

Tax Measure Is Sent To Joint Committee

Speed Sought On Finance Legislation

House And Senate Differ Sharply On Levying Methods

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Poles apart on the excess profits tax legislation, house and senate today turned over to a joint committee the task of compromising their differences.

Leaders conceded the task would be difficult, for by the time the senate gave the legislation its 46 to 22 approval late yesterday, it had drastically changed the measure from the form in which it passed the house.

Moreover, the senate tacked on a rider for the purpose of boosting individual income and corporation taxes sharply upward in time of war.

The conferees sought speed because of those sections of the bill requested by defense officials to speed up production of armaments.

Another consideration was that final action by both houses also would help clear the way for adjournment of congress by the end of next week.

One of the major changes made by the senate was the provision adding a flat 3.1 per cent to normal corporation tax rates, thus increasing the present 20.9 per cent to a 24 per cent levy for corporations earning more than $25,000 a year.

Less at variance were house and senate provisions for speeding up defense industry.

Both approved suspension of existing profit limitations on government contracts for warships and airplanes.

Both likewise voted to permit corporations to charge off against earnings over a five-year period the cost of manufacturing facilities completed since Jan. 1, to meet the demands of defense contracts.

NEW TRIAL SOUGHT FOR CONDEMNED MAN

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20 (AP)—Attorneys for Tommie Harris, 18-year-old Grandview negro being held in the death penalty for the brutal slaying of Mrs. Edna Earl Allen announced they would make formal motion for a new trial.

A district court jury convicted him last night of the fatal beating at Grandview on Aug. 8.

Choir Singer's Body Found

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Sept. 20 (AP)—The body of Miss Madeline Clark, 44, a Lenox, Mass., choir singer, was found in Farnham's reservoir today by a police searching party and a medical examiner reported promptly she had been "murdered."

The police party found Miss Clark's body after an extended search for her and her escort of last night, Sylvester Dellar, of Pittsfield. State police reported Dellar's blood-spattered automobile was found beside the reservoir.

Patrolman Russell Wheeler of the Lenox police said choir associates of Miss Clark told him Dellar met her last night after the choir practice at St. Helen's Chapel, Lenox. The victim's mother became alarmed when she found early this morning that her daughter had not returned home and police began to look for the pair.

Assistant District Attorney Harold K. Goewey of Pittsfield announced an intensified search would be made for Dellar, 51 years old, who has been separated from his wife.

Police said they found blood on the right front seat of Dellar's car, two slippers, and torn pieces of clothing. From the car, they said, a man's footprints led to the water's edge together with a trail as though a heavy object had been dragged into the water. Searchers found no immediate trace of footprints returning from the water.

ODDS AGAINST IT

LONDON, Sept. 20. (AP)—Based on its calculation on the recent bombings of London, "The Lancet," British medical journal, said today the chances of a bomb falling within 50 yards of any given person were only one in 50,000.

Permian Basin Assn. Tax Group Organized For Howard County

Organization of a Howard county tax committee to work in conjunction with the Permian Basin association's Central Tax committee on a broad program of equalizing government costs and maintaining efficiency in collecting and distributing revenues was completed in Big Spring Thursday evening.

At a dinner session at the Settles hotel, Howard county's 18-man group was set up under guidance of Ben L. LeFevre, member of the association's Central committee. Here for the meeting were J. J. Kelly of Midland, chairman of the Central committee; Wilburn Page, executive secretary of the Permian Basin association, and D. H. Griffith of Midland, also active in the association's tax program.

The local group studied a five-point program as outlined by the Central committee, and heard LeFevre, Kelly, Griffith and Page discuss in detail some of the objectives, which are destined to reach into a 49-county West Texas area, with special emphasis put on tax problems of counties and school districts.

The five-point program includes such general objectives: Federal and state—Work to insure equalization of all taxes. County and independent school district—Assemble material on participation in the cost of government; employ experienced auditors or tax experts for detailed study; urge publication of tentative budgets at least 30 days prior to equalization board meetings. Cooperation with West Texas chamber of commerce in tax program. Secure information on other similar organizations whose purposes are similar to those of the Permian Basin association.

Education—Local meetings, publicly releases, direct contact work with all taxpayers, employer and employee. Stressed by the association men was the fact that the Permian Basin committee is not endeavoring to go into counties and school districts with the thought of contesting all fiscal programs; but rather it is aiming to work in full cooperation with tax bodies in arriving at fair valuations and rates, and setting up budgets which provide for economical and efficient government.

Highlight of the program is a contemplated scientific analysis of budgets, to be made by a professional firm of tax accountants or auditors, and Page said this service would be made available to the extent the Permian Basin association's budget permits.

Thursdays C. E. Miller entered a plea of guilty to a charge of willfully burning personal property, in connection with the destruction of an automobile, and was given a five-year suspended sentence.

James Hogg, given a five-year suspended sentence here Sept. 22, 1939 on a felony theft charge, was back in court to show cause why his recognizance bond should not be forfeited and he required to serve the term. He was convicted subsequently in San Angelo on an identical charge.

$39,000 More In Parity Payments

One of the largest number of checks ever received by the county AAA office here Thursday brought an additional $39,433.72 in parity payments to Howard county cotton farmers.

The 352 checks were $112, slightly above the average of three previous and substantially smaller blocks of checks.

Thursday receipts brought the total to date to $68,426.52 in 634 checks. This was estimated to be little less than half due the county in number of checks and total amount of parity payments, which are due to approximate $142,000.

SYNDICATE KILLERS GET DEATH PENALTY

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Two former big shots in Brooklyn's kill-for-cash syndicate must pay with their lives for strangling a small-time bookmaker, soaking his body with gasoline and putting a torch to it in Brooklyn.

They are Harry (Pittsburgh Phil) Strauss, 33, and Martin (Bugsy) Goldstein, 34, convicted by a jury last night of the "contract" slaying of Irving Feinstein on Sept. 4, 1939. No date for formal sentencing was set.

LAMESA CHARTS PROGRAM TO OBTAIN AN AVIATION FIELD

LAMESA, Sept. 20 (SpI)—Determined to overcome the status of being the only city of its size without an airport, Lamesa, through a committee of civic leaders, is taking action toward securing a landing field.

The same committee also decided to petition the U. S. army for establishment of a migratory camp-site in Dawson county as a part of the national defense program.

