Don't let this be a case of everybody's business is nobody's business. Take it on yourself to report at 9:00 A. M. Monday, May 26.

New Church Page Begins This Week

The first of a series of 26 page advertisements featuring the eight churches of Spearman appears in this issue of the Reporter. We believe we have the most interesting and attractive plan for presenting the invitation of Spearman churches, than we have ever used before. Each week the Pastor of the various churches the Superintendent of Sunday school and the leader of the young people's organization will be asked to prepare a "Guest Article" featured in the page advertisement. This week the pastor of the Union Church, Rev. Calvin Springer presents a very interesting guest article. Next week the guest article will be presented by Rev. Wade Griffin, pastor of the First Methodist church of Spearman.

The page includes a county church directory of the various churches of this county. There may be a few changes in the directory next week, since this directory is the same as published in the Reporter some 5 months ago, and we were unable to check with each individual pastor relative to changes made in meeting time of the various organizations.

Canton Lake Draws Many From City

It started two weeks ago when the No. 1, 2, 3 and 4 fishermen of Hansford County, namely Bill Miller, Bruce Sheets, Bill Hutton and Freeman Barkley spent the week-end at Canton Lake near Canton, Oklahoma. These outstanding fishermen came home with 60 Sand Bass all graded to 1 pound and better. Would-be-fishermen were very envious and first off Jimmie Davis, Hoots Martin and Charles tried their luck at Canton. As poor fishermen as they are they ate all they could hold and brought home proof that they caught em. This encouraged other folk that classify themselves as fair to midling fishermen, and Oscar Donnell, Hall Jones, Jake and Johnnie Vernon tried Lake Canton the past week-end. They came back with stories of having caught more and bigger bass than the highly rated No. 1-4 fishermen. At the same time Banker Woody Gibner and Vern Osborn tried their luck. They are very conservative in their report, but evidently even THEY caught plenty. Three other guys that like to think they can catch fish with the best... namely, John Berry, Pete Gibner and Sam Graves also visited Canton, and we have been afraid to talk to them, for fear they will swear that it took a pick-up truck to bring home their catch.

The schedule forms being sent out by Mr. Carpenter, have the required subjects marked and other information given which will enable parents and students to make out a schedule for the remainder of the students high school life.

The schedules are not iron-clad. Should a student have a desire to change the schedule later, it can be done.

The purpose of this new plan is to encourage greater planning for the future by the student and parents.

Baccalaureate Sermon For Spearman H. S. Class 1958
By David E. Parker

Your speaker is humble in your presence this evening. The honor you have bestowed upon me and the confidence you have placed in me for this address is deeply appreciated. I sincerely hope that I may not disappoint you in that honor and confidence. I am grateful that I may come before those of your families and friends of this community and share with them this humble token of congratulation for your attainment. We feel that with your undivided attention you can receive some counsel that will help you along life's way.

This occasion means much to you. You are tense, nervous and overjoyed. With mixed emotions it is difficult to hear and to drink deeply of the truths that might be revealed. Try to relax now, and remember you are not alone with these emotions. For you this is an ending. The ending of a period of your life. The beginning of another phase. You feel free of the drudgery of school, yet you realize it is only the beginning of learning.

For others it is also the end and the beginning. For father it may be the end of doing without the car on many evenings; but it is the beginning of "digging deeper" that you make the proper advancement in your college career. For mother it is possibly the ending of the "hurry & hurry" of getting you off to school each day, wondering whether those grades will be brought up or not. Yet it is the beginning of a greater sacrifice and a greater worry over your adjustment to the life of "growing up."

You are in a transition period between youth and maturity. You must go forth making your own decisions in life, and if those decisions are proper it will reflect good training in childhood. If they are not, then you will have to bear the consequence. It is too late to train you for them now. With this new life before you comes more and greater responsibilities. Are you prepared to shoulder them and build your life in the direction of the goal you have set?

