'Convoy' Action Drama of Today's Freebooters—Long Haul Truckers

(Advance Production Feature)

They are the myth-makers of contemporary America: the tough, proud, independent truck drivers manhandling their sixteen-gear, eighteen-wheel rigs across the lonesome highways of the United States. They are romantics who see themselves as the natural successors to the old west's Wells Fargo freebooters. They are as individualistic as any man who rode the trail on galloping horses.

Sell CY-3 Mat 2C
Kris Kristofferson plays the leader of a band of truckers rebelling against corrupt police officers and shady politicians in "Convoy." The picture, a United Artists release, will open May 18 on the Holiday Drive-in "Convoy," a film inspired by the hit record of C.W. McCall, shows them in their natural setting. It is an EMI presentation for release in the United States and Canada by United Artists, a Transamerica Company. Robert M. Sherman is the producer, the executive producers are Michael Deeley and Barry Spinkings, and the director is Sam Peckinpah who has carved for himself a rugged niche as a Hollywood original. The screen story and screenplay are by B.W.L. Norton based on the song by C.W. McCall.

Starring in "Convoy" are Kris Kristofferson as "Rubber Duck," fabled leader of a protesting convoy of discontented truckers; Ali MacGraw as "Melissa," a sophisticated photo-journalist flung accidentally into the tidal wave of the truckers' revolt; Burt Young as Legends have grown up around the truckers of the United States; they carry distinctive nicknames which punctuate the CB radio bands in a never-ending series of bulletins concerning the threat of prowling police cars, sparking radar traps and gloomy weather information.

More than one hundred of the monsters were assembled at varying times during the shooting period which occupied some three months in and around Albuquerque, New Mexico. New Mexico was chosen for the location filming because of its chameleon quality in changing the face of its terrain—from the blinding deserts of the White Sands Proving Grounds at Alamogordo in the south to the lofty mountains of the north.

"Pig Pen," a tough trucker whose rig boasts a tough selection of amorous artifacts; Ernest Borgnine as "Sheriff Lyle R. Wallace," a seemingly-tough lawman; Madge Sinclair as "Widow Woman," a lady trucker as militant as she is beautiful, and Franklyn Ajaye as "Spider Mike," a young black driver whose brutal beating triggers the explosive climax to the power-packed story.

"Convoy" is a Robert M. Sherman Production.

GEMINI—The fun loving Gemini is almost always popular with peers. Variety is the spice of life for him. Most possess a quick mind. His greatest weakness lies in the fact that he is often a nonconformist.

GEMINI -- May 21 to June 20--Responsibility is suddenly thrust upon you. Although the going may seem a little rough in the beginning, you will adjust quickly, getting down to the serious business of improving your lifestyle.

CANCER -- June 21 to July 22--Someone from the past shows up. You extend an invitation to lunch, which he (or she) readily accepts. Too much water has passed under the bridge for you to have much in common.

LEO -- July 23 to Aug. 22--Show a loved one you care with a special gift. An inexpensive item chosen with some thought to the recipient's interests will be greatly appreciated.

VIRGO -- Aug. 23 to Sept. 22--A telephone call brings good news. Expect invitations to weddings, graduations, and showers. You may feel as though you are getting more of these than your fair share.

LIBRA -- Sept. 23 to Oct. 22--If you can, give to a fund that is feeding the world's hungry. If you are in good health, you might cut out a meal or two each week and give the money you would spend.

SCORPIO -- Oct. 23 to Nov. 22--Good buys in clothing are everywhere this week. Beware that you don't buy items impulsively. Make a list of your needs. A few colorful accessories put new life in an old wardrobe.

SAGITTARIUS -- Nov. 23 to Dec. 21--You need more comfort in your home. Look for a comfortable chair and make sure your mattress is comfortable. Re-arranging the furniture could make your surround-

AQUARIUS -- Jan. 20 to Feb. 18--Plant a small garden of flowers or/and vegetables. You will derive great satisfaction from growing plants. You can brighten up the interior of your house with plants that bloom.

PISCES -- Feb. 19 to March 20--A telephone call from a member of your family brings good news. Out-of-town guests could give you a pleasant surprise.

ARIES -- March 21 to April 20--A creative project forces you to become less involved in civic affairs. You enjoy immensely the time you spend on the endeavor, which will prove to be extremely lucrative later on.

TAURUS -- April 21 to May 20--A close friend shows loyalty. You can show your appreciation by giving them a small gift. A book on a subject in which they are interested will be well received.

Rogers On USSR Power

The Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army, Bernard Rogers, recently told a military audience in Lexington, Virginia, Russia now has the most advanced tanks, infantry fighting vehicles, long range artillery, air defense, attack helicopters, electronic and chemical warfare systems, etc., in the world.

