Last year's winner, city council colleague Frances Loftin, introduced "His Honor" Mayor Blodgett, as a "full time unsalaried city and chamber employee." She noted that the 1978 recipient was an armed forces veteran, and Elder in his Church, a Past President of the Chamber of Commerce, a Chamber Ambassador, a Zoning Board member, an Industrial Board member, an Air Port Board Member, and a former Hospital Board member. Urges Continued Momentum!

The 1978 President of Rotary, Ed Garner, presents the Rotary Employee of the Year award to Mrs. Clara "Friday" Wise. Mrs. Wise was the second consecutive woman to be selected by Rotary for the presentation.

Gerald Heinrich, 1979 President of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce told 300 Chamber supporters Saturday night "Let's keep the momentum going that helped Spearman achieve some Fantastic improvements last year."

The new President was addressing the group in attendance at the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet held in the Spearman High School. In accepting the President's gavel for the coming year, local automobile dealer said he was both proud and humble. He noted that he was proud of the community in which he lived... and would be proud in helping make it an even better place in which to live: the new official noted too, that he was humble because he, as a relative newcomer had been selected to serve the Chamber in it's highest office.

Heinrich complimented outgoing President Jim McLain for his leadership in 1978 and called on the members and followers of the Chamber to "work" together to make Spearman an even better place in which to live.

The new President recently assumed office along with his 1979 corps of officers: Jim Shirley, First Vice President; Dick Elbert, Second Vice President; Bobbie Novak, Treasurer and Jim McClain, Immediate Past President.

Committee Reports were presented from the Respective Chairmen of the Chamber's ten standing committees, each one basically reflecting a year of achievement and progress. Mike Garnet, Lenis Simpson, Frances Loftin, Bill Sexton, Orvil Brummett, L.E. Thomas Jr., Alva Garner, Johnnie C. Lee, and Kim Brock serve respectively as Chairpersons of the various committees. Simpson serves as Chairman of two committees.

Pizza Hut

Outgoing 1978 Chamber of Commerce President Jim McLain announced Saturday night that a Pizza Hut would be built in Spearman sometime possibly in 1979.

The announcement was greeted with generous applause on the part of those in attendance at the Annual Chamber Banquet.

The two partners in the venture were reportedly unable to attend because of the dangerous driving conditions. Chamber Manager Mary Lou Wysong has told the Reporter that the Pizza Hut will be located on Highway 207 to the South of Excel Chevrolet Olds.

The location of the fast food service facility will also provide additional employment along with the employees expected to be hired to meet the needs of the new Nurs-a-nickle Motel, currently under construction.

No Gas Rate Decision Yet

A spokesman in the Gas and Utilities Division of The Texas Railroad Commission's office in Austin told the Reporter late Monday that a "decision is expected very shortly" on the request by High Plains Natural Gas Company for a rate increase. Spearman City Council members and residents have been anxiously awaiting a ruling by the hearing Examiner in Austin with reference to the possible hike in rates.

The Gas Utility has in essence asked for a rate increase that could go as high as 26% for local customers on the average. That ruling had been expected by January 18th but so far no action has been reported by the Railroad Commission office in Austin.

A spokesman in Austin said "we haven't forgotten about you in Spearman!"

Lion "Pancake" Boss Ray Ingle reports that several hundred folks came to the Lion's Pancake supper... probably because they all knew they'd receive Tender Lovin' care from those irrepressible Lions like those above!

You'd think this was especially posed! But then... would such outstanding young Business "Executives" such as Lion Frosty Hickerson and Lion Ben Woodington do such a thing? In any event the Annual Lion's Club Pancake supper was a ROARING success!

Estate Planning Seminar Conducted

Rain, sleet and snow prevailed throughout the day, but did not prove to be a hindrance for the professional or the audience attending the Estate Planning Seminar, January 25, at the Spearman First State Bank.

Thirty-two Hansford Countyans learned the purpose and importance of estate planning through the vivid slide presentation of Lou Stanislaw, Estate Planning Consultant from Amarillo. Administrative cost may prove your greatest expense in estate settlement if you have not planned properly, pointed out Stanislaw.

Despite the general consensus of opinion, lawyers do not have to charge 3 - 5% for their services in estate planning and settlement, stated Panhandle attorney Ed Hinshaw. You may shop for lawyers, just as you do for insurance, getting the most for your money.