Following a meeting at the Plaza hotel by 22 civic leaders, Dr. J. D. Burleson, Carroll Davis and V. Z. Rogers were named as a committee to study airport needs. A second committee, composed of M. C. Lindsey, J. E. Barron, W. M. Nelson and W. L. Starr, was charged with the responsibility of making a survey of likely tracts and securing options on these areas together with returning suggestions for financing the project.

It was indicated that the airport undertaking might be prosecuted as a county-wide venture, although detailed plans for sponsorship have not been formulated as yet. A majority of those participating in the meeting favored action looking toward a petition for a migratory camp-site to be concentrated pending their assignment to regular training centers. Raymond Lee Johns, chamber of commerce secretary, was instructed to take necessary steps in this direction. Sam Richardson, chamber president, presided at the session.

Financing Of Conscription Is Mapped

$1,640,000 A Month Would Be Distributed To Local Boards

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Preliminary estimates indicated today that $1,640,000 a month would be distributed among local draft boards throughout the country for clerical help in the task of registering and selecting men for compulsory military service.

Along with other plans, financing arrangements for the vast draft effort went forward in anticipation of a congressional grant of $2,000,000,000 and the president's order formally setting up a draft administration.

Selective service officials said each of 6,500 local boards would have at least one paid clerk. Allotments for clerical help for the rest of this year were figured tentatively at 10 cents a month for each man registered. The census bureau estimated that 16,400,000 were in the draft age limits of 21 through 35.

Thousands of low-salaried, short-lived jobs will be created, literally a million men and women will serve without pay.

All members of the local boards, their medical, legal and business advisers and other administrative aides—numbering in all about 200,000—will work for nothing.

It was estimated that more than 700,000 regular election officials, serving without pay, would be required to enroll the men Oct. 15.

MARRIAGE RULING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Reversing a previous opinion, selective service officials stated today that married men would not be deferred automatically as a class from compulsory training.

While it was expected that most fathers and husbands would be deferred, the deferment decision made by local draft boards on the merits of each individual case, they said.

Draft selection regulations are originally planned would have instructed local boards, in view of the small number of men needed, to defer all married men.

However, it was found such regulations would conflict with the law, which requires that each case be decided on its merits, with full decision resting with the local board unless appealed.

45 Reservations To Garden City

The number of business and professional men making reservations for the Garden City food will dinner Tuesday rose to 45 Friday morning.

With reports on hand from less than half of those distributing tickets, which provide for a Big Spring man and one in the host city, it appeared that before Tuesday there will be upwards of 100 local individuals making the trip.

New names were S. M. Smith, Manley Cook, Ralph Linck, Alfred Collins, Sidney Smith, B. O. Jones, M. W. Talbot, Cecil Westerman, Vic Mellinger, J. & L. Drugs and J. W. Elrod. V. A. Merrick and the State National bank each made reservations for five pairs of tickets.

Urges Speed On Knitting Work

All women who have piece work out as a part of the Red Cross knitting program for civilian refugees were urged Friday by Mrs. Gilbert Sawille, instructor, to expedite their work.

She added that there was a need to complete the garments so that the way may be cleared for a new and larger program.

To date around 300 quality garments have been produced by women in Big Spring and over the county. However, said Mrs. Sawille, the local work has been done largely by a small group of faithful women. She was anxious that others join in the program.

BOMB DISPOSAL CREW MEMBER GETS JITTERS

LONDON, Sept. 20 (AP)—What do those fearless members of bomb disposal units think about while dealing with unexploded bombs?

A member of one crew seated astride a monster bomb signaled frantically and shouted "get me out of here."

Hauled up, he explained his anxiety by pointing down in the hole at a huge sewer rat.

Proposes Air Raid Shelters

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) proposed today that the senate direct military authorities to consider constructing underground shelters for the protection of the public "in case of an air attack."

Nazi Mass Assault Beaten Back By British Fighters

Report Nazis Rehearsing Landings

LONDON, Sept. 20 (AP)—English military sources estimated today that "perhaps 200,000" German troops are rehearsing landing exercises along the Norwegian coast.

There sources, however, said they saw no greater threat in these Hitler legions than those gathered ominously near in French and Belgian ports across the English channel.

But they said they believed the Royal Air Force's "stout resistance" to the Luftwaffe's desperate attempts to gain mastery of the air plus the "proven vulnerability" of the German light tank to the English two-pounder anti-tank gun had upset any plans Hitler might have had of trying to invade Britain.

"Hitler knows his light tanks are vulnerable to our two pounder" one of these authorities said, "and he has no means of bringing over his heavy tanks."

Although raids on London may continue perhaps for months, these sources said the next "and perhaps the deciding" phase of war may be fought in the Mediterranean.

Germany may try to attack Gibraltar through Spain at the same time Italy strikes at Egypt to gain mastery of the air plus the "proven vulnerability" of the German light tank to the English two-pounder anti-tank gun had upset any plans Hitler might have had of trying to invade Britain.

Mexico Rebel Band Spotted

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Sept. 20 (AP)—General Antonio Guerrero, Chihuahua military zone commander, reported today that federal troops under his command have surrounded a band of 150 rebels about 90 miles southeast of here.

General Guerrero said the band is headed by Jose Guerrero, no relation, and not by Lt. Col. Cruz Villalva as at first rumored. Villalva, defeated candidate for governor of Chihuahua on the ticket of General Juan Andreu Almazan, was reported to have crossed the Rio Grande into El Paso, Tex.

The Chihuahua military commander said a column of troops under command of General Jose Ruiz is closing in on the rebels from highways south of here, and that another, under Col. Carlos Vega, is moving in by way of Cuahmorent, a town on the Mexico Northwestern railroad southwest of here.

ATTORNEY WOUNDED IN COURT SHOOTING

DALLAS, Sept. 20 (AP)—Garland Armstrong, 39-year-old attorney, suffered a bullet grazed side in a courtroom shooting here today.

Three shots were fired, one of which struck Armstrong.

Julius Weitchek, 28-year-old drug store operator, was charged with assault to murder immediately after the shooting.

Armstrong was attorney for Weitchek's wife in a divorce suit. The disturbance occurred a short time before Weitchek was to appear before Judge Jack Thornton on a contempt of court citation.

Irwin recently reported someone fired a shot at him while he was in his office.

Free Election Cited By FD As Keystone Of Democracies

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt asserted today the "complete and enduring safety of our form of government" rests on maintaining free elections—added that "no dictator in history has ever dared to run the gamut" of such an election.