Everyone knew already Soviet armed forces are the most numerous and massive in the world, especially the Red Army. And it's also knowledge that the Russians have equipped their weapons and personnel to fight at night, or to cope with radiation and continue operating. The U.S. Army lacks that capability.

What we are admitting is inferiority in both quantity and quality—a sure prescription for disaster if a new crisis arises. What are we doing about it? We can't do much. The politicians in Washington have overspent so long, the dollar buys fewer and fewer weapons per billion spent. And because the budget always shows a deficit, we don't have enough money for defense. (There's also waste, parochial duplication and contract favoritism.)

We continue to build a few hundred tanks a year while the Russians build thousands. We refuse to test an effective, very cheap tank-killing close support aircraft while buying exotic, expensive machines, some of which won't perform as promised. Etc.

A few years back, in school, many of us sang a song, "Merrily we roll along, roll along, roll along . . . . Everyone ought to learn it today."

James Cunningham, Supt. of schools in Spearman, receives a plaque for his support of the Lynx athletics and school system!

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Couple

The First Baptist Church of Spearman was the setting of a Double Ring Ceremony between Miss Cynthia Arnold and Lee Clandon Owens March 10, 1979 at 2:30 p.m. Their parents are Mr. & Mrs. Charles Arnold of Spearman and Mr. & Mrs. L. C. Owens also of Spearman.

The church was decorated with blue & white satin bows, and floral arrangements of white spider mums with blue & white carnations and blue baby's breath were used as accents among the floral arrangements.

Mrs. Cecil R. Biggers played the traditional wedding music on the church organ and accompanied Jo Nell Comegys who sang "Whether Thou Goest" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore her mothers wedding gown which had a fitted lace bodice with a scalloped neckline and long lace tapered sleeves that came to petal points at the waist. The skirt was of silk organza and lace was accented by the full flowing skirt and full length train, which was accented with seed pearls throughout the gown. Miss Arnold's veil was of silk illusion net with a crown of blue baby's breath.

The brides attendants were Darrie Howard as her Matron of Honor and Miss Beth English served as brides maid. Their long gowns were of blue & white dotted swiss with matching white hats accented with blue baby's breath and a long flowing ribbon. They carried matching bouquets of the brides, white daisies and blue baby's breath.

The groom attendants were Ricky Howard as best man and Danny Deare as groomsman.

The ushers were Kermit & Kelly Mahaney.

Miss Arnold's little brother, Chuck Arnold, served as ring bearer and Regina Carol Biggers was the little flower girl. She carried a matching basket of daisies and white spider mums with blue baby's breath. Her headpiece was an arrangement made to match the flowers in the basket.

The brides mother wore a dress of mint green and the groom's mother wore a long gown of navy blue. Both mothers wore corsages of white rose buds with blue baby's breath as accents.

A reception followed the ceremony. The brides table was draped with a white linen and lace with blue bows arranged around the linen cloth.

A 3-tiered heart cake, punch, nuts and mints were served to the guests. A beautiful floral and candle arrangement was used as a centerpiece.

The bride's book and gift table was also covered with a white and blue cloth.

Miss Arnold wore her great grandmothers gold wedding band for the something borrowed and old. The gold band was 75 years old. She wore a blue pant suit for her going away trip with a waist corsage of white roses and blue baby's breath.

A common mistake in home laundry is using too little detergent. Increase recommended detergent amounts for harder-than-average water, heavier-than-average soil, lower wash temperatures or a larger-than-average load.

PREVENT BUILD-UP

After continued use on clothing several times, fabric softeners can leave a "build-up" on garment surfaces.

"Build-up" interferes with the performance of certain fabric finishes and fibers, and it causes dinginess and graying or a lack of absorbency.

To prevent this, omit the fabric softener from every fourth or fifth laundry load.

To correct problem build-up, soak garments in detergent and bleach that is safe for the fabric. Then launder garments without using the softener.

When fabric softeners leave stains in garments, the stains will resemble grease stains—they are usually blue-gray, blue-green, yellow or black.

Remove these stains by gently rubbing them with bar or liquid detergents. Then re-launder the fabric.

Twentieth Century Club

The Twentieth Century Club met May 10 at Cattleman's Restaurant for their Spring luncheon.

President Sandy Russell opened the meeting and welcomed honorary members, Mmes. F. J. Hoskins, W. H. Gandy, J. R. Keim and Guy Fuller.

A business meeting was held with reading of minutes, treasurer's report and committee reports.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Alva Garner and Blanche Fuller.

Mrs. Coy Palmer reminded officers and members of responsibilities for the coming year.