I am proud of you. I contend that our younger generation is not "going to the dogs." I am many times more disappointed in parents than in the children. The poet puts it in these words. My Pa observes the world's worn cogs And says, "The world is going to the dogs." His Pa, in his Flemish togs Thought the kids were going to the dogs. His Pa, in his hatty togs. Believed they all were going to the dogs. But as for me I'll simply state: The dogs have had an awful wait. Now from the Scripture read from God's Book we wish to observe our very serious lesson for the evening. Let us bring all these thoughts into focus by another scripture given through the pen of Solomon, from Psalms 127:1 we read, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

The nature of man is to rebel against any thing that shackles total freedom. This brought Adam & Eve to disobedience of God's law. There must be shackles if there is to be leading, guiding, and training. This is an eternal principal of God's laws, spiritual and natural. Man's desire to see what is just beyond; over the hill is the secret of the building of so great a nation as ours. Our heritage is freedom to travel to points never visited by other men; to build castles where no other has built. The inquiring mind of man wants to flee this earth and it's gravity that contains us, and to flee into space to see what is on the other side of the moon and beyond.

The true scientist understands that God has placed barriers in our way and that they must be overcome that we may be trained to properly evaluate our knowledge. When the difficulties are overcome then we are properly trained to use and harness the knowledge we have of God's universe. The Godly mind sees this and recognizes it and observes the wisdom, and the beauty of God's creation. There must be a challenge to all who would desire to advance. There must be a challenge to the spirit for those that would know God. Christianity is that challenge. Christianity can not have that challenge to you if we bring it down and give it a place among the vanity of society and mere good moral living habits of mankind and varnish it with make believe. No wonder that in many cities and towns many young people are turned to worldly elements and are traveling the paths of materialism. Parents have varnished their religion and the children have seen the shame and hypocrisies of their lives. With this kind of Christianity held up to the youth of America there is no challenge to live like the Christ. Let us lift up Christianity before our youth and separate it from the glitter parties, social activities, and elements of the world. To challenge the spirit there must be a standard that calls one beyond and above these things. A genuine desire for a knowledge of God and his creation; to be perfect is the greatest challenge. This is the goal of the Christian. It's standards and requirements are a challenge to any or any army of men. Within this plane we must "Build the House."

The wonderful things that have been invented and discovered almost takes our breath. We stand amazed in the presence of great minds out of which comes such knowledge. But they are too mind of God. Our doctors have discovered wonderful drugs and have performed successfully, seemingly impossible surgery. Yet they do not know the body nearly as well as its creator. They, in our generation discovered that life is in the blood and by blood transfusions and blood plasma can strengthen and lengthen life. God told us over 3500 years ago that life was in the blood; Genesis 9:4.

Electronic engineers have given us radio and television. They were a dream when I was a boy. Now we can hear and view happenings on some point of the earth removed from our view. God can see all the happenings on earth at the same instant as well as see into your heart along with all other people. Combinations of scientist have given us atomic power. We know some thing of that power and it's possibilities. But there is more power in God's Word. It can take a drunkard and make a sane and sober father out of him. It can take the social sinner, idolater, imbecile and make a good honest citizen of him.

Our engineers have demonstrated with their machines that they can travel far beyond the speed of sound. We know that a satellite must travel at the speed of 18,000 miles per hour to remain in orbit about the earth at the distance of about 300 miles from the earth's surface. In God's creation we find that the earth spins upon its axis at the speed over 1000 M. P. H. It travels about the sun in its orbit of 186 million miles in diameter at the speed of over 66,000 miles per hour. It completes its orbit every 365 days 6 hours 9 minutes and 9 seconds without a variation from its schedule. Pluto, discovered in 1932 is 3,670,000,000 miles from the sun. It completes its erratic orbit every 257 years. It must travel at the speed of about 270,000 miles per hour to do this. The earth is just right for man. It is the proper distance from the sun and spins at the correct rate of speed and is tilted just right on its axis that we will neither freeze at night, burn up in the day, and that we might have our winter and summer seasons. Our astronomers tell us that in the north there is a space where there are no heavenly bodies. It is empty. God told us over 3500 years ago about that. Job says, "God stretches the north out over the empty space and hangeth the earth on nothing." Job 26:7. How could a man of Job's age write of this without the inspiration of God.