Guardianship is a costly and time consuming procedure and should be avoided if possible. In effect, Mr. Hinshaw dramatized the fact that regardless of age there is no satisfactory substitute for a properly drawn will.

Gary Turner, trust officer for Panhandle Bank and Trust in Borger, talked with the audience concerning the use of trust in estate planning. There are several types of trusts, said Mr. Turner, all having advantages and disadvantages. Setting up a trust may cost money at present, but can prevent double payment of taxes and loss of a major portion of assets an individual has accumulated over the years.

Local C.P.A. Jack Oakes discussed filing requirements and administrative procedures for the federal estate and gift tax. Good estate planning means distributing one's property at minimum cost, but planning to avoid taxes entirely can trap you into undesirable and unsuitable arrangements.

Oakes concluded that good planning does not necessarily imply an estate will pass tax free, but it can lessen the impact of state taxes. Free publications on Estate Planning and Setting Your Household in Order, are still available at the County Extension office.

This seminar was sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Hansford County Family Living Committee.

COMPUTER USE PROGRAM

A total of eleven Hansford County producers attended the "Computer Use on Farms" program held January 8 in Spearman.

The producers were shown the use of computers on the farm by Dr. Ray Sammons, Area Economist, and then were able to see a computer in work.

One producer saw how he could increase his expected profits by $60 per head on wheat pasture cattle by supplement feeding of grain while on wheat.

Many producers found that they had no idea how much it was actually costing them to produce a bushel of wheat or 100 lbs. of milo or corn.

Many favorable comments on the meeting were voiced and some talk was held among some of the producers on going together to purchase a computer.

Council Approves CPS Request

In the event Southwestern Public Service Company increases its cost of Electricity it charges Community Public Service, that cost will be passed along to local customers of Community Public Service.

The procedure providing approval for this possible increase was granted Community Public Service at the Spearman City Council meeting Tuesday night.

The technical terms is a "Power Cost Adjustment," and even though such a Power Cost Adjustment has not as yet been applied to Community Public Service, the mechanics approving such an adjustment in local customer's bills have been O.K.'d.

Representatives of Community Public Service, in attendance at Tuesday's meeting told the Council that they doubted that the Public Utilities Commission or the Federal Department of Energy would exceed the President's wage and price guidelines of a 7% maximum increase.

In any event increase as requested by Southwestern Public Service would have to be approved by those regulatory agencies.

In approving the request from the local Utility Mayor Ralph Blodgett noted "I believe it's unreasonable for any business not to collect what you have to pay for good business practices." The Mayor added: "If Community Public Service has to pay more... or even less... then that adjustment should be passed on to the local customer."

The Council followed the Mayor's urging and approved what in essence could eventually be a rate increase... should Southwestern seek such an increase. The representatives at last night's meeting left little doubt that such an increase would eventually be sought.

'Wilderness Family 2' Big in Japan

MEDFORD, ORE.—Pacific International Enterprises' "Wilderness Family Part 2" opened an exclusive road-show engagement in five Tokyo theatres in late July, grossing a spectacular $545,680 in the first two weeks. The five houses reported a first-week gross of $277,240 and continued to report heavy attendance, with the second-week's boxoffice receipts totaling $268,440. The film will have a wide opening throughout all of Japan following its initial roadshow engagement.

The Marunouchi Toho Theatre grossed a phenomenal $193,380 in the first 14 days' playing time and "Wilderness Family Part 2" continued to draw enormous crowds, with all indications pointing to a record-breaking engagement. According to Rengo Report, "The initial grosses indicated that "Wilderness Family Part 2" is no less a box-office attraction than its predecessor."

The all-new "Wilderness Family Part 2" sequel to the award-winning "Adventures of the Wilderness Family," highest grossing family film nationally and internationally, is being very widely accepted by the Japanese moviegoing public, which idolizes the "Wilderness Family" stars—Robert Logan, Susan Damante Shaw, Heather Rattray and Ham Larsen.

The cast members just returned from a nine-day personal appearance tour in the cities of Tokyo, Osaka and Hokkaido. During the trip, they met with thousands of Japanese fans and friends who loved and respected the American "Wilderness Family."