Mrs. Russell presented some Mother's Day Remembrances.

GARDEN CHECK LIST

House plants may be moved to a shady patio or a shady spot under a tree. Remember the foliage is tender and can be easily burned by the sun's rays or damaged by strong wind.

Many indoor landscape plants will benefit by shifting to the next larger size pot. The new soil and improved drainage will improve production.

Flower beds and vegetable gardens should have a light application of fertilizer each month for steady growth and production.

Tall leggy annuals should have the tip pinched out to encourage branching.

Spent flowers should be removed so the plant energy can go into producing new flower buds rather than into seed production.

Now is the time to build up your supply of compost. Grass clippings, lawn edgings, materials from your vegetable garden, or any organic matter that is relative free of disease can be used in the compost pile.

Even shredded or crumpled-up newspapers can be disposed of in the compost pile, provided they are wet and additional nitrogen is added to speed up decomposition.

4-H CLOTHING projects are about to begin. All youth age 9-19 wishing to participate must make it known immediately!

Girl Scout Award Ceremony

The Girl Scouts Awards Ceremony was held at the First Christian Church at 7:00 p.m. Friday, May 11.

Margarette then introduced the leaders of the troops who then presented the girls with their awards.

Joy Hansen, leader of Cadet Troop #120, presented Cindy Hansen with her Year Pin and Dressmaker's Badge. She also announced that Carol Ross who was not present had earned her Year Pin and Dressmakers Badge.

TV COMMENTARY

By Bente Christensen

ABC's Ike, a major series, was a commendable effort on a great American (and a dramatic epoch) which should have been done. But, once again, one is struck by the fact that television today is teaching Americans their history, and television is show-biz, not documented history--as one gets from serious books by serious historians.

AND television history, such as Ike, must be distorted to be good show-biz.

THE actors portraying General Dwight Eisenhower, General Bernard Montgomery, General George Patton, etc., aren't very much like the real men. (The portrayals of Roosevelt and Churchill are a bit better.)

THE film tradition in America, alas, is that movie makers hire some illfated captain or colonel to be the military adviser on a film. Even if he's really an expert historian, which is rare, his views often don't prevail. Many get disgusted with the whole thing during the filming process. But they've lent their name to a project, for pay, and they're stuck. The studio has a military name on the list of credits to make the picture appear authentic (to the unknowing).

UNTIL the day when the film industry attains a higher level of historical dependability, (it would be good to have a national historical board to review all films claiming to portray American history, merely to rate them for accuracy, in the public interest), we must enjoy what we get. And many parts of Ike were enjoyable entertainment.

CBS did the best job of getting Americans early news about the recent British elections.

ABC remains far ahead in the ratings race, latest stats show, with NBC claiming some progress. NBC now has Johnny Carson committed to the Tonight Show for at least a year.

Status Report On The Administration On Aging

A Status Report on the Administration on Aging

Since the Older Americans Act was enacted in 1965, the United States has come a long way, baby, in recognizing and meeting needs of its older people.

The 1965 Act resulted in the establishment of the U. S. Administration on Aging in the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and of State units on aging in all fifty states. These were the first elements of the national network on aging. In 1969 the Act was amended, providing for areawide tests of social service delivery to older people in comprehensive, coordinated plans.

The 1973 amendments to the Act created the Area Agencies on Aging which now operate in about 600 areas covering the United States and the nutrition program which provides hot meals and social outlets to persons over 60. The 1973 amendments also authorized funding for senior center building alterations and renovations.

In October 1978 President Jimmy Carter signed comprehensive amendments to the Act which--

• Bring together all service programs--Social Services, Nutritional Programs and Multipurpose Senior Centers--under a single title of the Act, giving stronger, simplified management and reporting.

• Provide for stronger grouping and coordination of scattered community social and other services. Each community must designate a focal point for delivery of comprehensive services.

• Give the Administration on Aging and the Aging network more active roles in long-term services and care. The network built around the Area Agencies on Aging will play a leading role in development of community long-term care facilities, inside and outside of institutions.

Funds for aging programs have multiplied across the years. In the past six years the Administration on Aging's budget has increased tenfold, from $45 million to $500 million. Other major programs affecting older people, Medicare and Social Security, for example, have also greatly increased.

Since the nutrition program started in 1973, it has grown to more than 10,000 localities or meal sites which in 1978 served about 135 million hot, nutritious meals. About 17 percent of the meals were home-delivered to shut-ins.

Social Services delivery to older persons has approximately doubled over the past two years. The broad variety of services--transportation, home chores, home health care, information and referral, legal counseling, home repair, escort, outreach and others--are designed to allow frail and partially disabled elderly persons to lead independent lives in their homes and communities, and avoid premature institutionalization.