Take yourself from the world for a moment and imagine yourself on the moon. Look back at earth. YOU are important, to your self, and maybe pretty important to some few others. Less importance is attached to you when compared to hundreds of the city YOU become even less important in comparison to the millions of the Nation. YOU are of no importance to the billions of other nations. YOU are very important to God; that is to say your soul is. Is it worth more than the moon and the earth. You may never build a nation, become a great physician, or a leader of men; But to an humble servant of God is more important.

Broken dreams shattered schemes, loss of material gain has brought such deep disappointment. Men have taken their own lives to escape it. Whatever you build let the Lord build it and this bitter disappointment will not be yours. Your trials and disappointments will only serve to lead and train you for greater accomplishments.

Remember, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." Men use a different measuring rule to establish the size of a man. Men are measured by the amount of attraction he may gain from his fellowman. God measures a man by the kind of service he is doing for his fellowmen. Men place the rule of measurement about the head, but God places the rule around the heart.

I have seen this sign in business houses, "God is my Partner" Let us say, "God is my OWNER." I am his servant. We have noted the play, "God is my Co-pilot" Let us say, "God is my pilot," let me be the co-pilot. Also, let me be your pilot. Also, let me be your instructor. Let me be His student. We stamp on our money, "In God We Trust" yet when a nation wish is unfriendly places a satellite in orbit before we do, almost to a man we are thrown into a nervous frenzy of fear, believing it possible to bring our destruction upon us, and that from a nation that laughs in the face of Jehovah our God. I would that we really did trust in God as did those that coined the motto and believed it.

You are more fortunate than my age. You have greater opportunities before you within your grasp. Fields that were just opening in my youth have spread out like a giant fan containing many channels so deep and long, it is impossible for one brain to retain it and understand it. This is the world of speciality. Make your choice now at an early date and specialize in that particular field of endeavor. Set your goal and pursue the course with God at your side and you will conquer.

The day of the "Jack of all trades" is past. He is no longer called for as he once was. He does not hold the confidence of people in this age of specialization. You have within yourself the power to build into reality that dream that you now hold. If it is to be lasting and comforting, remember the Lord must be the builder.

First you must build your life; We all have seen lives build without God. The wretchedness of broken lives and bodies is ever before us, whether it be by violence or by the way of the "beer-joint" and "dancehall." Let us paraphrase it thusly: "Except the Lord build the LIFE, they labor in vain that build it."

Most of you will build a home. We also have seen homes that were built without God. I believe the saddest scene you have ever noted was not one of a parent and children gathered about the bedside of a loved one about to pass away into that realm of the silent, there bending low that they might not miss any word from the lips that are soon to be sealed in death.

trouble, always defend yourself and say: I never could do anything with him anyway." Some of you may help build cities. There have been cities built without the Lord. Sodom, Gomorra, Tyre, and even Ephesus that was so great during the apostle Paul's day. But look at them now. Their destruction and decaying foundations cry out to us with the ringing rebuke of the Lord from Rev. 2:5; "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do thy first works; or else I will come quickly and I will remove thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent." Look and see what it means to build a city without the Lord.

It is your world. Remember it is yours only in the sense that you are the steward of its welfare. Nothing is lasting in this world except that which you do in keeping with God's will.

The Holy Bible is His Book. Take it; conquer your goals, overcome your adversaries, build your "House" using it as your guide. Someone has said of this grand old Book:

"This Book contains the mind of God; the state of man; the way of salvation; the doom of sinners, and the happiness of the righteous. Its doctrines are holy; its precepts are binding; its records are true; and all its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise

1. Let him read anything he wants. Have no concern whatever for what goes into his mind. Provide him with Lily cups for his lips, but let his brain drink out of any dirty container for words and ideas.

2. When he picks up bad words or "dirty" words, laugh at him. That will make him think he is cute. He will run off and pick up some other words that will blow the top of your head off.

3. Never give him any spiritual training until he is twenty-one and then let him decide for himself. By the same logic, never teach him the English Language. Maybe when he is old enough he will want to speak Bantu.

4. Praise him in his presence to all neighbors; show how much smarter he is than the neighbor's children.

5. Avoid the use of the word "wrong." It may develop in the child a guilt complex. This will prepare him to believe that when he is punished later on for stealing cars or assaulting women, society is against him and that he is being "persecuted."

6. Pick up everything after him; his shoes, books, his clothes. Do everything, so that he will be experienced in throwing burdens on others.