Pacific International Enterprises release of an Arthur Dubs production. Features entire cast. Directed by Frank Zuniga. Screenplay: Arthur Dubs. Camera (color): John Hora. Music: Douglas Lockey. New York — Back in 1975 Arthur Dubs made an innocent little film which he dubbed "Adventures Of The Wilderness Family." At the end of 1977 he reported rentals to date in the U.S. and Canada amounting to $13,383,289. If its sequel, "Further Adventures Of The Wilderness Family — Part 2," which hits the nation's screens during Christmas week, does half that much it will still be an highly successful effort. And this despite the claim that it cost three-and-a-half times as much as the original. From what is on the screen, there's no reason why the sequel shouldn't have the same appeal as the first film.

While the cast, especially Robert Logan as the father and Heather Rattray as his daughter, they've also survived the Aleutians in Warners' "The Sea Gypsies," are generally impressive and natural, it's evident from the opening shot that they're going to play support to the scenery.

Filmed at Irwin Lake Lodge, Crested Butte, Colo., John Hora's color camera provides sweeping scenes of some of the Rocky Mountains' most stunning landscapes.

The film takes viewers through most of the seasons and there isn't one fake snowflake to be found. The human actors are also hard put to it to out-perform the animals used — one assumes that even the seemingly wild ones, such as wolves, are carefully trained as the entire cast has to work in very close proximity.

Arthur Dubs' simple script fortunately keeps his cast outdoors for most of the film as their interior scenes tend to get a bit sticky.

Susan D. Shaw as the mother is excellent in her one opportunity to convey the loneliness that attacks at times, especially when she develops pneumonia.

Ham Larsen is natural as the small boy of the family and principal trouble-originatee. George Flower, as an old trapper, chews the scenery a bit but there's plenty of that to spare.

Action highlights include the family being besieged by wolves, a series of small accidents, avalanches and other nature-type hazards.

If the viewer never worries about the family's income and who pays for those frequent trips to town via private plane and other expenditures, he'll be rewarded with one of the best arguments for ecology currently available. Robe.

'Wilderness Family PART 2' General audience film is slick and satisfying

"The Further Adventures of the Wilderness Family — Part 2," with Robert Logan and Susan Shaw. An Arthur Dubs production, released by Pacific International Enterprises. At the Iowa Theatre.
Rating: G — For general audiences.

By Mike Deupree
Gazette staff writer

"The Further Adventures of the Wilderness Family — Part 2" is a slick, satisfying and very pretty movie that should silence, at least for a while, those who say there aren't any real family movies anymore.

In the original movie, Skip and Pat Robinson took their children, Jenny and Toby, away from Los Angeles and set up housekeeping in the Rockies.

The sequel picks them up pretty much where the first movie left them, and this time they plan to spend the winter in their isolated cabin instead of retreating to the relative safety of civilization.

Some of the situations from the first movie are repeated here — a member of the family becomes very ill, the two-way radio is broken so help can't be summoned, the children get lost, etc.

But the movie does prove modern man can still make it in the wilderness, providing he has determination, pride and a Bell JetRanger.

But there are fewer questions than in the original film, and in most respects this is a rare instance of the sequel being better than the original. That's particularly true of the photography.

John Hora's photography is conventional but spectacular, with many scenes that could have been lifted from a picture postcard. (The location was Irwin Lake Lodge at Crested Butte, Colo.)

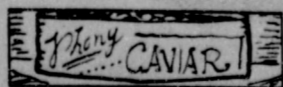

All the actors turn in credible jobs, especially Robert Logan as the father. Others are Susan D. Shaw as Pat, Heather Rattray as Jenny, Ham Larsen as Toby and George "Buck" Flower as the grizzled prospector, Boomer.

The wildlife shots are almost Disney quality, and the animal trainer, who isn't listed in the credits, deserves special commendation. All the beasts and birds perform well, plus there's a scene-stealing wolf that looks mean enough to scare the bejaegers out of you.

Take a coat and mittens to wear during the show to avoid frostbite when you go — but go, if you're after what they call "wholesome family entertainment."

Tax Trouble

Real estate typically is a favorable long-range investment that has an important role as security for debt in our economy. Unpaid debts can be charged against property in legal proceedings.

In addition, delinquent taxes of the owner can result in a financial claim against real property and become an expensive problem for the unwary buyer. Tax charges against property are especially troublesome when public records fail to provide advance warning of their existence because of some difficulty at the court house or other governmental office.