Total numbers of persons/units of service jumped from about six million in fiscal year 1976 to eleven million in FY 1977 and reached 13.8 million in FY 1978.

Spearman, by grants from the Administration on Aging.

Nursing home ombudsman services which protect the rights and interests of nursing home residents have been stimulated by Administration on Aging grants for the past four years. More than 200 are underway across the country.

Advocacy and legal assistance to the elderly are another main focus of the Administration on Aging. AoA has awarded $3 million to 47 States to stimulate advocacy efforts on behalf of older people and is establishing five regional resource centers and a national center to provide training and technical assistance in rule-making, drafting of legislation, impact litigation and related areas.

New linkages between the Administration on Aging and other Federal agencies will yield increased services for older people. A recently-signed agreement with the Farmers Home Administration establishes a demonstration program to improve housing for people in rural areas who need an assisted residential living environment. With Labor Department an agreement focuses on increasing services and employment opportunities for older people under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA). And with the Health Services Administration (HSA) a new agreement will expand and improve the health care status of unserved and underserved elderly by linking the aging network with HSA facilities.

In-service training for more than 130,000 persons now working in fields of aging resulted from grants of the Administration on Aging. They were for training in gerontology, nutrition, program management, social services and other aspects of aging. Grants of $6 million per year have supported these programs for the past two years.

Career training in aging is being stimulated by grants to universities for multidisciplinary development. Seventy-eight schools received $6.5 million in 1977 and 66 schools and universities received $7.5 million in 1978. The centers receiving the grants have a total enrollment of about 15,000. Some of the students--about 1,000 last year--received financial assistance as part of the program.

The National Clearinghouse on Aging, an integral part of the Administration on Aging, replies to hundreds of inquiries from individuals and organizations every day. It collects, analyzes and disseminates information about older people and their needs, and can supply many publications on aging and information on how to seek funding for projects. The establishment of policy on the Information and Referral Services now available to older people virtually throughout the country to appraise them of social, health and other services in their communities, is a function of the Clearinghouse. It also runs the computerized information service known as SCAN to facilitate use of the growing body of gerontological literature and research findings. SCAN is becoming operational nationwide this year.

Mail box Improvement Week

The Postal Service designates a week during May each year when customers on rural, city motorized, and contract delivery routes are encouraged to examine and improve, where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes. The week of May 21-26 has been selected this year. The purpose of mailbox improvement week is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather and are neat in appearance, conveniently located, and safe to use. Neat, attractive mailboxes make a significant contribution to the appearance of the countryside and the streets in suburban areas.

Mailboxes of the approved traditional or contemporary design are required whenever a mailbox is newly installed or an unsuitable box is replaced. A list of approved manufacturers of boxes may be obtained at your local post office.

On city motorized routes with curbside delivery, it is recommended that the box be either the approved traditional rural type box or an approved suburban box of contemporary design. Boxes designed primarily for use by customers receiving door delivery are difficult to serve efficiently from vehicles and their use is not encouraged.

However, any box that gives protection to the mail and allows safe, convenient delivery from the carrier's vehicle is acceptable.

Curbside boxes should be installed with the bottom of the box between 3 1/2 and 4 feet from the roadway. Where box numbers are assigned, the box number must be shown on the side of the box visible to the approaching carrier, or on the door where boxes are grouped. If the box is located on street other than the one which the customer resides, the street name and house number must be inscribed on the box. In all instances, placing the owner's name on the box is optional.

Mailboxes located on rural routes must be located on the right-hand side of the road in the direction traveled by the carrier. The box must be placed and served to comply with state laws and highway and postal regulations. The carrier must have access without having to leave the vehicle. Box numbers assigned must be shown on the side of the box visible to the approaching carrier, or on the door where boxes are grouped. Rural boxes should be installed with the bottom of the box between 3 1/2 and 4 feet from the roadway.

Supports for mailboxes should be of adequate strength and size to properly support the box. The ideal support is an assembly which, if struck, will bend or fall away from the striking vehicle instead of severely damaging the vehicle and injuring its occupants.

In areas where snow removal is a problem, the use of semi-arch or extended arm type of support is suggested. This allows snowplows to sweep near or under boxes without damage to supports and provides easy access to the boxes by carriers and customers.

For additional information concerning type and placement of your mailbox, please contact the Spearman postmaster.

Wheat Producers Board Election Set

The Texas Wheat Producers Board formed in 1971 to support wheat research and market development will hold its fourth biennial election on July 12, 1979 according to C. L. Edwards, Panhandle, Chairman.

The terms of three current board members expiring at that time include: Delbert Timmons, Perryton; Leo Witkowski, Hereford; and Winston Wilson, Quanah. Board members are eligible for re-election.