7. Let him read anything he wants. Have no concern whatever for what goes into his mind. Provide him with Lily cups for his lips, but let his brain drink out of any dirty container for words and ideas.

8. Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. In this way they will be prepared for broken homes later on.

9. Give him all the spending money he wants; never let him earn his own.

10. Satisfy every craving of the child for food, drinks, and everything that has to do with his sense of taste and touch, gratify every sensual desire.

11. Take his part against policemen, teachers and neighbors. They are all "prejudiced" against your child.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS... MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title as standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s Found for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8, with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

Grain Bill Important To Panhandle

Months of work and conference by grain sorghum and corn farmers appears to be paying off as agreement is in sight for national feed grain legislation, according to Bill Nelson, Amarillo, Exec. Vice-pres. of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

This fact was in evidence as Rep. W. R. Poage, Waco, outlined late happenings on the Washington scene before the Panhandle Grain and Feed Dealer's Ass'n early this week. Poage is Vice-Chairman of the House Agricultural Committee which has devoted most of this congressional session to drafting plans for an omnibus farm bill.

Poage commended grain sorghum and corn producers for their united efforts in presenting sound workable plans to the committee, which are fast becoming the basis of agreement by producers of other commodities.

"yes" or "no" whether farmers want "a program for feeding grains."

The second part would give a choice of: (1) A program of higher supports and a reduction in corn and sorghum acreage and reduction in surplus stocks of grain; (2) A program of lower price supports and no acreage controls.

Many believe that farmers throughout the nation will welcome the referendum because the age old question about what farmers "want and don't want" would be answered. Namely, whether the Secretary of Agriculture is correct in advocating that farmers want to produce for the "going market price" or whether they speak the wishes of a majority of farmers who say a "market level" of prices must be maintained even at the cost of acreage controls.

The feed grain bill now under consideration as outlined by Poage is divided into four parts. Part I provided for abolishing the "commercial" corn area and the present corn program. It gives the Sec. of Agri. authority to establish a national feed grain acreage base for corn and grain reflecting increase planted in 1955, 1956 and 1957. U. S. total estimated base is about 192 million acres. The base would be broken down by states, counties and by ASC committees to farms, allowances for diverted acres, adverse weather and other factors.

Part II allows the Secretary to ask for a 20% cut in corn and sorghum acreage in 1958 and more than 10% in 1959 and 1961. It then calls for the referendum vote by grain farmers not later than December 1 each year. If more than 50% of those voting favored no support program, there would be none. If a majority favored support of some kind a choice is provided for in Part III and Part IV.

Part III reflects the thinking of the Grain Sorghum Producers Ass'n, according to Nelson. R. G. Peeler of Hereford, and Frank Moore of Plainview, have appeared before both the House and Senate Agriculture Committees in interest of this approach.

It calls for participation in the reduction of corn and sorghum 50% of their normal production on these acres in grain from CCC surplus for each of the three years of the program. The grain to be fed or placed on the open market. They would in turn receive 90% of the support loans for their reduction on the allotted acres. The national average 1959 support on grain sorghum would be about $2.37 a hundred or about $2.10 to Texas Panhandle grain producers.

There would be penalties of $1.00 a bushel on all harvested and excess of the allotments and cross compliance-no price supports on other commodities if corn and grain sorghum allotments are violated. Nothing could be planted on the vacant acres.

Part IV of the proposed bill reflects the American Farm Bureau Federation's feed grain program proposal. It calls for support of corn at 90% average market price of the past three years and the removal of all production controls. Other grains, including grain sorghum, to be supported at a comparable level, considering relative food value, storable and other factors and to require some participation in the soil bank to be eligible for supports. The 1959 effective price for grain sorghum would be about $1.35 a hundred under this plan.

"Texas Agriculture" the official Texas Farm Bureau publication supports this approach to government support in that it reflects market demand for agricultural products and supports their belief "that support prices not be raised or lowered entirely at the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture."

When asked as to his opinion as to which approach in the proposed bill, if passed, would have the best reception in the Texas Panhandle and Plains area, which produce over 50% of the nation's grain sorghums, the Grain Sorghum Producers Association's executive officer summed it up this way.