Yet, he said, in an address climaxing observance of the University of Pennsylvania's 200th anniversary, there were some well-meaning persons who had suggested the right to vote be denied people who had lost their jobs and were on relief.

"Only too often in our political history," the president declared, "the few at the top have tried to advise or dictate to the many lower down how they should vote."

"Even today in certain quarters there are, I regret to say, demands for a return of government to the control of those few, who, because of business ability or economic omniscience, are supposed to be just a little above the average of our citizens."

"The great danger is that once the government falls into the hands of a few elite, curtailment or even abolition of free elections might be adopted as the means of keeping them in power."

"As long as periodic free elections survive, no set of people can permanently control government."

Mr. Roosevelt spoke in Convention Hall, with three radio networks carrying his words to the nation. It was an address which the White House had declined either before or after its delivery to label political or non-political.

The chief executive spoke of current times as a "strange period of release in the history of the civilization of the world."

Reciting some of the things the new deal has sponsored, he added: "These are some of the new instruments of social justice which America has forged to meet the new conditions of industry, agriculture, finance and labor—conditions which had been neglected too long and which were beginning to endanger our civilization."

RAF Blasts At French Coast Points As Mighty Air Battle Rages

By The Associated Press
A mass assault of 200 German warplanes ran into a cloud-hidden ambush of RAF fighters over the Dover "hell's corner" coast today, while London's millions, huddled in the dim light of air-raid shelters, read in their morning newspapers a pledge of Prime Minister Winston Churchill of ultimate retaliation for German war assaults.

"Don't worry — they'll get it back!" Churchill was quoted as saying grimly when crowds demanded reprisals as he was inspecting bomb-shattered homes in the Battersea area of London.

British Spitfires and Hurricanes — with each plane firing eight machine-guns bristling from its wings — swiftly attacked the Nazi aerial armada over Dover and a fierce battle developed high in the skies.

Watchers far below lifted a cheer as a trim-flying formation of RAF defenders came back from the battle, reporting that the German raiders had been scattered and sent racing in disorder toward the French coast.

Near Dover, a German Messerschmitt fighter spun crazily out of the sky, trailing a black plume of smoke, and crashed in the hills.

A British press association reporter said the RAF planes, hidden in the clouds, had been waiting for the big German attacking force and pounced upon it as soon as it reached the Dover coast head east toward London.

Coinciding with Churchill's promise, the RAF stepped up the tempo of its assault on Germany and German-occupied territory, bombing the Rhine canal, other road and rail communications and Nazi "invasion ports" along the channel.

Watchers at Dover saw great jets racing along the entire coastal area from Calais to Boulogne as the RAF pounded the German bases for two or three hours.

Berlin reported 10 civilians killed in the night attacks, including three at the ancient university city of Heidelberg. Since the start of the war, Nazis said, 600 German civilians have been killed and 1,400 wounded in British air raids on the reichland. This figure contrasts with about 3,500 British killed and more than 8,000 wounded.

The German high command reported new fires were set by German night raiders over England, especially at Liverpool. Britain's air ministry acknowledged bomb damage in Lancashire, Essex, Surrey, Berkshire, Kent, the midlands and southwest England, but declined:

"Enemy air activity during the night was on a smaller scale and less effective than of late."

As usual, London suffered the fiercest blows, with German dive-bombers taking advantage of moonlight and clouds to strafe the city for the 13th consecutive night.

A scream bomb smashed the escape hatch of a public air-raid shelter in north London and an official communiqué reported "some of those taking refuge were killed and injured."

With the breaking of daylight, German raiders renewed the night. Nine attackers swooped down through the clouds, but dropped only two bombs and then scattered. Other bombers were reported over a southeast inland town.

Rain swept the Straits of Dover during the night and a south-west gale lashed huge waves against the white chalk cliffs of Dover, but the wind ebbed this morning and the sea became calmer. Visibility was clear. Altogether, the weather stage was better set for a Nazi invasion attempt than it has been for nearly a week.

However, only three days remain before arrival of the equinox with its tempestuous storms.

Miss 'Laneous' Notes

By MARY WHALEY

If there is anything we hear more moans and groans about than spring housecleaning, it is fall housecleaning. It seems as if the housewives feel that dust, dirt, and cobwebs form a conspiracy against them.

sort of fifth column work, that has to be cleaned out twice a year.

Curtains taken down, rugs beaten, corners dug out and that sort of cleaning, not the once over lightly that suffices during the week.

During this cleaning spree that attacks most households about the same time, there is no place at home for children, husbands, or visiting relatives for if you should be so unfortunate as to be around, you are likely to end up with a broom in one hand and a mop in the other.

We remember in our house that it was a time when the family invented errands and stayed away all day and even Father was late in coming home in the evening and philosophizing about only getting a sandwich in place of dinner.

We children spoke in whispers and were careful not to antagonize anyone by quarreling or being in the way. When the furniture had been put back and an air of serenity prevailed, we took deep breaths and returned to normal until spring when we went through the disorganizing process again.

Everybody enjoyed the cleaned-up look and for several days were very careful about where muddy boots were put.

But time passed and we returned to normal life and it wasn't until the idea struck mother again in the spring that our lives were disrupted.

We used to dread the "day of housecleaning" and we could sense as far off as two weeks that the time was coming. When we heard someone groan nowadays we re-member and sympathize.

Sewing Room Copies Big Business For Making More, Better Garments

New and improved methods of making clothes now in progress at the WPA sewing room have been borrowed from Big Spring but are proving vastly better than the old time methods according to Mrs. Anna Lee, supervisor.

Formerly the women who were employed at the sewing room, each completed a single garment from the cutting to the finishing.

But about two months ago the order they began the method of line work. The way the project works, a garment is cut and then the woman puts in hems, it goes to another machine where neck bands are fitted; on to another where cuffs are made and so on until it reaches the final machine where button holes are made and buttons sewed on.

This makes better garments and more of them in the number of hours that the women work according to the supervisor.

Utilizing all material is a necessity at the sewing room and in the new cutting room, recently added on to the unit, the patterns are laid with such nicety that scarcely a scrap of material is left over. As many as ten are laid out at a time and cut in uniform size.

The new cutting room provides more space for the workers and the light and blue-walled room gives the appearance of modern efficiency. Curtains of monks cloth have been added to the windows and the workers wear white uniforms with blue, pink and green collars and cuffs that they have made themselves. White and negro women and Mexican women receive employment there and the number working this month is 17 persons.