Any wheat farmer producing within the 34-county commercial wheat area, is eligible to vote for a board member for that district. Counties included are:

DISTRICT I: Dallam, Sherman, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hansford, Roberts, Moore, Hartley, Hutchinson and Gray.

DISTRICT II: Carson, Potter, Oldham, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Briscoe, Swisher, Castro, Parmer, Hale and Floyd.

DISTRICT III: Childress, Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Throckmorton, Haskell, Archer, Baylor, Wilbarger, Wichita, Young and Clay.

Edwards points out that any person qualifying to vote in the election may place his name in nomination for membership on the Texas Wheat Producers Board by application to the organization, signed by himself and at least ten other persons eligible to vote in the election, at least 30 days prior to the election date, in order to have his name placed on the ballot.

The election will be held by mail ballot, which will be provided to all eligible voters 15 days prior to the election, Edwards said. He also indicated that any person qualified to vote who does not receive a ballot 15 days before the election date, may obtain one at Agricultural Extension Service offices in the 34-county area as provided by the Texas Commodity Referendum Law.

Wheat producers fund TWPB with a 1/2 cent assessment on their deliveries of wheat at commercial handlers. Proceeds from such participation supports programs of foreign and domestic market expansion, food and feed wheat technical service, insect control demonstrations and other activities designed to strengthen wheat producers income. In addition to Edwards and the three members with expiring terms, other TWPB members are: W. R. Moor, Jr., Munday; Troy Sloan, Spearman; Dwight Hamilton, Olney; Ken Kendrick, Stratford; and Oris Harman, Tulia.

Applications for names to be placed on the ballot should be sent to the organization headquarters office, 600 Bank of the Southwest, Amarillo, 79109.

Better Health Through Better Care

"Better health through better care" is the theme of Older Americans Month this May. Health is the key to active, independent, productive lives for older people, who comprise the fastest-growing age group within the American population, according to the Administration on Aging, the Federal agency which funds nutrition programs, community services and senior citizens centers reaching millions of people. AOA is the principal advocate in the Federal government for America's 34 million persons 60 and over.

Health for older Americans covers broad areas and measures which everyone should be aware of. Medical care per se is only part of it. Major factors in the health of each individual are food, exercise, personal hygiene, housing, living conditions, avoidance of excess highly important to health of the aged, accident prevention.

The great increase in longevity now causing a dramatic aging of the American population is itself largely the result of general improvement in health and living conditions in the United States during this century.

More than 25 years have been added to the average American life span since 1900. And this increase in life expectancy from 47 years in 1900 to 73.2 years in 1977 has added a whole new generation of living people to American society. This is one of the great human achievements of the century. But it poses a major challenge to make the added years a benefit to older people themselves and to American society.

America now has the richest talent pool of able older citizens that any nation has ever produced. And they are only the first generation to benefit from major social improvements over the past half century—better educational opportunities, better health care and greater educated and more highly skilled, better able to serve society.

Attainment of the highest possible level of health is essential to unlocking the potential benefits to society represented by this still largely untapped storehouse of knowledge and wisdom. It is the key to realizing the highest possible performance during the years that have been added to each life.

Most older people are vigorous, alert and independent. Their active, productive lives are invalidating the stereotypes of old age.

More and more Americans now actually look forward to their older years as a time of personal fulfillment and freedom from responsibilities and constraints.

For the first time, most people can aspire to lead active, usefully, healthy lives into their 70's and 80's.

There are now about 13 million Americans over 65 who are vigorous, independent and able to participate in the mainstream of American life without assisstance. They constitute about 60 percent of the over-65 population.

About 40 percent of the over-65 group do have limitations imposed by chronic conditions, physical or psychological, or suffer from poverty conditions. They total 9 to 10 million persons, and about 3.5 to 4 million of this group have limited mobility and are homebound or at least need assistance in moving about to perform ordinary life tasks.

About one million older Americans reside in nursing homes or other chronic care facilities.

Studies of nursing homes show a large number of residents could live outside in the community if adequate home services were available.

The Administration on Aging have been helping communities build such services and coordinate them. Now the Pearl Pierce has become the full time director of the Golden Spread Center more and more such services will be initiated and carried out in Spearman.

U.S. Commissioner on Aging Robert Benedict has said that comprehensive community services ought to be for older people what education systems have been for children, a rich mixture of public and private services including education, recreation, senior citizens centers, congregate meals, transportation and escort services, homedelivered meals, in-home health and homemaker services.

The system would include community centers where older people can receive services and give services to others, and a variety of community living arrangements for people who need some support they cannot get at home. An essential part of the continuum of services to older people would be quality nursing home care, opening out on the community to allow residents access to the social, health, recreational and other services of the community.