A buyer in a western state was surprised to encounter this type of hazard shortly after purchase when he received a notice calling for payment of delinquent property taxes. Previously, a title search of the public records showed the taxes to be paid.

Lynx win

Subsequent investigation disclosed that the taxes were erroneously paid by the previous owner. Upon discovery of the error, a tax official cancelled the payment to make the taxes delinquent—but the change was not reflected in the public records at the time of the title search.

Luckily, the buyer was protected by owner's title insurance issued at the time of his purchase transaction. The insuring title company paid the back taxes to save the buyer from financial loss.

Precautions are worth considering before you buy a home. Free information on the subject may be obtained by writing American Land Title Association, Box 566, Washington, D.C. 20044.

Spearman's own "Super Shields" lead the Lynx in scoring at Boys Ranch Tuesday night with 20 points, to give the Lynx a 2nd half win of 63-55 over the fine Ranch team. Whitaker hit 15 points, Edwards 10, Martin 6, Newton 6, Ortega 2 and Beedy 4. The Spearman B team boys lost to the Ranch 57-33.

The Lynx started the 4th quarter down by 9 points, 51-42.

Believe it or not, the Lynx rallied for 11 unanswered points and took a 53-51 lead over the Ranchers. To make the story even more unbelievable, Spearman went ahead to win the game 63-55, scoring some 21 points to the Ranchers 2 in the 4th and final quarter!

The Lynxettes, first half winners of the district 1-AA race, did not play Tuesday night, and both the Lynx and Lynxettes will travel to River Road on Friday.

Picture Your Pet's Personality

Some dogs are humble and ingratiating in their efforts to make you love them. Others, with supreme confidence in their beauty and breeding, allow you to admire them.

Both have great appeal as picture subjects, but the latter type is probably easier to photograph because they tend to pose naturally. Getting good pictures of such dogs is largely a matter of seeing—and seizing—the opportunities as they arise.

With other dogs, it will probably be necessary to plan ahead to produce the effect you want.

A Kodak Tele-Ektra camera, that allows you to switch from normal to telephoto lens at the flick of a switch, is an excellent choice for pet pictures, planned or unplanned. On some occasions, moving in close might spoil the pose you are trying to capture. On others, there just isn't time to move. With the telephoto lens you can get the picture you want.

Remembering a few other points will help, too.

Shoot from the dog's level, even if this means getting down on the ground yourself.

Backgrounds are important, too, as every photographer knows. The general rule about keeping them uncluttered still applies, but in pet photography there is also the matter of selecting one that will contrast with the dog's fur and show him off rather than swallow him up.

Judicious use of side or back lighting will also help outline the dog. This is particularly effective when the dog has a long-haired, fluffy coat that will turn into a halo.

The help of an assistant to provide an intriguing noise (a rattle in a box or crinkling paper, perhaps) can help to give the dog an alert, interested look. The helper can also, by just being there, keep the dog where you want him. When the assistant is a family member, you might also get some great shots of both the person and the pet.

O.C. Holt Honored

O. C. Holt, retiring Hutchinson County Commissioner, Pct. 4, was honored for his 28 years of service at a Holt Community Supper January 26 at the Holt Schoolhouse.

Richard Gaines presented O. C. with an engraved silver tray and teapot in appreciation for his long years of service and leadership as commissioner of Pct. 4. In acceptance, O. C. expressed his appreciation for being in a position to serve the people of Hutchinson County.

O. C. ran for office in 1950 and completed a 28 year commitment at the end of 1978. In his final year of tenure, he had seen the county become free of any indebtedness. While in office, Farm to Market roads and all-weather County roads were added. The road system out to Lake Meredith was developed. Upon request of County Commissioners Courts in the northern tier of counties, he chaired a committee which worked to have a road established to cross the Panhandle from Dalhart, Texas to Tulsa, Oklahoma-Texas Highway 51. Two major additions to North Plains Hospital and one addition to Hutchinson County Library were completed during this time.

Approximately 60 people attended this supper.

Rotary Club News

Spearman community supports the athletic programs of the Spearman schools very well, according to girls' basketball coach, Ralph Newton, in a talk to the Spearman Rotary Club Monday noon at Martin's Steak Garden.

