reminder to readers of the Journals:

Letters to the Editor will be run just as they are received, including misspelled words, and misplaced punctuation. And, please remember, no unsigned letter will be considered for publication under any circumstances.

City Manager Dave Marr said repair work is starting the week of February 25 on several railroad crossings within the city limits of Muleshoe. He said he was notified, that weather permitting, workmen will be replacing planking and paving around most of the crossings, excluding the crossing at the Crossroads.

WHO CAN TELL THE DIFFERENCE?--Can you distinguish between Lion legs and Rotary legs? Friday morning, prospective cheerleaders for the Tuesday night basketball game between the Muleshoe Lions and the Muleshoe Rotary met and it was undecided who would be chosen to lead their particular team to victory. Perhaps if you come to the game on Tuesday night at the Watson Junior High gym, you will be able to pick out legs from some of the cheerleaders, or perhaps, from some player who was turned down as cheerleader.

Letter To The Editor

Editor,
In reference to the article in Jan. 31, 1985 paper, on Rotary Hears Police Speak on Drug use, it was stated and I quote!
One of the lieutenant's display items was a 'spike' (needle) which had been picked up at the school store across from De Shazo Elementary, and with fresh blood still in the spike. The lieutenant said test proved the spike had just been used to shoot speed a narcotic very similar to diet pills in common use.
There was not a mention of dates it sounded like all of these things had just happened. After, talking with Lt. Wayne Holmes, it was verified that this did not happen in the 84-85 school year, but in earlier years.
We Barbara Reeder and Jan Springfield, are the operators of the little school store across from De Shazo, as of Aug. 1984, we are very upset by this article, we have worked very hard at trying to run a respectable place of business.
A place where the kids can eat and be happy. We patrol the grounds, we do not allow fighting, smoking, chewing, dipping or cussing in the building or around it. We are not perfect or super people we can only do so much, but we do the best we can. We would welcome any parent or anyone else to come by or in the Yellow Jacket anytime.
We treat the kids that come in as if they are our own. Our own kids do eat there every day. We have a good relationship with the kids, but ever since the article in the paper our business has starting falling off, we were told that since the article in the paper alot of kids were not allowed to come over to the Yellow Jacket anymore.
We enjoy the kids and we run a clear and respectable place.
We do hope this will straighten things out.

We are trying very hard!

and Jan Springfield

Social Security News & Views

During my career with Social Security, I have collected odd letters and other items which were humorous or strange. Some were not so humorous. But they have made this work interesting, even fascinating. Some of the things were said to me and others to my co-workers.

These happenings and items are not meant to be offensive to anyone. I do not have the intent of putting anyone down, nor do I write them as criticism of anyone. They are written for the benefit of showing that we are a people who will do and say most anything. Thank God we live in a land where we have this privilege.

Since the Christmas season has just passed and we have been mailing cards, letters and gifts, it brings to mind the letter our office received which has two dimes, attached by masking tape, in the upper right hand corner where we normally place postage stamps. This person was innovative—having no postage, he just used his ingenuity and did the next best thing. The tape covering the dimes have cancellation marks on them so the got through our sophisticated postal system.

In 1961 a lady came into the Social Security office with a letter dated March 8, 1945. It requested her to meet a representative of Social Security at an individual's home someplace in Florida. It had an annotation on it reading, "Due to war-time restrictions, our representative will be travelling by bus". We now have contact stations in each town we visit where we transact Social Security business. We use courthouses, tax offices and senior citizens centers. I can't recall now why the lady hadn't contacted our office earlier since she had had the letter 16 years.

On an application for a Social Security card one person wrote he was born in "NEW ACES COUNTY TEXAS".

Another listed his employer as, "Somebody Someplace, Lubbock, Texas". I don't know if we ever found out where he worked.

One sister apparently wrote another to find out where the writer was born. The sister wrote back, "You was born in Coleman County at Rockwood. Momma was in bed with you. A big bull came in the room because we had no screen doors".

Excerpt from a letter—"..... was in the service 1953-1955 and then in the REVERSES from 1955-1957". We had inquired about his military service dates.