Treat Now For Elm Leaf Beetles

Elm tree, particularly Siberian elms, can be severely damaged by elm leaf beetles unless control measures are taken.

Trees in urban locations are often more heavily infested than those in the county, says Layton Barton, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Barton says adult elm beetles begin mating and laying eggs in nearby spring. An adult beetle is 1/4-inch long and yellowish to olive-green with a dark stripe along the outer edge of each wing cover.

Eggs of the beetle are yellowish-orange and spindle-shaped and are laid in groups of 5 to 25 on the undersides of leaves. In a few days, eggs hatch into small, black, hairy larvae (worms) which skeletonize the tree's leaves.

After two to three weeks of feeding, larvae migrate to cracks on the trunk and lower limbs to pupate (change from larvae to adult forms). They emerge as adults 7 to 14 days later. Due to their short life cycle, elm leaf beetles produce several generations annually in Texas.

To protect elm trees, spray with carbaryl (Sevin) in early May when the eggs begin hatching. Barton stresses proper timing of treatment as essential for effective control.

Of course, when using any type of pesticides, always follow label directions closely, cautions Barton.

JOHN ADAMS IN WASHINGTON

Wage-Price Controls Coming Back? Unhappy Choice-
 By John Hanly Adams
 WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Headlines from the Washington Star: "New Rise Lifts Past Year's Inflation to 10.2%" and, four days later: "New Report Adds To Prospects Of Recession."

Those headlines summarize the unhappy choice facing the Carter Administration and the nation.

Should the Government stand by while a depression gets started—and unchecked inflation burns up the financial and social values stored away so slowly, and painfully, by the great majority of middle class Americans who try to save at least a little bit of their incomes?

Or should the Government step in with wage and price controls that might not work, even temporarily—and might commit the country to a socialistic strait jacket such as Sweden and other European nations put on, and are now trying to get out of?

The drift is toward another fling with controls. White House officials protest that Jimmy Carter has no plans for such a step. But he can and will deny any "plans" with a straight face, up to the very day he okays a switch to mandatory wage and price ceilings.

Pressures are growing for that step. Two bits of evidence that the stage is being set:

On April 25 the House of Representatives by 240 to 168 approved an extension of life for the Council on Wage and Price Stability to September 30, 1980, with a 20 percent increase in its money and a substantial expansion of its staff to 233 people

The Council, called "COWPS" in Washingtonese, was set up to run Carter's "voluntary" wage-price "guidelines." It was slated to last one year, until September 30, 1979. Now, with more money and staff, COWPS will be the base for a shift into full-fledged wage and price controls.

2. Senator George McGovern, Democrat from South Dakota, on April 26, introduced legislation to restore White House authority to impose mandatory wage-price ceilings any time the President wishes. The Senator's accompanying statement had the usual populist politician's jabs at the "interests," especially the big oil companies, he blames for inflation—with never a mention of the fantastic federal deficit spending that McGovern usually thinks is too low.

There's a new twist, too, and it's a chilling one for believers in free enterprise. Says Senator McGovern:

"We have never fully tested our ability to stabilize our economy with long-term controls. But we've never had this unique and perplexing level of stagflation (inflation plus economic stagnation) before, either. Hopefully, this legislation will begin a comprehensive debate, including consideration of a permanent government stabilization agency; one which would allow us to exercise the most concentrated areas of our economy." Those businessmen who have been rushing to raise prices while they can may be proved to have been smart, unhelpfully.

serious crimes are often freed in a day after a lecture, the newspaper called for common sense reform.

Today's television-age teen-agers, it suggested, are far more advanced and mature than a generation or two ago. With teen-age detention facilities overflowing, and juvenile programs obviously not working, not slowing the increase in teen-age crime, the only recourse in the public interest, to protect the majority, is to lower from 18 to 16 the age of legal responsibility.

It's a sound suggestion, based on solid statistics and a number of states are moving in this direction, rightly so.

Singer, Composer, Movie Star Kristofferson In 'Convoy'

The leading role in "Convoy," the United Artists release opening 5/19, at the Holiday Drive-In a drama of the men who ply the sixteen-gear, eighteen-wheel rigs across America's highways, is played by singer, composer, actor, Kris Kristofferson.

He was born in Brownsville, Texas, on June 22, 1936, the son of an Air Force Major-General. He travelled the United States with his parents before settling down in California where he attended Pomona College, majoring in creative literature but also finding time to display his prowess on the football field and in the boxing ring. He won writing prizes and also a Rhodes Scholarship to Oxford University in England. Later Kristofferson joined the U.S. Army's Air Arm, went through Jump School and Flight Training, emerging with a Captaincy. He was offered a teaching post at West Point Academy but elected instead to go to Nashville and become part of the country music scene—with the encouragement of its arch-disciple Johnny Cash.