Competitive athletic programs for girls begin in the seventh grade. In seventh and eighth grade there are competitive programs in basketball and track. In ninth through 12th grades competitive programs for girls include basketball, track, golf and tennis. About sixty-six girls are involved in competitive athletic programs.

There are thirty-seven girls in the seventh grade program. This is compulsory for all seventh grade girls to give them a taste and see if they would have any desires for it in the future.

There are twenty-three girls in the eighth grade basketball program which is optional. By the time the girls play on the eighth grade team they begin to show more ability and polish. By the time they make the freshmen squad, they stress a winning attitude, which is continued on the "B" team and the Varsity level.

Basketball changed this year from a six-player game to a five-player game. The girls are beginning to respond to the new program. Since Christmas, the varsity girls have really begun to get it together. They have won their last nine games. Out of a squad of fifteen girls, six are seniors. Most of them play every game. They are playing a running game. They average 58% shooting from the field. They achieved a new high of 89% against Perryton. They are 17-8 for the season thus far and 4-0 in district play. The J-V squad is 20-1 for the season and have twenty girls on the squad who play every game.

Visitors Monday noon were Buzz West of Houston, Everett Childress of Pampa, Steve Neeld of Oklahoma City, and Ralph Newton of Spearman.

Members absent were Archie Burress, Kerry Henton, Junior Lusby, Frank Oglesby, Jerry Taylor, and Tim Woodington.

Rotarians were reminded that our attendance goal for February is 100%. During December it was only 75%. Members finding a conflict on some Monday have make up opportunities any day of the week in town within easy driving distance of Spearman.

History Book Meeting Scheduled

The History Book Meeting will be held at the Court House in Spearman at 2:00 p.m. Friday, Feb. 2nd. Any interested persons are invited to attend. Field Representatives must be chosen at this meeting. Look for a letter in the mail soon, with all the instructions for writing your family history. Everyone needs to start on this as soon as possible.

We hope to have a representative from Taylor Publishing Co. back in Spearman soon, maybe at the next meeting.

The last meeting in Gruver was small due to the storm. Address Chairmen were chosen. They were Janie Stedje, Oslo; Christene Brandvik, Gruver; Jeannie Blankenship, Morse; Jaunita Pierce, Spearman; Lola Reynolds, R.E.A. and Idella Randell, Publicity Chairman for Spearman.

Those attending were: Helen Boyd, Hazel Stumpf, Ruth Gurfory, Lola Reynolds, Willis and Idella Randell, Jeannie Blankenship, Christene Brandvik, Ruth Reardon, Jaunita Pierce and Ruby Saltness.

Record Gas Consumption

A record volume of gas was registered by Spearman City residents during the period from December 20th to January 20th! City Manager Lenis Simpson told the Reporter today that gas bills being mailed Wednesday will reflect a record amount of gas usage in the history of the City. Simpson noted that almost FIFTY MILLION CUBIC FEET of gas was used during the period. This compares to the next highest period of usage exactly one year ago...just over FORTY SEVEN MILLION CUBIC FEET. Previous amounts rarely exceeded FOR-

TY MILLION CUBIC FEET!

The unprecedented amount of gas used was due to the serious and prolonged cold spell endured by the city during this calendar period.

The comment by the City Manager prompted Mayor Ralph Blodgett to suggest that Spearman was possibly part of the Frost Belt...not the Sun Belt as had commonly been assumed!

In any event your gas bill when received this week will probably be the highest one you've ever received as a resident of Spearman.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

If you plan to start seeds indoors or in a cold frame this month, use sterilized soil for healthier plants.

When using glass baking dishes, set the oven temperature 25 degrees lower than metal containers.

Remove faded camellia flowers and rake up flower blossoms around plants to avoid camellia petal blight.

If a recipe calls for 1 teaspoon dry mustard, use 1 tablespoon prepared mustard.

To conserve energy and save money when using the oven, prepare a complete oven meal.

Outdoor sports enthusiasts will find two thin pair of socks are warmer than one heavy pair.