From a questionnaire seeking to find out what the individual has that disabled him came the answer, "Hemroids". Another person wrote, "Auth Riders".

From an individual that obviously is a tidy housekeeper came some papers with a note attached that said, "If you don't need these papers, consign them to 13 if you wish".

One person wrote, "Please don't send----- check to----- as it will just be puped off".

The word hospital came out horse pittle on another letter and then there was one who indicated he was married by a Branch President. His marriage certificate did indeed show this as the title of the person who performed the ceremony. I wonder if this branch president had this authority? I hope so.

Envelops come addressed ever which way: Social Security Card Bord; Social Security--Where ever you are; one to Bill West, my co-worker said, "Do Not Open". I think Bill opened it anyway.

An overpaid individual wrote, "I am under able to pay". And still another wrote that he/she was too disabile to run around.

Quite often we call by telephone to patients hospitalized to secure disability claims by phone. One of our workers called this person and as people usually do, he asked the patient how he was. The patient replied, "Not too good--they are going to do an autopsy in the morning". Later it was determined he was to have a biopsy the next morning.

And finally, I asked a little lady to put her written initials beside an error I had corrected on her application. She looked at me and said, "I don't have one".

The above items are but a drop in the bucket of the many large envelopes with letters, forms, and notes I have accumulated over these 24 years I have been with Social Security. The people with whom I've dealt have been great.

A&M researcher shows link between diet, mood changes

Caffeine and refined carbohydrates may cause emotional disturbances such as depression, lack of vigor and anxiety in certain individuals, the preliminary results of a Texas A&M University study indicate.

"For some time the effects of diet on behavior and emotional state have been debated. Opinions on the issue range from skepticism to testimonials on the theory's validity," said Dr. Larry Christensen, professor of psychology at Texas A&M, who has conducted the research for the last two years.

Christensen said his research

"documents the beneficial effects of dietary change in a small sample of individuals" and is one of the first studies to show a definite relationship between diet and mood disturbance.

In addition, Christensen has developed a test which he says shows strong evidence of being able to pinpoint individuals who suffer negative effects from consuming caffeine and refined carbohydrates such as table sugar.

His scale, the Behavioral Index of Metabolic Imbalance (BIMI), consists of 75 items, 25 of which elicit different responses from individuals affected by diet than from those not affected, he said.

Sudan News

I would like to say "Thank You" to each and everyone for the calls, flowers, cards, visits, and most of all for your prayers during my recent illness.

A special thanks to my pastor, Bro. Huggins, for his visits, and to my church family for the special prayers said for me.

I especially want to thank the Doctors and Nurses, my children and grandchildren for their kind, tender, loving care while I was in the hospital.

I covet your prayers as I am home now recovering and hope to be out circulating again soon! I love my friends who mean so very much to me.

May God richly bless each of you is my prayer.

Bran Adds Dietary Fiber To Spaghetti

Bran muffins, breads and cereals are well-known as foods that add fiber to the diet. Now spaghetti made with ten percent bran can be added to that list.

"Spaghetti containing bran has more than three times as much dietary fiber and higher mineral content than regular spaghetti," says Marilyn A. Haggard, a nutritionist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Spaghetti with bran also passes the taste test with many consumers. Research conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) found that tasters who prefer whole wheat bread to white bread usually liked bran spaghetti better than spaghetti without bran, Haggard reports.

Pastas, such as spaghetti, are low in sodium, fat and simple carbohydrates and contain a high level of complex carbohydrates, she says.

The ten percent bran spaghetti also contains much higher levels of protein, iron, calcium, manganese, phosphorus and zinc than spaghetti without bran.

"Bran spaghetti may not replace the traditional pasta, but it does offer another selection of products for people seeking a way to increase the level of fiber in their diets," remarks Haggard.