From this beginning Kristofferson has emerged as one of the nation's finest singer-composers with such best-sellers as "Me and Bobby McGee," "Why Me, Lord," "Sunday Mornin' Comin' Down," "The Silver-Tongued Devil and I" and countless others. One of the most in-demand stage performers around, Kristofferson manages to combine public appearances with a film career which is steadily accumulating credits such as "Cisco Pike," "Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid," "Blume in Love," "Bring Me the Head of Alfredo Garcia," "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore," "The Sailor Who Fell From Grace with the Sea," "A Star Is Born" and "Semi-Tough" before "Convoy."

Cattle Grub Control Outlined

Each year between May and September, Texas livestock producers can control costly cattle grubs by applying systemic insecticides, says Layton Barton, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

During late fall and winter, the cattle grub appears on the backs of animals. It's too late to begin control measures then since most of the damage has already been done.

However, applying a systemic insecticide—one which is absorbed into the animal's bloodstream—can control grubs effectively between May and September.

In addition to controlling cattle grubs, the insecticide will also provide contact control of horn flies for two to three weeks. Barton says this makes the overall cost of treatment favorable.

The cattle grub is the larval stage of the heel fly. The fly has no mouth parts, so it causes no pain to the cattle. However, it frightens cattle, making them difficult to manage. Animals often seek relief by standing in shade or deep water.

The life cycle begins when the heel fly lays its eggs on an animal. The eggs, glued to hairs, hatch within a few days, and larvae (worms) enter the skin at hair follicles. The worms then migrate through the animal's body for six to eight months and reappear in the animal's back in the fall and winter, forming knot-like marbles or cysts.

Cattle grubs cause greater losses than any other cattle pests, says Barton. Besides damaging meat and hides by their burrowing, they lower beef cattle gains and production throughout the year. Profit losses are estimated in the millions of dollars each year.

Swimming Pool To Open May 19

The municipal swimming pool will open for the summer on Saturday, May 19 at 1:00 p.m. The weekend schedule will be: 1:00 - 6:00 recreational swimming and 6:00 - 7:30 Family Swimming. Family swim time will be a good time for the families to come to the park and enjoy a picnic supper, swim and play family games in the park. Sunday, the pool will be open from 1:00 - 5:30 p.m., allowing those who attend church to enjoy swimming and have time for the evening service.

The tentative pool schedule is: Swim Team practice from 7:00 - 9:30 a.m. Swim Lessons, beginning June 11 for Session I, June 25 - July 6 for Session II and July 9 - 20 for Session III. Lessons (10) will be offered from 9:30 - 12:00 Monday through Friday at a cost of $8.00 per session. Classes will be limited and registration (which includes the fee) will begin on May 21st. Adult Recreational and Lap Swimming will be held each day, Monday through Friday at 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. There will be an Aquanastics Exercise Program offered during the summer, as announced. Recreational swimming will be daily, Monday through Friday from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. Family Swimming daily, from 6:00 - 7:30, Monday through Friday and Saturdays. A parent must accompany any children into the pool during Family Swims. Junior and Senior High special swimming will be announced later. The Pool will be available for group rentals by calling the pool office 2711 for $25.00 per hour.

Admission fees remain the same as last year: Youth to 12 is 50 cents per visit. Young Adults 13 - 18 is 75 cents per visit. Adults over 18 is $1.00. There are available Season Passes at $20.00 for Youth, $25 for Young Adults and $30 for Adults.

The YMCA has sent, through the school, a swimming pool schedule and 1979 Pool Rules. The intent is to familiarize the children and families with these rules and reasons for them. Basically, swimming is a very dangerous activity, if caution is not taken, thus the lifeguards. Any disciplinary problems arising, which are serious, will be discussed with the parents of the offender and reasons for this action given. Parents' cooperation in making this a safe and fun swimming summer will be greatly appreciated by the pool staff. The first concern is for the safety of each participant.

SHOWERS REQUIRED BEFORE ENTERING POOL

Showers remove sand, dirt and body oils and keeps the pool cleaner. Showers should also be taken after sun bathing, if lotions and oils are used.

NO CONVERSATIONS WITH GUARDS ON DUTY

Guards on duty are there to watch the swimmers and enforce the rules. Talking to the guards distracts them from their duties.

DUNKING, PUSHING, SHOVELING, TAG, GENERAL HORSEPLAY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED

Though any of these can be fun, they get out of control too easily. They become dangerous, others get hurt or scared, or younger swimmers can become fearful of the water.