It isn't a case of workers making large numbers of garments that lie in storage unused or making size 38 garments when the need is for 40's, as like any business, the sewing room works to fill time methods according to Mrs. Anna Lee, supervisor.

Each month, the relief office sends requirements in sizes, types and amounts of clothing and they have received calls for and the workers at the sewing room fill the order.

This month they have received many calls for children's clothes, a garment is cut and then the woman puts in hems, it goes to another machine where neck bands are fitted; on to another where cuffs are made and so on until it reaches the final machine where button holes are made and buttons sewed on.

Each month reports are made of the work done by the room and in the four weeks ending August 17th, the workers completed 162 men's garments, 174 women's, 444 boys, 450 girls and 210 infants that includes children up to five years of age.

In that same period of time, 1440 garments were completed in 4249 hours of work and the room used 1570 3-4 yards of cotton.

The workers, who are employed for a period of time and are then off for 30 days, sometimes find private employment during this time utilizing the knowledge and experience gained during their time at the sewing room.

A "FOUR-ALARM" FOR THE BLUE-GRAY TRUCKS

A KANSAS CITY bridge burst into flames one morning last spring. It twisted and writhed under the terrific heat... then stout steel spans splashed into the Kansas River.

"Voice bridges" went out of service, too. For attached to the bridge were two large telephone cables, containing wires to 1,700 telephones. It was a four-alarm for the telephone repair crews—the men in the blue-gray trucks. While flames still soared near by, the reconstruction work began.

In a fire department rowboat they got a line across the river. Emergency telephones were rigged up at strategic locations.

Then came a driving rain to make the task even harder. All night they worked against great odds. By midnight 60 telephones were working. By breakfast time three-fourths of the silenced telephones could speak. That afternoon telephone service was back to normal.

Meeting—and whipping—emergencies is a part of the telephone man's job.

Your telephone service is backed by skilled, loyal people whose experience in past emergencies better equips them for the emergencies of the future.

Chevrolet For 1941, With Many Improvements, Offered Saturday

Chevrolet, which led the industry in sales again in 1940, makes its bid for continued pre-eminence, in 1941, with two series of new cars, in which modern streamline styling, and larger, roomier bodies, combine with numerous mechanical improvements to produce the finest Chevrolets ever built. The new models go on display Saturday at the local dealer's, Lone Star Chevrolet.

The famous Chevrolet vacuum power shift, which created a sensation when introduced in 1939, is standard on all models of both series, at no extra cost. Bodies are longer, wider, and much more massive looking. Their appearance mass is concentrated near the ground by changes in body and fender contour, as well as by judicious use of decoration and trim. Windshields, rear windows, and upper portion of sides of body are increased in slope, and top of side windows are one inch lower than in 1940.

No Running Boards
The cars' sleek appearance is heightened by the omission of running boards, as well as by the use of concealed hinges on all doors and trunks, the sole exception being the rear deck door hinges of the coupes and cabriolet. Sides of the body extend outward and downward noticeably farther than last year, and the skirt of each door conceals a convenient rubber-ribbed safety step to facilitate entrance and egress. The safety and convenience provided by a running board are thus retained, while the less desirable features are eliminated. Dirt, water, snow and ice cannot accumulate upon the step, because it is effectively sheltered under the flare of the doors lower edge. This not only makes the car easier to keep clean, but assures a firm, dry footing to persons getting in and out.

New and more massive-appearing die-cast radiator grille frame surrounding horizontal bars; new hood and front fenders from which the valley is entirely eliminated, dress the front end of the car. Sealed beam headlights, integral with front fenders, are relocated for better appearance, separate parking lamps of flush type being set in the fenders just beneath.

The grille refinements are especially noteworthy. Replacement of stampings with die-casting has made it possible to gain more pleasing detail of design and shape, as well as to heighten the durability of the body. And as the lowering of the body crease line and body belt moulding tend to accentuate the car's lowness as viewed from the side, so do the heavier horizontal bars of the radiator grille emphasize lowness and width as it is viewed from the front. The new grouping of lamps, and the new, wider bumper, also contribute to this effect.

Interiors are roomier as well as more luxurious. They embody numerous refinements, whose aggregate effect is to make these cars the equals, in riding comfort, driving ease, and safety, of cars of far higher price. Their restful, roomy ease is apparent the moment the door is opened. Rear seats are lower, a change which not only makes for comfort, but also—by bringing passenger weight nearer the ground—contributes to stability and safety. There is greater room across the seat cushions, and also at elbow and shoulder levels. Footroom is more than ample, as before. Front seats are substantially wider, and are adjustable, and those in two-door models have convenient divided-type backs.

Headlining and body inside lining are identical in both series, but upholstery material differs between the Special Deluxe and Master Deluxe. On the former, it is a two-tone striped corduroy cloth, with tan Bedford cord as an option, while in the latter it is attractive corduroy cloth in a tasteful herringbone weave. Treatment of the instrument panel is especially pleasing. On the Special Deluxe, the basic color is beige with a contrast of wood-grain design, and this is set off attractively by means of bright metal trim. The instrument cluster, including oil gauge, gasoline gauge, ammeter, and engine heat indicator, is at the extreme left. The large circular speedometer dial is adjacent, directly in front of the driver. The center space on the dash is fitted with a grille for radio installation, and above, on the Special Deluxe, is an ash receiver; and below, is an electric cigar lighter. Next to the grille toward the right, and between the speedometer, is a clock, and finally, at the extreme right, the roomy glove compartment with locking knob and interior light. The grouping on the Master Deluxe is similar, but the basic color is tan, the clock, lighter, ash receiver and some decorative trim are omitted, and the glove compartment is not lighted. The indirect illumination of the instrument panel in both series may be dimmed or turned off entirely by rotating the headlamp control knob.

N. M. Election Goes To Court

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 20 (AP)—Rep. J. J. Dempsey carried his fight for the democratic senatorial nomination into the courts today with suits in four counties charging ballot frauds and irregularities in the state's first primary election.

Dempsey took the legal action simultaneously in Bernalillo, (Albuquerque), state's largest county, and in Sandoval, Socorro and Valencia counties, strongholds of his opponent, Senator Dennis Chavez, who is leading in unofficial returns by some 2,500 to 95,000 democratic votes.