PORTABLE HEATER FEATURES--Portable heaters can generally help save energy when you use them strategically in one room or a small area, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service housing specialist Dr. Peggy Owens. But not all types of portable heaters are appropriate for every room. Radiant quartz heaters provide fast spot heating within their arc of radiation, but are not intended to warm a whole room. Convection heaters are best for distributing heat evenly through a room, but they are not good spot heaters, Owens says, and the process of heating all the air in a cold room can take some time. Radiant convection heaters both spot heat and warm the air, but not quite as effectively as the other types, she notes.

Sudan Basketball Players Make History

On Saturday, Jan. 21, the Wayland Flying Queens made history when they became the first women's basketball team to win 900 games, with the win over Oklahoma Baptist with a score of 84-71, the Queen's all time record on that date, was set at 900 wins against 203 losses for a percentage of 81.6, the best percentage in collegiate basketball both men's and women's basketball program.

"Not only can Wayland be proud of this accomplishment but so can Sudan who has been a part of this record since it has had three different players on the Queen's roster," said Evelyn Ritchie.

These players have all helped with making the 900th win a reality. The three players representing Sudan were Velma Pickett (1948-1951), Glynn Masten Harrison (1959-1963) and Missy Fisher (present).

During the time that Velma played, the Queens were coached by Sam Allen and compiled a record of 27 wins and seven losses. She was a member of the first Flying Queen's team which at that time was named the Harvest Queens.

Glynn Harrison played under coach Harley. While she was at Wayland, the Queens compiled a 90-14 record and won one national championship. They were national runners up the other three years. During this time, Glynn was named All-American for three years, played Pan American games in San Paulo, Brazil in 1963. Her picture still hangs in honor at the Queen's gymnasium. She was recognized after the record setting game for her accomplishments.

Missy Fisher had the honor of being a member of the team that actually won the 900th game. For the team's effort, they were rewarded with a medal signifying the win. During the game, Missy was 4 for 5 from the field for 8 points, made 4 assists and had 2 rebounds, 2 steals and 2 fouls. The present team has compiled a 16-3 record and is currently rated Number Five in the NAIA Women's National Poll.

Appliance Warranty Rights

Consumers typically compare the features and prices of different brands before buying an appliance, but may neglect to compare the warranties.

"Manufacturers are not required by law to provide a warranty," says consumer economics specialist Bonnie L. Piernot. "But if one is given, it must meet certain standards for either a 'full' or a 'limited' warranty," adds the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist.

Knowing the difference between the two types of warranties can save money and aggravation if the appliance must be repaired later, Piernot maintains.

"A full warranty promises that a defective product will be repaired or replaced free, including removal and reinstallation when necessary," Piernot says.

But a full warranty does not have to apply to the entire appliance, cautions the specialist. For example, a microwave oven may carry a full warranty on the cabinet, fan and magnetron tube but only a limited warranty on the touchmatic control.

Under a "limited warranty" consumers may have to pay for labor, reinstallation or other charges, she advises. They may also be required to return or take a product to service location and receive a pro-rata refund or credit.

Several Local Youth In Houston Stock Show

Three local youths will be participating in the Calf Scramble at the 1985 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo on February 23 and on March 2. They are Tim Lust, a 14-year-old FFA member from the Lazbuddie school and son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lust; Scott Bickel, 15-years old, and an FFA member from Muleshoe High School and son of Bennie Bickel; and 13 year old Chris Young, 4-H member and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young.

They are three of the youngsters who will be participating for a calf purchase certificate valued at $600 each. Additionally, as many as two youngsters from each rodeo performance are awarded a "hard luck" certificate for their strong efforts in attempting to catch a calf, resulting in an additional 32 certificates to be given.

The calf scramble, a yearlong activity, is one of the Show's programs benefiting Texas youth. It begins with athletic competition in the Astrodome and ends with qualitative competition in the showing.

It involves the turning loose of approximately two dozen energetic youngsters and half as many wild calves in one arena. Those who manage to grab a calf, halter it and drag it across the finish line are provided with a $600 calf purchase certificate. The certificate, donated by a sponsoring firm or individual, is used to purchase a purebred registered beef or dairy heifer.