"The higher price support, acreage reduction plan, drafted in the House Agriculture Committee will have strong appeal to several groups in this area. The farmer like it in that it calls for an orderly reduction of surplus stocks which threaten the market, while providing a reasonable price for his reduced production. The grain men like it in that the choice" as to the kind of program

"payment-in-kind" grain will be placed in the regular market channels and out of government stocks. Cattle, sheep, swine, and poultry raisers want the feed grain price kept at a level that can afford to feed but high enough as provided in the proposed program to keep from "flooding the market with cheap grain and resulting in cheap meat products," Nelson said.

Nelson went on to say that the real attraction of the whole bill is that it for the first time gives what they want.

Lions Hear Discussion

Lion Dr. Hackley, and Lion Billy Miller presented the program at Tuesday noon Lion Club. Lion Johnnie Lee discussed the present civil defense set-up and gave the following information on the tornado-bomb warning system. The siren will be sounded, so the people who are in hearing distance of it will know, and a lighting system will be used on the spotting tower, which is at the hospital. When the light is flashing red, it is the sign of a tornado approaching, and you are urged to take cover. Drive cautiously at all times, during stormy weather. Prevent accidents on the highway, especially during an alert, when someone might be speeding and run head-on into you. Above all, try to get below the ground; know where the nearest storm cellar is located.

The beautiful Delray 2-Door Sedan, one of three budget-priced Delray models.

Chevrolet's dollar-stretching DELRAY YOU JUST CAN'T TIE THIS BUY ANYWHERE!

Here's surefire proof Chevrolet always knows how to give you more for your money—from longer, newer, lovelier bodies to a wider range of engines, transmissions and suspension systems. The more you look the more you'll find to like in Delray—the LOWEST PRICED OF ALL THE LOW-PRICED CHEVROLETS!

Chevy doesn't have any "smaller" models. The big, beautiful Chevrolet Delray is just as long, just as wide, just as softly sprung on the same 117-inch wheelbase as the luxurious Bel Air models. Like every other Chevrolet, it has the extra solidity and quality of body by Fisher. There's no stinting on optional equipment, either. You can get anything from Fuel Injection* to Level Air* ride, any Chevrolet transmission, any Chevrolet engine, just as you choose. Take a long, long look at this one next time you drop in at your Chevrolet dealership—because the more you demand for your money the surer it is you'll decide you can't tie this Delray buy anywhere! *Optional at extra cost.

Washington News Letter From Your Congressman Walter Rogers

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

Recession Talk
Recession talk continued at full speed in the Nation's Capital last week. Many columnists wrote about it as usual, and many commentators on television and radio gave considerable time to it. The whole subject came in for a full fresh debate on the Floor of the House when the unemployment compensation bill was being considered. Continuing discussion of such a subject among the people creates some rather interesting situations. For instance, history seems to prove that people always save more when it appears that hard times might be on the way. Government figures reflect that time deposits during the first three months of this year increased by 2.2 billions of dollars, whereas this increase during the last three months of 1957 was only 9 hundred million dollars. A large part of this was made up of the savings accounts of individuals.

United States Savings Bonds have been bought during the last few months than have been cashed in. Prior to that time the sale of these bonds was below the redemption figures by several millions of dollars. In fact, during the last three months of 1957, the sales were 3 hundred million dollars below the redemptions.

New deposits in savings and loan associations were greater than withdrawals every month last year.

Life insurance reserves have been steadily increasing, and the cashing in of policies seems to be slowing down.

In the installment credit field during February, the repayments were actually greater than new installment loans. This could be indicative of greater savings.

In any event, the entire picture reflects that when people become concerned about the financial situation, they immediately try to adjust themselves so that they will have some ready cash on hand and be all set for a rainy day. This, of course, always contributes to a slowing down of the circulation of money because fewer goods are purchased, all of which makes for an unstable financial situation across the country. I feel that if the people can be reassured by positive action at the present time to stimulate more activity in all fields of business, the so-called recession will take care of itself. A big contribution to this end could be made by few changes in our income tax laws that would enable many people to reactivate slumping small business concerns. Whether it is done by accelerated amortization schedules on new construction, new equipment, or several other ways, it could be of great help to many of the smaller towns that are so badly in need of home economic stimulant.