Wise home energy management can help balance your energy budget

No one wants to give up the convenience of electricity... the speed of automatic washing, drying and ironing clothes... entertainment and news brought into our homes by radio and TV... electric lighting... or the comfort of a centrally heated home. But energy costs money, and the more you use, the higher your utility bill. That's why it's so important today to use energy wisely. Wash and dry clothes only when you have a full load. Use cold water when possible, and don't over dry clothes. Turn off the TV or radio when not in use. Don't leave lights burning when you leave a room. And help stop heat loss from your home with insulation, caulking, weatherstripping, and storm windows. The convenience of electricity has really changed our lives. Enjoy it... But make the most of your energy dollars by practicing wise home energy management. For more tips on using energy more efficiently, call us.

City May Owe School $2000

A chance remark by Spearman School Superintendent James Cunningham indicating that the City of Spearman may owe the School $2000.00 has sent City Manager Lenis Simpson on a search of Council minutes of four years ago.

Cunningham told the City Manager that sometime ago the city agreed to purchase the old football field bleachers, now in use at the city swimming pool and that no payment has been received.

Mayor Ralph Blodgett was able to elicit that this "transaction" may have occurred approximately four years ago. In any event, City Manager Lenis Simpson will check out City Hall records to see if the City is still indebted to the school.

Underground pipelines are the safest way to move natural gas. And you can help keep it that way.

There's no safer transmission system for natural gas than underground pipelines. They are constructed and maintained to rigorous safety standards. They are constantly monitored and checked for leaks.

Now we're adding one more measure of pipeline safety. It's the pipeline safety line, a toll-free number to call if you ever notice anything unusual along a pipeline right-of-way which is clearly marked. The safety hotline is 1-800-821-5486.

Keep this number with other emergency numbers. Call it if you encounter any of the following:

- Leaking natural gas can be heard — a small leak will sound like a hiss; larger leaks are much louder, a shrill noise something like the "roar" of a jet engine.
- Leaks may blow dust, dirt and rock into the air; cause bubbles, or cause water to be blown into the air where pipelines run under lakes or rivers. In some cases you may be able to see a vapor stream blowing into the air.

- Fire "coming from the ground," or burning in the air on a pipeline right-of-way.
- Discoloration of vegetation is another clue.
- Detection of a peculiar or unfamiliar odor may indicate a line leak.

If you encounter what you think may be a pipeline emergency, warn others and LEAVE THE AREA QUICKLY. Then call the pipeline safety line: 1-800-821-5486.

It's just one more thing we're doing to keep natural gas flowing safely.

DECA members are planning on going to Amarillo this weekend to participate in a contest! The contest will be a real challenge to the students who have been working hard all year long to prepare for this big contest! They have to be able to count change, do a sales demonstration, simple arithmetic (I have it from one of the participants from last year that there is nothing easy about the arithmetic she had to do), and know how to deal with an angry or upset customer! This may sound like a piece of cake to you, but it really is a lot of work!! Members who participated last year did a real good job and we hope that the members who participate this year will do just as good a job!! Members who plan to attend this contest are as follows: Billy Snider, Alfred Avila, Jamie Butler, Calvin Pond, Anselmo Vela, Tylon Pierce, Steve Goff, John Reneau, Tim Spoonmore, Albert Avila, Beth English, Jeanie Close, Cassie Baker, JoLynn Burch, Lori Short, Debra Owens, Brenda Fanning, Leslie Platt, Joann Reed, Barbara Oltman, and Sue Close. GOOD LUCK TO ALL WHO PARTICIPATE!! Good Luck Mr. Smith! Members will be staying at the Villa Inn.

Carrots, parsley, celery, parsnips, dill, anise and caraway are all part of the same plant family.

To Microfilm City Records

A Texas Tech University entity has asked for and received City Council approval to microfilm for posterity the records of the Spearman City Council.

As a result records dating back to 1921 will be assigned to the South West Collection Agency, located in Lubbock on the Texas Tech campus for microfilming. The Agency told the city council that it was assimilating records of many Panhandle cities as a part of an overall research profile, for agriculture and socioeconomic factors.