The calf is raised by the winner for a special showing competition to be held at the following year's show. In accordance with the general rules of the livestock show and the scramble program, each project is closely supervised by a vocational agriculture teacher or county extension agent.

Controlled learning experiences include proper livestock evaluation techniques, efficient cattle feeding and production methods, principles of economics and money management.

Some 25 4-H members from Bailey County and 23 FFA members from Bailey County will be exhibiting during the annual Houston Livestock Show February 16-March 3.

Animals exhibited by these competitors are a part of the 16,313 junior show entries expected for this year's show. Additionally, 9,960 open show entries and 3,011 horse show entries are expected for exhibition at the 1985 show.

Spencer Tanksley will be heading up the 4-H group of exhibitors from this county. The exhibitors include, Todd Bessire, Brandon Brown, Russell Brown, Andy Crawford, Mike Dunham, Jerry Gleason, Jerry Graves, Chad Griswold, Steve Griswold, Amy Harrison, Polly Harrison, Ross Parish, Donae Parker, Brenna Robertson, Jeanine Robertson, Larry Robertson, Kristi Spies, Colin Tanksley, Tracy Tunnell, Jamie Wheeler, Jodie Wheeler, Wade Wheeler, Chris Young, Greg Young and Russell Young.

Under direction of Muleshoe High School vo-ag instructor, Carl Wheeler, the FFA exhibitors will be Darren Albertson, Michael Angeley, Kevin Atwood, Scott Bickel, Brent Black, Monty Black, Sawyna Branscum, Dalyn Bratcher, Shawn Bussey, Steven R. Ethridge, Mike Holt, John Killingsworth, Wade King, Michael Lee, Robin Moore, Micheal Neel, Shawn Rejino, Lupe Rejino, Jr., Kristi Spies, Scotty Spies, Jeff Vinson, Kasey Whatley and Shawn Wheeler.

"We take a tremendous amount of pride in knowing that the Houston Livestock Show attracts entries in the junior show that are more than just animals," notes Don Jobs, Jr., assistant general manager.

"They represent continuous, hard work by a Texas youngster who's committed himself or herself to a livestock project. These junior show exhibitors are a rare breed in themselves," he added.

Farm Financing, Policy In Conference Spotlight

Agricultural financing and national farm policy will share the spotlight here Feb. 19 at the annual meeting of the South Plains Development Program. U.S. Rep. Charles Stenholm, D-Tex., a leading spokesman for agriculture in Congress, will be the keynote speaker.

The theme of this year's educational conference for area producers will be "Planning for Profit," said Billy C. Gunter, district director for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. In addition to farm policy and financing, it will provide economic outlook predictions for area crops, agronomic considerations for improving profitability, and the views of an agricultural economist and a farmer on the keys to farm survival.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Koko Palace, 50th Street at Avenue Q, in Lubbock. A registration fee of $7.25 will include lunch. The conference will close at 3 p.m.

The current turmoil in financing agriculture, both nationally and across the South Plains, will be addressed by Dr. Dean Hughes of Texas Tech University. He is director of the Thornton Agricultural Finance Institute in Tech's department of agricultural economics.

The outlook for the area's agriculture will be presented by Dr. Carl Anderson, Extension agriculture economist and cotton marketing specialist, from College Station. The changing structure of agriculture in a changing policy environment will be explored by Dr. Ed Smith, Extension economist and grain marketing specialist, College Station.

Dr. James R. Supak, Extension agronomist and cotton specialist at Lubbock, will discuss critical agronomic considerations which area producers will face this year.

A farmer's view of keys to survival in 1985 will be offered by Stan Shockley, Levelland producer. Dr. Jackie Smith, Extension agricultural economist and marketing specialist at Lubbock, will present an economist's view.

The program will be moderated by Dr. Milo Shult of College Station, associate director of the state Extension Service, and Gunter.

The SPD Program is a coordinated regional effort to promote economic development in agriculture and improved family life in 21 counties. It is sponsored by the Extension Service, working through county Extension program building committees and special SPD task forces which identify educational needs and coordinate educational activities.