The suits asked temporary writs against county canvassing boards and county clerks to restrain the canvassing of returns, scheduled today, and the certifying of results.

District Judge Eugene Lujan set Saturday in Valencia county and Monday in Socorro to hear arguments. While the suits were being filed, Senator Chavez entrined for Washington with the declaration that he would demand a senate investigation of expenditures in the campaign.

Seagraves Plans Big Celebration On Halloween

SEAGRAVES—Seagraves will host to hundreds of West Texans Thursday night, Oct. 31, in a gala Halloween celebration that promises to outstrip any celebration in magnitude that has ever been held in this section.

Headlining the city-wide program will be the appearance of Herbie Kay and his band, known to radio listeners from coast to coast, who will play for the Halloween dance which will climax the evening's fun and entertainment.

Plans are rapidly being completed through the Seagraves chamber of commerce, sponsors of the event, for a colorful street festival, square dancing, bands, costume prizes, window displays and other activities which will be a prelude to the feature of the celebration—the Herbie Kay dance.

Tentative plans at this time call for a broadcast over the Texas State Network, through station KFYO in Lubbock, of a portion of the celebration.

THAT GAL'S HERE AGAIN—Buxom Mae West, she of the nonchalant talk and careless walk, combines forces with W. C. Fields for a comedy presentation dubbed "My Little Chickadee." The film is at the Ritz today and Saturday.

1st FIRST CHOICE OF MILLIONS. THEIR FIRST THOUGHT FOR SIMPLE WEARABLE. ST. JOSEPH ASPIRIN

Nation's Center-Of Population Is Shifted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The population center of the United States has moved eastward for the first time in history, preliminary census figures indicated today.

Experts said it would be several months before the exact location could be fixed, but as far as they could tell from early figures from almost every state in the union, the center would be several miles southeast of its 1930 location which was 2.9 miles northeast of Linton, Indiana.

They based their calculations primarily on the fact that while the total population of the United States apparently gained between 7 and 8 per cent, the South Atlantic states gained 12.5 per cent. Meanwhile, the most informed estimates place the national total at approximately 132,000,000, or about 7.5 per cent above the 122,700,000 count in 1930.

As indicated by the possible eastward movement of the population center, the 1940 census is expected to show many important shifts in the distribution of people—changes which may alter substantially the apportionment of seats in the house of representatives.

Fleet Back At Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Sept. 20 (AP)—Britain's Mediterranean war fleet splashed back into Alexandria harbor today, intact and apparently undamaged, after leaving what its officers reported was a broad trail of destruction amid Italian troop concentrations and supply bases along the Egyptian coast.

The warships returned from a broad sweep of 2,500 miles which in three weeks had covered the Aegean, Ionian and eastern Mediterranean seas, the officers reported, "without encountering the Italian fleet, or any attempt at bombing by Italian airplanes."

One officer said this demonstrated "our mastery of the sea." Making a surprise attack on the Italian invaders less than 48 hours after they had advanced to Sidi Barrani and Altm, the returning British reported they blasted those two places at close range and tore wide gaps in the war machine Marshal Rodolfo Graziani is preparing for a further thrust.

TO HIKE SURPLUS COMMODITIES DISTRIBUTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—With the bulk of the $300,000,000 annual farm products export market closed by the war, the agriculture department has issued instructions that its programs for distribution of unmarketable surpluses among the nation's needy be doubled within the next 90 days.

Farm officials hope that the loss of foreign sales, with the possible exceptions of cotton and wheat, may be largely offset by such programs and a predicted increase in the domestic demand for food as a result of governmental spending under defense activities.

The department will concentrate on two food relief distribution programs—the so-called "stamp" plan and the school lunch program. Officials said about $200,000,000 was available for such programs during the current fiscal year.

Lamesa To Be Invaded By Roswell

LAMESA, Sept. 20—Coach Poe Corn's Roswell, N. M. high school footballers moved into Lamesa today for their tilt with the Golden Tornadoes tonight at 8 o'clock on McCollum Field. The Roswellians are out to make it three in a row against the Lamesa eleven, having already taken the long end of the score in their two past engagements. Corn's team has two victories to put in the record book for this season, having walloped St. Mary's of Roswell and Carlsbad, N. M. Both Have Won, 61 Lost As Others Drop Out Of Race

By JUDSON BAILEY
The fantastic American league pennant struggle reached a new crisis today as the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers came up to their series with each other in an absolute deadlock—85 games won and 61 lost. Also for the first time it was possible to say positively that the conflict has become a two-club contest with nothing counting but their own mortal combat.

The Chicago White Sox have been mathematically eliminated, not by the standings but by the schedule, and the New York Yankees have been pushed to the very brink for the same reason. These are the standings today:
Cleveland 85 61 52 .. 8
Detroit 85 61 52 .. 8
New York 80 64 56 .. 4 10
Chicago 79 67 54 6 8
Ordinarily a club four or six games behind could at least hope for the clubs above to lose all their games. In this case, however, the schedule makes that impossible and the only benefit the Yankees or Sox could get would come from Detroit and Cleveland breaking even against each other. That would mean three more games lost for each leader. Cleveland still has two games with the St. Louis Browns and Detroit two with Chicago. If the leaders lost both of these, that would leave them in a tie at the finish with 88 games won and 66 lost. The White Sox already have lost 67 and therefore are eliminated.

If the disaster outlined here should strike both the leaders, the Yankees still would have to win 8 out of 10 games to tie. Such an outcome is so remote that it might as well be dismissed today and let the dead bury their dead, including the four-times world champion Yankees.

The Tigers are getting ferocious and have to be considered favorites for the three-game series on their own field this weekend. They massacred the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday 13-2 and 10-1 with a couple of secondary pitchers and had Buck Newsom ready to oppose Mel Harder today. Cleveland was out-hit 8-6 and needed the help of a couple of Washington errors to beat the Senators 3-1 and keep a share of the lead.

Red Ruffing showed some of his old form in spacing seven hits as the Yanks overpowered the White Sox 10-1 with a 14-hit bombardment.

The St. Louis Browns beat the Boston Red Sox 2-1 on Roy Cullenbine's triple with two on. Paul Derringer finally got his coveted 30th victory as the Cincinnati Reds punctured the Phillies 4-1.

The New York Giants' losing streak was extended to 11 games in a pathetic 2-3 performance against the Chicago Cubs. Charlie Paaseau coasted to his 19th triumph on eight-hit hurling.