Although such a procedure might be termed a tax cut, actually it would be no more than a short moratorium that could well create sufficient circulation that would not only help in solving a recessionary problem, but could be of measurable help both now and in the future in preventing further deficit government spending. Government spending alone is not going to solve any recessionary situation. It must be handled with the greatest of care so as to provide the necessary stimulation to the economy without creating larger and larger deficits upon which larger and larger interest payments must be made.

Visitors

The Nation's Capital is welcoming thousands of visitors each day. They come in buses, trains, planes, and motor vehicles. The Capitol grounds are swarming every day with many from all parts of the world. A large part of these visitors are made up of high school students who come to Washington on class trip. Several of the schools in our district in past years have come for a visit, and we have always enjoyed it. I wish more could do it.

The visitors from the Panhandle last week included Mr. Jack Lacy, Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, who was in town for the annual convention of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Jack handled the reception for the Congressional Texas Delegation which was held at the Mayflower Hotel. He did a fine job and was certainly welcome in the Capital. We also had a visit from our old friend, Vance Johnson, who originally hails from Memphis in Hall County. Vance has made quite a record for himself and is now employed by the Chrysler people in Detroit. I know all of his Hall County friends will be glad to hear from him.

We also had a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Happy. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Lester Packer, who now lives in Philadelphia. We had a fine visit in the office before these folks went to visit the White House, the Capitol, the Library of Congress, and other points of interest.

Paul Martin of Amarillo, who is a graduate of Price College and is currently pursuing some technical studies here in Washington, came by the office for a visit. It was good to see him, and I hope he will make several visits while he is here.

GUEST ARTICLE

First I would like to express a word of appreciation to our country editor, Mr. Bill Miller, for his giving this space in the Spearman Reporter to the various churches and ministers.

CHRIST

It is with great pleasure that I write this short article because the theme of it, is Christ. If I were to write along some doctrinal line it would possibly create many diversified opinions; but the word Christ is a language that every man understands. Christ is the answer to all earth's problems. He is the answer to the religious problems. The world has become delirious because of sin. Go where you will and sin is existant. Christ traveled an aggregate of hundreds of miles in his very short ministry preaching the Gospel. His every mission was to teach people that if they would believe in Him and not in earthly doctrines, he would eradicate sin from their lives. For man's life to please the Lord he must put Him first. I'm a theocentric. I feel that all we are, say, and do must center around Christ. Col. 1:16-17 Paul teaches that by him all things consist Christ is the common denominator for Salvation. To divide fractions there must be a common denominator. To draw a sinful man to righteous God, the common denominator must be a resurrected Christ. He was not a religious demagog, but His every deed, action, and aspiration was to build the Kingdom of Heaven.

As pastor of Union Church we take pleasure in working with the people of the church. This July 29th will mark the fifth year of our pastorate here. We can certainly say that the people of the church and the town have been splendid to us. We entered the ministry in 1951 and were engaged in evangelistic endeavors until taking the pastorate of Union Church. Each year here has been one of pleasure.

Visitors are always welcome. If you do not regularly attend a church, we invite you to come visit with us. If you are pleased with our worship, we would be glad to have you as a member and regular attendant of Union Church.

Here's the Smoothest riding pickup.

Ford Styloside pickup—lowest-priced pickup with cab-wide box.

'58 FORD

Proved by Scientific Impact-O-Graph ride test

You (and your family) are in for a pleasant surprise when you drive a new Ford pickup. A new suspension system, with rubber-cushioned springs plus long two-stage rear springs, gives you a ride that's more car than truck—empty or loaded. Yet, Fords are priced with the lowest. Running costs are low, too—because of economical short-stroke design in Ford's V-8 and Six. Ford resale value is traditionally high. And an independent study by insurance experts proves Ford trucks last longer.

Impact-O-Graph picture of a competitive ride. The Impact-O-Graph (a scientific instrument used to measure bumps) records what you feel—jar and jounce. Same Road, Same Speed—but some difference! Ford's new suspension gives the smoothest ride of any pickup—a ride mighty close to that of a car!

Official registrations show:
AMERICAN BUSINESS BUYS MORE FORD TRUCKS THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!