YOU NAME IT FROM THE DEN OF POISON PEN

Chalmers Porter called me from Wythecliff, Virginia, Sunday morning and informed me that the Tractorcade was doing fine. They have stopped in Wythecliff for the morning church services, which were to be conducted by one of the Tractorcade members. He is a farmer from some part of the country, traveling with the tractorcade, and Chalmers said that he talked just like "Festus" so he must be from Alabama or some southern state. Betty Porter and Chalmers were both in high spirits Sunday morning and said that people meet them and bring them food and money for the farmer, and line up on over passes and wave at them. Betty also stated that Mrs. Dwight Hutchison prepared a freezer full of food, for 12 people for 14 days. The food was put in a freezer, and taken along with the tractorcade. This has proved to be a lifesaver for the group. Chalmers said that the Spearman group was much better organized than other groups in the tractorcade. Special thanks must go to Geor-giannne Hutchison and all of the farm ladies who prepared all of this food for the Spearman group. Of course most everyone in the area is proud of the farmers, who are trying to get a decent price for their farm products. That is what keeps the town of Spearman going! The more the farmers get for their wheat and maize, the more they will have to spend at home!

And speaking of the Porters, we called Elsa last Sunday evening, and she is doing fine. She recently underwent surgery, and if you would like to drop her a card, or call her, let us know and we will try and find the address. I have the phone number somewhere at home! Elsa is a sister to Chalmers and she is a professor of music at West Texas State University. This is one of the reasons that I am so "high" on WT because of teachers like Elsa Porter who teaches at WT, in Canyon.

Have had a call or two about the boy that "became sick" at the JV tournament Saturday morning. He is O.K. now, and is back in school. It was a local Spearman boy. Probably had the flu, and just became sick during the tourney, according to local reports.

Robert Reed Completes Course

Navy Engineer Fireman Apprentice Robert A. Reed, son of Donald E. and Wanda R. Reed of 622 S. Townsend, Spearman, has completed the Basic Engineman Course.

During the course at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., students received instruction on the use of basic hand tools and machine shop equipment. They studied the theory and construction of internal combustion engines, plus the operation, maintenance and repair of small diesel engines, distilling plants, air compressors and auxiliary boilers. The students were also introduced to the types of duty watches that enginemen stand aboard ships.

A 1978 graduate of Spearman High School, he joined the Navy in July 1978.

In 1870 the U.S. population was 38,558,371. Today it is over 215 million!

Afraid of strangers? That particular phobia is called, "Xenophobia."

The city with the highest population is Shanghai, China with nearly 11 million inhabitants.

Performance proves...

The top 8 corn hybrids on the Irrigated Plains are all from Pioneer.

That's a pretty bold claim, we admit. But in farmer's fields, county agent test plots, wherever they're grown, these Pioneer brand corn hybrids consistently out-perform competitive hybrids year after year. Each hybrid has its own particular strong points that make it especially well suited for certain environmental and management conditions. When thoughtfully selected and properly managed to meet the conditions, each of these hybrids delivers top performance... winning performance that's head and shoulders above the competition.

Don't take our word for it. Ask your Pioneer dealer about yield data in your area for the last several years and see for yourself. The consistent performers... the top 8 performers are all from Pioneer!

High-yielding, full-season powerhouse! 3195 gets off to a good start with high seedling vigor, then makes the most of High Plains growing conditions. High test weight grain is hard textured and dries down fast. Ideal for grain or silage.

Contest winning yield potential with excellent disease tolerance makes 3183 an ideal companion for 3184. It also has excellent seedling vigor plus good standability and stay-green qualities.

A silage grower's dream come true (even if your plans change mid-season)! Tall with good standability and a high grain-to-stover ratio. Adapts well to the high plant populations required for top silage yields. And if your plans change, excellent grain yields make it a profitable grain crop, too.

Steady corn maker, popular for excellent yields and consistent performance. Strong stalks, good roots provide outstanding standability.

The corn you can manage almost like sorghum. Total fertilizer, water and insecticide requirements similar to sorghum. Maximum water use period makes it an ideal companion crop to cotton. Yield average of more than 7,800 lbs./A in four years of High Plains production at 96 locations.

A new hybrid you can trust like an old friend! It delivers top yields and is an outstanding companion for 3195. It silks earlier than 3195 and performs better under stress.

Very early silking, a long kernel fill period, and fast drydown help 3541 produce extremely high yields for its maturity. Give 3541 the management it needs, and it could easily be your top income producer. Excellent standability, ear retention and head smut tolerance.

Plant this one for your banker! It has the consistency to be the high-yielding workhorse hybrid you can rely on. Outstanding early season vigor. Excellent for silage on the Irrigated Plains.