The St. Louis Cardinals swept two from the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 and 8-2 to get a virtual strangle hold on third place in the National league.

Iowa Expects Top Team For '40 Season

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 20 (AP)
You wouldn't exactly expect to find it—what with an All-America halfback and two great ends among the missing—but there's an attitude of quiet confidence here concerning Iowa's 1940 football season.

Veteran Hawkeye fans, who could hardly believe what they saw last year when Iowa won six games, lost one and tied one, won't come right out and say Dr. Eddie Anderson is coming up with another sizer.

Rather it's the hints they drop that make you wonder if lightning won't strike twice in the same place. Little things like: "Say, did you hear Anderson has Bill Green passing?" Or: "Goah, that Stausa kid looks good!" Green a fullback last year who caught a couple of game-winning touchdowns, is being tried in the left-halfback slot vacated by All-America Nile Kinnick. Critics rate him as one of the faster backs in the Western conference. Bill Stausa is the only sophomore on the present first team. He's in Kinnick's old spot most of the time. Stausa is a hard-running 190-pounder who also can kick and pass. Aside from Stausa the varsity is loaded with veterans, most of whom were among the "Ironmen" a year ago. They won't have to work overtime this fall, for Iowa has an unusually large squad packed with old hands and ambitious newcomers.

Anderson, selected as the "coach of the year" in 1939 for bringing his first Iowa team successfully through a difficult schedule with a small squad, has another rugged program directly ahead.

Iowa will open with South Dakota University here Oct. 5, after which the Hawkeyes will plunge into competition against Wisconsin, Indiana, Minnesota, Purdue, Nebraska, Notre Dame and Illinois.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Now topping the beam at 190 pounds, Theo Ferguson, one time Big Spring high school luminary, visited briefly here Thursday afternoon. Ferguson wore the Black and Gold back in 1927—the days of Plush Yarbro, Ick Manue, Boog Fields, et al. In a crucial game with Sweetwater, he worked a sneaker through center for a touchdown and an enterprising reporter called it "Ferguson's bag of tricks." The phrase stuck with him the rest of the season. Theo is located at Hobbs, N. M.

And speaking of oldtimers, we wonder what has happened to the old line of eccentric baseballers. No longer are the sport columns full of the peculiar quirks of nature that used to be part of the stock in trade of a real "Desperate Desmond of the Diamond." There are still a few of the spiritual followers of these old fellows though. Right now, in one of the minor leagues there is an Arkansas boy that would tickle the innards of old Shoeless Joe Jackson. Old Joe liked to feel his bony toes grip the clay when he got out on the field. He said he couldn't think fast enough if his feet were cramped.

Tonight Pat Murphy's Steers will take on a bit of Panther at El Paso's Austin high school. Of course, it is very likely that the Felines are honing for a juicy bit of Steer. The Longhorns left full of confidence that they could give a good accounting of themselves, but they'll have to do better than they did last week.

Dove season is well underway by now, although we are told birds are now scarce. Some of the nimrods are getting the bird alright, but it is the wrong kind and is costing them money.

Yesterday, Cannon Ball Baker came to town on some sort of a promotion stunt. The old Cannon Ball admits to being about fifty-seven, but we would be more apt to add a few years to that. Regardless, he is certainly a hale and hearty man because he has been traveling the road for records since 1906. He holds records galore and, if vim is any measure, he is liable to make some more. He has made endurance tests in just about every sort of thing that moves on wheels, excepting bicycles and roller skates. Give him time and he might even do that.

Bufs Take Texas Title To Go Into Dixie Series

HOUSTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Houston Buffs looked toward the Dixie series today, with the Texas league championship both for the regular season and the Shaughnessy play-off already to their credit.

The Buffs broke a "jinx" yesterday when they defeated Beaumont 3-2 to win the play-off. Three times previously they had tried but failed to get into the finals. Houston had little trouble this year. First they topped the field for the season by a 16-game margin. Then they swept through the Shaughnessy play-off, dropping but two games out of nine as they beat Oklahoma City, three games to one, and Beaumont, four to one. Houston will meet the winner of the Southern association play-off between Nashville and Atlanta in the Dixie series.

Steers To Meet Fast Austin Team

Big Spring's Steers line up for the second game of the season tonight at 8:30 (9:30 Big Spring time) against the Austin Panthers of El Paso. The rough spots that were evident in the game with Mineral Wells last week will be fixed up and the Longhorns will hang up a victory over the Cats, or they will continue

Six-Man Loop Goes Into 2nd Week Rounds

Six-man football goes into the second week of competition with eight teams in District 12 meeting today. Courtney, victors in a 19-7 duel with Sterling City last week, will entertain Garden City, out to make up for the 14-7 defeat handed them by Water Valley. Westbrook and Garner renew hostilities at Colorado tonight. Westbrook lost a 32-32 game to Forsan last Friday when the tilt was decided in Forsan's favor by reason of first downs, 10 to 9. Forsan will be visited by Coahoma this afternoon. Forsan's showing against the heavier Westbrook aggregation last week builds them up as a potential threat in the circuit. Water Valley, after a hard fought win over the Garden City Bearcats, is out to keep up the good work in the engagement at Sterling City today.

'CALL 'EM WHAT THEY ARE' IS VETERAN MENTOR'S PLEA

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 20 (AP)
The use of numbers instead of names for backs in football line-ups will be proposed at the next session of the National Football Coaches Association by Glenn Thistlethwaite, the University of Richmond's veteran mentor. Thistlethwaite, entering his 33rd season as a grid coach, thinks the backs should be numbered one, two, three, four, on the basis of their proximity to the line of scrimmage. "It's silly," he said "to hold on to the handlebar moustache age designations when signal-barking quarterbacks would play a quarter of the way between fullback and center and the half-backs halfway." Now, he said, the fullback plays only halfway back. The quarterback usually is a husky lad for blocking and someone else calls the signals. A half back moves out with an end and becomes a wing-back. The modern tailback stands on the spot where the fullback, villain of the oldtime backfield, bone-crushing attack. It's all very confusing, Thistlethwaite said.

FHA Chapter Organized At Garner School

Vocational agriculture students at Garner (Knot) school have taken initial steps toward organizing a chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

Sonny Chapman has been named president; Eugene Long, vice-president; J. B. Motley, secretary; Bert Mathis, treasurer; A. J. Gross, parliamentarian; Elmer Anderson, reporter; Cleo Anderson, watchdog; and Morris Bell, historian.