SWIM SUITS ONLY [no cutoffs]

Any material other than swim suit material will cause problems with the filtration system.

NO SWIMMING UNDER DIVING BOARDS

Swimmers are to stay clear of diving area. Divers are to leave the water immediately after diving. Staying too long in the diving area may create a problem when another diver does not notice someone in the water and dives onto another in the water, causing injury to both parties.

NO BALL, INNER TUBES OR OTHER PLAY THINGS ALLOWED IN POOL DURING REG. RECREATIONAL SWIM HOURS

With a crowded pool, these playthings create many problems. Non-swimmers and beginning swimmers can be struck by the objects and frightened of the water.

FRONT DIVES ONLY, IN DESIGNATED AREAS

Except off diving boards, anything but front dives can be dangerous, as swimmers may hit the side of the pool or the bottom, causing injury.

SWIMMING CAPS RECOMMENDED ON HARI OVER 3"

Hair is a major problem in filtration process.

NO FOOD, BEVERAGES OR SMOKING IN POOL AREA

Sanitation and safety problem.

1979 POOL RULES

THREE WHISTLE BLASTS... CLEAR POOL

For pool emergencies and pool check.

POOL WILL BE CLEARED EACH HOUR AT THE 50 MINUTE MARK OF THE CLOCK

To check the pool chemical balance, provide a period of rest for the swimmers, who are at the pool for extended periods and a short break for the lifeguards.

WALK ONLY ON POOL DECK & IN POOL AREA

Wet surfaces are slippery. Also other swimmers can be knocked down onto the concrete or the runner may trip on sun bathers.

Two Students Place At State

CALLIE BARKLEY

ROY WOMACK

Callie Barkley and Roy Womack competed in the state meet on May 4-5 held in Austin.

Callie was entered in Informative speaking where she won first at District, first at Regional, and placed in the top six finalists at Austin. Roy competed in the Science division where he was second at District, third at Regional, and advancing on to state, he placed seventh.

Many people do not realize exactly what the two events are composed of. Both take mental awareness and an open mind.

The purpose in informative speaking is to create an active interest in current events. The student draws five topics from state, national, and international affairs. They choose the one they feel they can give the best speech on within a period of thirty minutes for preparation. While preparing they try to have good organization, catchy analogies, statistics, and material that concerns the people. After thirty minutes is up, they give their speech before three judges. Each contestant cannot have over 100 words on note-preparing they try to have good organization, catchy analogies, statistics, and material that concerns the people. After thirty minutes is up, they give their speech before three judges. Each contestant cannot have over 100 words on notecards. The speech must last from about five to seven minutes. In judging this contest, the judges base their decision on content, organization, delivery rate and supporting materials. After the speech, the judges must feel that the speaker only informed them, and did not try to persuade them pro or con.

The Science contest, on the other hand, is primarily a test. The student is given fifty questions. The test is designed to quiz the students understanding and not their ability to memorize. The contest emphasizes biology, chemistry, physics, and the earth sciences. Each contest will contain questions of graded difficulty. Most questions on the test will challenge even the very best participants. The time allotted for the test is an hour and a half, but since thoughtful evaluation and experimental results will be important, the contest is not a race.

In preparing for this contest, one should read on the science books usually contained in the library, but more importantly should be mentally prepared to do a good job in answering the questions.

Both Callie and Roy are Seniors at Gruver High School this year and it was their first time to compete in the State Meet. As a Junior, Callie made the finals at Regional while Roy competed in the Science for the first time this year.

BAKER CONFIDENT

NEW YORK -- Sen. Howard Baker Jr. has predicted that he would win the Republican presidential nomination, and that former California Gov. Ronald Reagan would be "my principal competitor in the home stretch" for the GOP nomination. The Tennessee Republican attended the annual conference of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Ali McGraw Gets New Hair Styling

A new hair-style was created by Hollywood hairdresser Dusty Fleming for Ali McGraw in "Convoy," a United Artists release opening 5/18 at the Holiday Drive-in. Away went the flowing black locks of "Love Story" and "The Getaway"; in came a tightly-curling, short style which Fleming dubbed the Freedom Cut. It certainly gives the dark-eyed, slim-hipped actress a new look in this her first movie in five years and only her fourth all told. Ali's first three films were "Goodbye Columbus," "Love Story" and "The Getaway."

Faith In Yourself

It is often difficult to maintain faith. Yet, in today's fast-moving world, faith in our moral principles, in the future of our country, in the goodness within our fellowmen, and in ourselves, is a most vital character asset.

For peace of mind, happiness and an understanding of life and what is to be accomplished with it, faith seems to be a key. If you have none, or very little, do something about it.