Prospects for a membership in the neighborhood of 40 are bright, Walter C. Hadley, vocational agriculture teacher, said.

Although this is the first year that Garner has offered the VA course, considerable interest is being manifested in it by the boys of the community. Soon, it is hoped, the members will start many projects and demonstrations. A meeting will be held at the school house the first Tuesday in each month at 8 p. m.

Hadley, a native of Texico, N. M., graduated from Texas Tech last June, receiving his degree in agriculture.

Huge Supper Club To Be Open For Abilene Fair

ABILENE—The floor on which West Texans will dance to the music of Johnny (Scat) Davis and his orchestra at the West Texas fair will probably be the second largest dancing space in Texas, Jack Simmons, president of the fair, believes.

The supper club will have 3,200 square feet of dancing floor and it will be second to none in excellence. Simmons is informed there is one Fort Worth night club with a larger floor than this.

The supper club building is being renovated within and without to such an extent that last year's fair patrons will not recognize it as the same structure.

A new hardwood floor with bruce finish is being laid, the floor show and orchestra stage is being elaborately decorated, a complete new roof is being constructed, and the front will be modernized in streamline motif, with generous use of neon lights for added color.

The preparations are no more extensive than the shows that Simmons and other fair executives have arranged for the week.

The first three nights, October 7, 8 and 9, will be taken with square dancing and a square dance contest.

Then the Cavalcade of Stars will move in for both grandstand and supper club revues, the nights of October 10, 11 and 12. The Cavalcade includes Johnny Davis' band of sixteen pieces and two vocalists, Bill Owen and Julie Sherwin; Dixie Dunbar of movie and stage fame, with her Rhythmaites; the pretty Dorothy Byron dancing girls; Rollo and Verna Pickert, specialty dance team; Bob Neller, ventriloquist who has gained much popularity and success and his stooge Reggie; and Bud Hughes' noted magic and dog act.

YOUR ARMY

A Series Of Articles Describing The Arms And Services Of The Regular Army

No. 10—The Ordnance

The Ordnance Department of the Regular Army plays a major role in the drama of National Defense—during both peace and war.

This highly skilled service is responsible for the design, creation, supply and maintenance of both weapons and ammunition for the fighting forces.

It is their job to solve the tremendous problem today of providing modern arms for the rapidly expanding U. S. Army.

Trained men are in great demand—and thousands of young men are learning skilled trades in this work.

It is one of the most interesting of all the Arms and Services. The ordnance soldier, after sufficient training, may choose his specialty—from rifles, mortars and cannon—to the highly technical range finders, ammunition, fuses or mechanical repair and maintenance.

During time of war the ordnance is charged with ammunition supply and field repairs from mobile machine shops. There is no more thrilling or heroic work than the steady lines to the front, often braving the heaviest kind of aerial and artillery bombardment. During the last World War, there was never a time when the front lines of the A.E.F. lacked adequate arms and ammunition supplied by the field forces of the ordnance department.

The ordnance covers every arm from the small .22 rifle to the monster coast defense guns that hurl a projectile weighing more than a ton up to distances more than 25 miles. Its service ranges from government arsenals to field posts wherever the army goes—at home or to overseas possessions. Wherever possible, an ordnance soldier is permitted to choose the work or station that interests him most.

Because of the highly skilled nature of the ordnance opportunity for promotion and higher pay is unusually attractive. About fifty per cent of all ordnance personnel are graded higher than privates—and, in addition, department specialists receive extra compensation (over regular pay grade) of from $3.00 to $30.00 per month.

The ordnance maintains a field service school at Baritan Arsenal, New Jersey—where enlisted personnel who qualify may receive nine months of intensive training in the specialty chosen.

Today, with military arms teaching a greater degree of mechanization than ever before, the ordnance offers young men a remarkable chance for advancement and training, both for army careers and future civilian life.

Interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Buick Has New Steering Gear

FLINT, Mich., Sept. 20—A new steering gear, considered to represent major improvements over former types of this unit used in standard automobile practice, has been adopted for 1941 Buick models according to Charles A. Chayne, chief engineer.

Developed in cooperation with General Motors technicians specifically for Buick use, the new steering gear is designed measurably to reduce driver fatigue, improve the ease of handling and maneuvering the automobile, and for prolonged life of the unit.

According to Chayne it is regarded as an important safety factor in the new cars.

By drastically reducing the element of fatigue in driving, the new Buick steering gear also is expected to greatly reduce the possibilities of accidents due to driving fatigue. Statistics show that a considerable percentage of accidents on the open road are due to loss of caution when the driver becomes tired.

In addition to its extreme ease of operation, the new Buick steering gear, because of the sturdy nature of its construction, is expected to reduce the necessity for steering gear adjustments by two-thirds.

The new gear is known as the ball bearing worm and nut type. The steering nut rides over the worm, on a continuous stream of steel balls.

YOUR FUTURE Congressman?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

YOU'RE STICKING YOUR NECK OUT, if you try to guess whether this young chap is headed for Washington.

True, he is already exhibiting signs of future political prowess. But experience has shown that some of the least likely candidates end up with high position, while school boy orators and class officers seldom rise to national affairs.

Easier than picking a winning politico is voting for a winning oil for your motor. This is why:

Of the many oils which Phillips makes, in various grades to match varying needs of cars and pocketbooks, we have set one apart as our best.

We say unconditionally and without reservation that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

Pick a winning oil by pointing to the can marked with the Orange and Black 66 Shield, when you make the 1,000-mile change, as well as when you put in lighter oil for the winter.

Memory Of The MOON

Peter Taylor rumbled under his breath, then looked at his son and sighed. "Well, Michael, it was this way. They bargained with me. They wanted to bring the line in from Fuller's Junction. That wouldn't have touched the ranch proper and we couldn't have used the Beachport depot. So I promised, if they'd come in from the north instead, I'd give them the right of way, providing, of course, they swung the line as far south as the proposed dairy unit, and allowed us the use of the line."

"Oh," breathed Constance, and thought a moment. "How much would they have paid for right of way from the south?"

"Wouldn't run over five thousand, the way the land runs, and that wouldn't pay for the trucks we'd need, nor cover the extra handling. This way, we can shoot straight into San Francisco with the bulk of the goods. The cream can go straight to Beachport without doubling back from Fuller's Junction."

Then they hadn't been trying to "hold out" on the Cabrillos. Her face brightened, then clouded and she went over to Mr. Taylor, her hand outstretched. "I'm sorry, I felt I was justified in using your plans because you were doubling crossing me about the right of way. Now it's too late."

"Oh, that's all right, Michael," he gruffed. "We'll at least around for a couple of years and see you get your feet under you, then we'll go off somewhere, kinda like this place, though, I'm getting old, Michael, doesn't matter much about me. But the boy, here, he needs to be working for himself soon."

Military Unit To Be On Hand For Lubbock Fair
LUBBOCK—Opportunity to see for themselves the kind of army the nation is building for its defense because you will witness to the Panhandle-South Plains fair in Lubbock Sept. 30-Oct. 5.

It is a feature timed to the national defense tempo unlike any which will be seen at any fair in the state of Texas this year, so far as officials of the fair association have been able to ascertain.

Established in a model camp at the fairgrounds through the entire week will be a cross section unit of about 120 men from the famous Second Division at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio. Included will be the complete Second Division band of 56 musicians. With them, the soldiers will bring the very latest in weapons, including a 155-millimeter howitzer, a 75-mm. piece of light artillery, an 81-mm. mortar, a 37-mm. anti-tank gun, 50 and 30 caliber machine guns and some of the famous Garand automatic rifles. They also will bring with them 20 or more motorized vehicles including an army camp kitchen of the type rated the finest in the world.

Authorization for sending the unit to Lubbock was given by Maj. Gen. J. J. Breaux, commanding officer of the Eighth Corps army area, which embraces the entire southwest, and Maj. Gen. Walter Kruger, commander of the Second Division, according to information to C. E. Maedgen, fair association president. First Lieut. John D. Torrey will command the unit.

Army And Housing Features Offered On Ritz Program
Two features of more than passing interest are added attractions on the Ritz theatre's program for today and Saturday. One tells the story of army life—the experience of a recruit and is called "Service With the Colors."

The other is a Federal Housing administration release, presenting in dramatic form the easy way to go about owning a home. It is titled "Design for Happiness."

In technical, "Service With the Colors," follows the lives of four volunteers from varied stations in life, and shows how each reacts to a new way of living, according to the stuff that is in him. The picture provides a brilliant revelation of a vital phase of American life, and tells of the transforming of civilians into competent fighting men.

"Design for Happiness," narrated by Lowell Thomas, tells the story of Bob and Nancy, a young couple making only $25 a week, but desirous of a home. It takes them into the delights of the modern adventure of home ownership on a dollar a day, and shows how their achievement may be duplicated by any couple.

'Jersey Lily' Is Brought Back In 'The Westerner'

Lillian Bond as Lily Langtry in "The Westerner"

The "original glamour girl!" The most beautiful woman since Venus! The queen of fashion! Such are only a few of the titles bestowed upon the late Lily Langtry, favorite of kings and reigning star of the elegant '20's, who is being portrayed on the screen for the first time in Samuel Goldwyn's production, "The Westerner," which stars Gary Cooper and will be seen at the Ritz theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday.

To Lillian Bond, crisp young English beauty, fell the difficult honor of portraying this gorgeous "Jersey Lily," and she was not at all unmindful of the responsibility involved in the assignment. So much legend and aura of romance surrounds the "Lily" that the task of recreating her on the screen was a dangerous one. But Lillian Bond had grown used to overcoming obstacles. In the first place Lillian was raised in a convent, so all of her early training, as well as her parents' wishes, were against a stage career. By clever maneuvering, however, she convinced her parents she could act when they saw her in a Christmas pantomime at the London Hippodrome. After touring with the pantomime, she secured a part in "Piccadilly Revels," where her dancing ability stood her in good stead. Later, she appeared in London in the leading role in a C. B. Cochran Revue. In New York, she appeared in "The Scandals," "Stepping Out," "Follow Through," "The Wife's Away," "Three in One," "Springtime for Henry" and "Accent on Youth."

Income From L'stock Gains

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The agriculture department predicted today that livestock farmers would receive a larger cash income from meat animals in 1941 than in 1940 despite prospects that they will have fewer to sell. Livestock numbers on next January 1, the department said, will be between 3 and 4 per cent less than a year earlier, on an animal unit basis. A decrease in hogs, if added, will more than offset an increase in cattle. As a consequence, slaughter supplies will be smaller. With consumer demand expected to be greater than this year due to spending effects of the national defense program, prices can be expected, the department said, to average higher. The expected price increase, it added, would more than offset the reduction in supplies in determining income from livestock. The department based its predictions of smaller supplies on the fact this year's spring pig crop was 3 per cent smaller than a year earlier. Farmers curtailed breeding operations because of unfavorable hog prices at that time. The department said it expected no marked change in lamb supplies next year.

'KEEP FIT' PROGRAM PROPOSED AS PART OF DEFENSE WORK

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20 (AP)—A nation-wide program to "make America fit" took root today in a movement started by John B. Kelly, robust and ruddy chairman of the democratic party in Philadelphia, at the suggestion of President Roosevelt. Kelly, Olympic sculling champion in 1920 and 1924, wants the nation to match military preparedness with physical preparedness and "make men iron as well as armaments." As a slogan for the movement he suggested: "It's unpatriotic to be unhealthy." The democratic leader met yesterday with physicians, educators and physical culturists and named a committee to draft a "model" program for toughening up Americans. "We're not going to regiment people at all," Kelly said. "The program would be purely voluntary and non-political." In general, the idea is to prescribe programs of regular exercise for every citizen "from 15 to 60." Kelly discussed it last week with President Roosevelt.

Juarez Mayor Sees End Of Rebellion

EL PASO, Sept. 20 (AP)—Mayor Teofilo R. Borunda of Juarez said today an uprising by a group of rebels in the Chihuahua mountains was expected to be quelled by the end of the week. General Antonio A. Guerrero, commander of military operations in the Mexican state, advised Borunda an early end to this uprising by followers of Lieut. Col. Cruz Villalva was expected. Gen. Guerrero told Juarez authorities followers of Villalva already have begun deserting their leader. Gen. Guerrero left Juarez Wednesday personally to track down Villalva, who rose up in arms against the government after declaring himself "Governor Chihuahua." The rebels were reported making their way deeper into the rugged Sierra Madres to escape capture. A detachment of federal troops and reserve forces is searching the hills south of Monsova where the rebels were reported heading.
